GENESIS

¹In the beginning God created the heauen and the earth. ²And the earth was without forme and void, and darkenesse was vpon the deepe, and the Spirit of God mooued vpon the waters. ³Then God said, Let there be light: And there was light. ⁴And God saw the light that it was good, and God separated the light from the darkenes. ⁵And God called the Light, Day, and the darkenes, he called Night. So the euening and the morning were the first day. ⁶Againe God said, Let there be a firmament in the mids of the waters: and let it separate the waters from the waters. ⁷Then God made the firmament, and separated the waters, which were vnder the firmament, from the waters which were aboue the firmament: and it was so. ⁸And God called the firmament Heauen. So the Euening and the morning were the second day. ⁹God said againe, Let the waters vnder the heauen be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appeare. and it was so. ¹⁰And God called the dry land, Earth, and he called the gathering together of the waters, Seas: and God saw that it was good. ¹¹Then God said, Let the earth bud forth the bud of the herbe, that seedeth seed, the fruitfull tree, which beareth fruite according to his kinde, which hath his seede in it selfe vpon the earth: and it was so. ¹²And the earth brought foorth the bud of the herbe, that seedeth seede according to his kind, also the tree that beareth fruit, which hath his seed in it selfe according to his kinde: and God saw that it was good. ¹³So the euening and the morning were the third day. ¹⁴And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heauen, to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signes, and for seasons, and for dayes and yeeres. ¹⁵And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heauen to giue light vpon the earth: and it was so. ¹⁶God then made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesse light to rule the night: he made also the starres.

¹⁷And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shine vpon the earth, ¹⁸And to rule in the day, and in the night, and to separate the light from the darkenesse: and God saw that it was good. ¹⁹So the euening and the morning were the fourth day. ²⁰Afterward God said, Let the waters bring foorth in abundance euery creeping thing that hath life: and let the foule flie vpon the earth in the open firmament of the heauen. ²¹Then God created the great whales, and euery thing liuing and mouing, which the waters brought foorth in abundance according to their kinde, and euery fethered foule according to his kinde: and God sawe that it was good. ²²Then God blessed them, saying, Bring foorth fruite and multiplie, and fill the waters in the seas, and let the foule multiplie in the earth. ²³So the euening and the morning were the fifte day. ²⁴Moreouer God said, Let the earth bring foorth the liuing thing according to his kinde, cattel, and that which creepeth, and the beast of the earth, according to his kinde. and it was so. ²⁵And God made the beast of the earth according to his kinde, and the cattell according to his kinde, and euery creeping thing of the earth according to his kind: and God saw that it was good. ²⁶Furthermore God said, Let vs make man in our image according to our likenes, and let them rule ouer the fish of the sea, and ouer the foule of the heauen, and ouer the beastes, and ouer all the earth, and ouer euery thing that creepeth and moueth on the earth. ²⁷Thus God created the man in his image: in the image of God created he him: he created them male and female. ²⁸And God blessed them, and God said to them, Bring forth fruite and multiplie, and fill the earth, and subdue it, and rule ouer the fish of the sea, and ouer the foule of the heauen, and ouer euery beast that moueth vpon the earth. ²⁹And God said, Beholde, I haue giuen vnto you euery herbe bearing seede, which is vpon al the earth, and euery tree, wherein is the fruite of a tree bearing seede: that shall be to you for meate. ³⁰Likewise to euery beast of the earth, and to euery foule of the heauen, and to euery thing that moueth vpon the earth, which hath life in it selfe, euery greene herbe shall be for meate. and it was so. ³¹And God sawe all that he had made, and loe, it was very good. So the euening and the morning were the sixt day.

¹Thus the heauens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. ²For in the seuenth day GOD ended his worke which he had made, and the seuenth day he rested from al his worke, which he had made. ³So God blessed the seuenth day, and sanctified it, because that in it he had rested from all his worke, which God had created and made. ⁴These are the generations of the heauens and of the earth, when they were created, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heauens, ⁵And euery plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and euery herbe of the field, before it grewe: for the Lord God had not caused it to raine vpon the earth, neither was there a man to till the ground, ⁶But a myst went vp from the earth, and watered all the earth. ⁷The Lord God also made the man of the dust of the ground, and breathed in his face breath of life, and the man was a liuing soule. ⁸And the Lord God planted a garden Eastward in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had made. ⁹(For out of the ground made the Lord God to grow euery tree pleasant to the sight, and good for meate: the tree of life also in the mids of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and of euill. ¹⁰And out of Eden went a riuier to water the garden, and from thence it was deuided, and became into foure heads. ¹¹The name of one is Pishon: the same compasseth the whole land of Hauilah, where is golde. ¹²And the golde of that land is good: there is Bdelium, and the Onix stone. ¹³And the name of the seconde riuier is Gihon: the same compasseth the whole lande of Cush. ¹⁴The name also of the third riuier is Hiddekel: this goeth toward the Eastside of Asshur: and the fourth riuier is Perath) ¹⁵Then the Lord God tooke the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he might dresse it and keepe it. ¹⁶And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Thou shalt eate freely of euerie tree of the garden, ¹⁷But of the tree of knowledge of good and euill, thou shalt not eate of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt die the death. ¹⁸Also the Lord God saide, It is not good that the man should be himself alone: I wil make him an helpe meete for him.

¹⁹So the Lord God formed of the earth euerie beast of the fiede, and euerie foule of the heauen, and brought them vnto the man to see howe he would call them: for howsoever the man named the liuing creature, so was the name thereof. ²⁰The man therefore gaue names vnto all cattell, and to the foule of the heauen, and to euerie beast of the fiede: but for Adam founde he not an helpe meete for him. ²¹Therefore the Lord God caused an heauie sleepe to fall vpon the man, and he slept: and he tooke one of his ribbes, and closed vp the flesh in steade thereof. ²²And the ribbe which the Lord God had taken from the man, made he a woman, and brought her to the man. ²³Then the man said, This now is bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She shalbe called woman, because she was taken out of man. ²⁴Therefore shall man leaue his father and his mother, and shall cleaue to his wife, and they shall be one flesh. ²⁵And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

¹Now the serpent was more subtile then any beast of the fiede, which the Lord God had made: and he said to the woman, Yea, hath God in deede said, Ye shall not eate of euerie tree of the garden? ²And the woman said vnto the serpent, We eate of the fruite of the trees of the garden, ³But of the fruite of the tree which is in the middes of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eate of it, neither shall ye touche it, lest ye die. ⁴Then the serpent said to the woman, Ye shall not die at all, ⁵But God doeth knowe, that when ye shall eate thereof, your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and euill. ⁶So the woman (seeing that the tree was good for meate, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to get knowledge) tooke of the fruite thereof, and did eate, and gaue also to her husband with her, and he did eate. ⁷Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they knewe that they were naked, and they sewed figge tree leaues together, and made them selues breeches. ⁸Afterward they heard the voyce of the Lord God walking in the garden in the coole of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselues from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. ⁹But the Lord God called to the man, and said vnto him, Where art thou? ¹⁰Who saide, I heard thy voyce in the garden, and was afraide: because I was naked, therefore I hid my selfe. ¹¹And he saide, Who tolde thee, that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eate? ¹²Then the man saide, The woman which thou gauest to be with me, she gaue me of the tree, and I did eate. ¹³And the Lord God saide to the woman, Why hast thou done this? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eate. ¹⁴Then the Lord God said to the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed aboue all cattell, and aboue euery beast of the fielde: vpon thy belly shalt thou goe, and dust shalt thou eate all the dayes of thy life. ¹⁵I will also put enimitie betweene thee and the woman, and betweene thy seede and her seede. He shall breake thine head, and thou shalt bruise his heele. ¹⁶Vnto the woman he said, I will greatly increase thy sorowes, and thy conceptions. In sorowe shalt thou bring foorth children, and thy desire shalbe subiect to thine husband, and he shall rule ouer thee. ¹⁷Also to Adam he said, Because thou hast obeyed the voyce of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, (whereof I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eate of it) cursed is the earth for thy sake: in sorowe shalt thou eate of it all the dayes of thy life. ¹⁸Thornes also, and thistles shall it bring foorth to thee, and thou shalt eate the herbe of the field. ¹⁹In the sweate of thy face shalt thou eate bread, till thou returne to the earth: for out of it wast thou taken, because thou art dust, and to dust shalt thou returne. ²⁰(And the man called his wiues name Heuah, because she was the mother of all liuing) ²¹Vnto Adam also and to his wife did the Lord God make coates of skinnes, and clothed them. ²²And the Lord God said, Beholde, the man is become as one of vs, to knowe good and euill. And now lest he put forth his hand, and take also of ye tree of life and eate and liue for euer, ²³Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till ye earth, whence he was taken.

²⁴Thus he cast out man, and at the East side of the garden of Eden he set the Cherubims, and the blade of a sworde shaken, to keepe the way of the tree of life.

¹Afterward the man knew Heuah his wife, which conceiued and bare Kain, and said, I haue obtained a man by the Lord. ²And againe she brought forth his brother Habel, and Habel was a keeper of sheepe, and Kain was a tiller of the ground. ³And in processe of time it came to passe, that Kain brought an oblation vnto the Lord of the fruite of the ground. ⁴And Habel also him selfe brought of the first frutes of his sheepe, and of the fat of them, and the Lord had respect vnto Habel, and to his offering, ⁵But vnto Kain and to his offering he had no regarde: wherefore Kain was exceeding wroth, and his countenance fell downe. ⁶Then ye Lord said vnto Kain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance cast downe? ⁷If thou do well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sinne lieth at the doore: also vnto thee his desire shalbe subiect, and thou shalt rule ouer him. ⁸Then Kain spake to Habel his brother. And when they were in the field, Kain rose vp against Habel his brother, and slewe him.

⁹Then the Lord said vnto Kain, Where is Habel thy brother? Who answered, I cannot tell. Am I my brothers keeper? ¹⁰Again he said, What hast thou done? the voyce of thy brothers blood cryeth vnto me from the earth. ¹¹Now therefore thou art cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receiue thy brothers blood from thine hand. ¹²When thou shalt till the ground, it shall not henceforth yeelde vnto thee her strength: a vagabond and a runnagate shalt thou be in the earth. ¹³Then Kain said to the Lord, My punishment is greater, then I can beare. ¹⁴Behold, thou hast cast me out this day from the earth, and from thy face shall I be hid, and shalbe a vagabond, and a runnagate in the earth, and whosoever findeth me, shall slay me. ¹⁵Then the Lord said vnto him, Doubtlesse whosoever slayeth Kain, he shalbe punished seue folde. And the Lord set a marke vpon Kain, lest any man finding him should kill him. ¹⁶Then Kain went out from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod toward the Eastside of Eden. ¹⁷Kain also knewe his wife, which conceived and bare Henoah: and he built a citie, and called the name of the citie by ye name of his sonne, Henoah. ¹⁸And to Henoah was borne Irad, and Irad begate Mehuiael, and Mehuiael begate Methushael, and Methushael begate Lamech. ¹⁹And Lamech tooke him two wiues: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah. ²⁰And Adah bare Iabal, who was the father of such as dwell in the tents, and of such as haue cattell. ²¹And his brothers name was Iubal, who was the father of all that play on the harpe and organes. ²²And Zillah also bare Tubal-kain, who wrought cunningly euery craft of brasse and of yron: and the sister of Tubal-kain was Naamah. ²³Then Lamech saide vnto his wiues Adah and Zillah, Heare my voyce, ye wiues of Lamech: hearken vnto my speach: for I would slay a man in my wound, and a yong man in mine hurt. ²⁴If Kain shalbe auenged seuen folde, truly Lamech, seuentie times seuen folde. ²⁵And Adam knewe his wife againe, and she bare a sonne, and she called his name Sheth: for God, saide she, hath appointed me another seede for Habel, because Kain slewe him.

²⁶And to ye same Sheth also there was borne a sonne, and he called his name Enosh. Then beganne men to call vpon the name of the Lord.

¹This is the booke of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created Adam, in the likenes of God made he him, ²Male and female created he them, and blessed them, and called their name Adam in the day that they were created. ³Nowe Adam liued an hundred and thirtie yeeres, and begate a childe in his owne likenes after his image, and called his name Sheth. ⁴And the dayes of Adam, after he had begotten Sheth, were eight hundreth yeeres, and he begate sonnes and daughters. ⁵So all the dayes that Adam liued, were nine hundreth and thirtie yeeres: and he died. ⁶And Sheth liued an hundreth and fiue yeeres, and begate Enosh. ⁷And Sheth liued, after he begate Enosh, eight hundreth and seuen yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ⁸So all the dayes of Sheth were nine hundreth and twelue yeeres: and he died. ⁹Also Enosh liued ninetie yeeres, and begate Kenan. ¹⁰And Enosh liued, after he begate Kenan, eight hundreth and fifteene yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ¹¹So all the dayes of Enosh were nine hundreth and fiue yeeres: and he died. ¹²Likewise Kenan liued seuentie yeeres, and begate Mahalaleel. ¹³And Kenan liued, after he begate Mahalaleel, eight hundreth and fourtie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ¹⁴So all the dayes of Kenan were nine hundreth and tenne yeeres: and he died. ¹⁵Mahalaleel also liued sixtie and fiue yeres, and begate Iered. ¹⁶Also Mahalaleel liued, after he begate Iered, eight hundreth and thirtie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ¹⁷So all the dayes of Mahalaleel were eight hundreth ninetie and fiue yeeres: and he died. ¹⁸And Iered liued an hundreth sixtie and two yeeres, and begate Henoch. ¹⁹Then Iered liued, after he begate Henoch, eight hundreth yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ²⁰So all the dayes of Iered were nine hundreth sixtie and two yeeres: and he died. ²¹Also Henoch liued sixtie and fiue yeeres, and begate Methushelah. ²²And Henoch walked with God, after he begate Methushelah, three hundreth yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ²³So all the dayes of Henoch were three hundreth sixtie and fiue yeeres. ²⁴And Henoch walked with God, and he was no more seene: for God tooke him away. ²⁵Methushelah also liued an hundreth eightie and seuen yeeres, and begate Lamech. ²⁶And Methushelah liued, after he begate Lamech, seuen hundreth eightie and two yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ²⁷So al the dayes of Methushelah were nine hundreth sixtie and nine yeeres: and he died. ²⁸Then Lamech liued an hundreth eightie and two yeeres, and begate a sonne, ²⁹And called his name Noah, saying, This same shall comfort vs concerning our worke and sorowe of our hands, as touching the earth, which the Lord hath cursed. ³⁰And Lamech liued, after he begate Noah, fiue hundreth ninetie and fiue yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ³¹So all the dayes of Lamech were seuen hundreth seuentie and seuen yeeres: and he died. ³²And Noah was fiue hundreth yeere olde. And Noah begate Shem, Ham and Iapheth.

¹So when men began to be multiplied vpon the earth, and there were daughters borne vnto them, ²Then the sonnes of God sawe the daughters of men that they were faire, and they tooke them wiues of all that they liked. ³Therefore the Lord saide, My Spirit shall not alway striue with man, because he is but flesh, and his dayes shalbe an hundreth and twentie yeeres. ⁴There were gyants in the earth in those dayes: yea, and after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of men, and they had borne them children, these were mightie men, which in olde time were men of renoume. ⁵When the Lord sawe that the wickednesse of man was great in the earth, and all the imaginations of the thoughtes of his heart were onely euill continually, ⁶Then it repented ye

Lord, that he had made man in the earth, and he was sorie in his heart. ⁷Therefore ye Lord said, I will destroy from the earth the man, whom I haue created, from man to beast, to the creeping thing, and to the foule of the heauen: for I repent that I haue made them. ⁸But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord. ⁹These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a iust and vpright man in his time: and Noah walked with God. ¹⁰And Noah begate three sonnes, Shem, Ham and Iapheth. ¹¹The earth also was corrupt before God: for the earth was filled with crueltie. ¹²Then God looked vpon the earth, and beholde, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupt his way vpon the earth. ¹³And God said vnto Noah, An ende of all flesh is come before me: for the earth is filled with crueltie through them: and beholde, I wil destroy them with the earth. ¹⁴Make thee an Arke of pine trees: thou shalt make cabines in the Arke, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch. ¹⁵And thus shalt thou make it: The length of the Arke shalbe three hundreth cubites, the breadth of it fiftie cubites, and the height of it thirtie cubites. ¹⁶A windowe shalt thou make in the Arke, and in a cubite shalt thou finish it aboue, and the doore of the Arke shalt thou set in the side thereof: thou shalt make it with the lowe, seconde and third rounge. ¹⁷And I, beholde, I will bring a flood of waters vpon the earth to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life vnder the heauen: all that is in the earth shall perish. ¹⁸But with thee will I establish my couenant, and thou shalt goe into the Arke, thou, and thy sonnes, and thy wife, and thy sonnes wiues with thee. ¹⁹And of euery liuing thing, of all flesh two of euery sort shalt thou cause to come into the Arke, to keepe them alieue with thee: they shalbe male and female. ²⁰Of the foules, after their kinde, and of the cattell after their kind, of euery creeping thing of the earth after his kinde, two of euery sort shall come vnto thee, that thou mayest keepe them alieue. ²¹And take thou with thee of all meate that is eaten: and thou shalt gather it to thee, that it may be meate for thee and for them. ²²Noah therefore did according vnto all, that God commanded him: euen so did he.

¹And the Lord said vnto Noah, Enter thou and all thine house into the Arke: for thee haue I seene righteous before me in this age. ²Of euery cleane beast thou shalt take to thee by seuens, the male and his female: but of vncleane bestes by couples, the male and his female. ³Of the foules also of the heauen by seuens, male and female, to keepe seede alieue vpon the whole earth. ⁴For seuen dayes hence I will cause it raine vpon the earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes, and all the substance that I haue made, will I destroy from off the earth. ⁵Noah therefore did according vnto all that the Lord commanded him. ⁶And Noah was sixe hundreth yeeres olde, when the flood of waters was vpon the earth. ⁷So Noah entred and his sonnes, and his wife, and his sonnes wiues with him into the Arke, because of the waters of the flood. ⁸Of the cleane bestes, and of the vncleane bestes, and of the foules, and of all that creepeth vpon the earth, ⁹There came two and two vnto Noah into the Arke, male and female, as God had commanded Noah. ¹⁰And so after seuen dayes the waters of the flood were vpon the earth. ¹¹In the sixe hundreth yeere of Noahs life in the second moneth, the seuetenth day of the moneth, in the same day were all the fountaines of the great deepe broken vp, and the windowes of heauen were opened, ¹²And the raine was vpon the earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes. ¹³In the selfe same day entred Noah with Shem, and Ham and Iapheth, the sonnes of Noah, and Noahs wife, and the three wiues of his sonnes with them into the Arke. ¹⁴They and euery beast after his kinde, and all cattell after their kinde, and euery thing that creepeth and moueth vpon the earth after his kinde, and euery foule after his kinde, euen euery bird of euery fether. ¹⁵For they came to Noah into ye Arke, two and two, of all flesh wherein is ye breath of life.

¹⁶And they entring in, came male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the Lord shut him in. ¹⁷Then ye flood was fourtie dayes vpon the earth, and the waters were increased, and bare vp the Arke, which was lift vp aboue the earth. ¹⁸The waters also waxed strong, and were increased exceedingly vpon the earth, and the Arke went vpon the waters. ¹⁹The waters preuailed so exceedingly vpon the earth, that all the high mountaines, that are vnder the whole heauen, were couered. ²⁰Fifteene cubites vpwarde did the waters preuaile, when the mountaines were couered. ²¹Then all flesh perished that moued vpon the earth, both foule and cattell and beast, and euery thing that creepeth and moueth vpon the earth, and euery man. ²²Euery thing in whose nostrels the spirit of life did breathe, whatsoever they were in the drie land, they died. ²³So he destroyed euery thing that was vpon the earth, from man to beast, to ye creeping thing, and to the foule of the heauen: they were euen destroyed from the earth.

And Noah onely remained; and they that were with him in ye Arke. ²⁴And the waters preuailed vpon the earth an hundreth and fiftie dayes.

¹Now God remembred Noah and euery beast, and all the cattell that was with him in the Arke: therefore God made a winde to passe vpon the earth, and the waters ceased. ²The fountaines also of the deepe and the windowes of heauen were stopped and the raine from heauen was restrained, ³And the waters returned from aboue the earth, going and returning: and after the ende of the hundreth and fiftieth day the waters abated. ⁴And in the seuenth moneth, in the seunteenth day of the moneth, the Arke rested vpon the mountaines of Ararat. ⁵And the waters were going and decreasing vntill the tenth moneth: in the tenth moneth, and in the first day of the moneth were the toppes of the mountaines scene. ⁶So after fourtie dayes, Noah opened the windowe of the Arke, which he had made, ⁷And sent forth a rauen, which went out going forth and returning, vntill the waters were dried vp vpon the earth. ⁸Againe he sent a doue from him, that he might see if the waters were diminished from off the earth. ⁹But the doue found no rest for the sole of her foote: therefore she returned vnto him into the Arke (for the waters were vpon the whole earth) and he put forth his hand, and receiued her, and tooke her to him into the Arke. ¹⁰And he abode yet other seuen dayes, and againe he sent forth the doue out of the Arke. ¹¹And the doue came to him in ye euening, and loe, in her mouth was an oliue leafe that she had pluckt: whereby Noah knewe that the waters were abated from off the earth. ¹²Notwithstanding he wayted yet other seuen dayes, and sent forth the doue, which returned not againe vnto him any more. ¹³And in the sixe hundreth and one yeere, in the first day of the first moneth the waters were dried vp from off the earth: and Noah remoued the couering of the Arke and looked, and beholde, the vpper part of the ground was drie. ¹⁴And in the second moneth, in the seuen and twentieth day of the moneth was the earth drie. ¹⁵Then God spake to Noah, saying, ¹⁶Goe forth of the Arke, thou and thy wife, and thy sonnes and thy sonnes wiues with thee. ¹⁷Bring forth with thee euery beast that is with thee, of all flesh, both foule and cattell, and euery thing that creepeth and moueth vpon the earth, that they may breede abundantly in ye earth, and bring forth fruite and increase vpon ye earth. ¹⁸So Noah came forth, and his sonnes, and his wife, and his sonnes wiues with him. ¹⁹Euery beast, euery creeping thing, and euery foule, all that moueth vpon the earth after their kindes went out of the Arke. ²⁰Then Noah built an altar to the Lord and tooke of euery cleane beast, and of euery cleane foule, and offered burnt offerings vpon the altar. ²¹And the Lord smelled a sauour of rest, and the Lord said in his heart, I will hencefoorth curse the ground no more for mans cause: for the imagination of mans heart is euill, euen from his youth: neither will I smite any more all things liuing, as I haue done. ²²Hereafter seede time and haruest, and colde and heate, and sommer and winter, and day and night shall not cease, so long as ye earth remaineth.

¹And God blessed Noah and his sonnes, and said to them, Bring forth fruite, and multiplie, and replenish the earth. ²Also the feare of you, and the dread of you shalbe vpon euery beast of the earth, and vpon euery foule of the heauen, vpon all that moueth on the earth, and vpon all the fishes of the sea: into your hand are they deliuered. ³Euery thing that moueth and liueth, shall be meate for you: as the greene herbe, haue I giuen you all things. ⁴But flesh with the life thereof, I meane, with the blood thereof, shall ye not eate. ⁵For surely I will require your blood, wherein your liues are: at the hand of euery beast will I require it: and at the hand of man, euen at the hand of a mans brother will I require the life of man. ⁶Who so sheadeth mans blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God hath he made man. ⁷But bring ye forth fruite and multiplie: grow plentifully in the earth, and increase therein. ⁸God spake also to Noah and to his sonnes with him, saying, ⁹Behold, I, euen I establish my couenant with you, and with your seede after you, ¹⁰And with euery liuing creature that is with you, with the foule, with the cattell, and with euery beast of the earth with you, from all that goe out of the Arke, vnto euery beast of the earth. ¹¹And my couenant will I establish with you, that from henceforth all flesh shall not be rooted out by ye waters of the flood, neither shall there be a flood to destroy the earth any more. ¹²Then God saide, This is the token of the couenant which I make betweene me and you, and betweene euery liuing thing, that is with you vnto perpetuall generations. ¹³I haue set my bowe in the cloude, and it shalbe for a signe of the couenant betweene me and the earth. ¹⁴And when I shall couer the earth with a cloud, and the bowe shall be seene in the cloude, ¹⁵Then will I remember my couenant, which is betweene me and you, and betweene euery living thing in all flesh, and there shalbe no more waters of a flood to destroy all flesh. ¹⁶Therefore the bowe shalbe in the cloude, that I may see it, and remember the euerlasting couenant betweene God, and euery living thing in all flesh that is vpon the earth. ¹⁷God said yet to Noah, This is the signe of the couenant, which I haue established betweene me and all flesh that is vpon the earth. ¹⁸Nowe the sonnes of Noah going foorth of the Arke, were Shem and Ham and Iapheth. And Ham is the father of Canaan. ¹⁹These are the three sonnes of Noah, and of them was the whole earth ouerspred. ²⁰Noah also began to be an husband man and planted a vineyard. ²¹And he drunke of ye wine and was drunken, and was vncouered in the middes of his tent. ²²And when Ham the father of Canaan sawe the nakednesse of his father, he tolde his two brethren without. ²³Then tooke Shem and Iapheth a garment, and put it vpon both their shoulders, and went backward, and couered the nakednesse of their father with their faces backward: so they sawe not their fathers nakednesse. ²⁴Then Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his yonger sonne had done vnto him, ²⁵And said, Cursed be Canaan: a seruant of seruants shall he be vnto his brethren. ²⁶He said moreouer, blessed be the Lord God of Shem, and let Canaan be his seruant. ²⁷God perswade Iapheth, that he may dwell in the tentes of Shem, and let Canaan be his seruant. ²⁸And Noah liued after the flood three hundreth and fiftie yeeres. ²⁹So all the dayes of Noah were nine hundreth and fiftie yeeres: and he died.

¹Now these are the generations of the sonnes of Noah, Shem, Ham and Iapheth: vnto whom sonnes were borne after the flood. ²The sonnes of Iapheth were Gomer and Magog, and Madai, and Iauan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras. ³And the sonnes of Gomer, Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah. ⁴Also the sonnes of Iauan, Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. ⁵Of these were the yles of the Gentiles deuised in their landes, euery man after his tongue, and after their families in their nations. ⁶Moreouer, ye sonnes of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, and Canaan. ⁷And the sonnes of Cush, Seba and Hauilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtecha: also the sonnes of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan. ⁸And Cush begate Nimrod, who began to be mightie in the earth. ⁹He was a mightie hunter before the Lord. wherefore it is saide, As Nimrod the mightie hunter before the Lord. ¹⁰And the beginning of his kingdome was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. ¹¹Out of that land came Asshur, and builded Niniueh, and the citie Rehoboth, and Calah: ¹²Resen also betweene Niniueh and Calah: this is a great citie. ¹³And Mizraim begate Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim. ¹⁴Pathrusim also, and Casluhim (out of whom came the Philistims) and Caphtorims. ¹⁵Also Canaan begat Zidon his first borne, and Heth, ¹⁶And Iebusi, and Emori, and Girgashi, ¹⁷And Hiui, and Arki, and Sini, ¹⁸And Aruadi, and Zemari, and Hamathi: and afterwarde were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad. ¹⁹Then the border of the Canaanites was from Zidon, as thou comest to Gerar vntil Azzah, and as thou goest vnto Sodom, and Gomorah, and Admah, and Zeboijm, euen vnto Lasha. ²⁰These are the sonnes of Ham according to their families, according to their tongues in their countries and in their nations. ²¹Vnto Shem also the father of all the sonnes of Eber, and elder brother of Iapheth were children borne. ²²The sonnes of Shem were Elam and Asshur, and Arpachshad, and Lud, and Aram. ²³And the sonnes of Aram, Vz and Hul, and Gether and Mash. ²⁴Also Arpachshad begate Shelah, and Shelah begate Eber. ²⁵Vnto Eber also were borne two sonnes: the name of the one was Peleg: for in his dayes was the earth diuided: and his brothers name was Ioktan. ²⁶Then Ioktan begate Almodad and Sheleph, and Hazarmaueth, and Ierah, ²⁷And Hadoram, and Vzal, and Dicklah, ²⁸And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba, ²⁹And Ophir, and Haulah, and Iobab: all these were the sonnes of Ioktan. ³⁰And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest vnto Sephar a mount of the East. ³¹These are the sonnes of Shem according to their families, according to their tongues, in their countreis and nations. ³²These are the families of the sonnes of Noah, after their generations among their people: and out of these were the nations diuided in the earth after the flood.

¹Then the whole earth was of one language and one speache. ²And as they went from the East, they found a plaine in the land of Shinar, and there they abode. ³And they said one to another, Come, let vs make bricke, and burne it in the fire. So they had bricke for stone, and slime had they in steade of morter. ⁴Also they said, Goe to, let vs bulde vs a citie and a towre, whose top may reache vnto the heauen, that we may get vs a name, lest we be scattered vpon the whole earth. ⁵But the Lord came downe, to see the citie and towre, which the sonnes of men builded. ⁶And the Lord said, Beholde, the people is one, and they all haue one language, and this they begin to doe, neither can they now be stopped from whatsoever they haue imagined to do. ⁷Come on, let vs goe downe, and there confound their language, that euery one perceiue not anothers speache. ⁸So ye Lord scattered them from thence vpon all the earth, and they left off to build the citie. ⁹Therefore the name of it was called Babel, because the Lord did there confounde the language of all the earth: from thence then did the Lord scatter them vpon all the earth. ¹⁰These are the generations of Shem: Shem was an hundreth yeere olde, and begate Arpachshad two yeere after the flood. ¹¹And Shem liued, after he begate Arpachshad, fiue hundreth yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ¹²Also Arpachshad liued fiue and thirtie yeeres, and begate Shelah. ¹³And Arpachshad liued, after he begate Shelah, foure hundreth and three yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ¹⁴And Shelah liued thirtie yeeres, and begat Eber. ¹⁵So Shelah liued, after he begat Eber, foure hundreth and three yeeres, and begat sonnes and daughters. ¹⁶Likewise Eber liued foure and thirtie yeres, and begate Peleg. ¹⁷So Eber liued, after he begate Peleg, foure hundreth and thirtie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ¹⁸And Peleg liued thirtie yeeres, and begate Reu. ¹⁹And Peleg liued, after he begate Reu, two hundreth and nine yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ²⁰Also Reu liued two and thirtie yeeres, and begate Serug. ²¹So Reu liued, after he begate Serug, two hundreth and seuen yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ²²Moreouer Serug liued thirtie yeeres, and begate Nahor. ²³And Serug liued, after he begate Nahor, two hundreth yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. ²⁴And Nahor liued nine and twentie yeeres, and begate Terah. ²⁵So Nahor liued, after he begate Terah, an hundreth and nineteene yeeres, and begat sonnes and daughters. ²⁶So Terah liued seuentie yeeres, and begate Abram, Nahor, and Haran. ²⁷Nowe these are the generations of Terah: Terah begate Abram, Nahor, and Haran: and Haran begate Lot. ²⁸Then Haran died before Terah his father in the land of his natiuitie, in Vr of the Caldees. ²⁹So Abram and Nahor tooke them wiues. The name of Abrams wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahors wife Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah. ³⁰But Sarai was barren, and had no childe. ³¹Then Terah tooke Abram his sonne, and Lot the sonne of Haran, his sonnes sonne, and Sarai his daughter in lawe, his sonne Abrams wife: and they departed together from Vr of the Caldees, to goe into the land of Canaan, and they came to Haran, and dwelt there. ³²So the dayes of Terah were two hundreth and fiue yeeres, and Terah died in Haran.

¹For the Lord had said vnto Abram, Get thee out of thy countrey, and from thy kindred, and from thy fathers house vnto the land that I will shewe thee.

¹²And I will make of thee a great nation, and will blesse thee, and make thy name great, and thou shalt be a blessing. ³I will also blesse them that blesse thee, and curse them that curse thee, and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. ⁴So Abram departed, euen as ye Lord spake vnto him, and Lot went with him. (And Abram was seuentie and fiue yeere olde, when he departed out of Haran) ⁵Then Abram tooke Sarai his wife, and Lot his brothers sonne, and all their substance that they possessed, and the soules that they had gotten in Haran, and they departed, to goe to the land of Canaan: and to the land of Canaan they came. ⁶So Abram passed through the land vnto the place of Shechem, and vnto the plaine of Moreh (and the Canaanite was then in ye land)

⁷And the Lord appeared vnto Abram, and said, Vnto thy seede will I giue this land. And there builded he an altar vnto the Lord, which appeared vnto him.

⁸Afterward remouing thence vnto a moutaine Eastward from Beth-el, he pitched his tent hauing Beth-el on the Westside, and Haai on the East: and there he built an altar vnto the Lord, and called on the Name of the Lord. ⁹Againe Abram went forth going and iourneying toward the South.

¹⁰Then there came a famine in the land: therefore Abram went downe into Egypt to sojourne there: for there was a great famine in the lande. ¹¹And when he drewe neere to enter into Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, Beholde now, I know that thou art a faire woman to looke vpon:

¹²Therefore it will come to passe, that when the Egyptians see thee, they will say, She is his wife: so will they kill me, but they will keepe thee aliue. ¹³Say, I pray thee, that thou art my sister, that I may fare well for thy sake, and that my life may be preserued by thee. ¹⁴Nowe when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians behelde the woman: for she was very faire. ¹⁵And the Princes of Pharaoh sawe her, and commended her vnto Pharaoh: so the woman was taken into Pharaohs house: ¹⁶Who intreated Abram well for her sake, and he had sheepe, and beeues, and hee asses, and men seruants and maide seruants, and shee asses, and camelles. ¹⁷But the Lord plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abrams wife. ¹⁸Then Pharaoh called Abram, and saide, Why hast thou done this vnto me? Wherefore diddest thou not tell me, that she was thy wife? ¹⁹Why saidest thou, She is my sister, that I should take her to be my wife? Nowe therefore beholde thy wife, take her and goe thy way. ²⁰And Pharaoh gaue men commandement concerning him: and they conueyed him forth, and his wife, and all that he had.

¹Then Abram went vp from Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him toward the South. ²And Abram was very rich in cattell, in siluer and in golde. ³And he went on his iourney from ye South toward Beth-el, to the place where his tent had bene at ye beginning, betweene Beth-el and Haai, ⁴Vnto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the Name of the Lord. ⁵And Lot also, who went with Abram, had sheepe, and cattell and tentes, ⁶So that the land coulde not beare them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they coulde not dwell together. ⁷Also there was debate betweene ye heardmen of Abrams cattell, and the heardmen of Lots cattell. (and the Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelled at that time in the land.) ⁸Then saide Abram vnto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, betweene thee and me, neither betweene mine heardmen and thine heardmen: for we be brethren. ⁹Is not the whole land before thee? depart I pray thee from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will goe to the right: or if thou goe to the right hand, then I will take the left. ¹⁰So when Lot lifted vp his eyes, he saw that all the plaine of Iorden was watered euery where: (for before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorah, it was as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou goest vnto Zoar) ¹¹Then Lot chose vnto him all the plaine of Iorden, and tooke his iourney from the East: and they departed the one from the other. ¹²Abram dwelled in the lande of Canaan, and Lot abode in the cities of the plaine, and pitched his tent euen to Sodom. ¹³Now the men of Sodom were wicked and exceeding sinners against the Lord. ¹⁴Then the Lord saide vnto Abram, (after that Lot was departed from him) Lift vp thine eyes nowe, and looke from the place where thou art, Northward, and Southward, and Eastwarde, and Westward: ¹⁵For all the land, which thou seest, will I giue vnto thee and to thy seede for euer, ¹⁶And I will make thy seede, as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seede be numbred. ¹⁷Arise, walke through the land, in ye length thereof, and breadth thereof: for I will giue it vnto thee. ¹⁸Then Abram remoued his tent, and came and dwelled in the plaine of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and builded there an altar vnto ye Lord.

¹And in the dayes of Amraphel King of Shinar, Arioch King of Ellasar, Chedor-laomer King of Elam, and Tidal king of the nations: ²These men made warre with Bera King of Sodom, and with Birsha King of Gomorah, Shinab King of Admah, and Shemeber King of Zeboiim, and the King of Bela, which is Zoar. ³All these ioyned together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt Sea. ⁴Twelue yeere were they subiect to Chedor-laomer, but in the thirteenth yeere they rebelled. ⁵And in the fourteenth yeere came Chedor-laomer, and the Kings that were with him, and smote the Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in Shaueh

Kiriathaim, ⁶And the Horites in their mount Seir, vnto the plaine of Paran, which is by the wildernesse. ⁷And they returned and came to En-mishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the countrey of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites that dwelled in Hazezon-tamar. ⁸Then went out the King of Sodom, and the King of Gomorah, and the King of Admah, and the King of Zeboiim, and the King of Bela, which is Zoar: and they ioyned battell with them in the vale of Siddim: ⁹To wit, with Chedor-laomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar: foure Kings against foue. ¹⁰Now the vale of Siddim was full of slime pits, and the Kings of Sodom and Gomorah fled and fell there: and ye residue fled to the mountaine. ¹¹Then they tooke all the substance of Sodom and Gomorah, and al their vitales and went their way. ¹²They tooke Lot also Abrams brothers sonne and his substance (for he dwelt at Sodom) and departed. ¹³Then came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Ebrew, which dwelt in the plaine of Mamre ye Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner, which were confederat with Abram. ¹⁴When Abram heard that his brother was taken, he brought forth of them that were borne and brought vp in his house, three hundreth and eightene, and pursued them vnto Dan. ¹⁵Then he, and his seruants deuided them selues against them by night, and smote them and pursued them vnto Hobah, which is on the left side of Damascus, ¹⁶And he recouered all the substance, and also brought againe his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also and the people. ¹⁷After that he returned from the slaughter of Chedor-laomer, and of the Kings that were with him, came the King of Sodom foorth to meete him in the valley of Shaueh, which is the Kings dale. ¹⁸And Melchizedek King of Shalem brought foorth bread and wine: and he was a Priest of the most high God. ¹⁹Therefore he blessed him, saying, Blessed art thou, Abram, of God most high possessour of heauen and earth, ²⁰And blessed be the most high God, which hath deliuered thine enemies into thine hand. And Abram gaue him tythe of all. ²¹Then the King of Sodom saide to Abram, Giue me the persons, and take the goodes to thy selfe. ²²And Abram said to the King of Sodom, I haue lift vp mine hand vnto the Lord the most hie God possessor of heauen and earth, ²³That I will not take of all that is thine, so much as a threde or shoollatchet, lest thou shouldest say, I haue made Abram riche, ²⁴Saue onely that, which the yong men haue eaten, and the partes of the men which went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre: let them take their partes.

¹After these things, the worde of the Lord came vnto Abram in a vision, saying, Feare not, Abram, I am thy buckler, and thine exceeding great reward. ²And Abram said, O Lord God, what wilt thou giue me, seeing I goe childlesse, and the steward of mine house is this Eliezer of Damascus? ³Againe Abram saide, Beholde, to me thou hast giuen no seede: wherefore loe, a seruant of mine house shalbe mine heire. ⁴Then beholde, the worde of the Lord came vnto him, saying, This man shall not be thine heire, but one that shall come out of thine owne bowels, he shalbe thine heire. ⁵Moreouer he brought him forth and said, Looke vp nowe vnto heauen, and tell ye starres, if thou be able to number them: and he said vnto him, So shall thy seede be. ⁶And Abram beleeued the Lord, and he counted that to him for righteousnesse. ⁷Againe he saide vnto him, I am the Lord, that brought thee out of Vr of the Caldees, to giue thee this land to inherite it. ⁸And he said, O Lord God, whereby shall I knowe that I shall inherite it? ⁹Then he said vnto him, Take me an heifer of three yeeres olde, and a shee goate of three yeeres olde, and a ramme of three yeeres olde, a turtle doue also and a pigeon. ¹⁰So he tooke all these vnto him, and deuided them into the middes, and laid euery piece one against an other: but the birdes deuided he not. ¹¹Then foules fell on the carkases, and Abram droue them away.

¹³Then he saide to Abram, Knowe for a suretie, that thy seede shalbe a stranger in a land, that is not theirs, foure hundreth yeeres, and shall serue them: and they shall intreate them euill.

¹⁴Notwithstanding the nation, whom they shall serue, will I iudge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.

¹⁵But thou shalt goe vnto thy fathers in peace, and shalt be buried in a good age. ¹⁶And in the fourth generation they shall come hither againe: for the wickednes of the Amorites is not yet full.

¹⁷Also when the sunne went downe, there was a darkenes: and behold, a smoking fornace, and a firebrand, which went betweene those pieces. ¹⁸In that same day the Lord made a couenant with Abram, saying, Vnto thy seede haue I giuen this lande, from the riuier of Egypt vnto the great riuier, the riuier Euphrates. ¹⁹The Kenites, and the Kenizites, and the Kadmonites, ²⁰And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims, ²¹The Amorites also, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Iebusites.

¹Nowe Sarai Abrams wife bare him no children, and she had a maide an Egyptian, Hagar by name. ²And Sarai said vnto Abram, Beholde now, the Lord hath restrained me from childe bearing. I pray thee goe in vnto my maide: it may be that I shall receiue a childe by her. And Abram obeyed the voyce of Sarai.

Beholde, thy maide is in thine hand: doe with her as it pleaseth thee. Then Sarai dealt roughly with her: wherefore she fled from her. ⁷But the Angel of the Lord founde her beside a fountaine of water in the wilderness by the fountaine in the way to Shur, ⁸And he saide, Hagar Sarais maide, whence comest thou? and whither wilt thou goe? And she said, I flie from my dame Sarai. ⁹Then the Angel of the Lord saide to her, Returne to thy dame, and humble thy selfe vnder her hands. ¹⁰Againe the Angel of the Lord saide vnto her, I will so greatly increase thy seede, that it shall not be numbred for multitude. ¹¹Also the Angel of the Lord said vnto her, See, thou art with childe, and shalt beare a sonne, and shalt call his name Ishmael: for the Lord hath heard thy tribulation. ¹²And he shalbe a wilde man: his hande shall be against euery man, and euery mans hand against him. and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren. ¹³Then she called the name of the Lord, that spake vnto her, Thou God lookest on me: for she said, Haue I not also here looked after him that seeth me? ¹⁴Wherefore the well was called, Beerlahai-roi. lo, it is betweene Kadesh and Bered. ¹⁵And Hagar bare Abram a sonne, and Abram called his sonnes name, which Hagar bare, Ishmael. ¹⁶And Abram was foure score and sixe yeere olde, when Hagar bare him Ishmael.

¹When Abram was ninetie yeere olde and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said vnto him, I am God all sufficient. walke before me, and be thou vpright, ²And I will make my couenant betweene me and thee, and I will multiplie thee exceedingly. ³Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying, ⁴Beholde, I make my couenant with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations, ⁵Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shalbe Abraham: for a father of many nations haue I made thee. ⁶Also I will make thee exceeding fruitfull, and will make nations of thee: yea, Kings shall proceede of thee. ⁷Moreouer I wil establish my couenant betweene me and thee, and thy seede after thee in their generations, for an euerlasting couenant, to be God vnto thee and to thy seede after thee. ⁸And I will giue thee and thy seede after thee the land, wherein thou art a stranger, euen all the land of Canaan, for an euerlasting possession, and I will be their God. ⁹Againe God said vnto Abraham, Thou also shalt keepe my couenant, thou, and thy seede after thee in their generations. ¹⁰This is my couenant which ye shall keepe betweene me and you, and thy seede after thee, Let every man childe among you be circumcised: ¹¹That is, ye shall circumcise the foreskin of your flesh, and it shalbe a signe of the couenant betweene me and you. ¹²And every man childe of eight dayes olde among you, shalbe circumcised in your generations, aswell he that is borne in thine house, as he that is bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seede. ¹³He that is borne in thine house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needes be circumcised: so my couenant shall be in your flesh for an euerlasting couenant. ¹⁴But the vncircumcised man childe, in whose flesh the foreskin is not circumcised, euen that person shall be cut off from his people, because he hath broken my couenant. ¹⁵Afterward God said vnto Abraham, Sarai thy wife shalt thou not call Sarai, but Sarah shalbe her name. ¹⁶And I will blesse her, and will also giue thee a sonne of her, yea, I will blesse her, and she shall be the mother of nations: Kings also of people shall come of her. ¹⁷Then Abraham fell vpon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a childe be borne vnto him, that is an hundreth yeere olde? and shall Sarah that is ninetie yeere olde beare? ¹⁸And Abraham saide vnto God, Oh, that Ishmael might liue in thy sight. ¹⁹Then God saide, Sarah thy wife shall beare thee a sonne in deede, and thou shalt call his name Izhak: and I will establish my couenant with him for an euerlasting couenant, and with his seede after him. ²⁰And as concerning

Ishmael, I haue heard thee: loe, I haue blessed him, and will make him fruitfull, and will multiplie him exceedingly: twelue princes shall he beget, and I will make a great nation of him. ²¹But my couenant will I establish with Izhak, which Sarah shall beare vnto thee, the next yeere at this season. ²²And he left off talking with him, and God went vp from Abraham. ²³Then Abraham tooke Ishmael his sonne and all that were borne in his house, and all that was bought with his money, that is, euery man childe among the men of Abrahams house, and he circumcised the foreskinne of their flesh in that selfe same day, as God had comaunded him. ²⁴Abraham also himselfe was ninetie yeere olde and nine, when the foreskinne of his flesh was circumcised. ²⁵And Ishmael his sonne was thirteene yeere olde, when the foreskinne of his flesh was circumcised. ²⁶The selfe same day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his sonne: ²⁷And all the men of his house, both borne in his house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

¹Againe the Lord appeared vnto him in the plaine of Mamre, as he sate in his tent doore about the heate of the day. ²And he lift vp his eyes, and looked: and lo, three men stooode by him, and when he sawe them, he ranne to meete them from the tent doore, and bowed himselfe to the ground. ³And he said, Lord, if I haue now founde fauour in thy sight, goe not, I pray thee, from thy seruant. ⁴Let a litle water, I pray you, be brought, and wash your feete, and rest your selues vnder the tree. ⁵And I will bring a morsell of bread, that you may comfort your hearts, afterward ye shall go your wayes: for therefore are ye come to your seruant. And they said, Do euen as thou hast said. ⁶Then Abraham made haste into the tent vnto Sarah, and saide, Make ready at once three measures of fine meale: kneade it, and make cakes vpon the hearth. ⁷And Abraham ranne to the beastes, and tooke a tender and good calfe, and gaue it to the seruant, who hasted to make it ready. ⁸And he tooke butter and milke, and the calfe, which he had prepared, and set before them, and stode himselfe by them vnder the tree, and they did eate. ⁹Then they saide to him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he answered, Beholde, she is in the tent. ¹⁰And he saide, I will certainly come againe vnto thee according to ye time of life: and loe, Sarah thy wife shall haue a sonne. and Sarah heard in the tent doore, which was behinde him. ¹¹(Nowe Abraham and Sarah were old and stricken in age, and it ceased to be with Sarah after the maner of women) ¹²Therefore Sarah laughed within her selfe, saying, After I am waxed olde, and my lord also, shall I haue lust? ¹³And ye Lord saide vnto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah thus laugh, saying, Shall I certainly beare a childe, which am olde? ¹⁴(Shall any thing be hard to the Lord? at the time appointed will I returne vnto thee, euen according to the time of life, and Sarah shall haue a sonne.) ¹⁵But Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not: for she was afraide. And he said, It is not so: for thou laughedst. ¹⁶Afterwarde the men did rise vp from thence and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way. ¹⁷And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I doe, ¹⁸Seeing that Abraham shalbe in deede a great and a mightie nation, and all the nations of the earth shalbe blessed in him? ¹⁹For I knowe him that he will commande his sonnes and his houshold after him, that they keepe the way of the Lord, to doe righteousness and iudgement, that the Lord may bring vpon Abraham that he hath spoken vnto him. ²⁰Then the Lord saide, Because the crie of Sodom and Gomorah is great, and because their sinne is exceeding grieuous, ²¹I will goe downe nowe, and see whether they haue done altogether according to that crie which is come vnto me: and if not, that I may knowe. ²²And the men turned thence and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stode yet before the Lord. ²³Then Abraham drewe neere, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked? ²⁴If there be fiftie righteous within the citie, wilt thou destroy and not spare the place for the fiftie righteous that are therein? ²⁵Be it farre from thee from doing this thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be euen as the wicked, be it farre from thee. shall not the Iudge of all the worlde doe right? ²⁶And the Lord answered, If I shall finde in Sodom fiftie righteous within the citie, then will I spare all the place for their sakes. ²⁷Then Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I haue begun to speake vnto my Lord, and I am but dust and ashes. ²⁸If there shall lacke fife of fiftie righteous, wilt thou destroy all the citie for fife? And he saide, If I finde there fife and fourtie, I will not destroy it. ²⁹And he yet spake to him againe, and saide, What if there shalbe found fourtie there? Then he answered, I will not doe it for fourties sake. ³⁰Againe he said, Let not my Lord now be angry, that I speake, What if thirtie be founde there?

Then he saide, I will not doe it, if I finde thirtie there. ³¹Moreouer he said, Behold, now I haue begonne to speake vnto my Lord, What if twentie be founde there? And he answered, I will not destroy it for twenties sake. ³²Then he saide, Let not my Lord be nowe angrie, and I will speake but this once, What if tenne be found there? And he answered, I will not destroy it for tennes sake. ³³And the Lord went his way when he had left communing with Abraham, and Abraham returned vnto his place.

¹And in the euening there came two Angels to Sodom: and Lot sate at the gate of Sodom, and Lot sawe them, and rose vp to meete them, and he bowed himselfe with his face to the ground. ²And he saide, See my Lords, I pray you turne in nowe into your seruants house, and tarie all night, and wash your feete, and ye shall rise vp early and goe your wayes. Who saide, Nay, but we will abide in the streete all night. ³Then he preassed vpon them earnestly, and they turned in to him, and came to his house, and he made them a feast, and did bake vnleauened bread, and they did eate. ⁴But before they went to bed, the men of the citie, euen the men of Sodom compassed the house rounde about from the yong euen to the olde, all the people from all quarters. ⁵Who crying vnto Lot said to him, Where are the men, which came to thee this night? bring them out vnto vs that we may knowe them. ⁶Then Lot went out at the doore vnto them, and shut the doore after him, ⁷And said, I pray you, my brethren, do not so wickedly. ⁸Beholde now, I haue two daughters, which haue not knowen man: them will I bring out now vnto you, and doe to them as seemeth you good: onely vnto these men doe nothing: for therefore are they come vnder the shadowe of my rooffe. ⁹Then they said, Away hence, and they said, He is come alone as a stranger, and shall he iudge and rule? we will nowe deale worse with thee then with them. So they preassed sore vpon Lot himselfe, and came to breake the doore. ¹⁰But the men put forth their hand and pulled Lot into the house to them and shut to ye doore. ¹¹Then they smote the men that were at the doore of the house with blindnes both small and great, so that they were wearie in seeking the doore. ¹²Then the men said vnto Lot, Whom hast thou yet here? either sonne in lawe, or thy sonnes, or thy daughters, or whatsoeuer thou hast in the citie, bring it out of this place. ¹³For we will destroy this place, because the crye of them is great before the Lord, and the Lord hath sent vs to destroy it. ¹⁴Then Lot went out and spake vnto his sonnes in lawe, which married his daughters, and said, Arise, get you out of this place: for the Lord will destroy the citie: but he seemed to his sonnes in lawe as though he had mocked. ¹⁵And when the morning arose, the Angels hasted Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife and thy two daughters which are here, lest thou be destroyed in the punishment of the citie. ¹⁶And as he prolonged the time, the men caught both him and his wife, and his two daughters by the hands (the Lord being mercifull vnto him) and they brought him forth, and set him without the citie. ¹⁷And when they had brought them out, the Angel said, Escape for thy life: looke not behinde thee, neither tarie thou in all the plaine: escape into ye mountaine, least thou be destroyed. ¹⁸And Lot saide vnto them, Not so, I pray thee, my Lord. ¹⁹Behold now, thy seruant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercie, which thou hast shewed vnto me in sauing my life: and I cannot escape in the mountaine, least some euill take me, and I die. ²⁰See nowe this citie hereby to flee vnto, which is a litle one: Oh let me escape thither: is it not a litle one, and my soule shall liue? ²¹Then he said vnto him, Beholde, I haue receiued thy request also concerning this thing, that I will not ouerthrow this citie, for the which thou hast spoken. ²²Haste thee, saue thee there: for I can doe nothing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the citie was called Zoar. ²³The sunne did rise vpon the earth, when Lot entred into Zoar. ²⁴Then the Lord rained vpon Sodom and vpon Gomorah brimstone, and fire from the Lord out of heauen, ²⁵And ouerthrewe those cities and all the plaine, and all the inhabitants of the cities; and that that grewe vpon the earth. ²⁶Now his wife behind him looked backe, and she became a pillar of salt. ²⁷And Abraham rising vp earely in ye morning went to the place, where he had stand before the Lord, ²⁸And looking towarde Sodom and Gomorah and toward all the land of the plaine, behold, he sawe the smoke of the lande mounting vp as the smoke of a fornace. ²⁹But yet when God destroyed the cities of the plaine, God thought vpon Abraham, and sent Lot out from the middes of the destruction, when he ouerthrewe the cities, wherein Lot dwelled. ³⁰Then Lot went vp from Zoar, and dwelt in the mountaine with his two daughters: for he feared to tarie in Zoar, but dwelt in a caue, he, and his two daughters. ³¹And the elder saide vnto the yonger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth, to come in vnto vs after the maner of all ye earth. ³²Come, wee will make our father drinke wine, and lie with him, that we may preserue seede of our father. ³³So they made their father drinke wine that night, and the elder went and lay with her father: but he perceiued not, neither whe she lay downe, neither when she rose vp. ³⁴And on the morowe the elder saide to the yonger, Behold, yester night lay I with my father: let vs make him drinke wine this night also, and goe thou and lie with him, that we may preserue seede of our father. ³⁵So they made their father drinke wine that night also, and the yonger arose, and lay with him, but he perceiued not, when she lay downe, neither when she rose vp. ³⁶Thus were both the daughters of Lot with childe by their father. ³⁷And the elder bare a sonne, and she called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites vnto this day. ³⁸And the yonger bare a sonne also, and she called his name Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the Ammonites vnto this day.

¹Afterward Abraham departed thence toward the South countrey and dwelled betweene Cadesh and Shur, and soiourned in Gerar. ²And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister. Then Abimelech King of Gerar sent and tooke Sarah. ³But God came to Abimelech in a dreame by night, and said to him, Beholde, thou art but dead, because of the woman, which thou hast taken: for she is a mans wife. ⁴(Notwithstanding Abimelech had not yet come neere her) And he said, Lord, wilt thou slay euen the righteous nation? ⁵Said not he vnto me, She is my sister? yea, and she her selfe said, He is my brother: with an vpriight minde, and innocent handes haue I done this. ⁶And God saide vnto him by a dreame, I knowe that thou diddest this euen with an vpriight minde, and I kept thee also that thou shouldest not sinne against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touche her. ⁷Now then deliuer the man his wife againe: for he is a Prophet, and he shall pray for thee that thou mayest liue: but if thou deliuer her not againe, be sure that thou shalt die the death, thou, and all that thou hast. ⁸Then Abimelech rising vp early in ye morning, called all his seruants, and tolde all these things vnto them, and the men were sore afraid. ⁹Afterward Abimelech called Abraham, and said vnto him, What hast thou done vnto vs? and what haue I offeded thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdome this great sinne? thou hast done things vnto me that ought not to be done. ¹⁰So Abimelech said vnto Abraham, What sawest thou that thou hast done this thing? ¹¹Then Abraham answered, Because I thought thus, Surely the feare of God is not in this place, and they will slay me for my wiues sake. ¹²Yet in very deede she is my sister: for she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she is my wife. ¹³Nowe when God caused me to wander out of my fathers house, I said then to her, This is thy kindnes that thou shalt shewe vnto me in all places where we come, Say thou of me, He is my brother. ¹⁴Then tooke

Abimelech sheepe and beeues, and men seruants, and women seruants, and gaue them vnto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife. ¹⁵And Abimelech saide, Beholde, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee. ¹⁶Likewise to Sarah he said, Beholde, I haue giuen thy brother a thousand pieces of siluer: behold, he is the vaile of thine eyes to all that are with thee, and to all others: and she was thus reprovued. ¹⁷Then Abraham prayed vnto God, and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his women seruants: and they bare children. ¹⁸For the Lord had shut vp euery wombe of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abrahams wife.

¹Nowe the Lord visited Sarah, as he had saide, and did vnto her according as he had promised. ²For Sarah conceiued, and bare Abraham a sonne in his olde age, at the same season that God tolde him. ³And Abraham called his sonnes name that was borne vnto him, which Sarah bare him, Izhak.

⁴Then Abraham circumcised Izhak his sonne, when he was eight dayes olde, as God had commanded him. ⁵So Abraham was an hundreth yeere olde, when his sonne Izhak was borne vnto him. ⁶Then Sarah said, God hath made me to reioyce: all that heare will reioyce with me. ⁷Againe she said, Who would haue saide to Abraham, that Sarah shoulde haue giuen children sucke? for I haue borne him a sonne in his olde age. ⁸Then the childe grewe and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Izhak was weaned. ⁹And Sarah sawe the sonne of Hagar the Egyptian (which she had borne vnto Abraham) mocking. ¹⁰Wherefore she saide vnto Abraham, Cast out this bond woman and her sonne: for ye sonne of this bonde woman shall not be heire with my sonne Izhak. ¹¹And this thing was very grievous in Abrahams sight, because of his sonne. ¹²But God said vnto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight for the childe, and for thy bonde woman: in all that Sarah shall say vnto thee, heare her voyce: for in Izhak shall thy seede be called. ¹³As for the sonne of the bond woman, I will make him a nation also, because he is thy seede. ¹⁴So Abraham arose vp early in ye morning, and tooke bread, and a bottell of water, and gaue it vnto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the childe also, and sent her away: who departing wandred in the wilderness of Beer-sheba. ¹⁵And when the water of the bottell was spent, she cast the childe vnder a certaine tree. ¹⁶Then she went and sate her ouer against him a farre off about a bowe shoote: for she said, I will not see the death of the child. and she sate downe ouer against him, and lift vp her voyce and wept. ¹⁷Then God heard the voyce of ye childe, and the Angel of God called to Hagar from heauen, and said vnto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? feare not, for God hath heard the voyce of the childe where he is. ¹⁸Arise, take vp the childe, and holde him in thine hand: for I will make of him a great people. ¹⁹And God opened her eyes, and she sawe a well of water. so she went and filled the bottell with water, and gaue the boy drinke. ²⁰So God was with the childe, and he grewe and dwelt in the wildernesse, and was an archer. ²¹And he dwelt in the wildernesse of Paran, and his mother tooke him a wife out of the land of Egypt. ²²And at that same time Abimelech and Phichol his chief captaine spake vnto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest. ²³Nowe therefore sweare vnto me here by God, that thou wilt not hurt me, nor my children, nor my childrens children: thou shalt deale with me, and with the countrey, where thou hast bene a stranger, according vnto the kindnesse that I haue shewed thee. ²⁴Then Abraham said, I will sweare. ²⁵And Abraham rebuked Abimelech for a well of water, which Abimelechs seruants had violently taken away. ²⁶And Abimelech saide, I knowe not who hath done this thing: also thou toldest me not, neither heard I of it but this day. ²⁷Then Abraham tooke sheepe and beeues, and gaue them vnto

Abimelech: and they two made a couenant. ²⁸And Abraham set seuen lambes of the flocke by themselues. ²⁹Then Abimelech said vnto Abraham, What meane these seuen lambes, which thou hast set by themselues? ³⁰And he answered, Because thou shalt receiue of mine hand these seuen lambes, that it may be a witnes vnto me, that I haue digged this well. ³¹Wherefore the place is called Beer-sheba, because there they both sware. ³²Thus made they a couenant at Beer-sheba: afterward Abimelech and Phichol his chiefe captaine rose vp, and turned againe vnto the land of the Philistims. ³³And Abraham planted a groue in Beer-sheba, and called there on the Name of ye Lord, the euerlasting God. ³⁴And Abraham was a stranger in the Philistims land a long season.

¹And after these things God did proue Abraham, and said vnto him, Abraham. Who answered, Here am I. ²And he said, Take nowe thine onely sonne Izhak whom thou louest, and get thee vnto the land of Moriah, and offer him there for a burnt offering vpon one of the mountaines, which I will shewe thee. ³Then Abraham rose vp early in the morning, and saddled his asse, and tooke two of his seruants with him, and Izhak his sonne, and cloue wood for the burnt offering, and rose vp and went to the place, which God had tolde him. ⁴Then the third day Abraham lift vp his eyes, and sawe the place afarre off, ⁵And said vnto his seruants, Abide you here with the asse: for I and the childe will go yonder and worship, and come againe vnto you. ⁶Then Abraham tooke the wood of the burnt offering, and layed it vpon Izhak his sonne, and he tooke the fire in his hand, and the knife: and they went both together. ⁷Then spake Izhak vnto Abraham his father, and said, My father. And he answered, Here am I, my sonne. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood, but where is the lambe for ye burnt offring? ⁸Then Abraham answered, My sonne, God will prouide him a lambe for a burnt offering: so they went both together. ⁹And when they came to the place which God had shewed him, Abraham builded an altar there, and couched ye wood, and bound Izhak his sonne and laid him on the altar vpon the wood. ¹⁰And Abraham stretching forth his hand, tooke the knife to kill his sonne. ¹¹But the Angel of the Lord called vnto him from heauen, saying, Abraham, Abraham. And he answered, Here am I. ¹²Then he said, Lay not thine hand vpon the childe, neither doe any thing vnto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing for my sake thou hast not spared thine onely sonne. ¹³And Abraham lifting vp his eyes, looked: and behold, there was a ramme behind him caught by the hornes in a bush. then Abraham went and tooke the ramme, and offered him vp for a burnt offering in the steade of his sonne. ¹⁴And Abraham called the name of that place, Iehouah-ijreh. as it is said this day, In the mount will the Lord be seene. ¹⁵And the Angel of the Lord cryed vnto Abraham from heauen the second time, ¹⁶And saide, By my selfe haue I sworne (saith ye Lord) because thou hast done this thing, and hast not spared thine onely sonne, ¹⁷Therefore will I surely blesse thee, and will greatly multiplie thy seede, as the starres of the heauen, and as the sand which is vpon the sea shore, and thy seede shall possesse the gate of his enemies. ¹⁸And in thy seede shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because thou hast obeyed my voyce. ¹⁹Then turned Abraham againe vnto his seruants, and they rose vp and went together to Beer-sheba: and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba. ²⁰And after these things one tolde Abraham, saying, Beholde Milcah, she hath also borne children vnto thy brother Nahor: ²¹To wit, Vz his eldest sonne, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, ²²And Chesed and Hazo, and Pildash, and Ildaph, and Bethuel. ²³And Bethuel begate Rebekah: these eight did Milcah beare to Nahor Abrahams brother. ²⁴And his concubine called Reumah, she bare also Tebah, and Gahan, and Thahash and Maachah.

¹When Sarah was an hundreth twentie and seuen yeere olde (so long liued she). ²Then Sarah dyed in Kiriath-arba: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. and Abraham came to mourne for Sarah and to weepe for her. ³Then Abraham rose vp from the sight of his corps, and talked with the Hittites, saying, ⁴I am a stranger, and a forreiner among you, giue me a possession of buriall with you, that I may burie my dead out of my sight. ⁵Then the Hittites answered Abraham, saying vnto him, ⁶Heare vs, my lorde: thou art a prince of God among vs: in the chieftest of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of vs shall forbid thee his sepulchre, but thou mayest bury thy dead therein. ⁷Then Abraham stoode vp, and bowed him selfe before the people of the land of the Hittites. ⁸And he communed with them, saying, If it be your minde, that I shall bury my dead out of my sight, heare me, and intreate for me to Ephron the sonne of Zohar, ⁹That he would giue me ye caue of Machpelah, which he hath in the ende of his field: that he would giue it me for as much money as it is worth, for a possession to bury in among you. ¹⁰(For Ephron dwelt among the Hittites) Then Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of all the Hittites that went in at the gates of his citie, saying, ¹¹No, my Lord, heare me: the felde giue I thee, and the caue, that therein is, I giue it thee: euen in the presence of the sonnes of my people giue I it thee, to bury thy dead. ¹²Then Abraham bowed himselfe before the people of the land, ¹³And spake vnto Ephron in the audience of the people of the countrey, saying, Seeing thou wilt giue it, I pray thee, heare me, I will giue the price of the felde: receiue it of me, and I will bury my dead there. ¹⁴Ephron then answered Abraham, saying vnto him, ¹⁵My lord, hearken vnto me: ye land is worth foure hundreth shekels of siluer: what is that betweene me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

¹⁶So Abraham hearkened vnto Ephron, and Abraham weyed to Ephron the siluer, which he had named, in the audience of the Hittites, euen foure hundreth siluer shekels of currant money among marchants. ¹⁷So the felde of Ephron which was in Machpelah, and ouer against Mamre, euen the field and the caue that was therein, and all the trees that were in the felde, which were in all the borders round about, was made sure ¹⁸Vnto Abraham for a possession, in ye sight of the Hittites, euen of all that went in at the gates of his citie. ¹⁹And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the caue of the felde of Machpelah ouer against Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. ²⁰Thus the felde and the caue, that is therein, was made sure vnto Abraham for a possession of buriall by the Hittites.

¹Nowe Abraham was olde, and stricken in yeeres, and the Lord had blessed Abraham in all things. ²Therefore Abraham saide vnto his eldest seruant of his house, which had the rule ouer all that he had, Put nowe thine hand vnder my thigh, ³And I will make thee sweare by ye Lord God of the heauen, and God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife vnto my sonne of the daughters of the Canaanites among who I dwel. ⁴But thou shalt go vnto my cuntry, and to my kinred, and take a wife vnto my sone Izhak. ⁵And the seruant saide to him, What if the woman will not come with me to this land? shall I bring thy sonne againe vnto the lande from whence thou camest? ⁶To whom Abraham answered, Beware that thou bring not my sonne thither againe. ⁷The Lord God of heauen, who tooke me from my fathers house, and from the land where I was borne, and that spake vnto me, and that sware vnto me, saying, Vnto thy seede wil I giue this land, he shall send his Angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife vnto my sonne from thence. ⁸Neuertheles if the woman wil not follow thee, then shalt thou bee discharged of this mine othe: onely bring not my sonne thither againe. ⁹Then the seruant put his hand vnder the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him for this matter. ¹⁰So the seruant tooke ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed: (for he had all his masters goods in his hand:) and so he arose, and went to Aram Naharaim, vnto the citie of Nahor. ¹¹And he made his camels to lye downe without the citie by a well of water, at euentide about the time that the women come out to draw water. ¹²And he said, O Lord God of my master Abraham, I beseech thee, send me good speede this day, and shew mercy vnto my master Abraham. ¹³Lo, I stand by the well of water, whiles the mens daughters of this citie come out to drawe water. ¹⁴Graunt therefore that ye maide, to whom I say, Bowe downe thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drinke: if she say, Drinke, and I will giue thy camels drinke also: may be she that thou hast ordeined for thy seruant Izhak: and thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed mercy on my master. ¹⁵And nowe yer he had left speaking, beholde, Rebekah came out, the daughter of Bethuel, sonne of Milcah the wife of Nahor Abrahams brother, and her pitcher vpon her shoulder. ¹⁶(And the maide was very faire to looke vpon, a virgine and vnknownen of man) and she went downe to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came vp. ¹⁷Then the seruant ranne to meete her, and said, Let me drinke, I pray thee, a litle water of thy pitcher. ¹⁸And she said, Drinke sir: and she hasted, and let downe her pitcher vpon her hand and gaue him drinke. ¹⁹And when she had giuen him drinke, she said, I will drawe water for thy camels also vntill they haue drunken inough. ²⁰And she powred out her pitcher into the trough speedily; and ranne againe vnto the well to drawe water, and she drewe for all his camels. ²¹So the man wondred at her, and helde his peace, to knowe whether the Lord had made his iourney prosperous or not. ²²And when the camels had left drinking, the man tooke a golden abillement of halfe a shekell weight, and two bracelets for her hands, of ten shekels weight of golde: ²³And he said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee, Is there rouse in thy fathers house for vs to lodge in? ²⁴Then she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the sonne of Milcah whom she bare vnto Nahor. ²⁵Moreouer she said vnto him, We haue litter also and prouender ynough, and rouse to lodge in. ²⁶And the man bowed himselfe and worshipped the Lord, ²⁷And said, Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, which hath not withdrawen his mercie and his trueth from my master: for when I was in the way, the Lord brought me to my masters brethrens house. ²⁸And the maide ranne and tolde them of her mothers house according to these wordes. ²⁹Now Rebekah had a brother called Laban, and Laban ranne vnto the man to the well. ³⁰For when he had seene the earrings and the bracelets in his sisters hands, and when he heard the wordes of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus said the man vnto me, then he went to the man, and

loe, he stode by the camels at the well. ³¹And he saide, Come in thou blessed of the Lord: wherefore standest thou without, seeing I haue prepared the house, and rouse for ye camels? ³²Then the man came into the house, and he vnsaddled the camels, and brought litter and prouender for the camels, and water to wash his feete, and the mens feete that were with him. ³³Afterward the meate was set before him: but he saide, I will not eate, vntill I haue saide my message: And he said, Speake on. ³⁴Then he said, I am Abrahams seruant, ³⁵And the Lord hath blessed my master wonderfully, that he is become great: for he hath giuen him sheepe, and beeues, and siluer, and golde, and men seruants, and maide seruants, and camels, and asses. ³⁶And Sarah my masters wife hath borne a sonne to my master, when she was olde, and vnto him hath he giuen all that he hath. ³⁷Now my master made me sweare, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my sonne of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell: ³⁸But thou shalt go vnto my fathers house and to my kinred, and take a wife vnto my sonne. ³⁹Then I saide vnto my master, What if the woman will not follow me? ⁴⁰Who answered me, The Lord, before who I walke, will send his Angel with thee, and prosper thy iourney, and thou shalt take a wife for my sonne of my kinred and my fathers house. ⁴¹Then shalt thou be discharged of mine othe, when thou comest to my kinred: and if they giue thee not one, thou shalt be free from mine othe. ⁴²So I came this day to the well, and said, O Lord, the God of my master Abraham, if thou nowe prosper my iourney which I goe, ⁴³Behold, I stand by the well of water: when a virgine commeth forth to drawe water, and I say to her, Giue me, I pray thee, a litle water of thy pitcher to drinke, ⁴⁴And she say to me, Drinke thou, and I will also drawe for thy camels, let her be ye wife, which the Lord hath prepared for my masters sonne. ⁴⁵And before I had made an end of speaking in mine heart, beholde, Rebekah came forth, and her pitcher on her shoulder, and she went downe vnto the well, and drewe water. Then I said vnto her, Giue me drinke, I pray thee. ⁴⁶And she made haste, and tooke downe her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drinke, and I will giue thy camels drinke also. So I dranke, and she gaue the camels drinke also. ⁴⁷Then I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she answered, The daughter of Bethuel Nahors sonne, whom Milcah bare vnto him. Then I put the abillement vpon her face, and the bracelets vpon her hands: ⁴⁸And I bowed downe and worshipped the Lord, and blessed the Lord God of my master Abraham, which had brought me the right way to take my masters brothers daughter vnto his sone. ⁴⁹Now therefore, if ye will deale mercifully and truely with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me that I may turne me to the right hand or to the left. ⁵⁰Then answered Laban and Bethuel, and said, This thing is proceeded of the Lord: we cannot therefore say vnto thee, neither euill nor good. ⁵¹Beholde, Rebehak is before thee, take her and goe, that she may be thy masters sonnes wife, euen as the Lord hath said. ⁵²And when Abrahams seruant heard their wordes, he bowed himselfe toward the earth vnto the Lord. ⁵³Then the seruant tooke foorth iewels of siluer, and iewels of golde, and raiment, and gaue to Rebekah: also vnto her brother and to her mother he gaue gifts. ⁵⁴Afterward they did eate and drinke, both he, and the men that were with him, and taried all night. and when they rose vp in the morning, he said, Let me depart vnto my master. ⁵⁵Then her brother and her mother answered, Let the maide abide with vs, at the least ten dayes: then shall she goe. ⁵⁶But he said vnto them, Hinder you me not, seeing the Lord hath prospered my iourney: send me away, that I may goe to my master. ⁵⁷Then they said, We will call the maide, and aske her consent. ⁵⁸And they called Rebekah, and saide vnto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she answered, I will go. ⁵⁹So they let Rebekah their sister goe, and her nourse, with Abrahams seruant and his men. ⁶⁰And they blessed Rebekah, and sayde vnto her, Thou art our sister, growe into thousande thousands, and thy seede possesse the gate of his enemies. ⁶¹Then Rebekah arose, and her maydes, and rode vpon the camels, and followed the man. and the seruant tooke Rebekah, and departed. ⁶²Nowe Izhak came from the way of Beer-lahai-roi, (for he dwelt in the South cuntry) ⁶³And Izhak went out. to pray in the fiede toward the euening: who lift vp his eyes and looked, and behold, the camels came. ⁶⁴Also Rebekah lift vp her eyes, and when she saw Izhak, she lighted downe from the camel. ⁶⁵(For shee had sayde to the seruant, Who is yonder man, that commeth in the fiede to meete vs? and the seruant had said, It is my master) So she tooke a vaile, and couered her. ⁶⁶And the seruant tolde Izhak all things, that he had done. ⁶⁷Afterward Izhak brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother, and he tooke Rebekah, and she was his wife, and he loued her: So Izhak was

¹Nowe Abraham had taken him another wife called Keturah, ²Which bare him Zimran, and Iokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. ³And Iokshan begate Sheba, and Dedan: And the sonnes of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim. ⁴Also the sonnes of Midian were Ephah, and Ephher, and Hanoah, and Abida, and Eldaah all these were the sonnes of Keturah. ⁵And Abraham gaue all his goods to Izhak, ⁶But vnto the sonnes of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gaue giftes, and sent them away from Izhak his sonne (while he yet liued) Eastward to the East cuntry. ⁷And this is the age of Abrahams life, which he liued, an hundreth seuentie and fve yeere. ⁸Then Abraham yeelded the spirit, and died in a good age, an olde man, and of great yeeres, and was gathered to his people. ⁹And his sonnes, Izhak and Ishmael buryed him in the caue of Machpelah, in the fielde of Ephron sonne of Zohar the Hittite, before Mamre.

¹⁰Which fielde Abraham bought of the Hittites, where Abraham was buried with Sarah his wife.

¹¹And after the death of Abraham God blessed Izhak his sonne, and Izhak dwelt by Beer-lahai-roi.

¹²Nowe these are the generations of Ishmael Abrahams sonne, whome Hagar the Egyptian Sarahs handmayde bare vnto Abraham. ¹³And these are the names of the sonnes of Ishmael, name by name, according to their kinreds; the eldest sonne of Ishmael was Nebaioth, then Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, ¹⁴And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa, ¹⁵Hadar, and Tema, Ietur, Naphish, and Kedemah. ¹⁶These are the sonnes of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their townes and by their castles: to wit, twelue princes of their nations.

¹⁷(And these are the yeeres of the life of Ishmael, an hundreth thirtie and seuen yeere, and he yeelded the spirit, and dyed, and was gathered vnto his people)

¹⁸And they dwelt from Hauilah vnto Shur, that is towardes Egypt, as thou goest to Asshur. Ishmael dwelt in the presence of all his brethren. ¹⁹Likewise these are the generations of Izhak Abrahams sonne Abraham begate Izhak, ²⁰And Izhak was fourtie yeere olde, when he tooke Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramite of Padan Aram, and sister to Laban the Aramite.

²¹And Izhak prayed vnto the Lord for his wife, because she was barren: and the Lord was intreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceiued, ²²But the children stroue together within her: therefore shee sayde, Seeing it is so, why am I thus? wherefore she went to aske the Lord. ²³And the Lord sayd to her, Two nations are in thy wombe, and two maner of people shalbe diuided out of thy bowels, and the one people shall be mightier then the other, and the elder shall serue the yonger.

²⁴Therefore when her time of deliuerance was fulfilled, behold, twinnes were in her wombe. ²⁵So he that came out first was red, and he was all ouer as a rough garment, and they called his name

Esau. ²⁶And afterward came his brother out, and his hande helde Esau by the heele: therefore his name was called Iaakob. Nowe Izhak was threescore yeere olde when Rebekah bare them. ²⁷And the boyes grew, and Esau was a cunning hunter, and liued in the fields: but Iaakob was a plaine man, and dwelt in tentes. ²⁸And Izhak loued Esau, for venison was his meate, but Rebekah loued Iaakob. ²⁹Nowe Iaakob sod pottage, and Esau came from the fiede and was wearie. ³⁰Then Esau sayd to Iaakob, Let me eate, I pray thee, of that pottage so red, for I am wearie. Therefore was his name called Edom. ³¹And Iaakob sayd, Sell me euen now thy birthright. ³²And Esau sayd, Lo, I am almost dead, what is then this birthright to me? ³³Iaakob then said, Sweare to me euen now. And he sware to him, and solde his birthright vnto Iaakob. ³⁴Then Iaakob gaue Esau bread and pottage of lentiles: and he did eate and drinke, and rose vp, and went his way: So Esau contemned his birthright.

¹And there was a famine in the lande besides the first famine that was in the dayes of Abraham. Wherefore Izhak went to Abimelech King of the Philistims vnto Gerar. ²For the Lord appeared vnto him, and sayde, Goe not downe into Egypt, but abide in the land which I shall shewe vnto thee. ³Dwell in this lande, and I will be with thee, and will blesse thee: for to thee, and to thy seede I will giue all these countreys: and I will performe the othe which I sware vnto Abraham thy father. ⁴Also I wil cause thy seede to multiply as the starres of heauen, and will giue vnto thy seede all these countreys: and in thy seede shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, ⁵Because that Abraham obeyed my voyce and kept mine ordinance, my commandements, my statutes, and my Lawes. ⁶So Izhak dwelt in Gerar. ⁷And the men of the place asked him of his wife, and he sayd, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife, least, sayde he, the men of the place shoulde kill me, because of

Rebekah: for she was beautifull to the eye. ⁸So after hee had bene there long time, Abimelech King of the Philistims looked out at a windowe, and loe, he sawe Izhak sporting with Rebekah his wife. ⁹Then Abimelech called Izhak, and sayde, Loe, shee is of a suertie thy wife, and why saydest thou, She is my sister? To whom Izhak answered, Because I thought this, It may be that I shall dye for her. ¹⁰Then Abimelech said, Why hast thou done this vnto vs? one of the people had almost lien by thy wife, so shouldest thou haue brought sinne vpon vs. ¹¹Then Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man, or his wife, shall die the death. ¹²Afterwarde Izhak sowed in that lande, and founde in the same yeere an hundreth folde by estimation: and so the Lord blessed him. ¹³And the man waxed mightie, and stil increased, till he was exceeding great, ¹⁴For he had flockes of sheepe, and heards of cattell, and a mightie housholde: therefore the Philistims had enuy at him. ¹⁵In so much that the Philistims stopped and filled vp with earth all the welles, which his fathers seruantes digged in his father Abrahams time. ¹⁶Then Abimelech sayde vnto Izhak, Get thee from vs, for thou art mightier then wee a great deale. ¹⁷Therefore Izhak departed thence and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there. ¹⁸And Izhak returning, digged the welles of water, which they had digged in the dayes of Abraham his father: for the Philistims had stopped them after the death of Abraham, and hee gaue them the same names, which his father gaue them. ¹⁹Izhaks seruantes then digged in the valley, and found there a well of liuing water. ²⁰But the herdmen of Gerar did striue with Izhaks herdmen, saying, The water is ours: therefore called he the name of the well Esek, because they were at strife with him. ²¹Afterwarde they digged another well, and stroue for that also, and he called the name of it Sitnah. ²²Then he remoued thence, and digged an other well, for the which they stroue not: therefore called hee the name of it Rehoboth, and sayde, Because the Lord hath nowe made vs roome, we shall increase vpon the earth. ²³So he went vp thence to Beer-sheba. ²⁴And the Lord appeared vnto him the same night, and sayde, I am the God of Abraham thy father: feare not, for I am with thee, and wil blesse thee, and will multiplie thy seede for my seruant Abrahams sake. ²⁵Then he builde an altar there, and called vpon the Name of the Lord, and there spred his tent: where also Izhaks seruauntes digged a well. ²⁶Then came Abimelech to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friendes, and Phichol the captaine of his armie. ²⁷To whom Izhak sayd, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate mee and haue put mee away from you? ²⁸Who answered, Wee sawe certainly that the Lord was with thee, and wee thought thus, Let there be nowe an othe betweene vs, euen betweene vs and thee, and let vs make a couenant with thee. ²⁹If thou shalt do vs no hurt, as we haue not touched thee, and as we haue done vnto thee nothing but good, and sent thee away in peace:

thou nowe, the blessed of the Lord, doe this. ³⁰Then hee made them a feast, and they dyd eate and drinke. ³¹And they rose vp betimes in the morning, and sware one to another: then Izhak let them go, and they departed from him in peace. ³²And that same day Izhaks seruantes came and tolde him of a well, which they had digged, and said vnto him, We haue found water. ³³So hee called it Shibah: therefore the name of the citie is called Beer-sheba vnto this day. ³⁴Nowe when Esau was fourtie yeere olde, he tooke to wife Iudith, the daughter of Beeri an Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon an Hittite also. ³⁵And they were a grieve of minde to Izhak and to Rebekah.

¹And when Izhak was olde, and his eyes were dimme (so that he coulde not see) he called Esau his eldest sonne, and sayde vnto him, My sonne. And he answered him, I am here. ²Then he sayd, Beholde, I am nowe olde, and knowe not the day of my death: ³Wherefore nowe, I pray thee take thine instruments, thy quiuer and thy bowe, and get thee to the field, that thou mayest take mee some venison. ⁴Then make mee sauourie meate, such as I loue, and bring it me that I may eat, and that my soule may blesse thee, before I die. ⁵(Nowe Rebekah heard, when Izhak spake to Esau his sonne) and Esau went into the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it. ⁶Then Rebekah spake vnto Iaakob her sonne, saying, Beholde, I haue heard thy father talking with Esau thy brother, saying, ⁷Bring mee vension, and make mee sauourie meate, that I may eate and blesse thee before the Lord, afore my death. ⁸Nowe therefore, my sonne, heare my voyce in that which I command thee. ⁹Get thee now to the flocke, and bring me thence two good kids of the goates, that I may make pleasant meate of them for thy father, such as he loueth. ¹⁰Then shalt thou bring it to thy father, and he shall eate, to the intent that he may blesse thee before his death. ¹¹But Iaakob sayde to Rebekah his mother, Beholde, Esau my brother is rough, and I am smoothe. ¹²My father may possibly feelee me, and I shall seem to him to be a mocker: so shall I bring a curse vpon me, and not a blessing. ¹³But his mother sayd vnto him, vpon me be thy curse, my sonne: onely heare my voyce, and go and bring me them. ¹⁴So he went and set them, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made pleasant meat, such as his father loued. ¹⁵And Rebekah tooke faire clothes of her elder sonne Esau, which were in her house, and clothed Iaakob her younger sonne: ¹⁶And she couered his hands and the smoothe of his necke with the skinnes of the kiddes of the goates. ¹⁷Afterward she put the pleasant meate and bread, which she had prepared, in the hand of her sonne Iaakob. ¹⁸And when he came to his father, he sayd, My father. Who answered, I am here: who art thou, my sonne? ¹⁹And Iaakob sayde to his father, I am Esau thy first borne, I haue done as thou badest me, arise, I pray thee: sit vp and eate of my venison, that thy soule may blesse me. ²⁰Then Izhak said vnto his sonne, Howe hast thou founde it so quickly my sonne? Who sayde, Because the Lord thy God brought it to mine hande.

²¹Againe sayde Izhak vnto Iaakob, Come neere now, that I may feele thee, my sonne, whether thou be that my sonne Esau or not. ²²Then Iaakob came neere to Izhak his father, and he felt him and sayd, The voyce is Iaakobs voyce, but the hands are the hands of Esau. ²³(For he knewe him not, because his hands were rough as his brother Esaus hands: wherefore he blessed him)

²⁴Againe he sayd, Art thou that my sonne Esau? Who answered, Yea. ²⁵Then said he, Bring it me hither, and I will eate of my sonnes venison, that my soule may blesse thee. And he brought it to him, and he ate: also he brought him wine, and he dranke.

²⁶Afterward his father Izhak sayd vnto him, Come neere now, and kisse me, my sonne. ²⁷And hee came neere and kissed him. Then he smelled the sauour of his garmentes, and blessed him, and sayde, Behold, the smell of my sonne is as the smell of a fiede, which the Lord hath blessed. ²⁸God giue thee therefore of the dewe of heauen, and the fatnesse of the earth, and plentie of wheate and wine. ²⁹Let people bee thy seruantes, and nations bowe vnto thee: be Lord ouer thy brethren, and let thy mothers children honour thee. cursed be he that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee. ³⁰And when Izhak had made an ende of blessing Iaakob, and Iaakob was scarce gone out from the presence of Izhak his father, then came Esau his brother from his hunting, ³¹And hee also prepared sauourie meate and brought it to his father, and sayd vnto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his sonnes venison, that thy soule may blesse me. ³²But his father Izhak sayde vnto him, Who art thou? And he answered, I am thy sonne, euen thy first borne Esau. ³³Then Izhak was stricken with a marueilous great feare, and sayde, Who and where is hee that hunted venison, and brought it mee, and I haue eate of all before thou camest? and I haue blessed him, therefore he shalbe blessed.

³⁴When Esau heard the wordes of his father, he cryed out with a great crye and bitter, out of measure, and sayde vnto his father, Blesse me, euen me also, my father. ³⁵Who answered, Thy brother came with subtiltie, and hath taken away thy blessing.

³⁶Then he sayde, Was hee not iustly called Iaakob? for hee hath deceiued mee these two times: he tooke my birthright, and loe, nowe hath he taken my blessing. Also he sayd, Hast thou not reserued a blessing for me?

³⁷Then Izhak answered, and sayd vnto Esau, Beholde, I haue made him thy lorde, and all his brethre haue I made his seruants: also with wheate and wine haue I furnished him, and vnto thee now what shall I doe, my sonne?

³⁸Then Esau sayde vnto his father, Hast thou but one blessing my father? blesse mee, euen me also, my father: and Esau lifted vp his voyce, and wept. ³⁹Then Izhak his father answered, and sayde vnto him, Behold, the fatnesse of the earth shall be thy dwelling place, and thou shalt haue of the dewe of heauen from aboue.

⁴⁰And by thy sword shalt thou liue, and shalt be thy brothers seruant. But it shall come to passe, when thou shalt get the masterie, that thou shalt breake his yoke from thy necke.

⁴¹Therefore Esau hated Iaakob, because of the blessing, wherewith his father blessed him. And Esau thought in his minde, The dayes of mourning for my father will come shortly, then I will slay my brother Iaakob.

⁴²And it was told to Rebekah of the wordes of Esau her elder sonne, and shee sent and called Iaakob her yonger sonne, and sayd vnto him, Beholde, thy brother Esau is comforted against thee, meaning to kill thee: ⁴³Now therefore my sonne, heare my voyce, arise, and flee thou to Haran to my brother Laban,

⁴⁴And tarie with him a while vntill thy brothers fiercenesse be swaged, ⁴⁵And till thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, and hee forget the thinges, which thou hast done to him: then will I sende and take thee from thence: why shoulde I bee depriued of you both in one day? ⁴⁶Also

Rebekah said to Izhak, I am weary of my life, for the daughters of Heth. If Iaakob take a wife of the daughters of Heth like these of the daughters of the lande, what auaieth it me to liue?

sent him to Padan Aram, to set him a wife thence, and giuen him a charge when he blessed him, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan, ⁷And that Iaakob had obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan Aram: ⁸Also Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan displeased Izhak his father, ⁹Then went Esau to Ishmael, and tooke vnto the wiues, which he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abrahams sonne, the sister of Nabaioth, to be his wife. ¹⁰Now Iaakob departed from Beersheba, and went to Haran, ¹¹And he came vnto a certaine place, and taried there al night, because the sunne was downe, and tooke of the stones of the place, and layde vnder his head and slept in the same place. ¹²Then he dreamed, and behold, there stode a ladder vpon the earth, and the top of it reached vp to heauen: and loe, the Angels of God went vp and downe by it. ¹³And behold, the Lord stode aboue it, and sayd, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Izhak: the land, vpon the which thou sleepest, wil I giue thee and thy seede. ¹⁴And thy seede shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the West, and to the East, and to the North, and to the South, and in thee and in thy seede shall all the families of the earth be blessed. ¹⁵And lo, I am with thee, and wil keepe thee whithersoever thou goest, and will bring thee againe into this land: for I will not forsake thee vntill I haue performed that, that I haue promised thee. ¹⁶Then Iaakob awoke out of his sleepe, and sayde, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware. ¹⁷And he was afraid, and said, How fearefull is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heauen. ¹⁸Then Iaakob rose vp early in the morning, and tooke the stone that hee had layde vnder his head, and set it vp as a pillar, and powred oyle vpon the top of it. ¹⁹And he called ye name of that place Bethel: notwithstanding the name of the citie was at the first called Luz. ²⁰Then Iaakob vowed a vowe, saying, If God will be with me, and will keepe me in this iourney which I go, and wil giue me bread to eate, and clothes to put on: ²¹So that I come againe vnto my fathers house in safetie, then shall the Lord be my God. ²²And this stone, which I haue set vp as a pillar, shall be Gods house: and of all that thou shalt giue me, wil I giue the tenth vnto thee.

¹Then Iaakob lift vp his feete and came into the East countrey. ²And as he looked about, behold there was a well in the field, and lo, three flocks of sheepe lay thereby (for at that well were the flockes watered) and there was a great stone vpon the welles mouth. ³And thither were all the flockes gathered, and they rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the sheepe, and put the stone againe vpon the welles mouth in his place. ⁴And Iaakob sayde vnto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they answered, We are of Haran. ⁵Then he sayd vnto them, Know ye Laban the sonne of Nahor? Who said, We know him. ⁶Again he sayd vnto them, Is he in good health? And they answered, He is in good health, and beholde, his daughter Rahel commeth with the sheepe. ⁷Then he sayd, Lo, it is yet hie day, neither is it time that the cattell shoulde be gathered together: water ye the sheepe and go feede them. ⁸But they sayde, We may not vntill all the flocks be brought together, and till men rolle the stone from the welles mouth, that we may water the sheepe. ⁹While he talked with them, Rahel also came with her fathers sheepe, for she kept them. ¹⁰And assoone as Iaakob saw Rahel ye daughter of Laban his mothers brother, and the sheepe of Laban his mothers brother, then came Iaakob neere, and rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered ye flocke of Laban his mothers brother. ¹¹And Iaakob kissed Rahel, and lift vp his voyce and wept. ¹²(For Iaakob tolde Rahel, that he was her fathers brother, and that he was Rebekahs sonne) then she ranne and tolde her father. ¹³And when Laban heard tell of Iaakob his sisters sonne, he ranne to meete him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house: and he tolde Laban all these things. ¹⁴To whome Laban sayd, Well, thou art my bone and my flesh. and he abode with him the space of a moneth. ¹⁵For Laban sayde vnto Iaakob, Though thou be my brother, shouldest thou therfore serue me for nought? tell me, what shalbe thy wages? ¹⁶Now Laban had two daughters, the elder called Leah, and the yonger called Rahel. ¹⁷And Leah was tender eyed, but Rahel was beautifull and faire. ¹⁸And Iaakob loued Rahel, and sayde, I will serue thee seuen yeeres for Rahel thy yonger daughter. ¹⁹Then Laban answered, It is better that I giue her thee, then that I should giue her to another man: abide with me. ²⁰And Iaakob serued seuen yeres for Rahel, and they seemed vnto him but a few dayes, because he loued her. ²¹Then Iaakob sayde to Laban, Giue me my wife, that I may goe in to her: for my terme is ended. ²²Wherefore Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast. ²³But whe the euening was come, he tooke Leah his daughter and brought her to him, and he went in vnto her. ²⁴And Laban gaue his mayde Zilpah to his daughter Leah, to be her seruant. ²⁵But when the morning was come, behold, it was Leah. Then sayde he to Laban, Wherefore hast thou done thus to mee? did not I serue thee for Rahel? wherfore then hast thou beguiled me? ²⁶And Laban answered, It is not the maner of this place, to giue the yonger before the elder. ²⁷Fulfill seuen yeeres for her, and we wil also giue thee this for the seruice, which thou shalt serue me yet seuen yeeres more. ²⁸Then Iaakob did so, and fulfilled her seuen yeeres, so he gaue him Rahel his daughter to be his wife. ²⁹Laban also gaue to Rahel his daughter Bilhah his mayde to be her seruant. ³⁰So entred he in to Rahel also, and loued also Rahel more then Leah, and serued him yet seuen yeeres more. ³¹When the Lord saw that Leah was despised, he made her fruitful: but Rahel was barren. ³²And Leah conceiued and bare a sonne, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Because the Lord hath looked vpon my tribulation, now therefore mine husband will loue me. ³³And she conceiued againe and bare a sonne, and sayde, Because the Lord heard that I was hated, he hath therefore giuen me this sonne also, and she called his name Simeon. ³⁴And she conceiued againe and bare a sonne, and said, Now at this time wil my husband keepe mee company, because I haue borne him three sonnes: therefore was his name called Leui. ³⁵Moreouer shee conceiued againe and bare a sonne, saying, Nowe will I prayse the Lord: therefore shee called his name Iudah, and left bearing.

¹And when Rahel saw that she bare Iaakob no children, Rahel enuied her sister, and said vnto Iaakob, Giue me children, or els I dye. ²Then Iaakobs anger was kindled against Rahel, and he sayde, Am I in Gods steade, which hath withholden from thee the fruite of the wombe? ³And she said, Behold my maide Bilhah, goe in to her, and she shall beare vpon my knees, and I shall haue children also by her. ⁴Then shee

gaue him Bilhah her mayde to wife, and Iaakob went in to her. ⁵So Bilhah conceiued and bare Iaakob a sonne. ⁶Then said Rahel, God hath giuen sentence on my side, and hath also heard my voyce, and hath giuen mee a sonne: therefore called shee his name, Dan. ⁷And Bilhah Rahels maide coceiued againe, and bare Iaakob the second sonne. ⁸Then Rahel said, with excellent wrestlings haue I wrestled with my sister, and haue gotten the vpper hande: and shee called his name, Naphtali. ⁹And when Leah saw that she had left bearing, shee tooke Zilpah her mayde, and gaue her Iaakob to wife. ¹⁰And Zilpah Leahs mayde bare Iaakob a sonne. ¹¹Then sayd Leah, A companie commeth: and she called his name, Gad. ¹²Againe Zilpah Leahs mayde bare Iaakob another sonne. ¹³Then sayde Leah, Ah, blessed am I, for the daughters will blesse me. and she called his name, Asher. ¹⁴Nowe Reuben went in the dayes of the wheateharuest, and founde mandrakes in the fiede and brought them vnto his mother

Leah. Then sayde Rahel to Leah, Giue me, I pray thee, of thy sonnes mandrakes. ¹⁵But shee answered her, Is it a small matter for thee to take mine husband, except thou take my sonnes mandrakes also? Then sayde Rahel, Therefore he shall sleepe with thee this night for thy sonnes mandrakes. ¹⁶And Iaakob came from the fiede in the euening, and Leah went out to meete him, and sayde, Come in to mee, for I haue bought and payed for thee with my sonnes mandrakes: and he slept with her that night. ¹⁷And God heard Leah and shee conceiued, and bare vnto Iaakob the fift sonne. ¹⁸Then said Leah, God hath giuen me my reward, because I gaue my mayde to my husband, and she called his name Issachar. ¹⁹After, Leah conceiued againe, and bare Iaakob the sixt sonne. ²⁰Then Leah said, God hath endued me with a good dowrie: nowe will mine husband dwell with me, because I haue borne him sixe sonnes: and she called his name Zebulun. ²¹After that, shee bare a daughter, and shee called her name Dinah.

²²And God remembred Rahel, and God heard her, and opened her wombe. ²³So she conceiued and bare a sonne, and said, God hath taken away my rebuke. ²⁴And shee called his name Ioseph, saying, The Lord wil giue me yet another sonne. ²⁵And assoone as Rahel had borne Ioseph, Iaakob said to Laban, Sende me away that I may go vnto my place and to my countrey. ²⁶Giue me my wiues and my children, for whom I haue serued thee, and let me go: for thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee. ²⁷To whom Laban answered, If I haue nowe found fauour in thy sight tarie: I haue perceiued that the Lord hath blessed me for thy sake. ²⁸Also he said, Appoynt vnto me thy wages, and I will giue it thee. ²⁹But he sayd vnto him, Thou knowest, what seruice I haue done thee, and in what taking thy cattell hath bene vnder me. ³⁰For the litle, that thou haddest before I came, is increased into a multitude: and the Lord hath blessed thee by my comming: but nowe when shall I trauell for mine owne house also?

³¹Then he saide, What shall I giue thee? And Iaakob answered, Thou shalt giue mee nothing at all: if thou wilt doe this thing for mee, I will returne, feede, and keepe thy sheepe. ³²I wil passe through all thy flockes this day, and separate from them all the sheepe with litle spots and great spots, and al blacke lambes among the sheepe, and the great spotted, and litle spotted among the goates: and it shalbe my wages. ³³So shall my righteousnessse answeere for me hereafter, when it shall come for my rewarde before thy face, and euery one that hath not litle or great spots among the goates, and blacke among the sheepe, the same shalbe theft with me. ³⁴Then Laban sayde, Goe to, woulde God it might be according to thy saying. ³⁵Therefore he tooke out the same day the hee goates that were partie coloured and with great spots, and all the shee goates with litle and great spots, and all that had white in them, and all the blacke among the sheepe, and put them in the keeping of his sonnes. ³⁶And hee set three dayes iourney betweene himselfe and Iaakob.

And Iaakob kept the rest of Labans sheepe. ³⁷Then Iaakob tooke rods of greene popular, and of hasell, and of the chesnut tree, and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appeare in the rods. ³⁸Then he put the rods, which he had pilled, in the gutters and watering troughes, when the sheepe came to drink, before the sheepe. (for they were in heate, when they came to drinke) ³⁹And the sheepe were in heate before the rods, and afterward brought forth yong of partie colour, and with small and great spots. ⁴⁰And Iaakob parted these lambes, and turned the faces of the flocke towardses these lambes partie coloured and all maner of blacke, among the sheepe of Laban: so hee put his owne flockes by themselues, and put them not with Labans flocke. ⁴¹And in euery ramming time of the stronger sheepe, Iaakob layde the rods before the eyes of the sheepe in the gutters, that they might conceiue before the rods. ⁴²But when the sheepe were feeble, hee put them not in: and so the feebler were Labans, and the stronger Iaakobs. ⁴³So the man increased exceedingly, and had many flockes, and maide seruantes, and men seruants, and camels and asses.

¹Now he heard the words of Labans sonnes, saying, Iaakob hath taken away all that was our fathers, and of our fathers goods hath he gotten all this honour. ²Also Iaakob beheld the countenance of Laban, that it was not towards him as in times past: ³And the Lord had said vnto Iaakob, Turne againe into the lande of thy fathers, and to thy kinred, and I wilbe with thee. ⁴Therefore Iaakob sent and called Rahel and Leah to the fielde vnto his flocke. ⁵Then sayde hee vnto them, I see your fathers countenance, that it is not towardses me as it was wont, and the God of my father hath bene with me. ⁶And yee knowe that I haue serued your father with all my might. ⁷But your father hath deceiued me, and changed my wages tenne times: but God suffred him not to hurt me. ⁸If he

thus sayd, The spotted shall be thy wages, then all the sheepe bare spotted: and if he sayd thus, the party coloured shalbe thy rewarde, then bare all the sheepe particoloured. ⁹Thus hath God taken away your fathers substance, and giuen it me. ¹⁰For in ramming time I lifted vp mine eyes and saw in a dreame, and beholde, ye hee goates leaped vpon the shee goates, that were partie coloured with litle and great spots spotted. ¹¹And the Angel of God sayde to mee in a dreame, Iaakob. And I answered, Lo, I am here. ¹²And he sayde, Lift vp nowe thine eyes, and see all the hee goates leaping vpon ye shee goates that are partie coloured, spotted with litle and great spots: for I haue seene all that Laban doeth vnto thee. ¹³I am the God of Beth-el, where thou anoyntedst the pillar, where thou vowedst a vowe vnto me. Nowe arise, get thee out of this cuntry and returne vnto ye land where thou wast borne. ¹⁴Then answered Rahel and Leah, and sayde vnto him, Haue wee any more porcion and inheritance in our fathers house? ¹⁵Doeth not he count vs as strangers? for he hath solde vs, and hath eaten vp and consumed our money. ¹⁶Therefore all the riches, which God hath taken from our father, is ours and our childrens: nowe then whatsoeuer God hath saide vnto thee, doe it. ¹⁷Then Iaakob rose vp, and set his sonnes and his wiues vpon camels. ¹⁸And he caried away all his flockes, and al his substance which he had gotten, to wit, his riches, which he had gotten in Padan Aram, to goe to Izhak his father vnto the land of Canaan. ¹⁹Whe Laban was gone to shere his sheepe, Then Rahel stole her fathers idoles. ²⁰Thus Iaakob stole away ye heart of Laban the Aramite: for he told him not that he fled. ²¹So fled he with all that he had, and he rose vp, and passed the riuer, and set his face towarde mount Gilead. ²²And the third day after was it told Laban, that Iaakob fled. ²³Then he tooke his brethren with him, and followed after him seuen dayes iourney, and ouertooke him at mount Gilead. ²⁴And God came to Laban the Aramite in a dreame by night, and sayde vnto him, Take heede that thou speake not to Iaakob ought saue good. ²⁵Then Laban ouertooke Iaakob, and Iaakob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban also with his brethren pitched vpon mount Gilead. ²⁶Then Laban sayde to Iaakob, What hast thou done? thou hast euen stolen away mine heart and caried away my daughters as though they had bene taken captiues with the sworde. ²⁷Wherefore diddest thou flie so secretly and steale away from me, and diddest not tel me, that I might haue sent thee foorth with mirth and with songs, with timbrel and with harpe? ²⁸But thou hast not suffered me to kisse my sonnes and my daughters: nowe thou hast done foolishly in doing so. ²⁹I am able to do you euill: but the God of your father spake vnto me yesternight, saying, Take heed that thou speake not to Iaakob ought saue good. ³⁰Nowe though thou wentest thy way, because thou greatly longedst after thy fathers house, yet wherefore hast thou stollen my gods? ³¹Then Iaakob answered, and said to Laban, Because I was afraid, and thought that thou wouldest haue taken thy daughters from me. ³²But with whome thou findest thy gods, let him not liue. Search thou before our brethre what I haue of thine, and take it to thee, (but Iaakob wist not that Rahel had stolen them) ³³Then came Laban into Iaakobs tent, and into Leahs tent, and into the two maides tentes, but founde them not. So hee went out of Leahs tent, and entred into Rahels tent. ³⁴(Nowe Rahel had taken the idoles, and put them in the camels litter and sate downe vpon them) and Laban searched al the tent, but found them not. ³⁵Then said she to her father, My Lord, be not angrie that I cannot rise vp before thee: for the custome of women is vpon me: so he searched, but found not the idoles. ³⁶The Iaakob was wroth, and chode with Laban: Iaakob also answered and sayd to Laban, What haue I trespassed? what haue I offended, that thou hast pursued after me? ³⁷Seeing thou hast searched all my stuffe, what hast thou foud of all thine houshold stuffe? put it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may iudge betweene vs both. ³⁸This twenty yere I haue bin with thee: thine ewes and thy goates haue not cast their yong, and the rammes of thy flocke haue I not eaten. ³⁹Whatsoever was torne of beasts, I brought it not vnto thee, but made it good my selfe: of mine hand diddest thou require it, were it stollen by day or stollen by night. ⁴⁰I was in the day consumed with heate, and with frost in the night, and my sleepe departed from mine eyes. ⁴¹Thus haue I bene twentie yeere in thine house, and serued thee fourteene yeeres for thy two daughters, and sixe yeeres for thy sheepe, and thou hast changed my wages tenne times. ⁴²Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the feare of Izhak had bene with me, surely thou haddest sent me away nowe emptie: but God behelde my tribulation, and the labour of mine hads, and rebuked thee yester night. ⁴³Then Laban answered, and saide vnto Iaakob, These daughters are my daughters, and these sonnes are my sonnes, and these sheepe are my sheepe, and all that thou seest, is mine, and what can I doe this day vnto these my daughters, or to their sonnes which they haue borne? ⁴⁴Nowe therefore come and let vs make a couenant, I and thou, which may be a witnesse betweene me and thee. ⁴⁵Then tooke Iaakob a stone, and set it vp as a pillar: ⁴⁶And Iaakob sayde vnto his brethren, Gather stones: who brought stones, and made an heape, and they did eate there vpon the heape. ⁴⁷And Laban called it Iegar-sahadutha, and Iaakob called it Galeed. ⁴⁸For Laban sayd, This heape is witnesse betweene me and thee this day: therefore he called the name of it Galeed. ⁴⁹Also he called it Mizpah, because he said, The Lord looke betweene me and thee, when we shalbe departed one from another, ⁵⁰If thou shalt vex my daughters, or shalt take wiues beside my daughters: there is no man with vs, beholde, God is witnesse betweene me and thee. ⁵¹Moreouer Laban sayd to Iaakob, Beholde this heape, and behold the pillar, which I haue set betweene me and thee, ⁵²This heape shall be witnesse, and the pillar shall be witnesse, that I will not come ouer this heape to thee, and that thou shalt not passe ouer this heape and this pillar vnto me for euill. ⁵³The God of Abraham, and the God of Nabor, and the God of their father be iudge betweene vs: But Iaakob sware by the feare of his father Izhak. ⁵⁴Then Iaakob did offer a sacrifice vpon the mount, and called his brethren to eate bread. and they did eate bread, and taried all night in the mount. ⁵⁵And earely in the morning Laban rose vp and kissed his sonnes and his daughters, and blessed them, and Laban departing, went vnto his place againe.

¹Nowe Iaakob went forth on his iourney and the Angels of God met him. ²And when Iaakob saw them, he said, This is Gods hoste, and called the name of the same place Mahanaim. ³Then Iaakob sent messengers before him to

Esau his brother, vnto the land of Seir into the countrey of Edom: ⁴To whom he gaue commandement, saying, Thus shall ye speake to my lorde Esau: thy seruant Iaakob sayeth thus, I haue bene a stranger with Laban, and taried vnto this time. ⁵I haue beeues also and Asses, sheepe, and men seruantes, and women seruantes, and haue sent to shew my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight. ⁶So ye messengers came againe to Iaakob, saying, We came vnto thy brother Esau, and hee also commeth against thee and foure hundreth men with him. ⁷Then Iaakob was greatly afraid, and was sore troubled, and deuided the people that was with him, and the sheepe, and the beeues, and the camels into two companies. ⁸For he said, If Esau come to ye one company and smite it, the other companie shall escape. ⁹Moreouer Iaakob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Izhak: Lord, which saydest vnto me, Returne vnto thy coutrey and to thy kinred, and I will do thee good, ¹⁰I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and al the trueth, which thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant: for with my staffe came I ouer this Iorden, and now haue I gotte two bads. ¹¹I pray thee, Deliuer me from the hande of my brother, from the hande of Esau: for I feare him, least he will come and smite me, and the mother vpon the children. ¹²For thou saydest; I will surely doe thee good, and make thy seede as the sande of the sea, which can not be nombred for multitude. ¹³And he taryed there the same night, and tooke of that which came to had, a present for Esau his brother: ¹⁴Two hundreth shee goates and twenty hee goates, two hundreth ewes and twentie rammes: ¹⁵Thirtie mylche camels with their coltes, fourtie kine, and ten bullockes, twentie she asses and ten foles. ¹⁶So he deliuered them into the hande of his seruants, euery droue by themselues, and saide vnto his seruants, Passe before me, and put a space betweene droue and droue. ¹⁷And he commanded the formost, saying, If Esau my brother meete thee, and aske thee, saying,

Whose seruant art thou? And whither goest thou? And whose are these before thee? ¹⁸Then thou shalt say, They be thy seruant Iaakobs: it is a present sent vnto my lord Esau: and beholde, he him selfe also is behinde vs. ¹⁹So likewise commanded he the seconde and the thirde, and all that followed the droues, saying, After this maner, ye shall speake vnto Esau, when ye finde him. ²⁰And ye shall say moreouer, Beholde, thy seruant Iaakob commeth after vs (for he thought, I will appease his wrath with the present that goeth before me, and afterwarde I will see his face: it may be that he will accept me.) ²¹So went the present before him: but he taried that night with the companie. ²²And he rose vp the same night, and tooke his two wiues, and his two maides, and his eleuen children, and went ouer the forde Iabbok. ²³And he tooke them, and sent them ouer the riuer, and sent ouer that he had. ²⁴Now when Iaakob was left him selfe alone, there wrestled a man with him vnto the breaking of the day. ²⁵And he sawe that he could not preuaile against him: therefore he touched the holowe of his thigh, and the holowe of Iaakobs thigh was loosed, as he wrestled with him.

²⁶And he saide, Let me goe, for the morning appeareth. Who answered, I will not let thee go except thou blesse me. ²⁷Then said he vnto him, What is thy name? And he said, Iaakob.

²⁸Then said he, Thy name shalbe called Iaakob no more, but Israel: because thou hast had power with God, thou shalt also preuaile with men. ²⁹Then Iaakob demaded, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore now doest thou aske my name? and he blessed him there ³⁰And Iaakob called the name of the place, Peniel: for, saide he, I haue seene God face to face, and my life is preserued. ³¹And the sunne rose vp to him as he passed Peniel, and he halted vpon his thigh. ³²Therefore the children of Israel eate not of the sinewe that shranke in the hollowe of the thigh, vnto this day: because he touched the sinew that shranke in the holow of Iaakobs thigh.

¹And as Iaakob lift vp his eyes, and looked, behold, Esau came, and with him foure hundreth men: and he deuided the children to Leah, and to Rahel, and to the two maides. ²And he put the maides, and their children formost, and Leah, and her children after, and Rahel, and Ioseph hindermost. ³So he went before them and bowed him selfe to the ground seuen times, vntill he came neere to his brother.

droue, which I met? Who answered, I haue sent it, that I may finde fauour in the sight of my lorde: ⁹And Esau said, I haue ynough, my brother: keepe that thou hast to thy selfe. ¹⁰But Iaakob answered, Nay, I pray thee: if I haue found grace nowe in thy sight, then receiue my present at mine hande: for I haue seene thy face, as though I had seene the face of God, because thou hast accepted me. ¹¹I pray thee take my blessing, that is brought thee: for God hath had mercie on me, and therefore I haue all things: so he compelled him, and he tooke it. ¹²And he saide, Let vs take our iourney and go, and I will goe before thee. ¹³Then he answered him, My lord knoweth, that the children are tender, and the ewes and kine with yong vnder mine hande: and if they should ouerdriue them one day, all the flocke would die. ¹⁴Let now my lord go before his seruant, and I will driue softly, according to ye pase of ye cattel, which is before me, and as the children be able to endure, vntill I come to my lord vnto Seir. ¹⁵Then

Esau said, I will leaue then some of my folke with thee. And he answered, what needeth this? let me finde grace in the sight of my lorde. ¹⁶So Esau returned, and went his way that same day vnto Seir. ¹⁷And Iaakob went forwarde towarde Succoth, and built him an house, and made bootches for his cattell: therefore he called the name of the place Succoth. ¹⁸Afterward, Iaakob came safe to Sheche a citie, which is in the lande of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram, and pitched before the citie. ¹⁹And there he bought a parcell of ground, where hee pitched his tent, at the hande of the sonnes of Hamor Shechems father, for an hundreth pieces of money. ²⁰And he set vp there an altar, and called it, The mightie God of Israel.

¹Then Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare vnto Iaakob, went out to see the daughters of that countrey. ²Whome when Shechem the sonne of Hamor the Hiuite lorde of that countrey sawe, hee tooke her, and lay with her, and defiled her. ³So his heart claue vnto Dinah the daughter of Iaakob: and he loued the maide, and spake kindly vnto the maide. ⁴Then said Shechem to his father Hamor, saying, Get me this maide to wife. ⁵(Nowe Iaakob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, and his sonnes were with his cattell in the felde: therefore Iaakob helde his peace, vntill they were come.) ⁶Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out vnto Iaakob to commune with him. ⁷And whe the sonnes of Iaakob were come out of the felde and heard it, it grieved the men, and they were very angry, because he had wrought villenie in Israel, in that he had lyen with Iaakobs daughter: which thing ought not to be done. ⁸And Hamor communed with them, saying, the soule of my sonne Shechem longeth for your daughter: giue her him to wife, I pray you. ⁹So make affinitie with vs: giue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto you, ¹⁰And ye shall dwell with vs, and the lande shalbe before you: dwell, and doe your businesse in it, and haue your possessions therein. ¹¹Shechem also said vnto her father and vnto her brethren, Let me finde fauour in your eyes, and I will giue whatsoever ye shall appoint me. ¹²Aske of me abundantly both dowrie and giftes, and I will giue as ye appoint me, so that ye giue me the maide to wife. ¹³Then the sonnes of Iaakob answered Shechem and Hamor his father, talking deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister, ¹⁴And they said vnto them, We can not do this thing, to giue our sister to an vncircumcised man: for that were a reproofe vnto vs. ¹⁵But in this will we consent vnto you, if ye will be as we are, that euery man childe among you be circumcised: ¹⁶Then will we giue our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to vs, and will dwell with you, and be one people. ¹⁷But if ye will not hearken vnto vs to be circumcised, then will we take our daughter and depart. ¹⁸Nowe their wordes pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamors sonne. ¹⁹And the yong man deferd not to doe the thing because he loued Iaakobs daughter: he was also the most set by of all his fathers house. ²⁰Then Hamor and Shechem his Sonne went vnto the gate of their citie, and communed with the men of their citie, saying, ²¹These men are peaceable with vs: and that they may dwell in the land, and doe their affaires therin (for behold, the land hath rounge ynough for them) let vs take their daughters to wiues, and giue them our daughters. ²²Onely herein will the men consent vnto vs for to dwell with vs, and to be one people, if all the men children among vs be circumcised as they are circumcised. ²³Shall not their flockes and their substance and all their cattell be ours? onely let vs consent herein vnto them, and they will dwell with vs. ²⁴And vnto Hamor, and Shechem his sonne hearkened all that went out of the gate of his citie: and all the men children were circumcised, euen all that went out of the gate of his citie. ²⁵And on the thirde day (when they were sore) two of the sonnes of Iaakob, Simeon and Leui, Dinahs brethren tooke either of them his sworde and went into the citie boldly, and slue euery male. ²⁶They slewe also Hamor and Shechem his sonne with the edge of the sword, and tooke Dinah out of Shechems house, and went their way. ²⁷Againe the other sonnes of Iaakob came vpon the dead, and spoyled the citie, because they had defiled their sister. ²⁸They tooke their sheepe and their beeues, and their asses, and whatsoeuer was in the citie, and in the fieldes. ²⁹Also they caryed away captiue and spoyled all their goods, and all their children and their wiues, and all that was in the houses. ³⁰Then Iaakob said to Simeon and Leui, Ye haue troubled me, and made me stinke among the inhabitats of the land, aswell the Canaanites, as the Perizzites, and and I being few in nomber, they shall gather theselues together against me, and slay me, and so shall I, and my house be destroyed. ³¹And they answered, Shoulde hee abuse our sister as a whore?

¹Then God sayde to Iaakob, Arise, goe vp to Beth-el and dwell there, and make there an altar vnto God, that appeared vnto thee, when thou fleddest from Esau thy brother. ²Then saide Iaakob vnto his houshold and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and clense your selues, and change your garments: ³For we will rise and goe vp to Beth-el, and I will make an altar there vnto God, which heard me in the day of my tribulation, and was with me in the way which I went. ⁴And they gaue vnto Iaakob all the strange gods, which were in their hands, and all their earrings which were in their eares, and Iaakob hidde them vnder an oke, which was by Shechem. ⁵Then they went on their iourney, and the feare of God was vpon the cities that were roud about them: so that they did not follow after the sonnes of Iaakob. ⁶So came Iaakob to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan: (the same is Beth-el) hee and all the people that was with him.

⁷And he built there an altar, and had called the place, The God of Beth-el, because that God appeared vnto him there, when he fled from his brother. ⁸Then Deborah Rebekahs nourse dyed, and was buried beneath Beth-el vnder an oke: and he called the name of it Allon Bachuth. ⁹Againe God appeared vnto Iaakob, after he came out of Padan Aram, and blessed him. ¹⁰Moreouer God said vnto him, Thy name is Iaakob: thy name shalbe no more called Iaakob, but Israel shalbe thy name: and hee called his name Israel. ¹¹Againe God said vnto him, I am God all sufficient. growe, and multiplie. a nation and a multitude of nations shall spring of thee, and Kings shall come out of thy loynes. ¹²Also I will giue the lande, which I gaue to Abraham and Izhak, vnto thee: and vnto thy seede after thee will I giue that land. ¹³So God ascended from him in the place where he had talked with him. ¹⁴And Iaakob set vp a pillar in the place where he talked with him, a pillar of stone, and powred drinke offering thereon:

also hee powred oyle thereon. ¹⁵And Iaakob called the name of the place, where God spake with him, Beth-el. ¹⁶Then they departed from Beth-el, and when there was about halfe a daies iourney of ground to come to Ephrath, Rahel trauailed, and in trauailing she was in perill. ¹⁷And whe she was in paines of her labour, the midwife saide vnto her, Feare not: for thou shalt haue this sonne also. ¹⁸Then as she was about to yeelde vp the Ghost (for she died) she called his name Ben-oni, but his father called him Benjamin. ¹⁹Thus died Rahel, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem. ²⁰And Iaakob set a pillar vpon her graue: This is the pillar of Rahels graue vnto this day. ²¹Then Israel went forward, and pitched his tent beyond Migdal-eder. ²²Now, when Israel dwelt in that land, Reuben went, and lay with Bilhah his fathers concubine, and it came to Israels eare. And Iaakob had twelue sonnes. ²³The sonnes of Leah: Reuben Iaakobs eldest sonne, and Simeon, and Leui, and Iudah, and Issachar, and Zebulun.

²⁴The sonnes of Rahel: Ioseph and Benjamin. ²⁵And the sonnes of Bilhah Rahels maide: Dan and Naphtali. ²⁶And the sonnes of Zilpah Leahs maide: Gad and Asher. These are the sonnes of Iaakob, which were borne him in Padan Aram. ²⁷Then Iaakob came vnto Izhak his father to Mamre a citie of Arbah: this is Hebron, where Abraham and Izhak were strangers. ²⁸And the daies of Izhak were an hundreth and fourescore yeeres. ²⁹And Izhak gaue vp the ghost and died, and was gathered vnto his people, being olde and full of daies: and his sonnes Esau and Iaakob buried him.

¹Nowe these are the generations of Esau, which is Edom. ²Esau tooke his wiues of the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon an Hittite, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon an Hiuite, ³And tooke Basemath Ishmaels daughter, sister of Nebaioth. ⁴And Adah bare vnto Esau, Eliphaz: and Basemath bare

Reuel. ⁵Also Aholibamah bare Ieush, and Iaalam, and Korah:
these are the sonnes of Esau which were borne to him in the land of Canaan. ⁶So Esau tooke his wiues and his sonnes, and his daughters, and all the soules of his house, and his flocks, and all his cattell, and all his substance, which he had gotten in the land of Canaan, and went into an other countrie from his brother Iaakob.
⁷For their riches were so great, that they could not dwell together, and the lande, wherein they were strangers, could not receiue them because of their flockes. ⁸Therefore dwelt Esau in mount Seir: this Esau is Edom.
⁹So these are the generations of Esau father of Edom in mount Seir. ¹⁰These are the names of Esaus sonnes: Eliphaz, the sonne of Adah, the wife of Esau, and Reuel the sonne of Bashemath, the wife of Esau. ¹¹And the sonnes of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz. ¹²And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esaus sonne, and bare vnto Eliphaz, Amalek: these be the sonnes of Adah Esaus wife. ¹³And these are the sonnes of Reuel: Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah:

these were the sonnes of Bashemath Esaus wife. ¹⁴And these were the sonnes of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, daughter of Zibeon Esaus wife: for she bare vnto Esau, Ieush, and Iaalam, and Korah.
¹⁵These were Dukes of the sonnes of Esau: the sonnes of Eliphaz, the first borne of Esau: Duke Teman, Duke Omar, Duke
Zepho, Duke Kenaz, ¹⁶Duke
Korah, Duke Gatam, Duke Amalek: these are the Dukes that came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom: these were the sonnes of Adah. ¹⁷And these are the sonnes of Reuel Esaus sonne: Duke Nahath, Duke Zerah, Duke Shammah, Duke Mizzah: these are the Dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom: these are the sonnes of Bashemath Esaus wife.
¹⁸Likewise these were the sonnes of Aholibamah Esaus wife: Duke Ieush, Duke Iaalam, Duke Korah: these Dukes came of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah Esaus wife. ¹⁹These are the children of Esau, and these are the Dukes of them: This Esau is Edom. ²⁰These are the sonnes of Seir the Horite, which inhabited the lande before, Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah. ²¹And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the Dukes of the Horites, the sonnes of Seir in the land of Edom. ²²And the sonnes of Lotan were, Hori and Hemam, and Lotans sister was Timna. ²³And the sonnes of Shobal were these: Aluan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam. ²⁴And these are the sonnes of Zibeon: Both Aiah, and Anah: this was Anah that founde mules in the wilderness, as he fedde his father Zibeons asses. ²⁵And the children of Anah were these: Dishon and Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah. ²⁶Also these are the sonnes of Dishan: Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran. ²⁷The sonnes of Ezer are these: Bilhan, and Zaauban, and Akan. ²⁸The sonnes of Dishan are these: Vz, and Aran. ²⁹These are the Dukes of the Horites: Duke Lotan, Duke Shobal, Duke Zibeon, Duke Anah, ³⁰Duke

Dishon, Duke Ezer, Duke Dishan: these bee the Dukes of the Horites, after their Dukedomes in the land of Seir. ³¹And these are the Kings that reigned in the lande of Edom, before there reigned any King ouer the children of Israel. ³²Then Bela the sonne of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his citie was Dinhabah. ³³And when Bela dyed, Iobab the sonne of Zerah of Bozra reigned in his steade. ³⁴When Iobab also was dead, Husham of the land of Temani reigned in his steade. ³⁵And after the death of Husham, Hadad the sonne of Bedad, which slewe Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his steade, and the name of his citie was Auith. ³⁶When Hadad was dead, then Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his steade. ³⁷When Samlah was dead, Shaul of Rehoboth by the riuer, reigned in his steade. ³⁸When Shaul dyed, Baal-hanan the sonne of Achbor reigned in his steade. ³⁹And after the death of Baal-hanan the sonne of Achbor, Hadad reigned in his stead, and the name of his citie was Pau: and his wiues name Mehetabel the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab. ⁴⁰Then these are the names of the Dukes of Esau according to their families, their places and by their names: Duke Timna, Duke Aluah, Duke Ietheth, ⁴¹Duke Aholibamah, Duke Elah, Duke Pinon, ⁴²Duke Kenaz, Duke Teman, Duke Mibzar, ⁴³Duke Magdiel, Duke Iram: these bee the Dukes of Edom, according to their habitations, in the lande of their inheritance. This Esau is the father of Edom made him a coat of many colours. ⁴So when his brethren sawe that their father loued him more then all his brethren, then they hated him, and could not speake peaceably vnto him. ⁵And Ioseph dreamed a dreame, and told his brethren, who hated him so much the more. ⁶For he saide vnto them, Heare, I pray you, this dreame which I haue dreamed. ⁷Beholde nowe, wee were binding sheues in the middes of the field: and loe, my shefe arose and also stode vpright, and behold, your sheues compassed rounde about, and did reuerence to my shefe. ⁸Then his brethren saide to him, What, shalt thou reigne ouer vs, and rule vs? or shalt thou haue altogether dominion ouer vs? And they hated him so much the more, for his dreames, and for his wordes. ⁹Againe hee dreamed an other dreame, and tolde it his brethren, and saide, Behold, I haue had one dreame more, and beholde, the Sunne and the Moone and eleuen starres did reuerence to me. ¹⁰Then he tolde it vnto his father and to his brethren, and his father rebuked him, and saide vnto him, What is this dreame, which thou hast dreamed? shall I, and thy mother, and thy brethren come in deede and fall on the ground before thee? ¹¹And his brethren enuied him, but his father noted the saying. ¹²Then his brethren went to keepe their fathers sheepe in Shechem. ¹³And Israel said vnto Ioseph, Doe not thy brethren keepe in Shechem? come and I will send thee to them. ¹⁴And he answered him, I am here. Then he saide vnto him, Goe now, see whether it bee well with thy brethren, and how the flocks prosper, and bring me word againe. so hee sent him from the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. ¹⁵Then a man found him: for lo, hee was wandring in the field, and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou? ¹⁶And he answered, I seeke my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they keepe sheepe. ¹⁷And the man said, they are departed hece: for I heard them say, Let vs goe vnto Dothan. Then went Ioseph after his brethren, and found them in Dothan. ¹⁸And when they sawe him a farre off, euen before he came at them, they conspired against him for to slay him. ¹⁹For they sayd one to another, Behold, this dreamer commeth. ²⁰Come now therefore, and let vs slay him, and cast him into some pitte, and wee will say, A wicked beast hath deuoured him: then wee shall see, what will come of his dreames. ²¹But when Reuben heard that, he deliuered him out of their handes, and saide, Let vs not kill him. ²²Also Reuben saide vnto them, Shed not blood, but cast him into this pitte that is in the wilderness, and lay no hande vpon him. Thus he said, that he might deliuer him out of their hand, and restore him to his father againe. ²³Now when Ioseph was come vnto his brethren, they stript Ioseph out of his coate, his particoloured coate that was vpon him. ²⁴And they tooke him, and cast him into a pit, and the pit was emptie, without water in it. ²⁵Then they sate them downe to eate bread: and they lift vp their eyes and looked, and behold, there came a companie of Ishmeelites from Gilead, and their camels laden with spicerie, and balme, and myrrhe, and were going to cary it downe into Egypt.

²⁶Then Iudah said vnto his brethren, What auaieth it, if we slay our brother, though wee keepe his blood secret? ²⁷Come and let vs sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our handes be vpon him: for he is our brother and our flesh: and his brethren obeyed. ²⁸Then the Midianites marchant men passed by, and they drewe foorth, and lift Ioseph out of the pit, and solde Ioseph vnto the Ishmeelites for twentie pieces of siluer: who brought Ioseph into Egypt.

²⁹Afterwarde Reuben returned to the pit, and beholde, Ioseph was not in the pit: then he rent his clothes, ³⁰And returned to his brethren, and said, The childe is not yonder, and I, whither shall I goe? ³¹And they tooke Iosephs coate, and killed a kidde of the goates, and dipped the coate in the blood. ³²So they sent that particoloured coat, and they brought it vnto their father, and saide, This haue we founde: see nowe, whether it be thy sonnes coate, or no. ³³Then he knewe it and said, It is my sonnes coate: a wicked beast hath deuoured him: Ioseph is surely torne in pieces. ³⁴And Iaakob rent his clothes, and put sackecloth about his loynes, and sorowed for his sonne a long season. ³⁵Then all his sonnes and all his daughters rose vp to comfort him, but he woulde not be comforted, but said, Surely I will go downe into the graue vnto my sonne mourning: so his father wept for him. ³⁶And the Midianites solde him into Egypt vnto Potiphar an Eunuche of Pharaohs, and his chiefe stewarde.

¹And at that time Iudah went downe from his brethren, and turned in to a man called Hirah an Adullamite. ²And Iudah sawe there the daughter of a man called Suah a Canaanite: and he tooke her to wife, and went in vnto her. ³So she conceiued and bare a sonne, and he called his name Er. ⁴And she conceiued againe, and bare a sonne, and she called his name Onan. ⁵Moreouer she bare yet a sonne, whome she called Shelah: and Iudah was at Chezib when she bare him. ⁶Then Iudah tooke a wife to Er his first borne sonne whose name was Tamar. ⁷Now Er the first borne of Iudah was wicked in the sight of the Lord: therefore the Lord slewe him. ⁸Then Iudah said to Onan, Goe in vnto thy brothers wife, and do the office of a kinsman vnto her, and raise vp seede vnto thy brother. ⁹And Onan knewe that the seede should not be his: therefore when he went in vnto his brothers wife, he spilled it on the grounde, least he should giue seede vnto his brother. ¹⁰And it was wicked in the eyes of the Lord, which he did: wherefore he slewe him also. ¹¹Then said Iudah to Tamar his daughter in lawe, Remaine a widowe in thy fathers house, till Shelah my sonne growe vp (for he thought thus, Least he die as well as his brethren.) So Tamar went and dwelt in her fathers house. ¹²And in processe of time also the daughter of Shuah Iudahs wife dyed. Then Iudah, when he had left mourning, went vp to his sheepe sherers to Timnah, he, and his neighbour Hirah the Adullamite. ¹³And it was tolde Tamar, saying, beholde, thy father in lawe goeth vp to Timnah, to shere his sheepe. ¹⁴Then she put her widowes garments off from her, and couered her with a vaile, and wrapped her selfe, and sate downe in Pethah-enaim, which is by the way to Timnah, because she sawe that Shelah was growen, and she was not giuen vnto him to wife. ¹⁵When Iudah sawe her, he iudged her an whore: for she had couered her face. ¹⁶And he turned to the way towards her, and saide, Come, I pray thee, let me lie with thee. (for he knewe not that she was his daughter in lawe) And she answered, What wilt thou giue me for to lie with me? ¹⁷Then said he, I will sende thee a kid of the goates from the flocke. and she said, Well, if thou wilt giue me a pledge, till thou sende it. ¹⁸Then he saide, What is the pledge that I shall giue thee? And she answered, Thy signet, and thy cloke, and thy staffe that is in thine hande. So he gaue it her, and lay by her, and she was with childe by him. ¹⁹Then she rose, and went and put her vaile from her and put on her widowes raiment. ²⁰Afterwarde Iudah sent a kid of the goates by the hande of his neighbour the Adullamite, for to receiue his pledge from the womans hand: but he found her not. ²¹Then asked he the men of that place, saying, Where is ye whore, that sate in Enaim by the way side? And they answered, There was no whore here. ²²He came therefore to Iudah againe, and said, I can not finde her, and also the men of the place said, There was no whore there. ²³Then Iudah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be shamed: beholde, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her. ²⁴Now after three moneths, one tolde Iudah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the whore, and lo, with playing the whore, she is great with childe. Then Iudah saide, Bring ye her foorth and let her be burnt. ²⁵When she was brought foorth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, vnto whom these things pertaine, am I with childe: and saide also,

Looke, I pray thee, whose these are, the seale, and the cloke, and the staffe. ²⁶Then Iudah knewe them, and said, She is more righteous then I: for she hath done it because I gaue her not to Shelah my sonne. So he lay with her no more. ²⁷Now, when the time was come that she should be deliuered, beholde, there were twinnes in her wombe. ²⁸And when she was in trauell, the one put out his hand: and the midwife tooke and bound a red threde about his hand, saying, This is come out first. ²⁹But when he plucked his hand backe againe, loe, his brother came out, and the midwife said, How hast thou broken the breach vpon thee? and his name was called Pharez. ³⁰And afterward came out his brother that had the red threde about his hande, and his name was called Zarah.

¹Now Ioseph was brought downe into Egypt: and Potiphar an Eunuche of Pharaohs (and his chiefe stewarde an Egyptian) bought him at the hande of the

Ishmeelites, which had brought him thither. ²And the Lord was with Ioseph, and he was a man that prospered and was in the house of his master the Egyptian. ³And his master sawe that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord made all that hee did to prosper in his hande. ⁴So Ioseph founde fauour in his sight, and serued him: and he made him ruler of his house, and put all that he had in his hand. ⁵And from that time that he had made him ruler ouer his house and ouer all that he had, the Lord blessed the Egyptians house for Iosephs sake: and the blessing of the Lord was vpon all that he had in the house, and in the field. ⁶Therefore he left all that he had in Iosephs hand, and tooke accompt of nothing, that was with him, saue onely of the bread, which he did eate. And Ioseph was a faire person, and well fauoured. ⁷Nowe therefore after these thinges, his masters wife cast her eyes vpon Ioseph, and saide, Lye with me. ⁸But he refused and said to his masters wife, Beholde, my master knoweth not what he hath in the house with me, but hath committed all that he hath to mine hande. ⁹There is no man greater in this house then I: neither hath he kept any thing from me, but only thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickednes and so sinne against God? ¹⁰And albeit she spake to Ioseph day by day, yet he hearkened not vnto her, to lye with her, or to be in her company. ¹¹Then on a certaine day Ioseph entred into the house, to doe his businesse: and there was no man of the houshold in the house: ¹²Therefore she caught him by his garmet, saying, Sleepe with me: but he left his garment in her hand and fled, and got him out. ¹³Nowe when she sawe that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled out, ¹⁴She called vnto the men of her house, and tolde them, saying, Beholde, he hath brought in an Ebrewe vnto vs to mocke vs: who came in to me for to haue slept with me: but I cryed with a loude voyce. ¹⁵And when he heard that I lift vp my voice and cryed, he left his garment with me, and fled away, and got him out. ¹⁶So she layde vp his garment by her, vntill her lord came home. ¹⁷Then she tolde him according to these words, saying, The Ebrew seruāt, which thou hast brought vnto vs, came in to me, to mocke me. ¹⁸But assoone as I lift vp my voyce and cried, he left his garment with me, and fled out. ¹⁹Then when his master heard the wordes of his wife, which she tolde him, saying, After this maner did thy seruāt to me, his anger was kindled. ²⁰And Iosephs master tooke him and put him in prison, in the place, where the kings prisoners lay bounde: and there he was in prison. ²¹But the Lord was with Ioseph, and shewed him mercie, and got him fauour in the sight of the master of the prison. ²²And the keeper of the prison committed to Iosephs hande all the prisoners that were in the prison, and whatsoeuer they did there, that did he. ²³And the keeper of the prison looked vnto nothing that was vnder his hande, seeing that the Lord was with him: for whatsoeuer he did, the Lord made it to prosper.

¹And after these things, the butler of the King of Egypt and his baker offended their lorde the King of Egypt. ²And Pharaoh was angrie against his two officers, against the chiefe butler, and against the chiefe baker. ³Therefore he put them in ward in his chiefe stewardes house, in the prison and place where Ioseph was bound. ⁴And the chiefe steward gaue Ioseph charge ouer them, and he serued them: and they continued a season in warde. ⁵And they both dreamed a dreame, eyther of them his dreame in one night, eche one according to the interpretation of his dreame, both the butler and the baker of the King of Egypt, which were bounde in the prison. ⁶And when Ioseph came in vnto them in the morning, and looked vpon them, beholde, they were sad. ⁷And he asked Pharaohs officers, that were with him in his masters warde, saying, Wherefore looke ye so sadly to day? ⁸Who answered him, We haue dreamed, eche one a dreame, and there is none to interpret the same. Then Ioseph saide vnto them, Are not interpretations of God? tell them me now. ⁹So the chiefe butler tolde his dreame to Ioseph, and said vnto him, In my dreame, behold, a vine was before me, ¹⁰And in the vine were three branches, and as it budded, her flowre came foorth: and the clusters of grapes waxed ripe. ¹¹And I had Pharaohs cup in mine hande, and I tooke the grapes, and wrung the into Pharaohs cup, and I gaue the cup into Pharaohs hand. ¹²Then Ioseph sayde vnto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three braunches are three dayes. ¹³Within three dayes shall Pharaoh lift vp thine head, and restore thee vnto thine office, and thou shalt giue Pharaohs cup into his hand after the olde maner, when thou wast his butler. ¹⁴But haue me in remembrance with thee, when thou art in good case, and shew mercie, I pray thee, vnto me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring me out of this house. ¹⁵For I was stollen away by theft out of the land of the Ebrewes, and here also haue I done nothing, wherefore they should put mee in the dungeon. ¹⁶And when the chiefe baker sawe that the interpretation was good, hee saide vnto Ioseph, Also mee thought in my dreame that I had three white baskets on mine head. ¹⁷And in the vppermost basket there was of all maner baken meates for Pharaoh: and the birdes did eate them out of the basket vpon mine head. ¹⁸Then Ioseph answered, and saide, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three dayes: ¹⁹Within three dayes shall Pharaoh take thine head from thee, and shall hang thee on a tree, and the birdes shall eate thy flesh from off thee. ²⁰And so the third day, which was Pharaohs birthday, hee made a feast vnto all his seruants: and hee lifted vp the head of the chiefe butler, and the head of the chiefe baker among his seruants. ²¹And he restored the chiefe butler vnto his butlershippe, who gaue the cup into Pharaohs hande, ²²But he hanged the chiefe baker, as Ioseph had interpreted vnto them. ²³Yet the chiefe butler did not remember Ioseph, but forgate him.

¹And two yeeres after, Pharaoh also dreamed, and beholde, he stode by a riuier, ²And loe, there came out of the riuier seuen goodly kine and fatfleshed, and they fedde in a medowe: ³And loe, seuen other kine came vp after the out of the riuier, euill fauoured and leane fleshed, and stode by the other kine vpon the brinke of the riuier. ⁴And the euilfaouered and leane fleshed kine did eate vp the seuen welfauoured and fatte kine: so Pharaoh awoke. ⁵Againe he slept, and dreamed the second time: and beholde, seuen eares of corne grewe vpon one stalke, ranke and goodly. ⁶And loe, seuen thinne eares, and blasted with the east winde, sprang vp after them: ⁷And the thinne eares deuoured the seuen ranke and full eares. then Pharaoh awaked, and loe, it was a dreame. ⁸Nowe when the morning came, his spirit was troubled: therefore he sent and called all the soothsayers of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof, and Pharaoh tolde them his dreames: but none coulde interprete them to Pharaoh.

¹⁰Pharaoh being angrie with his seruantes, put me in ward in the chiefe stewards house, both me and the chiefe baker. ¹¹Then we dreamed a dreame in one night, both I, and he: we dreamed eche man according to the interpretation of his dreame.

¹²And there was with vs a yong man, an Ebrew, seruant vnto the chiefe steward, whome when we told, he declared our dreames to vs, to euery one he declared according to his dreame. ¹³And as he declared vnto vs, so it came to passe: for he restored me to mine office, and hanged him. ¹⁴Then sent Pharaoh, and called Ioseph, and they brought him hastily out of prison, and he shaued him, and chaunged his rayment, and came to Pharaoh. ¹⁵Then Pharaoh sayde to Ioseph, I haue dreamed a dreame, and no man can interprete it, and I haue hearde say of thee, that when thou hearest a dreame, thou canst interpret it. ¹⁶And Ioseph answered Pharaoh, saying, Without me God shall answere for the wealth of Pharaoh. ¹⁷And Pharaoh sayde vnto Ioseph, In my dreame, beholde, I stoode by the banke of the riuier: ¹⁸And lo, there came vp out of the riuier seuen fat fleshed, and welfauoured kine, and they fedde in the medowe. ¹⁹Also loe, seuen other kine came vp after them, poore and very euilfauoured, and leane-fleshed: I neuer sawe the like in all the lande of Egypt, for euilfauoured. ²⁰And the leane and euilfauoured kine did eate vp the first seuen fat kine. ²¹And when they had eaten them vp, it could not be knowen that they had eaten them, but they were still as euilfauoured, as they were at the beginning: so did I awake. ²²Moreouer I sawe in my dreame, and beholde, seuen eares sprang out of one stalke, full and faire. ²³And lo, seuen eares, withered, thinne, and blasted with the East winde, sprang vp after them. ²⁴And the thinne eares deuoured the seuen good eares. Nowe I haue tolde the soothsayers, and none can declare it vnto me. ²⁵Then Ioseph answered Pharaoh, Both Pharaohs dreames are one. God hath shewed Pharaoh, what he is about to doe. ²⁶The seuen good kine are seuen yeres, and the seuen good eares are seuen yeeres: this is one dreame. ²⁷Likewise the seuen thinne and euilfauoured kine, that came out after them, are seuen yeeres: and the seuen emptie eares blasted with the East winde, are seuen yeeres of famine. ²⁸This is the thing which I haue saide vnto Pharaoh, that God hath shewed vnto Pharaoh, what he is about to doe. ²⁹Beholde, there come seuen yeeres of great plentie in all the land of Egypt. ³⁰Againe, there shall arise after them seuen yeeres of famine, so that all the plentie shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shall consume the land: ³¹Neither shall the plentie bee knowen in the land, by reason of this famine that shall come after: for it shalbe exceeding great. ³²And therefore the dreame was doubled vnto Pharaoh the second time, because the thing is established by God, and God hasteth to performe it. ³³Nowe therefore let Pharaoh prouide for a man of vnderstanding and wisdom, and set him ouer the land of Egypt. ³⁴Let Pharaoh make and appoynt officers ouer the lande, and take vp the fift part of the land of Egypt in the seuen plenteous yeeres. ³⁵Also let them gather all the foode of these good yeeres that come, and lay vp corne vnder the hand of Pharaoh for foode, in the cities, and let them keepe it. ³⁶So the foode shall be for the prouision of the lande, against the seuen yeeres of famine, which shalbe in the lande of Egypt, that the land perish not by famine. ³⁷And the saying pleased Pharaoh and all his seruants. ³⁸Then saide Pharaoh vnto his seruants, Can we finde such a man as this, in whom is the Spirit of God? ³⁹The Pharaoh said to Ioseph, For as much as God hath shewed thee all this, there is no man of vnderstanding, or of wisdom like vnto thee. ⁴⁰Thou shalt be ouer mine house, and at thy word shall all my people be armed, onely in the kings throne will I be aboue thee. ⁴¹Moreouer Pharaoh said to Ioseph, Behold, I haue set thee ouer all the land of Egypt. ⁴²And Pharaoh tooke off his ring from his hand, and put it vpon Iosephs hand, and arrayed him in garments of fine linnen, and put a golden cheyne about his necke. ⁴³So he set him vpon the best charet that hee had, saue one: and they cryed before him, Abrech, and placed him ouer all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁴Againe Pharaoh saide vnto Ioseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift vp his hand or his foote in all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁵And Pharaoh called Iosephs name Zaphnath-paaneah: and he gaue him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah prince of On. then went Ioseph abroad in the land of Egypt. ⁴⁶And Ioseph was thirtie yeere old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt: and Ioseph departing from the presence of Pharaoh, went throughout all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁷And in the seuen plenteous yeres the earth brought forth store. ⁴⁸And hee gathered vp all the foode of the seuen plenteous yeeres, which were in the lande of Egypt, and layde vp foode in the cities: the foode of the fiede, that was round about euery citie, layde he vp in the same. ⁴⁹So Ioseph gathered wheate, like vnto the sand of the sea in multitude out of measure, vntill he left numbring: for it was without number. ⁵⁰Now vnto Ioseph were borne two sonnes (before the yeeres of famine came) which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah prince of On bare vnto him. ⁵¹And Ioseph called the name of the first borne Manasseh: for God, said he, hath made me forget all my labour and al my fathers houshold. ⁵²Also hee called the name of the second, Ephraim: For God, sayde he hath made me fruitfull in the land of mine affliction. ⁵³So the seuen yeeres of the plentie that was in the land of Egypt were ended. ⁵⁴Then began the seuen yeeres of famine to come, according as Ioseph had saide: and the famine was in all landes, but in all the land of Egypt was bread. ⁵⁵At the length all the lande of Egypt was affamished, and the people cryed to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said vnto all the Egyptians, Goe to Ioseph: what he sayth to you, doe ye. ⁵⁶When the famine was vpon all the land, Ioseph opened all places, wherein the store was, and solde vnto the Egyptians: for the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt. ⁵⁷And all countries came to Egypt to bye corne of Ioseph, because the famine was sore in all landes.

¹Then Iaakob saw that there was foode in Egypt, and Iaakob said vnto his sonnes, Why gaze ye one vpon an other? ²And he said, Behold, I haue heard that there is foode in Egypt, Get you downe thither, and bie vs foode thence, that we may liue and not die. ³So went Iosephs ten brethren downe to bye corne of the Egyptians. ⁴But Benjamin Iosephs brother woulde not Iaakob send with his brethren: for he saide, Least death should befall him. ⁵And the sonnes of Israel came to bye foode among them that came: for there was famine in the land of Canaan. ⁶Now Ioseph was gouerner of the land, who solde to all the people of the lande: then Iosephs brethren came, and bowed their face to the ground before him. ⁷And when Ioseph sawe his brethren, hee knewe them, and made himselfe straunge toward them, and spake to them roughly, and saide vnto them, Whence come yee? Who answered, Out of the land of Canaan, to bye vitale. ⁸(Now Ioseph knewe his brethren, but they knew not him. ⁹And Ioseph remembred the dreames, which he dreamed of them) and he sayde vnto them, Ye are spies, and are come to see the weaknesse of the land. ¹⁰But they sayde vnto him, Nay, my lorde, but to bye vitayle thy seruants are come. ¹¹Wee are all one mans sonnes: wee meane truely, and thy seruants are no spies. ¹²But he saide vnto them, Nay, but yee are come to see the weakenes of the land. ¹³And they said, We thy seruants are twelue brethren, the sonnes of one man in the lande of Canaan: and beholde, the yongest is this day with our father, and one is not.

¹⁴Againe Ioseph sayde vnto them, This is it that I spake vnto you, saying, Ye are spies. ¹⁵Hereby ye shall be proued: by the life of Pharaoh, ye shall not goe hence, except your yongest brother come hither. ¹⁶Send one of you which may fet your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proued, whether there bee trueth in you: or els by the life of Pharaoh ye are but spies. ¹⁷So he put them in warde three dayes. ¹⁸Then Ioseph said vnto them the third day, This do, and liue: for I feare God. ¹⁹If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bounde in your prison house, and goe ye, carie foode for the famine of your houses: ²⁰But bring your yonger brother vnto me, that your wordes may be tried, and that ye dye not: and they did so. ²¹And they said one to another, We haue verily sinned against our brother, in that we sawe the anguish of his soule, when he besought vs, and we would not heare him: therefore is this trouble come vpon vs. ²²And Reuben answered them, saying, Warned I not you, saying, Sinne not against the childe, and ye would not heare? and lo, his blood is now required. ²³(And they were not aware that Ioseph vnderstoode them: for he spake vnto them by an interpreter.) ²⁴Then he turned from them, and wept, and turned to them againe, and communed with them, and tooke Simeon from among them, and bounde him before their eyes. ²⁵So Ioseph commanded that they should fill their sackes with wheate, and put euery mans money againe in his sacke, and giue them vitale for the iourney: and thus did he vnto them. ²⁶And they layed their vitale vpon their asses, and departed thence. ²⁷And as one of them opened his sacke for to giue his asse prouender in the ynnne, he espyed his money: for lo, it was in his sackes mouth. ²⁸Then he sayde vnto his brethren, My money is restored: for loe, it is euen in my sacke. And their heart fayled them, and they were astonished, and sayde one to another, What is this, that God hath done vnto vs? ²⁹And they came vnto Iaakob their father vnto the lande of

Canaan, and tolde him all that had befallen them, saying, ³⁰The man, who is Lord of the lande, spake roughly to vs, and put vs in prison as spyes of the countrey. ³¹And we sayd vnto him, We are true men, and are no spies. ³²We be twelue brethren, sonnes of our father: one is not, and the yongest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan. ³³Then the Lord of the countrey sayde vnto vs, Hereby shall I knowe if ye be true men: Leaue one of your brethren with me, and take foode for the famine of your houses and depart, ³⁴And bring your yongest brother vnto me, that I may knowe that ye are no spies, but true men: so will I deliuer you your brother, and yee shall occupie in the land. ³⁵And as they emptied their sacks, behold, euery mans bundel of money was in his sacke: and when they and their father sawe the bundels of their money, they were afayde. ³⁶Then Iaakob their father said to them, Ye haue robbed me of my children: Ioseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin: all these things are against me. ³⁷Then

Reuben answered his father, saying, Slay my two sonnes, if I bring him not to thee againe: deliuer him to mine hand, and I will bring him to thee againe. ³⁸But he said, My sonne shall not go downe with you: for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if death come vnto him by the way which ye goe, then ye shall bring my gray head with sorow vnto the graue.

me, as to tell the man, whether ye had yet a brother or no? ⁷And they answered, The man asked straitly of our selues and of our kinred, saying, Is your father yet alieue? haue ye any brother? And wee tolde him according to these wordes: could we knowe certainly that he would say, Bring your brother downe? ⁸Then sayde Iudah to Israel his father, Send the boy with mee, that we may rise and goe, and that we may liue and not dye, both we, and thou, and our children. ⁹I wil be suertie for him: of mine hand shalt thou require him. If I bring him not to thee, and set him before thee, then let me beare the blame for euer. ¹⁰For except we had made this taryng, doutlesse by this we had returned the second time. ¹¹Then their father Israel sayd vnto them, If it must needes be so now, do thus: take of the best fruites of the lande in your vessels, and bring the man a present, a little rosen, and a little hony, spices and myrrhe, nuttes, and almondes: ¹²And take double money in your hande, and the money, that was brought againe in your sackes mouthes: cary it againe in your hand, lest it were some ouersight. ¹³Take also your brother and arise, and go againe to the man. ¹⁴And God almightie giue you mercie in the sight of the man, that hee may deliuer you your other brother, and Benjamin: but I shall be robbed of my childe, as I haue bene. ¹⁵Thus the men tooke this present, and tooke twise so much money in their hande with Benjamin, and rose vp, and went downe to Egypt and stode before Ioseph. ¹⁶And whe Ioseph saw Benjamin with them, he sayde to his stewarde, Bring these men home and kill meate, and make ready: for the men shall eate with me at noone. ¹⁷And the man did as Ioseph bad, and brought the men vnto Iosephs house. ¹⁸Nowe when the men were brought into Iosephs house, they were afrayd, and sayd, Because of the money, that came in our sackes mouthes at the first time, are we brought, that hee may picke a quarrell against vs, and lay some thing to our charge, and bring vs in bondage and our asses.

¹⁹Therefore came they to Iosephs stewarde, and communed with him at the doore of ye house. ²⁰And said, Oh syr, we came in deede down hither at the first time to bye foode, ²¹And as wee came to an ynnne and opened our sackes, behold, euery mans money was in his sackes mouth, euen our money in full weight, but we haue brought it againe in our handes. ²²Also other money haue we brought in our handes to bye foode, but we cannot tell, who put our money in our sackes. ²³And he said, Peace be vnto you, feare not: your God and the God of your father hath giuen you that treasure in your sackes, I had your money: and he brought forth Simeon to them. ²⁴So the man led them into Iosephs house, and gaue them water to wash their feete, and gaue their asses prouender. ²⁵And they made ready their present against Ioseph came at noone, (for they heard say, that they should eate bread there) ²⁶When Ioseph came home, they brought the present into the house to him, which was in their handes, and bowed downe to the grounde before him. ²⁷And he asked them of their prosperitie, and sayd, Is your father the olde man, of whome ye tolde me, in good health? is he yet alieue? ²⁸Who answered, Thy seruant our father is in good health, he is yet alieue: and they bowed downe, and made obeysance. ²⁹And he lifting vp his eyes, beheld his brother Beniamin his mothers sonne, and sayde, Is this your yonger brother, of whome ye tolde me? And he said, God be merciful vnto thee, my sone. ³⁰And Ioseph made haste (for his affection was inflamed towarde his brother, and sought where to weepe) and entred into his chamber, and wept there. ³¹Afterward he washed his face, and came out, and refrained himselfe, and sayd, Set on meate. ³²And they prepared for him by himselfe, and for them by themselues, and for the Egyptians, which did eate with him, by themselues, because the Egyptians might not eate bread with the Ebrewes: for that was an abomination vnto the Egyptians. ³³So they sate before him: the eldest according vnto his age, and the yongest according vnto his youth. and the men marueiled among themselues. ³⁴And they tooke meases from before him, and sent to them: but Beniamins mease was fiue times so much as any of theirs: and they drunke, and had of the best drinke with him.

¹Afterward he commanded his steward, saying, Fill the mens sackes with foode, as much as they can carry, and put euery mans money in his sackes mouth. ²And put my cup, I meane the siluer cup, in the sackes mouth of the yongest, and his corne money. And he did according to the commandement that Ioseph gaue him. ³And in the morning the men were sent away, they, and their asses. ⁴And when they went out of the citie not farre off, Ioseph sayd to his stewarde, Vp, follow after the men: and when thou doest ouertake them, say vnto them, Wherefore haue ye rewarded euill for good? ⁵Is that not the cuppe, wherein my Lord drinketh? and in the which he

doeth deuine and prophecie? ye haue done euill in so doing. ⁶And when he ouertooke them, he sayde those wordes vnto them. ⁷And they answered him, Wherefore sayeth my lorde such wordes? God forbid that thy seruants should do such a thing. ⁸Behold, the money which we found in our sackes mouthes, wee brought againe to thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steale out of thy lordes house siluer or golde? ⁹With whomesoeuer of thy seruants it bee found, let him dye, and we also will be my lordes bondmen. ¹⁰And he said, Now then let it be according vnto your wordes: he with whome it is found, shall be my seruant, and ye shalbe blamelesse. ¹¹Then at once every man tooke downe his sacke to the grounde, and every one opened his sacke. ¹²And he searched, and began at the eldest and left at the yongest: and the cuppe was found in Beniamins sacke. ¹³Then they rent their clothes, and laded euery man his asse, and went againe into the citie. ¹⁴So Iudah and his brethren came to Iosephs house

(for he was yet there) and they fel before him on the ground. ¹⁵Then Ioseph sayd vnto them, What acte is this, which ye haue done? know ye not that such a man as I, can deuine and prophecie? ¹⁶Then sayd Iudah, What shall we say vnto my lord? what shall we speake? and howe can we iustifie our selues? God hath found out the wickednesse of thy seruants: beholde, we are seruants to my Lord, both wee, and he, with whome the cuppe is founde. ¹⁷But he answered, God forbid, that I should doe so, but the man, with whome the cuppe is founde, he shalbe my seruant, and go ye in peace vnto your father. ¹⁸Then Iudah drewe neere vnto him, and sayde, O my Lord, let thy seruant now speake a worde in my lordes eares, and let not thy wrath be kindled against thy seruant: for thou art euen as Pharaoh. ¹⁹My Lord asked his seruants, saying, Haue ye a father, or a brother? ²⁰And we answered my Lord, We haue a father that is olde, and a young childe, which he begate in his age: and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loueth him. ²¹Now thou saidest vnto thy seruants, Bring him vnto me, that I may set mine eye vpon him. ²²And we answered my lord, The childe can not depart from his father: for if he leaue his father, his father would die. ²³Then saydest thou vnto thy seruants, Except your yonger brother come downe with you, looke in my face no more. ²⁴So when we came vnto thy seruant our father, and shewed him what my lord had sayd, ²⁵And our father sayde vnto vs, Goe againe, bye vs a litle foode, ²⁶Then we answered, We can not go downe: but if our yongest brother go with vs, then will we go downe: for we may not see the mans face, except our yongest brother be with vs. ²⁷Then thy seruant my father sayde vnto vs, Ye knowe that my wife bare me two sonnes, ²⁸And the one went out from me, and I said, Of a suretie he is torne in pieces, and I sawe him not since. ²⁹Nowe yee take this also away from me: if death take him, then yee shall bring my graye head in sorowe to the graue. ³⁰Nowe therefore, when I come to thy seruant my father, and the childe be not with vs (seeing that his life dependeth on the childes life) ³¹Then when hee shall see that the childe is not come, he will die: so shall thy seruants bring the graye head of thy seruant our father with sorowe to the graue. ³²Doubtlesse thy seruant became suertie for the childe to my father, and said, If I bring him not vnto thee againe, then I will beare the blame vnto my father for euer. ³³Nowe therefore, I pray thee, let me thy seruant bide for the childe, as a seruant to my Lord, and let the childe go vp with his brethren. ³⁴For how can I go vp to my father, if the childe be not with me, vnlesse I would see the euil that shall come on my father?

¹Then Ioseph could not refraine him selfe before all that stode by him, but hee cryed, Haue forth euery man from me. And there taryed not one with him, while Ioseph vttered himselfe vnto his brethren. ²And hee wept and cried, so that the Egyptians heard: the house of Pharaoh heard also. ³Then Ioseph sayde to his brethren, I am Ioseph: doeth my father yet liue? But his brethren coulde not answere him, for they were astonished at his presence. ⁴Againe, Ioseph sayde to his brethren, Come neere, I pray you, to mee. And they came neere. And he sayde, I am Ioseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt. ⁵Nowe therefore be not sad, neither griued with your selues, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you for your preseruacion. ⁶For nowe two yeeres of famine haue bene through ye land, and fīue yeeres are behind, wherein neither shalbe earing nor haruest. ⁷Wherefore God sent me before you to preserue your posteritie in this land, and to saue you alīue by a great delīuerance. ⁸Now the you sent not me hither, but God, who hath made mee a father vnto Pharaoh, and lorde of all his house, and ruler throughout all the land of Egypt. ⁹Haste you and go vp to my father, and tel him, Thus saieth thy sonne Ioseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come downe to me, tary not. ¹⁰And thou shalt dwel in ye land of Goshen, and shalt be neere me, thou and thy children, and thy childrens children, and thy sheepe, and thy beastes, and all that thou hast. ¹¹Also I will nourish thee there (for yet remaine fīue yeeres of famine) lest thou perish through pouertie, thou and thy houshold, and all that thou hast. ¹²And behold, your eyes doe see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that my mouth speaketh to you. ¹³Therefore tel my father of al mine honour in Egypt, and of all that ye haue seene, and make haste, and bring my father hither. ¹⁴Then hee fell on his brother Beniamins necke, and wept, and Benjamin wept on his necke. ¹⁵Moreouer, he kissed all his brethren, and wept vpon them: and afterwarde his brethren talked with him. ¹⁶And the tidings came vnto Pharaohs house, so that they said, Iosephs brethre are come: and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his seruants. ¹⁷Then Pharaoh said vnto Ioseph, Say to thy brethren, This doe ye, lade your beastes and depart, go to the land of Canaan, ¹⁸And take your father, and your houshoulds, and come to me, and I wil giue you the best of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eate of the fat of the land. ¹⁹And I commaund thee, Thus doe ye, take you charets out of the lande of Egypt for your children, and for your wiues, and bring your father and come. ²⁰Also regarde not your stuffe: for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours. ²¹And the children of Israel did so: and Ioseph gaue them charets according to the commandement of Pharaoh: hee gaue them vitale also for the iourney. ²²He gaue them all, none except, change of raiment: but vnto Benjamin he gaue three hundreth pieces of siluer, and fiue sutes of raiment. ²³And vnto his father likewise hee sent ten hee asses laden with the best things of Egypt, and ten shee asses laden with wheate, and bread and meate for his father by the way. ²⁴So sent he his brethren away, and they departed: and he sayde vnto them, Fall not out by the way. ²⁵Then they went vp from Egypt, and came vnto the land of Canaan vnto Iakob their father, ²⁶And tolde him, saying, Ioseph is yet aliue, and he also is gouernour ouer all the lande of Egypt, and Iakobs heart failed: for he beleued them not. ²⁷And they told him al the words of Ioseph, which he had said vnto the: but when he saw the charets, which Ioseph had sent to cary him, then the spirit of Iakob their father reuiued. ²⁸And Israel said, I haue inough: Ioseph my sonne is yet aliue: I will go and see him yer I die.

¹Then Israel tooke his iourney with all that he had, and came to Beer-sheba, and offered sacrifice vnto the God of his father Izhak. ²And God spake vnto Israel in a vision by night, saying, Iakob, Iakob. Who answered, I am here. ³Then hee sayde, I am God, the God of thy father, feare not to goe downe into Egypt: for I will there make of thee a great nation. ⁴I wil go downe with thee into Egypt, and I will also bring thee vp againe, and Ioseph shall put his hand vpon thine eyes. ⁵Then Iakob rose vp from Beer-sheba:

and the sonnes of Israel caried Iaakob their father, and their children, and their wiues in the charets, which Pharaoh had sent to cary him. ⁶And they tooke their cattell and their goods, which they had gotten in the lande of Canaan, and came into Egypt, both Iaakob and all his seede with him, ⁷His sonnes and his sonnes sonnes with him, his daughters and his sonnes daughters, and al his seede brought he with him into Egypt. ⁸And these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, euen Iaakob and his sonnes: Reuben, Iaakobs first borne. ⁹And the sonnes of Reuben: Hanoah, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi. ¹⁰And the sonnes of Simeon: Iemuel, and Iamin, and Ohad, and Iachin, and Zohar; and Shaul the sonne of a Canaanitish woman. ¹¹Also the sonnes of Leui: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ¹²Also the sonnes of Iudah: Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zerah: (but Er and Onan died in ye land of Canaan) And the sonnes of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul. ¹³Also the sonnes of Issachar: Tola, and Phuuah, and Iob, and Shimron. ¹⁴Also the sonnes of Zebulun: Sered, and Elon, and Iahleel. ¹⁵These bee the sonnes of Leah, which shee bare vnto Iaakob in Padan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the soules of his sonnes and his daughters were thirtie and three. ¹⁶Also the sonnes of Gad: Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli. ¹⁷Also the sonnes of Asher: Iimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister. And the sonnes of Beriah: Heber, and Malchiel. ¹⁸These are the children of Zilpah, whome Laban gaue to Leah his daughter: and these shee bare vnto Iaakob, euen sixtene soules. ¹⁹The sonnes of Rahel Iaakobs wife were Ioseph and Benjamin. ²⁰And vnto Ioseph in the lande of Egypt were borne Manasseh, and Ephraim, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah prince of On bare vnto him. ²¹Also the sonnes of Benjamin: Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, Muppm, and Huppm, and Ard. ²²These are the sonnes of Rahel, which were borne vnto Iaakob, fourteene soules in all.

²³Also the sonnes of Dan: Hushim. ²⁴Also the sonnes of Naphtali: Iahzeel, and Guni, and Iezer, and Shillem. ²⁵These are the sonnes of Bilhah, which Laban gaue vnto Rahel his daughter, and shee bare these to Iaakob, in all, seuen soules. ²⁶Al the soules, that came with Iaakob into Egypt, which came out of his loynes (beside Iaakobs sonnes wiues) were in the whole, three score and sixe soules. ²⁷Also the sonnes of Ioseph, which were borne him in Egypt, were two soules: so that al the soules of the house of Iaakob, which came into Egypt, are seuentie. ²⁸The he sent Iudah before him vnto Ioseph, to direct his way vnto Goshen, and they came into the land of Goshen.

³¹Then Ioseph said to his brethren, and to his fathers house, I wil go vp and shew Pharaoh, and tell him, My brethren and my fathers house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come vnto me, ³²And the men are shepherdes, and because they are shepherdes, they haue brought their sheepe and their cattell, and all that they haue. ³³And if Pharaoh call you, and aske you, What is your trade? ³⁴Then ye shall say, Thy seruants are men occupied about cattell, from our childehood euen vnto this time, both we and our fathers: that yee may dwell in the lande of Goshen: for euery sheepe keeper is an abomination vnto the Egyptians.

¹Then came Ioseph and tolde Pharaoh, and sayde, My father, and my brethren, and their sheepe, and their cattell, and all that they haue, are come out of the land of Canaan, and behold, they are in the land of Goshen. ²And Ioseph tooke part of his brethren, euen fiue men, and presented them vnto Pharaoh.

³Then Pharaoh said vnto his brethren, What is your trade? And they answered Pharaoh, Thy seruants are shepheards, both we and our fathers. ⁴They sayde moreouer vnto Pharaoh, For to sojourne in ye lande are we come: for thy seruants haue no pasture for their sheepe, so sore is ye famine in the lande of Canaan. Nowe therefore, we pray thee, let thy seruants dwel in the land of Goshen. ⁵Then spake Pharaoh to Ioseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come vnto thee. ⁶The lande of Egypt is before thee: in the best place of the land make thy father and thy brethren dwel: let the dwel in the land of Goshen: and if thou knowest that there be men of actiuitie among them, make them rulers ouer my cattell. ⁷Ioseph also brought Iakob his father, and set him before Pharaoh. And Iakob saluted Pharaoh. ⁸Then Pharaoh sayde vnto Iakob, Howe olde art thou? ⁹And Iakob sayd vnto Pharaoh, The whole time of my pilgrimage is an hundreth and thirty yeeres: fewe and euill haue the dayes of my life bene, and I

haue not attayned vnto the yeeres of the life of my fathers, in the dayes of their pilgrimages. ¹⁰And Iakob tooke leaue of Pharaoh, and departed from the presence of Pharaoh. ¹¹And Ioseph placed his father, and his brethren, and gaue them possession in the lande of Egypt, in the best of the land, euen in the lande of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. ¹²And Ioseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his fathers houshold with bread, euen to the yong children. ¹³Now there was no bread in all the land: for the famine was exceeding sore: so that the land of Egypt, and the land of Canaan were famished by reason of the famine. ¹⁴And Ioseph gathered all the money, that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corne which they bought, and Ioseph layd vp the money in Pharaohs house. ¹⁵So when money fayled in the lande of Egypt, and in the lande of Canaan, then all the Egyptians came vnto Ioseph, and sayde, Giue vs bread: for why should we dye before thee? for our money is spent. ¹⁶Then saide Ioseph, Bring your cattell, and I will giue you for your cattell, if your money be spent. ¹⁷So they brought their cattell vnto Ioseph, and Ioseph gaue them bread for the horses, and for the flockes of sheepe, and for the heards of cattell, and for the asses: so he fed them with bread for all their cattell that yeere. ¹⁸But when the yeere was ended, they came vnto him the next yeere, and sayd vnto him, We will not hide from my lord, that since our money is spent, and my lord hath the heards of the cattell, there is nothing left in the sight of my lorde, but our bodies and our ground. ¹⁹Why shall we perish in thy sight, both we, and our land? bye vs and our land for bread, and we and our land will be bonde to Pharaoh: therefore giue vs seede, that we may liue and not dye, and that the land go not to waste. ²⁰So Ioseph bought all the lande of Egypt for Pharaoh: for the Egyptians solde euery man his ground because the famine was sore vpon the: so the land became Pharaohs. ²¹And he remoued the people vnto the cities, from one side of Egypt euen to the other. ²²Onely the lande of the Priestes bought he not: for the Priestes had an ordinarie of Pharaoh, and they did eate their ordinarie, which Pharaoh gaue them: wherefore they solde not their grounde. ²³Then Ioseph sayd vnto the people, Behold, I haue bought you this daye, and your lande for Pharaoh: lo, here is seede for you: sowe therefore the grounde. ²⁴And of the encrease ye shall giue the fifth part vnto Pharaoh, and foure partes shalbe yours for the seede of the fiede, and for your meate, and for them of your housholdes, and for your children to eate. ²⁵Then they answered, Thou hast saued our liues: let vs finde grace in the sight of my Lord, and we will be Pharaohs seruants. ²⁶Then Ioseph made it a lawe ouer the land of Egypt vnto this day, that Pharaoh should haue the fift part, except the land of the priests only, which was not Pharaohs. ²⁷And Israel dwelt in the lande of Egypt, in the countrey of Goshen: and they had their possessions therein, and grewe and multiplied exceedingly.

²⁸Moreouer, Iaakob liued in the lande of Egypt seenteene yeeres, so that the whole age of Iaakob was an hundreth fourtie and seuen yeere. ²⁹Now when the time drewe neere that Israel must dye, he called his sonne Ioseph, and sayde vnto him, If I haue nowe founde grace in thy sight, put thine hand nowe vnder my thigh, and deale mercifully and truly with me: burie me not, I pray thee, in Egypt. ³⁰But when I shall sleepe with my fathers, thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury mee in their buryall. And he answered, I will doe as thou hast sayde. ³¹The he said, Swear vnto me. And he sware vnto him. And Israel worshipped towards the beds head.

vnto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me. ⁴And he sayde vnto me, Behold, I wil make thee fruitefull, and will multiplie thee, and will make a great number of people of thee, and will giue this lande vnto thy seede after thee for an euerlasting possession. ⁵And now thy two sonnes, Manasseh and Ephraim, which are borne vnto thee in the lande of Egypt, before I came to thee into Egypt, shall be mine, as Reuben and Simeon are mine. ⁶But the linage, which thou hast begotten after them, shalbe thine: they shall be called after the names of their brethren in their inheritance. ⁷Nowe when I came from Padan, Rahel died vpon mine hande in the lande of Canaan, by the way when there was but halfe a dayes iourney of grounde to come to Ephrath: and I buryed her there in the way to Ephrath: the same is Beth-lehem. ⁸Then Israel beheld Iosephs sonnes and sayd, Whose are these? ⁹And Ioseph sayd vnto his father, They are my sonnes, which God hath giuen mee here. Then he sayd, I pray thee, bring them to me, that I may blesse them: ¹⁰(For the eyes of Israel were dimme for age, so that hee coulde not well see) Then he caused them to come to him, and he kissed them and embraced them. ¹¹And Israel sayde vnto Ioseph, I had not thought to haue seene thy face: yet lo, God hath shewed me also thy seede. ¹²And Ioseph tooke them away from his knees, and did reuerence downe to the ground. ¹³Then tooke Ioseph them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israels left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israels right hand, so he brought them vnto him. ¹⁴But Israel stretched out his right hand, and layde it on Ephraims head, which was the yonger, and his left hande vpon Manassehs head (directing his handes of purpose) for Manasseh was the elder. ¹⁵Also he blessed Ioseph and sayde, The God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Izhak did walke, the God, which hath fed me al my life long vnto this day, blesse thee. ¹⁶The Angel, which hath deliuered me from all euill, blesse the children, and let my name be named vpon them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Izhak, that they may growe as fish into a multitude in the middes of the earth. ¹⁷But when Ioseph sawe that his father layde his right hande vpon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he stayed his fathers hand to remooue it from Ephraims head to Manassehs head. ¹⁸And Ioseph sayde vnto his father, Not so, my father, for this is the eldest: put thy right hand vpon his head. ¹⁹But his father refused, and sayd, I know well, my sonne, I know well: he shalbe also a people, and he shalbe great likewise: but his yonger brother shalbe greater then he, and his seede shall be full of nations. ²⁰So he blessed them that day, and sayde, In thee Israel shall blesse, and say, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh. and he set Ephraim before Manasseh. ²¹Then Israel said vnto Ioseph, Behold, I die, and God shall be with you, and bring you againe vnto the land of your fathers. ²²Moreouer, I haue giuen vnto thee one portion aboue thy brethren, which I gate out of the hand of the Amorite by my sworde and by my bowe.

¹Then Iaakob called his sonnes, and sayde, Gather your selues together, that I may tell you what shall come to you in the last dayes.

²Gather your selues together, and heare, ye sonnes of Iaakob, and hearken vnto Israel your father.

³Reuben mine eldest sonne, thou art my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellencie of dignitie, and the excellencie of power: ⁴Thou wast light as water: thou shalt not be excellent, because thou wentest vp to thy fathers bed: then diddest thou defile my bed, thy dignitie is gone.

⁵Simeon and Leui, brethren in euill, the instruments of crueltye are in their habitations. ⁶Into their secret let not my soule come: my glory, be not thou ioyned with their assembly: for in their wrath they slew a man, and in their selfe will they digged downe a wall.

⁷Cursed be their wrath, for it was fierce, and their rage, for it was cruell: I will deuide them in Iaakob, and scatter them in Israel.

⁸Thou Iudah, thy brethre shall praise thee: thine hande shalbe in the necke of thine enemies: thy fathers sonnes shall bowe downe vnto thee. ⁹Iudah, as a Lions whelp shalt thou come vp from the spoyle, my sonne. He shall lye downe and couche as a Lion, and as a Lionesse: Who shall stirre him vp? ¹⁰The scepter shall not depart from Iudah, nor a Lawegiuer from betweene his feete, vntill Shiloh come, and the people shall be gathered vnto him. ¹¹He shall binde his Asse foale vnto ye vine, and his Asses colte vnto the best vine. hee shall wash his garment in wine, and his cloke in the blood of grapes. ¹²His eyes shalbe red with wine, and his teeth white with milke. ¹³Zebulun shall dwell by the sea side, and he shalbe an hauen for shippes: and his border shalbe vnto Zidon. ¹⁴Issachar shalbe a strong asse, couching downe betweene two burdens: ¹⁵And he shall see that rest is good, and that the land is pleasant, and he shall bow his shoulder to beare, and shalbe subiect vnto tribute. ¹⁶Dan shall iudge his people as one of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁷Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder by the path, byting the horse heeles, so that his rider shall fall backward. ¹⁸O Lord, I haue waited for thy saluation. ¹⁹Gad, an hoste of men shall ouercome him, but he shall ouercome at the last. ²⁰Concerning Asher, his bread shalbe fat, and he shall giue pleasures for a king. ²¹Naphtali shalbe a hinde let goe, giuing goodly wordes. ²²Ioseph shalbe a fruitefull bough, euen a fruitful bough by the well side: the small boughs shall runne vpon the wall. ²³And the archers griued him, and shotte against him and hated him. ²⁴But his bowe abode strong, and the hands of his armes were strengthened, by the handes of the mighty God of Iaakob, of whom was the feeder appointed, by the stone of Israel, ²⁵Euen by the God of thy father, who shall helpe thee, and by the almightie, who shall blesse thee with heauenly blessinges from aboue, with blessings of the deepe, that lyeth beneath, with blessings of the brestes, and of the wombe. ²⁶The blessings of thy father shalbe stronger then the blessings of mine elders: vnto the ende of the hilles of the worlde they shall be on the head of Ioseph, and on the top of the head of him that was separate from his brethren. ²⁷Beniamin shall rauine as a wolfe: in the morning he shall deuoure the pray, and at night he shall deuide the spoyle. ²⁸All these are the twelue tribes of Israel, and thus their father spake vnto them, and blessed them: euery one of them blessed hee with a seuerall blessing. ²⁹And he charged them and sayd vnto them, I am ready to be gathered vnto my people: burie mee with my fathers in the caue, that is in the fiede of Ephron the Hittite, ³⁰In the caue that is in the field of Machpelah besides Mamre in the land of Canaan: which caue Abraham bought with the fiede of Ephron the Hittite for a possession to burie in. ³¹There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife: there they buried Izhak and Rebekah his wife: and there I buried Leah. ³²The purchase of the fiede and the caue that is therein, was bought of the children of Heth. ³³Thus

Iaakob made an end of giuing charge to his sonnes, and plucked vp his feete into the bed and gaue vp the ghost, and was gathered to his people.

¹Then Ioseph fell vpon his fathers face and wept vpon him, and kissed him. ²And Ioseph commanded his seruantes the physicions, to enbaume his father, and the physicions enbaumed Israel. ³So fourtie dayes were accomplished (for so long did the dayes of them that were enbaumed last) and the Egyptians bewayled him seuentie dayes. ⁴And when the dayes of his mourning were past, Ioseph spake to the house of Pharaoh, saying, If I haue nowe found fauour in your eyes, speake, I pray you, in the eares of Pharaoh, and say, ⁵My father made me sweare, saying, Loe, I die, bury me in my graue, which I haue made me in the land of Canaan: now therefore let me go, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I wil come againe. ⁶Then Pharaoh said, Goe vp and bury thy father, as he made thee

to be a place to bury in, of Ephron the Hittite besides Mamre. ¹⁴Then Ioseph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren, and al that went vp with him to bury his father, after that he had buried his father. ¹⁵And when Iosephs brethren saw that their father was dead, they sayde, It may be that Ioseph will hate vs, and will pay vs againe all the euill, which we did vnto him. ¹⁶Therefore they sent vnto Ioseph, saying, Thy father commanded before his death, saying, ¹⁷Thus shall ye say vnto Ioseph, Forgiue now, I pray thee, the trespasse of thy brethren, and their sinne: for they rewarded thee euil. And now, we pray thee, forgiue the trespasse of the seruants of thy fathers God. And Ioseph wept, when they spake vnto him. ¹⁸Also his brethren came vnto him, and fell downe before his face, and sayde, Beholde, we be thy seruants. ¹⁹To whome Ioseph sayde, Feare not: for am not I vnder God? ²⁰When ye thought euill against mee, God disposed it to good, that he might bring to passe, as it is this day, and saue much people aliue. ²¹Feare not nowe therefore, I will nourish you, and your children: and hee comforted them, and spake kindly vnto them. ²²So Ioseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his fathers house: and Ioseph liued an hundreth and tenne yeere. ²³And Ioseph saw Ephraims children, euen vnto the third generation: also the sonnes of Machir the sonne of Manasseh were brought vp on Iosephs knees. ²⁴And Ioseph sayd vnto his brethren, I am ready to dye, and God will surely visite you, and bring you out of this land, vnto ye land which hee sware vnto Abraham, vnto Izhak, and vnto Iaakob. ²⁵And Ioseph tooke an othe of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visite you, and ye shall cary my bones hence. ²⁶So Ioseph died, when he was an hundreth and ten yere olde: and they enbaumed him and put him in a chest in Egypt.

EXODUS

¹Now these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt (euery man and his housholde came thither with Iakob) ²Reuben, Simeon, Leui, and Iudah, ³Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, ⁴Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. ⁵So al the soules, that came out of the loines of Iakob, were seuentie soules: Ioseph was in Egypt already. ⁶Nowe Ioseph died and all his brethren, and that whole generation. ⁷And the children of Israel brought foorth fruite and encreased in aboundance, and were multiplied, and were exceeding mightie, so that the land was full of them. ⁸Then there rose vp a newe King in Egypt, who knewe not Ioseph. ⁹And he sayde vnto his people, Beholde, the people of the children of Israel are greater and mightier then we. ¹⁰Come, let vs worke wisely with them, least they multiplie, and it come to passe, that if there be warre, they ioyne them selues also vnto our enemies, and fight against vs, and get them out of the land. ¹¹Therefore did they set taskemasters ouer them, to keepe the vnder with burdens: and they built the cities Pithom and Raamses for the treasures of Pharaoh. ¹²But the more they vexed them, the more they multiplied and grewe: therefore they were more griued against the children of Israel. ¹³Wherefore the Egyptians by crueltie caused the children of Israel to serue. ¹⁴Thus they made them weary of their liues by sore labour in clay and in bricke, and in al worke in the fieldes, with all maner of bondage, which they layde vpon them most cruelly. ¹⁵Moreouer the King of Egypt commanded ye midwiues of the Ebrewe women, (of which the ones name was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah) ¹⁶And sayde, When ye doe the office of a midwife to the women of the Ebrewes, and see them on their stooles, if it be a sonne, then yee shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then let her liue. ¹⁷Notwithstanding ye midwiues feared God, and did not as the King of Egypt commanded them, but preserued alieue the men children. ¹⁸Then the King of Egypt called for the midwiues, and sayde vnto them, Why haue yee done thus, and haue preserued aliue the men children? ¹⁹And the midwiues answered Pharaoh, Because the Ebrewe women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are liuely, and are deliuered yer the midwife come at them. ²⁰God therefore prospered the midwiues, and the people multiplied and were very mightie. ²¹And because ye midwiues feared God, therefore he made them houses. ²²Then Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Euery man childe that is borne, cast yee into the riuer, but reserue euery maide childe aliue.

¹Then there went a man of the house of Leui, and tooke to wife a daughter of Leui, ²And the woman coceiued and bare a sonne: and when she saw that he was faire, she hid him three moneths. ³But when she could no longer hide him, she tooke for him an arke made of reede, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and laide the childe therein, and put it among the bulrushes by the riuers brinke. ⁴Now his sister stood a farre off, to wit what would come of him. ⁵Then ye daughter of Pharaoh came downe to wash her in the riuer, and her maidens walked by the riuers side: and when shee sawe the arke among the bulrushes, she sent her maide to fet it. ⁶Then she opened it, and sawe it was a childe: and beholde, the babe wept: so she had compassion on it, and sayde, This is one of the Ebrewes children. ⁷Then said his sister vnto Pharaohs daughter, Shall I go and cal vnto thee a nurce of the Ebrew women to nurce thee the childe? ⁸And Pharaohs daughter sayde to her, Goe. So the maide went and called the childes mother, ⁹To whome Pharaohs daughter sayde, Take this childe away, and nurce it for me, and I wil reward thee. Then the woman tooke the childe and nurced him. ¹⁰Nowe the childe grewe, and she brought him vnto Pharaohs daughter, and he was as her sonne, and she called his name Moses, because, said she, I drew him out of the water. ¹¹And in those dayes, when Moses was growen, he went forth vnto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: also he sawe an Egyptian smiting an Ebrewe one of his brethren. ¹²And he looked rounde about, and when he sawe no man, hee slewe the Egyptian, and hid him in the sande. ¹³Againe he came forth the second day, and behold, two Ebrewes stroue: and he said vnto him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellowe? ¹⁴And hee answered, Who made thee a man of authoritie, and a iudge ouer vs? Thinkest thou to kill mee, as thou killedst the Egyptian? Then Moses feared and sayde, Certainly this thing is knowne. ¹⁵Now Pharaoh heard this matter, and sought to slay Moses: therefore Moses fled from Pharaoh, and dwelt in the lande of Midian, and hee sate downe by a well. ¹⁶And the Priest of Midian had seue daughters, which came and drew water, and filled the troghes, for to water their fathers sheepe. ¹⁷Then the shepherds came and droue them away: but Moses rose vp and defended them, and watered their sheepe. ¹⁸And whe they came to Reuel their father, he said, Howe are ye come so soone to day? ¹⁹And they saide, A man of Egypt deliuered vs from the hand of the shepherdes, and also drew vs water ynough, and watered the sheepe. ²⁰Then he saide vnto his daughters, And where is he? why haue ye so left the man? call him that he may eate bread. ²¹And Moses agreed to dwell with the man: who gaue vnto Moses Zipporah his daughter: ²²And she bare a sonne, whose name he called Gershom: for he said, I haue bene a stranger in a strange lande.

¹When Moses kept the sheepe of Iethro his father in lawe, Priest of Midian, and droue the flocke to the backe side of the desert, and came to the Mountaine of God, Horeb, ²Then the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him in a flame of fire, out of the middes of a bush: and he looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. ³Therefore Moses saide, I will turne aside nowe, and see this great sight, why the bush burneth not. ⁴And when the Lord sawe that he turned aside to see, God called vnto him out of the middes of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he answered, I am here. ⁵Then he saide, Come not hither, put thy shooes off thy feete: for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. ⁶Moreouer he saide, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Izhak, and the God of Iaakob. Then Moses hid his face: for he was afraid to looke vpon God. ⁷Then the Lord said, I haue surely seene the trouble of my people, which are in Egypt, and haue heard their crie, because of their taskemasters: for I knowe their sorowes. ⁸Therefore I am come downe to deliuer them out of the hande of the Egyptians, and to bring them out of that lande into a good lande and a large, into a lande that floweth with milke and honie, euen into the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and the Iebusites. ⁹And now lo, the crie of the children of Israel is come vnto me, and I haue also seene ye oppression, wherewith the Egyptians oppresse them. ¹⁰Come now therefore, and I will send thee vnto Pharaoh, that thou maiest bring my people the children of Israel out of Egypt. ¹¹But Moses said vnto God, Who am I, that I should go vnto Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt? ¹²And he answered, Certainly I will be with thee: and this shall be a token vnto thee, that I haue sent thee, After that thou hast brought the people out of Egypt, ye shall serue God vpon this Mountaine. ¹³Then Moses said vnto God, Behold, when I shall come vnto the children of Israel, and shall say vnto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me vnto you: if they say vnto me, What is his Name? what shall I say vnto them? ¹⁴And God answered Moses, I Am That I Am. Also he said, Thus shalt thou say vnto the children of Israel, I Am hath sent me vnto you. ¹⁵And God spake further vnto Moses, Thus shalt thou say vnto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Izhak, and the God of Iaakob hath sent me vnto you: this is my Name for euer, and this is my memoriall vnto all ages. ¹⁶Go and gather the Elders of Israel together, and thou shalt say vnto the, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob appeared vnto me, and said, I haue surely remembred you, and that which is done to you in Egypt. ¹⁷Therefore I did say, I will bring you out of the affliction of Egypt vnto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and the Iebusites, vnto a lande that floweth with milke and honie. ¹⁸Then shall they obey thy voyce, and thou and the Elders of Israel shall go vnto the King of Egypt, and say vnto him, The Lord God of the Ebrewes hath met with vs: we pray thee nowe therefore, let vs goe three dayes iourney in the wilderness, that we may sacrifice vnto the Lord our God. ¹⁹But I know, that the King of Egypt wil not let you goe, but by strong hande.

²⁰Therefore will I stretch out mine hande and smite Egypt with all my wonders, which I will doe in the middes thereof: and after that shall he let you goe. ²¹And I will make this people to be fauoured of the Egyptians: so that when ye go, ye shall not goe emptie. ²²For euery woman shall aske of her neighbour, and of her that soiourneth in her house, iewels of siluer and iewels of gold and raiment, and ye shall put them on your sonnes, and on your daughters, and shall spoyle the Egyptians.

¹Then Moses answered, and said, But lo, they will not belecue me, nor hearken vnto my voyce: for they will say, The Lord hath not appeared vnto thee. ²And the Lord said vnto him, What is that in thine hande? And he answered, A rod. ³Then said he, Cast it on the ground. So he cast it on the grounde, and it was turned into a serpent: and Moses fled from it. ⁴Againe the Lord saide vnto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tayle. Then he put forth his hande and caught it, and it was turned into a rod in his hand. ⁵Do this that they may beleue, that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Izhak, and the God of Iaakob hath appeared vnto thee. ⁶And the Lord saide furthermore vnto him, Thrust nowe thine hand into thy bosome. And he thrust his hand into his bosome, and when he tooke it out againe, behold, his hand was leprous as snowe. ⁷Moreouer he said, Put thine hand into thy bosome againe. So he put his hande into his bosome againe, and pluckt it out of his bosome, and behold, it was turned againe as his other flesh. ⁸So shall it be, if they wil not beleue thee, neither obey the voyce of ye first signe, yet shall they beleue for the voyce of the seconde signe. ⁹But if they will not yet beleue these two signes, neither obey vnto thy voyce, then shalt thou take of the water of the riuier, and powre it vpon the drie lande: so the water which thou shalt take out of the riuier, shalbe turned to blood vpon the drie land. ¹⁰But Moses said vnto the Lord, Oh my Lord,

I am not eloquent, neither at any time haue bene, nor yet since thou hast spoken vnto thy seruant: but I am slowe of speach and slowe of tongue. ¹¹Then the Lord said vnto him, Who hath giuen the mouth to man? or who hath made the domme, or the deafe, or him that seeth, or the blinde? haue not I the Lord? ¹²Therefore goe nowe, and I will be with thy mouth, and will teach thee what thou shalt say. ¹³But he saide, Oh my Lord, sende, I pray thee, by the hande of him, whome thou shouldest sende. ¹⁴Then the Lord was verie angrie with Moses, and said, Doe not I know Aaron thy brother the Leuite, that he himselfe shall speake? for loe, he commeth also forth to meete thee, and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart. ¹⁵Therefore thou shalt speake vnto him, and put the wordes in his mouth, and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye ought to doe. ¹⁶And he shall be thy spokesman vnto the people: and he shall be, euen he shall be as thy mouth, and thou shalt be to him as God. ¹⁷Moreouer thou

¹⁸Therefore Moses went and returned to Iethro his father in lawe, and said vnto him, I pray thee, let me goe, and returne to my brethren, which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet aliue. Then Iethro said to Moses, Go in peace. ¹⁹(For the Lord had said vnto Moses in Midian, Goe, returne to Egypt: for they are all dead which went about to kill thee) ²⁰Then Moses tooke his wife, and his sonnes, and put them on an asse, and returned toward the lande of Egypt, and Moses tooke the rod of God in his hand. ²¹And the Lord saide vnto Moses, When thou art entred and come into Egypt againe, see that thou doe all the wonders before Pharaoh, which I haue put in thine hand: but I will harden his heart, and he shall not let the people goe. ²²Then thou shalt say to Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my sonne, euen my first borne. ²³Wherefore I say to thee, Let my sonne go, that he may serue me: if thou refuse to let him goe, beholde, I will slay thy sonne, euen thy first borne. ²⁴And as he was by the waye in the ynnere, the Lord met him, and would haue killed him. ²⁵Then Zipporah tooke a sharpe knife, and cut away the foreskinne of her sonne, and cast it at his feete, and said, Thou art indeede a bloody husband vnto me. ²⁶So he departed from him. Then she saide, O bloodie husband (because of the circumcision) ²⁷Then the Lord saide vnto Aaron, Goe meete Moses in the wilderness. And he went and mette him in the Mount of God, and kissed him. ²⁸Then Moses tolde Aaron all the wordes of the Lord, who had sent him, and all the signes wherewith he had charged him. ²⁹So went Moses and Aaron, and gathered all the Elders of the children of Israel. ³⁰And Aaron told all the wordes, which the Lord had spoken vnto Moses, and he did the miracles in the sight of the people, ³¹And the people beleued, and when they heard that the Lord had visited the children of Israel, and had looked vpon their tribulation, they bowed downe, and worshipped.

¹Then afterwarde Moses and Aaron went and said to Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may celebrate a feast vnto me in the wilderness. ²And Pharaoh saide, Who is the Lord, that I should heare his voyce, and let Israel go? I knowe not the Lord, neither will I let Israel goe. ³And they saide, We worship the God of the Ebrewes: we pray thee, let vs goe three daies iourney in the desert, and sacrifice vnto the Lord our God, least he bring vpon vs the pestilence or sword. ⁴Then saide the King of Egypt vnto them, Moses and Aaron, why cause ye the people to cease from their workes? get you to your burdens. ⁵Pharaoh saide furthermore, Behold, much people is now in the lande, and ye make them leaue their burdens. ⁶Therefore Pharaoh gaue commandement the same day vnto the taskemasters of the people, and to their officers, saying, ⁷Ye shall giue the people no more strawe, to make bricke ( as in time past) but let them goe and gather them strawe them selues: ⁸Notwithstanding lay vpon them the nobler of bricke, which they made in time past, diminish nothing thereof: for they be idle, therefore they crie, saying, Let vs go to offer sacrifice vnto our God. ⁹Lay more worke vpon the men, and cause them to do it, and let the not regard vaine words. ¹⁰Then went the taskemasters of the people and their officers out, and tolde the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will giue you no more strawe. ¹¹Goe your selues, get you strawe where yee can finde it, yet shall nothing of your labour bee diminished. ¹²Then were the people scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, for to gather stubble in steade of strawe. ¹³And the taskemasters hastened them, saying, Finish your dayes worke euery dayes taske, as ye did when ye had strawe. ¹⁴And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaohs taskemasters had set ouer them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore haue ye not fulfilled your taske in making bricke yesterday and to daye, as in times past? ¹⁵Then the officers of the children of Israel came, and cryed vnto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy seruants? ¹⁶There is no strawe giuen to thy seruantes, and they say vnto vs, Make bricke: and loe, thy seruants are beaten, and thy people is blamed. ¹⁷But he said, Ye are to much idle: therfore ye say, Let vs goe to offer sacrifice to the Lord. ¹⁸Goe therefore nowe and worke: for there shall no strawe be giuen you, yet shall yee deliuer the whole tale of bricke. ¹⁹Then the officers of the children of Israel sawe them selues in an euill case, because it was saide, Ye shall diminish nothing of your bricke, nor of euery dayes taske. ²⁰And they met Moses and Aaron, which stood in their way as they came out from Pharaoh, ²¹To whom they said, The Lord looke vpon you and iudge: for yee haue made our sauour to stinke before Pharaoh and before his seruants, in that ye haue put a sword in their hand to slay vs. ²²Wherefore Moses returned to the Lord, and saide, Lord, why hast thou afflicted this people? wherefore hast thou thus sent me? ²³For since I came to Pharaoh to speake in thy Name, he hath vexed this people, and yet thou hast not deliuered thy people.

¹Then the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Nowe shalt thou see, what I will doe vnto Pharaoh: for by a strong hand shall he let them goe, and euen be constrained to driue them out of his land. ²Moreouer God spake vnto Moses, and sayd vnto him, I am the Lord, ³And I appeared vnto Abraham, to Izhak, and to Iaakob by the Name of Almightye God: but by my Name Iehouah was I not knowen vnto the. ⁴Furthermore as I made my couenant with them to giue them ye land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers: ⁵So I haue also hearde the groning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keepe in bondage, and haue remembred my couenant. ⁶Wherefore say thou vnto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians, and will

deliuer you out of their bondage, and will redeeme you in a stretched out arme, and in great iudgements. ⁷Also I will take you for my people, and will be your God: then ye shall knowe that I the Lord your God bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians. ⁸And I will bring you into the land which I sware that I woulde giue to Abraham, to Izhak, and to Iaakob, and I will giue it vnto you for a possession: I am the Lord. ⁹So Moses told the children of Israel thus: but they hearkened not vnto Moses, for anguish of spirit and for cruel bondage. ¹⁰Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹¹Go speak to Pharaoh King of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel goe out of his land. ¹²But Moses spake before the Lord, saying, Beholde, the children of Israel hearken not vnto me, howe then shall Pharaoh heare mee, which am of vncircumcised lippes? ¹³Then the Lord spake vnto Moses and vnto Aaron, and charged them to goe to the children of Israel and to Pharaoh King of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the lande of Egypt. ¹⁴These bee the heades of their fathers houses: the sonnes of Reuben the first borne of Israel are Hanoah and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi: these are ye families of Reuben. ¹⁵Also the sonnes of Simeon: Iemuel and Iamin, and Ohad, and Iachin, and Zoar, and Shaul the sonne of a Canaanitish woman: these are the families of Simeon. ¹⁶These also are the names of the sonnes of Leui in their generations: Gershon and Kohath and Merari (and the yeres of the life of Leui were an hundreth thirtie and seuen yere) ¹⁷The sonnes of Gershon were Libni and Shimi by their families. ¹⁸And the sonnes of Kohath, Amram and Izhar, and Hebron, and Vzziel. (and Kohath liued an hundreth thirtie and three yeere) ¹⁹Also the sonnes of Merari were Mahali and Mushi: these are ye families of Leui by their kinreds. ²⁰And Amram tooke Iochebed his fathers sister to his wife, and shee bare him Aaron and Moses (and Amram liued an hundreth thirtie and seuen yeere) ²¹Also the sonnes of Izhar: Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri.

²²And the sonnes of Vzziel: Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Sithri.

²³And Aaron tooke Elisheba daughter of Amminadab, sister of Nahashon to his wife, which bare him Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ²⁴Also the sonnes of Korah: Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korhites. ²⁵And Eleazar Aarons sonne tooke him one of the daughters of Putiel to his wife, which bare him Phinehas: these are the principall fathers of the Leuites throughout their families.

²⁶These are Aaron and Moses to whom the Lord said, Bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, according to their armies. ²⁷These are that Moses and Aaron, which spake to Pharaoh King of Egypt, that they might bring the children of Israel out of Egypt. ²⁸And at that time when the Lord spake vnto Moses in the land of Egypt, ²⁹When the Lord, I say, spake vnto Moses, saying, I am the Lord, speake thou vnto Pharaoh the King of Egypt all that I say vnto thee, ³⁰Then Moses said before the Lord, Behold, I am of vncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh heare me?

¹Then the Lord saide to Moses, Behold, I haue made thee Pharaohs God, and Aaron thy brother shall be thy Prophet. ²Thou shalt speake all that I commanded thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speake vnto Pharaoh, that he suffer the children of Israel to go out of his land. ³But I will harden Pharaohs heart, and multiplie my miracles and my wonders in the lande of Egypt. ⁴And Pharaoh shall not hearken vnto you, that I may lay mine hand vpon Egypt, and bring out myne armies, euen my people, the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by great iudgements. ⁵Then the Egyptians shall knowe that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand vpon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them. ⁶So Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commanded them, euen so did they. ⁷(Nowe Moses was foure score yeere olde, and Aaron foure score and three, when they spake vnto Pharaoh) ⁸And the Lord had spoken vnto Moses and Aaron, saying, ⁹If Pharaoh speake vnto you, saying, Shewe a miracle for you, then thou shalt say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shalbe turned into a serpent. ¹⁰Then went Moses and Aaron vnto Pharaoh, and did euen as the Lord had commanded: and Aaron cast forth his rod before Pharaoh and before his seruants, and it was turned into a serpent. ¹¹Then Pharaoh called also for the wise men and sorcerers: and those charmers also of Egypt did in like maner with their enchantmens, ¹²For they cast downe euery man his rod, and they were turned into serpents: but Aarons rodde deuoured their rods. ¹³So Pharaohs heart was hardened, and hee hearkened not to them, as the Lord had saide. ¹⁴The Lord then saide vnto Moses, Pharaohs heart is obstinate, hee refuseth to let the people goe. ¹⁵Goe vnto Pharaoh in the morning, (loe, he will come forth vnto the water) and thou shalt stand and meete him by the riuers brinke, and the rod, which was turned into a serpent, shalt thou take in thine hand. ¹⁶And thou shalt say vnto him, The Lord God of the Ebrewes hath sent me vnto thee, saying, Let my people goe, that they may serue mee in the wilderness: and beholde, hitherto thou wouldest not heare. ¹⁷Thus saith the Lord, In this shalt thou know that I am the Lord: behold, I wil smite with the rodde that is in mine hand vpon the water that is in the riuier, and it shalbe turned to blood. ¹⁸And the fish that is in the riuier shall dye, and the riuier shall stinke, and it shall grieue the Egyptians to drinke of the water of the riuier. ¹⁹The Lord then spake to Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their streames, ouer their riuers, and ouer their pondes,, and ouer all pooles of their waters, and they shalbe blood, and there shalbe blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and of stone. ²⁰So Moses and Aaron did euen as the Lord commanded: and hee lift vp the rodde, and smote the water that was in the riuer in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his seruants: and all the water that was in the riuer, was turned into blood. ²¹And the fish that was in the ryuer dyed, and the riuer stanke: so that the Egyptians could not drinke of the water of the riuer: and there was blood throughout all the lande of Egypt. ²²And the enchanters of Egypt did likewise with their sorceries: and the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: so that he did not hearken vnto them, as the Lord had sayde. ²³Then Pharaoh returned, and went againe into his house, neither did this yet enter into his heart. ²⁴All the Egyptians then digged rounde about the riuer for waters to drinke: for they could not drinke of the water of the riuer. ²⁵And this continued fully seuen dayes after the Lord had smitten the riuer.

¹Afterward the Lord sayde vnto Moses, Goe vnto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people goe, that they may serue me: ²And if thou wilt not let them goe, beholde, I will smite all thy countrey with frogges: ³And the riuer shall scral ful of frogges, which shall goe vp and come into thine house, and into thy chamber, where thou sleepest, and vpon thy bed, and into the house of thy seruants, and vpon thy people, and into thine ouens, and into thy kneading troughes. ⁴Yea, the frogges shall climbe vp vpon thee, and on thy people, and vpon all thy seruants. ⁵Also the Lord said vnto Moses, Say thou vnto Aaron, Stretch out thine hande with thy rod vpon the streames, vpon the riuers, and vpon the ponds, and cause frogs to come vp vpon the land of Egypt. ⁶Then Aaron stretched out his hand vpon the waters of Egypt, and the frogges came vp, and couered the land of Egypt. ⁷And the sorcerers did likewise with their sorceries, and brought frogges vp vpon the land of Egypt. ⁸Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Pray ye vnto the Lord, that hee may take away the frogges from mee, and from my people, and I will let the people goe, that they may doe sacrifice vnto the Lord. ⁹And Moses said vnto Pharaoh, Concerning me, euen command when I shall pray for thee, and for thy seruants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogges from thee and from thine houses, that they may remaine in the riuier only. ¹⁰Then he said, To morowe. And he answered, Be it as thou hast said, that thou maiest know, that there is none like vnto the Lord our God. ¹¹So the frogges shall depart from thee, and from thine houses, and from thy seruantes, and from thy people: onely they shall remaine in the riuier. ¹²Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cryed vnto the Lord concerning the frogges, which hee had sent vnto Pharaoh. ¹³And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses: so the frogges died in the houses, in the townes, and in the fieldes. ¹⁴And they gathered the together by heaps, and the land stanke of them. ¹⁵But when Pharaoh sawe that hee had rest giuen him, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said. ¹⁶Againe the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Stretche out the rod, and smite the dust of the earth, that it may bee turned to lyce throughout all the land of Egypt. ¹⁷And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth: and lyce came vpon man and vpon beast: all the dust of the earth was lyce throughout all the land of Egypt. ¹⁸Nowe the enchanters assaied likewise with their enchantments to bring forth lyce, but they could not. So the lyce were vpon man and vpon beast. ¹⁹Then saide the enchanters vnto Pharaoh, This is the finger of God. But Pharaohs heart remained obstinate, and hee hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said. ²⁰Moreouer the Lord sayd to Moses, Rise vp early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh (lo, hee will come forth vnto the water) and say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serue me. ²¹Els, if thou wilt not let my people goe, behold, I will send swarmes of flies both vpon thee, and vpon thy seruants, and vpon thy people, and into thine houses:

and the houses of the Egyptians shalbe full of swarmes of flies, and the ground also whereon they are. ²²But ye land of Goshe, where my people are, wil I cause to be wonderfull in that day, so that no swarmes of flies shalbe there, that thou maiest know that I am the Lord in the middes of the earth. ²³And I will make a deliuerance of my people from thy people: to morowe shall this miracle be. ²⁴And the Lord did so: for there came great swarmes of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his seruants houses, so that through all the lande of Egypt, the earth was corrupt by the swarmes of flies. ²⁵Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and saide, Goe, doe sacrifice vnto your God in this lande. ²⁶But Moses answered, It is not meete to do so: for then we shoulde offer vnto the Lord our God that, which is an abomination vnto the Egyptians. Loe, can we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and they not stone vs? ²⁷Let vs go three dayes iourney in the desert, and sacrifice vnto the Lord our God, as he hath commanded vs. ²⁸And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice vnto the Lord your God in the wilderness: but goe not farre away, pray for me. ²⁹And Moses said, Behold, I will go out from thee, and pray vnto the Lord, that the swarmes of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his seruants, and from his people to morowe: but let Pharaoh from hencefoorth deceiue no more, in not suffering the people to sacrifice vnto the Lord. ³⁰So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed vnto the Lord. ³¹And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses, and the swarmes of flies departed from Pharaoh, from his seruants, and from his people, and there remained not one. ³²Yet Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, and did not let the people goe.

¹Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Go to Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Ebrewes, Let my people go, that they may serue me. ²But if thou refuse to let them goe, and wilt yet

holde them still, ³Beholde, the hande of the Lord is vpon thy flocke which is in the fiede: for vpon the horses, vpon the asses, vpon the camels, vpon the cattell, and vpon the sheepe shalbe a mightie great moraine. ⁴And the Lord shall doe wonderfully betweene the beastes of Israel, and the beastes of Egypt: so that there shall nothing dye of all, that pertaineth to the children of Israel. ⁵And the Lord appointed a time, saying, To morowe the Lord shall finish this thing in this lande. ⁶So the Lord did this thing on the morow, and all the cattel of Egypt dyed: but of the cattell of the children of Israel dyed not one. ⁷Then Pharaoh sent, and beholde, there was not one of the cattell of the Israelites dead: and the heart of Pharaoh was obstinate, and hee did not let the people goe. ⁸And the Lord said to Moses and to Aaron, Take your handfull of ashes of the fornace, and Moses shall sprinkle them towarde the heauen in the sight of Pharaoh, ⁹And they shall be turned to dust in all the land of Egypt: and it shalbe as a scab breaking out into blisters vpon man, and vpon beast, thorow out all the land of Egypt. ¹⁰Then they tooke ashes of the fornace, and stode before Pharaoh: and Moses sprinkled them towarde the heauen, and there came a scab breaking out into blisters vpon man, and vpon beast. ¹¹And the sorcerers could not stande before Moses, because of the scab: for the scab was vpon the enchanter, and vpon all the Egyptians. ¹²And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said vnto Moses. ¹³Also the Lord said vnto Moses, Rise vp early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Ebrewes, Let my people goe, that they may serue me. ¹⁴For I will at this time send all my plagues vpon thine heart, and vpon thy seruants, and vpon thy people, that thou mayest knowe that there is none like me in all the earth. ¹⁵For nowe I will stretch out mine hande, that I may smite thee and thy people with the pestilence: and thou shalt perish from the earth. ¹⁶And in deede, for this cause haue I appointed thee, to shewe my power in thee, and to declare my Name throughout all the world. ¹⁷Yet thou exaltest thy selfe against my people, and lettest them not goe. ¹⁸Beholde, to morowe this time I will cause to raine a mightie great haile, such as was not in Egypt since the foundation thereof was laid vnto this time. ¹⁹Send therefore now, and gather the cattell, and all that thou hast in the field: for vpon all the men, and the beastes, which are found in the field, and not brought home, the haile shall fall vpon them, and they shall die. ²⁰Such then as feared the word of the Lord among the seruants of Pharaoh, made his seruants and his cattell flee into the houses: ²¹But such as regarded not the worde of the Lord, left his seruants, and his cattell in the field. ²²And the Lord saide to Moses, Stretche foorth thine hande toward heauen, that there may be haile in all the land of Egypt, vpon man, and vpon beast, and vpon all the herbes of the field in the lande of Egypt. ²³Then Moses stretched out his rod toward heauen, and the Lord sent thunder and haile, and lightening vpon the ground: and the Lord caused haile to raine vpon the land of Egypt. ²⁴So there was haile, and fire mingled with the haile, so grieuous, as there was none throughout all the lande of Egypt, since it was a nation. ²⁵And the haile smote throughout al ye land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast: also ye haile smote all the herbes of ye field, and brake to pieces all the trees of the field. ²⁶Onely in the lande of Goshen (where the children of Israel were) was no haile. ²⁷Then Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said vnto them, I haue now sinned: the Lord is righteous, but I and my people are wicked. ²⁸Pray ye vnto the Lord (for it is ynough) that there be no more mightie thunders and haile, and I will let you goe, and yee shall tarie no longer. ²⁹Then Moses saide vnto him, Assoone as I am out of the citie, I will spreade mine hands vnto the Lord, and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more haile, that thou mayest knowe that the earth is the Lordes. ³⁰As for thee and thy seruants, I knowe afore I pray ye will feare before the face of the Lord God. ³¹(And the flaxe, and the barley were smitten: for the barley was eared, and the flaxe was bolled. ³²But the wheat and the rye were not smitten, for they were hid in the grounde) ³³Then Moses went out of the citie from Pharaoh, and spred his hands to the Lord, and the thunder and the haile ceased, neither rained it vpon the earth. ³⁴And when Pharaoh sawe that the raine and the haile and the thunder were ceased, hee sinned againe, and hardened his heart, both he, and his seruants. ³⁵So the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: neither would he let the children of Israel goe, as the Lord had said by Moses.

¹Againe the Lord saide vnto Moses, Goe to Pharaoh: for I haue hardened his heart, and the heart of his seruants, that I might worke these my miracles in the middes of his realme, ²And that thou maist declare in the eares of thy sonne, and of thy sonnes sonne, what things I haue done in Egypt, and my miracles, which I haue done among them: that ye may knowe that I am the Lord. ³Then came Moses and Aaron vnto Pharaoh, and they said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Ebrewes, Howe long wilt thou refuse to humble thy selfe before me? Let my people goe, that they may serue me. ⁴But if thou refuse to let my people go, beholde, to morowe will I bring grashoppers into thy coastes. ⁵And they shall couer the face of the earth, that a man can not see the earth: and they shall eate the residue which remaineth vnto you, and hath escaped from the haile: and they shall eate all your trees that bud in the field. ⁶And they shall fil thine houses, and all thy seruants houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians, as neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers haue seene, since the time they were vpon the earth vnto this day. So he returned, and went out from Pharaoh. ⁷Then Pharaohs seruants saide vnto him, How long shall he be an offence vnto vs? let the men go, that they may serue the Lord their God: wilt thou first knowe that Egypt is destroyed? ⁸So Moses and Aaron were brought againe vnto Pharaoh, and he saide vnto them, Goe, serue the Lord your God, but who are they that shall goe? ⁹And Moses answered, We will go with our yong and with our olde, with our sonnes and with our daughters, with our sheepe and with our cattell will we goe: for we must celebrate a feast vnto the Lord. ¹⁰And he said vnto them, Let the Lord so be with you, as I will let you goe and your children: beholde, for euill is before your face. ¹¹It shall not be so: nowe goe ye that are men, and serue the Lord: for that was your desire. Then they were thrust out from Pharaohs presence. ¹²After, the Lord said vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hande vpon the lande of Egypt for the grashoppers, that they may come vpon the lande of Egypt, and eate all the herbes of the land, euen all that the haile hath left. ¹³Then Moses stretched forth his rod vpon the lande of Egypt: and the Lord brought an East winde vpon the land all that day, and al that night: and in the morning the East wind brought the grashoppers. ¹⁴So the grashoppers went vp vpon all the land of Egypt, and remained in all quarters of Egypt: so grieuous Grashoppers, like to these were neuer before, neither after them shalbe such. ¹⁵For they couered all the face of the earth, so that the lande was darke: and they did eate all the herbes of the lande, and all the fruites of the trees, which the haile had left, so that there was no greene thing left vpon the trees, nor among the herbes of the fiede throughout all the lande of Egypt. ¹⁶Therefore Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and sayde, I haue sinned against the Lord your God, and against you. ¹⁷And nowe forgiue mee my sinne onely this once, and pray vnto the Lord your God, that hee may take away from me this death onely. ¹⁸Moses then went out from Pharaoh, and prayed vnto the Lord. ¹⁹And the Lord turned a mightie strong West winde, and tooke away the grashoppers, and violently cast them into the red Sea, so that there remained not one grasshopper in all the coast of Egypt. ²⁰But the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and hee did not let the children of Israel goe. ²¹Againe ye Lord said vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heauen, that there may be vpon the lande of Egypt darkenesse, euen darkenesse that may be felt. ²²Then Moses stretched forth his hande toward heauen, and there was a blacke darkenesse in all the land of Egypt three daies. ²³No man saw an other, neither rose vp from ye place where he was for three dayes: but all the children of Israel had light where they dwelt. ²⁴The Pharaoh called for Moses and said, Go, serue the Lord: onely your sheepe and your cattel shall abide, and your children shall go with you. ²⁵And Moses sayd, Thou must giue vs also sacrifices, and burnt offrings that wee may doe sacrifice vnto the Lord our God. ²⁶Therefore our cattell also shall go with vs: there shall not an hoofe bee left, for thereof must we take to serue the Lord our God: neither doe wee knowe howe we shall serue the Lord, vntill we come thither. ²⁷(But the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he would not let them goe) ²⁸And Pharaoh sayde vnto him, Get thee from mee: looke thou see my face no more: for whensoever thou comest in my sight, thou shalt dye. ²⁹Then Moses said, Thou hast said well: from henceforth will I see thy face no more.

¹Now the Lord had saide vnto Moses, yet will I bring one plague more vpon Pharaoh, and vpon Egypt: after that, he will let you go hence: when he letteth you goe, he shall at once chase you hence. ²Speake thou nowe to the people, that euery man require of his neighbour, and euery woman of her neighbour iewels of siluer and iewels of gold. ³And the Lord gaue the people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians: also Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaohs seruantes, and in the sight of the people.) ⁴Also Moses sayde, Thus sayth the Lord, About midnight will I goe out into the middes of Egypt. ⁵And all the first borne in the lande of Egypt shall die, from the first borne of Pharaoh that sitteth on his throne, vnto the first borne of the maide seruant, that is at the mille, and all the first borne of beastes. ⁶Then there shalbe a great crie throughout all the land of Egypt, such as was neuer none like, nor shalbe. ⁷But against none of ye children of Israel shall a dogge moue his tongue, neyther against man nor beast, that ye may knowe that the Lord putteth a difference betweene the Egyptians and Israel. ⁸And all these thy seruants shall come downe vnto me, and fal before me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that are at thy feete, and after this will I depart. So he went out from Pharaoh very angry. ⁹And the Lord saide vnto Moses, Pharaoh shall not heare you, that my wonders may bee multiplied in the land of Egypt. ¹⁰So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: but the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he suffred not the children of Israel to goe out of his lande.

¹Then the Lord spake to Moses and to Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, ²This moneth shalbe vnto you the beginning of moneths: it shalbe to you the first moneth of the yere. ³Speake ye vnto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth of this moneth let euery man take vnto him a lambe, according to the house of the fathers, a lambe for an house. ⁴And if the housholde be too litle for the lambe, he shall take his neighbour, which is next vnto his house, according to the number of the persons: euery one of you, according to his eating shall make your count for the lambes, ⁵Your lambe shalbe without blemish, a male of a yeere olde: ye shall take it of the lambes, or of the kiddes. ⁶And yee shall keepe it vntill the fourteenth day of this moneth: then al the multitude of the Congregation of Israel shall kill it at euen. ⁷After, they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two postes, and on the vpper doore post of the houses where they shall eate it. ⁸And they shall eate the flesh the same night, roste with fire, and vnleauened bread: with sowre herbes they shall eate it. ⁹Eate not thereof rawe, boyled nor sodden in water, but rost with fire, both his head, his feete, and his purtenance. ¹⁰And ye shall reserue nothing of it vnto the morning: but that, which remaineth of it vnto the morowe, shall ye burne with fire. ¹¹And thus shall yee eate it, Your loynes girded, your shoes on your feete, and your staues in your handes, and yee shall eate it in haste: for it is the Lords Passeouer. ¹²For I will passe through the lande of Egypt the same night, and will smite all the first borne in the land of Egypt, both man and beast, and I will execute iudgement vpon all the gods of Egypt. I am the Lord. ¹³And the blood shalbe a token for you vpon the houses where ye are: so when I see the blood, I will passe ouer you, and the plague shall not be vpon you to destruction, when I smite the lande of Egypt. ¹⁴And this day shalbe vnto you a remembrance:

and ye shall keepe it an holie feast vnto the Lord, throughout your generations: yee shall keepe it holie by an ordinance for euer. ¹⁵Seuen daies shall ye eat vnleauened bread, and in any case ye shall put away leauen the first day out of your houses: for whosoeuer eateth leauened bread from the first daie vntill the seuenth day, that person shalbe cut off from Israel. ¹⁶And in the first day shalbe an holie assemblie: also in the seuenth day shalbe an holy assemblie vnto you: no worke shalbe done in them, saue about that which euery man must eate: that onely may ye do. ¹⁷Ye shall keepe also the feast of vnleauened bread: for that same daye I will bring your armies out of the lande of Egypt: therefore ye shall obserue this day, throughout your posteritie, by an ordinance for euer. ¹⁸In the first moneth and the fourteenth day of the moneth at euen, yee shall eate vnleauened bread vnto the one and twentieth day of the moneth at euen. ¹⁹Seuen daies shall no leauen be founde in your houses: for whosoeuer eateth leavened bread, that person shalbe cut off from the Congregation of Israel: whether he bee a stranger, or borne in the land. ²⁰Ye shall eate no leavened bread: but in all your habitations shall ye eate vnleavened bread. ²¹Then Moses called all the Elders of Israel, and saide vnto them, Choose out and take you for euerie of your housholdes a lambe, and kill the Passeouer. ²²And take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basen, and strike the lintell, and the doore cheekes with the blood that is in the basen, and let none of you goe out at the doore of his house, vntill the morning. ²³For the Lord will passe by to smite the Egyptians: and when he seeth the blood vpon the lintell and on the two doore cheekes, the Lord wil passe ouer the doore, and wil not suffer the destroyer to come into your houses to plague you. ²⁴Therefore shall ye obserue this thing as an ordinance both for thee and thy sonnes for euer. ²⁵And when ye shall come into the land, which the Lord will giue you as hee hath promised, then ye shall keepe this seruice. ²⁶And when your children aske you, What seruice is this ye keepe? ²⁷Then ye shall saye, It is the sacrifice of the Lordes Passeouer, which passed ouer the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and preserued our houses. Then the people bowed them selues, and worshipped. ²⁸So the children of Israel went, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron: so did they. ²⁹Nowe at midnight, the Lord smote all the first borne in the lande of Egypt, from the first borne of Pharaoh that sate on his throne, vnto the first borne of the captiue that was in prison, and all the first borne of beastes. ³⁰And Pharaoh rose vp in the night, he, and all his seruants and all the Egyptians: and there was a great crye in Egypt: for there was no house where there was not one dead. ³¹And hee called to Moses and to Aaron by night, and saide, Rise vp, get you out from among my people, both yee, and the children of Israel, and goe serue the Lord as ye haue sayde. ³²Take also your sheepe and your cattell as yee haue sayde, and depart, and blesse me also. ³³And the Egyptians did force the people, because they would send them out of the land in haste: for they said, We die all. ³⁴Therefore the people tooke their dough before it was leauened, euen their dough bound in clothes vpon their shoulders. ³⁵And the children of Israel did according to the saying of Moses, and they asked of ye Egyptians iewels of siluer and iewels of gold, and raiment. ³⁶And the Lord gaue the people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians: and they graunted their request: so they spoyled the Egyptians. ³⁷Then the children of Israel tooke their iourney from Rameses to Succoth about sixe hundreth thousand men of foote, beside children. ³⁸And a great multitude of sundrie sortes of people went out with them, and sheepe, and beeues, and cattel in great abundance. ³⁹And they baked the dough which they brought out of Egypt, and made vnleauened cakes: for it was not leauened, because they were thrust out of Egypt, neither coulde they tarie, nor yet prepare themselues vitales. ⁴⁰So the dwelling of the children of Israel, while they dwelled in Egypt, was foure hundreth and thirtie yeres. ⁴¹And when the foure hundreth and thirtie yeeres were expired, euen the selfe same day departed all the hostes of the Lord out of the land of Egypt. ⁴²It is a night to be kept holie to the Lord, because he brought them out of the lande of Egypt: this is that night of the Lord, which all the children of Israel must keepe throughout their generations. ⁴³Also the Lord said vnto Moses and Aaron, This is the Lawe of the Passeouer: no stranger shall eate thereof. ⁴⁴But euerie seruant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof. ⁴⁵A stranger or an hyred seruant shall not eat thereof. ⁴⁶In one house shall it bee eaten: thou shalt carie none of ye flesh out of the house, neither shall ye breake a bone thereof. ⁴⁷All the Congregation of Israel shall obserue it. ⁴⁸But if a stranger dwell with thee, and will obserue the Passeouer of the Lord, let him circumcise all the males, that belong vnto him, and then let him come and obserue it, and he shall be as one that is borne in the land: for none vncircumcised person shall eate thereof. ⁴⁹One lawe shalbe to him that is borne in the land, and to the stranger that dwelleth among you. ⁵⁰Then all the children of Israel did as the Lord commanded Moses and Aaron: so did they. ⁵¹And the selfe same day did the Lord bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Sanctifie vnto me all the first borne: that is, euery one that first openeth the wombe among the children of Israel, as well of man as of beast: for it is mine. ³Then Moses sayd vnto the people, Remember this day in the which ye came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage: for by a mightie hande the Lord brought you out from thence: therefore no leauened bread shall bee eaten. ⁴This day come yee out in the moneth of Abib. ⁵Now when the

Lord hath brought thee into the land of the Canaanites, and Hittites, and Amorites, and Hiuites, and Iebusites (which he sware vnto thy fathers, that he woulde giue thee, a land flowing with milke and honie) then thou shalt keepe this seruice in this moneth. ⁶Seuen dayes shalt thou eate vnleauened bread, and the seuenth day shall be the feast of the Lord. ⁷Vnleauened bread shall bee eaten seuen dayes, and there shall no leauened bread be seene with thee, nor yet leauen be seene with thee in all thy quarters. ⁸And thou shalt shew thy sonne in that day, saying, This is done, because of that which the Lord did vnto me, when I came out of Egypt. ⁹And it shalbe a signe vnto thee vpon thine hande, and for a remembrance betweene thine eyes, that the Lawe of the Lord may be in thy mouth: for by a strong hand the Lord brought thee out of Egypt. ¹⁰Keepe therefore this ordinance in his season appoynted from yeere to yeere. ¹¹And when the Lord shall bring thee into the lande of the Canaanites, as hee sware vnto thee and to thy fathers, and shall giue it thee, ¹²Then thou shalt set apart vnto the Lord all that first openeth the wombe: also euery thing that first doeth open the wombe, and commeth forth of thy beast: the males shalbe the Lordes. ¹³But euery first foale of an asse, thou shalt redeeme with a lambe: and if thou redeeme him not, then thou shalt breake his necke: likewise all the first borne of man among thy sonnes shalt thou bye out. ¹⁴And when thy sonne shall aske thee to morowe, saying, What is this? thou shalt then say vnto him, With a mightie hande the Lord brought vs out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. ¹⁵For when Pharaoh was harde hearted against our departing, the Lord then slewe all the first borne in the lande of Egypt: from the first borne of man euen to the first borne of beast: therefore I sacrifice vnto the Lord all the males that first open the wombe, but all the first borne of my sonnes I redeeme. ¹⁶And it shalbe as a token vpon thine hand, and as frontlets betweene thine eyes, that the Lord brought vs out of Egypt by a mightie hande. ¹⁷Nowe when Pharaoh had let the people go, God caried them not by the way of the Philistims countrey, though it were neerer: (for God sayd, Lest the people repent whe they see warre, and turne againe to Egypt) ¹⁸But God made the people to go about by the way of the wilderness of the red sea: and the children of Israel went vp armed out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁹(And Moses tooke the bones of Ioseph with him: for he had made the children of Israel sweare, saying, God will surely visite you, and ye shall take my bones away hence with you) ²⁰So they tooke their iourney from Succoth, and camped in Etham in the edge of the wilderness. ²¹And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloude to leade them the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to giue them light, that they might go both by day and by night. ²²He tooke not away the pillar of ye cloude by day, nor the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

¹Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake to the children of Israel, that they returne and campe before Pi-hahiroth, betweene Migdol and the Sea, ouer against Baal-zephon: about it shall ye campe by the Sea. ³For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are tangled in the land: the wilderness hath shut them in. ⁴And I will harden Pharaohs heart that hee shall follow after you: so I will get mee honour vpon Pharaoh, and vpon all his hoste: the Egyptians also shall knowe that I am the Lord: and they did so. ⁵Then it was told the King of Egypt, that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his seruants was turned against the people, and they sayde, Why haue we this done, and haue let Israel go out of our seruice? ⁶And he made ready his charets, and tooke his people with him, ⁷And tooke sixe hundreth chosen charets, and all the charets of Egypt, and captaines ouer euery one of them. ⁸(For the Lord had hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he followed after the children of Israel: but the children of Israel went out with an hie hand) ⁹And the Egyptians pursued after them, and all the horses and charets of Pharaoh, and his horsemen and his hoste ouertooke them camping by the Sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon. ¹⁰And when Pharaoh drew nie, the children of Israel lift vp their eyes, and beholde, the Egyptians marched after them, and they were sore afrayde: wherefore the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord. ¹¹And they sayde vnto Moses, Hast thou brought vs to die in the wildernes, because there were no graues in Egypt? wherefore hast thou serued vs thus, to carie vs out of Egypt? ¹²Did not wee tell thee this thing in Egypt, saying, Let vs be in rest, that we may serue the Egyptians? for it had bene better for vs to serue the Egyptians, then that wee shoulde dye in the wilderness. ¹³Then Moses sayde to the people, Feare ye not, stand still, and beholde the saluation of the Lord which he will shew to you this day. For the Egyptians, whome ye haue seene this day, ye shall neuer see them againe. ¹⁴The Lord shall fight for you: therefore hold you your peace. ¹⁵And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Wherefore cryest thou vnto me? speake vnto the children of Israel that they go forward: ¹⁶And lift thou vp thy rod, and stretche out thine hand vpon the Sea and deuide it, and let the children of Israel goe on drie ground thorow the middes of the Sea. ¹⁷And I, beholde, I will harden the heart of the Egyptians, that they may follow them, and I wil get me honour vpon Pharaoh, and vpon all his host, vpon his charets, and vpon his horsemen. ¹⁸Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I haue gotten me honour vpon Pharaoh, vpon his charets, and vpon his horsemen. ¹⁹(And the Angel of God, which went before the hoste of Israel, remoued and went behinde them: also the pillar of the cloude went from before them, and stoode behinde them, ²⁰And came betweene the campe of the Egyptians and the campe of Israel: it was both a cloude and darkenes, yet gaue it light by night, so that all the night long the one came not at the other) ²¹And Moses stretched forth his hande vpon the Sea, and the Lord caused the sea to runne backe by a strong East winde all the night, and made the Sea dry land: for the waters were deuided. ²²Then the children of Israel went through the middes of the Sea vpon the drie ground, and the waters were a wall vnto them on their right hand, and on their left hand. ²³And the Egyptians pursued and went after them to the middes of the Sea, euen all Pharaohs horses, his charets, and his horsemen. ²⁴Nowe in the morning watche, when the Lord looked vnto the hoste of the Egyptians, out of the fire and cloudie pillar, he strooke the host of the Egyptians with feare. ²⁵For he tooke off their charet wheelles, and they draue them with much a doe: so that the Egyptians euery one sayd, I wil flee from the face of Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians. ²⁶Then the Lord sayde to Moses, Stretche thine hand vpon the Sea, that the waters may returne vpon the Egyptians, vpon their charets and vpon their horsemen. ²⁷Then Moses stretched forth his hand vpon the Sea, and the Sea returned to his force early in the morning, and the Egyptians fled against it: but the Lord ouerthrew the Egyptians in the mids of the Sea. ²⁸So the water returned and couered the charets and the horsemen, euen all the hoste of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them: there remained not one of them. ²⁹But the children of Israel walked vpon dry land thorowe the middes of the Sea, and the waters were a wall vnto them on their right hande, and on their left. ³⁰Thus the Lord saued Israel the same day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel sawe the Egyptians dead vpon the Sea banke. ³¹And Israel saw the mightie power, which the Lord shewed vpon the Egyptians: so the people feared the Lord, and beleued the Lord, and his seruant Moses.

¹Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song vnto the Lord, and sayd in this maner, I will sing vnto the Lord: for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and him that rode vpon him hath he ouerthrowen in the Sea. ²The Lord is my strength and praise, and he is become my saluation. He is my God, and I will prepare him a tabernacle. he is my fathers God, and I will exalt him. ³The Lord is a man of warre, his Name is Iehouah. ⁴Pharaohs charets and his host hath he cast into the Sea: his chosen captaines also were drowned in the red Sea. ⁵The depths haue couered them, they sanke to the bottome as a stone. ⁶Thy right hande, O Lord, is glorious in power: thy right hand, O Lord, hath brused the enemye. ⁷And in thy great glorie thou hast ouerthrowen them that rose against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as the stubble. ⁸And by the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered, the floods stode still as an heape, the depthes congealed together in the heart of the Sea. ⁹The enemye sayd, I wil pursue, I wil ouertake them, I will deuide the spoyle, my lust shall bee satisfied vpon them, I will drawe my sworde, mine hand shall destroy them. ¹⁰Thou blewest with thy winde, the Sea couered them, they sanke as leade in the mightie waters. ¹¹Who is like vnto thee, O Lord, among the Gods! who is like thee so glorious in holinesse, fearefull in prayes, doing wonders! ¹²Thou stretchedst out thy right hande, the earth swallowed them. ¹³Thou wilt by thy mercie cary this people, which thou deliueredst: thou wilt bring them in thy strength vnto thine holy habitation. ¹⁴The people shall heare and be afraide: sorow shall come vpon the inhabitants of Palestina. ¹⁵Then the dukes of Edom shalbe amased, and trembling shall come vpon the great men of Moab: all the inhabitantes of Canaan shall waxe faint hearted. ¹⁶Feare and dread shall fall vpon them: because of the greatnesse of thine arme, they shalbe stil as a stone, till thy people passe, O Lord: til this people passe, which thou hast purchased. ¹⁷Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountaine of thine inheritance, which is the place that thou hast prepared, O Lord, for to dwell in, euen the sanctuarie, O Lord, which thine hands shall establish. ¹⁸The Lord shall reigne for euer and euer. ¹⁹For Pharaohs horses went with his charets and horsemen into the Sea, and the Lord brought the waters of the Sea vpon them: but the children of Israel went on drie land in the middes of the Sea. ²⁰And Miriam the prophetesse, sister of Aaron tooke a timbrell in her hande, and all the women came out after her with timbrels and daunces. ²¹And Miriam answered the men, Sing yee vnto the Lord: for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath hee ouerthrowen in the Sea. ²²Then Moses brought Israel from the redde Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur: and they went three dayes in the wilderness, and found no waters. ²³And whe they came to Marah, they could not drinke of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of the place was called Marah. ²⁴Then the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drinke? ²⁵And he cried vnto the Lord, and the Lord shewed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were sweete: there he made them an ordinance and a law, and there he proued them, ²⁶And sayd, if thou wilt diligently hearken, O Israel, vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that, which is right in his sight, and wilt giue eare vnto his commandements, and keepe all his ordinances, then will I put none of these diseases vpon thee, which I brought vpon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee. ²⁷And they came to Elim, where were twelue fountaines of water, and seuentie palme trees, and they camped thereby the waters.

¹Afterward all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from Elim, and came to the wildernes of Sin, (which is betweene Elim and Sinai) the fifteenth day of the second moneth after their departing out of ye land of Egypt. ²And the whole Congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness. ³For the children of Israel sayde to them, Oh that we had dyed by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when wee sate by the flesh pots, when wee ate bread our bellies full: for yee haue brought vs out into this wilderness, to kill this whole company with famine. ⁴Then sayd the Lord vnto Moses, Behold, I wil cause bread to rayne from heauen to you, and the people shall goe out, and gather that that is sufficient for euery day, that I may proue them, whether they wil walke in my Law or no. ⁵But the sixt daye they shall prepare that, which they shall bring home, and it shalbe twice as much as they gather dayly. ⁶Then Moses and Aaron sayde vnto all the children of Israel, At euen ye shall know, that the Lord brought you out of the land of Egypt: ⁷And in the morning ye shall see the glorie of the Lord: for he hath heard your grudgings against the Lord: and what are we that ye haue murmured against vs? ⁸Againe Moses sayd, At euen shall the Lord giue you flesh to eate, and in the morning your fil of bread: for the Lord hath heard your murmurings, which ye murmure against him: for what are we? your murmurings are not against vs, but against the Lord. ⁹And Moses sayd to Aaron, Say vnto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, Draw neere before the Lord: for he hath heard your murmurings. ¹⁰Now as Aaron spake vnto the whole Congregation of the children of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and beholde, the glory of the Lord appeared in a cloude. ¹¹(For the Lord had spoken vnto Moses, saying, ¹²I haue heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: tell them therefore, and say, At euen ye shall eate flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread, and ye shall knowe that I am the Lord your God) ¹³And so at euen the quailles came and couered the campe: and in the morning the dewe lay round about the hoste. ¹⁴And when the dewe that was fallen was ascended, beholde, a small round thing was vpon the face of the wilderness, small as the hoare frost on the earth. ¹⁵And when the children of Israel sawe it, they sayde one to another, It is MAN, for they wist not what it was. And Moses sayd vnto them, This is the breade which the Lord hath giuen you to eate. ¹⁶This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded: gather of it euery man according to his eating an Omer for a man according to the number of your persons: euery man shall take for them which are in his tent. ¹⁷And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some lesse. ¹⁸And when they did measure it with an Omer, hee that had gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that had gathered litle, had no lacke: so euery man gathered according to his eating. ¹⁹Moses then said vnto them, Let no man reserue thereof till morning. ²⁰Notwithstanding they obeyed not Moses: but some of them reserued of it till morning, and it was full of wormes, and stanke: therefore Moses was angrie with them. ²¹And they gathered it euery morning, euery man according to his eating: for when the heate of the sunne came, it was melted. ²²And the sixt day they gathered twise so much bread, two Omers for one man: then all the rulers of the Congregation came and told Moses. ²³And he answered them, This is that, which the Lord hath sayde, To morowe is the rest of the holy Sabbath vnto the Lord: bake that to day which ye wil bake, and seethe that which ye wil seethe, and all that remaineth, lay it vp to be kept till the morning for you. ²⁴And they laied it vp till the morning, as Moses bade, and it stanke not, neyther was there any worme therein. ²⁵Then Moses sayde, Eate that to day: for to day is the Sabbath vnto the Lord: to day ye shall not finde it in the field. ²⁶Sixe dayes shall yee gather it, but in the seuenth day is the Sabbath: in it there shalbe none. ²⁷Notwithstanding, there went out some of the people in ye seuenth day for to gather, and they found none. ²⁸And the Lord sayde vnto Moses, Howe long refuse yee to keepe my commandements, and my lawes? ²⁹Beholde, howe the Lord hath giuen you the Sabbath: therefore he giueth you the sixt day bread for two dayes: tary therefore euery man in his place: let no man goe out of his place the seuenth day. ³⁰So the people rested the seuenth day. ³¹And the house of Israel called the name of it, MAN. and it was like to coriander seede, but white: and the taste of it was like vnto wafers made with hony. ³²And Moses said, This is that which the Lord hath commanded, Fill an Omer of it, to keepe it for your posteritie: that they may see the bread wherewith I haue fed you in wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt. ³³Moses also said to Aaron, Take a pot and put an Omer full of MAN therein, and set it before the Lord to be kept for your posteritie. ³⁴As the Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron laied it vp before the Testimonie to be kept. ³⁵And the children of Israel did eate MAN fourtie yeres, vntill they came vnto a land inhabited: they did eate MAN vntill they came to the borders of the land of Canaan. ³⁶The Omer is the tenth part of the Ephah.

¹And all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from the wilderness of Sin, by their journeyes at the commandement of the Lord, and camped in Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drinke. ²Wherefore the people contended with Moses, and sayde, Giue vs water that we may drinke. And Moses sayde vnto them, Why contende yee with me? wherefore do ye tempt the Lord? ³So the people thirsted there for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore hast thou thus brought vs out of Egypt to kill vs and our children and our cattel with thirst? ⁴And Moses cried to the Lord, saying, What shall I do to this people? for they be almost ready to stone me. ⁵And ye Lord answered to Moses, Goe before the people, and take with thee of the Elders of Israel: and thy rod, wherewith thou smotest the riuer, take in thine hand, and go: ⁶Behold, I will stand there before thee vpon the rocke in Horeb, and thou shalt smite on the rocke, and water shall come out of it, that the people may drinke. And Moses did so in the sight of the Elders of Israel. ⁷And he called the name of the place, Massah and Meribah, because of the contention of the children of Israel, and because they had tempted the Lord, saying, Is the Lord among vs, or no? ⁸Then came Amalek and fought with Israel in Rephidim. ⁹And Moses sayde to Ioshua, Chuse vs out men, and go fight with Amalek: to morowe I will stande on the toppe of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand. ¹⁰So Ioshua did as Moses bad him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur, went vp to the top of the hill. ¹¹And when Moses helde vp his hande, Israel preuailed: but when he let his hande downe, Amalek preuailed. ¹²Nowe Moses handes were heauy: therefore they tooke a stone and put it vnder him, and hee sate vpon it: and Aaron and Hur stayed vp his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side: so his hands were steady vntill the going downe of the sunne. ¹³And Ioshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword. ¹⁴And the Lord sayde to Moses, Write this for a remembrance in the booke, and rehearse it to Ioshua: for I will vtterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from vnder heauen. ¹⁵(And Moses builde an altar and called the name of it, Iehouah-nissi) ¹⁶Also he said, The Lord hath sworne, that he will haue warre with Amalek from generation to generation.

¹When Iethro the Priest of Midian Moses father in lawe heard all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and howe the Lord had brought Israel out of Egypt, ²Then Iethro the father in lawe of Moses, tooke Zipporah Moses wife, (after he had sent her away) ³And her two sonnes, (whereof the one was called Gershom: for he sayd, I haue bene an aliant in a strange land: ⁴And the name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father, said he, was mine helpe, and deliuered me from the sword of Pharaoh) ⁵And Iethro Moses father in law came with his two

sonnes, and his wife vnto Moses into the wildernes, where he camped by ye mout of God. ⁶And he said to Moses, I thy father in law Iethro am come to thee, and thy wife and her two sonnes with her. ⁷And Moses went out to meete his father in law, and did obeisance and kissed him, and eche asked other of his welfare: and they came into the tent. ⁸Then Moses told his father in law all that the Lord had done vnto Pharaoh, and to the Egyptians for Israels sake, and all the trauaile that had come vnto them by the way, and howe the Lord deliuered them. ⁹And Iethro reioyced at all the goodnesse, which the Lord had shewed to Israel, and because he had deliuered them out of the hande of the Egyptians. ¹⁰Therefore Iethro sayd, Blessed be the Lord who hath deliuered you out of the hande of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh: who hath also deliuered the people from vnder the hand of the Egyptians. ¹¹Now I know that the Lord is greater then all the gods: for as they haue dealt proudly with them, so are they recompensed. ¹²Then Iethro Moses father in lawe tooke burnt offerings and sacrifices to offer vnto God. And Aaron and all the Elders of Israel came to eat bread with Moses father in law before God. ¹³Now on the morow, when Moses sate to iudge the people, the people stode about Moses from morning vnto euen. ¹⁴And when Moses father in law saw all that he did to the people, he sayde, What is this that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thy selfe alone, and all the people stande about thee from morning vnto euen? ¹⁵And Moses sayd vnto his father in law, Because the people come vnto me to seeke God. ¹⁶When they haue a matter, they come vnto me, and I iudge betweene one and another, and declare the ordinances of God, and his lawes.

wildernes: euen there Israel camped before the mount. ³But Moses went vp vnto God, for ye Lord had called out of the mount vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Iaakob, and tell the children of Israel, ⁴Ye haue seene what I did vnto the Egyptians, and how I caryed you vpon eagles wings, and haue brought you vnto me. ⁵Now therefore if ye wil heare my voyce in deede, and keepe my couenant, then ye shalbe my chiefe treasure aboue all people, though all the earth be mine. ⁶Yee shall be vnto mee also a kingdome of Priestes, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel. ⁷Moses then came and called for the Elders of the people, and proposed vnto them all these things, which the Lord commanded him. ⁸And the people answered all together, and sayd, All that the Lord hath commanded, we will doe. And Moses reported the wordes of the people vnto the Lord. ⁹And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Lo, I come vnto thee in a thicke cloude, that the people may heare, whiles I talke with thee, and that they may also beleue thee for euer. (for Moses had tolde the wordes of the people vnto the Lord) ¹⁰Moreouer, the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Goe to the people, and sanctifie them to day and to morow, and let them wash their clothes. ¹¹And let them be ready on the third day: for the thirde day the Lord will come downe in the sight of all the people vpon mount Sinai: ¹²And thou shalt set markes vnto the people rounde about, saying, Take heede to your selues that ye goe not vp the mount, nor touche the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount, shall surely die. ¹³No hand shall touche it, but he shalbe stoned to death, or stricken through with darts: whether it be beast or man, he shall not liue: when the horne bloweth long, they shall come vp into the mountaine. ¹⁴Then Moses went downe from ye mount vnto the people, and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes. ¹⁵And he said vnto the people, Be ready on the third day, and come not at your wiues. ¹⁶And the thirde day, when it was morning, there was thunders and lightnings, and a thicke cloude vpon the mount, and the sounde of the trumpet exceeding loude, so that all the people, that was in the campe, was afrayde. ¹⁷Then Moses brought the people out of the tents to meete with God, and they stooode in the nether part of the mount. ¹⁸And mount Sinai was all on smoke, because the Lord came downe vpon it in fire, and the smoke therof ascended, as the smoke of a fornace, and all the mount trembled exceedingly. ¹⁹And when the sound of the trumpet blew long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by voyce. ²⁰(For the Lord came downe vpon mount Sinai on the toppe of the mount) and when the Lord called Moses vp into the top of the mount, Moses went vp. ²¹Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Go down, charge the people, that they breake not their boundes, to go vp to the Lord to gaze, least many of them perish. ²²And let the Priestes also which come to the Lord be sanctified, least the Lord destroy them. ²³And Moses sayde vnto the Lord, The people can not come vp into the mount Sinai: for thou hast charged vs, saying, Set markes on the mountaine, and sanctifie it. ²⁴And the Lord sayd vnto him, Go, get thee downe, and come vp, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the Priestes and the people breake their boundes to come vp vnto the Lord, least he destroy them. ²⁵So Moses went downe vnto the people, and tolde them.

¹Then God spake all these wordes, saying, ²I am the Lord thy God, which haue brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. ³Thou shalt haue none other Gods before me. ⁴Thou shalt make thee no grauen image, neither any similitude of things that are in heauen aboue, neither that are in the earth beneath, nor that are in the waters vnder the earth. ⁵Thou shalt not bowe downe to them, neither serue them: for I am the Lord thy God, a ielous God, visiting the iniquitie of the fathers vpon the children, vpon the third generation and vpon the fourth of them that hate me: ⁶And shewing mercie vnto thousandes to them that loue me, and keepe my commandemets. ⁷Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vaine: for the Lord will not hold him guiltles that taketh his Name in vayne. ⁸Remember the Sabbath day, to keepe it holy. ⁹Sixe dayes shalt thou labour, and doe all thy worke, ¹⁰But the seuenth day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any worke, thou, nor thy sonne, nor thy daughter, thy man seruant, nor thy mayde, nor thy beast, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates. ¹¹For in sixe dayes the Lord made the heauen and the earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seuenth day: therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it. ¹²Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy dayes may be prolonged vpon the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee. ¹³Thou shalt not kill. ¹⁴Thou shalt not commit adulterie. ¹⁵Thou shalt not steale. ¹⁶Thou shalt not beare false witnes against thy neighbour. ¹⁷Thou shalt not couet thy neighbours house, neither shalt thou couet thy neighbours wife, nor his man seruant, nor his mayde, nor his oxe, nor his asse, neyther any thing that is thy neighbours. ¹⁸And all the people sawe the thunders, and the lightnings, and the sound of the trumpet, and the mountaine smoking and when the people saw it they fled and stode afare off, ¹⁹And sayde vnto Moses, Talke thou with vs, and we will heare: but let not God talke with vs, lest we die. ²⁰Then Moses sayde vnto the people, Feare not: for God is come to proue you, and that his feare may be before you, that ye sinne not. ²¹So the people stode afarre off, but Moses drew neere vnto the darkenes where God was. ²²And the Lord sayde vnto Moses, Thus thou shalt say vnto the children of Israel, Ye haue seene that I haue talked with you from heauen. ²³Ye shall not make therefore with me gods of siluer, nor gods of golde: you shall make you none. ²⁴An altar of earth thou shalt make vnto me, and thereon shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheepe, and thine oxen: in all places, where I shall put the remembrance of my Name, I will come vnto thee, and blesse thee. ²⁵But if thou wilt make mee an altar of stone, thou shalt not buyld it of hewen stones: for if thou lift vp thy toole vpon them, thou hast polluted them. ²⁶Neither shalt thou goe vp by steppes vnto mine altar, that thy filthines be not discouered thereon.

⁵But if the seruant saye thus, I loue my master, my wife and my children, I will not goe out free, ⁶Then his master shall bring him vnto the Iudges, and set him to the dore, or to the poste, and his master shall bore his eare through with a nawle, and he shall serue him for euer. ⁷Likewise if a man sell his daughter to be a seruant, she shall not goe out as the men seruantes doe. ⁸If shee please not her master, who hath betrothed her to him selfe, then shall hee cause to buy her: hee shall haue no power to sell her to a strange people, seeing he despised her. ⁹But if he hath betrothed her vnto his sonne, he shall deale with her according to the custome of the daughters. ¹⁰If he take him another wife, he shall not diminish her foode, her rayment, and recompence of her virginities. ¹¹And if he do not these three vnto her, the shall she go out free, paying no money. ¹²He that smiteth a man, and he die, shall dye the death. ¹³And if a man hath not layed wayte, but God hath offered him into his hande, then I wil appoynt thee a place whither

he shall flee. ¹⁴But if a man come presumptuously vpon his neighbour to slay him with guile, thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die. ¹⁵Also hee that smiteth his father or his mother, shall die the death. ¹⁶And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, if it be founde with him, shall die the death. ¹⁷And hee that curseth his father or his mother, shall die the death. ¹⁸When men also strue together, and one smite another with a stone, or with the fist, and he die not, but lieth in bed, ¹⁹If hee rise againe and walke without vpon his staffe, then shall he that smote him go quite, saue onely hee shall beare his charges for his resting, and shall pay for his healing. ²⁰And if a man smite his seruant, or his maide with a rod, and he die vnder his hande, hee shall surely be punished. ²¹But if he continue a day, or two dayes, hee shall not be punished: for he is his money. ²²Also if men strue and hurt a woman with childe, so that her childe depart from her, and death follow not, hee shall bee surely punished according as the womans husband shall appoynt him, or he shall pay as the Iudges determine. ²³But if death follow, then thou shalt paye life for life, ²⁴Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hande for hand, foote for foote, ²⁵Burning for burning, wound for wounde, stripe for stripe. ²⁶And if a man smite his seruant in the eie, or his maide in the eye, and hath perished it, hee shall let him goe free for his eye. ²⁷Also if he smite out his seruants tooth, or his maides tooth, he shall let him goe out free for his tooth. ²⁸If an ox gore a man or a woman, that he die, the ox shallbe stoned to death, and his flesh shall not be eaten, but the owner of the ox shall goe quite. ²⁹If the ox were wont to push in times past, and it hath bene tolde his master, and hee hath not kept him, and after he killeth a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and his owner shall die also. ³⁰If there be set to him a summe of mony, then he shall pay the raunsome of his life, whatsoeuer shallbe laied vpon him. ³¹Whether he hath gored a sonne or gored a daughter, he shallbe iudged after the same maner. ³²If the ox gore

a seruant or a mayde, hee shall giue vnto their master thirtie shekels of siluer, and the ox shallbe stoned. ³³And when a man shall open a well, or when he shall dig a pit and couer it not, and an ox or an asse fall therein, ³⁴The owner of the pit shall make it good, and giue money to the owners thereof, but the dead beast shallbe his. ³⁵And if a mans ox hurt his neighbours ox that he die, then they shall sel the liue ox, and deuide the money thereof, and the dead ox also they shall deuide. ³⁶Or if it bee knownen that the ox hath vsed to push in times past, and his master hath not kept him, he shall pay ox for ox, but the dead shall be his owne.

¹If a man steale an ox or a sheepe, and kill it or sell it, he shall restore fiue oxen for the ox, and foure sheepe for the sheepe. ²If a thiefe bee founde breaking vp, and be smitten that he dye, no blood shall be shed for him. ³But if it be in the day light, blood shall be shed for him: for he should make full restitution: if he had not

wherewith, then shoulde he bee solde for his theft. ⁴If the theft bee founde with him, aliue, (whether it be oxe, asse, or sheepe) he shall restore the double. ⁵If a man doe hurt fiede, or vineyarde, and put in his beast to feed in an other mans fiede, he shall recompence of the best of his owne fiede, and of the best of his owne vineyard. ⁶If fire breake out, and catche in ye thornes, and the stackes of corne, or the standing corne, or the fiede be consumed, he that kindled the fire shall make full restitution. ⁷If a man deliuer his neighbour money or stuffe to keepe, and it be stollen out of his house, if the thiefe be found, he shall pay the double. ⁸If the thiefe be not founde, then the master of the house shalbe brought vnto the Iudges to sweare, whether he hath put his hande vnto his neighbours good, or no. ⁹In all maner of trespasse, whether it bee for oxen, for asse, for sheepe, for raiment, or for any maner of lost thing, which an other chalengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the iudges, and whom the Iudges condemne, he shall pay the double vnto his neighbour. ¹⁰If a man deliuer vnto his neighbour to keepe asse, or oxe, or sheepe, or any beast, and it die, or be hurt, or taken away by enemies, and no man see it, ¹¹An othe of the Lord shalbe betweene the twaine, that hee hath not put his hande vnto his neighbours good, and the owner of it shall take the othe, and he shall not make it good: ¹²But if it be stollen from him, he shall make restitution vnto the owner thereof. ¹³If it be torne in pieces, he shall bring recorde, and shall not make that good, which is deuoured. ¹⁴And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or els die, the owner thereof not being by, he shall surely make it good. ¹⁵If the owner thereof bee by, hee shall not make it good: for if it be an hired thing, it came for his hire. ¹⁶And if a man entise a maide that is not betrothed, and lie with her, hee shall endowe her, and take her to his wife. ¹⁷If her father refuse to giue her to him, hee shall pay money, according to ye dowry of virgins. ¹⁸Thou shalt not suffer a witch to liue.

¹⁹Whosoeuer lieth with a beast, shall dye the death. ²⁰Hee that offereth vnto any gods, saue vnto the Lord onely, shalbe slaine.
²¹Moreouer, thou shalt not do iniurie to a stranger, neither oppresse him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.
²²Ye shall not trouble any widowe, nor fatherlesse childe.
²³If thou vexe or trouble such, and so he call and cry vnto me, I will surely heare his cry. ²⁴Then shall my wrath be kindled, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wiues shall be widowes, and your children fatherlesse. ²⁵If thou lende money to my people, that is, to the poore with thee, thou shalt not bee as an vsurer vnto him: yee shall not oppresse him with vsurie. ²⁶If thou take thy neighbours rayment to pledge, thou shalt restore it vnto him before the sunne go downe: ²⁷For that is his couering only, and this is his garment for his skin: wherein shall he sleepe? therefore when he crieth vnto mee, I will heare him: for I am mercifull. ²⁸Thou shalt not raile vpon the Iudges, neither speake euil of the ruler of thy people. ²⁹Thine abundance and thy licour shalt thou not keepe backe. The first borne of thy sonnes shalt thou giue me.

³⁰Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen and with thy sheepe: seuen dayes it shall bee with his damme, and the eight day thou shalt giue it me. ³¹Ye shall be an holy people vnto me, neither shall ye eate any flesh that is torne of beastes in the fiede: ye shall cast it to the dogge.

¹Thou shalt not receiue a false tale, neyther shalt thou put thine hande with the wicked, to be a false witnes. ²Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do euil, neither agree in a controuersie to decline after many and ouerthrowe the trueth. ³Thou shalt not esteeme a poore man in his cause. ⁴If thou meete thine enemies oxe, or his asse going astray, thou shalt bring him to him againe. ⁵If thou see thine enemies asse lying vnder his burden, wilt thou cease to helpe him? thou shalt helpe him vp again with it. ⁶Thou shalt not ouerthrowe the right of thy poore in his sute. ⁷Thou shalt keepe thee farre from a false matter, and shalt not slaye the innocent and the righteous: for I will not iustifie a wicked man. ⁸Thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the wise, and peruerteth the wordes of the righteous. ⁹Thou shalt not oppresse a stranger: for ye knowe the heart of a stranger, seeing yee were strangers in the land of Egypt. ¹⁰Moreouer, sixe yeres thou shalt sowe thy land, and gather the fruites thereof, ¹¹But the seuenth yeere thou shalt let it rest and lie still, that the poore of thy people may eat, and what they leaue, the bestes of the fiede shall eate. In like maner thou shalt doe with thy vineyard, and with thine oliue trees. ¹²Sixe dayes thou shalt do thy worke, and in the seuenth day thou shalt rest, that thine oxe, and thine asse may rest, and the sonne of thy maide and the stranger may be refreshed. ¹³And ye shall take heede to all things that I haue sayde vnto you: and ye shall make no mention of the name of other gods, neither shall it be heard out of thy mouth. ¹⁴Three times thou shalt keepe a feast vnto me in the yeere. ¹⁵Thou shalt keepe the feast of vnleauened bread: thou shalt eate vnleauened bread seue dayes, as I commanded thee, in the season of the moneth of Abib: for in it thou camest out of Egypt: and none shall appeare before me emptie: ¹⁶The feast also of the haruest of the first fruites of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the fiede: and the feast of gathering fruites in the ende of the yere, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the fiede. ¹⁷These three times in the yeere shall all thy men children appeare before the Lord Iehouah. ¹⁸Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leauened bread: neyther shall the fatte of my sacrifice remayne vntill the morning. ¹⁹The first of the first fruites of thy lande thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God: yet shalt thou not seeth a kid in his mothers milke. ²⁰Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keepe thee in the way, and to bring thee to the place which I haue prepared. ²¹Beware of him, and heare his voyce, and prouoke him not: for he will not spare your misdeedes, because my name is in him. ²²But if thou hearken vnto his voyce, and do all that I speake, the I wil be an enemie vnto thine enemies, and will afflict them that afflict thee. ²³For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee vnto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites, and I will destroy them. ²⁴Thou shalt not bow downe to their gods, neither serue them, nor doe after the workes of them: but vtterly ouerthrowe them, and breake in pieces their images. ²⁵For ye shall serue the Lord your God, and he shall blesse thy bread and thy water, and I will take all sickenes away from the middes of thee. ²⁶There shall none cast their fruite nor be baren in thy lande: the number of thy dayes will I fulfill. ²⁷I will send my feare before thee, and will destroy all the people among whome thou shalt go: and I will make all thine enemies turne their backes vnto thee: ²⁸And I will sende hornets before thee, which shall driue out the Hiuites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites from thy face. ²⁹I will not cast them out from thy face in one yeere, least the land grow to a wildernes: and the beasts of the field multiplie against thee. ³⁰By litle and litle I will driue them out from thy face, vntill thou increase, and inherite the lande. ³¹And I will make thy coastes from the red sea vnto the sea of the Philistims, and from the desert vnto the Riuer: for I will deliuer the inhabitants of the lande into your hande, and thou shalt driue them out from thy face. ³²Thou shalt make no couenant with them, nor with their gods: ³³Neither shall they dwell in thy lande, least they make thee sinne against me: for if thou serue their gods, surely it shall be thy destruction.

¹Now hee had said vnto Moses, Come vp to the Lord, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seuentie of the Elders of Israel, and yee shall worship a farre off. ²And Moses himselve alone shall come neere to the Lord, but they shall not come neere, neither shall the people goe vp with him. ³Afterwarde Moses came and told the people all the wordes of the Lord, and all the lawes: and all the people answered with one voyce, and said, All the things which the Lord hath said, will we doe. ⁴And Moses wrote all the wordes of the Lord, and rose vp early, and set vp an altar vnder the mountaine, and twelue pillars according to the twelue tribes of Israel. ⁵And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offrings of bieues, and sacrificed peace offrings vnto the Lord. ⁶Then Moses tooke halfe of the blood, and put it in basens, and halfe of the blood he sprinckled on the altar. ⁷After he tooke the booke of the couenant, and read it in the audience of the people: who said, All that the Lord hath said, we will do, and be obedient. ⁸Then Moses tooke the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold, the blood of the couenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these things. ⁹Then went vp Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and

Abihu, and seuentie of the Elders of Israel. ¹⁰And they saw the God of Israel, and vnder his feete was as it were a worke of a Saphir stone, and as the very heauen when it is cleare. ¹¹And vpon the nobles of the children of Israel he laide not his hande: also they sawe God, and did eate and drinke. ¹²And the Lord said vnto Moses, Come vp to me into the mountaine, and be there, and I will giue thee tables of stone, and the law and the commandement, which I haue written, for to teach them. ¹³Then Moses rose vp, and his minister Ioshua, and Moses went vp into the mountaine of God, ¹⁴And said vnto the Elders, Tary vs here, vntill we come againe vnto you: and beholde, Aaron, and Hur are with you: whosoeuer hath any matters, let him come to them. ¹⁵Then Moses went vp to the mount, and the cloude couered the mountaine, ¹⁶And the glorie of the Lord abode vpon mount Sinai, and the cloude couered it sixe dayes: and the seuenth day he called vnto Moses out of the middes of the cloude. ¹⁷And the sight of the glorie of the Lord was like consuming fire on the top of the mountaine, in the eyes of the children of Israel. ¹⁸And Moses entred into the middes of the cloude, and went vp to the mountaine: and Moses was in the mount fourtie dayes and fourty nightes.

all that I shewe thee, euen so shall ye make the forme of the Tabernacle, and the facion of all the instruments thereof. ¹⁰They shall make also an Arke of Shittim wood, two cubites and an halfe long, and a cubite and an halfe broad, and a cubite and an halfe hie. ¹¹And thou shalt ouerlay it with pure golde: within and without shalt thou ouerlay it, and shalt make vpon it a crowne of golde rounde about. ¹²And thou shalt cast foure rings of golde for it, and put them in the foure corners thereof: that is, two rings shalbe on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side thereof. ¹³And thou shalt make barres of Shittim wood, and couer them with golde. ¹⁴Then thou shalt put the barres in the rings by the sides of the Arke, to beare the Arke with them. ¹⁵The barres shalbe in the rings of the Arke: they shall not be taken away from it. ¹⁶So thou shalt put in the Arke the Testimonie which I shall giue thee. ¹⁷Also thou shalt make a Mercie seate of pure golde, two cubites and an halfe long, and a cubite and an halfe broad. ¹⁸And thou shalt make two Cherubims of golde: of worke beaten out with the hammer shalt thou make the at ye two endes of the Merciseate. ¹⁹And the one Cherub shalt thou make at the one ende, and the other Cherub at the other ende: of the matter of the Mercieseate shall ye make the Cherubims, on the two endes thereof. ²⁰And the Cherubims shall stretche their winges on hie, couering the Mercie seate with their winges, and their faces one to another: to the Mercie seate warde shall the faces of the Cherubims be. ²¹And thou shalt put the Mercieseate aboue vpon the Arke, and in the Arke thou shalt put the Testimonie, which I will giue thee, ²²And there I will declare my selfe vnto thee, and from aboue ye Mercieseate betweene ye two Cherubims, which are vpon ye Arke of ye Testimonie, I wil tel thee al things which I wil giue thee in comandement vnto ye children of Israel. ²³Thou shalt also make a Table of Shittim wood, of two cubites long, and one cubite broad, and a cubite and an halfe hie: ²⁴And thou shalt couer it with pure gold, and make thereto a crowne of golde round about. ²⁵Thou shalt also make vnto it a border of foure fingers roud about and thou shalt make a golden crowne round about the border thereof. ²⁶After, thou shalt make for it foure ringes of golde, and shalt put the rings in the foure corners that are in the foure feete thereof: ²⁷Ouer against the border shall the rings be for places for barres, to beare the Table. ²⁸And thou shalt make the barres of Shittim wood, and shalt ouerlay them with golde, that the Table may be borne with them. ²⁹Thou shalt make also dishes for it, and incense cuppes for it, and couerings for it, and goblets, wherewith it shall be couered, euen of fine golde shalt thou make them. ³⁰And thou shalt set vpon the Table shewe bread before me continually. ³¹Also thou shalt make a Candlesticke of pure golde: of worke beaten out with the hammer shall the Candlesticke be made, his shaft, and his branches, his boules, his knops: and his floures shalbe of the same. ³²Six braunches also shall come out of the sides of it: three branches of the Candlestick out of the one side of it, and three branches of the Candlestick out of the other side of it. ³³Three boules like vnto almondes, one knop and one floure in one braunch: and three boules like almondes in the other branch, one knop and one floure: so throughout the sixe branches that come out of the Candlestick. ³⁴And in the shaft of the Candlestick shalbe foure boules like vnto almondes, his knops and his floures. ³⁵And there shalbe a knop vnder two branches made thereof: and a knop vnder two branches made thereof: and a knop vnder two branches made thereof, according to the sixe branches comming out of the Candlestick. ³⁶Their knops and their branches shall bee thereof. all this shalbe one beaten worke of pure golde. ³⁷And thou shalt make the seuen lampes thereof: and the lampes thereof shalt thou put thereon, to giue light toward that that is before it. ³⁸Also the snuffers and snuffedishes thereof shalbe of pure golde. ³⁹Of a talent of fine gold shalt thou make it with all these instruments. ⁴⁰Looke therefore that thou make them after their facion, that was shewed thee in the mountaine.

¹Afterwarde thou shalt make the Tabernacle with tenne curtaines of fine twined linen, and blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet: and in them thou shalt make Cherubims of broydered worke. ²The length of one curtaine shalbe eight and twentie cubites, and the bredth of one curtaine, foure cubites: euery one of the curtaines shall haue one measure. ³Fiue curtaines shalbe coupled one to an other: and the other fiue curtaines shall be coupled one to another. ⁴And thou shalt make stringes of blew silke vpon the edge of the one curtaine, which is in the seluedge of the coupling: and likewise shalt thou make in the edge of the other curtaine in the seluedge, in the second coupling. ⁵Fiftie strings shalt thou make in one curtaine, and fiftie stringes shalt thou make in the edge of the curtaine, which is in the second coupling: ye stringes shalbe one right against another.

⁶Thou shalt make also fiftie taches of gold, and couple the curtaines one to another with the taches, and it shalbe one tabernacle.

¹¹Likewise thou shalt make fifty taches of brasse, and fasten them on the strings, and shalt couple the couering together, that it may be one. ¹²And the remnant that resteth in ye curtaines of the couering, euen the halfe curtaine that resteth, shalbe left at the backside of the Tabernacle, ¹³That the cubite on the one side, and the cubite on the other side of that which is left in the legth of the curtaines of ye couering, may remaine on either side of the Tabernacle to couer it.

other boarde for his two tenons. ²⁰In like maner on the other side of the Tabernacle toward the North side shalbe twentie boardes, ²¹And their fourtie sockets of siluer, two sockets vnder one boarde, and two sockets vnder another board. ²²And on the side of the Tabernacle, toward the West shalt thou make sixe boards. ²³Also two boardes shalt thou make in the corners of the Tabernacle in the two sides. ²⁴Also they shalbe ioyned beneath, and likewise they shalbe ioyned aboue to a ring: thus shall it be for them two: they shalbe for ye two corners. ²⁵So they shalbe eight boardes hauing sockets of siluer, euen sixteene sockets, that is, two sockets vnder one board, and two sockets vnder an other boarde. ²⁶The thou shalt make fife barres of Shittim wood for the boardes of one side of the Tabernacle, ²⁷And fife barres for the boardes of the other side of the Tabernacle: also fife barres for the boardes of the side of the Tabernacle toward the Westside. ²⁸And the middle barre shall goe through the middes of the boards, from ende to ende. ²⁹And thou shalt couer the boards with golde, and make their rings of golde, for places for the barres, and thou shalt couer the barres with golde. ³⁰So thou shalt reare vp the Tabernacle, according to the facion thereof, which was shewed thee in the mount. ³¹Moreouer, thou shalt make a vaile of blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen: thou shalt make it of broyded worke with Cherubims. ³²And thou shalt hang it vpon foure pillars of Shittim wood couered with gold, (whose hookes shalbe of gold) stading vpon foure sockets of siluer. ³³Afterward thou shalt hang the vaile on the hookes, that thou mayest bring in thither, that is (within the vaile) the arke of the Testimonie: and the vaile shall make you a separation betweene the Holy place and the most holy place. ³⁴Also thou shalt put ye Mercy seate vpon the Arke of the testimonie in the most Holy place. ³⁵And thou shalt set the Table without the vaile, and the Candlesticke ouer against the Table on the Southside of the Tabernacle, and thou shalt set the Table on the Northside. ³⁶Also thou shalt make an hanging for the dore of ye Tabernacle of blew silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen wrought with needle. ³⁷And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of Shittim, and couer them with gold: their heads shalbe of golde, and thou shalt cast five sockets of brasse for them.

¹Moreouer thou shalt make the altar of Shittim wood, five cubites long and five cubites broade (the altar shall be foure square) and the height thereof three cubites. ²And thou shalt make it hornes in the foure corners thereof: the hornes shalbe of it selfe, and thou shalt couer it with brasse. ³Also thou shalt make his ashpannes for his ashes and his besoms, and his basens, and his flesh-hookes, and his censers: thou shalt make all the instruments thereof of brasse. ⁴And thou shalt make vnto it a grate like networke of brasse: also vpon that grate shalt thou make foure brasen rings vpon the foure corners thereof. ⁵And thou shalt put it vnder the compasse of the altar beneath, that the grate may be in the middes of the altar. ⁶Also thou shalt make barres for the altar, barres, I say, of Shittim wood, and shalt couer them with brasse. ⁷And the barres thereof shalbe put in the rings, the which barres shalbe vpon the two sides of the altar to beare it. ⁸Thou shalt make the altar holowe betweene the boardes: as God shewed thee in the mount, so shall they make it. ⁹Also thou shalt make the court of the Tabernacle in the Southside, euen full South: the court shall haue curtaines of fine twined linnen, of an hundreth cubites long, for one side, ¹⁰And it shall haue twentie pillars, with their twentie sockets of brasse: the heades of the pillars, and their filets shalbe siluer. ¹¹Likewise on the Northside in length there shalbe hangings of an hundreth cubites long, and the twentie pillars thereof with their twentie sockets of brasse: the heades of the pillars and the filets shalbe siluer. ¹²And the breadth of the court on the Westside shall haue curtaines of fiftie cubites, with their ten pillars and their ten sockets. ¹³And the breadth of the court, Eastwarde full East shall haue fiftie cubites. ¹⁴Also hangings of fiftene cubites shalbe on the one side with their three pillars and their three sockets. ¹⁵Likewise on the other side shalbe hangings of fiftene cubites, with their three pillars and their three sockets. ¹⁶And in the gate of the court shalbe a vaile of twentie cubites, of blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen wrought with needle, with the foure pillars thereof and their foure sockets. ¹⁷All the pillars of the court shall haue filets of siluer round about, with their heads of siluer, and their sockets of brasse. ¹⁸The length of the court shalbe an hundreth cubites, and the breadth fiftie at either ende, and the height fiue cubites, and the hangings of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brasse. ¹⁹Al the vessels of the Tabernacle for al maner seruice thereof, and all the pinnes thereof, and all the pinnes of the court shalbe brasse. ²⁰And thou shalt commande the children of Israel, that they bring vnto thee pure oyle oliue beaten, for the light, that the lampes may alway burne. ²¹In the Tabernacle of the Congregation without the vaile, which is before the Testimony, shall Aaron and his sonnes dresse them from euenig to morning before the Lord, for a statute for euer vnto their generations, to be obserued by the children of Israel.

robe, and a broyded coate, a miter, and a girdle. so these holy garments shall they make for Aaron thy brother, and for his sonnes, that he may serue me in the Priests office. ⁵Therefore they shall take golde, and blew silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine linnen, ⁶And they shall make the Ephod of gold, blewe silke, and purple, skarlet, and fine twined linen of broyded worke. ⁷The two shoulders thereof shalbe ioyned together by their two edges: so shall it be closed. ⁸And the embroyded garde of the same Ephod, which shalbe vpon him, shall be of the selfe same worke and stuffe, euen of golde, blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen. ⁹And thou shalt take two onix stones, and graue vpon them the names of the children of Israel: ¹⁰Sixe names of them vpon the one stone, and the sixe names that remaine, vpon the seconde stone, according to their generations. ¹¹Thou shalt cause to graue the two stones according to the names of the children of Israel by a grauer of signets, that worketh and graueth in stone, and shalt make them to be set and embossed in golde. ¹²And thou shalt put the two stones vpon the shoulders of the Ephod, as stones of remembrance of the children of Israel: for Aaron shall beare their names before the Lord vpon his two shoulders for a remembrance. ¹³So thou shalt make bosses of golde, ¹⁴And two cheynes of fine golde at the ende, of wrethed worke shalt thou make them, and shalt fasten the wrethed cheynes vpon the bosses. ¹⁵Also thou shalt make the brest plate of iudgement with broyded worke: like the worke of the Ephod shalt thou make it: of gold, blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen shalt thou make it. ¹⁶Foure square it shall be and double, an hand bredth long and an hand bredth broad. ¹⁷Then thou shalt set it full of places for stones, euen foure rowes of stones: the order shalbe this, a rubie, a topaze, and a carbuncle in the first rowe. ¹⁸And in the seconde rowe thou shalt set an emeraude, a saphir, and a diamonde. ¹⁹And in the third rowe a turkeis, an achate, and an hematite. ²⁰And in the fourth rowe a chrysolite, an onix, and a iasper: and they shall be set in golde in their embossemments. ²¹And the stones shall be according to the names of the children of Israel, twelue, according to their names, grauen as signets, euerye one after his name, and they shall bee for the twelue tribes. ²²Then thou shalt make vpon the breast plate two cheines at the endes of wrethen worke of pure golde. ²³Thou shalt make also vpon the brest plate two rings of golde, and put the two rings on the two endes of the brest plate. ²⁴And thou shalt put the two wrethen chaynes of golde in the two rings in the endes of the brest plate. ²⁵And the other two endes of the two wrethen cheines, thou shalt fasten in ye two embossemments, and shalt put them vpon the shoulders of the Ephod on the foreside of it. ²⁶Also thou shalt make two rings of gold, which thou shalt put in the two other endes of the brest plate, vpon the border thereof, towarde the inside of the Ephod.

²⁷And two other rings of golde thou shalt make, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath in the forepart of it ouer against the coupling of it vpon the broydred garde of the Ephod. ²⁸Thus they shall binde the brest plate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blewe silke, that it may be fast vpon the broydred garde of the Ephod, and that the brest plate be not loosed from the Ephod. ²⁹So Aaron shall beare the names of the children of Israel in the brest plate of iudgement vpon his heart, when he goeth into the holy place, for a remembrance continually before the Lord. ³⁰Also thou shalt put in the brest plate of iudgement the Vrim and the Thummim, which shalbe vpon Aarons heart, when he goeth in before the Lord: and Aaron shall beare the iudgement of the children of Israel vpon his heart before the Lord continually. ³¹And thou shalt make the robe of the Ephod altogether of blewe silke. ³²And the hole for his head shalbe in the middes of it, hauing an edge of wouen worke rounde about the collar of it: so it shalbe as the collar of an habergeon that it rent not. ³³And beneath vpon the skirtes thereof thou shalt make pomegranates of blew silke, and purple, and skarlet, round about the skirts thereof, and belles of gold betweene them round about: ³⁴That is, a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate rounde about vpon the skirtes of the robe. ³⁵So it shalbe vpon Aaron, when he ministreth, and his sound shalbe heard, when he goeth into the holy place before the Lord, and when he commeth out, and he shall not dye. ³⁶Also thou shalt make a plate of pure golde, and graue thereon, as signets are grauen, Holines To The Lord, ³⁷And thou shalt put it on a blew silke lace, and it shalbe vpon the miter: euen vpon the fore front of the miter shall it be. ³⁸So it shalbe vpon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may beare the iniquitie of the offrings, which the children of Israel shall offer in all their holy offrings: and it shall be alwayes vpon his forehead, to make them acceptable before the Lord. ³⁹Likewise thou shalt embroyder the fine line coat, and thou shalt make a miter of fine line, but thou shalt make a girdell of needle worke. ⁴⁰Also thou shalt make for Aarons sonnes coates, and thou shalt make the girdels, and bonets shalt thou make them for glorie and comelinesse. ⁴¹And thou shalt put them vpon Aaron thy brother, and on his sonnes with him, and shalt anoint them, and fill their handes, and sanctifie them, that they may minister vnto me in the Priestes office. ⁴²Thou shalt also make them linen breeches to couer their priuities: from the loynes vnto the thighs shall they reache. ⁴³And they shalbe for Aaron and his sonnes when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or whe they come vnto the altar to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie, and so die. This shalbe a lawe for euer vnto him and to his seede after him.

¹This thing also shalt thou do vnto them whe thou consecratest them to be my Priestes, Take a yong calfe, and two rams without blemish, ²And vnleauened bread and cakes vnleauened tempered with oyle, and wafers vnleauened anoynted with oyle: (of fine wheate flowre shalt thou make them) ³Then thou shalt put them in one basket, and present them in the basket with the calfe and the two rammes, ⁴And shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and wash them with water. ⁵Also thou shalt take the garments, and put vpon Aaron the tunicle, and the robe of the Ephod, and the Ephod, and the brest plate, and shalt close them to him with the broidred garde of the Ephod. ⁶Then thou shalt put the miter vpon his head, and shalt put the holy crowne vpon ye miter. ⁷And thou shalt take the anoynting oyle, and shalt powre vpon his head, and anoynt him. ⁸And thou shalt bring his sonnes, and put coates vpon them, ⁹And shalt girde them with girdles, both Aaron and his sonnes: and shalt put the bonets on them, and the Priestes office shalbe theirs for a perpetuall lawe:

thou shalt also fill the hands of Aaron, and the hands of his sonnes. ¹⁰After, thou shalt present the calfe before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their handes vpon the head of the calfe. ¹¹So thou shalt kill the calfe before the Lord, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ¹²Then thou shalt take of the blood of the calfe, and put it vpon the hornes of the altar with thy finger, and shalt powre al the rest of the blood at the foote of the altar. ¹³Also thou shalt take all the fat that couereth the inwardes, and the kall, that is on the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon them, and shalt burne them vpon the altar. ¹⁴But the flesh of the calfe, and his skin, and his dounge shalt thou burne with fire without the hoste: it is a sinne offering. ¹⁵Thou shalt also take one ramme, and Aron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon the head of the ramme. ¹⁶Then thou shalt kill the ramme, and take his blood, and sprinkle it round about vpon the altar, ¹⁷And thou shalt cut the ramme in pieces, and wash the inwards of him and his legges, and shalt put them vpon the pieces thereof, and vpon his head.

¹⁸So thou shalt burne the whole ram vpon the altar: for it is a burnt offering vnto the Lord for a sweete sauour: it is an offering made by fire vnto the Lord. ¹⁹And thou shalt take the other ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their handes vpon the head of the ramme. ²⁰Then thou shalt kill the ramme, and take of his blood and put it vpon the lappe of Aarons eare, and vpon the lappe of the right eare of his sonnes, and vpon the thumbe of their right hand, and vpon the great toe of their right foote, and shalt sprinkle the blood vpon ye altar roud about. ²¹And thou shalt take of the blood that is vpon the altar, and of the anoynting oyle, and shalt sprinkle it vpon Aaron, and vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes, and vpon the garments of his sonnes with him: so he shall be halowed, and his clothes, and his sonnes, and the garments of his sonnes with him. ²²Also thou shalt take of the rammes ye fatte and the rumpe, euen the fat that couereth the inwards, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon them, and the right shoulder, (for it is the ramme of consecration) ²³And one loafe of bread, and one cake of bread tempered with oyle, and one wafer, out of the basket of the vnleauened bread that is before the Lord. ²⁴And thou shalt put al this in the handes of Aaron, and in the handes of his sonnes, and shalt shake them to and from before the Lord. ²⁵Againe, thou shalt receyue them of their handes, and burne them vpon the altar besides the burnt offring for a sweete sauour before ye Lord: for this is an offering made by fire vnto the Lord. ²⁶Likewise thou shalt take the brest of the ram of the consecration, which is for Aaron, and shalt shake it to and from before the Lord and it shalbe thy part. ²⁷And thou shalt sanctifie the brest of the shaken offering, and the shoulder of the heaue offering, which was shaken to and from, and which was heaued vp of the ramme of the consecration, which was for Aaron, and which was for his sonnes. ²⁸And Aaron and his sonnes shall haue it by a statute for euer, of the children of Israel: for it is an heaue offering, and it shall be an heaue offering of the children of Israel, of their peace offerings, euen their heaue offering to the Lord. ²⁹And the holy garmets, which appertain to Aaron, shall bee his sonnes after him, to bee anoynted therein, and to bee consecrate therein. ³⁰That sonne that shalbe Priest in his steade, shall put them on seuen dayes, when he commeth into the Tabernacle of the Congregation to minister in the holy place. ³¹So thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seeth his flesh in the holy place. ³²And Aaron and his sonnes shall eate the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, at the doore of ye Tabernacle of ye Congregation. ³³So they shall eate these thinges, whereby their attonement was made, to consecrate them, and to sanctifie them: but a stranger shall not eate thereof, because they are holy things. ³⁴Now if ought of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread remaine vnto the morning, then thou shalt burne the rest with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is an holie thing. ³⁵Therefore shalt thou doe thus vnto Aaron and vnto his sonnes, according to all things, which I haue commanded thee: seuen dayes shalt thou consecrate them, ³⁶And shalt offer euery day a calfe for a sinne offring, for reconciliation: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast offred vpon it for reconciliation, and shalt annoynt it, to sanctifie it. ³⁷Seuen dayes shalt thou cleanse the altar, and sanctifie it, so the altar shalbe most holy: and whatsoeuer toucheth the altar, shalbe holy. ³⁸Nowe this is that which thou shalt present vpon the altar: euen two lambes of one yere olde, day by day continually. ³⁹The one lambe thou shalt present in the morning, and the other lambe thou shalt present at euen. ⁴⁰And with the one lambe, a tenth part of fine floure mingled with the fourth part of an Hin of beaten oyle, and the fourth part of an Hin of wine, for a drinke offering. ⁴¹And the other lambe thou shalt present at euen: thou shalt doe thereto according to the offering of the morning, and according to the drinke offering thereof, to be a burnt offering for a sweete sauour vnto, the Lord.

⁴²This shalbe a continuall burnt offering in your generations at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord, where I wil make appoyntment with you, to speake there vnto thee. ⁴³There I will appoynt with the children of Israel, and the place shall bee sanctified by my glorie. ⁴⁴And I will sanctifie the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the altar: I will sanctifie also Aaron and his sonnes to be my Priests, ⁴⁵And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will bee their God. ⁴⁶Then shall they knowe that I am ye Lord their God, that brought them out of the lande of Egypt, that I might dwell among them: I am the Lord their God.

¹Fvrthermore thou shalt make an altar for sweete perfume, of Shittim wood thou shalt make it. ²The length therof a cubite and the breadth thereof a cubite (it shalbe foure square) and the height thereof two cubites: the

hornes thereof shalbe of the same, ³And thou shalt ouerlay it with fine golde, both the toppe therof and the sides thereof round about, and his hornes: also thou shalt make vnto it a crowne of gold round about. ⁴Besides this thou shalt make vnder this crowne two golden rings on either side: euen on euery side shalt thou make them, that they may be as places for the barres to beare it withall. ⁵The which barres thou shalt make of Shittim wood, and shalt couer them with golde. ⁶After thou shalt set it before the vaile, that is neere the Arke of Testimonie, before the Merciseate that is vpon the Testimonie, where I will appoynt with thee. ⁷And Aaron shall burne thereon sweete incense euery morning: when hee dresseth the lampes thereof, shall he burne it. ⁸Likewise at eue, when Aaron setteth vp the lampes thereof, he shall burne incense: this perfume shalbe perpetually before ye Lord, throughout your generations. ⁹Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor offering, neither powre any drinke offring thereon. ¹⁰And Aaron shall make reconciliation vpon the hornes of it once in a yere with the blood of the sinne offering in the day of reconciliation: once in the yeere shall hee make reconciliation vpon it throughout your generations: this is most holy vnto the Lord. ¹¹Afterward the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹²When thou takest the summe of the children of Israel after their number, then they shall giue every man a redemption of his life vnto the Lord, when thou tellest them, that there bee no plague among the when thou countest them. ¹³This shall every man giue, that goeth into the number, halfe a shekel, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie: (a shekel is twentie gerahs) the halfe shekel shalbe an offering to the Lord. ¹⁴All that are nombred from twentie yeere olde and aboue, shall giue an offering to the Lord. ¹⁵The rich shall not passe, and the poore shall not diminish from halfe a shekel, when ye shall giue an offering vnto the Lord, for the redemption of your liues. ¹⁶So thou shalt take the money of the redemption of the children of Israel, and shalt put it vnto the vse of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, that it may be a memoriall vnto the children of Israel before the Lord for the redemption of your liues. ¹⁷Also the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹⁸Thou shalt also make a lauer of brasse, and his foote of brasse to wash, and shalt put it betweene the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and shalt put water therein. ¹⁹For Aaron and his sonnes shall wash their hands and their feete thereat. ²⁰When they go into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they goe vnto the Altar to minister and to make the perfume of ye burnt offering to the Lord, they shall wash themselues with water, lest they die. ²¹So they shall wash their handes and their feete that they die not: and this shall be to them an ordinance for euer, both vnto him and to his seede throughout their generations. ²²Also the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²³Take thou also vnto thee, principall spices of the most pure myrrhe

fiue hundreth shekels, of sweete cinamon halfe so much, that is, two hundreth and fiftie, and of sweete calamus, two hundreth, and fiftie: ²⁴Also of cassia fiue hundreth, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie, and of oyle oliue an Hin. ²⁵So thou shalt make of it the oyle of holie oyntment, euen a most precious oyntment after the arte of the Apothecarie: this shalbe the oyle of holy oyntment. ²⁶And thou shalt anoynt the Tabernacle of the Congregation therewith, and the Arke of the Testimonie: ²⁷Also the Table, and al the instruments thereof, and the Candlesticke, with all the instruments thereof, and the altar of incense: ²⁸Also the Altar of burnt offering with al his instruments, and the lauer and his foote. ²⁹So thou shalt sanctifie them, and they shalbe most holy: all that shall touch them, shalbe holy. ³⁰Thou shalt also anoint Aaron and his sonnes, and shalt consecrate them, that they may minister vnto me in the Priests office. ³¹Moreouer thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, This shalbe an holy oynting oyle vnto me, throughout your generations. ³²None shall anoynt, mans flesh therewith, neither shall ye make any composition like vnto it: for it is holy, and shalbe holy vnto you. ³³Whosoeuer shall make the like oyntment, or whosoeuer shall put any of it vpon a stranger, euen he shalbe cut off from his people. ³⁴And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Take vnto thee these spices, pure myrrhe and cleare gumme and galbanum, these odours with pure frankincense, of eche like weight: ³⁵Then thou shalt make of them perfume composed after the arte of the apothecarie, mingled together, pure and holy. ³⁶And thou shalt beate it to pouder, and shalt put of it before the Arke of the Testimonie in the Tabernacle of ye Cogregatio, where I wil make appointmet with thee: it shalbe vnto you most holy. ³⁷And ye shall not make vnto you any composition like this perfume, which thou shalt make: it shalbe vnto thee holy for the Lord. ³⁸Whosoeuer shall make like vnto that to smell thereto, euen he shalbe cut off from his people.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Behold, I haue called by name, Bezaleel the sonne of Vri, the sonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudah, ³Whom I haue filled with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in vnderstanding and in knowledge and in all workmanship: ⁴To finde out curious workes to worke in golde, and in siluer, and in brasse, ⁵Also in the arte to set stones, and to carue in timber, and to worke in all maner of workmanship. ⁶And behold, I haue ioyned with him Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted, haue I put wisdom to make all that I haue commanded thee: ⁷That is, the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the Arke of the Testimonie, and the Merciseate that shalbe therevpon, with all instruments of the Tabernacle: ⁸Also the Table and the instruments thereof, and the pure Candlesticke with all his instruments, and the Altar of perfume: ⁹Likewise the Altar of

burnt offering with all his instruments, and the Lauer with his foote: ¹⁰Also the garments of the ministration, and ye holy garments for Aaron ye Priest, and the garmets of his sonnes, to minister in the Priestes office, ¹¹And the anoynting oyle, and sweete perfume for the Sanctuarie: according to all that I haue commanded thee, shall they do. ¹²Afterwarde the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹³Speake thou also vnto the children of Israel, and say, Notwithstanding keepe yee my Sabbaths: for it is a signe betweene me and you in your generations, that ye may know that I the Lord do sanctifie you. ¹⁴Ye shall therefore keepe the Sabbath: for it is holy vnto you: he that defileth it, shall die the death: therefore whosoever worketh therin, the same person shalbe euen cut off from among his people. ¹⁵Sixe dayes shall men worke, but in the seuenth day is the Sabbath of the holy rest to the Lord: whosoever doeth any worke in the Sabbath day, shall dye the death. ¹⁶Wherefore the children of Israel shall keepe the Sabbath, that they may obserue the rest throughout their generations for an euerlasting couenant. ¹⁷It is a signe betweene me and the children of Israel for euer: for in sixe dayes the Lord made the heauen and the earth, and in the seuenth day he ceased, and rested. ¹⁸Thus (when the Lord had made an ende of communing with Moses vpon mount Sinai) he gaue him two Tables of the Testimonie, euen tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

¹Bvt when the people sawe, that Moses taryed long or he came downe from the mountaine, the people gathered themselues together against Aaron, and sayde vnto him, Vp, make vs gods to goe before vs: for of this Moses (the man that brought vs out of the land of Egypt) we knowe not what is become of him. ²And Aaron said vnto them, Plucke off the golden earrings, which are in the eares of your wiues, of your sonnes, and of your daughters, and bring them vnto me. ³Then all ye people pluckt from them

selues the golden earrings, which were in their eares, and they brought them vnto Aaron. ⁴Who receiued them at their handes, and facioned it with the grauing toole, and made of it a molte calfe: then they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee out of ye lad of Egypt. ⁵When Aaron sawe that, he made an Altar before it: and Aaron proclaimed, saying, To morow shalbe the holy day of the Lord. ⁶So they rose vp the next day in the morning, and offred burnt offerings, and brought peace offrings: also the people sate them downe to eate and drinke, and rose vp to play. ⁷Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Go, get thee downe: for thy people which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, hath corrupted their wayes. ⁸They are soone turned out of the way, which I commanded them: for they haue made them a molten calfe and haue worshipped it, and haue offered thereto, saying, These be thy gods, O Israel, which haue brought thee out of the lande of Egypt. ⁹Againe the Lord said vnto Moses, I haue seene this people, and beholde, it is a stiffe necked people. ¹⁰Nowe therefore let mee alone, that my wrath may waxe hote against them, for I wil consume the: but I wil make of thee a mighty people. ¹¹But Moses praied vnto the Lord his God, and said, O Lord, why doeth thy wrath waxe hote against thy people, which thou hast brought out of the lande of Egypt, with great power and with a mightie hand? ¹²Wherefore shall the Egyptians speake, and say, He hath brought them out maliciously for to slay them in the mountaines, and to consume them from the earth? turne from thy fearce wrath, and change thy minde from this euill toward thy people. ¹³Remember Abraham, Izhak, and Israel thy seruants, to whom thou swarest by thine owne selfe, and saydest vnto them, I wil multiply your seede, as the starres of the heauen, and all this land, that I haue spoken of, wil I giue vnto your seede, and they shall inherit it for euer. ¹⁴Then the Lord changed his minde from the euil, which he threatned to do vnto his people. ¹⁵So Moses returned and went downe from the mountaine with the two Tables of the Testimonie in his hande: the Tables were written on both their sides, euen on the one side and on the other were they written. ¹⁶And these Tables were the worke of God, and this writing was the writing of God grauen in the Tables. ¹⁷And when Ioshua heard the noyse of the people, as they shouted, he said vnto Moses, There is a noyse of warre in the hoste. ¹⁸Who answered, It is not the noyse of them that haue the victorie, nor the noyse of them that are ouercome: but I do heare ye noyse of singing. ¹⁹Nowe, as soone as he came neere vnto the hoste, he sawe the calfe and the dancing: so Moses wrath waxed hote, and he cast the Tables out of his handes, and brake them in pieces beneath the mountaine. ²⁰After, he tooke the calfe, which they had made, and burned it in the fire, and ground it vnto powder, and strowed it vpon the water, and made the children of Israel drinke of it. ²¹Also Moses said vnto Aaron, What did this people vnto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sinne vpon them? ²²Then Aaron answered, Let not the wrath of my Lord waxe feare: Thou knowest this people, that they are euen set on mischief. ²³And they sayde vnto me, Make vs gods to go before vs: for we knowe not what is become of this Moses (the man that brought vs out of the land of Egypt.) ²⁴Then I sayde to them, Ye that haue golde, plucke it off: and they brought it me, and I did cast it into the fire, and thereof came this calfe. ²⁵Moses therefore sawe that the people were naked (for Aaron had made them naked vnto their shame among their enemies) ²⁶And Moses stoode in ye gate of the campe, and sayde, Who pertaineth to the Lord? let him come to mee. And all the sonnes of Leui gathered themselues vnto him. ²⁷Then he said vnto them, Thus sayth ye Lord God of Israel, Put euery man his sworde by his side: go to and from, from gate to gate, through the hoste, and slay euery man his brother, and euery man his companion, and euery man his neighbour. ²⁸So the children of

Leui did as Moses had commanded: and there fel of the people the same day about three thousand men. ²⁹(For Moses had said, Cosecrate your hands vnto the Lord this day, euen euery man vpon his sonne, and vpon his brother, that there may be giuen you a blessing this day) ³⁰And when the morning came, Moses sayde vnto the people, Yee haue committed a grieuous crime: but now I wil goe vp to the Lord, if I may pacifie him for your sinne. ³¹Moses therefore went againe vnto ye Lord, and said, Oh, this people haue sinned a great sinne, and haue made them gods of golde. ³²Therefore now if thou pardon their sinne, thy mercy shall appeare: but if thou wilt not, I pray thee, rase me out of thy booke, which thou hast written. ³³Then the Lord sayd to Moses, Whosoeuer hath sinned against me, I will put out of my booke. ³⁴Go nowe therefore, bring the people vnto the place which I commanded thee: behold, mine Angel shall goe before thee, but yet in the day of my visitation I wil visite their sinne vpon them. ³⁵So the Lord plagued the people, because they caused Aaron to make ye calfe which he made.

¹Afterward the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Depart, goe vp from hence, thou, and the people (which thou hast brought vp out of lande of Egypt) vnto the lande which I sware vnto Abraham, to Izhak and to Iaakob, saying, Vnto thy seede will I giue it. ²And I will send an Angel before thee and will cast out the Canaanites, the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites: ³To a lande, I say, that floweth with milke and hony: for I will not goe vp with thee, because thou art a stiffe necked people, least I consume thee in the way. ⁴And when the people heard this euill tydings, they sorowed, and no man put on his best rayment. ⁵(For the Lord had said to Moses, Say vnto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffe necked people, I wil come suddenly vpon thee, and consume thee: therefore now put thy costly rayment from thee, that I may know what to do vnto thee) ⁶So the children of Israel layed their good raiment from them, after Moses came downe from the mount Horeb. ⁷Then Moses tooke his tabernacle, and pitched it without the host farre off from the hoste, and called it Ohelmoed. And whe any did seeke to the Lord, he went out vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which was without the hoste. ⁸And when Moses went out vnto the Tabernacle, all the people rose vp, and stood euery man at his tent doore, and looked after Moses, vntil he was gone into the Tabernacle. ⁹And assoone as Moses was entred into the Tabernacle, the cloudie pillar descended and stood at the doore of the Tabernacle, and the Lord talked with Moses. ¹⁰Nowe when all the people saw the cloudie pillar stand at the Tabernacle doore, all the people rose vp, and worshipped euery man in his tent doore. ¹¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, face to face, as a man speaketh vnto his friende. After he turned againe into the hoste, but his seruant Ioshua the sonne of Nun a yong man, departed not out of the Tabernacle. ¹²Then Moses sayde vnto the Lord, See, thou sayest vnto me, Leade this people forth, and thou hast not shewed me whom thou wilt sende with mee: thou hast sayde moreouer, I knowe thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight. ¹³Nowe therefore, I pray thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, shewe mee nowe thy way, that I may knowe thee, and that I may finde grace in thy sight: consider also that this nation is thy people. ¹⁴And he answered, My presence shall go with thee, and I will giue thee rest. ¹⁵Then he sayd vnto him, If thy presence go not with vs, cary vs not hence. ¹⁶And wherein nowe shall it be knowne, that I and thy people haue found fauour in thy sight? shall it not be when thou goest with vs? so I, and thy people shall haue preeminence before all the people that are vpon the earth. ¹⁷And the Lord sayde vnto Moses, I will doe this also that thou hast saide: for thou hast founde grace in my sight, and I knowe thee by name. ¹⁸Againe he sayde, I beseech thee, shewe me thy glory.

¹⁹And he answered, I wil make all my good go before thee, and I wil proclaime the Name of the Lord before thee: for I will shewe mercy to whom I will shewe mercy, and will haue compassion on whom I will haue compassion. ²⁰Furthermore he sayde, Thou canst not see my face, for there shall no man see me, and liue. ²¹Also the Lord sayd, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand vpon the rocke: ²²And while my glory passeth by, I will put thee in a cleft of the rocke, and will couer thee with mine hand whiles I passe by. ²³After I will take away mine hande, and thou shalt see my backe parts: but my face shall not be seene.

¹And the Lord saide vnto Moses, Hewe thee two Tables of stone, like vnto the first, and I will write vpon the Tables the wordes that were in the first Tables, which thou brakest in pieces. ²And be ready in ye morning, that thou mayest come vp earely vnto the mount of Sinai, and waite there for me in the top of the mount. ³But let no man come vp with thee, neither let any man be seene throughout all the mount, neyther let the sheepe nor cattell feede before this mount. ⁴Then Moses hewed two Tables of stone like vnto the first, and rose vp earely in the morning, and went vp vnto the mount of Sinai, as the Lord had commanded him, and tooke in his hande two Tables of stone. ⁵And the Lord descended in the cloude, and stode with him there, and proclaimed the name of the Lord. ⁶So the Lord passed before his face, and cried, The Lord, the Lord, strong, mercifull, and gracious, slowe to anger, and abundant in goodnesse and trueth, ⁷Reseruing mercy for thousands, forgiuing iniquitie, and transgression and sinne, and not making the wicked innocent, visiting the iniquitie of the fathers vpon ye children, and vpon childrens children, vnto the third and fourth generation. ⁸Then Moses made haste and bowed him selfe to the earth, and worshipped, ⁹And sayde, O Lord, I pray thee, If I haue founde grace in thy sight, that the Lord woulde nowe goe with vs (for it is a stiffe necked people) and pardon our iniquitie and our sinne, and take vs for thine inheritance. ¹⁰And he answered, Behold, I will make a couenant before all thy people, and will do marueiles, such as haue not bene done in all the worlde, neyther in all nations: and all the people among whom thou art, shall see the worke of the Lord: for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee. ¹¹Keepe diligently that which I commande thee this day: Beholde, I will cast out before thee the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and the Iebusites. ¹²Take heede to thy selfe, that thou make no compact with ye inhabitantes of the land whither thou goest, least they be the cause of ruine among you: ¹³But yee shall ouerthrowe their altars, and breake their images in pieces, and cut downe their groues, ¹⁴(For thou shalt bow downe to none other god, because the Lord, whose Name is Ielous, is a ielous God) ¹⁵Lest thou make a compact with the inhabitantes of the lande, and when they goe a whoring after their gods, and doe sacrifice vnto their gods, some man call thee, and thou eate of his sacrifice: ¹⁶And least thou take of their daughters vnto thy sonnes, and their daughters goe a whoring after their gods, and make thy sonnes goe a whoring after their gods. ¹⁷Thou shalt make thee no gods of metall. ¹⁸The feast of vnleauened bread shalt thou keepe: seuen dayes shalt thou eate vnleauened bread, as I commanded thee, in ye time of the moneth of Abib: for in the moneth of Abib thou camest out of Egypt. ¹⁹Euery male, that first openeth the wombe, shalbe mine: also all the first borne of thy flocke shalbe rekoned mine, both of beeuies and sheepe. ²⁰But ye first of ye asse thou shalt bie out with a lambe: and if thou redeeme him not, then thou shalt breake his necke: all the first borne of thy sonnes shalt thou redeeme, and none shall appeare before me emptie. ²¹Six dayes shalt thou worke, and in the seuenth day thou shalt rest: both in earing time, and in the haruest thou shalt rest. ²²Thou shalt also obserue the feast of weekes in the time of ye first fruits of wheate haruest, and the feast of gathering fruites in the ende of the yere. ²³Thrise in a yere shall all your men children appeare before the Lord Iehouah God of Israel. ²⁴For I wil cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy coasts, so that no man shall desire thy land, whe thou shalt come vp to appeare before the Lord thy God thrise in the yeere. ²⁵Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leauen, neither shall ought of the sacrifice of the feast of Passeouer be left vnto the morning. ²⁶The first ripe fruites of thy land thou shalt bring vnto the house of the Lord thy God: yet shalt thou not seethe a kid in his mothers milke. ²⁷And the Lord said vnto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenour of these words I haue made a couenant with thee and with Israel. ²⁸So hee was there with the Lord fourtie dayes and fourtie nights, and did neither eat bread nor drinke water: and hee wrote in the Tables the wordes of the couenant, euen the tenne commandements. ²⁹So when Moses came downe from mount

Sinai, the two Tables of the Testimonie were in Moses hande, as hee descended from the mount: (nowe Moses wist not that the skinne of his face shone bright, after that God had talked with him. ³⁰And Aaron and all the children of Israel looked vpon Moses, and beholde, the skin of his face shone bright, and they were afraid to come neere him) ³¹But Moses called them: and Aaron and all the chiefe of the congregation returned vnto him: and Moses talked with them. ³²And afterwarde all the children of Israel came neere, and he charged them with al that the Lord had said vnto him in mount Sinai. ³³So Moses made an end of comuning with them, and had put a couering vpon his face. ³⁴But, when Moses came before the Lord to speake with him, he tooke off the couering vntill he came out: then he came out, and spake vnto the children of Israel that which he was commanded. ³⁵And the children of Israel sawe the face of Moses, howe the skin of Moses face shone bright: therefore Moses put the couering vpon his face, vntill he went to speake with God.

¹Then Moses assembled all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and sayd vnto them, These are the wordes which the Lord hath commanded, that ye should do them: ²Six dayes thou shalt work, but the seuenth day shall bee vnto you the holy Sabbath of rest vnto the Lord: whosoever doth any worke therein, shall die. ³Ye shall kindle no fire throughout all your habitations vpon the Sabbath day. ⁴Againe, Moses spake vnto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord commandeth, saying, ⁵Take from among you an offering vnto the Lord: whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring this offring to the Lord, namely golde, and siluer, and brasse: ⁶Also blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine linen, and goates heare, ⁷And rams skins died red, and badgers skins with Shittim wood: ⁸Also oyle for light, and spices for the anointing oyle, and for the sweete incense, ⁹And onix stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the brest plate. ¹⁰And all the wise hearted among you, shall come and make all that the Lord hath commanded: ¹¹That is, the Tabernacle, that pavilion thereof, and his couering, and his taches and his boards, his barres, his pillars and his sockets, ¹²The Arke, and the barres thereof ye Merciseate, and the vaile that couereth it, ¹³The Table, and the barres of it, and all the instruments thereof, and the shewe bread: ¹⁴Also the Candlesticke of light and his instruments, and his lampes with the oyle for the light: ¹⁵Likewise the Altar of perfume and his barres, and the anoynting oyle, and the sweete incense, and the vaile of the doore at the entring in of the Tabernacle, ¹⁶The Altar of burnt offering with his brasen grate, his barres and all his instruments, the Lauer and his foote, ¹⁷The hangings of the court, his pillars and his sockets, and the vaile of the gate of the court, ¹⁸The pinnes of the

Tabernacle, and the pinnes of the court with their cordes, ¹⁹The ministring garments to minister in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garmentes of his sonnes, that they may minister in the Priests office. ²⁰Then all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. ²¹And euery one, whose heart encouraged him, and euery one, whose spirit made him willing, came and brought an offering to the Lord, for the worke of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and for all his vses, and for the holy garments. ²²Both men and women, as many as were free hearted, came and brought taches and earrings, and rings, and bracelets, all were iewels of golde: and euery one that offered an offering of gold vnto the Lord: ²³Euery man also, which had blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine linen, and goates heare, and rammes skinnies died red, and badgers skins, brought them. ²⁴All that offered an oblation of siluer and of brasse, brought the offering vnto the Lord: and euery one, that had

Shittim wood for any maner worke of the ministration, brought it. ²⁵And all the women that were wise hearted, did spin with their hands, and brought ye spun worke, euen the blewe silke, and the purple, the skarlet, and the fine linen. ²⁶Likewise al the women, whose hearts were moued with knowledge, spun goates heare. ²⁷And ye rulers brought onix stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the brest plate: ²⁸Also spice, and oyle for light, and for the anoynting oyle, and for the sweete perfume. ²⁹Euery man and woman of the children of Israel, whose hearts moued the willingly to bring for all the worke which the Lord had commanded the to make by the hand of Moses, brought a free offring to the Lord. ³⁰Then Moses sayde vnto the children of Israel, Beholde, the Lord hath called by name Bezaleel the sonne of Vri, the sonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudah, ³¹And hath filled him with an excellent spirit of wisdom, of vnderstanding, and of knowledge, and in all maner worke, ³²To finde out curious workes, to worke in golde, and in siluer, and in brasse, ³³And in grauing stones to set them, and in karuing of wood, euen to make any maner of fine worke. ³⁴And he hath put in his heart that hee may teach other: both hee, and Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan: ³⁵Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart to worke all maner of cunning and broidred, and needle worke: in blewe silke, and in purple, in skarlet, and in fine linnen and weauing, euen to do all maner of worke and subtile inuentions.

¹Then wrought Bezaleel, and Aholiab, and all cunning men, to whome the Lord gaue wisdom, and vnderstanding, to knowe howe to worke all maner worke for the seruice of the Sanctuarie, according to all that the Lord had commanded. ²For Moses had called Bezaleel, and Aholiab, and all the wise hearted men, in whose heartes the Lord had giuen wisdom, euen as many as their hearts encouraged to come vnto that worke to worke it. ³And they receiued of Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the worke of the seruice of the Sanctuary, to make it: also they brought still vnto him free giftes euery morning. ⁴So all the wise men, that wrought all the holy worke, came euery man from his worke which they wrought, ⁵And spake to Moses, saying, The people bring too much, and more then ynough for the vse of the worke, which the Lord hath commanded to be made. ⁶Then Moses gaue a commandement, and they caused it to be proclaymed throughout the hoste, saying, Let neither man nor woman prepare any more worke for the oblation of the Sanctuarie. So the people were stayed from offering. ⁷For the stuffe they had, was sufficient for all the worke to make it, and too much. ⁸All the cunning men therefore among the workemen, made for the Tabernacle ten curtaines of fine twined linnen, and of blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet: Cherubims of broydred worke made they vpon them. ⁹The length of one curtaine was twentie and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites: and the curtaines were all of one cise. ¹⁰And he coupled fīue curtaines together, and other fīue coupled he together. ¹¹And he made strings of blewe silke by the edge of one curtaine, in the seluedge of the coupling: likewise he made on the side of the other curtaine in the seluedge in the second coupling. ¹²Fiftie strings made he in the one curtaine, and fiftie strings made he in the edge of the other curtaine, which was in the second coupling: the strings were set one against another. ¹³After, he made fiftie taches of golde, and coupled the curtaines one to another with the taches: so was it one Tabernacle. ¹⁴Also he made curtaines of goates heare for the couering vpon the Tabernacle: he made them to the number of eleuen curtaines. ¹⁵The length of one curtaine had thirtie cubites, and the bredth of one curtaine foure cubites: the eleuen curtaines were of one cise. ¹⁶And hee coupled fīue curtaines by themselues, and sixe curtaines by themselues: ¹⁷Also he made fiftie strings vpon the edge of one curtaine in the seluedge in the coupling, and fiftie strings made hee vpon the edge of the other curtaine in the second coupling. ¹⁸He made also fiftie taches of brasse to couple the couering that it might be one. ¹⁹And he made a couering vpon the pauilion of rams skinnes dyed red, and a couering of badgers skinnes aboue. ²⁰Likewise he made the boards for the Tabernacle, of Shittim wood to stand vp. ²¹The length of a board was ten cubites, and the bredth of one board was a cubite, and an halfe. ²²One board had two tenons, set in order as the feete of a ladder, one against another: thus made he for all the boardes of the Tabernacle. ²³So he made twentie boardes for the South side of the Tabernacle, euen full South. ²⁴And fourtie sockets of siluer made he vnder the twentie boardes, two sockets vnder one board for his two tenons, and two sockets vnder another board for his two tenons. ²⁵Also for the other side of the Tabernacle toward the North, he made twentie boards, ²⁶And their fourtie sockets of siluer, two sockets vnder one board, and two sockets vnder another boarde. ²⁷Likewise toward the Westside of the Tabernacle he made sixe boardes. ²⁸And two boardes made he in the corners of the Tabernacle, for either side, ²⁹And they were ioyned beneath, and likewise were made sure aboue with a ring: thus he did to both in both corners. ³⁰So there were eight boards and their sixteene sockets of siluer, vnder euery board two sockets. ³¹After, he made barres of Shittim wood, fiue for the boards in ye one side of ye Tabernacle, ³²And fiue barres for the boardes in the other side of the Tabernacle, and fiue barres for the boards of the Tabernacle on the side toward the West. ³³And he made the middest barre to shoote through the boards, from the one end to ye other. ³⁴He ouerlayd also the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold for places for the barres, and couered the barres with golde. ³⁵Moreouer he made a vaile of blew silke, and purple, and of skarlet, and of fine twined linen: with Cherubims of broyded worke made he it: ³⁶And made thereunto foure pillars of Shittim, and ouerlayd them with golde: whose hookes were also of golde, and hee cast for them foure sockets of siluer. ³⁷And he made an hanging for the 'Tabernacle doore, of blew silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linnen, and needle worke, ³⁸And the fiue pillars of it with their hookes, and ouerlayde their chapiters and their filets with golde, but their fiue sockets were of brasse.

¹After this, Bezaleel made the Arke of Shittim wood, two cubites and an halfe long and a cubite and an halfe broade, and a cubite and an halfe hie: ²And ouerlayde it with fine golde within and without, and made a crowne of golde to it rounde about, ³And cast for it foure rings of golde for the foure corners of it: that is, two rings for the one side of it, and two rings for the other side thereof. ⁴Also he made barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with golde, ⁵And put the barres in the rings by the sides of the Arke, to beare the Arke. ⁶And he made the Merciseate of pure golde: two cubites and an halfe was the length thereof, and one cubite and an halfe the breadth thereof. ⁷And he made two Cherubims of gold, vpon the two endes of the Merciseate: euen of worke beaten with the hammer made he them. ⁸One Cherub on the one ende, and another Cherub on the other ende: of the Merciseate made he the Cherubims, at ye two endes thereof. ⁹And the Cherubims spread out their wings on hie, and couered the Merciseat with their wings, and their faces were one towards another: towarde the Merciseat were the faces of the Cherubims. ¹⁰Also he made ye Table of Shittim wood: two cubites was the length thereof, and a cubite the breadth thereof, and a cubite and an halfe the height of it. ¹¹And hee ouerlayde it with fine golde, and made thereto a crowne of golde round about. ¹²Also he made thereto a border of an hand breadth round about, and made vpon the border a crowne of golde round about.

¹³And he cast for it foure rings of gold, and put the rings in the foure corners that were in the foure feete thereof. ¹⁴Against the border were the rings, as places for the barres to beare the Table. ¹⁵And he made the barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with golde to beare the Table. ¹⁶Also he made the instruments for the Table of pure golde: dishes for it, and incense cuppes for it, and goblets for it, and couerings for it, wherewith it should be couered. ¹⁷Likewise he made the Candlesticke of pure golde: of worke beaten out with the hammer made he the Candlesticke: and his shaft, and his branche, his bolles, his knops, and his floures were of one piece. ¹⁸And sixe branches came out of the sides thereof: three branches of the Candlesticke out of the one side of it, and three branches of the Candlesticke out of the other side of it. ¹⁹In one branche three bolles made like almondes, a knop and a floure: and in another branch three bolles made like almondes, a knop and a floure: and so throughout the sixe branches that proceeded out of the Candlesticke. ²⁰And vpon the Candlesticke were foure bolles after the facion of almondes, the knoppes thereof and the floures thereof: ²¹That is, vnder euery two branches a knop made thereof, and a knop vnder the second branch thereof, and a knop vnder the thirde branche thereof, according to the sixe branches comming out of it. ²²Their knops and their branches were of the same: it was all one beaten worke of pure gold. ²³And he made for it seuen lampes with the snuffers, and snufdishes thereof of pure golde. ²⁴Of a talent of pure golde made he it with all the instruments thereof. ²⁵Furthermore he made the perfume altar of Shittim wood: the length of it was a cubite, and the breadth of it a cubite (it was square) and two cubites hie, and the hornes thereof were of ye same. ²⁶And he couered it with pure gold, both the top and the sides thereof rounde about, and the hornes of it, and made vnto it a crowne of golde round about. ²⁷And he made two rings of gold for it, vnder the crowne thereof in the two corners of the two sides thereof, to put barres in for to beare it therewith. ²⁸Also he made the barres of Shittim wood, and ouerlayde them with golde. ²⁹And he made the holy anointing oyle, and the sweete pure incense after ye apothecaries arte.

¹Also he made the altar of the burnt offering of Shittim wood: five cubites was the length therof, and five cubites the breadth thereof: it was square and three cubites hie. ²And hee made vnto it hornes in the foure corners thereof: the hornes thereof were of the same, and he ouerlayd it with brasse. ³Also he made al the instruments of the altar: the ashpans, and the besoms, and the basins, the fleshhookes, and the censers: all the instruments thereof made he of brasse. ⁴Moreouer he made a brasen grate wrought like a net to the Altar, vnder the compasse of it beneath in the middes of it, ⁵And cast foure rings of brasse for the foure endes of the grate to put barres in.

⁶And he made the barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with brasse. ⁷The which barres he put into the rings on the sides of the altar to beare it withall, and made it hollow within the boardes. ⁸Also he made the Lauer of brasse, and the foote of it of brasse of the glasses of the women that did assemble and came together at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁹Finally he made the court on the South side full South: the hangings of the court were of fine twined linnen, hauing an hundreth cubites. ¹⁰Their pillars were twentie, and their brasen sockets twentie: the hookes of the pillars, and their filets were of siluer. ¹¹And on the Northside the hangings were an hundreth cubites: their pillars twentie, and their sockets of brasse twentie, the hookes of the pillars and their filets of siluer. ¹²On the Westside also were hangings of fiftie cubites, their ten pillars with their ten sockets: the hookes of the pillars and their filets of siluer. ¹³And toward ye Eastside, full East were hangings of fiftie cubites. ¹⁴The hangings of the one side were fifteene cubites, their three pillars, and their three sockets: ¹⁵And of the other side of the court gate on both sides were hangings of fifteene cubites, with their three pillars and their three sockets. ¹⁶All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen: ¹⁷But the sockets of ye pillars were of brasse: the hookes of the pillars and their filets of siluer, and the couering of their chapters of siluer: and all the pillars of the court were hooped about with siluer. ¹⁸He made also the hanging of the gate of the court of needle worke, blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen euen twentie cubites long, and fiue cubites in height and bredth, like the hangings of the court. ¹⁹And their pillars were foure with their foure sockets of brasse: their hookes of siluer, and the couering of their chapters, and their filets of siluer. ²⁰But all the pins of the Tabernacle and of the court round about were of brasse. ²¹These are the parts of the Tabernacle, I meane, of the

Tabernacle of the Testimonie, which was appoynted by the commandement of Moses for the office of the Leuites by the hande of Ithamar sonne to Aaron the Priest. ²²So Bezaleel the sonne of Vri the sonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudah, made all that the Lord commanded Moses. ²³And with him Aholiab sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, a cunning workeman and an embroiderer and a worker of needle work in blew silke, and in purple, and in skarlet, and in fine linen. ²⁴All ye gold that was occupied in all ye worke wrought for the holy place (which was the gold of the offering) was nine and twentie talents, and seuen hundreth and thirtie shekels, according to the shekel of the Sanctuarie. ²⁵But the siluer of them that were numbred in the Congregation, was an hundreth talents, and a thousand seuen hundreth seuentie and fiue shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie. ²⁶A portion for a man, that is, halfe a shekel after ye shekel of the Sanctuarie, for all them that were numbred from twentie yeere olde and aboue, among sixe hundreth thousande, and three thousand, and five hundred and fifty men. ²⁷Moreouer there were an hundred talentes of siluer, to cast ye sockets of ye Sanctuary, and the sockets of the vaile: an hundred sockets of an hundred talents, a talent for a socket. ²⁸But he made the hookes for the pillars of a thousande seuen hundred and seentie and five shekels, and ouerlayde their chapters, and made filets about them. ²⁹Also the brasse of the offering was seentie talents, and two thousande, and foure hundred shekels. ³⁰Whereof he made the sockets to the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the brasen altar, and the brasen grate which was for it, with all the instruments of the Altar, ³¹And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets for the court gate, and al the pins of the Tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

¹Moreouer they made garments of ministration to minister in the Sanctuarie of blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet: they made also the holy garments for Aaron, as the Lord had comanded Moses. ²So he made the Ephod of gold, blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen. ³And they did beate the golde into thinne plates, and cut it into wiers, to worke it in ye blewe silke and in the purple, and in the skarlet, and in the fine linen, with broyded worke. ⁴For the which they made shoulders to couple together: for it was closed by the two edges thereof. ⁵And the broyded garde of his Ephod that was vpon him, was of the same stuffe, and of like worke: euen of golde, of blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ⁶And they wrought two Onix stones closed in ouches of golde, and graued, as signets are grauen, with the names of the children of Israel, ⁷And put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, as stones for a remembrance of the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ⁸Also he made the brestplate of broyded worke like the worke of the Ephod: to wit, of gold, blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen. ⁹They made the brest plate double, and it was square, an hand breadth long, and an hand breadth broad: it was also double. ¹⁰And they filled it with foure rowes of stones. The order was thus, a Rubie, a Topaze, and a Carbuncle in the first rowe: ¹¹And in the seconde rowe, an Emeraude, a Saphir, and a Diamond: ¹²Also in the thirde rowe, a Turkeis, an Achate, and an Hematite: ¹³Likewise in the fourth rowe, a Chrysolite, an Onix, and a Iasper: closed and set in ouches of golde. ¹⁴So the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, euen twelue after their names, grauen like signets euery one after his name according to the twelue tribes. ¹⁵After, they made vpon the brest plate cheines at the endes, of wrethen worke and pure golde. ¹⁶They made also two bosses of golde, and two golde rings, and put the two rings in the two corners of the brest plate. ¹⁷And they put ye two wrethe cheines of gold in the two rings, in the corners of the brest plate. ¹⁸Also the two other endes of the two wrethen chaines they fastened in the two bosses, and put the on the shoulders of the Ephod vpon the forefront of it. ¹⁹Likewise they made two rings of gold, and put them in the two other corners of the brest plate vpon the edge of it, which was on the inside of the Ephod. ²⁰They made also two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath on the foreside of it, and ouer against his coupling about the broydered garde of the Ephod. ²¹Then they fastened the brest plate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blewe silke, that it might bee fast vpon the broydered garde of the Ephod, and that the brest plate should not be loosed from the Ephod, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ²²Moreouer, he made the robe of the Ephod of wouen worke, altogether of blewe silke. ²³And the hole of the robe was in the middes of it, as the collar of an habergeon, with an edge about the collar, that it shoulde not rent.

and the hanging to the court gate, and his cordes, and his pinnes, and all the instruments of the seruice of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁴¹Finally, the ministring garmentes to serue in the Sanctuarie, and the holy garmentes for Aaron the Priest, and his sonnes garmentes to minister in the Priestes office. ⁴²According to euery poynt that the Lord had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the worke. ⁴³And Moses beheld al the worke, and behold, they had done it as the Lord had commanded: so had they done: and Moses blessed them.

¹Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²In the first day of the first moneth in the very first of the same moneth shalt thou set vp the Tabernacle, called ye Tabernacle of the Congregation: ³And thou shalt put therein the Arke of the Testimonie, and couer the Arke with the vaile. ⁴Also thou shalt bring in the Table, and set it in order as it doth require: thou shalt also bring in the Candlesticke, and light his lampes, ⁵And thou shalt set ye incense Altar of gold before the Arke of the Testimonie, and put the hanging at the doore of the Tabernacle. ⁶Moreouer, thou shalt set the burnt offering Altar before the doore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁷And thou shalt set the Lauer betweene the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and put water therein. ⁸Then thou shalt appoynt the courte round about, and hang vp the hanging at the courte gate. ⁹After, thou shalt take the anyoynting oyle, and anyoynt the Tabernacle, and all that is therein, and halowe it with all the instruments thereof, that it may be holy. ¹⁰And thou shalt anyoynt the Altar of the burnt offring, and all his instruments, and shalt sanctifie the Altar, that it may bee an altar most holie. ¹¹Also thou shalt anyoynt the Lauer, and his foote, and shalt sanctifie it. ¹²Then thou shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and wash them with water. ¹³And thou shalt put vpon Aaron the holy garmentes, and shalt anoynt him, and sanctifie him, that he may minister vnto me in the Priestes office. ¹⁴Thou shalt also bring his sonnes, and clothe them with garmentes, ¹⁵And shalt anoynt them as thou diddest anoynt their father, that they may minister vnto mee in the Priestes office: for their anoynting shall be a signe, that the Priesthood shall be euerlasting vnto them throughout their generations. ¹⁶So Moses did according to all that ye Lord had commanded him: so did he. ¹⁷Thus was the Tabernacle reared vp the first day of the first moneth in the seconde yeere. ¹⁸Then Moses reared vp the Tabernacle and fastened his sockets, and set vp the boardes thereof, and put in the barres of it, and reared vp his pillars. ¹⁹And he spred the couering ouer the Tabernacle, and put the couering of that couering on hie aboute it, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ²⁰And he tooke and put the Testimonie in the Arke, and put the barres in the ringes of the Arke, and set the Merciseate on hie vpon the Arke. ²¹He brought also the Arke into the Tabernacle, and hanged vp the couering vaile, and couered the Arke of the Testimonie, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

²²Furthermore he put the Table in the Tabernacle of the Congregation in the Northside of the Tabernacle, without the vaile, ²³And set the bread in order before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ²⁴Also he put the Candlesticke in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, ouer against the Table toward ye Southside of the Tabernacle. ²⁵And he lighted the lampes before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ²⁶Moreouer he set the golden Altar in the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the vaile, ²⁷And burnt sweete incense thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ²⁸Also he hanged vp the vaile at the doore of the Tabernacle. ²⁹After, he set the burnt offering Altar without the doore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and offered the burnt offering and the sacrifice thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ³⁰Likewise he set the Lauer betweene the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and powred water therein to wash with. ³¹So Moses and Aaron, and his sonnes washed their handes and their feete thereat. ³²When they went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and when they approached to the Altar, they washed, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ³³Finally, he reared vp the court rounde about the Tabernacle and the Altar, and hanged vp the vaile at the court gate: so Moses finished the worke. ³⁴Then the cloud couered the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the glorie of the Lord filled the Tabernacle. ³⁵So Moses could not enter into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, because the cloude abode thereon, and the glorie of the Lord filled the Tabernacle. ³⁶Nowe when the cloude ascended vp from the Tabernacle, the children of Israel went forward in all their iourneyes. ³⁷But if the cloude ascended not, then they iourneyed not till the day that it ascended. ³⁸For the cloude of the Lord was vpon the Tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their iourneyes.

¹Nowe the Lord called Moses, and spake vnto him out of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying, ²Speake vnto the children of Israel, and thou shalt say vnto them, If any of you offer a sacrifice vnto the Lord, ye shall offer your sacrifice of cattell, as of beeues and of the sheepe. ³If his sacrifice be a burnt offering of the heard, he shall offer a male without blemish, presenting him of his owne voluntarie will at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord. ⁴And he shall put his hande vpon the head of the burnt offering, and it shalbe accepted to the

Lord, to be his atonement. ⁵And he shall kill the bullocke before the Lord, and the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall offer the blood, and shall sprinckle it round about vpon the altar, that is by the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁶Then shall he fley the burnt offering, and cut it in pieces. ⁷So the sonnes of Aaron the Priest shall put fire vpon the altar, and lay the wood in order vpon the fire. ⁸Then the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall lay the parts in order, the head and the kall vpon the wood that is in the fire which is vpon the altar. ⁹But the inwardes thereof and the legges thereof he shall wash in water, and the Priest shall burne all on the altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ¹⁰And if his sacrifice for the burnt offering be of the flocks (as of the sheepe, or of the goats) he shall offer a male without blemish, ¹¹And he shall kill it on the Northside of the altar before the Lord, and the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall sprinckle the blood thereof rounde about vpon the altar. ¹²And he shall cut it in pieces, separating his head and his kall, and the Priest shall lay them in order vpon the wood that lyeth in the fire which is on the altar: ¹³But he shall wash the inwardes, and the legges with water, and the Priest shall offer the whole and burne it vpon the altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ¹⁴And if his sacrifice be a burnt offring to the Lord of ye foules, then he shall offer his sacrifice of the turtle doues, or of the yong pigeons. ¹⁵And the Priest shall bring it vnto the altar, and wring the necke of it asunder, and burne it on the altar: and the blood thereof shall bee shed vpon the side of the altar. ¹⁶And he shall plucke out his maw with his fethers, and cast them beside the altar on the East part in the place of the ashes. ¹⁷And he shall cleaue it with his wings, but not deuide it asunder: and the Priest shall burne it vpon the altar vpon the wood that is in the fire: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

¹And when any will offer a meate offering vnto the Lord, his offering shall be of fine floure, and he shall powre oyle vpon it, and put incense thereon, ²And shall bring it vnto Aarons sonnes the Priestes, and he shall take thence his handfull of the flowre, and of the oyle with al the incense, and the Priest shall burne it for a memoriall vpon the altar: for it is an offering made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ³But the remnant of the meate offering shalbe Aarons and his sonnes: for it is most holy of the Lordes offrings made by fire. ⁴If thou bring also a meate offering baken in the ouen, it shalbe an vnleauened cake of fine floure mingled with oyle, or an vnleauened wafer anointed with oyle. ⁵But if thy meate offering be an oblation of the frying pan, it shall be of fine flowre vnleauened, mingled with oyle. ⁶And thou shalt part it in pieces, and power oyle thereon: for it is a meate offering. ⁷And if thy meate offering be an oblation made in the

caldron, it shalbe made of fine floure with oyle. ⁸After, thou shalt bring the meate offering (that is made of these things) vnto the Lord, and shalt present it vnto the Priest, and he shall bring it to the altar, ⁹And the Priest shall take from the meate offering a memoriall of it, and shall burne it vpon the altar: for it is an oblation made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ¹⁰But that which is left of the meate offering, shalbe Aarons and his sonnes: for it is most holy of the offrings of the Lord made by fire. ¹¹All the meate offrings which ye shall offer vnto the Lord, shalbe made without leauen: for ye shall neither burne leauen nor honie in any offering of the Lord made by fire. ¹²In the oblation of the first fruits ye shall offer them vnto the Lord, but they shall not be burnt vpon the altar for a sweete sauour. ¹³(All the meate offrings also shalt thou season with salt, neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the couenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meate offering, but vpon all thine oblations thou shalt offer salt) ¹⁴If then thou offer a meate offring of thy first fruites vnto the Lord, thou shalt offer for thy meate offering of thy first fruites eares of corne dryed by the fire, and wheate beaten out of the greene eares. ¹⁵After, thou shalt put oyle vpon it, and lay incense thereon: for it is a meate offering. ¹⁶And the Priest shall burne the memoriall of it, euen of that that is beaten, and of the oyle of it, with all the incense thereof: for it is an offering vnto the Lord made by fire.

¹Also if his oblation be a peace offering, if he will offer of the droue (whether it be male or female) he shall offer such as is without blemish, before the Lord, ²And shall put his hande vpon the head of his offering, and kill it at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and Aarons sonnes the Priestes shall sprinkle the blood vpon the altar rounde about. ³So he shall offer part of the peace offerings as a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, euen the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes. ⁴He shall also take away

the two kidneis, and the fat that is on them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall on the liuer with the kidneis. ⁵And Aarons sonnes shall burne it on the altar, with the burnt offering, which is vpon the wood, that is on the fire: this is a sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ⁶Also if his oblation be a peace offering vnto the Lord out of ye flocke, whether it be male or female, he shall offer it without blemish. ⁷If he offer a lambe for his oblation, then he shall bring it before the Lord, ⁸And lay his hand vpon the head of his offering, and shall kill it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and Aarons sonnes shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about vpon the altar. ⁹After, of the peace offrings he shall offer an offering made by fire vnto the Lord: he shall take away the fat therof, and the rump altogether, hard by the backe bone, and the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes. ¹⁰Also hee shall take away the two kidneis, with the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall vpon the liuer with the kidneis. ¹¹Then the Priest shall burne it vpon the altar, as the meat of an offering made by fire vnto the Lord. ¹²Also if his offering be a goate, then shall he offer it before the Lord, ¹³And shall put his hande vpon the head of it, and kill it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the sonnes of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof vpon the altar round about. ¹⁴Then he shall offer thereof his offering, euen an offering made by fire vnto the Lord, the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fatte that is vpon the inwardes. ¹⁵Also hee shall take away the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon ye flankes, and the kall vpon the liuer with the kidneis. ¹⁶So the Priest shall burne them vpon the altar, as the meate of an offering made by fire for a sweete sauour: all the fatte is the Lordes. ¹⁷This shalbe a perpetual ordinance for your generations, throughout al your dwellings, so that ye shall eate neither fatte nor blood.

¹Moreouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, If any shall sinne through ignorance, in any of the commandementes of the Lord, (which ought not to be done) but shall doe contrary to any of them, ³If the Priest that is anointed doe sinne (according to the sinne of the people) then shall he offer, for his sinne which hee hath sinned, a yong bullocke without blemish vnto the Lord for a sinne offering, ⁴And hee shall bring the bullocke vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord, and shall put his hande vpon the bullocks head, and kill the bullocke before the Lord. ⁵And the Priest that is anointed shall take of the bullocks blood, and bring it into the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁶Then the Priest shall dippe his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seuen times before the Lord, before the vaile of the Sanctuarie. ⁷The Priest also shall put some of the blood before the Lord, vpon the hornes of the altar of sweete incense, which is in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, then shall hee powre all the rest of the blood of the bullocke at the foote of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁸And hee shall take away all the fat of the bullocke for the sinne offering: to wit, the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fatte that is about the inwardes. ⁹He shall take away also the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall vpon the liuer with the kidneis, ¹⁰As it was taken away from the bullock of the peace offerings, and the Priest shall burne them vpon the altar of burnt offering. ¹¹But the skinne of the bullocke, and all his flesh, with his heade, and his legs, and his inwardes, and his dung shall he beare out. ¹²So he shall cary the whole bullocke out of the host vnto a cleane place, where the ashes are powred, and shall burne him on ye wood in the fire: where ye ashes are cast out, shall he be burnt. ¹³And if the whole Congregation of Israel shall sinne through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the multitude, and haue done against any of the commandements of the Lord which should not be done, and haue offended: ¹⁴When the sinne which they haue committed shall be knowne, then the Congregation shall offer a yong bullocke for the sinne, and bring him before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, ¹⁵And the Elders of the Congregation shall put their handes vpon the head of the bullocke before the Lord, and he shall kill the bullocke before the Lord. ¹⁶Then the Priest that is anointed, shall bring of the bullockes blood into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, ¹⁷And the Priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seuen times before the Lord, euen before the vaile. ¹⁸Also he shall put some of ye blood vpon the hornes of the altar, which is before the Lord, that is in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then shall he powre all the rest, of the blood at ye foote of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, ¹⁹And he shall take all his fat from him, and burne it vpon the altar. ²⁰And the Priest shall doe with this bullocke, as he did with the bullocke for his sinne: so shall he do with this: so the Priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shalbe forgien them. ²¹For he shall carie the bullocke without the hoste, and burne him as he burned the first bullock: for it is an offering for the sinne of the Congregation. ²²When a ruler shall sinne, and do through ignorance against any of the commandements of the Lord his God, which should not be done, and shall offend, ²³If one shewe vnto him his sinne, which he hath committed, the shall he bring for his offering an hee goat without blemish, ²⁴And shall lay his hand vpon the heade of the hee goate, and kill it in the place where he should kill the burnt offering before the Lord: for it is a sinne offering. ²⁵Then the Priest shall take of the blood of the sinne offering with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offering altar, and shall powre the rest of his blood at the foote of the burnt offering altar, ²⁶And shall burne all his fat vpon the altar, as the fat of the peace offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him, concerning his sinne, and it shalbe forgien him. ²⁷Likewise if any of the people of ye lande shall sinne through ignoraunce in doing against any of the commandements of the Lord, which should not be done, and shall offend, ²⁸If one shewe him his sinne which he hath committed, then he shall bring for his offering, a shee goate without blemish for his sinne which he hath committed, ²⁹And he shall lay his hand vpon the head of the sinne offering, and slay the sinne offering in the place of burnt offering. ³⁰Then the Priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offering altar, and powre all the rest of the blood thereof at the foote of the altar, ³¹And shall take away all his fat, as the fat of the peace offerings is taken away, and the Priest shall burne it vpon the altar for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord, and the Priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shalbe forgien him. ³²And if he bring a lambe for his sinne offering, he shall bring a female without blemish, ³³And shall lay his hand vpon the head of the sinne offering, and hee shall slay it for a sinne offering in the place where hee shoulde kill the burnt offering. ³⁴Then the Priest shall take of the blood of the sinne offering with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offering altar, and shall powre al the rest of the blood thereof at the foote of the altar. ³⁵And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fatte of the lambe of the peace offerings is taken away: then the Priest shall burne it vpon the altar with the oblations of the Lord made by fire, and the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne that he hath committed, and it shalbe forgiuen him.

¹Also if any haue sinned, that is, If he haue heard the voyce of an othe, and hee can be a witnes, whether he hath seene or knowen of it, if hee doe not vtter it, he shall beare his iniquitie: ²Either if one touche any vncleane thing, whether it be a carion of an vncleane beast, or a carion of

vncleane cattel, or a carion of vncleane creeping things, and is not ware of it, yet he is vncleane, and hath offended: ³Eyther if hee touche any vncleannesse of man (whatsoever vncleannes it be, that hee is defiled with) and is not ware of it, and after commeth to the knowledge of it, he hath sinned: ⁴Either if any sweare and pronounce with his lippes to do euill, or to doe good (whatsoever it bee that a man shall pronounce with an othe) and it be hid from him, and after knoweth that he hath offended in one of these poyntes, ⁵Whe he hath sinned in any of these things, then he shall confesse that he hath sinned therein. ⁶Therefore shall he bring his trespass offering vnto the Lord for his sinne which he hath committed, euen a female from ye flocke, be it a lambe or a shee goat for a sinne offering, and the Priest shall make an atonement for him, concerning his sinne. ⁷But if he be not able to bring a sheepe, he shall bring for his trespass which he hath committed, two turtle doves, or two yong pigeons vnto the Lord, one for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt offering. ⁸So he shall bring them vnto the Priest, who shall offer the sinne offering first, and wring the necke of it a sunder, but not plucke it cleane off. ⁹After he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sinne offering vpon the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be shed at the foote of the altar: for it is a sinne offering. ¹⁰Also he shall offer the seconde for a burnt offering as the maner is: so shall the Priest make an atonement for him (for his sinne which hee hath committed) and it shalbe forgiven him. ¹¹But if he be not able to bring two turtle doves, or two yong pigeons, then he that hath sinned, shall bring for his offering, the tenth parte of an Ephah of fine floure for a sinne offering, he shall put none oyle thereto, neither put any incense thereon: for it is a sinne offering. ¹²Then shall hee bring it to the Priest, and the Priest shall take his handfull of it for the remembrance thereof, and burne it vpon the altar with the offerings of the Lord made by fire: for it is a sinne offering. ¹³So the Priest shall make an atonement for him, as touching his sinne that he hath committed in one of these poyntes, and it shall bee forgiven him: and the remnant shalbe the Priests, as the meate offering. ¹⁴And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹⁵If any person transgresse and sinne through ignorance by taking away things consecrated vnto the Lord, hee shall then bring for his trespassse offering vnto the Lord a ramme without blemish out of the flocke, worth two shekels of siluer by thy estimation after the shekel of the Sanctuarie, for a trespassse offering. ¹⁶So hee shall restore that wherein hee hath offended, in taking away of the holy thing, and shall put the fift part more thereto, and giue it vnto the Priest: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of ye trespassse offering, and it shalbe forgiven him. ¹⁷Also if any sinne and doe against any of the commandements of the Lord, which ought not to be done, and knowe not and sinne and beare his iniquitie, ¹⁸Then shall he bring a ramme without blemishe out of the flocke, in thy estimation worth two shekels for a trespassse offring vnto ye Priest: and the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred, and was not ware: so it shalbe forgien him.

¹⁹This is the trespassse offering for the trespassse committed against the Lord. ¹Also if any haue sinned, that is, If he haue heard the voyce of an othe, and hee can be a witnes, whether he hath seene or knowen of it, if hee doe not vtter it, he shall beare his iniquitie: ²Either if one touche any vncleane thing, whether it be a carion of an vncleane beast, or a carion of vncleane cattel, or a carion of vncleane creeping things, and is not ware of it, yet he is vncleane, and hath offended: ³Eyther if hee touche any vncleannesse of man (whatsoever vncleannes it be, that hee is defiled with) and is not ware of it, and after commeth to the knowledge of it, he hath sinned: ⁴Either if any sweare and pronounce with his lippes to do euill, or to doe good (whatsoever it bee that a man shall pronounce with an othe) and it be hid from him, and after knoweth that he hath offended in one of these

poyntes, ⁵Whe he hath sinned in any of these things, then he shall confesse that he hath sinned therein. ⁶Therefore shall he bring his trespassse offering vnto the Lord for his sinne which he hath committed, euen a female from ye flocke, be it a lambe or a she goat for a sinne offering, and the Priest shall make an atonement for him, concerning his sinne. ⁷But if he be not able to bring a sheepe, he shall bring for his trespass which he hath committed, two turtle doues, or two yong pigeons vnto the Lord, one for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt offering. ⁸So he shall bring them vnto the Priest, who shall offer the sinne offering first, and wring the necke of it a sunder, but not plucke it cleane off. ⁹After he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sinne offering vpon the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be shed at the foote of the altar: for it is a sinne offering. ¹⁰Also he shall offer the seconde for a burnt offering as the maner is: so shall the Priest make an atonement for him (for his sinne which hee hath committed) and it shalbe forgien

him. ¹¹But if he be not able to bring two turtle doves, or two yong pigeons, then he that hath sinned, shall bring for his offering, the tenth parte of an Ephah of fine floure for a sinne offering, he shall put none oyle thereto, neither put any incense thereon: for it is a sinne offering. ¹²Then shall hee bring it to the Priest, and the Priest shall take his handfull of it for the remembrance thereof, and burne it vpon the altar with the offrings of the Lord made by fire: for it is a sinne offering. ¹³So the Priest shall make an atonement for him, as touching his sinne that he hath committed in one of these poyntes, and it shall bee forgien him: and the remnant shalbe the Priests, as the meate offering. ¹⁴And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹⁵If any person transgresse and sinne through ignorance by taking away things consecrated vnto the Lord, hee shall then bring for his trespasse offering vnto the Lord a ramme without blemish out of the flocke, worth two shekels of siluer by thy estimation after the shekel of the Sanctuarie, for a trespasse offering.

¹⁶So hee shall restore that wherein hee hath offended, in taking away of the holy thing, and shall put the fift part more thereto, and giue it vnto the Priest: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of ye trespasse offering, and it shalbe forgien him.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²If any sinne and commit a trespasse against the Lord, and denie vnto his neighbour that, which was take him to keepe, or that which was put to him of trust, or doth by robberie, or by violence oppresse his neighbour, ³Or hath found that which was lost, and denieth it, and sweareth falsely, for any of these things that a man doeth, wherein he sinneth: ⁴When, I say, he thus sinneth and trespasseth, he shall then restore the robbery that he robbed, or the thing taken by violence which hee tooke by force, or the thing which was deliuered him to keepe, or the lost thing which he founde, ⁵Or for whatsoeuer he hath sworne falsely, he shall both restore it in the whole summe, and shall adde

the fift parte more thereto, and giue it vnto him to whome perteyneth, the same day that he offreth for trespasse. ⁶Also he shall bring for his trespasse vnto the Lord, a ramme without blemish out of the flocke in thy estimation worth two shekels for a trespasse offering vnto the Priest. ⁷And the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord, and it shall be forgien him, whatsoeuer thing he hath done, and trespassed therein. ⁸Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ⁹Commaund Aaron and his sonnes, saying, This is the lawe of the burnt offering, (it is the burnt offering because it burneth vpon the altar al the night vnto the morning, and the fire burneth on the altar) ¹⁰And the Priest shall put on his linen garment, and shall put on his linen breeches vpon his flesh, and take away the ashes when the fire hath consumed the burnt offering vpon the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar. ¹¹After, he shall put off his garments, and put on other raiment, and cary the ashes foorth without the hoste vnto a cleane place. ¹²But the fire vpon the altar shall burne thereon and neuer be put out: wherefore the Priest shall burne wood on it euery morning, and lay the burnt offering in order vpon it, and he shall burne thereon the fat of the peace offrings. ¹³The fire shall euer burne vpon the altar, and neuer go out. ¹⁴Also this is the lawe of the meate offering, which Aarons sonnes shall offer in the presence of the Lord, before the altar. ¹⁵He shall euen take thence his handfull of fine flowre of the meate offering and of the oyle, and all the incense which is vpon the meat offering, and shall burne it vpon the altar for a sweete sauour, as a memoriall therefore vnto the Lord: ¹⁶But the rest thereof shall Aaron and his sonnes eate: it shalbe eaten without leauen in the holy place: in the court of the Tabernacle of the Congregation they shall eate it. ¹⁷It shall not be baken with leauen: I haue giuen it for their portion of mine offrings made by fire: for it is as the sinne offering and as the trespasse offering. ¹⁸All the males among the children of Aaron shall eate of it:

It shalbe a statute for euer in your generations concerning the offrings of the Lord, made by fire: whatsoeuer toucheth them shall be holy. ¹⁹Agayne the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²⁰This is the offering of Aaron and his sonnes, which they shall offer vnto the Lord in the day when he is anointed: the tenth part of an Ephah of fine floure, for a meate offering perpetuall: halfe of it in ye morning, and halfe thereof at night. ²¹In the frying panne it shalbe made with oyle: thou shalt bring it fryed, and shalt offer the baken pieces of the meate offering for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ²²And the Priest that is anointed in his steade, among his sonnes shall offer it: It is the Lordes ordinance for euer, it shall be burnt altogether. ²³For euery meate offering of the Priest shall be burnt altogether, it shall not be eaten. ²⁴Furthermore, the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²⁵Speake vnto Aaron, and vnto his sonnes, and say, This is the Lawe of the sinne offering, In the place where the burnt offering is killed, shall the sinne offering be killed before the Lord, for it is most holy. ²⁶The Priest that offreth this sinne offering, shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of ye Tabernacle of the Congregation. ²⁷Whatsoeuer shall touch the flesh thereof shalbe holy: and when there droppeth of the blood thereof vpon a garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it droppeth in the holy place. ²⁸Also the earthen pot that it is sodden in, shalbe broken, but if it be sodden in a brasen pot, it shall both be scoured and washed with water. ²⁹All the males among the Priestes shall eat thereof, for it is most holy. ³⁰But no sinne offering, whose blood is brought into the Tabernacle of the Congregation to make reconciliation in the holy place, shalbe eaten, but shalbe burnt in the fire.

thereof shall he sprinkle rounde about vpon the altar. ³All the fat thereof also shall he offer, the rumpe, and the fat that couereth the inwardes. ⁴After he shall take away the two kidneis, with the fat that is on them and vpon the flanks, and the kall on the liuer with the kidneis. ⁵Then the Priest shall burne them vpon the altar, for an offering made by fire vnto the Lord: this is a trespasse offering. ⁶All the males among the Priestes shall eate thereof, it shalbe eaten in the holy place, for it is most holy. ⁷As the sinne offering is, so is the trespasse offering, one lawe serueth for both: that wherewith the Priest shall make atonement, shalbe his. ⁸Also the Priest that offereth any mans burnt offering, shall haue the skinne of the burnt offering which he hath offered. ⁹And all the meate offering that is baken in the ouen, and that is dressed in the pan, and in the frying pan, shall be the Priestes that offereth it. ¹⁰And euery meate offering mingled with oyle, and that is dry, shall pertaine vnto all the sonnes of Aaron, to all alike. ¹¹Furthermore, this is the lawe of the peace offerings, which he shall offer vnto the Lord. ¹²If he offer it to giue thanks, then he shall offer for his thanks offering, vnleauened cakes mingled with oyle, and vnleauened wafers anointed with oyle, and fine floure fryed with the cakes mingled with oyle. ¹³He shall offer also his offering with cakes of leauened bread, for his peace offerings, to giue thanks. ¹⁴And of all the sacrifice he shall offer one cake for an heaue offering vnto the Lord, and it shalbe the Priestes that sprinckleth the blood of the peace offerings. ¹⁵Also the flesh of his peace offerings, for thankesgiuing, shalbe eaten the same day that it is offered: he shall leaue nothing thereof vntill the morning. ¹⁶But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a free offering, it shalbe eaten the same day that he offreth his sacrifice: and so in the morning the residue thereof shalbe eaten. ¹⁷But as much of the offered flesh as remaineth vnto the third day, shalbe burnt with fire. ¹⁸For if any of the flesh of his peace offerings be eaten in the third day, he shall not be accepted that offereth it, neither shall it be reckoned vnto him, but shalbe an abomination: therefore ye person that eateth of it shall beare his iniquitie. ¹⁹The flesh also that toucheth any vncleane thing, shall not be eaten, but burnt with fire: but of this flesh all that be cleane shall eate thereof. ²⁰But if any eate of the flesh of the peace offerings that pertaineth to the Lord, hauing his vncleannesse vpon him, euen the same person shalbe cut off from his people. ²¹Moreouer, whe any toucheth any vncleane thing, as the vncleannesse of man, or of an vncleane beast, or of any filthie abomination, and eate of the flesh of the peace offrings, which pertaineth vnto the Lord, euen that person shalbe cut off from his people. ²²Againe ye Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²³Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, Ye shall eate no fat of beeuies, nor of sheepe, nor of goates: ²⁴Yet the fat of the dead beast, and the fat of that, which is torne with bestes, shalbe occupied to any vse, but ye shall not eate of it. ²⁵For whosoeuer eateth the fat of the beast, of the which he shall offer an offering made by fire to the Lord, euen the person that eateth, shalbe cut off from his people. ²⁶Neither shall ye eate any blood, either of foule, or of beast in all your dwellings. ²⁷Euery person that eateth any blood, euen the same person shall be cut off from his people. ²⁸And the Lord talked with Moses, saying, ²⁹Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, Hee that offereth his peace offerings vnto the Lord, shall bring his gifte vnto the Lord of his peace offerings: ³⁰His handes shall bring the offerings of the Lord made by fire: euen the fatte with the breast shall he bring, that the breast may be shaken to and from before the Lord. ³¹Then the Priest shall burne the fatte vpon the Altar, and the breast shall be Aarons and his sonnes. ³²And the right shoulder shall ye giue vnto the Priest for an heauie offering, of your peace offrings. ³³The same that offreth the blood of ye peace offrings, and the fatte, among the sonnes of Aaron, shall haue the right shoulder for his parte. ³⁴For the breast shaken to and from, and the shoulder lifted vp, haue I taken of the children of Israel, euen of their peace offrings, and haue giuen them vnto Aaron the Priest and vnto his sonnes by a statute for euer from among the children of Israel. ³⁵This is the anointing of Aaron, and the anointing of his sonnes, concerning the offerings of the Lord made by fire, in the day when he presented them to serue in the Priestes office vnto the Lord. ³⁶The which portions the Lord commanded to giue them in the day that he anointed them from among the children of Israel, by a statute for euer in their generations. ³⁷This is also the lawe of the burnt offering of the meate offering, and of the sinne offering, and of the trespasse offering, and of the consecrations, and of the peace offrings, ³⁸Which the Lord commanded Moses in the mount Sinai, when he commanded the children of Israel to offer their giftes vnto the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai.

¹Afterwarde the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Take Aaron and his sonnes with him, and the garments and the anointing oyle, and a bullocke for the sinne offering, and two rammes, and a basket of vnleauened bread, ³And assemble all the company at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁴So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him, and the companie was assembled at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁵Then Moses said vnto the company, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded to doe. ⁶And Moses brought Aaron and his sonnes, and washed them with water, ⁷And put vpon him the coate, and girded him with a girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the Ephod on him, which he girded with the broydred garde of the Ephod, and bounde it vnto him therewith. ⁸After he put the brest plate thereon, and put in the brest plate the Vrim and the Thummim. ⁹Also he put the miter vpon his head, and put vpon the miter on the fore front the golden plate, and the holy crowne, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

¹⁰(Nowe Moses had taken the anointing oyle, and anoynted the Tabernacle, and al that was therein, and sanctified them, ¹¹And sprinkled thereof vpon the altar seuen times, and anointed the altar and all his instruments, and the lauer, and his foote, to sanctifie them) ¹²And he powred of the anointing oyle vpon Aarons head, and anointed him, to sanctifie him. ¹³After, Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put coates vpon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonets vpon their heades, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ¹⁴Then he brought the bullocke for the sinne offering, and Aaron and his sonnes put their handes vpon the head of the bullocke for the sinne offering. ¹⁵And Moses slew him, and tooke the blood, which he put vpon the hornes of the Altar roud about with his finger, and purified the altar, and powred the rest of the blood at the foote of ye altar: so he sanctified it, to make reconciliation vpon it. ¹⁶Then he tooke all the fatte that was vpon the inwardes, and the kall of the liuer and the two kidneis, with their fat, which Moses burned vpon the Altar. ¹⁷But the bullocke and his hide, and his flesh, and his dounge, hee burnt with fire without the host as the Lord had commanded Moses. ¹⁸Also hee brought the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the ramme. ¹⁹So Moses killed it, and sprinkled the blood vpon the Altar round about, ²⁰And Moses cut the ram in pieces, and burnt the head with the pieces, and the fat, ²¹And washed the inwardes and the legges in water: so Moses burnt the ram euery whit vpon ye Altar: for it was a burnt offering for a sweete sauour, which was made by fire vnto the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ²²After, he brought the other ram, the ram of consecrations, and Aaron and his sonnes layed their handes vpon the head of the ram, ²³Which Moses slewe, and tooke of the blood of it, and put it vpon the lappe of Aarons right eare, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right foote. ²⁴Then Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put of the blood on the lap of their right eares, and vpon the thumbes of their right handes, and vpon the great toes of their right feete, and Moses sprinckled the rest of the blood vpon the Altar round about. ²⁵And he tooke the fat and the rumpe and all the fat that was vpon the inwards, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneis with their fat, and the right shoulder. ²⁶Also he tooke of ye basket of ye vnleauened bread that was before the Lord, one vnleauened cake and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and vpon the right shoulder. ²⁷So hee put all in Aarons handes, and in his sonnes handes, and shooke it to and from before the Lord. ²⁸After, Moses tooke the out of their hands, and burnt them vpon the altar for a burnt offering: for these were consecrations for a sweete sauour which were made by fire vnto the Lord. ²⁹Likewise Moses tooke the breast of the ram of consecrations, and shooke it to and from before the Lord: for it was Moses portion, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ³⁰Also Moses tooke of the anointing oyle, and of the blood which was vpon the Altar, and sprinkled it vpon Aaron, vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes, and on his sonnes garments with him: so hee sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sonnes, and his sonnes garments with him. ³¹Afterward Moses saide vnto Aaron and his sonnes, Seethe the flesh at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and there eate it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sonnes shall eate it, ³²But that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread, shall ye burne with fire. ³³And ye shall not depart from the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation seuen dayes, vntill the dayes of your consecrations bee at an ende: for seuen dayes, saide the Lord, shall hee consecrate you, ³⁴As hee hath done this day: so the Lord hath commanded to doe, to make an atonement for you. ³⁵Therefore shall yee abide at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation day and night, seuen dayes, and shall keepe the watch of the Lord, that ye dye not: for so I am commanded. ³⁶So Aaron and his sonnes did all thinges which the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses.

¹And in the eight day Moses called Aaron and his sonnes, and the Elders of Israel: ²Then hee sayde vnto Aaron, Take thee a yong calfe for a sinne offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and bring them before the Lord. ³And vnto the children of Israel thou shalt speake, saying, Take yee an hee goate for a sinne offering, and a calfe, and a lambe, both of a yeere olde, without blemish for a burnt offering: ⁴Also a bullock, and a ramme for peace offrings, to offer before the Lord, and a meate offering mingled with oyle: for to day the Lord will appeare vnto you. ⁵Then they brought that which Moses commanded before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the assembly drewe neere and stood before the Lord. ⁶(For Moses had sayde, This is the thing, which the Lord commanded that ye should do, and the glory of the Lord shall appeare vnto you) ⁷Then Moses sayd vnto Aaron, Draw neere to the Altar, and offer thy sinne offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an attonement for thee and for the people: offer also the offering of the people, and make an attonement for them, as the Lord hath commanded. ⁸Aaron therefore went vnto the Altar, and killed the calfe of the sinne offering, which was for himselfe. ⁹And the sonnes of Aaron brought ye blood vnto him, and he dipt his finger in the blood, and put it vpon the hornes of the Altar, and powred the rest of the blood at the foote of the Altar. ¹⁰But the fat and the kidneis and the kall of the liuer of the sinne offering, he burnt vpon the Altar, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ¹¹The flesh also and the hide hee burnt with fire without the hoste. ¹²After, he slewe the burnt offering, and Aarons sonnes brought vnto him the blood, which he sprinckled round about vpon the Altar. ¹³Also they brought the burnt offering vnto him with the pieces thereof, and the head, and he burnt them vpon the Altar. ¹⁴Likewise he did wash the inwardes and the legs, and burnt them vpon the burnt offering on the Altar. ¹⁵Then he offred the peoples offering, and tooke a goate, which was the sinne offering for the people, and slewe it: and offred it for sinne, as the first: ¹⁶So he offred the burnt offering, and prepared it, according to the maner. ¹⁷He presented also the meate offering, and filled his hand thereof, and beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning he burnt this vpon the Altar. ¹⁸He slewe also the bullock, and the ram for the peace offerings, that was for the people, and Arons sonnes brought vnto him the blood, which he sprinkled vpon the Altar round about, ¹⁹With the fat of the bullocke, and of the ram, the rumpe, and that which couereth the inwardes and the kidneis, and the kall of the liuer. ²⁰So they layed the fat vpon the breasts, and he burnt the fat vpon the Altar. ²¹But the breastes and the right shoulder Aaron shooke to and from before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ²²So Aaron lift vp his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and came downe from offering of the sinne offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings. ²³After, Moses and Aaron went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and came out, and blessed the people, and the glorie of the Lord appeared to all the people. ²⁴And there came a fire out from the Lord and consumed vpon the Altar the burnt offering and the fatte: which when all the people sawe, they gaue thankses, and fell on their faces.

¹But Nadab and Abihu, the sonnes of Aaron, tooke either of them his censor, and put fire therein, and put incense thereupon, and offred strange fire before the Lord, which hee had not commanded them. ²Therefore a fire went out from the Lord, and deuoured them: so they dyed before the Lord. ³Then Moses sayde vnto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will bee sanctified in the that come neere me, and before all the people I will be glorified: but Aaron held his peace. ⁴And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan the sonnes of Vzziel, the vncle of Aaron, and saide vnto them, Come neere, cary your brethre from before the Sanctuarie out of the hoste. ⁵Then they went, and caried them in their coates out of the host, as Moses had comaunded. ⁶After, Moses saide vnto Aaron and vnto Eleazar and Ithamar his sonnes, Vncouer not your heads, neither rent your clothes, least ye dye, and least wrath come vpon all ye people: but let your brethren, all the house of Israel bewayle the burning which the Lord hath kindled. ⁷And go not yee out from the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, least ye dye: for the anointing oyle of the Lord is vpon you: and they did according to Moses commandement. ⁸And the Lord spake vnto Aaron, saying, ⁹Thou shalt not drinke wine nor strong drinke, thou, nor thy sonnes with thee, when yee come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest ye die: this is an ordinance for euer throughout your generations, ¹⁰That ye may put difference betweene the holy and the vnholy, and betweene the cleane and the vncleane, ¹¹And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the Lord hath commanded them by the hand of Moses. ¹²Then Moses saide vnto Aaron and vnto Eleazar and to Ithamar his sonnes that were left, Take the meate offering that remaineth of the offrings of the Lord, made by fire, and eate it without leauen beside ye altar: for it is most holy: ¹³And ye shall eate it in the holy place, because it is thy duetie and thy sonnes duety of the offrings of the Lord made by fire: for so I am commanded. ¹⁴Also the shaken breast and the heaue shoulder shall yee eate in a cleane place: thou, and thy sonnes, and thy daughters with thee: for they are giuen as thy duetie and thy sonnes duety, of the peace offrings of the children of Israel. ¹⁵The heaue shoulder, and the shaken breast shall they bring with the offrings made by fire of the fat, to shake it to and from before the Lord, and it shalbe thine and thy sonnes with thee by a lawe for euer, as the Lord hath commanded. ¹⁶And Moses sought the goate that was offred for sinne, and lo, it was burnt: therefore he was angrie with Eleazar and Ithamar the sonnes of Aaron, which were left aliue, saying, ¹⁷Wherfore haue ye not eaten the sinne offring in the holy place, seeing it is most Holie? and God hath giuen it you, to beare the iniquitie of the Congregation, to make an atonement for them before the Lord. ¹⁸Beholde, the blood of it was not brought within the holy place: ye should haue eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded. ¹⁹And Aaron said vnto Moses, Behold, this day haue they offred their sinne offring, and their burnt offring before the Lord, and such things as thou knowest are come vnto mee: If I had eaten the sinne offring to day, should it haue bene accepted in the sight of the Lord? ²⁰So when Moses heard it, he was content.

¹After, the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying vnto them, ²Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, These are the beastes which yee shall eate, among all the beasts that are on the earth. ³Whatsoever parteth the hoofe, and is clouen footed, and cheweth the cudde, among the beastes, that shall ye eate. ⁴But of them that chewe the cud, or deuide the hoofe onely, of them yee shall not eate: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, and deuideth not ye hoofe, he shall be vncleane vnto you. ⁵Likewise the conie, because he cheweth the cud and deuideth not the hoofe, he shall bee vncleane to you. ⁶Also the hare, because he cheweth the cud, and deuideth not the hoofe, he shalbe vncleane to you. ⁷And the swine, because he parteth ye hoofe and is clouen footed, but cheweth not the cud, he shalbe vncleane to you. ⁸Of their flesh shall yee not eate, and their carkeise shall yee not touch: for they shall bee vncleane to you. ⁹These shall ye eate, of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath finnes and skales in ye waters, in the seas, or in the riuers, them shall ye eate. ¹⁰But all that haue not finnes nor skales in the seas, or in the riuers, of all that moueth in the waters, and of al liuing things that are in the waters, they shalbe an abomination vnto you.

¹¹They, I say, shalbe an abomination to you: ye shall not eate of their flesh, but shall abhorre their carkeis.

¹²Whatsoever hath not fins nor skales in the waters, that shalbe abomination vnto you. ¹³These shall ye haue also in abomination among the foules, they shall not be eaten: for they are an abomination, the eagle, and the goshauke, and the osprey: ¹⁴Also the vultur, and the kite after his kinde, ¹⁵And all rauens after their kinde: ¹⁶The ostrich also, and the night crowe, and the seameaw, and the hauke after his kinde:

¹⁷The litle owle also, and the connorant, and the great owle. ¹⁸Also the redshanke and the pelicane, and the swanne: ¹⁹The storke also, the heron after his kinde, and the lapwing, and the backe: ²⁰Also euery foule that creepeth and goeth vpon all

foure, such shalbe an abomination vnto you. ²¹Yet these shall ye eate: of euery foule that creepeth, and goeth vpon all foure which haue their feete and legs all of one to leape withal vpon the earth, ²²Of them ye shall eate these, the grashopper after his kinde, and the solean after his kinde, the hargol after his kinde, and the hagab after his kind. ²³But al other foules that creepe and haue foure feete, they shalbe abomination vnto you. ²⁴For by such ye shalbe polluted: whosoever toucheth their carkeis, shalbe vncleane vnto the euening.

²⁵Whosoever also beareth of their carkeis, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntil euen. ²⁶Euery beast that hath clawes deuided, and is not clouen footed, nor cheweth the cud, such shalbe vncleane vnto you: euery one that toucheth them, shalbe vncleane.

²⁷And whatsoever goeth vpon his pawes among all maner beastes that goeth on all foure, such shalbe vncleane vnto you: who so doth touch their carkeis shalbe vncleane vntil the euen. ²⁸And he that beareth their carkeis, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the euen: for such shalbe vncleane vnto you. ²⁹Also these shalbe vncleane to you amog the things that creepe and moue vpon the earth, the weasell, and the mouse, and the frog, after his kinde: ³⁰Also the rat, and the lizard, and the chameleon, and the stellio, and the molle. ³¹These shall be vncleane to you among all that creepe: whosoever doeth touch them when they be dead, shalbe vncleane vntil the euen. ³²Also whatsoever any of the dead carkeises of them doth fall vpon, shalbe vncleane, whether it be vessel of wood, or rayment, or skinne, or sacke: whatsoever vessel it be that is occupied, it shalbe put in the water as vncleane vntil the euen, and so be purified. ³³But every earthen vessel, whereinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is within it shalbe vncleane, and ye shall breake it. ³⁴Al meate also that shalbe eaten, if any such water come vpon it, shalbe vncleane: and all drinke that shalbe drunke in al such vessels shalbe vncleane. ³⁵And every thing that their carkeis fall vpon, shalbe vncleane: the fornais or the pot shalbe broken: for they are vncleane, and shalbe vncleane vnto you. ³⁶Yet the fountaines and welles where there is plentie of water shalbe cleane: but that which toucheth their carkeises shalbe vncleane. ³⁷And if there fal of their dead carkeis vpon any seede, which vseth to be sowe, it shalbe cleane. ³⁸But if any water be powred vpon ye seede, and there fal of their dead carkeis thereon, it shall be vncleane vnto you. ³⁹If also any beast, whereof ye may eate, die, he that toucheth the carkeis thereof shall be vncleane vntil the euen. ⁴⁰And he that eateth of the carkeis of it, shall wash his clothes and be vncleane vntil the euen: he also that beareth the carkeis of it, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntil the euen. ⁴¹Every creeping thing therefore that creepeth vpon the earth shalbe an abomination, and not be eaten. ⁴²Whatsoever goeth vpon the breast, and whatsoever goeth vpon al foure, or that hath many feete among all creeping thinges that creepe vpon the earth, ye shall not eate of them, for they shalbe abomination. ⁴³Ye shall not pollute your selues with any thing that creepeth, neither make your selues vncleane with them, neither defile your selues thereby: ye shall not, I say, be defiled by them, ⁴⁴For I am the Lord your God: be sanctified therefore, and be holy, for I am holy, and defile not your selues with any creeping thing, that creepeth vpon the earth. ⁴⁵For I am the Lord that brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to be your God, and that you should be holy, for I am holy. ⁴⁶This is the law of beasts, and of foules, and of euery liuing thing that moueth in the waters, and of euery thing that creepeth vpon the earth: ⁴⁷That there may be a difference betweene the vncleane and cleane, and betweene the beast that may be eaten, and the beast that ought not to be eaten.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, When a woman hath brought forth seede, and borne a manchilde, shee shalbe vncleane seuen dayes, like as she is vncleane when she is put apart for her disease. ³(And in the eight day, the foreskin of the childes flesh shalbe circumcised) ⁴And she shall continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirtie dayes: she shall touch no halowed thing, nor come into the Sanctuarie, vntil the time of her purifying be out. ⁵But if she beare a mayde childe, then shee shalbe vncleane two weekes, as when shee hath her disease: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying three score and sixe dayes. ⁶Nowe when the dayes of her purifying are out, (whether it be for a sonne or for a daughter) shee shall bring to the Priest a lambe of one yeere olde for a burnt offering, and a yong pigeon or a turtle doue for a sinne offring, vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, ⁷Who shall offer it before the Lord, and make an atonement for her: so she shalbe purged of the issue of her blood this is the law for her that hath borne a male or female. ⁸But if she bee not able to bring a lambe, she shall bring two turtles, or two yong pigeons: the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sinne offering: and the Priest shall make an atonement for her: so she shall be cleane.

¹Moreouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying, ²The man that shall haue in the skin of his flesh a swelling or a skab, or a white spot, so that in the skinne of his flesh it be like the plague of leprosie, then he shalbe brought vnto Aaron the Priest, or vnto one of his sonnes the Priestes, ³And the Priest shall looke on the sore in the skinne of his flesh: if the heare in the sore be turned into white, and the sore seeme to be lower then the skinne of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosie. therefore the Priest shall looke on him, and pronounce him vncleane: ⁴But if the white spot be in the skinne of his flesh, and seeme not to bee lower then the skin, nor the heare thereof be turned vnto white, then the Priest shall shut vp him that hath the plague, seuen dayes. ⁵After, the Priest shall looke vpon him the seuenth day: and if the plague

seeme to him to abide still, and the plague growe not in the skin, the Priest shall shut him vp yet seuen dayes more. ⁶Then the Priest shall looke on him againe the seuenth day, and if the plague be darke, and the sore grow not in the skinne, then the Priest shall pronounce him cleane, for it is a skab: therefore he shall washe his clothes and be cleane. ⁷But if the skab growe more in the skinne, after that he is seene of ye Priest for to be purged, he shall be seene of the Priest yet againe. ⁸Then the Priest shall consider, and if the skab growe in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him vncleane: for it is leprosie. ⁹When the plague of leprosie is in a man, he shalbe brought vnto the Priest, ¹⁰And the Priest shall see him: and if the swelling be white in ye skin, and haue made ye heare white, and there be rawe flesh in the swelling, ¹¹It is an old leprosie in the skin of his flesh: and the Priest shall pronounce him vncleane, and shall not shut him vp, for he is vncleane. ¹²Also if the leprosie breake out in the skin, and the leprosie couer all the skin of the plague, from his head euen to his feete, wheresoeuer the Priest looketh, ¹³Then the Priest shall consider: and if the leprosie couer all his flesh, he shall pronounce the plague to bee cleane, because it is all turned into whitenesse: so he shalbe cleane. ¹⁴But if there be raw flesh on him when he is seene, he shalbe vncleane. ¹⁵For the Priest shall see the rawe flesh, and declare him to be vncleane: for the rawe flesh is vncleane, therefore it is the leprosie. ¹⁶Or if the rawe flesh change and be turned into white, then he shall come to the Priest, ¹⁷And the Priest shall beholde him and if the sore be changed into white, then the Priest shall pronounce the plague cleane, for it is cleane. ¹⁸The flesh also in whose skin there is a bile and is healed, ¹⁹And in ye place of the bile there be a white swelling, or a white spot somewhat reddish, it shall be seene of the Priest. ²⁰And when the Priest seeth it, if it appeare lower then the skinne, and the heare thereof bee changed into white, ye Priest then shall pronounce him vncleane: for it is a plague of leprosie, broken out in the bile. ²¹But if the Priest looke on it, and there be no white heares therein, and if it bee not lower then the skin, but be darker, then the Priest shall shut him vp seuen dayes. ²²And if it spred abroad in the flesh, ye Priest shall pronounce him vncleane, for it is a sore. ²³But if the spot continue in his place, and growe not, it is a burning bile: therefore the Priest shall declare him to be cleane. ²⁴If there be any flesh, in whose skin there is an hote burning, and the quick flesh of ye burning haue a white spot, somewhat reddish or pale, ²⁵Then the Priest shall looke vpon it: and if the heare in that spot be changed into white, and it appeare lower then the skin, it is a leprosie broken out in the burning therefore the Priest shall pronounce him vncleane: for it is the plague of leprosie. ²⁶But if the Priest looke on it, and there be no white heare in the spot, and be no lower then the other skinne, but be darker, then the Priest shall shut him vp seuen dayes. ²⁷After, the Priest shall looke on him the seuenth day: if it be growen abroad in the skinne, then the Priest shall pronounce him vncleane: for it is the plague of leprosie. ²⁸And if the spot abide in his place, not growing in the skin, but is darke, it is a rising of the burning: the Priest shall therefore declare him cleane, for it is the drying vp of the burning. ²⁹If also a man or woman hath a sore on the head or in the beard, ³⁰Then the Priest shall see his sore: and if it appeare lower then the skin, and there be in it a small yellow haire, then the Priest shall pronouce him vncleane: for it is a blacke spot, and leprosie of the head or of the beard. ³¹And if the Priest looke on the sore of the blacke spotte, and if it seeme not lower then the skinne, nor haue any blacke heare in it, then the Priest shall shut vp him, that hath the sore of the blacke spot, seuen dayes. ³²After, in the seuenth day the Priest shall looke on the sore: and if the blacke spot growe not, and there be in it no yelow heare, and the blacke spot seeme not lower then the skinne, ³³Then he shalbe shauen, but the place of the blacke spot shall he not shaue: but the Priest shall shut vp him, that hath the blacke spot, seuen dayes more. ³⁴And the seuenth day the Priest shall looke on the blacke spot: and if the blacke spot growe not in the skinne, nor seeme lower then the other skinne, then the Priest shall clense him, and hee shall wash his clothes, and be cleane. ³⁵But if the blacke spot growe abroad in the flesh after his clensing, ³⁶Then the Priest shall looke on it: and if the blacke spot grow in the skin, the Priest shall not seeke for the yelow heare: for he is vncleane. ³⁷But if ye blacke spot seeme to him to abide, and that blacke heare growe therein, the blacke spot is healed, he is cleane, and the Priest shall declare him to be cleane. ³⁸Furthermore if there bee many white spots in the skin of the flesh of man or woman, ³⁹Then the Priest shall consider: and if the spots in the skin of their flesh be somewhat darke and white withall, it is but a white spot broken out in the skin: therefore he is cleane. ⁴⁰And the man whose heare is fallen off his head, and is balde, is cleane. ⁴¹And if his head lose the heare on the forepart, and

⁴²But if there be in the balde head, or in the balde forehead a white reddish sore, it is a leprosie springing in his balde head, or in his balde forehead. ⁴³Therefore the Priest shall looke vpon it, and if the rising of the sore bee white reddish in his balde head, or in his bald forehead, appearing like leprosie in the skin of the flesh, ⁴⁴He is a leper and vncleane: therefore the Priest shall pronounce him altogether vncleane: for the sore is in his head. ⁴⁵The leper also in whom the plague is, shall haue his clothes rent, and his head bare, and shall put a couering vpon his lips, and shall cry, I am vncleane, I am vncleane. ⁴⁶As long as the disease shall be vpon him, he shalbe polluted, for he is vncleane: he shall dwell alone, without the campe shall his habitation be. ⁴⁷Also the garment that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a wollen garment or a linen garment, ⁴⁸Whether it bee in the warpe or in ye woofe of linen or of wollen, either in a skin, or in any thing made of skin,

⁴⁹And if the sore be greene or somewhat reddish in the garment or in ye skin, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing that is made of skin, it is a plague of leprosie and shalbe shewed vnto the Priest. ⁵⁰Then the Priest shall see the plague, and shut vp it that hath the plague, seuen dayes, ⁵¹And shall looke on the plague the seuenth day: if the plague growe in the garment or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in the skinne, or in any thing that is made of skin, that plague is a fretting leprosie and vncleane. ⁵²And hee shall burne the garment, or the warpe, or the woofe, whether it bee wollen or linen, or any thing that is made of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosie, therefore it shalbe burnt in the fire. ⁵³If the Priest yet see that the plague grow not in the garment, or in the woofe, or in whatsoever thing of skin it be, ⁵⁴Then the Priest shall commaund them to wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it vp seuen dayes more. ⁵⁵Againe ye Priest shall looke on the plague, after it is washed: and if the plague haue not changed his colour, though the plague haue spred no further, it is vncleane: thou shalt burne it in the fire, for it is a fret inwarde, whether the spot bee in the bare place of the whole, or in part thereof. ⁵⁶And if the Priest see that the plague bee darker, after that it is washed, he shall cut it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe. ⁵⁷And if it appeare stil in ye garment or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing made of skin, it is a spreading leprie: thou shalt burne the thing wherein the plague is, in the fire. ⁵⁸If thou hast washed ye garment or ye warpe, or ye woofe, or whatsover thing of skin it be, if the plague be departed therefrom, then shall it be washed the second time, and be cleane. ⁵⁹This is the lawe of the plague of leprosie in a garment of wollen or linnen, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing of skin, to make it cleane or vncleane.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²This is the law of the leper in the day of his clensing: that is, he shall be brought vnto the Priest, ³And the Priest shall go out of the campe, and the Priest shall consider him: and if the plague of leprosie be healed in the leper, ⁴Then shall the Priest take for him that is clensed, two scarlet alieue and cleane, and cedar wood and a scarlet lace, and scarle. ⁵And the Priest shall take one of the birdes ouer pure water in an earthen carle. ⁶After, he shall take the liue sparowe with the cedar wood, and the scarlet lace, and the scarle, and shall dip them and the liuing sparowe in the blood of the sparowe slaine, ouer the pure water, ⁷And hee shall sprinkle vpon him, that must be clensed of his leprosie, seuen times, and clense him, and shall let goe the liue sparowe into the broad felde. ⁸Then he that shall be clensed, shall wash his clothes, and shaue off all his heare, and wash scarlet in water, so he shalbe cleane: after that shall he come into the host, but shall tary without his tent seuen 219car. ⁹So in the seuenth day hee shall shaue off all his heare, both his head, and his beard, and his eye browes: euen all his heare shall he shaue, and shall wash his clothes and shall wash his flesh in water: so he shalbe cleane. ¹⁰Then in the eight day he shall take two hee lambes without blemish, and an ewe lambe of a yere olde without blemish, and three tenth deales of fine flower for a meate offering, mingled with oyle, and a pint of oyle. ¹¹And the Priest that maketh him cleane shall bring the man which is to bee made cleane, and those things, before the Lord, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ¹²Then the Priest shall take one lambe, and offer him for a trespasse offering, and the pint of oyle, and shake the to and from before the Lord. ¹³And hee shall kill the lambe in the place where the sinne offring and the burnt offring are slaine, euen in the holy place: for as the sinne offring is the Priests, so is the trespasse offring: for it is most holy. ¹⁴So the Priest shall take of the blood of the trespasse offring,

and the meat offering vpon ye altar and the Priest shall make an atonement for him: so he shalbe cleane. ²¹But if he be poore, and not able, then he shall bring one lambe for a trespassse offering to be shaken, for his reconciliation, and a tenth deale of fine flower mingled with oyle, for a meate offering, with a pinte of oyle. ²²Also two turtle doues, or two yong pigeons, as he is able, whereof the one shalbe a sinne offering, and the other a burnt offering, ²³And he shall bring them the eight day for his clensing vnto the Priest at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before ye Lord. ²⁴The the Priest shall take the lambe of the trespassse offering, and the pint of oyle, and the Priest shall shake them to and from before the Lord. ²⁵And he shall kill the lambe of the trespassse offering, and the Priest shall take of the blood of the trespassse offering, and put it vpon the lap of his right eare that is to be clensed, and vpon ye thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his right foote. ²⁶Also the Priest shall

which I giue you in possession, if I sende the plague of leprosie in an house of the land of your possession, ³⁵Then he that oweth the house, shall come and tell the Priest, saying, Me thinke there is like a plague of leprosie in the house. ³⁶Then the Priest shall commande them to emptie the house before the Priest goe into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made vncleane, and then shall the Priest goe in to see the house, ³⁷And hee shall marke the plague: and if the plague be in the walles of the house, and that there be deepe spots, greenish or reddish, which seeme to be lower then the wall, ³⁸Then the Priest shall goe out of the house to the doore of the house, and shall cause to shut vp the house seuen 221car. ³⁹So the Priest shall come againe ye seuenth day: and if he see that the plague bee increased in the walles of the house, ⁴⁰Then the Priest shall commande them to take away the stones wherein the plague is, and they shall cast them into a foule place without the citie. ⁴¹Also hee shall cause to scrape the house within rounde about, and 221carl the dust, that they haue pared off, without the citie in an vncleane place. ⁴²And they shall take other stones, and put them in the places of those stones, and shall take other mortar, to plaister the house with. ⁴³But if the plague come againe and breake out in the house, after that he hath taken away ye stones, and after that hee hath scraped and playstered the house, ⁴⁴Then the Priest shall come and see: and if the plague growe in the house, it is a freating leprosie in the house: it is therefore vncleane. ⁴⁵And hee shall breake downe the house, with the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house, and hee shall carie them out of the citie vnto an vncleane place. ⁴⁶Moreouer he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut vp, hee shall bee vncleane vntill the euen. ⁴⁷Hee also that sleepeth in the house shall wash his clothes: he likewise that eateth in the house, shall wash his clothes. ⁴⁸But if the Priest shall come and see, that the plague hath spread no further in the house, after the house be plaistered, the Priest shall pronounce that house cleane, for the plague is healed. ⁴⁹Then shall he take to purifie the house, two ²²²carlet²²², and cedar wood, and ²²²carlet lace, and ²²²carle. ⁵⁰And hee shall kill one sparowe ouer pure water in an earthen ²²²carle, ⁵¹And shall take the cedar wood, and the ²²²carle, and the ²²²carlet lace with the liue Sparrow, and dip them in the blood of the slayne Sparrow, and in the pure water, and sprinkle the house seuen times: ⁵²So shall hee clense the house with ye blood of the sparowe, and with the pure water, and with the liue sparowe, and with the cedar wood, and with the ²²²carle, and with the ²²²carlet lace. ⁵³Afterwarde he shall let go the liue sparowe out of the towne into the broad fieldes: so shall he make atonement for the house, and it shall be cleane. ⁵⁴This is the law for euery plague of leprosie and blacke spot, ⁵⁵And of the leprosie of the garment, and of the house, ⁵⁶And of the swelling, and of the skab, and of the white spot. ⁵⁷This is the lawe of the leprosie to teache when a thing is vncleane, and when it is cleane.

¹Moreouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying, ²Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Whosoeuer hath an issue from his flesh, is vncleane, because of his issue. ³And this shalbe his vncleannes in his issue: when his flesh auoydeth his issue, or if his flesh be stopped from his issue, this is his vncleannes. ⁴Euery bed whereon he lyeth that hath the issue, shall be vncleane, and euery thing whereon he sitteth, shalbe vncleane. ⁵Whosoeuer also toucheth his bed, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen. ⁶And he that sitteth on any thing, whereon he sate that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shalbe vncleane vntill the euen. ⁷Also he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and

shalbe vncleane vntill the euen. ⁸If he also, that hath the issue, spit vpon him that is cleane, he shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shalbe vncleane vntill the euen. ⁹And what saddle soeuer he rideth vpon, that hath the issue, shalbe vncleane, ¹⁰And whosoever toucheth any thing that was vnder him, shall be vncleane vnto the euen: and he that beareth those things, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen. ¹¹Likewise whomesoeuer hee toucheth that hath the issue (and hath not washed his handes in water) shall wash his clothes and wash himselfe in water, and shalbe vncleane vntill the euen. ¹²And the vessel of earth that he toucheth, which hath the issue, shalbe broken: and euery vessel of wood shalbe rinsed in water. ¹³But if he that hath an issue, be cleansed of his issue, then shall he count him seuen dayes for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in pure water: so shall he be cleane. ¹⁴Then the eight day he shall take vnto him two Turtle doues or two yong pigeons, and come before the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall giue them vnto the Priest. ¹⁵And the Priest shall make of the one of them a sinne offering, and of the other a burnt offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord, for his issue. ¹⁶Also if any mans issue of seede depart from him, he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen. ¹⁷And euery garment, and euery skinne whereupon shalbe issue of seede, shall be euen washed with water, and be vncleane vnto the euen. ¹⁸If he that hath an issue of seede, do lie with a woman, they shall both wash themselues with water, and be vncleane vntill the euen. ¹⁹Also when a woman shall haue an issue, and her issue in her flesh shalbe blood, she shalbe put apart seuen dayes: and whosoever toucheth her, shalbe vncleane vnto the euen. ²⁰And whatsoever she lieth vpon in her separation, shalbe vncleane, and euery thing that she sitteth vpon, shalbe vncleane. ²¹Whosoeuer also toucheth her bedde, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe with water, and shalbe vncleane vnto the euen. ²²And whosoeuer toucheth any thing that she sate vpon, shall wash his clothes, and wash him selfe in water, and shalbe vncleane vnto the euen: ²³So that whether he touche her bed, or any thing whereon shee hath sit, he shalbe vncleane vnto the euen. ²⁴And if a man lye with her, and the flowers of her separation touch him, he shalbe vncleane seuen dayes, and all the whole bed whereon he lieth, shalbe vncleane. ²⁵Also when a womans issue of blood runneth long time besides the time of her floures, or when she hath an issue, longer then her floures, all the dayes of the issue of her vncleannesse shee shalbe vncleane, as in the time of her floures. ²⁶Euery bed whereon shee lyeth (as long as her issue lasteth) shalbe to her as her bed of her separation: and whatsoeuer she sitteth vpon, shalbe vncleane, as her vncleannes whe she is put apart. ²⁷And whosoeuer toucheth these things, shall be vncleane, and shall wash his clothes, and wash him selfe in water, and shalbe vncleane vnto the euen. ²⁸But if she be censed of her issue, then shee shall count her seuen dayes, and after, shee shall be cleane. ²⁹And in the eight day shee shall take vnto her two Turtles or two yong pigeons, and bring them vnto the Priest at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ³⁰And the Priest shall make of ye one a sinne offering, and of the other a burnt offering, and the Priest shall make an atonement for her before the Lord, for the issue of her vncleannes. ³¹Thus shall yee separate the children of Israel from their vncleannes, that they dye not in their vncleannesse, if they defile my Tabernacle that is among them. ³²This is the lawe of him that hath an issue, and of him from whome goeth an issue of seede whereby he is defiled: ³³Also of her that is sicke of her floures, and of him that hath a running issue, whether it bee man or woman, and of him that lyeth with her which is vncleane.

¹Fvrrthermore the Lord spake vnto Moses, after the death of the two sonnes of Aaron, whe they came to offer before the Lord, and dyed: ²And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Speake vnto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the Holy place within the vayle, before the Merciseate, which is vpon the Arke, that he dye not: for I wil appeare in the cloude vpon the Merciseate. ³After this sort shall Aaron come into the Holy place: euen with a yong bullocke for a sinne offering, and a ramme for a burnt offering. ⁴He shall put on the holy linnen coate, and shall haue linnen breeches vpon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linnen girdle, and shall couer his head with a linnen miter: these are the holy garments: therefore shall hee wash his flesh in water, when he doeth put them on. ⁵And hee shall take of the Congregation of the children of Israel, two hee goates for a sinne offering, and a ramme for a burnt offering. ⁶Then Aaron shall offer the bullocke for his sinne offering, and make an atonement for himselfe, and for his house. ⁷And he shall take the two hee goates, and present them before the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁸Then Aaron shall cast lots ouer the two hee goates: one lot for the Lord, and the other for the Scape goate. ⁹And Aaron shall offer the goat, vpon which the Lords lot shall fal, and make him a sinne offering. ¹⁰But the goate, on which the lot shall fall to be the Scape goate, shalbe presented alieue before the Lord, to make reconciliation by him, and to let him go (as a Scape goate) into the wildernes. ¹¹Thus Aaron shall offer the bullocke for his sinne offering, and make a reconciliation for himselfe, and for his house, and shall kill the bullocke for his sinne offering. ¹²And he shall take a censer full of burning coles from off the altar before the Lord, and his handfull of sweete incense beaten small, and bring it within the vayle, ¹³And shall put the incense vpon the fire before the Lord, that the cloude of the incense may couer the Merciseat that is vpon the Testimonie: so he shall not dye.

¹⁴And hee shall take of the blood of the bullocke, and sprinkle it with his finger vpon the Merciseat Eastward: and before the Merciseate shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seuen times.

¹⁵Then shall he kill the goate that is the peoples sinne offering, and bring his blood within the vaile, and doe with that blood, as he did with the blood of the bullocke, and sprinckle it vpon the Merciseate, and before the Merciseate. ¹⁶So he shall purge the Holy place from the vncleannes of the children of Israel, and from their trespasses of all their sinnes: so shall he do also for the Tabernacle of the Cogregation placed with them, in the middes of their vncleannesse. ¹⁷And there shalbe no man in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the Holy place, vntill hee come out, and haue made an atonement for himselfe, and for his housholde, and for all the Congregation of Israel. ¹⁸After, he shall goe out vnto the altar that is before the Lord and make a reconciliation vpon it, and shall take of the blood of the bullocke, and of the blood of the goate, and put it vpon the hornes of the Altar round about: ¹⁹So shall hee sprinkle of the blood vpon it with his finger seuen times, and clense it, and halowe it from the vncleannes of the children of Israel. ²⁰When he hath made an ende of purging the Holy place, and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the altar, then he shall bring the liue goate: ²¹And Aaron shall put both his handes vpon the head of the liue goate, and confesse ouer him al the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their trespasses, in all their sinnes, putting them vpon the head of the goate, and shall sende him away (by the hand of a man appointed) into the wildernes. ²²So the goate shall beare vpon him all their iniquities into the land that is not inhabited, and he shall let the goate go into the wilderness. ²³After, Aaron shall come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and put off the linnen clothes, which he put on when he went into the Holy place, and leaue them there. ²⁴Hee shall wash also his flesh with water in the Holy place, and put on his owne rayment, and come out, and make his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himselfe, and for the people. ²⁵Also the fatte of the sinne offering shall he burne vpon the altar. ²⁶And he that caried forth the goat, called the Scape goat, shall wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and after that shall come into the hoste. ²⁷Also the bullocke for the sinne offering, and the goate for the sinne offering (whose blood was brought to make a reconciliation in the Holy place) shall one carie out without the hoste to be burnt in the fire, with their skinnes, and with their flesh, and with their dounge. ²⁸And hee that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and afterward come into the hoste. ²⁹So this shalbe an ordinance for euer vnto you: the tenth day of the seuenth moneth, yee shall humble your soules, and do no worke at all, whether it be one of the same countrey or a strager that sojourneth among you. ³⁰For that day shall ye Priest make an atonement for you to cense you: ye shalbe cleane from all your sinnes before the Lord. ³¹This shall be a Sabbath of rest vnto you, and ye shall humble your soules, by an ordinance for euer. ³²And the Priest whom he shall anoynt, and whom he shall cosecrate (to minister in his fathers steade) shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linnen clothes and Holy vestments, ³³And shall purge the Holy Sanctuarie and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall cense the altar, and make an atonement for the Priests and for all the people of the Congregation. ³⁴And this shalbe an euerlasting ordinance vnto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel for all their sinnes once a yeere: and as the Lord commanded Moses, he did.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake vnto Aaron, and to his sonnes, and to all the children of Israel, and say vnto them, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, saying, ³Whosoeuer he be of the house of Israel that killeth a bullocke, or lambe, or goate in the hoste, or that killeth it out of the hoste, ⁴And bringeth it not vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation to offer an offering vnto the Lord before the Tabernacle of the Lord, blood shalbe imputed vnto that man: he hath shed blood, wherefore that man shall be cut off from among his people. ⁵Therefore the children of Israel shall bring their offerings, which they would offer abroad in the fiede, and present the vnto ye Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of ye Congregation by ye Priest, and offer them for peace offerings vnto the Lord. ⁶Then the Priest shall sprinkle the blood vpon the Altar of the Lord before the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and burne the fat for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ⁷And they shall no more offer their offerings vnto deuils, after whom they haue gone a whoring: this shalbe an ordinance for euer vnto them in their generations. ⁸Also thou shalt say

vnto them, whosoeuer he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which soiourne among them, that offreth a burnt offering or sacrifice, ⁹And bringeth it not vnto ye doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation to offer it vnto the Lord, euen that man shall be cut off from his people. ¹⁰Likewise whosoeuer he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that soiourne among them, that eateth any blood, I will euen set my face against that person that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people. ¹¹For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I haue giuen it vnto you to offer vpon the altar, to make an atonement for your soules: for this blood shall make an atonement for the soule. ¹²Therefore I saide vnto ye children of Israel, None of you shall eate blood: neither the stranger that sojourneth among you, shall eate blood. ¹³Moreouer whosoeuer he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that soiourne among the, which by hunting taketh any beast or foule that may be eaten, he shall powre out the blood thereof, and couer it with dust: ¹⁴For ye life of all flesh is his blood, it is ioyned with his life: therefore I sayd vnto the children of Israel, Ye shall eate the blood of no flesh: for the life of al flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it, shalbe cut off. ¹⁵And euery person that eateth it which dyeth alone, or that which is torne with beastes, whether it be one of the same countrey or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen: after he shalbe cleane. ¹⁶But if he wash them not, nor wash his flesh, then he shall beare his iniquitie.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, I am the Lord your God. ³After ye doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not doe: and after the maner of the land of Canaan, whither I will bring you, shall ye not do, neither walke in their ordinances, ⁴But do after my iudgements, and keepe mine ordinances, to walke

therein: I am the Lord your God. ⁵Ye shall keepe therefore my statutes, and my iudgements, which if a man doe, he shall then liue in them: I am the Lord. ⁶None shall come neere to any of ye kinred of his flesh to vncouer her shame: I am the Lord. ⁷Thou shalt not vncouer the shame of thy father, nor the shame of thy mother: for she is thy mother, thou shalt not discouer her shame. ⁸The shame of thy fathers wife shalt thou not discouer: for it is thy fathers shame. ⁹Thou shalt not discouer the shame of thy sister the daughter of thy father, or the daughter of thy mother, whether shee bee borne at home, or borne without: thou shalt not discouer their shame. ¹⁰The shame of thy sonnes daughter, or of thy daughters daughter, thou shalt not, I say, vncouer their shame: for it is thy shame. ¹¹The shame of thy fathers wiues daughter, begotten of thy father (for she is thy sister) thou shalt not, I say, discouer her shame. ¹²Thou shalt not vncouer the shame of thy fathers sister: for she is thy fathers kinswoman. ¹³Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy mothers sister: for she is thy mothers kinsewoman. ¹⁴Thou shalt not vncouer the shame of thy fathers brother: that is, thou shalt not goe in to his wife, for she is thine aunte. ¹⁵Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy daughter in lawe: for she is thy sonnes wife: therefore shalt thou not vncouer her shame. ¹⁶Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy brothers wife. for it is thy brothers shame. ¹⁷Thou shalt not discover the shame of the wife and of her daughter, neither shalt thou take her sonnes daughter, nor her daughters daughter, to vncouer her shame: for they are thy kinsfolkes, and it were wickednesse. ¹⁸Also thou shalt not take a wife with her sister, during her life, to vexe her, in vncouering her shame vpon her. ¹⁹Thou shalt not also go vnto a woman to vncouer her shame, as long as she is put apart for her disease. ²⁰Moreouer, thou shalt not giue thy selfe to thy neighbours wife by carnall copulation, to be defiled with her. ²¹Also thou shalt not giue thy children to offer them vnto Molech, neither shalt thou defile the name of thy God: for I am the Lord. ²²Thou shalt not lie with ye male as one lieth with a woman: for it is abomination. ²³Thou shalt not also lie with any beast to bee defiled therewith, neither shall any woman stand before a beast, to lie downe thereto: for it is abomination. ²⁴Yee shall not defile your selues in any of these things: for in al these the nations are defiled, which I will cast out before you: ²⁵And the land is defiled: therefore I wil visit the wickednesse thereof vpon it, and the lande shall vomit out her inhabitants. ²⁶Ye shall keepe therefore mine ordinances, and my iudgements, and commit none of these abominations, aswell hee that is of the same countrey, as the straunger that soiourneth among you. ²⁷(For all these abominations haue the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled: ²⁸And shall not the lande spue you out if ye defile it, as it spued out the people that were before you?) ²⁹For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, the persons that doe so, shall bee cut off from among their people.

³⁰Therefore shall yee keepe mine ordinances that ye do not any of the abominable customes, which haue bene done before you, and that yee defile not your selues therein: for I am the Lord your God.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake vnto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Ye shalbe holy, for I the Lord your God am holy. ³Yee shall feare euery man his mother and his father, and shall keepe my Sabbaths: for I am the Lord your God. ⁴Ye shall not turne vnto idoles, nor make you molten gods: I am the Lord your God. ⁵And when yee shall offer a peace offering vnto the Lord, ye shall offer it freely. ⁶It shall be eaten the day yee offer it, or on the morowe: and that which remaineth vntill the third day, shalbe burnt in the fire. ⁷For if it be eaten the third day, it shall be vncleane, it shall not be accepted. ⁸Therefore he that eateth it, shall beare his iniquitie, because he hath defiled the halowed thing of the Lord, and that person shalbe cut off from his people. ⁹When yee reape the haruest of your land, ye shall not reape euery corner of your field, neither shalt thou gather the glainings of thy haruest. ¹⁰Thou shalt not gather the grapes of thy vineyarde cleane, neyther gather euery grape of thy vineyarde, but thou shalt leaue them for the poore and for the straunger: I am the Lord your God. ¹¹Ye shall not steale, neither deale falsely, neither lie one to another. ¹²Also yee shall not sweare by my name falsely, neither shalt thou defile the name of thy God: I am the Lord. ¹³Thou shalt not do thy neighbour wrong, neither rob him. The workemans hire shall not abide with thee vntil the morning. ¹⁴Thou shalt not curse the deafe, neither put a stumbling blocke before the blinde, but shalt feare thy God: I am the Lord. ¹⁵Ye shall not doe vniustly in iudgement. Thou shalt not fauour the person of the poore, nor honour the person of the mightie, but thou shalt iudge thy neighbour iustly. ¹⁶Thou shalt not walke about with tales among thy people. Thou shalt not stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the Lord. ¹⁷Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart, but thou shalt plainly rebuke thy neighbour, and suffer him not to sinne. ¹⁸Thou shalt not auenge, nor be mindful of wrong against ye childe of thy people, but shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe: I am the Lord. ¹⁹Yee shall keepe mine ordinances. Thou shalt not let thy cattel gender with others of diuers kindes. Thou shalt not sowe thy felde with mingled seede, neyther shall a garment of diuers thinges, as of linen and wollen come vpon thee. ²⁰Whosoeuer also lyeth and medleth with a woman that is a bonde mayde, affianced to a husband, and not redeemed, nor freedome giuen her, she shalbe scourged, but they shall not die, because she is not made free. ²¹And he shall bring for his trespasse offring vnto the Lord, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, a ramme for a trespasse offering. ²²Then the Priest shall make an atonement for him with the ramme of the trespasse offering before the Lord, concerning his sinne which he hath done, and pardon shalbe giuen him for his sinne which he hath committed. ²³Also when ye shall come into the land, and haue planted euery tree for meate, ye shall count the fruite thereof as vncircumcised: three yeere shall it be vncircumcised vnto you, it shall not be eaten: ²⁴But in the fourth yere all the fruite thereof shalbe holy to the praise of the Lord. ²⁵And in the fifth yeere shall ye eate of the fruite of it that it may yeelde to you the encrease thereof: I am the Lord your God. ²⁶Ye shall not eat the flesh with the blood, ye shall not vse witchcraft, nor obserue times. ²⁷Ye shall not cut rounde the corners of your heades, neither shalt thou marre the tuftes of thy beard. ²⁸Ye shall not cut your flesh for the dead, nor make any print of a marke vpon you: I am the Lord, ²⁹Thou shalt not make thy daughter common, to cause her to be a whore, least the lande also fall to whoredome, and the lande bee full of wickednesse.

³⁰Ye shall keepe my Sabbaths and reuerence my Sanctuarie: I am the Lord. ³¹Ye shall not regarde them that worke with spirites, neither soothsayers: ye shall not seeke to them to be defiled by them: I am the Lord your God. ³²Thou shalt rise vp before the horehead, and honour the person of the old man, and dread thy God: I am the Lord. ³³And if a stranger soiourne with thee in your lande, ye shall not vex him. ³⁴But the stranger that dwelleth with you, shalbe as one of your selues, and thou shalt loue him as thy selfe: for ye were strangers in the lad of Egypt: I am the Lord your God. ³⁵Ye shall not doe vniustly in iudgement, in line, in weight, or in measure. ³⁶You shall haue iust ballances, true weightes, a true Ephah, and a true Hin. I am the Lord your God, which haue brought you out of the lande of Egypt. ³⁷Therefore shall ye obserue all mine ordinances, and all my iudgements, and doe them: I am the Lord.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Thou shalt say also to the children of Israel, Whosoeuer he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that dwell in Israel, that giueth his children vnto Molech, he shall die the death, ye people of ye land shall stone him to death. ³And I will set my face against that man and cut him off from among his people, because he hath giuen his children vnto Molech, for to defile my Sanctuarie, and to pollute mine holy Name. ⁴And if the people of the lande hide their eyes, and winke at that man when he giueth his children vnto Molech, and kill him not, ⁵Then will I set my face against that man, and against his familie, and will cut him off, and all that go a whoring after him to comit whoredome with Molech, from among their people. ⁶If any turne after such as worke with spirits, and after soothsayers, to go a whoring after them, then will I set my face against that person, and will cut him off from among his people. ⁷Sanctifie your selues therefore, and be holie, for I am the Lord your God. ⁸Keepe ye therefore mine ordinances, and doe them. I am the Lord which doeth sanctifie you. ⁹If there be any that curseth his father or his mother, he shall die the death: seeing hee hath cursed his father and his mother, his blood shalbe vpon him. ¹⁰And the man that committeth adulterie with another mans wife, because he hath comitted adulterie with his neighbours wife, the adulterer and the adulteresse shall die the death. ¹¹And the man that lyeth with his fathers wife, because hee hath vncouered his fathers shame, they shall both dye: their blood shalbe vpon them. ¹²Also the man that lyeth with his daughter in lawe, they both shall dye the death, they haue wrought abomination, their blood shalbe vpon them. ¹³The man also that lyeth with the male, as one lyeth with a woman, they haue both committed abomination: they shall dye the death, their blood shalbe vpon them. ¹⁴Likewise he

that taketh a wife and her mother, committeth wickednesse: they shall burne him and them with fire, that there be no wickednes among you. ¹⁵Also the man that lyeth with a beast, shall dye the death, and ye shall slay the beast. ¹⁶And if a woman come to any beast, and lye therewith, then thou shalt kill the woman and the beast: they shall die the death, their blood shalbe vpon them. ¹⁷Also the man that taketh his sister, his fathers daughter, or his mothers daughter, and seeth her shame and she seeth his shame, it is villenie: therefore they shall be cut off in the sight of their people, because he hath vncouered his sisters shame, he shall beare his iniquitie. ¹⁸The man also that lyeth with a woman hauing her disease, and vncouereth her shame, and openeth her fountaine, and she open the fountaine of her blood, they shall bee euen both cut off from among their people. ¹⁹Moreouer thou shalt not vncouer the shame of thy mothers sister, nor of thy fathers sister: because he hath vncouered his kin, they shall beare their iniquitie. ²⁰Likewise the man that lyeth with his fathers brothers wife, and vncouereth his vncles shame: they shall beare their iniquitie, and shall die childlesse. ²¹So the man that taketh his brothers wife, committeth filthines, because he hath vncouered his brothers shame: they shalbe childles. ²²Ye shall keepe therefore all mine ordinances and all my iudgements, and doe them, that the land, whither I bring you to dwel therein, spue you not out. ²³Wherefore ye shall not walke in the maners of this nation which I cast out before you: for they haue committed all these things, therefore I abhorred them. ²⁴But I haue saide vnto you, ye shall inherite their land, and I will giue it vnto you to possesse it, euen a land that floweth with milke and honie: I am the Lord your God, which haue separated you from other people. ²⁵Therefore shall ye put difference betweene cleane bestes and vncleane, and betweene vncleane foules and cleane: neither shall ye defile your selues with bestes and foules, nor with any creeping thing, that ye ground bringeth forth, which I haue separated from you as vncleane. ²⁶Therefore shall ye be holie vnto me: for I the Lord am holy, and I haue separated you from other people, that ye shoulde be mine. ²⁷And if a man or woman haue a spirite of diuination, or soothsaying in them, they shall die the death: they shall stone them to death, their blood shalbe vpon them.

¹And the Lord said vnto Moses, Speake vnto the Priestes the sonnes of Aaron, and say vnto them, Let none be defiled by the dead among his people, ²But by his kinseman that is neere vnto him: to wit, by his mother, or by his father, or by his sonne, or by his daughter, or by his brother, ³Or by his sister a maid, that is neere vnto him, which hath not had a husband: for her he may lament. ⁴He shall not lament for the Prince among his people, to pollute him selfe. ⁵They shall not make balde partes vpon their head, nor shaue off the locks of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh. ⁶They shalbe holy vnto their God, and not pollute the name of their God: for the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire, and the bread of their God they doe offer: therefore they shalbe holie. ⁷They shall not take to wife an whore, or one polluted, neither shall they marrie a woman diuorced from her husband: for such one is holy vnto his God. ⁸Thou shalt sanctifie him therefore, for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy vnto thee: for I the Lord, which sanctifie you, am holy. ⁹If a Priestes daughter fall to play the whore, she polluteth her father: therefore shall she be burnt with fire. ¹⁰Also ye hie Priest among his brethren, (vpon whose head the anointing oyle was powred, and hath consecrated his hand to put on the garments) shall not vncouer his head, nor rent his clothes, ¹¹Neither shall he goe to any dead bodie, nor make him selfe vncleane by his father or by his mother, ¹²Neither shall he goe out of the Sanctuarie, nor pollute the holy place of his God: for the crowne of the anoynting oyle of his God is vpon him: I am the Lord. ¹³Also he shall take a maide vnto his wife: ¹⁴But a widowe, or a diuorced woman, or a polluted, or an harlot, these shall he not marrie, but shall take a maide of his owne people to wife: ¹⁵Neyther shall he defile his seede among his people: for I am the Lord which sanctifie him. ¹⁶And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹⁷Speake vnto Aaron, and say, Whosoeuer of thy seede in their generations hath any blemishes, shall not prease to offer the bread of his God: ¹⁸For whosoeuer hath any blemish, shall not come neere: as a man blinde or lame, or that hath a flat nose, or that hath any misshapen member, ¹⁹Or a man that hath a broken foote, or a broken hande, ²⁰Or is crooke backt, or bleare eyed, or hath a blemish in his eye, or be skiruiie, or skabbed, or haue his stones broken. ²¹None of the seede of Aaron the Priest that hath a blemish, shall come neere to offer the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire, hauing a blemish: he shall not prease to offer the bread of his God. ²²The bread of his

God, euen of the most holie, and of the holy shall he eate: ²³But he shall not goe in vnto the vaile, nor come neere the altar, because hee hath a blemish, least he pollute my Sanctuaries: for I am the Lord that sanctifie them. ²⁴Thus spake Moses vnto Aaron, and to his sonnes, and to all the children of Israel.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake vnto Aaron, and to his sonnes, that they be separated from the holy thinges of the children of Israel, and that they pollute not mine holy name in those things, which they hallowe vnto me: I am the Lord. ³Say vnto them, Whosoeuer he be of all your seede among your generations after you, that toucheth the holy things which the children of Israel hallowe vnto the Lord, hauing his vncleannesse vpon him, euen that person shall be cut off from my sight: I am the Lord. ⁴Whosoeuer also of the seede of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running issue, he shall not eate of the holy things vntill he be cleane: and who so

toucheth any that is vncleane, by reason of the dead, or a man whose issue of seede runneth from him, ⁵Or the man that toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made vncleane, or a man, by whom he may take vncleannesse, whatsoeuer vncleannesse he hath, ⁶The person that hath touched such, shall therefore be vncleane vntill the euen, and shall not eat of ye holy things, except he haue washed his flesh with water. ⁷But when the Sunne is downe, hee shalbe cleane, and shall afterward eate of the holy things: for it is his foode. ⁸Of a beast that dyeth, or is rent with beasts, whereby he may be defiled, hee shall not eate: I am the Lord. ⁹Let them keepe therefore mine ordinance, least they beare their sinne for it, and die for it, if they defile it: I the Lord sanctifie them. ¹⁰There shall no stranger also eate of the holie thing, neither the ghest of the Priest, neither shall an hired seruant eat of the holie thing: ¹¹But if the Priest bye any with money, he shall eate of it, also he that is borne in his house: they shall eate of his meate. ¹²If the Priests daughter also be married vnto a stranger, she may not eate of the holy offrings. ¹³Notwithstanding if the Priests daughter be a widowe or diuorced, and haue no childe, but is returned vnto her fathers house shee shall eate of her fathers bread, as she did in her youth but there shall no stranger eate thereof. ¹⁴If a man eate of the holie thing vnwittingly, he shall put the fift part thereunto, and giue it vnto the Priest with the halowed thing. ¹⁵So they shall not defile the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer vnto the Lord, ¹⁶Neither cause the people to beare the iniquitie of their trespass, while they eate their holy thing: for I the Lord do halowe them. ¹⁷And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹⁸Speake vnto Aaron, and to his sonnes, and to all the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Whosoeuer he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his sacrifice for all their vowes, and for all their free offrings, which they vse to offer vnto the Lord for a burnt offering, ¹⁹Yee shall offer of your free minde a male without blemish of the beeuves, of the sheepe, or of the goates. ²⁰Ye shall not offer any thing that hath a blemish: for that shall not be acceptable for you. ²¹And whosoeuer bringeth a peace offering vnto ye Lord to accomplish his vowe, or for a free offering, of the beeuves, or of the sheepe, his free offering shall bee perfect, no blemish shalbe in it. ²²Blinde, or broken, or maimed, or hauing a wenne, or skirvie, or skabbed: these shall yee not offer vnto the Lord nor make an offering by fire of these vpon the altar of the Lord. ²³Yet a bullocke, or a sheepe that hath any member superfluous, or lacking, such mayest thou present for a free offering, but for a vowe it shall not be accepted. ²⁴Ye shall not offer vnto ye Lord that which is bruised or crushed, or broken, or cut away, neither shall ye make an offering thereof in your land, ²⁵Neither of ye hand of a stranger shall ye offer ye bread of your God of any of these, because their corruption is in them, there is a blemish in them: therefore shall they not be accepted for you.

²⁶And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²⁷When a bullocke, or a sheepe, or a goate shall be brought foorth, it shalbe euen seuen daies vnder his damme: and from the eight day forth, it shalbe accepted for a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord. ²⁸As for the cowe or the ewe, yee shall not kill her, and her yong both in one day.

²⁹So when ye will offer a thanke offering vnto the Lord, ye shall offer willingly. ³⁰The same day it shalbe eaten, yee shall leaue none of it vntill the morowe: I am the Lord. ³¹Therefore shall ye keepe my commandements and do them: for I am the Lord.

³²Neither shall ye pollute mine holy Name, but I will be halowed among the children of Israel. I the Lord sanctifie you, ³³Which haue brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lord.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto

them, The feastes of ye Lord which yee shall call ye holie assemblies, euen these are my feastes. ³Six daies shall worke be done, but in the seuenth day shalbe the Sabbath of rest, an holie conuocation: ye shall do no worke therein, it is the Sabbath of the Lord, in all your dwellings.

⁴These are the feastes of the Lord, and holie conuocations, which yee shall proclaime in their seasons. ⁵In the first moneth, and in the fourteenth day of the moneth at euening shalbe ye Passeouer of the Lord. ⁶And on the fifteenth day of this moneth shalbe the feast of vnleauened bread vnto the Lord: seuen dayes ye shall eate vnleauened bread. ⁷In the first day yee shall haue an holy conuocation: ye shall do no seruile worke therein. ⁸Also ye shall offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord seuen daies, and in the seuenth day shalbe an holie conuocation: ye shall do no seruile worke therein. ⁹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹⁰Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye be come into ye land which I

giue vnto you, and reape the haruest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheafe of the first fruites of your haruest vnto the Priest, ¹¹And hee shall shake the sheafe before the Lord, that it may be acceptable for you: the morowe after the Sabbath, the Priest shall shake it. ¹²And that day when yee shake the sheafe, shall yee prepare a lambe without blemish of a yeere olde, for a burnt offering vnto the Lord: ¹³And the meate offering thereof shalbe two tenth deales of fine floure mingled with oyle, for a sacrifice made by fire vnto ye Lord of sweete sauour. and the drinke offering thereof the fourth part of an Hin of wine. ¹⁴And ye shall eat neither bread nor parched corne, nor greene eares vntill the selfe same day that ye haue brought an offering vnto your God: this shalbe a lawe for euer in your generations and in all your dwellings. ¹⁵Ye shall count also to you from the morowe after the Sabbath, euen from the day that yee shall bring the sheafe of the shake offering, seuen Sabbaths, they shalbe complete. ¹⁶Vnto ye morow after the seuenth Sabbath shall ye number fiftie dayes: then yee shall bring a newe meate offering vnto the Lord. ¹⁷Ye shall bring out of your habitations bread for the shake offering: they shalbe two loaues of two tenth deales of fine floure, which shalbe baken with leauen for first fruites vnto the Lord. ¹⁸Also yee shall offer with the bread seuen lambes without blemish of one yeere olde, and a yong bullocke and two rams: they shalbe for a burnt offering vnto the Lord, with their meate offerings and their drinke offerings, for a sacrifice made by fire of a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ¹⁹Then ye shall prepare an hee goate for a sinne offering, and two lambes of one yeere olde for peace offerings. ²⁰And the Priest shall shake them to and from with the bread of the first fruits before the Lord, and with the two lambes: they shalbe holy to the Lord, for the Priest. ²¹So ye shall proclayme the same day, that it may be an holie conuocation vnto you: ye shall doe no seruile worke therein: it shalbe an ordinance for euer in al your dwellings, throughout your generations. ²²And when you reape the haruest of your land, thou shalt not rid cleane the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou make any aftergathering of thy haruest, but shalt leaue them vnto the poore and to the stranger: I am the Lord your God. ²³And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²⁴Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, In the seuenth moneth, and in the first day of the moneth shall ye haue a Sabbath, for the remembrance of blowing the trumpets, an holy conuocation. ²⁵Ye shall do no seruile worke therein, but offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord. ²⁶And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²⁷The tenth also of this seuenth moneth shalbe a day of reconciliation: it shalbe an holie conuocation vnto you, and yee shall humble your soules, and offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord. ²⁸And ye shall doe no worke that same day: for it is a day of reconciliation, to make an atonement for you before the Lord your God. ²⁹For euery person that humbleth not himselfe that same day, shall euen be cut off from his people. ³⁰And euery person that shall doe any work that same day, the same person also will I destroy from among his people. ³¹Ye shall do no maner worke therefore: this shalbe a law for euer in your generations, throughout all your dwellings. ³²This shalbe vnto you a Sabbath of rest, and ye shall humble your soules: in the ninth day of the moneth at euen, from euen to euen shall ye celebrate your Sabbath. ³³And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ³⁴Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, In the fifteenth day of this seuenth moneth shalbe for seuen dayes the feast of Tabernacles vnto the Lord. ³⁵In the first day shalbe an holie conuocation: ye shall do no seruile worke therein. ³⁶Seuen daies ye shall offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, and in the eight day shalbe an holy conuocation vnto you, and ye shall offer sacrifices made by fire vnto the Lord: it is the solemne assemblie, yee shall doe no seruile worke therein. ³⁷These are the feastes of the Lord (which ye shall call holie conuocations) to offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, as burnt offering, and meate offering, sacrifice, and drinke offerings, euery one vpon his day, ³⁸Beside the Sabbaths of the Lord, and beside your giftes, and beside all your vowes, and beside all your free offerings, which ye shall giue vnto the Lord. ³⁹But in the fifteenth day of the seuenth moneth, when ye haue gathered in the fruite of the land, ye shall keepe an holie feast vnto the Lord seuen daies: in the first day shalbe a Sabbath: likewise in the eight day shalbe a Sabbath. ⁴⁰And yee shall take you in the first day the fruite of goodly trees, branches of palme trees, and the boughes of thicke trees, and willowes of the brooke, and shall reioyce before the Lord your God seuen daies. ⁴¹So ye shall keepe this feast vnto the Lord seuen daies in the yere, by a perpetuall ordinance through your generations: in the seuenth moneth shall you keepe it. ⁴²Ye shall dwell in boothes seuen daies: all that are Israelites borne, shall dwel in boothes, ⁴³That your posterity may know that I haue made the children of Israel to dwell in boothes, when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt: I am the Lord your God. ⁴⁴So Moses declared vnto the children of Israel the feastes of the Lord.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Commande the children of Israel that they bring vnto thee pure oyle oliue beaten, for the light, to cause ye lampes to burne continually. ³Without the vaile of the Testimonie, in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, shall Aaron dresse them, both euen and morning before the Lord alwayes: this shalbe a lawe for euer through your generations. ⁴He shall dresse the lampes vpon the pure Candlesticke before the Lord perpetually. ⁵Also thou shalt take fine floure, and bake twelue cakes thereof: two tenth deales shalbe in one cake. ⁶And thou shalt set them in two rowes, six in a rowe vpon the pure table before the Lord. ⁷Thou shalt also put pure incense vpon the rowes, that in steade of the bread it may bee for a remembrance, and an offering made by fire to the Lord. ⁸Euery Sabbath hee shall put them in rowes before the Lord euermore, receiuing them of the children of Israel for an euerlasting couenant. ⁹And the bread shalbe Aarons and his sonnes, and they shall eate it in the holie place: for it is most holie vnto him of the offrings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetuall ordinance. ¹⁰And there went out among the children of Israel the sonne of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian: and this sonne of the Israelitish woman, and a man of Israel stroue together in the hoste. ¹¹So the Israelitish womans sonne blasphemed the name of the Lord, and cursed, and they brought him vnto Moses (his mothers name also was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan) ¹²And they put him in warde, till he tolde them the minde of the Lord. ¹³Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹⁴Bring the blasphemers without the hoste, and let all that heard him, put their handes vpon his head, and let all the Congregation stone him. ¹⁵And thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoeuer curseth his God, shall beare his sinne. ¹⁶And he that blasphemeth the name of the Lord, shalbe put to death: all the Congregation shall stone him to death: aswell the stranger, as he that is borne in the lande: when he blasphemeth the name of the Lord, let him beslaine. ¹⁷He also that killeth any man, he shall be put to death. ¹⁸And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it, beast for beast. ¹⁹Also if a man cause any blemish in his neighbour: as he hath done, so shall it be done to him. ²⁰Breache for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: such a blemish as he hath made in any, such shalbe repayed to him. ²¹And he that killeth a beast shall restore it: but he that killeth a man shall be slaine. ²²Ye shall haue one lawe: it shalbe aswel for the stranger as for one borne in the country: for I am the Lord your God. ²³Then Moses tolde the children of Israel, and they brought the blasphemers out of the hoste, and stoned him with stones: so the children of Israel did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses in mount Sinai, saying, ²Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye shall come into the lande which I giue you, the lande shall keepe Sabbath vnto the Lord. ³Sixe yeeres thou shalt sowe thy field, and sixe yeeres thou shalt cut thy vineyarde, and gather the fruite thereof. ⁴But the seuenth yeere shall be a Sabbath of rest vnto the lande: it shall be the Lordes Sabbath: thou shalt neither sowe thy fiede, nor cut thy vineyarde. ⁵That which groweth of it owne accorde of thy haruest, thou shalt not reape, neither gather the grapes that thou hast left vnlaboured: for it shall be a yeere of rest vnto the land. ⁶And the rest of the lande shall be meate for you, euen for thee, and for thy seruant, and for thy mayde, and for thy hired seruant, and for the stranger that sojourneth with thee: ⁷And for thy cattell, and for the beastes that are in thy lande shall all the encrease thereof be meate. ⁸Also thou shalt number seuen Sabbaths of yeeres vnto thee, euen seuen times seuen yeere: and the space of the seuen Sabbaths of yeeres will be vnto thee nine and fourtie yeere. ⁹Then thou shalt cause to blow the trumpet of the Iubile in the tenth day of the seuenth moneth: euen in the day of the reconciliation shall ye make the trumpet blowe, throughout all your lande. ¹⁰And ye shall halowe that yeere, euen the fiftieth yeere, and proclaime libertie in the lande to all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be the Iubile vnto you, and ye shall returne euery man vnto his possession, and euery man shall returne vnto his familie. ¹¹This fiftieth yeere shall be a yeere of Iubile vnto you: ye shall not sowe, neither reape that which groweth of it selfe, neither gather the grapes thereof, that are left vnlaboured. ¹²For it is the Iubile, it shall be holy vnto you: ye shall eate of the encrease thereof out of the fiede. ¹³In the yeere of this Iubile, ye shall returne euery man

vnto his possession. ¹⁴And when thou sellest ought to thy neighbour, or byest at thy neighbours hande, ye shall not oppresse one another: ¹⁵But according to the number of yeeres after the Iubile thou shalt bye of thy neighbour: also according to the number of the yeeres of the reuenues, he shall sell vnto thee. ¹⁶According to the multitude of yeeres, thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewnesse of yeeres, thou shalt abate the price of it: for the number of fruites doeth he sell vnto thee. ¹⁷Oppresse not ye therefore any man his neighbour, but thou shalt feare thy God: for I am the Lord your God. ¹⁸Wherefore ye shall obey mine ordinances, and keepe my lawes, and do them, and ye shall dwell in the land in safetie. ¹⁹And the lande shall giue her fruit, and ye shall eate your fill, and dwell therein in safetie. ²⁰And if ye shall say, What shall we eate the seuenth yeere, for we shall not sowe, nor gather in our increase? ²¹I will sende my blessing vpon you in the sixt yeere, and it shall bring foorth fruit for three yeeres. ²²And ye shall sowe the eight yeere, and eate of the olde fruit vntill the ninth yeere: vntill the fruit thereof come, ye shall eate the olde. ²³Also the lande shall not be solde to be cut off from the familie: for the land is mine, and ye be but strangers and sojourners with me. ²⁴Therefore in all the land of your possession ye shall graunt a redemption for the lande. ²⁵If thy brother be impouerished, and sell his possession, then his redeemer shall come, euen his neere kinsman, and bye out that which his brother solde. ²⁶And if he haue no redeemer, but hath gotten and founde to bye it out, ²⁷Then shall he count the yeeres of his sale, and restore the ouerplus to the man, to whome he solde it: so shall he returne to his possession. ²⁸But if he can not get sufficient to restore to him, then that which is solde, shall remaine in the hande of him that hath bought it, vntill the yere of the Iubile: and in the Iubile it shall come out, and he shall returne vnto his possession. ²⁹Likewise if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled citie, he may bye it out againe within a whole yeere after it is solde: within a yeere may he bye it out. ³⁰But if it be not bought out within ye space of a ful yeere, then the house that is in the walled citie, shalbe stablished, as cut off from the familie, to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it shall not goe out in the Iubile. ³¹But the houses of villages, which haue no walles round about them, shalbe esteemed as the felde of the countrey: they may be bought out againe, and shall goe out in the Iubile. ³²Notwithstanding, the cities of the Leuites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Leuites redeeme at all seasons. ³³And if a man purchase of the Leuites, the house that was solde, and the citie of their possession shall goe out in the Iubile: for the houses of the cities of the Leuites are their possession among the children of Israel. ³⁴But the felde of the suburbes of their cities, shall not be solde: for it is their perpetuall possession. ³⁵Moreouer, if thy brother be impouerished, and fallen in decay with thee, thou shalt relieue him, and as a stranger and sojourner, so shall he liue with thee. ³⁶Thou shalt take no vsurie of him, nor vantage, but thou shalt feare thy God, that thy brother may liue with thee. ³⁷Thou shalt not giue him thy money to vsurie, nor lende him thy vitales for increase. ³⁸I am the Lord your God, which haue brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to giue you the lande of Canaan, and to be your God. ³⁹If thy brother also that dwelleth by thee, be impouerished, and be sold vnto thee, thou shalt not compel him to serue as a bond seruant, ⁴⁰But as an hired seruant, and as a sojourner he shalbe with thee: he shall serue thee vnto the yeere of the Iubile. ⁴¹Then shall he depart from thee, both hee, and his children with him, and shall returne vnto his familie, and vnto the possession of his fathers shall he returne: ⁴²For they are my seruants, whom I brought out of the lande of Egypt: they shall not be solde as bondmen are solde. ⁴³Thou shalt not rule ouer him cruelly, but shalt feare thy God.

⁴⁵And moreouer of the children of the stragers, that are sojourners among you, of them shall ye bye, and of their families that are with you, which they begate in your lande: these shall be your possession.

so much, he may bye him selfe out. ⁵⁰Then he shall reckon with his byer from the yeere that he was solde to him, vnto the yere of Iubile: and the money of his sale shalbe according to the number of yeeres: according to the time of an hyred seruant shall he be with him. ⁵¹If there be many yeeres behind, according to them he shall giue againe for his deliuerance, of the money that he was bought for. ⁵²If there remaine but fewe yeeres vnto the yeere of Iubile, then he shall count with him, and according to his yeeres giue againe for his redemption. ⁵³He shalbe with him yeere by yeere as an hired seruant: he shall not rule cruelly ouer him in thy sight. ⁵⁴And if he be not redeemed thus, he shall go out in the yeere of Iubile, he, and his children with him. ⁵⁵For vnto me the children of Israel are seruants: they are my seruants, who I haue brought out of the land of Egypt: I am ye Lord your God.

Ye shall make you none idoles nor grauen image, neither reare

you vp any pillar, neither shall ye set any image of stone in your land to bow downe to it: for I am the Lord your God. ²Ye shall keepe my Sabbaths, and reuerence my Sanctuarie: I am the Lord. ³If ye walke in mine ordinances, and keepe my commandements, and doe them, ⁴I will then sende you raine in due season, and the land shall yelde her increase, and the trees of the field shall giue her fruite. ⁵And your threshing shall reache vnto the vintage, and the vintage shall reache vnto sowing time, and you shall eate your bread in plenteousnesse, and dwell in your land safely. ⁶And I will sende peace in the land, and ye shall sleepe and none shall make you afraid: also I will rid euill beastes out of the lande, and the sworde shall not go through your lande. ⁷Also ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you vpon the sworde. ⁸And fife of you shall chase an hundreth, and an hundreth of you shall put ten thousande to flight, and your enemies shall fall before you vpon the sworde. ⁹For I will haue respect vnto you, and make you encrease, and multiplie you, and establish my couenant with you. ¹⁰Ye shall eate also olde store, and cary out olde because of the newe. ¹¹And I will set my Tabernacle among you, and my soule shall not lothe you. ¹²Also I will walke among you, and I wil be your God, and ye shalbe my people. ¹³I am the Lord your God which haue brought you out of the lande of Egypt, that yee should not be their bondmen, and I haue broken ye bonds of your yoke, and made you goe vpright. ¹⁴But if ye will not obey me, nor do all these commandements, ¹⁵And if ye shall despise mine ordinances, either if your soule abhorre my lawes, so that yee will not do all my commandements, but breake my couenant, ¹⁶Then wil I also do this vnto you, I wil appoint ouer you fearefulnes, a consumption, and the burning ague to consume the eyes, and make the heart heauie, and you shall sowe your seede in vaine: for your enemies shall eate it: ¹⁷And I will set my face against you, and ye shall fal before your enemies, and they

that hate you, shall raigne ouer you, and yee shall flee when none pursueth you. ¹⁸And if ye wil not for these things obey me, then wil I punish you seuen times more, according to your sinnes, ¹⁹And I wil breake the pride of your power, and I will make your heauen as yron, and your earth as brasse: ²⁰And your strength shalbe spent in vaine: neither shall your lande giue her increase, neither shall the trees of the land giue their fruite. ²¹And if ye walke stubburnly against me, and will not obey mee, I will then bring seuen times more plagues vpon you, according to your sinnes. ²²I will also sende wilde beastes vpon you, which shall spoyle you, and destroy your cattell, and make you fewe in number: so your hye waies shalbe desolate. ²³Yet if by these ye will not be reformed by me, but walke stubburnly against me, ²⁴Then wil I also walke stubburnly against you, and I will smite you yet seuen times for your sinnes: ²⁵And I wil send a sword vpon you, that shall auenge the quarel of my couenant: and when ye are gathered in your cities, I wil send the pestilence among you, and ye shall be deliuered into the hand of the enemie. ²⁶When I shall breake the staffe of your bread, then ten women shall bake your breade in one ouen, and they shall deliuer your bread againe by weight, and ye shall eate, but not be satisfied. ²⁷Yet if ye will not for this obey mee, but walke against me stubburnly, ²⁸Then will I walke stubburnly in mine anger against you, and I will also chastice you seuen times more according to your sinnes. ²⁹And ye shall eate ye flesh of your sonnes, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye deuoure. ³⁰I will also destroy your hye places, and cut away your images, and cast your carkeises vpon the bodies of your idoles, and my soule shall abhorre you. ³¹And I will make your cities desolate, and bring your Sanctuarie vnto nought, and will not smell the sauour of your sweete odours. ³²I will also bring the land vnto a wildernes, and your enemies, which dwell therein, shalbe astonished thereat. ³³Also I wil scatter you among the heathen, and will drawe out a sworde after you, and your land shalbe waste, and your cities shalbe desolate. ³⁴Then shall the land inioy her Sabbaths, as long as it lieth voide, and yee shalbe in your enemies land: then shall the land rest, and enioy her Sabbaths. ³⁵All the dayes that it lieth voide, it shall rest, because it did not rest in your Sabbaths, when ye dwelt vpon it. ³⁶And vpon them that are left of you, I will send euen a faintnes into their hearts in ye land of their enemies, and the sounde of a leafeshaken shall chase them, and they shall flee as fleeing from a sword, and they shall fall, no man pursuing them. ³⁷They shall fall also one vpon another, as before a sword, though none pursue them, and ye shall not be able to stand before your enemies: ³⁸And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eate you vp. ³⁹And they that are left of you, shall pine away for their iniquitie, in your enemies landes, and for the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them also. ⁴⁰Then they shall confesse their iniquitie, and the wickednes of their fathers for their trespasses, which they haue trespassed against mee, and also because they haue walked stubbornly against me. ⁴¹Therefore I wil walke stubbornly against them, and bring them into the land of their enemies: so then their vncircumcised hearts shalbe humbled, and then they shalt willingly beare the punishment of their iniquitie. ⁴²Then I will remember my couenant with Iaakob, and my couenant also with Izhak, and also my couenant with Abraham will I remember, and will remember the land. ⁴³The land also in the meane season shalbe left of them, and shall enioy her Sabbaths while she lieth waste without them, but they shall willingly suffer the punishment of their iniquitie, because they despised my lawes, and because their soule abhorred mine ordinances. ⁴⁴Yet notwithstanding this, when they shalbe in the lande of their enemies, I wil not cast them away, neither will I abhorre them, to destroy them vtterly, nor to breake my couenant with them: for I am the Lord their God: ⁴⁵But I will remember for them the couenant of olde when I brought them out of ye land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen that I might be their God: I am the Lord. ⁴⁶These are the ordinances, and the iudgements, and the lawes, which the Lord made betweene him, and the children of Israel in mount Sinai, by the hand of Moses.

¹Moreouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, If any man shall make a vowe of a person vnto the Lord, by thy estimation, ³Then thy estimation shall bee thus: a male from twentie yeere olde vnto sixty yeere olde shalbe by thy estimation euen fifty shekels of siluer, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie. ⁴But if it be a female, then thy valuation shall be thirtie shekels. ⁵And from fiue yeere old to twentie yeere olde thy valuation shall be for the male twentie shekels, and for the female ten shekels. ⁶But from a moneth old vnto fiue yeere old, thy price of the male shall bee fiue shekels of siluer, and thy price of the female, three shekels of siluer. ⁷And from sixty yeere olde and aboue, if he be a male, then thy price shalbe fifteene shekels, and for the female ten shekels. ⁸But if he be poorer then thou hast esteemed him, then shall hee present himselfe before the Priest, and the Priest shall value him, according to the abilitie of him that vowed, so shall the Priest value him. ⁹And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering vnto the Lord, all that one giueth of such vnto the Lord, shalbe holy. ¹⁰He shall not alter it nor change it, a good for a badde, nor a badde for a good: and if hee change beast for beast, then both this and that, which was changed for it, shall be holy. ¹¹And if it be any vncleane beast, of which men do not offer a sacrifice vnto the Lord, hee shall then present the beast before the Priest. ¹²And the Priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: and as thou valuest it, which art the Priest, so shall it

bee. ¹³But if he will bye it againe, then hee shall giue the fift part of it more, aboue thy valuation.

¹⁴Also whe a man shall dedicate his house to be holy vnto the Lord, then the Priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad, and as ye Priest shall prise it, so shall the value be. ¹⁵But if he that sanctified it, will redeeme his house, then hee shall giue thereto the fift part of money more then thy estimation, and it shalbe his. ¹⁶If also a man dedicate to the Lord any ground of his inheritance, then shalt thou esteeme it according to the seede therof: an Homer of barlie seede shalbe at fiftie shekels of siluer. ¹⁷If he dedicate his field immediatly from the yeere of Iubile, it shall bee worth as thou doest esteeme it. ¹⁸But if hee dedicate his fielede after the Iubile, then the Priest shall reckon him the money according to ye yeeres that remaine vnto the yere of Iubile, and it shalbe abated by thy estimation. ¹⁹And if he that dedicateth it, will redeeme the fielede, then he shall put the fift parte of the price, that thou esteemedst it at, thereunto, and it shall remaine his. ²⁰And if he will not redeeme the fielede, but the Priest sell the fielede to another man, it shalbe redeemed no more. ²¹But the field shalbe holy to the Lord, whe it goeth out in the Iubile, as a fielede separate from common vses: the possession thereof shall be the Priests. ²²If a man also dedicate vnto ye Lord a fielede which he hath bought, which is not of the groud of his inheritance, ²³Then the Priest shall set the price to him, as thou esteemest it, vnto the yeere of Iubile, and he shall giue thy price the same day, as a thing holy vnto the Lord. ²⁴But in the yeere of Iubile, the fielede shall returne vnto him, of whome it was bought: to him, I say, whose inheritance the land was. ²⁵And all thy valuation shall bee according to the shekel of the Sanctuarie: a shekel conteyneth twenty gerahs. ²⁶Notwithstanding the first borne of the beastes, because it is the Lordes first borne, none shall dedicate such, be it bullocke, or sheepe; for it is the Lords. ²⁷But if it be an vncleane beast, then he shall redeeme it by thy valuation, and giue the fift part more thereto: and if it be not redeemed, then it shalbe solde, according to thy estimation.

²⁸Notwithstanding, nothing separate from the common vse that a man doeth separate vnto the Lord of all that he hath (whether it bee man or beast, or lande of his inheritance) may be solde nor redeemed: for euery thing separate from the common vse is most holy vnto the Lord.

³⁰Also all the tithe of the lande both of the seede of the ground, and of the fruite of the trees is the Lords: it is holy to the Lord. ³¹But if a man will redeeme any of his tithe, he shall adde the fift part thereto. ³²And euery tithe of bullock, and of sheepe, and of all that goeth vnder the rod, the tenth shalbe holy vnto the Lord.

³³He shall not looke if it be good or bad, neither shall he change it: els if he change it, both it, and that it was changed withall, shalbe holy, and it shall not be redeemed.

¹The Lord spake againe vnto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, in the first day of the second moneth, in the second yere after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, ²Take ye the summe of all the Congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, and housholdes of their fathers with the number of their names: to wit, all the males, man by man: ³From twentie yere olde and aboue, all that go forth to the warre in Israel, thou and Aaron shall number them, throughout their armies. ⁴And with you shalbe men of euery tribe, such as are the heads of the house of their fathers. ⁵And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you, of the tribe of Reuben,

Elizur, the sonne of Shedeur: ⁶Of Simeon, Shelumiel the sonne of Zurishaddai: ⁷Of Iudah, Nahshon the sonne of Amminadab: ⁸Of Issachar, Nethaneel, the sonne of Zuar: ⁹Of Zebulun, Eliab, the sonne of Helon: ¹⁰Of the children of Ioseph: of Ephraim, Elishama the sonne of Ammihud: of Manasseh, Gamliel, the sonne of Pedahzur: ¹¹Of Beiamin, Abida the sonne of Gideoni: ¹²Of Dan, Ahiezer, the sonne of Ammishaddai: ¹³Of Asher, Pagiel, the sonne of Ocran: ¹⁴Of Gad, Eliasaph, the sonne of Deuel: ¹⁵Of Naphtali, Ahira the sonne of Enan. ¹⁶These were famous in the Congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, and heads ouer thousands in Israel. ¹⁷The Moses and Aaron tooke these men which are expressed by their names. ¹⁸And they called all the Congregation together, in the first day of the second moneth, who declared their kindreds by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentie yere olde and aboue, man by man. ¹⁹As the Lord had commanded Moses, so he nombred them in the wilderness of Sinai. ²⁰So were the sonnes of Reuben Israels eldest sonne by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, man by man euey male from twentie yere olde and aboue, as many as went forth to warre: ²¹The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Reuben, was sixe and fourtie thousande, and fiue hundreth. ²²Of the sonnes of Simeon by their generatios, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, the summe therof by the number of their names, man by man, euey male from twentie yeere olde and aboue, all that went forth to warre: ²³The summe of them, I say, of the tribe of Simeon was nine and fiftie thousande, and three hundreth. ²⁴Of the sonnes of Gad by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentie yere olde and aboue, all that went forth to warre: ²⁵The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Gad was fiue and fourtie thousand, and six hundreth and fiftie. ²⁶Of the sonnes of Iudah by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentie yere olde and aboue, all that went forth to warre: ²⁷The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Iudah was three score and fourteene thousande, and six hundreth. ²⁸Of the sonnes of Issachar by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentie yeere olde and aboue, all that went forth to warre: ²⁹The number of them also of the tribe of Issachar was foure and fiftie thousande and foure hundreth. ³⁰Of the sonnes of Zebulun by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentie yeere olde and aboue, all that went forth to warre: ³¹The number of them also of the tribe of Zebulun was seuen and fiftie thousand and foure hundreth. ³²Of the sonnes of Ioseph, namely of the sonnes of Ephraim by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentie yeere olde and aboue, all that went forth to warre: ³³The number of them also of the tribe of Ephraim was fourtie thousande and fiue hundreth. ³⁴Of the sonnes of Manasseh by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentie yeere olde and aboue, all that went forth to warre: ³⁵The number of the also of ye tribe of Manasseh was two and thirtie thousand and two hundreth. ³⁶Of the sonnes of Benjamin by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentie yeere olde and aboue, all that went forth to warre: ³⁷The number of them also of the tribe of Benjamin was fiue and thirtie thousande and foure hundreth. ³⁸Of the sonnes of Dan by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentieth yeere olde and aboue, all that went forth to warre: ³⁹The number of the also of ye tribe of Dan was three score and two thousand and seue hundred. ⁴⁰Of the sonnes of Asher by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentieth yeere olde and aboue, all that went forth to warre: ⁴¹The number of them also of ye tribe of Asher was one and fourtie thousand and fife hundred. ⁴²Of the children of Naphtali, by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twentieth yeere olde and aboue, all that went to the warre: ⁴³The number of them also of the tribe of Naphtali, was three and fiftie thousand, and foure hundred. ⁴⁴These are the summes which Moses, and Aaron nombred, and the Princes of Israel, the twelue men, which were euery one for the house of their fathers. ⁴⁵So this was all the summe of the sonnes of Israel, by the houses of their fathers, from twenty yeere olde and aboue, all that went to the warre in Israel, ⁴⁶And all they were in number sixe hundred and three thousande, fife hundred and fiftie. ⁴⁷But the Leuites, after the tribes of their fathers were not nombred among them. ⁴⁸For the Lord had spoken vnto Moses, and said, ⁴⁹Onely thou shalt not number the tribe of Leui, neither take the summe of them among the children of Israel: ⁵⁰But thou shalt appoynt the Leuites ouer the Tabernacle of the Testimonie, and ouer all the instruments thereof, and ouer all things that belong to it: they shall beare the Tabernacle, and all the instruments thereof, and shall minister in it, and shall dwell round about the Tabernacle. ⁵¹And when the Tabernacle goeth forth, the Leuites shall take it downe: and when the Tabernacle is to be pitched, ye Leuites shall set it vp: for the stranger that commeth neere, shalbe slaine. ⁵²Also the children of Israel shall pitch their tentes, euery man in his campe, and euery man vnder his stander throughout their armies. ⁵³But the Leuites shall pitch rounde about the Tabernacle of the Testimonie, least vengeance come vpon the Congregation of the children of Israel, and the Leuites shall take the charge of the Tabernacle of the Testimonie. ⁵⁴So the children of Israel did according to all that ye Lord had comanded Moses: so did they.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying, ²Euery man of the children of Israel shall campe by his stander, and vnder the ensigne of their fathers house: farre off about the Tabernacle of the Congregation shall they pitch. ³On the East side towarde the rising of the sunne, shall they of the stander of the hoste of Iudah pitch according to their armies: and Nahshon the sonne of Amminadab shalbe captaine of the sonnes of Iudah. ⁴And his hoste and the number of the were seentie and foure thousande and sixe hundreth. ⁵Next vnto him shall they of the tribe of Issachar pitch, and Nethaneel the sonne of Zuar shalbe the captaine of the sonnes of Issachar: ⁶And his hoste, and the number thereof were foure and fiftie thousand, and foure hundreth. ⁷Then the tribe of Zebulun, and Eliab the sonne of Helon, captaine ouer the sonnes of Zebulun: ⁸And his hoste, and the number thereof seuen and fiftie thousand and foure hundreth: ⁹The whole number of the hoste of Iudah are an hundreth fourescore and sixe thousande, and foure hundreth according to their armies: they shall first set foorth. ¹⁰On the South side shalbe ye stander of the host of Reuben according to their armies, and the captaine ouer the sonnes of Reuben shalbe Elizur the sonne of Shedeur. ¹¹And his host, and the number thereof sixe and fourty thousand and fiue hundreth. ¹²And by him shall the tribe of Simeon pitch, and the captaiue ouer the sonnes of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the sonne of Zurishaddai: ¹³And his hoste, and the number of them, nine and fiftie thousand and three hundreth. ¹⁴And the tribe of Gad, and the captaine ouer the sonnes of Gad shall be Eliasaph the sonne of Deuel: ¹⁵And his host and the number of the were fife and fourtye thousande, sixe hundreth and fiftie. ¹⁶All the number of the campe of Reuben were an hundreth and one and fiftie thousande, and foure hundreth and fiftie according to their armies, and they shall set foorth in the seconde place. ¹⁷Then the Tabernacle of the Congregation shall goe with the host of the Leuites, in the mids of the campe as they haue pitched, so shall they goe forwarde, euery man in his order according to their standerds. ¹⁸The standerd of the campe of Ephraim shalbe toward the west according to their armies: and ye captaine ouer the sonnes of Ephraim shall be Elishama the sonne of Ammihud: ¹⁹And his host and the number of the were fortie thousand and fife hundreth. ²⁰And by him shalbe the tribe of Manasseh, and the captaine ouer the sonnes of Manasseh shalbe Gamliel the sonne of Pedahzur: ²¹And his hoste and the number of them were two and thirtie thousand and two hundreth. ²²And the tribe of Benjamin, and ye captaine ouer the sonnes of Benjamin shalbe Abidan the sonne of Gideoni: ²³And his host, and the number of the were fife and thirtie thousand and foure hundreth. ²⁴All the number of the campe of Ephraim were an hundreth and eight thousande and one hundreth according to their armies, and they shall go in the third place. ²⁵The standerd of the host of Dan shalbe toward the North according to their armies: and the captaine ouer the children of Dan shall be Ahiezer the sonne of Ammishaddai: ²⁶And his host and the number of them were two and threescore thousand and seue hundreth. ²⁷And by him shall the tribe of Asher pitch, and the captaine ouer the sonnes of Asher shalbe Pagiel the sonne of Ocran. ²⁸And his host and the number of them were one and fourtie thousand and fife hundreth. ²⁹Then the tribe of Naphtali, and the captaine ouer the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the sonne of Enan: ³⁰And his host and the number of them were three and fiftie thousand and foure hundreth. ³¹All the number of the host of Dan was an hundreth and seuen and fiftie thousand and sixe hundreth: they shall goe hinmost with their standerdes. ³²These are the summes of the childre of Israel by ye houses of their fathers, all the number of ye host, according to their armies, six hundreth and three thousand, fiue hundreth and fiftie. ³³But the Leuites were not nombred among the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ³⁴And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so they pitched according to their standards, and so they iourneyed euery one with his families, according to the houses of their fathers.

¹These also were the generations of Aaron and Moses, in the day that the Lord spake with Moses in mount Sinai. ²So these are the names of the sonnes of Aaron, Nadab the first borne, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ³These are the names of the sonnes of Aaron the anoynted Priests, whom Moses did consecrate to minister in the Priests office. ⁴And Nadab and Abihu died before the Lord, when they offred strange fire before the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai, and had no children: but Eleazar and Ithamar serued in ye Priestes office in the sight of Aaron their father. ⁵Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ⁶Bring the tribe of Leui, and set the before Aaron the Priest that they may serue him, ⁷And take the charge with him, euen the charge of the whole Congregation before the Tabernacle of the Congregation to doe the seruice of the Tabernacle. ⁸They shall also keepe all the instruments of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and haue the charge of the children of Israel to doe the seruice of the Tabernacle. ⁹And thou shalt giue the Leuites vnto Aaron and to his sonnes: for they are giuen him freely from among the children of Israel. ¹⁰And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sonnes to execute their Priestes office: and the stranger that commeth neere, shalbe slayne.

¹¹Also the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹²Beholde, I haue euen taken the Leuites from among the childre of Israel: for al the first borne that openeth the matrice among the children of Israel, and the Leuites shalbe mine, ¹³Because all the first borne are mine: for the same day, that I smote all the first borne in the land of Egypt, I sanctified vnto me all the first borne in Israel, both man and beast: mine they shalbe: I am the Lord.

¹⁴Moreouer, the Lord spake vnto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, ¹⁵Number the children of Leui after the houses of their fathers, in their families: euery male from a moneth olde and aboue shalt thou number. ¹⁶Then Moses nombred them according to the word of the Lord, as he was commanded. ¹⁷And these are the sonnes of Leui by their names, Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. ¹⁸Also these are the names of the sonnes of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei. ¹⁹The sonnes also of Kohath by their families: Amram, and Izehar, Hebron, and Vzziel. ²⁰And the sonnes of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of Leui, according to the houses of their fathers. ²¹Of Gershon came the familie of the Libnites, and the familie of the Shimeites: these are the families of the Gershonites. ²²The summe whereof (after the number of all the males from a moneth olde and aboue) was counted seuen thousand and fiue hundreth. ²³The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the Tabernacle westward. ²⁴The captaine and auncient of the house of the Gershonites shalbe Eliasaph the sonne of Lael. ²⁵And the charge of the sonnes of Gershon in the Tabernacle of the Congregation shall be the Tabernacle, and the paulion, the couering thereof, and the vaile of the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, ²⁶And the hanging of the court, and the vaile of the doore of the court, which is neere the Tabernacle, and neere ye Altar round about, and the cordes of it for all the seruice thereof. ²⁷And of Kohath came the familie of the Amramites, and the familie of the Izecharites, and the familie of the Hebronites, and the familie of the Vzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites. ²⁸The number of all the males from a moneth olde and aboue was eight thousand and sixe hundreth, hauing the charge of the Sanctuarie. ²⁹The families of the sonnes of Kohath shall pitch on the Southside of the Tabernacle. ³⁰The captaine and auncient of the house, and families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the sonne of Vzziel: ³¹And their charge shalbe the Arke, and the Table, and the Candlesticke, and the altars, and the instruments of the Sanctuarie that they minister with, and the vaile, and all that serueth thereto. ³²And Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest shalbe chiefe captaine of the Leuites, hauing the ouersight of them that haue the charge of the Sanctuarie. ³³Of Merari came the familie of the Mahlites, and the familie of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari. ³⁴And the summe of them, according to the number of all the males, from a moneth olde and aboue was sixe thousand and two hundreth. ³⁵The captaine and the ancient of the house of the families of Merari shalbe Zuriel the sonne of Abihail: they shall pitche on the Northside of the Tabernacle. ³⁶And in ye charge and custodie of the sonnes of Merari shall be the boardes of the Tabernacle, and the barres thereof, and his pillars, and his sockets, and al the instruments therof, and al that serueth thereto, ³⁷With the pillars of the court round about, with their sockets, and their pins and their coardes. ³⁸Also on the forefront of the Tabernacle toward the East, before the Tabernacle, I say, of the Congregation Eastwarde shall Moses and Aaron and his sonnes pitch, hauing the charge of the Sanctuarie, and the charge of the children of Israel: but the stranger that commeth neere, shall be slayne. ³⁹The wholesomme of ye Leuites, which Moses and Aaron nombred at the commandement of the Lord throughout their families, euen al the males from a moneth olde and aboue, was two and twentie thousand. ⁴⁰And the Lord said vnto Moses, Number all the first borne that are Males among the children of Israel, from a moneth old and aboue, and take the number of their names. ⁴¹And thou shalt take ye Leuites to me for all the first borne of the children of Israel (I am the Lord) and the cattell of the Leuites for all the first borne of the cattell of the children of Israel. ⁴²And Moses nombred, as the Lord commanded him, all the first borne of the children of Israel. ⁴³And all the first borne males rehearsed by name (from a moneth olde and aboue) according to their number were two and twentie thousand, two hundreth seuentie and three. ⁴⁴And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ⁴⁵Take the Leuites for all the first borne of the children of Israel, and the cattell of the Leuites for their cattel, and the Leuites shalbe mine, (I am the Lord) ⁴⁶And for the redeeming of the two hundreth seuentie and three, (which are moe then the Leuites) of the first borne of the children of of Israel, ⁴⁷Thou shalt also take fiue shekels for euery person: after the weight of the Sanctuarie shalt thou take it: ye shekel conteineth twenty gerahs. ⁴⁸And thou shalt giue the money, wherwith the odde number of them is redeemed, vnto Aaron and to his sonnes. ⁴⁹Thus Moses tooke the redemption of the that were redeemed, being more then the Leuites: ⁵⁰Of the first borne of the children of Israel tooke he the mony: eue a thousand three hundreth three score and fiue shekels after the shekel of the Sanctuarie. ⁵¹And Moses gaue the money of them that were redeemed, vnto Aaron and to his sonnes according to the word of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying, ²Take the summe of the sonnes of Kohath from among the sonnes of Leui, after their families, and houses of their fathers, ³From thirtie yeere olde and aboue, euen vntill fiftie yeere olde, all that enter into the assemblie to do the worke in the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁴This shall be the office of the sonnes of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Congregation about the Holiest of all. ⁵When the hoste remoueth, then Aaron and his sonnes shall come and take downe the couering vaile, and shall couer the Arke of the Testimonie therewith. ⁶And they shall put thereon a couering of badgers skinnnes, and shall spread vpon it a cloth altogether of blewe silke, and put to the barres thereof: ⁷And vpon ye table of shew bread they shall spread a cloth of blewe silke, and put thereon the dishes, and the incense cups, and goblets, and couerings to couer it with, and the bread shall be thereon continually: ⁸And they shall spread vpon them a couering of skarlet, and couer the same with a couering of badgers skinnnes, and put to the barres thereof. ⁹Then they shall take a cloth of blewe silke, and couer the candlesticke of light with his lampes and his snuffers, and his snuffedishes, and al the oyle vessels thereof, which they occupie about it. ¹⁰So they shall put it, and all the instruments thereof in a couering of badgers skinnnes, and put it vpon the barres. ¹¹Also vpon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blewe silke, and couer it with a couering of badgers skinnnes, and put to the barres thereof. ¹²And they shall take all the instruments of the ministerie wherewith they minister in the Sanctuarie, and put them in a cloth of blew silke, and couer the with a couering of badgers skinnnes, and put them on the barres. ¹³Also they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth vpon it, ¹⁴And shall put vpon it all the instruments thereof, which they occupie about it: the censers, the fleshhookes and the besomes, and the basens, euen al the instruments of the altar and they shall spread vpon it a couering of badgers skinnnes, and put to the barres of it. ¹⁵And when Aaron and his sonnes haue made an ende of couering the Sanctuarie, and al the instruments of the Sanctuarie, at the remouing of the host, afterward the sonnes of Kohath shall come to beare it, but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they dye. This is the charge of the sonnes of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ¹⁶And to the office of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest pertaineth the oyle for the light, and the sweete incense and the dayly meat offering, and the anointing oyle, with the ouersight of all the Tabernacle, and of all that therein is, both in the Sanctuarie and in all the instruments thereof. ¹⁷And the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying, ¹⁸Ye shall not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Leuites: ¹⁹But thus do vnto them, that they may liue and not die, when they come neere to the most holy things: let Aaron and his sonnes come and appoynt them, euery one to his office, and to his charge. ²⁰But let them not goe in, to see when the Sanctuarie is folden vp, lest they die. ²¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²²Take also ye summe of the sonnes of Gershon, euery one by the houses of their fathers throughout their families: ²³From thirtie yere old and aboue, vntil fiftie yere old shalt thou number them, al that enter into the assemblie for to do seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ²⁴This shall be the seruice of the families of the Gershonites, to serue and to beare. ²⁵They shall beare the curtaines of the Tabernacle, and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, his couering, and the couering of badgers skinner, that is on hie vpon it, and the vayle of the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: ²⁶The curtaines also of the court, and the vaile of the entring in of the gate of the court, which is neere the Tabernacle and neere the altar round about, with their cordes, and all the instruments for their seruice, and all that is made for them: so shall they serue. ²⁷At the commandement of Aaron and his sonnes shall all the seruice of the sonnes of ye Gershonites bee done, in all their charges and in all their seruice, and ye shall appoynt them to keepe all their charges. ²⁸This is the seruice of the families of the sonnes of the Gershonites in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and their watch shall be vnder the hande of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest. ²⁹Thou shalt number the sonnes of Merari by their families, and by the houses of their fathers: ³⁰From thirty yere olde and aboue, euen vnto fiftie yere olde shalt thou number the, all that enter into the assemblie, to doe the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ³¹And this is their office and charge according to all their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: the boardes of the Tabernacle with the barres thereof, and his pillars, and his sockets, ³²And the pillars rounde about the court, with their sockets and their pinnes, and their cords, with all their instruments, euen for all their seruice: and by name ye shall reckon the instruments of their office and charge. ³³This is the seruice of the families of the sonnes of Merari, according to all their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation vnder the hand of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest. ³⁴Then Moses and Aaron and the princes of the Congregation nombred the sonnes of the Kohathites, by their families and by the houses of their fathers, ³⁵From thirtie yeere olde and aboue, euen vnto fiftie yere olde, all that enter into the assemblie for the seruice of the Tabernacle of ye Congregation. ³⁶So the numbers of the throughout their families were two thousande, seuen hundreth and fiftie. ³⁷These are the numbers of the families of the Kohathites, al that serue in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandement of the Lord by the hand of Moses. ³⁸Also the numbers of the sonnes of Gershon throughout their families and houses of their fathers, ³⁹From thirtie yere olde and vpwarde, euen vnto fiftie yere olde: all that enter into the assemblie for the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Cogregation. ⁴⁰So the numbers of them by their families, and by the houses of their fathers were two thousand sixe hundreth and thirtie. ⁴¹These are the numbers of the families of the sonnes of Gershon: of all that did seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandement of the Lord. ⁴²The numbers also of the families of the sonnes of Merari by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, ⁴³From thirtie yeere olde and vpwarde, euen vnto fiftie yeere olde: all that enter into the assemblie for the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁴⁴So the numbers of them by their families were three thousand, and two hundreth. ⁴⁵These are the summes of ye families of the sonnes of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron nombred according to the commandement of the Lord, by the hand of Moses. ⁴⁶So all the numbers of the Levites, which Moses, and Aaron, and the princes of Israel nombred by their families and by the houses of their fathers, ⁴⁷From thirtie yere olde and vpward, euen to fiftie yeere olde, euery one that came to doe his duetie, office, seruice and charge in the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁴⁸So the numbers of them were eight thousand, fiue hundreth and foure score. ⁴⁹According to the commandement of the Lord by the hand of Moses did Aaron number them, euery one according to his seruice, and according to his charge. Thus were they of that tribe nombred, as the Lord commanded Moses.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Commaund the children of Israel that they put out of the hoste euery leper, and euery one that hath an issue, and whosoeuer is defiled by the dead. ³Both male and female shall ye put out: out of the hoste shall yee put them, that they defile not their tentes among whome I dwell. ⁴And the children of Israel did so, and put them out of the host, euen as the Lord had commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel. ⁵And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ⁶Speake vnto the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit any sinne that men commit, and transgresse against the Lord, when that person shall trespasse, ⁷Then they shall confesse their sinne which they haue done, and shall restore the damage thereof with his principall, and put the fift part of it more thereto, and shall giue it vnto him, against whom he hath trespassed. ⁸But if the man haue no kinseman, to whom he shoulde restore the damage, the damage shall be restored to the Lord for the Priests vse besides the ramme of the atonement, whereby hee shall make atonement for him. ⁹And euery offering of all the holy thinges of the children of Israel, which they bring vnto the Priest, shalbe his. ¹⁰And euery mans halowed things shall bee his: that is, whatsoeuer any man giueth the Priest, it shalbe his. ¹¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹²Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, If any mans wife turne to euill, and commit a trespasse against him, ¹³So that an other man lie with her fleshly, and it bee hid from the eyes of her husband, and kept close, and yet she be defiled, and there be no witnesse against her, neither she taken with the maner, ¹⁴If he be moued with a ielous minde, so that he is ielous ouer his wife, which is defiled, or if he haue a ielous minde, so that he is ielous ouer his wife, which is not defiled, ¹⁵Then shall the man bring his wife to the Priest, and bring her offering with her, the tenth part of an Ephah of barley meale, but he shall not powre oyle vpon it, nor put incense thereon: for it is an offering of ielousie, an offering for a remembrance, calling the sinne to minde: ¹⁶And the Priest shall bring her, and set her before the Lord. ¹⁷Then the Priest shall take the holy water in an earthen vessel, and of the dust that is in the floore of the Tabernacle, euen the Priest shall take it and put it into the water. ¹⁸After, the Priest shall set the woman before the Lord, and vncouer the womans head, and put the offering of the memorial in her hands: it is the ielousie offering, and the Priest shall haue bitter and cursed water in his hand, ¹⁹And the Priest shall charge her by an othe, and say vnto the woman, If no man haue lien with thee, neither thou hast turned to vncleannesse from thine husband, be free from this bitter and cursed water. ²⁰But if thou hast turned from thine husband, and so art defiled, and some man hath lyen with thee beside thine husband, ²¹(Then the Priest shall charge the woman with an othe of cursing, and the Priest shall say vnto the woman) The Lord make thee to be accursed, and detestable for the othe among thy people, and the Lord cause thy thigh to rot, and thy belly to swell: ²²And that this cursed water may goe into thy bowels, to cause thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. Then the woman shall answere, Amen, Amen. ²³After, the Priest shall write these curses in a booke, and shall blot them out with the bitter water, ²⁴And shall cause the woman to drinke ye bitter and cursed water, and the cursed water, turned into bitterness, shall enter into her. ²⁵Then the Priest shall take the ielousie offering out of the womans hand, and shall shake the offering before the Lord, and offer it vpon ye altar. ²⁶And the Priest shall take an handfull of the offering for a memorial thereof, and burne it vpon the altar, and afterwarde make the woman drinke the water. ²⁷When yee haue made her drinke the water, (if she bee defiled and haue trespassed against her husband) then shall the cursed water, turned into bitterness, enter into her, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot, and the woman shall be accursed among her people. ²⁸But if the woman bee not defiled, but bee cleane, she shalbe free and shall conceiue and beare. ²⁹This is the law of ielousie, when a wife turneth from her husband and is defiled, ³⁰Or when a man is moued with a ielous minde being ielous ouer his wife then shall he bring the woman before the Lord, and the Priest shall do to her according to al this lawe, ³¹And the man shalbe free from sinne, but this woman shall beare her iniquitie.

them, When a man or a woman doeth separate themselues to vowe a vowe of a Nazarite to separate himselfe vnto the Lord, ³He shall abstaine from wine and strong drinke, and shall drinke no sowre wine nor sowre drinke, nor shall drinke any licour of grapes, neither shall eate fresh grapes nor dried. ⁴As long as his abstinence endureth, shall hee eat nothing that is made of the wine of the vine, neither the kernels, nor the huske. ⁵While hee is separate by his vowe, the razor shall not come vpon his head, vntill the dayes be out, in the which he separateth him selfe vnto the Lord, he shalbe holy, and shall let the lockes of the heare of his head growe. ⁶During the time that he separateth himselfe vnto the Lord, he shall come at no dead body: ⁷Hee shall not make himselfe vncleane at the death of his father, or mother, brother, or sister: for the consecration of his God is vpon his head. ⁸All the dayes of his separation he shalbe holy to the Lord. ⁹And if any dye suddenly by him, or hee beware, then the head of his consecration shall be defiled, and he shall shaue his head in the day of his clensing: in the seuenth day he shall shaue it. ¹⁰And in the eight day hee shall bring two turtles, or two yong pigeons to the Priest, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ¹¹Then the Priest shall prepare the one for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and shall make an atonement for him, because he sinned by the dead: so shall he halowe his head the same day, ¹²And he shall consecrate vnto the Lord the dayes of his separation, and shall bring a lambe of a yeere olde for a trespasse offering, and the first dayes shalbe voide: for his consecration was defiled. ¹³This then is the lawe of the Nazarite: When the time of his consecration is out, he shall come to the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, ¹⁴And hee shall bring his offering vnto the Lord, an hee lambe of a yeere olde without blemish for a burnt offering, and a shee lambe of a yere olde without blemish for a sinne offring, and a ramme without blemish for peace offrings, ¹⁵And a basket of vnleauened bread, of cakes of fine floure, mingled with oyle, and wafers of vnleauened bread anointed with oile, with their meate offering, and their drinke offrings: ¹⁶The which the Priest shall bring before the Lord, and make his sinne offering and his burnt offering. ¹⁷He shall prepare also the ram for a peace offering vnto the Lord, with the basket of vnleauened bread, and the Priest shall make his meate offering, and his drinke offering. ¹⁸And the Nazarite shall shaue the head of his consecration at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall take the heare of the head of his consecration, and put it in the fire, which is vnder the peace offering. ¹⁹Then the Priest shall take ye sodden shoulder of the ramme, and an vnleauened cake out of the basket, and a wafer vnleauened, and put them vpon the hands of the Nazarite, after he hath shauen his consecration. ²⁰And the Priest shall shake them to and from before the Lord: this is an holy thing for the Priest besides the shaken breast, and besides the heaue shoulder: so afterwarde the Nazarite may drinke wine. ²¹This is the Lawe of the Nazarite, which he hath vowed, and of his offering vnto the Lord for his consecration, besides that that hee is able to bring: according to the vowe which he vowed, so shall he do after the lawe of his consecration. ²²And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²³Speake vnto Aaron and to his sonnes, saying, Thus shall ye blesse the childre of Israel, and say vnto them, ²⁴The Lord blesse thee, and keepe thee, ²⁵The Lord make his face shine vpon thee, and be merciful vnto thee, ²⁶The Lord lift vp his countenance vpon thee, and giue thee peace. ²⁷So they shall put my Name vpon the children of Israel, and I wil blesse them.

¹Nowe when Moses had finished the setting vp of the Tabernacle, and anointed it and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, and the altar with al the instruments thereof, and had

anoynted them and sanctified them, ²Then the princes of Israel, heads ouer the houses of their fathers (they were the princes of the tribes, who were ouer them that were nombred) offred, ³And brought their offering before the Lord, sixe couered charets, and twelue oxen: one charet for two princes, and for euery one an ox, and they offred them before the Tabernacle. ⁴And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ⁵Take these of them, that they may be to doe the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and thou shalt giue them vnto the Leuites, to euery man according vnto his office. ⁶So Moses tooke the charets and the oxen, and gaue them vnto the Leuites: ⁷Two charets and foure oxen hee gaue to the sonnes of Gershon, according vnto their office. ⁸And foure charets and eight oxen hee gaue to the sonnes of Merari according vnto their office, vnder the hand of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest. ⁹But to the sonnes of Kohath he gaue none, because the charge of the Sanctuarie belonged to them, which they did beare vpon their shoulders. ¹⁰The princes also offered in the dedication for the altar in the day that it was anoynted: then the princes offered their offering before the altar. ¹¹And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, One prince one day, and an other prince an other day shall offer their offering, for the dedication of the altar. ¹²So then on the first day did Nahshon the sonne of Amminadab of ye tribe of Iudah offer his offering. ¹³And his offering was a siluer charger of an hundreth and thirtie shekels weight, a siluer boule of seenty shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie, both ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle, for a meate offering, ¹⁴An incense cup of gold of tenne shekels, ful of incense, ¹⁵A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yeere olde for a burnt offering, ¹⁶An hee goate for a sinne offering, ¹⁷And for peace offerings, two bullockes, fiae rams, fiae hee goates, and fiae lambes of a yeere olde: this was the offering of Nahshon the sonne of Amminadab. ¹⁸The second day Nethaneel, the sonne of Zuar, ⁷⁶An hee goate for a sinne offering,

⁷⁷And for a peace offering, two bullockes, fiue rams, fiue hee goates, fiue lambes of a yeere olde: this was the offering of Pagiel the sonne of Ocran. ⁷⁸The twelfth day Ahira the sonne of Enan, prince of the children of Naphtali offred, ⁷⁹His offering was a siluer charger of an hundreth and thirtie shekels weight, a siluer boule of

seuentie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie, both full of fine floure, mingled with oyle, for a meate offering, ⁸⁰A golden incense cup of ten shekels, ful of incense, ⁸¹A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde for a burnt offering, ⁸²An hee goate for a sinne offering, ⁸³And for peace offerings, two bullockes, fiue rammes, fiue hee goates, fiue lambes of a yeere olde: this was the offering of Ahira the sonne of Enan. ⁸⁴This was the dedication of the Altar by the princes of Israel, whe it was anointed: twelue chargers of siluer, twelue siluer boules, twelue incense cuppes of golde, ⁸⁵Euery charger, conteining an hundreth and thirtie shekels of siluer, and euery boule seuentie: all the siluer vessell contained two thousande and foure hundreth shekels, after the shekell of the Sanctuarie. ⁸⁶Twelue incense cups of gold ful of incense, conteining ten shekels euery cup, after the shekell of the Sanctuarie: all the gold of the incense cups was an hundreth and twentie shekels. ⁸⁷All the bullockes for the burnt offering were twelue bullocks, the rams twelue, the lambs of a yeere olde twelue, with their meate offerings, and twelue hee goates for a sinne offering. ⁸⁸And all the bullocks for the peace offerings were foure and twentie bullockes, the rammes sixtie, the hee goates sixtie, the lambes of a yeere olde sixtie: this was the dedication of the Altar, after that it was anointed. ⁸⁹And when Moses went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to speake with God, he heard the voyce of one speaking vnto him from the Merciseat, that was vpon the Arke of the Testimonie betweene the two Cherubims, and he spake to him.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake vnto Aaron, and say vnto him, When thou lightest the lampes, the seuen lampes shall giue light towarde the forefront of the Candlesticke. ³And Aaron did so, lighting the lampes thereof towarde ye forefront of the Candlesticke, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ⁴And this was the worke of the Candlesticke, euen of golde beaten out with the hammer, both the shafte, and the flowres thereof was beaten out with the hammer: according to the paterne, which the Lord had shewed Moses, so made he the Candlesticke. ⁵And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ⁶Take the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and purifie them. ⁷And thus shalt thou doe vnto them, when thou purifiest them, Sprinkle water of purification vpon them, and let them shaue all their flesh, and wash their clothes: so they shalbe cleane. ⁸Then they shall take a yong bullocke with his meate offering of fine floure, mingled with oyle, and another yong bullocke shalt thou take for a sinne offering. ⁹Then thou shalt bring the Leuites before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and asseble all the Congregation of the children of Israel. ¹⁰Thou shalt bring the Leuites also before the Lord, and the children of Israel shall put their handes vpon the Leuites. ¹¹And Aaron shall offer the Leuites before the Lord, as a shake offering of ye childe of Israel, that they may execute the

seruice of the Lord. ¹²And the Leuites shall put their handes vpon the heades of the bullockes, and make thou the one a sinne offering, and the other a burnt offering vnto the Lord, that thou mayest make an atonement for the Leuites. ¹³And thou shalt set the Leuites before Aaron and before his sonnes, and offer the as a shake offering to the Lord. ¹⁴Thus thou shalt separate the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and the Leuites shall be mine. ¹⁵And afterwarde shall the Leuites goe in, to serue in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and thou shalt purifie them and offer them, as a shake offering. ¹⁶For they are freely giuen vnto me from among the children of Israel, for such as open any wombe: for all the first borne of the children of Israel haue I taken them vnto me. ¹⁷For all the first borne of the children of Israel are mine, both of man and of beast: since the day that I smote euery first borne in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for my selfe. ¹⁸And I haue taken the Leuites for all the first borne of the children of Israel, ¹⁹And haue giuen the Leuites as a gift vnto Aaron, and to his sonnes from among the children of Israel, to do the seruice of the children of Israel in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel, that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come neere vnto the Sanctuarie. ²⁰Then Moses and Aaron and all the Cogregation of the children of Israel did with the Leuites, according vnto all that the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Leuites: so did the children of Israel vnto them. ²¹So the Leuites were purified, and washed their clothes, and Aaron offred them as a shake offering before the Lord, and Aaron made an atonement for them, to purifie them. ²²And after that, went the Leuites in to doe their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before Aaron and before his sonnes: as the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Leuites, so they did vnto them. ²³And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²⁴This also belongeth to the Leuites: from fife and twentie yeere olde and vpwarde, they shall goe in, to execute their office in the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ²⁵And after the age of fiftie yeere, they shall cease from executing the office, and shall serue no more: ²⁶But they shall minister with their brethre in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to keepe things committed to their charge, but they shall doe no seruice: thus shalt thou doe vnto the Leuites touching their charges.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses in the wildernes of Sinai, in the first moneth of the second yeere, after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, ²The children of Israel shall also celebrate the Passeouer at ye time appointed thereunto. ³In the fourteenth day of this moneth at euen, ye shall keepe it in his due season: according to all the ordinances of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof shall ye keepe it. ⁴Then Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, to celebrate the Passeouer. ⁵And they kept the Passeouer in the fouretenth day of the first moneth at euen in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the Lord had comanded Moses, so did ye children of Israel. ⁶And certaine men were defiled by a dead man, that they might not keepe the Passeouer the same day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron the same day. ⁷And those men said vnto him, We are defiled by a dead man: wherefore are wee kept backe that we may not offer an offering vnto the Lord in the time thereunto appointed among the children of Israel? ⁸Then Moses saide vnto them, Stande still, and I will heare what the Lord will commande concerning you. ⁹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹⁰Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, If any amog you, or of your posteritie shalbe vncleane by ye reason of a corps, or be in a log iourney, he shall keepe the Passeouer vnto ye Lord. ¹¹In the fourteenth day of the second moneth at euen they shall keepe it: with vnleauened bread and sowre herbes shall they eat it. ¹²They shall leaue none of it vnto the morning, nor breake any bone of it: according to all the ordinance of the Passeouer shall they keepe it. ¹³But the man that is cleane and is not in a iourney, and is negligent to keepe the Passeouer, the same person shalbe cut off from his people: because he brought not the offering of the Lord in his due season, that man shall beare his sinne. ¹⁴And if a stranger dwell among you, and wil keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord, as the ordinance of the Passeouer, and as the maner thereof is, so shall he do: ye shall haue one lawe both for the stranger, and for him that was borne in the same lande. ¹⁵And when the Tabernacle was reared vp, a cloude couered the Tabernacle, namely the Tabernacle of the Testimonie: and at euen there was vpon the Tabernacle, as the appearance of fire vntill the morning. ¹⁶So it was alway: the cloude couered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night. ¹⁷And when the cloude was taken vp from the Tabernacle, then afterwarde the children of Israel iourneyed: and in the place where the cloude abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents. ¹⁸At the commandement of the Lord the children of Israel iourneyed, and at the comandement of the Lord they pitched: as long as the cloude abode vpon the Tabernacle, they lay still. ¹⁹And when the cloude taryed stil vpon the Tabernacle a long time, the childre of Israel kept the watch of the Lord, and iourneyed not. ²⁰So when the cloud abode a few dayes vpon the Tabernacle, they abode in their tents according to the comandement of ye Lord: for they iourneyed at the commandement of the Lord. ²¹And though the cloud abode vpon the Tabernacle from euen vnto the morning, yet if the cloude was taken vp in the morning, then they iourneyed: whether by daye or by night the cloude was taken vp, then they iourneyed. ²²Or if the cloude taryed two dayes or a moneth, or a yeere vpon the Tabernacle, abiding thereon, the children of Israel abode still, and iourneyed not: but when it was taken vp, they iourneyed. ²³At the commandement of the Lord they pitched, and at the commandement of the Lord they iourneyed, keeping the watch of the Lord at the commandement of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Make thee two trumpets of siluer: of an whole piece shalt thou make the, that thou mayest vse them for the assembling of the Congregation, and for the departure of the campe. ³And when they shall blowe with them, all the Congregation shall assemble to thee before the doore of the Tabernacle of the Cogregation. ⁴But if they blowe with one, then the princes, or heades ouer the thousandes of Israel shall come vnto thee. ⁵But if ye blow an alarme, then the campe of the that pitch on the East part, shall go forward. ⁶If ye blowe an alarme the second time, then the hoste of them that lie on the Southside shall march: for they shall blowe an alarme when they remoue. ⁷But in assembling the Congregation, ye shall blowe without an alarme. ⁸And the sonnes of Aaron the Priest shall blowe the trumpets, and ye shall haue them as a lawe for euer in your generations. ⁹And when ye goe to warre in your lande against the enemye that vexeth you, ye shall blowe an alarme with the trumpets, and ye shall bee remembred before the Lord your God, and shalbe sau'd from your enemies. ¹⁰Also in the day of your gladnesse, and in your feast dayes, and in the beginning of your moneths, ye shall also blow the trumpets ouer your burnt sacrifices, and ouer your peace offrings, that they may be a remembrance for you before your God: I am the Lord your God. ¹¹And in the seconde yeere, in the seconde moneth, and in the twentieth day of the moneth the cloude was taken vp from the Tabernacle of the Testimonie. ¹²And ye children of Israel departed on their iourneys out of the desart of Sinai, and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran. ¹³So they first tooke their iourney at the comandement of the Lord, by ye hand of Moses. ¹⁴In the first place went the standerd of the hoste of the children of Iudah, according to their armies: and Nahshon the sonne of Amminabad was ouer his band. ¹⁵And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel ye sonne of Zuar. ¹⁶And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the sonne of Helon. ¹⁷When the Tabernacle was taken downe, then the sonnes of Gershon, and the sonnes of Merari went forward bearing the Tabernacle. ¹⁸After, departed the standerd of the hoste of Reuben, according to their armies, and ouer his band was Elizur the sonne of Shedeur. ¹⁹And ouer the band of the tribe of ye children of Simeon was Shelumiel the sonne of Shurishaddai. ²⁰And ouer the bande of the tribe of ye children of Gad was Eliasaph the sonne of Deuel. ²¹The Kohathites also went forward and bare the Sanctuarie, and the former did set vp the Tabernacle against they came. ²²Then the standerd of the hoste of the children of Ephraim went forward according to their armies, and ouer his bande was Elishama the sonne of Ammiud.

²³And ouer the band of the tribe of ye sonnes of Manasseh was Gamliel the sonne of Pedazur.
²⁴And ouer the band of ye tribe of the sonnes of Benjamin was Abidan the sonne of Gideoni.
²⁵Last, the standerd of the hoste of the children of Dan marched, gathering all ye hostes according to their armies: and ouer his bande was Ahiezer the sonne of Ammishaddai.
²⁶And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the sonne of Ocran.
²⁷And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira ye sonne of Enan.
²⁸These were the remouings of the children of Israel according to their armies, whe they marched.
²⁹After, Moses said vnto Hobab ye sonne of Reuel the Midianite, ye father in law of Moses, We go into the place, of which ye Lord said, I will giue it you: Come thou with vs, and we wil doe thee good: for ye Lord hath promised good vnto Israel.
³⁰And he answered him, I will not goe: but I will depart to mine owne countrey, and to my kindred.

³¹Then he sayd, I pray thee, leaue vs not: for thou knowest our camping places in the wilderness: therefore thou mayest be our guide.
³²And if thou go with vs, what goodnes the Lord shall shew vnto vs, the same will we shewe vnto thee.
³³So they departed from the mount of the Lord, three dayes iourney: and the Arke of the couenant of the Lord went before them in the three dayes iourney, to searche out a resting place for them.
³⁴And the cloude of the Lord was vpon the by day, when they went out of the campe.
³⁵And when the Arke went forward, Moses saide, Rise vp, Lord, and let thine enemies bee scattered, and let them that hate thee, flee before thee.
³⁶And when it rested, hee sayde, Returne, O Lord, to the many thousands of Israel.

¹When the people became murmurers, it displeased the Lord: and the Lord heard it, therefore his wrath was kindled, and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and consumed the vtmost parte of the hoste. ²Then the people cryed vnto Moses: and when Moses praied vnto the Lord, the fire was quenched. ³And he called the name of that place Taberah, because the fire of the Lord burnt among them. ⁴And a number of people that was amog them, fell a lusting, and turned away, and the children of Israel also wept, and saide, Who shall giue vs flesh to eate? ⁵We remember the fish which we did eat in Egypt for nought, the cucumbers, and the pepons, and the leekes, and the onions, and the garleke. ⁶But now our soule is dried away, we can see nothing but this Man. ⁷(The Man also was as coriander seede, and his colour like the colour of bdelium. ⁸The people went about and gathered it, and ground it in milles, or beat it in morters, and baked it in a cauldron, and made cakes of it, and the taste of it was like vnto the taste of fresh oyle. ⁹And when the dewe fell downe vpon the hoste in the night, the Man fell with it) ¹⁰Then Moses heard the people weepe throughout their families, euery man in the doore of his tent, and the wrath of the Lord was grieuously kindled: also Moses was grieved. ¹¹And Moses saide vnto the Lord, Wherefore hast thou vexed thy seruant? and why haue I not found fauour in thy sight, seeing thou hast put the charge of al this people vpon mee? ¹²Haue I conceiued al this people? or haue I begotte them, that thou shouldest say vnto me, Cary them in thy bosome (as a nurse beareth the sucking childe) vnto the lande, for the which thou swarest vnto their fathers? ¹³Where should I haue flesh to giue vnto al this people? for they weepe vnto me, saying, Giue vs flesh that we may eate. ¹⁴I am not able to beare al this people alone, for it is too heauie for me. ¹⁵Therefore if thou deale thus with mee, I pray thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, kill me, that I behold not my miserie. ¹⁶Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Gather vnto me seuetie men of ye Elders of Israel, whome thou knowest, that they are the Elders of the people, and gouernours ouer them, and bring them vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and let them stand there with thee, ¹⁷And I will come downe, and talke with thee there, and take of the Spirite, which is vpon thee, and put vpon them, and they shall beare the burthen of the people with thee: so thou shalt not beare it alone. ¹⁸Furthermore thou shalt saye vnto the people, Bee sanctified against to morowe, and yee shall eate flesh: for you haue wept in the eares of the Lord, saying, Who shall giue vs flesh to eate? for we were better in Egypt: therefore the Lord will giue you flesh, and ye shall eate. ¹⁹Ye shall not eat one day nor two daies, nor fiue daies, neither ten daies, nor twentie dayes, ²⁰But a whole moneth, vtill it come out at your nostrels, and bee lothesome vnto you, because ye haue contemned the Lord, which is among you, and haue wept before him, saying, Why came we hither out of Egypt? ²¹And Moses saide, Six hundreth thousande footemen are there of the people, among whom I am: and thou saiest, I will giue them flesh, that they may

eate a moneth long. ²²Shall the sheepe and the beeues be slaine for them, to finde them? either shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them to suffice them? ²³And the Lord saide vnto Moses, Is the Lordes hand shortened? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to passe vnto thee, or no. ²⁴So Moses went out, and told the people the wordes of the Lord, and gathered seuentie men of the Elders of the people, and set them round about the Tabernacle. ²⁵Then the Lord came downe in a cloude, and spake vnto him, and tooke of the Spirit that was vpon him, and put it vpon the seuentie Ancient men: and when the Spirit rested vpon them, then they prophecied, and did not cease. ²⁶But there remained two of the men in the hoste: the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad, and the Spirit rested vpon them, (for they were of them that were written, and went not out vnto the Tabernacle) and they prophecied in the hoste. ²⁷Then there ranne a yong man, and tolde Moses, and saide, Eldad and Medad doe prophesie in the hoste. ²⁸And Ioshua the sonne of Nun the seruant of Moses one of his yong men answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them. ²⁹But Moses saide vnto him, Enuiest thou for my sake? yea, would God that all the Lordes people were Prophets, and that the Lord woulde put his Spirit vpon them. ³⁰And Moses returned into the hoste, he and the Elders of Israel. ³¹Then there went foorth a winde from the Lord, and brought quailles from the Sea, and let them fall vpon the campe, a dayes iourney on this side, and a dayes iourney on the other side, round about the hoste, and they were about two cubites aboue the earth. ³²Then the people arose, al that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and gathered the quailles: he that gathered the least, gathered ten Homers full, and they spred them abroad for their vse round about the hoste. ³³While the flesh was yet betweene their teeth, before it was chewed, euen the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the people, and the Lord smote the people with an exceeding great plague. ³⁴So the name of the place was called, Kibroth-hattaauah: for there they buried the people that fell a lusting. ³⁵From Kibroth-hattaauah ye people tooke their iourney to Hazeroth, and abode at Hazeroth.

¹Afterward Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses, because of the woman of Ethiopia whome hee had married (for hee had married a woman of Ethiopia) ²And they saide, What? hath the Lord spoken but onely by Moses? hath he not spoken also by vs? and the Lord heard this. ³(But Moses was a verie meeke man, aboue all the men that were vpon the earth) ⁴And by and by the Lord sayd vnto Moses, and vnto Aaron, and vnto Miriam, come out yee three vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and they three came forth. ⁵Then the Lord came downe in the pillar of the cloude, and stode in the doore of the Tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam, and they both came forth. ⁶And hee saide, Heare now my wordes, If there be a Prophet of the Lord among you, I will be knowen to him by a vision, and will speake vnto him by dreame. ⁷My seruant Moses is not so, who is faithfull in all mine house. ⁸Vnto him will I speake mouth to mouth, and by vision, and not in darke wordes, but hee shall see the similitude of the Lord. Wherefore then were ye not afraid to speake against my seruant, euen against Moses? ⁹Thus the Lord was very angrie with them, and departed. ¹⁰Also the cloude departed from the Tabernacle: and beholde, Miriam was leprous like snowe: and Aaron looked vpon Miriam, and beholde, she was leprous. ¹¹Then Aaron saide vnto Moses, Alas, my Lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sinne vpon vs, which we haue foolishly committed and wherein we haue sinned. ¹²Let her not, I pray thee, be as one dead, of whome the flesh is halfe consumed, when he commeth out of his mothers wombe. ¹³Then Moses cryed vnto the Lord, saying, O God, I beseech thee, heale her now. ¹⁴And the Lord said vnto Moses, If her father had spit in her face, shoulde she not haue bene ashamed seuen dayes? let her be shut out of the hoste seuen dayes, and after she shall bee receiued. ¹⁵So Miriam was shut out of the hoste seuen dayes, and the people remooued not, till Miriam was brought in againe. ¹⁶And afterward the people journeyed from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

¹Then afterwarde the people remooued from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran. ²And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ³Send thou men out to search the lande of Canaan which I giue vnto the children of Israel: of euery tribe of their fathers shall ye sende a man, such as are all rulers among them. ⁴Then Moses sent them out of the wilderness of Paran at the commandement of the Lord: all those men were heades of the children of Israel. ⁵Also their names are these: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the sonne of Zaccur: ⁶Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the sonne of Hori: ⁷Of the tribe of Iudah, Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh: ⁸Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the sonne of Ioseph: ⁹Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the sone of Nun: ¹⁰Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the sonne of Raphu: ¹¹Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the sone of Sodi: ¹²Of the tribe of Ioseph, to wit, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the sonne of Susi: ¹³Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the sonne of Gemalli: ¹⁴Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the sonne of Michael: ¹⁵Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the sonne of Vophsi: ¹⁶Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the sonne of Machi. ¹⁷These are the names of the men, which Moses sent to spie out the land: and Moses called ye name of Oshea the sonne of Nun, Iehoshua. ¹⁸So Moses sent them to spie out the lande of Canaan, and said vnto them, Go vp this way toward the South, and go vp into the moutaines, ¹⁹And consider the land what it is, and the people that dwel therein, whether they be strong or weake, either fewe or many, ²⁰Also what the lande is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad: and what cities they be, that they dwell in, whether they dwell in tents, or in walled townes: ²¹And what the land is: whether it be fat or leane, whether there be trees therein, or not. And be of good courage, and bring of the fruite of the lande (for then was the time of the first ripe grapes) ²²So they went vp, and searched out the lande, from the wilderness of Zin vnto Rehob, to go to Hamath, ²³And they ascended toward the South, and came vnto Hebron, where were Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmi, the sonnes of Anak. And Hebron was built seuen yeere before Zoan in Egypt. ²⁴Then they came to the riuier of Eshcol, and cut downe thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it vpon a barre betweene two, and brought of the pomegranates and of the figges. ²⁵That place was called the riuier Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes, which the children of Israel cut downe thence. ²⁶Then after fourtie dayes, they turned againe from searching of the land. ²⁷And they went and came to

Moses and to Aaron and vnto al the Congregation of the children of Israel, in the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh, and brought to the, and to all the Congregation tydings, and shewed them the fruite of the lande. ²⁸And they tolde him, and saide, We came vnto the land whither thou hast sent vs, and surely it floweth with milke and honie: and here is of the fruite of it. ²⁹Neuerthesse the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled and exceeding great: and moreouer, we sawe the sonnes of Anak there. ³⁰The Amalekites dwell in the South countrey, and the Hittites, and the Iebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountaines, and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Iorden. ³¹Then Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and saide, Let vs go vp at once, and possesse it: for vndoubtedly we shall ouercome it. ³²But the men, that went vp with him, saide, we be not able to goe vp against the people: for they are stronger then we. ³³So they brought vp an euill report of the land which they had searched for the children of Israel, saying, The lande which we haue gone through to search it out, is a land that eateth vp the inhabitants thereof: for all the people that we sawe in it, are men of great stature. And there we saw the Nephilim, the sons of Anak, which come of the Nephilim: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

¹Then all ye Congregation lifted vp their voice, and cryed: and the people wept that night, ²And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron: and the whole assemblie said vnto them, Would God we had died in the land of Egypt, or in this wilderness: would God we were dead. ³Wherefore now hath the Lord brought vs into this lande to fall vpon the sworde? our wiues, and our children shall be a pray: were it not better for vs to returne into Egypt? ⁴And they said one to another, Let vs make a Captaine and returne into Egypt. ⁵Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assemblie of the Congregation of the children of Israel. ⁶And Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh two of them that searched the lande, rent their clothes, ⁷And spake vnto all the assemblie of the childe of Israel, saying, The land which we walked through to search it, is a very good lande. ⁸If the Lord loue vs, he will bring vs into this land, and giue it vs, which is a land that floweth with milke and honie. ⁹But rebell not ye against the Lord, neither feare ye the people of the land: for they are but bread for vs: their shielde is departed from the, and the Lord is with vs, feare them not. ¹⁰And all the multitude saide, Stone them with stones: but the glory of the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before all the children of Israel. ¹¹And the Lord said vnto Moses, How long will this people prouoke me, and howe long will it be, yer they belecue me, for al the signes which I haue shewed among them? ¹²I will smite them with the pestilence and destroy them, and will make thee a greater nation and mightier then they. ¹³But

Moses saide vnto the Lord, When the Egyptians shall heare it, (for thou broughtest this people by thy power from among them) ¹⁴Then they shall say to the inhabitants of this land, (for they haue heard that thou, Lord, art among this people, and that thou, Lord, art seene face to face, and that thy cloude standeth ouer them, and that thou goest before them by day time in a pillar of a cloude, and in a pillar of fire by night) ¹⁵That thou wilt kill this people as one man: so the heathen which haue heard the fame of thee, shall thus say, ¹⁶Because the Lord was not able to bring this people into the lande, which he sware vnto them, therefore hath he slaine them in the wilderness. ¹⁷And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying, ¹⁸The Lord is slowe to anger, and of great mercie, and forgiuing iniquitie, and sinne, but not making the wicked innocent, and visiting the wickednes of the fathers vpon the children, in the thirde and fourth generation: ¹⁹Be mercifull, I beseech thee, vnto the iniquitie of this people, according to thy great mercie, and as thou hast forgien this people from Egypt, euen vntill now. ²⁰And the Lord said, I haue forgien it, according to thy request. ²¹Notwithstanding, as I liue, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord. ²²For all those men which haue seene my glory, and my miracles which I did in Egypt, and in the wildernes, and haue tempted me this ten times, and haue not obeyed my voyce, ²³Certainely they shall not see the lande, whereof I sware vnto their fathers: neither shall any that prouoke me, see it. ²⁴But my seruant Caleb, because he had another spirite, and hath followed me stil, euen him will I bring into the lande, whither he went, and his seede shall inherite it. ²⁵Nowe the Amalekites and the Canaanites remaine in the valley: wherefore turne backe to morowe, and get you into the wilderness, by the way of the red Sea. ²⁶After, the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²⁷How long shall I suffer this wicked multitude to murmure against me? I haue heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmure against me. ²⁸Tell them, As I liue (saith the Lord) I wil surely do vnto you, euen as ye haue spoken in mine eares. ²⁹Your carkeises shall fall in this wilderness, and all you that were counted through all your numbers, from twentie yeere olde and aboue, which haue murmured against me, ³⁰Ye shall not doubtles come into the land, for the which I lifted vp mine hande, to make you dwell therein, saue Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun. ³¹But your children, (which ye said shoulde be a pray) them will I bring in, and they shall knowe the lande which ye haue refused: ³²But euen your carkeises shall fall in this wilderness, ³³And your children shall wander in the wilderness, fourtie yeeres, and shall beare your whoredomes, vntill your carkeises be wasted in the wilderness. ³⁴After the number of the dayes, in the which ye searched out the lande, euen fourtie dayes, euery day for a yeere, shall ye beare your iniquity, for fourtie yeeres, and ye shall feelee my breach of promise. ³⁵I the Lord haue said, Certainly I will doe so to all this wicked company, that are gathered together against me: for in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die. ³⁶And the men which Moses had sent to search the land (which, when they came againe, made all the people to murmur against him, and brought vp a slander vpon the lande) ³⁷Euen those men that did bring vp that vile slander vpon the land, shall die by a plague before the Lord. ³⁸But Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, of those men that went to search the land, shall liue. ³⁹Then Moses tolde these sayings vnto all the children of Israel, and the people sorowed greatly. ⁴⁰And they rose vp earely in the morning, and gate them vp into the toppe of the mountaine, saying, Loe, we be readie, to goe vp to the place which the Lord hath promised: for wee haue sinned. ⁴¹But Moses said, Wherefore transgresse ye thus the commandement of the Lord? it will not so come well to passe. ⁴²Goe not vp (for the Lord is not among you) lest ye be ouerthrowe before your enemies. ⁴³For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sworde: for in as much as ye are turned away from the Lord, the Lord also will not be with you. ⁴⁴Yet they presumed obstinately to goe vp to the top of the mountaine: but the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and Moses departed not out of the campe. ⁴⁵Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites, which dwelt in that mountaine, came downe and smote them, and consumed them vnto Hormah.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Whe ye be come into the land of your habitations, which I giue vnto you, ³And will make an offering by fire vnto the Lord, a burnt offering or a sacrifice to fulfil a vowe, or a free offering, or in your feastes, to make a sweete sauour vnto the Lord of the hearde, or of the flocke. ⁴Then let him that offreth his offering vnto the Lord, bring a meate offering of a tenth deale of fine flowre, mingled with the fourth part of an Hin of oyle. ⁵Also thou shalt prepare ye fourth part of an Hin of wine to be powred on a lambe, appointed for the burnt offering or any offering. ⁶And for a ram, thou shalt for a meat offering, prepare two tenth deales of fine floure, mingled with the third part of an Hin of oyle. ⁷And for a drinke-offering, thou shalt offer the third part of an Hin of wine, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ⁸And when thou preparest a bullocke for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice to fulfill a vowe or a peace offering to the Lord, ⁹Then let him offer with ye bullocke a meate offering of three tenth deales of fine floure, mingled with halfe an Hin of oyle. ¹⁰And thou shalt bring for a drinke offering halfe an Hin of wine, for an offering made by fire of a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ¹¹Thus shall it be done for a bullocke, or for a ram, or for a lambe, or for a kid. ¹²According to the number that yee prepare to offer, so shall yee doe to euery one according to their number. ¹³All that are borne of the countrey, shall do these things thus, to offer an offering made by fire of sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ¹⁴And if a stranger sojourne with you, or whosoeuer bee among you in your generations, and will make an offering by fire of a sweete sauour vnto the Lord, as ye do, so hee shall doe. ¹⁵One ordinance shalbe both for you of the Congregation, and also for the stranger that dwelleth with you, euen an ordinance for euer in your generations: as you are, so shall the stranger bee before the Lord. ¹⁶One Lawe and one maner shall serue both for you and for the stranger that sojourneth with you. ¹⁷And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹⁸Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye be come into the lande, to the which I bring you, ¹⁹And when ye shall eate of the bread of the land, ye shall offer an heaue offering vnto ye Lord. ²⁰Ye shall offer vp a cake of the first of your dowe for an heaue offering: as the heaue offering of the barne, so ye shall lift it vp. ²¹Of the first of your dowe ye shall giue vnto the Lord an heaue offering in your generations. ²²And if ye haue erred, and not obserued all these commandements, which the Lord hath spoken vnto Moses, ²³Euen all that the Lord hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the first day that the Lord commanded Moses, and hence forward among your generations: ²⁴And if so be that ought be committed ignorantly of the Congregation, then all ye Congregation shall giue a bullocke for a burnt offering, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord, with the meat offering and drinke offering thereto, according to the maner, and an hee goate for a sinne offering. ²⁵And the Priest shall make an atonement for al the Congregation of the children of Israel, and it shalbe forgien them: for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering for an offering made by fire vnto the Lord, and their sinne offering before the Lord for their ignorance. ²⁶Then it shalbe forgien all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that dwelleth among them: for all the people were in ignorance. ²⁷But if any one person sinne through ignorance, then he shall bring a shee goate of a yeere olde for a sinne offering. ²⁸And the Priest shall make an atonement for the ignorant person, when hee sinneth by ignorance before the Lord, to make reconciliation for him: and it shalbe forgien him. ²⁹He that is borne among the children of Israel, and the stranger that dwelleth among them, shall haue both one lawe, who so doth sinne by ignorance. ³⁰But the person that doeth ought presumptuously, whether he be borne in the land, or a stranger, the same blasphemeth the Lord: therefore that person shalbe cut off from among his people, ³¹Because he hath despised the worde of the Lord, and hath broken his commandement: that person shalbe vtterly cut off: his iniquitie shalbe vpon him. ³²And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered stickes vpon the Sabbath day. ³³And they that found him gathering sticks, brought him vnto Moses and to Aaron, and vnto all the Congregation, ³⁴And they put him warde: for it was not declared what should be done vnto him.

³⁵Then the Lord said vnto Moses, This man shall dye the death: and let al the multitude stone him with stones without the hoste. ³⁶And all the Congregation brought him without the hoste, and stoned him with stones, and he died, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

³⁷And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ³⁸Speake vnto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes vpon the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and put vpon the fringes of the borders a ryband of blewe silke.

³⁹And ye shall haue the fringes, that when ye looke vpon them, ye may remember all the commandemets of the Lord, and do them: and that ye seeke not after your own heart, nor after your owne eyes, after the which ye go a whoring; ⁴⁰That yee may remember and doe all my commandements, and bee holy vnto your God. ⁴¹I am the Lord your God, which brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to bee your God: I am the Lord your God.

¹Nowe Korah the sonne of Izhar, the sonne of Kohath, the sonne of Leui went apart with Dathan, and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab, and On the sonne of Peleth, the sonnes of Reuben: ²And they rose vp against Moses, with certaine of the children of Israel, two hundreth and fiftie captaines of the assemblie, famous in the Congregation, and men of renoume, ³Who gathered themselues together against Moses, and against Aaron, and sayde vnto them, Ye take too much vpon you, seeing all the Congregation is holie, euery one of them, and the Lord is among them: wherfore then lift ye your selues aboue the Congregation of the Lord? ⁴But when Moses heard it, hee fell vpon his face, ⁵And spake to Korah and vnto all his companie, saying, To morow the

Lord will shew who is his, and who is holy, and who ought to approche neere vnto him: and whom he hath chosen, hee will cause to come neere to him. ⁶This doe therefore, Take you censers, both Korah, and all his companie, ⁷And put fire therein, and put incense in the before the Lord to morowe: and the man whome the Lord doeth chuse, the same shalbe holie: ye take too much vpon you, ye sonnes of Leui. ⁸Againe Moses saide vnto Korah, Heare, I pray you, ye sonnes of Leui. ⁹Seemeth it a small thing vnto you that the God of Israel hath separated you from the multitude of Israel, to take you neere to himselfe, to doe the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the Congregation and to minister vnto them? ¹⁰He hath also taken thee to him, and all thy brethren the sonnes of Leui with thee, and seeke ye the office of the Priest also? ¹¹For which cause, thou, and all thy companie are gathered together against the Lord: and what is Aaron, that ye murmure against him? ¹²And Moses sent to call Dathan, and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab: who answered, We will not come vp. ¹³Is it a small thing that thou hast brought vs out of a lande that floweth with milke and honie, to kill vs in the wilderness, except thou make thy selfe lord and ruler ouer vs also? ¹⁴Also thou hast not brought vs vnto a land that floweth with milke and honie, neither giuen vs inheritance of fieldes and vineyardes: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come vp. ¹⁵Then Moses waxed verie angry, and saide vnto the Lord, Looke not vnto their offering: I haue not taken so much as an asse from them, neither haue I hurt any of them. ¹⁶And Moses said vnto Korah, Bee thou and al thy companie before the Lord: both thou, they, and Aaron to morowe: ¹⁷And take euery man his censor, and put incense in them, and bring ye euery man his censor before the Lord, two hundreth and fiftie censors: thou also and Aaron, euery one his censor. ¹⁸So they tooke euery man his censor, and put fire in them, and laide incense thereon, and stoode in the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation with Moses and Aaron. ¹⁹And Korah gathered all the multitude against them vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then the glorie of the Lord appeared vnto all the Congregation. ²⁰And the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²¹Separate your selues from among this Cogregation, that I may consume them at once. ²²And they fell vpon their faces and saide, O God the God of the spirits, of all fleshe, hath not one man onely sinned, and wilt thou bee wroth with all the Congregation? ²³And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²⁴Speake vnto the Congregation and say, Get you away from about the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan and Abiram. ²⁵Then Moses rose vp, and went vnto Dathan and Abiram, and the Elders of Israel followed him. ²⁶And he spake vnto the Congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tentes of these wicked men, and touche nothing of theirs, lest ye perish in all their sinnes. ²⁷So they gate them away from the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan and Abiram on euerie side: and Dathan, and Abiram came out and stood in the doore of their tentes with their wiues, and their sonnes, and their little children. ²⁸And Moses saide, Hereby yee shall knowe that the Lord hath sent me to do all these works: for I haue not done them of mine owne minde. ²⁹If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men, the Lord hath not sent me. ³⁰But if the Lord make a newe thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallowe them vp with all that they haue, and they goe downe quicke into ye pit, then ye shall vnderstand that these men haue prouoked the Lord. ³¹And assoone as he had made an ende of speaking all these wordes, euen the ground claue asunder that was vnder them, ³²And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them vp, with their families, and all the men that were with Korah, and all their goods. ³³So they and all that they had, went down aliue into the pit, and the earth couered them: so they perished from among the Congregation. ³⁴And all Israel that were about them, fled at the crie of them: for they said, Let vs flee, least the earth swallow vs vp. ³⁵But there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundreth and fiftie men that offred the incense. ³⁶And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ³⁷Speake vnto Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the Priest, that he take vp the censers out of the burning, and scatter the fire beyond the altar: for they are halowed, ³⁸The censers, I say, of these sinners, that destroyed themselues: and let them make of them broade plates for a couering of the Altar: for they offered them before the Lord, therefore they shalbe holy, and they shall be a signe vnto the children of Israel. ³⁹Then Eleazar the Priest tooke the brasen censers, which they, that were burnt, had offred, and made broade plates of them for a couering of the Altar. ⁴⁰It is a remembrance vnto the children of Israel, that no stranger which is not of the seede of Aaron, come neere to offer incense before the Lord, that he be not like Korah and his company, as the Lord said to him by the hand of Moses. ⁴¹But on the morowe all the multitude of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye haue killed the people of the Lord. ⁴²And when the Congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, then they turned their faces toward the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and beholde, the cloude couered it, and the glory of the Lord appeared. ⁴³Then Moses and Aaron were come before the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁴⁴And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ⁴⁵Get you vp from among this Congregation: for I wil consume them quickly: then they fell vpon their faces. ⁴⁶And Moses said vnto Aaron, Take the censer and put fire therein of the Altar, and put therein incense, and goe quickly vnto the Congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lord: the plague is begunne. ⁴⁷Then

Aaron tooke as Moses commanded him, and ranne into the middes of the Congregation, and beholde, the plague was begun among the people, and hee put in incense, and made an atonement for the people. ⁴⁸And when hee stode betweene the dead, and them that were alieue, the plague was stayed. ⁴⁹So they died of this plague fourtene thousande and seuen hundreth, beside them that dyed in the conspiracie of Korah. ⁵⁰And Aaron went againe vnto Moses before the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the plague was stayed.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Speake vnto the children of Israel, and take of euery one of them a rod, after the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the familie of their fathers, euen twelue rods: and thou shalt write euery mans name vpon his rod. ³And write Aarons name vpon the rod of Leui: for euery rodde shalbe for the head of the house of their fathers. ⁴And thou shalt put them in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before the Arke of the Testimonie, where I wil declare my selfe to you. ⁵And the mans rod, whome I chuse, shall blossome: and I will make cease from mee the grudgings of the children of Israel, which grudge against you. ⁶Then Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, and al their princes gaue him a rod, one rod for euery Prince, according to the houses of their fathers, euen twelue rods, and the rod of Aaron was among their rodde. ⁷And Moses layde the rods before the Lord in the Tabernacle of the Testimonie. ⁸And when Moses on the morow went into the Tabernacle of the Testimonie, beholde, the rod of Aaron for the house of Leui was budded, and brought forth buddes, and brought forth blossoms, and bare ripe almondes. ⁹Then Moses brought out all the rods from before the Lord vnto all the children of Israel: and they looked vpon them, and tooke euery man his rodde. ¹⁰After, the Lord said vnto Moses, Bring Aarons rod again before the Testimonie to bee kept for a token to the rebellious children, and thou shalt cause their murmurings to cease from me, that they dye not. ¹¹So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him: so did he. ¹²And the children of Israel spake vnto Moses, saying, Behold, we are dead, we perish, we are all lost: ¹³Whosoeuer commeth neere, or approacheth to the Tabernacle of the Lord, shall dye: shall we be consumed and dye?

¹And the Lord sayd vnto Aaron, Thou, and thy sonnes and thy fathers house with thee, shall beare the iniquitie of the Sanctuarie: both thou and thy sonnes with thee shall beare the iniquitie of your Priestes office. ²And bring also with thee thy brethren of the tribe of Leui of ye familie of thy father, which shalbe ioyned with thee, and minister vnto thee: but thou, and thy sonnes with thee shall minister before the Tabernacle of the Testimonie: ³And they shall keepe thy charge, euen the charge of all the Tabernacle: but they shall not come neere the instruments of the Sanctuary, nor to the altar, lest they die, both they and you: ⁴And they shalbe ioyned with thee, and keepe the charge of the Tabernacle of the Congregation for all the seruice of the Tabernacle: and no stranger shall come neere vnto you: ⁵Therefore shall ye keepe the charge of the Sanctuarie, and the charge of the altar: so there shall fall no more wrath vpon the children of Israel. ⁶For lo, I haue taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel, which as a gift of yours, are giuen vnto the Lord, to do the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁷But thou, and thy sonnes with thee shall keepe your Priestes office for all things of the altar, and within the vaile: therefore shall ye serue: for I haue made your Priestes office an office of seruice: therefore the stranger that cometh neere, shalbe slayne. ⁸Again the Lord spake vnto Aaron, Behold, I haue giuen thee the keeping of mine offrings, of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel: vnto thee I haue giuen them for the anoyntings sake, and to thy sonnes, for a perpetuall ordinance. ⁹This shalbe thine of the most holy things, reserued from the fire: all their offering of all their meate offring, and of all their sinne offring, and of all their trespasse offring, which they bring vnto me, that shalbe most holy vnto thee, and to thy sonnes. ¹⁰In the most holy place shalt thou eate it: euery male shall eate of it: it is holy vnto thee. ¹¹This also shalbe thine: the heaue offering of their gift, with all the shake offerings of the children of Israel: I haue giuen them vnto thee and to thy sonnes and to thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer al the cleane in thine house shall eate of it. ¹²All the fat of the oyle, and all the fat of the wine, and of the wheate, which they shall offer vnto the Lord for their first fruites, I haue giuen them vnto thee. ¹³And the first ripe of al that is in their land, which they shall bring vnto Lord, shalbe thine: all the cleane in thine house shall eate of it. ¹⁴Euery thing separate from the common vse in Israel, shalbe thine. ¹⁵All that first openeth the matrice of any flesh, which they shall offer vnto the Lord, of man or beast, shalbe thine: but the first borne of man shalt thou redeeme, and the first borne of the vncleane beast shalt thou redeeme. ¹⁶And those that are to bee redeemed, shalt thou redeeme from the age of a moneth, according to thy estimation, for the money of fiue shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie, which is twentie gerahs. ¹⁷But the first borne of a kow, or the first borne of a sheepe, or the first borne of a goate shalt thou not redeeme: for they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood at the altar, and thou shalt burne their fat: it is a sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ¹⁸And the flesh of them shalbe thine, as the shake breast, and as the right shoulder shalbe thine. ¹⁹All the heaue offrings of the holy things which the children of Israel shall offer vnto the Lord, haue I giuen thee, and thy sonnes, and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: it is a perpetual couenant of salt before the Lord, to thee, and to thy seede with thee. ²⁰And the Lord sayde vnto Aaron, Thou shalt haue none inheritance in their lande, neyther shalt thou haue any parte among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel. ²¹For beholde, I haue giuen the children of Leui all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their seruice which they serue in the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ²²Neyther shall the children of Israel any more come neere the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest they susteine sinne, and die. ²³But the Leuites shall do the seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and they shall beare their sinne: it is a law for euer in your generations, that among the children of Israel they possesse none inheritance. ²⁴For the tythes of the children of Israel, which they shall offer as an offering vnto the Lord, I haue giuen the Leuites for an inheritance: therefore I haue said vnto them, Among the children of Israel ye shall possesse none inheritance. ²⁵And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²⁶Speake also vnto the Leuites and say vnto them, When ye shall take of the children of Israel the tithes, which I haue giuen you of them for your inheritance, then shall ye take an heaue offering of that same for the Lord, euen the tenth part of the tithe. ²⁷And your heaue offering shalbe reckened vnto you, as the corne of the barne, or as the abundance of the wine presse. ²⁸So ye shall also offer an heaue offering vnto the Lord of all your tithes, which ye shall receiue of the children of Israel, and ye shall giue thereof the Lords heaue offering to Aaron the Priest. ²⁹Ye shall offer of all your gifts al the Lords heaue offerings: of all the fat of the same shall ye offer the holy things thereof. ³⁰Therefore thou shalt say vnto them, When ye haue offred the fat thereof, then it shalbe couted vnto the Leuites, as the encrease of the corne floore, or as the encrease of the wine presse. ³¹And ye shall eate it in al places, ye, and your housholdes: for it is your wages for your seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ³²And ye shall beare no sinne by the reason of it, when ye haue offred the fatte of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

¹And the Lord spake to Moses, and to Aaron, saying, ²This is the ordinance of the lawe, which the Lord hath commanded, saying, Speake vnto the children of Israel that they bring thee a red kow without blemish, wherein is no spot, vpon the which neuer came yoke. ³And ye shall giue her vnto Eleazar ye Priest, that hee may bring her without the hoste, and cause her to be slaine before his face. ⁴Then shall Eleazar the Priest take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation seuen times, ⁵And cause the kow to be burnt in his sight: with her skinne, and her flesh, and her blood, and her dounge shall he burne her. ⁶Then shall the Priest take cedar wood, and hyssope and skarlet lace, and cast them in the mids of the fire where the kow burneth. ⁷Then shall the Priest wash his clothes, and he shall wash his flesh in water, and then come into the hoste, and the Priest shalbe vncleane vnto the euen. ⁸Also he that burneth her, shall wash his clothes in water, and wash his flesh in water, and be vncleane vntill euen. ⁹And a man, that is cleane, shall take vp the ashes of the kow, and put them without the hoste in a cleane place: and it shalbe kept for the Congregation of the children of Israel for a sprinkling water: it is a sinne offering. ¹⁰Therefore he that gathereth the ashes of the kow, shall wash his clothes, and remaine vncleane vntil euen: and it shalbe vnto the children of Israel, and vnto the stranger that dwelleth among them, a statute for euer. ¹¹Hee that toucheth the dead body of any man, shalbe vncleane euen seuen dayes. ¹²Hee shall purifie himselfe therewith the third day, and the seuenth day he shall be cleane: but if he purifie not himselfe the thirde day, then the seuenth day he shall not be cleane. ¹³Whosoeuer toucheth ye corps of any man that is dead, and purgeth not himselfe, defileth the Tabernacle of the Lord, and that person shall be cut off from Israel, because the sprinkling water was not sprinkled vpon him: he shall be vncleane, and his vncleannesse shall remaine still vpon him. ¹⁴This is the law, Whe a man dieth in a tent, all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes, ¹⁵And all the vessels that bee open, which haue no couering fastened vpon them, shall be vncleane. ¹⁶Also whosoever toucheth one that is slaine with a sworde in the fiede, or a dead person, or a bone of a dead man, or a graue, shall be vncleane seuen dayes. ¹⁷Therefore for an vncleane person they shall take of the burnt ashes of the sinne offering, and pure water shalbe put thereto in a vessel. ¹⁸And a cleane person shall take hyssope and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it vpon the tent, and vpon all the vessels, and on the persons that were therein, and vpon him that touched ye bone, or the slayne, or the dead, or the graue. ¹⁹And the cleane person shall sprinkle vpon the vncleane the third day, and the seuenth day, and hee shall purifie him selfe the seuenth day, and wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shalbe cleane at euen. ²⁰But the man that is vncleane and purifieth not himselfe, that person shalbe cut off from among the Congregation, because hee hath defiled the Sanctuarie of the Lord: and the sprinkling water hath not bene sprinkled vpon him: therefore shall he be vncleane. ²¹And it shalbe a perpetual lawe vnto them, that he that sprinkleth the sprinkling water, shall wash his clothes: also hee that toucheth the sprinkling water, shalbe vncleane vntill euen. ²²And whatsoever the vncleane person toucheth, shall be vncleane: and the person that toucheth him, shalbe vncleane vntill the euen.

¹Then the children of Israel came with ye whole Congregation to the desert of Zin in the first moneth, and the people abode at Cadesh: where Miriam died, and was buried there. ²But there was no water for the Congregation, and they assembled them selues against Moses and against Aaron.

³And the people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God we had perished, when our brethren died before the Lord.
⁴Why haue ye thus brought the Congregation of the Lord vnto his wilderness, that both we, and our cattell should die there?
⁵Wherefore now haue yee made vs to come vp from Egypt, to bring vs into this miserable place, which is no place of seede, nor figges, nor vines, nor pomegranates? neither is there any water to drinke.
⁶Then Moses and Aaron went from the assemblie vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and fell vpon their faces: and the glory of the Lord appeared vnto them.
⁷And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ⁸Take the rod, and gather thou and thy brother Aaron the Congregation together, and speake yee vnto the rocke before their eyes, and it shall giue foorth his water, and thou shalt bring them water out of the rocke: so thou shalt giue the Congregation, and their beastes drinke.
⁹Then Moses tooke the rod from before the Lord, as he had commanded him. ¹⁰And Moses and Aaron gathered the Congregation together before the rocke, and Moses sayd vnto them, Heare now, ye rebels: shall we bring you water out of this rocke?

¹¹Then Moses lift vp his hande, and with his rod he smote the rocke twise, and the water came out abundantly: so the Congregation, and their beastes dranke.
¹²Againe the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, Because ye beleued me not, to sanctifie mee in the presence of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this Congregation into the land which I haue giuen them.
¹³This is the water of Meribah, because the children of Israel stroue with the Lord, and hee was sanctified in them.
¹⁴Then Moses sent messengers from Kadesh vnto the king of Edom, saying, Thus sayth thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the trauaile that we haue had, ¹⁵How our fathers went downe into Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, where the Egyptians handled vs euill and our fathers.

¹⁶But when we cried vnto the Lord, he heard our voyce, and sent an Angel, and hath brought vs out of Egypt, and beholde, wee are in the citie Kadesh, in thine vtmost border. ¹⁷I pray thee that we may passe through thy countrey: we will not goe through the fieldes nor the vineyardes, neither will we drinke of the water of the welles: we will goe by the kings way, and neither turne vnto the right hand nor to the left, vntill we be past thy borders. ¹⁸And Edom answered him, 'Thou shalt not passe by mee, least I come out against thee with the sword. ¹⁹Then the children of Israel said vnto him, We will goe vp by the hie way: and if I and my cattell drinke of thy water, I will then pay for it: I will onely (without any harme) goe through on my feete. ²⁰Hee answered againe, 'Thou shalt not goe through. The Edom came out against him with much people, and with a mightie power. ²¹Thus Edom denied to giue Israel passage through his countrey: wherefore Israel turned away from him. ²²And when the children of Israel with al the Congregation departed from Kadesh, they came vnto the mount Hor. ²³And the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron in the mount Hor neere the coast of the land of Edom, saying, ²⁴Aaron shall be gathered vnto his people: for hee shall not enter into the lande, which I haue giuen vnto the children of Israel, because ye disobeyed my commandement at the water of Meribah. ²⁵Take Aaron and Eleazar his sonne, and bring them vp into the mount Hor, ²⁶And cause Aaron to put off his garmentes and put them vpon Eleazar his sonne: for Aaron shall be gathered to his fathers, and shall die there. ²⁷And Moses did as the Lord had commanded: and they went vp into the mount Hor, in the sight of all the Congregation. ²⁸And Moses put off Aarons clothes, and put them vpon Eleazar his sonne: so Aaron dyed there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came downe from off the mount. ²⁹When al the Congregation sawe that Aaron was dead, al the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirtie dayes.

¹When King Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt toward the South, heard tel that Israel came by the way of the spies, then fought hee against Israel, and tooke of them prysoners. ²So Israel vowed a vowe vnto the Lord, and said, If thou wilt deliuer and giue this people into mine hand, then I wil vtterly destroy their cities. ³And the Lord heard the voyce of Israel, and deliuered them the Canaanites: and they vtterly destroyed them and their cities, and called ye name of the place Hormah. ⁴After, they departed from the mount Hor by the way of the red Sea, to compasse the land of Edom: and the people were sore griued because of the way. ⁵And the people spake against God and against Moses, saying, Wherefore haue ye brought vs out of Egypt, to die in the wilderness? for here is neither bread nor water, and our soule lotheth this light bread. ⁶Wherefore the Lord sent fierie serpents among ye people, which stung the people: so that many of the people of Israel died. ⁷Therefore the people came to Moses and said, We haue sinned: for wee haue spoken against the Lord, and against thee: pray to the Lord, that he take away the serpents from vs: and Moses prayed for the people. ⁸And the Lord said vnto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it vp for a signe, that as many as are bitten, may looke vpon it, and liue. ⁹So Moses made a serpent of brasse, and set it vp for a signe: and when a serpent had bitten a man, then he looked to the serpent of brasse, and liued. ¹⁰And ye children of Israel departed thence, and pitched in Oboth. ¹¹And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in lie-abarim, in the wilderness, which is before Moab on the Eastside. ¹²They remoued thence, and pitched vpon the riuer of Zared. ¹³Thence they departed, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness, and commeth out of the coasts of the Amorites: (for Arnon is the border of Moab, betweene the Moabites and the Amorites) ¹⁴Wherefore it shall be spoken in the booke of the battels of the Lord, what thing he did in the red sea, and in the riuers of Arnon, ¹⁵And at the streame of the riuers that goeth downe to the dwelling of Ar, and lieth vpon the border of Moab. ¹⁶And from thence they turned to Beer: the same is the well where the Lord said vnto Moses, Assemble the people, and I wil giue them water. ¹⁷Then Israel sang this song, Rise vp well, sing ye vnto it. ¹⁸The princes digged this well, the captaines of the people digged it, euen the lawe giuer, with their staues. And from the wilderness they came to Mattanah, ¹⁹And from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, ²⁰And from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the plaine of Moab, to the top of Pisgah that looketh toward Ieshimon. ²¹Then Israel sent messengers vnto Sihon, King of the Amorites, saying, ²²Let me goe through thy land: we wil not turne aside into the fieldes, nor into the vineyardes, neither drinke of the waters of ye welles: we will goe by the kings way, vntill we be past thy countrey. ²³But Sihon gaue Israel no licence to passe through his countrey, but Sihon assembled all his people, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Iahoz, and fought against Israel. ²⁴But Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and conquered his land, from Arnon vnto Iabok, euen vnto ye children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong. ²⁵And Israel tooke al these cities, and dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites in Heshbon and in all the villages thereof. ²⁶For Heshbon was the citie of Sihon the king of the Amorites, which had fought beforetime against the king of the Moabites, and had taken al his land out of his hand, euen vnto Arnon. ²⁷Wherefore they that speake in prouerbes, say, Come to Heshbon, let the citie of Sihon bee built and repaired: ²⁸For a fire is gone out of Heshbon, and a flame from the citie of Sihon, and hath consumed Ar of the Moabites, and the lords of Bamoth in Arnon. ²⁹Wo be to thee, Moab: O people of Chemosh, thou art vndone: he hath suffered his sonnes to be pursued, and his daughters to be in captiuitie to Sihon the king of the Amorites. ³⁰Their empire also is lost from Heshbon vnto Dibon, and wee haue destroyed them vnto Nophah, which reacheth vnto Medeba. ³¹Thus Israel dwelt in the lande of the Amorites. ³²And Moses sent to searche out Iaazer, and they tooke the townes belonging thereto, and rooted out the Amorites that were there. ³³And they turned and went vp toward Bashan: and Og the King of Bashan came out against them, hee, and all his people, to fight at Edrei. ³⁴Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Feare him not: for I haue deliuered him into thine hand and all his people, and his land: and thou shalt do to him as thou diddest vnto Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon. ³⁵They smote him therefore, and his sonnes, and all his people, vntill there was none left him: so they conquered his land.

¹After, the children of Israel departed and pitched in the plaine of Moab on the other side of Iorden from Iericho. ²Now Balak the sonne of Zippor sawe all that Israel had done to the Amorites. ³And the Moabites were sore afraide of the people, because they were many, and Moab fretted against the children of Israel. ⁴Therefore Moab said vnto the Elders of Midian, Nowe shall this multitude licke vp all that are round about vs, as an ox licketh vp ye grasse of the fildes: and Balak the sonne of Zippor was King of the Moabites at that time. ⁵Hee sent messengers therefore vnto Balaam the sonne of Beor to Pethor (which is by the riuer of the lande of the children of his folke) to call him, saying, Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt, which couer the face of the earth, and lye ouer against me. ⁶Come now therefore, I pray thee, and curse me this people (for they are stronger then I) so it may be that I shall be able to smite them, and to driue them out of the land: for I knowe that hee, whome thou blessest, is blessed, and he whom thou cursest, shall be cursed. ⁷And the Elders of Moab, and the Elders of Midian departed, hauing the reward of the soothsaying in their hande, and they came vnto Balaam, and tolde him the wordes of Balak. ⁸Who answered them, Tary here this night, and I will giue you an answer, as the Lord shall say vnto mee. So the princes of Moab abode with Balaam. ⁹Then God came vnto Balaam, and sayde, What men are these with thee? ¹⁰And Baalam said vnto God, Balak ye sonne of Zippor, king of Moab hath set vnto me, saying, ¹¹Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt and couereth the face of the earth: come now, curse them for my sake: so it may be that I shalbe able to ouercome them in battell, and to driue them out. ¹²And God said vnto Balaam, Go not thou with them, neither curse the people, for they are blessed. ¹³And Balaam rose vp in the morning, and sayde vnto ye princes of Balak, Returne vnto your land: for the Lord hath refused to giue me leaue to go with you. ¹⁴So the princes of

Moab rose vp, and went vnto Balak, and sayd, Balaam hath refused to come with vs. ¹⁵Balak yet sent againe moe princes, and more honourable then they. ¹⁶Who came to Balaam, and sayde to him, Thus saith Balak the sonne of Zippor, Bee not thou staied, I pray thee, from comming vnto me. ¹⁷For I wil promote thee vnto great honour, and wil do whatsoeuer thou sayest vnto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people. ¹⁸And Balaam answered, and sayde vnto the seruants of Balak, If Balak woulde giue me his house full of siluer and golde, I can not goe beyonde the worde of the Lord my God, to doe lesse or more. ¹⁹But now, I pray you, tary here this night, that I may wit, what the Lord will say vnto mee more. ²⁰And God came vnto Balaam by night, and sayd vnto him, If the men come to call thee, rise vp, and goe with them: but onely what thing I say vnto thee, that shalt thou doe. ²¹So Balaam rose vp early, and saddled his asse, and went with the princes of Moab. ²²And ye wrath of God was kindled, because he went: and the Angel of the Lord stood in the way to be against him, as he rode vpon his asse, and his two seruants were with him. ²³And when the asse saw the Angel of the Lord stand in the way, and his sworde drawn in his hand, the asse turned out of the way and went into the field, but Balaam smote the asse, to turne her into the way. ²⁴Againe the Angel of the Lord stood in a path of the vineyardes, hauing a wall on the one side, and a wall on the other. ²⁵And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she thrust her selfe vnto the wall, and dasht Balaams foote against the wall: wherefore hee smote her againe. ²⁶Then the Angel of the Lord went further, and stode in a narowe place, where was no way to turne, either to the right hand, or to the left. ²⁷And when the asse sawe the Angell of the Lord, she lay downe vnder Balaam: therefore Balaam was very wroth, and smote the asse with a staffe. ²⁸Then the Lord opened the mouth of the asse, and she saide vnto Balaam, What haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten me nowe three times? ²⁹And Balaam saide vnto the asse, Because thou hast mocked me: I woulde there were a sworde in mine hand, for nowe would I kill thee. ³⁰And the asse saide vnto Balaam, Am not I thine asse, which thou hast ridden vpon since thy first time vnto this day? haue I vsed at any time to doe thus vnto thee? Who said, Nay. ³¹And the Lord opened the eyes of Balaam, and he sawe the Angel of the Lord standing in the way with his sword drawn in his hande: then he bowed him selfe, and fell flat on his face. ³²And the Angel of the Lord said vnto him, Wherefore hast thou nowe smitten thine asse three times? beholde, I came out to withstande thee, because thy way is not straight before me. ³³But the asse sawe me, and turned from me now three times: for els, if she had not turned from me, surely I had euen nowe slaine thee, and saued her alieue. ³⁴Then Balaam saide vnto the Angel of the Lord, I haue sinned: for I wist not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore if it displease thee,

I will turne home againe. ³⁵But the Angel said vnto Balaam, Go with the men: but what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou speake. So Balaam went with ye princes of Balak.

³⁶And when Balak heard that Balaam came, he went out to meete him vnto a citie of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, euen in the vtmost coast. ³⁷Then Balak saide vnto Balaam, Did I not sende for thee to call thee? Wherefore camest thou not vnto me? am I not able in deede to promote thee vnto honour?

³⁸And Balaam made answeere vnto Balak, Lo, I am come vnto thee, and can I now say any thing at all? the worde that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speake.

³⁹So Balaam went with Balak, and they came vnto the citie of Huzoth. ⁴⁰Then Balak offred bullockes, and sheepe, and sent thereof to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him. ⁴¹And on the morowe Balak tooke Balaam, and brought him vp into the hie places of Baal, that thence hee might see the vtmost part of the people.

¹And Balaam sayd vnto Balak, Builde me here seuen altars, and prepare me here seuen bullockes, and seuen rammes. ²And Balak did as Balaam sayd, and Balak and Balaam offred on euery altar a bullocke and a ramme. ³Then Balaam sayde vnto Balak, Stande by the burnt offering, and I will goe, if so be that the Lord will come and meete me: and whatsoeuer he sheweth me, I will tell thee: so he went forth alone.

⁴And God met Balaam, and Balaam sayd vnto him, I haue prepared seuen altars, and haue offred vpon euery altar a bullocke and a ramme. ⁵And the Lord put an answeere in Balaams mouth, and sayde, Go againe to Balak, and say on this wise. ⁶So when he returned vnto him, loe, hee stode by his burnt offering, he, and all the princes of Moab.

⁷Then he vttered his parable, and sayde, Balak the king of Moab hath brought mee from Aram out of the mountaines of the East, saying, Come, curse Iakob for my sake: come, and detest Israel.

⁸How shall I curse, where God hath not cursed? or howe shall I detest, where the Lord hath not detested? ⁹For from the top of the rocks I did see him, and from the hils I did beholde him: lo, the people shall dwell by themselues, and shall not be reckened among the nations. ¹⁰Who can tell the dust of Iaakob, and the nomber of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last ende be like his. ¹¹Then Balak saide vnto Balaam, What hast thou done vnto mee? I tooke thee to curse mine enemies, and beholde, thou hast blessed them altogether. ¹²And he answered, and said, Must I not take heede to speake that, which the Lord hath put in my mouth? ¹³And Balak sayde vnto him, Come, I pray thee, with mee vnto another place, whence thou mayest see them, and thou shalt see but the vtmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: therefore curse them out of that place for my sake. ¹⁴And he brought him into Sede-sophim to the top of Pisgah, and built seuen altars, and offred a bullocke, and a ramme on euery altar. ¹⁵After, he sayde vnto Balak, Stande here by thy burnt offering, and I wil meete the Lord yonder. ¹⁶And the Lord mette Balaam, and put an answere in his mouth, and sayd, Goe againe vnto Balak, and say thus. ¹⁷And when he came to him, beholde, hee stode by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him: so Balak sayde vnto him, What hath the Lord sayd? ¹⁸And he vttered his parable, and sayde, Rise vp, Balak, and heare: hearken vnto me, thou sonne of Zippor. ¹⁹God is not as man, that he should lie, neither as the sonne of man that he shoulde repent: hath he sayde and shall he not do it? and hath he spoken, and shall he not accomplish it? ²⁰Behold, I haue receiued commandement to blesse: for he hath blessed, and I cannot alter it. ²¹Hee seeth none iniquitie in Iaakob, nor seeth no transgression in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, and the ioyfull shoute of a king is among them. ²²God brought them out of Egypt: their strength is as an vnicorne. ²³For there is no sorcerie in Iaakob, nor soothsaying in Israel: according to this time it shalbe sayde of Iaakob and of Israel, What hath God wrought? ²⁴Behold, the people shall rise vp as a lyon, and lift vp himselfe as a yong lyon: hee shall not lye downe, till he eate of the pray, and till he drinke the blood of the slayne. ²⁵Then Balak sayde vnto Balaam, Neither curse, nor blesse them at all. ²⁶But Balaam answered, and saide vnto Balak, Tolde not I thee, saying, All that the Lord speaketh, that must I do? ²⁷Againe Balak sayd vnto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, I wil bring thee vnto another place, if so be it wil please God, that thou mayest thence curse them for my sake. ²⁸So Balak brought Balaam vnto the top of Peor, that looketh toward Ieshmon. ²⁹Then Balaam sayde vnto Balak, Make me here seuen altars, and prepare me here seuen bullocks, and seuen rammes. ³⁰And Balak did as Balaam had sayd, and offred a bullocke and a ram on euery altar.

to set diuinations, but set his face toward the wilderness. ²And Balaam lift vp his eyes, and looked vpon Israel, which dwelt according to their tribes, and the Spirit of God came vpon him. ³And he vttered his parable, and sayd, Balaam the sonne of Beor hath sayde, and the man, whose eyes were shut vp, hath sayd, ⁴He hath sayde, which heard the wordes of God, and sawe the vision of the Almighty, and falling in a traunce had his eyes opened: ⁵How goodly are thy tentes, O Iaakob, and thine habitations, O Israell! ⁶As the valleis, are they stretched forth, as gardes by the riuers side, as the aloe trees, which the Lord hath planted, as the cedars beside the waters. ⁷The water droppeth out of his bucket, and his seede shalbe in many waters, and his king shall be hier then Agag, and his kingdome shall bee exalted. ⁸God brought him out of Egypt: his strength shalbe as an vnicorne: he shall eate the nations his enemies, and bruise their bones, and shoote them through with his arrowes. ⁹He coucheth and lieth downe as a yong lion, and as a lion: who shall stirre him vp? blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee. ¹⁰Then Balak was very angry with Balaam, and smote his handes together: so Balak sayde vnto Balaam, I sent for thee to curse mine enemies, and beholde, thou hast blessed them nowe three times. ¹¹Therefore nowe flee vnto thy place: I thought surely to promote thee vnto honour, but loe, the Lord hath kept thee backe from honour. ¹²Then Balaam answered Balak, Tolde I not also thy messengers, which thou sentest vnto me, saying, ¹³If Balak would giue me his house ful of siluer and gold, I can not passe the commandement of the Lord, to doe either good or bad of mine owne minde? what the Lord shall commaund, the same will I speake. ¹⁴And nowe behold, I goe vnto my people: come, I will aduertise thee what this people shall doe to thy folke in the later dayes. ¹⁵And he vttered his parable, and sayd, Balaam the sonne of Beor hath sayde, and the man whose eyes were shut vp, hath sayd, ¹⁶He hath said that heard the words of God, and hath the knowledge of the most High, and sawe the vision of the Almighty, and falling in a traunce had his eyes opened: ¹⁷I shall see him, but not nowe: I shall behold him, but not neere: there shall come a starre of Iaakob, and a scepter shall rise of Israel, and shall smite the coastes of Moab, and destroy all the sonnes of Sheth. ¹⁸And Edom shalbe possessed, and Seir shall be a possession to their enemies: but Israel shall do valiantly. ¹⁹He also that shall haue dominion shall bee of Iaakob, and shall destroy the remnant of the citie. ²⁰And when he looked on Amalek, he vttered his parable, and sayd, Amalek was the first of the nations: but his latter ende shall come to destruction. ²¹And he looked on the Kenites, and vttered his parable, and sayde, Strong is thy dwelling place, and put thy nest in the rocke. ²²Neuerthesse, the Kenite shalbe spoyled vntill Asshur cary thee away captiue. ²³Againe he vttered his parable, and sayd, Alas, who shall liue when God doeth this? ²⁴The ships also shall come from the coastes of Chittim, and subdue Asshur, and shall subdue Eber, and he also shall come to destruction. ²⁵Then Balaam rose vp, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.

¹Nowe whiles Israel abode in Shittim, the people began to commit whoredome with the daughters of Moab: ²Which called the people vnto the sacrifice of their gods, and the people ate, and bowed downe to their gods. ³And Israel coupled himselfe vnto Baal Peor: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel: ⁴And the Lord sayde vnto Moses, Take all the heades of the people, and hang them vp before the Lord against ye sunne, that the indignation of the Lords wrath may be turned from Israel. ⁵Then Moses sayd vnto the Iudges of Israel, Euery one slay his men that were ioyned vnto Baal Peor. ⁶And behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought vnto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the Congregation of the children of Israel, who wept before the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ⁷And when Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest sawe it, hee rose vp from the middes of the Congregation, and tooke a speare in his hand, ⁸And followed ye man of Israel into the tent, and thrust them both through: to wit, the man of Israel, and the woman, through her belly: so the plague ceased from the children of Israel. ⁹And there died in that plague, foure and twentie thousand. ¹⁰Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹¹Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the Priest, hath turned mine anger away from the children of Israel, while hee was zealous for my sake among them: therefore I haue not consumed the children of Israel in my ielousie. ¹²Wherefore say to him, Beholde, I giue vnto him my couenant of peace, ¹³And he shall haue it, and his seede after him, euen the couenant of the priestes office for euer, because he was zealous for his God, and hath made an atonement for the children of Israel. ¹⁴And the name of the Israelite thus slayne, which was killed with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri the sonne of Salu, prince of the familie of the Simeonites. ¹⁵And the name of the Midianitish woman, that was slayne, was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, who was head ouer the people of his fathers house in Midian. ¹⁶Againe ye Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹⁷Vexe the Midianites, and smite them: ¹⁸For they trouble you with their wiles, wherewith they haue beguiled you as concerning Peor, and as concerning their sister Cozbi ye daughter of a prince of Midian, which was slayne in the day of the plague because of Peor.

¹And so after the plague, the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest, saying, ²Take the number of all the Congregation of the children of Israel from twentie yeere olde and aboue throughout their fathers houses, all that go forth to warre in Israel. ³So Moses and Eleazar the Priest spake vnto them in the plaine of Moab, by Iorden towarde Iericho, saying, ⁴From twentie yeere olde and aboue ye shall number the people, as the Lord had commanded Moses, and the childre of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. ⁵Reuben the first borne of Israel: the children of Reube were: Hanocho, of whom came the familie of the Hanochites, and of Pallu the familie of the Palluites: ⁶Of Hesron, the familie of the Hesronites: of Carmi, the familie of the Carmites. ⁷These are the families of the Reubenites: and they were in number three and fourtie thousand, seuen hundreth and thirtie. ⁸And the sonnes of Pallu, Eliab: ⁹And the sonnes of Eliab, Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram: this Dathan and Abiram were famous in the Congregation, and stroue against Moses and against Aaron in the assemblie of Korah, when they stroue against the Lord. ¹⁰And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them vp with Korah, when the Congregation died, what time the fire consumed, two hundreth and fiftie men, who were for a signe.

¹¹Notwithstanding, all the sonnes of Korah dyed not. ¹²And the children of Simeon after their families were: Nemuel, of whom came the familie of the Nemuelites: of Iamin, the familie of the Iaminites: of Iachin, the familie of the Iachinites: ¹³Of Zerah, the familie of the Zarhites: of Shaul, the familie of the Shaulites. ¹⁴These are the families of the Simeonites: two and twentie thousand and two hundreth. ¹⁵The sonnes of Gad after their families were: Zephon, of whome came ye familie of the Zephonites: of Haggi, the familie of the Haggites: of Shuni, the familie of the Shunites: ¹⁶Of Ozni, the familie of the Oznites: of Eri, the familie of the Erites: ¹⁷Of Arod, the familie of the Arodites: of Areli, the familie of the Arelites. ¹⁸These are the families of the sonnes of Gad, according to their numbers, fourtie thousand and fiue hundreth. ¹⁹The sonnes of Iudah, Er and Onan: but Er and Onan

deuided for an inheritance, according to the number of names. ⁵⁴To many thou shalt giue the more inheritance, and to fewe thou shalt giue lesse inheritance: to euery one according to his number shalbe giuen his inheritance. ⁵⁵Notwithstanding, the land shalbe deuided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherite: ⁵⁶According to the lot shall the possession thereof be deuided betweene many and fewe. ⁵⁷These also are the nobers of ye Leuites, after their families: of Gershon came ye familie of the Gershonites: of Kohath, ye familie of the Kohathites: of Merari, the familie of the Merarites. ⁵⁸These are the families of Leui, the familie of the Libnites: the familie of the Hebronites: the familie of the Mahlites: the familie of the Mushites: the familie of the Korhites: and Kohath begate Amram. ⁵⁹And Amrams wife was called Iochebed the daughter of Leui, which was borne vnto Leui in Egypt: and she bare vnto Amram Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam their sister. ⁶⁰And vnto Aaron were borne Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ⁶¹And Nadab and Abihu dyed, because they offred strange fire before the Lord. ⁶²And their nombers were three and twentie thousand, all males from a moneth old and aboue: for they were not nombred among the children of Israel, because there was none inheritance giuen them among the children of Israel. ⁶³These are the nombers of Moses and Eleazar the Priest which nombred the children of Israel in the plaine of Moab, neere Iorden, towarde Iericho. ⁶⁴And among these there was not a man of them, whome Moses and Aaron the Priest nobred, when they tolde the children of Israel in the wildernes of Sinai. ⁶⁵For the Lord said of them, They shall die in the wildernes: so there was not left a man of them, saue Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun.

¹Then came the daughters of Zelophehad, the sonne of

Hepher, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasseh, of the familie of Manasseh, the sonne of Ioseph (and the names of his daughters were these, Mahlah, Noah and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah) ²And stode before Moses, and before Eleazar the Priest, and before the Princes, and all the assemblie, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying, ³Our father dyed in the wildernes, and he was not among the assemblie of them that were assembled against the Lord in the companie of Korah, but died in his sinne, and had no sonnes. ⁴Wherefore should the name of our father be taken away from among his familie, because he hath no sonne? giue vs a possession among the brethren of our father. ⁵Then Moses brought their cause before the Lord. ⁶And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ⁷The daughters of Zelophehad speake right: thou shalt giue them a possession to inherite among their fathers brethren, and shalt turne the inheritance of their father vnto them. ⁸Also thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die and haue no sonne, then ye shall turne his inheritaunce vnto his daughter. ⁹And if he haue no daughter, ye shall giue his inheritance vnto his brethren. ¹⁰And if he haue no brethren, ye shall giue his inheritance vnto his fathers brethren. ¹¹And if his father haue no brethren, ye shall giue his inheritance vnto his next kinsman of his familie, and he shall possesse it: and this shall be vnto the children of Israel a law of iudgement, as the Lord hath commanded Moses. ¹²Againe the Lord said vnto Moses, Go vp into this mount of Abarim, and behold ye lande which I haue giuen vnto the children of Israel. ¹³And when thou hast seene it, thou shalt be gathered vnto thy people also, as Aaron thy brother was gathered. ¹⁴For ye were disobedient vnto my worde in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the assemblie, to sanctifie me in the waters before their eyes. That is the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin. ¹⁵Then

Moses spake vnto the Lord, saying, ¹⁶Let the Lord God of the spirits of all flesh appoint a man ouer the Congregation, ¹⁷Who may goe out and in before them, and leade them out and in, that the Congregation of the Lord be not as sheepe, which haue not a shepheard. ¹⁸And the Lord said vnto Moses, Take thee Ioshua the sonne of Nun, in whom is the Spirite, and put thine handes vpon him, ¹⁹And set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the Congregation, and giue him a charge in their sight. ²⁰And giue him of thy glory, that all the Congregation of ye children of Israel may obey. ²¹And he shall stande before Eleazar the Priest, who shall aske counsell for him by the iudgement of Vrim before the Lord: at his worde they shall goe out, and at his worde they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him and all the Congregation. ²²So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him, and he tooke Ioshua, and set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the Congregation. ²³Then he put his handes vpon him, and gaue him a charge, as the Lord had spoken by the hand of Moses.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Command the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Ye shall obserue to offer vnto me in their due season mine offering, and my bread, for my sacrifices made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto me. ³Also thou shalt say vnto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer vnto the Lord, two lambes of a yeere olde without spot, daily, for a continuall burnt offering. ⁴One lambe shalt thou prepare in the morning, and the other lambe shalt thou prepare at euen. ⁵And the tenth part of an Ephah of fine floure for a meate offering mingled with the fourth part of an Hin of beaten oyle. ⁶This shalbe a daily burnt offering, as was made in the mount Sinai for a sweete sauour: it is a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord. ⁷And the drinke offering thereof the fourth part of an Hin for one lambe: in the holy place

cause to powre the drinke offering vnto the Lord. ⁸And the other lambe thou shalt prepare at euen: as the meate offering of the morning, and as the drinke offering thereof shalt thou prepare this for an offering made by fire of sweete sauour vnto the Lord. ⁹But on the Sabbath day ye shall offer two lambes of a yeere old, without spot, and two tenth deales of fine floure for a meate offering mingled with oyle, and the drinke offering thereof. ¹⁰This is ye burnt offering of euery Sabbath, beside the continuall burnt offering, and drinke offering thereof. ¹¹And in the beginning of your moneths, ye shall offer a burnt offering vnto the Lord, two yong bullockes, and a ramme, and seuen lambes of a yeere olde, without spot, ¹²And three tenth deales of fine floure for a meat offering mingled with oyle for one bullocke, and two tenth deales of fine floure for a meate offering, mingled with oyle for one ramme, ¹³And a tenth deale of fine floure mingled with oyle for a meate offering vnto one lambe: for a burnt offering of sweete sauour: it is an offering made by fire vnto the Lord. ¹⁴And their drinke offrings shalbe halfe an Hin of wine vnto one bullocke, and the thirde part of an Hin vnto a ram, and ye fourth part of an Hin vnto a labe: this is the burnt offering of euery moneth, throughout the moneths of the yeere. ¹⁵And one hee goate for a sinne offering vnto the Lord shalbe prepared, besides the continuall burnt offering, and his drinke offering. ¹⁶Also the fourtenth day of the first moneth is the Passeouer of the Lord. ¹⁷And in ye fifteenth day of the same moneth is the feast: seuen dayes shall vnleauened bread be eaten. ¹⁸In the first day shalbe an holy conuocation, ye shall do no seruile worke therein. ¹⁹But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt offering vnto the Lord, two yong bullocks, one ram, and seuen lambes of a yeere olde: see that they be without blemish. ²⁰And their meate offering shalbe of fine floure mingled with oyle: three tenth deales shall ye prepare for a bullocke, and two tenth deales for a ramme: ²¹One tenth deale shalt thou prepare for euery lambe, euen for the seuen lambes.

²²And an hee goate for a sinne offering, to make an atonement for you. ²³Ye shall prepare these, beside the burnt offering in the morning, which is a continuall burnt sacrifice. ²⁴After this maner ye shall prepare throughout all the seuen dayes, for the mainteining of the offering made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord: it shall be done beside the continuall burnt offering and drinke offering thereof. ²⁵And in ye seuenth day ye shall haue an holy conuocation, wherein ye shall do no seruile work. ²⁶Also in the day of your first fruits, when ye bring a newe meate offering vnto the Lord, according to your weekes ye shall haue an holy conuocation, and ye shall do no seruile worke in it: ²⁷But ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord, two yong bullocks, a ramme, and seuen lambes of a yeere olde, ²⁸And their meat offering of fine floure mingled with oyle, three tenth deales vnto a bullocke, two tenth deales to a ram, ²⁹And one tenth deale vnto euery lambe throughout the seuen lambes, ³⁰And an hee goate to make an atonement for you: ³¹(Ye shall doe this besides the continuall burnt offering, and his meate offering;) see they be without blemish, with their drinke offrings.

¹Moreouer, in the first day of the seuenth moneth ye shall haue an holy conuocation: ye shall doe no seruile worke therein: it shall be a day of blowing the trumpets vnto you. ²And ye shall make a burnt offering for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord: one yong bullocke, one ram, and seuen lambes of a yeere olde, without blemish. ³And their meat offering shalbe of fine floure mingled with oyle, three tenth deales vnto the bullocke, and two tenth deales vnto the ramme, ⁴And one tenth deale vnto one lambe, for the seuen lambes, ⁵And an hee goate for a sinne offering to make an atonement for you, ⁶Beside the burnt offering of the moneth, and his meat offering, and the continual burnt offering, and his meate offering and the drinke offrings of the same, according to their maner, for a sweete sauour: it is a sacrifice

made by fire vnto ye Lord. ⁷And ye shall haue in ye tenth day of the seuenth moneth, an holy conuocation: and ye shall humble your soules, and shall not doe any worke therein: ⁸But ye shall offer a burnt offering vnto the Lord for a sweete sauour: one yong bullocke, a ramme, and seuen lambes of a yeere olde: see they be without blemish. ⁹And their meate offering shall be of fine floure mingled with oyle, three tenth deales to a bullocke, and two tenth deales to a ramme, ¹⁰One tenth deale vnto euery lambe, thoroughout the seuen lambes, ¹¹An hee goate for a sinne offering, (beside ye sinne offering to make the atonement and the continual burnt offering and the meat offering thereof) and their drinke offrings. ¹²And in the fifteenth day of the seuenth moneth ye shall haue an holie conuocation: ye shall do no seruile worke therein, but yee shall keepe a feast vnto the Lord seuen daies. ¹³And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sacrifice made by fire of sweete sauour vnto the Lord, thirteene yong bullockes, two rammes, and fourtene lambes of a yeere olde: they shall bee without blemish. ¹⁴And their meate offering shall bee of fine floure mingled with oyle, three tenth deales vnto euery bullocke of the thirteene bullockes, two tenth deales to either of the two rammes, ¹⁵And one tenth deale vnto eche of ye fourteene lambes, ¹⁶And one hee goate for a sinne offering, beside the continuall burnt offering, his meate offering, and his drinke offering. ¹⁷And the second day ye shall offer twelue yong bullockes, two rams, fourteene lambes of a yeere olde without blemish, ¹⁸With their meate offering and their drinke offerings for the bullockes, for the rammes, and for the lambes according to their number, after the maner, ¹⁹And an hee goate for a sinne offering, (beside the continuall burnt offering and his meate offering) and their drinke offerings. ²⁰Also the third day ye shall offer eleuen bullocks, two rams, and fourteene lambes of a yeere olde without blemish, ²¹With their meate offering and their drinke offerings, for the bullockes, for the rams, and for the lambes, after their number according to the maner, ²²And an hee goat for a sinne offering, beside the continuall burnt offering, and his meate offering and his drinke offering. ²³And the fourth day ye shall offer tenne bullocks, two rammes, and fourteene lambes of a yeere olde without blemish. ²⁴Their meate offering and their drinke offerings, for the bullockes, for the rammes, and for the lambes according to their number, after the maner, ²⁵And an hee goate for a sinne offering beside the continuall burnt offering, his meate offering and his drinke offering. ²⁶In the fifth day also ye shall offer nine bullockes, two rammes, and fourteene lambes of a yeere olde without blemish, ²⁷And their meat offering and their drinke offerings for the bullockes, for the rammes, and for the lambes according to their number, after the maner, ²⁸And an hee goat for a sinne offering, beside the continuall burnt offering, and his meat offering and his drinke offering. ²⁹And in the sixt day ye shall offer eight bullockes, two rams, and fourteene lambes of a yeere olde without blemish, ³⁰And their meate offring, and their drinke offrings for the bullockes, for the rammes, and for the lambes according to their number, after the maner, ³¹And an hee goat for a sinne offring, beside the continuall burnt offring, his meate offring and his drinke offrings. ³²In the seuenth day also ye shall offer seuen bullocks, two rammes and fourteene lambes of a yeere olde without blemish, ³³And their meate offering and their drinke offrings for the bullockes, for the rammes, and for the lambes according to their number, after their maner, ³⁴And an hee goate for a sinne offring, beside the continuall burnt offring, his meate offering and his drinke offring. ³⁵In the eight day, yee shall haue a solemne assemblie: yee shall doe no seruile worke therein, ³⁶But yee shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord, one bullocke, one ram, and seuen lambes of a yeere old without blemish, ³⁷Their

¹Then Moses spake vnto the children of Israel according to all that the Lord had commanded him, ²Moses also spake vnto the heads of ye tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, ³Whosoeuer voweth a vow vnto the Lord, or sweareth an othe to binde him selfe by a bonde, he shall not breake his promise, but shall do according to al that proceedeth out of his mouth. ⁴If a woman also vow a vow vnto the Lord, and binde her selfe by a bonde, being in her fathers house, in the time of her youth, ⁵And her father heare her vowe and bonde, wherewith she hath bound her selfe, and her father hold his peace concerning her, then all her voves shall stande, and euery bonde, wherewith she hath bound her selfe, shall stand. ⁶But if her father disallow her the same day that he heareth all her voves and bondes, wherewith she hath bound her selfe, they shall not bee of value, and the Lord will forgiue her, because her father disallowed her. ⁷And if she haue an husband when she voweth or pronounceth ought with her lips, wherewith she bindeth her selfe, ⁸If her husband heard it, and holdeth his peace concerning her, the same day he heareth it, then her vowe shall stande, and her bondes wherewith she bindeth her selfe shall stand in effect. ⁹But if her husband disallow her the same day that hee heareth it, then shall hee make her vowe which shee hath made, and that that shee hath pronounced with her lips, wherewith shee bound her selfe, of none effect: and the Lord will forgiue her. ¹⁰But euery vowe of a widowe, and of her that is diuorced (wherewith she hath bound her selfe) shall stand in effect with her. ¹¹And if she vowed in her husbands house, or bound her selfe streightly with an othe, ¹²And her husband hath heard it, and helde his peace cocerning her, not disallowing her, then all her voves shall stand, and euery bond, wherewith she bound her selfe, shall stand in effect. ¹³But if her husband disanulled them, the same day that he heard them, nothing that proceeded out of her lippes concerning her voves or concerning her bondes, shall stand in effect: for her husband hath disanulled them: and the Lord will forgiue her. ¹⁴So euery vowe, and euery othe or bonde, made to humble the soule, her husband may stablish it, or her husband may breake it. ¹⁵But if her husband holde his peace concerning her from day to day, then he stablisheth al her voves and all her bondes which shee hath made: hee hath confirmed them because he held his peace concerning her the same day that hee hearde them. ¹⁶But if he breake them after that he hath heard them, then shall he beare her iniquitie. These are the ordinances which the Lord commanded Moses, betweene a man and his wife, and betweene the father and his daughter, being young in her fathers house.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Reuenge the children of Israel of the Midianites, and afterwarde shalt thou be gathered vnto thy people. ³And Moses spake to the people, saying, Harnessse some of you vnto warre, and let them goe against Midian, to execute the vengeance of the Lord against Midian. ⁴A thousande of euery tribe throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye sende to the warre. ⁵So there were taken out of the thousands of Israel, twelue thousande prepared vnto warre, of euery tribe a thousand. ⁶And Moses sent them to the warre, euen a thousand of euery tribe, and sent them with Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest to the warre: and the holy instruments, that is, the trumpets to blow were in his hand. ⁷And they warred against Midian, as the Lord had commanded Moses, and slue all the males. ⁸They slue also the Kings of Midian among them that were slaine: Eui and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur and Reba fiue kings of Midian, and they slue Balaam the sonne of Beor with the sworde: ⁹But the children of Israel tooke the women of Midian prisoners, and their children, and spoyled all their cattell, and all their flockes, and all their goods. ¹⁰And they burnt all their cities, wherein they dwelt, and all their villages with fire. ¹¹And they tooke all the spoyle and all the pray both of men and beastes. ¹²And they brought the captiues and that which they had taken, and the spoyle vnto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, and vnto the Congregation of the children of Israel, into ye campe in the playne of Moab, which was by Iorden toward Iericho. ¹³Then Moses and Eleazar the Priest, and all the princes of the Congregation went out of the campe to meete them.

¹⁴And Moses was angry with the captaines of the hoste, with the captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreds, which came from the warre and battel.

¹⁵And Moses sayde vnto them, What? haue ye saued all the women? ¹⁶Behold, these caused the children of Israel through the counsell of Balaam to commit a trespasse against the Lord, as concerning Peor, and there came a plague among the Congregation of the Lord. ¹⁷Now therefore, slay all the males among the children, and kill all the women that haue known man by carnall copulation. ¹⁸But all the women children that haue not known carnall copulation, keepe alieue for your selues. ¹⁹And ye shall remaine without the host seuen dayes, all that haue killed any person, and all that haue touched any dead, and purifie both your selues and your prisoners the third day and the seuenth. ²⁰Also ye shall purifie euery garment and all that is made of skins and al worke of goates heare, and all things made of wood. ²¹And Eleazar ye Priest sayd vnto the men of warre, which went to the battel, This is the ordinance of the law which the Lord commanded Moses, ²²As for gold, and siluer, brasse, yron, tynne, and lead: ²³Euen all that may abide the fire, yee shall make it goe through the fire, and it shalbe cleane: yet, it shalbe purified with the water of purification: and all that suffereth not the fire, yee shall cause to passe by the water. ²⁴Ye shall wash also your clothes the seuenth day, and ye shalbe cleane: and afterward ye shall come into the Hoste. ²⁵And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²⁶Take the summe of the prairie that was taken, both of persons and of cattell, thou and Eleazar the Priest, and the chiefe fathers of the Congregation. ²⁷And deuide the praye betweene the souldiers that went to the warre, and all the Congregation. ²⁸And thou shalt take a tribute vnto ye Lord of the men of warre, which went out to battel: one person of fife hundreth, both of the persons, and of the beeuies, and of the asses, and of the sheepe. ²⁹Yee shall take it of their halfe and giue it vnto Eleazar the Priest, as an heaue offering of the Lord. ³⁰But of the halfe of the children of Israel thou shalt take one, taken out of fiftie, both of the persons, of the beeues, of the asses, and of the sheepe, euen of all the cattel: and thou shalt giue them vnto the Leuites, which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord. ³¹And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the Lord had commanded Moses. ³²And the bootie, to wit, the rest of the praie which the men of warre had spoyled, was sixe hundreth seuentie and fiue thousand sheepe, ³³And seuentie and two thousand beeues, ³⁴And three score and one thousand asses, ³⁵And two and thirtie thousande persons in all, of women that had lyen by no man. ³⁶And the halfe, to wit, the part of them that went out to warre touching the number of sheepe, was three hundreth seuen and thirtie thousand, and fiue hundreth. ³⁷And the Lordes tribute of the sheepe was sixe hundreth and seuentie and fiue:

³⁸And the beeues were six and thirty thousad, whereof the Lordes tribute was seuentie and two. ³⁹And the asses were thirtie thousande and fiue hundreth, whereof the Lordes tribute was three score and one: ⁴⁰And of persons sixtene thousand, whereof the Lordes tribute was two and thirtie persons. ⁴¹And Moses gaue the tribute of the Lordes offering vnto Eleazar the Priest, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ⁴²And of the halfe of the children of Israel, which Moses deuided from the men of warre, ⁴³(For the halfe that pertained vnto the Congregation, was three hundreth thirtie and seuen thousand sheepe and fiue hundreth, ⁴⁴And sixe and thirtie thousand beeues, ⁴⁵And thirtie thousand asses, and fiue hudreth, ⁴⁶And sixtene thousande persons) ⁴⁷Moses, I say, tooke of the halfe that pertained vnto the children of Israel, one taken out of fiftie, both of the persons, and of the cattell, and gaue them vnto the Leuites, which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ⁴⁸Then the captaines which were ouer thousandes of the hoste, the captaines ouer the thousandes, and the captaines ouer the hundreds came vnto Moses: ⁴⁹And saide to Moses, Thy seruants haue taken the summe of the men of warre which are vnder our authoritie, and there lacketh not one man of vs. ⁵⁰We haue therefore brought a present vnto the Lord, what euery man found of iewels of golde, bracelets, and cheines, rings, eare ringes, and ornaments of the legges, to make an atonement for our soules before the Lord. ⁵¹And Moses and Eleazar the Priest tooke the golde of them, and all wrought iewels, ⁵²And all the golde of the offering that they offered vp to the Lord (of the captaines ouer thousands and hundreds) was sixteene thousande seven hundreth and fiftie shekels, ⁵³(For the men of warre had spoyled, euery man for him selfe) ⁵⁴And Moses and Eleazar the Priest tooke the golde of the captaines ouer the thousandes, and ouer the hundreds, and brought it into the

¹Nowe the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad had an exceeding great multitude of cattell: and they sawe the lande of Iazer, and the lande of Gilead, that it was an apt place for cattell. ²Then the children of Gad, and the childe of Reuben came, and spake vnto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, and vnto the princes of the Congregation, saying, ³The land of Ataroth, and Dibon, and Iazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon, ⁴Which countrey the Lord smote before the Congregation of Israel, is a lande meete for cattell, and thy seruants haue cattell: ⁵Wherefore, said they, if we haue foud grace in thy sight, let this lande be giuen vnto thy seruants for a possession, and bring vs not ouer Iorde. ⁶And Moses said vnto the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren goe to warre, and ye tary

heere? ⁷Wherefore now discourage ye the heart of the children of Israel, to goe ouer into the lande, which the Lord hath giuen them? ⁸Thus did your fathers when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the lande. ⁹For when they went vp euen vnto the riuer of Eshcol, and sawe the land: they discouraged the heart of the childre of Israel, that they woulde not goe into the lande, which the Lord had giuen them. ¹⁰And the Lordes wrath was kindled the same day, and he did sweare, saying, ¹¹None of the men that came out of Egypt from twentie yeere olde and aboue, shall see the land for the which I sware vnto Abraham, to Izhak, and to Iaakob, because they haue not wholly followed me: ¹²Except Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh the Kenesite, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun: for they haue constantly followed the Lord. ¹³And the Lord was very angry with Israel, and made them wander in the wilderness fourty yeeres, vntill all the generation that had done euill in the sight of the Lord were consumed. ¹⁴And behold, ye are risen vp in your fathers steade as an encrease of sinfull men, still to augment the fierce wrath of the Lord, toward Israel. ¹⁵For if ye turne away from following him, he will yet againe leaue the people in the wilderness, and ye shall destroy all this folke. ¹⁶And they went neere to him, and said, We will builde sheepe foldes here for our sheepe, and for our cattell, and cities for our children. ¹⁷But we our selues will be readie armed to go before the children of Israel, vntill we haue brought them vnto their place: but our childre shall dwell in the defenced cities, because of the inhabitants of the lande. ¹⁸We will not returne vnto our houses, vntil the children of Israel haue inherited, euery man his inheritance. ¹⁹Neither wil we inherite with them beyond Iorden and on that side, because our inheritance is fallen to vs on this side Iorden Eastwarde. ²⁰And Moses saide vnto them, If ye will doe this thing, and goe armed before the Lord to warre: ²¹And will goe euery one of you in harnesse ouer Iorden before the Lord, vntill he hath cast out his enemies from his sight: ²²And vntill the land be subdued before the Lord, then ye shall returne and be innocent toward the Lord, and toward Israel: and this land shalbe your possession before the Lord. ²³But if ye will not doe so, beholde, ye haue sinned against the Lord, and be sure, that your sinne will finde you out. ²⁴Build ye then cities for your children and folds for your sheepe, and do that ye haue spoke. ²⁵Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake vnto Moses, saying, Thy seruants will doe as my lorde commandeth: ²⁶Our childe, our wiues, our sheepe, and al our cattell shall remaine there in the cities of Gilead, ²⁷But thy seruants will goe euery one armed to warre before the Lord for to fight, as my lorde saith. ²⁸So concerning them, Moses commanded Eleazar the Priest, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel: ²⁹And Moses said vnto them, If the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben, will go with you ouer Iorden, all armed to fight before the Lord, then when the land is subdued before you, ye shall giue the the lad of Gilead for a possessio: ³⁰But if they will not goe ouer with you armed, then they shall haue their possessions amog you in the land of Canaan. ³¹And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the Lord hath said vnto thy seruants, so will we doe. ³²We will goe armed before the Lord into the lande of Canaan: that the possession of our inheritance may be to vs on this side Iorden. ³³So Moses gaue vnto them, euen to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to halfe the tribe of Manasseh the sonne of Ioseph, the kingdome of Sihon King of the Amorites, and the kingdome of Og King of Bashan, the lande with the cities thereof and coastes, euen the cities of the countrey round about. ³⁴Then the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, ³⁵And Atroth, Shophan, and Iazer, and Iogbehah, ³⁶And Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, defenced cities: also sheepe foldes. ³⁷And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kiriathaim, ³⁸And Nebo, and Baal-meon, and turned their names, and Shibmah: and gaue other names vnto the cities which they built. ³⁹And the children of Machir the sonne of Manasseh went to Gilead, and tooke it, and put out the Amorites that dwelt therein. ⁴⁰Then Moses gaue Gilead vnto Machir the sonne of Manasseh, and he dwelt therein. ⁴¹And Iair the sonne of Manasseh went and tooke the small townes thereof, and called them Hauoth Iair. ⁴²Also Nobah went and tooke Kenath, with the villages thereof and called it Nobah, after his owne name.

¹These are the iourneyes of the children of Israel, which went out of the land of Egypt according to their bands vnder the hand of Moses and Aaron. ²And Moses wrote their going out by their iourneies according to ye commandement of the Lord: so these are ye iourneies of their going out. ³Nowe they departed from Rameses the first moneth, euen the fifteenth day of the first

moneth, on the morowe after the Passeouer: and the children of Israel went out with an hie hand in the sight of all the Egyptians. ⁴(For the Egyptians buried all their first borne, which the Lord had smitten among them: vpon their gods also the Lord did execution.) ⁵And the children of Israel remoued from Rameses, and pitched in Succoth. ⁶And they departed from Succoth, and pitched in Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness. ⁷And they remoued from Etham, and turned againe vnto Pi-hahiroth, which is before Baal-zephon, and pitched before Migdol. ⁸And they departed from before Hahiroth, and went through the middes of the Sea into the wilderness, and went three dayes iourney in the wilderness of Etham, and pitched in Marah. ⁹And they remoued from Marah, and came vnto Elim, and in Elim were twelue fountaines of water, and seuentie palme trees, and they pitched there. ¹⁰And they remoued from Elim, and camped by the red Sea. ¹¹And they remoued from the red Sea, and lay in the wilderness of Sin. ¹²And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Sin, and set up their tents in Dophkah. ¹³And they departed from Dophkah, and lay in Alush. ¹⁴And they removed from Alush, and lay in Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drink. ¹⁵And they departed from Rephidim, and pitched in the wilderness of Sinai. ¹⁶And they removed from the desert of Sinai, and pitched in Kibroth Hattaauah. ¹⁷And they departed from Kibroth Hattaauah, and lay at Hazeroth. ¹⁸And they departed from Hazeroth, and pitched in Rithmah. ¹⁹And they departed from Rithmah, and pitched at Rimmon Perez. ²⁰And they departed from Rimmon Perez, and pitched in Libnah. ²¹And they removed from Libnah, and pitched in Rissah. ²²And they journeyed from Rissah, and pitched in Kehelathah. ²³And they went from Kehelathah, and pitched in mount Shapher. ²⁴And they removed from mount Shapher, and lay in Haradah. ²⁵And they removed from

Haradah, and pitched in Makheloth. ²⁶And they removed from Makheloth, and lay in Tahath. ²⁷And they departed from Tahath, and pitched in Tarah. ²⁸And they removed from Tarah, and pitched in Mithkah. ²⁹And they went from Mithkah, and pitched in Hashmonah. ³⁰And they departed from Hashmonah, and lay in Moseroth. ³¹And they departed from Moseroth, and pitched in Bene-iaakan. ³²And they removed from Bene-iaakan, and lay in Hor-hagidgad. ³³And they went from Hor-hagidgad, and pitched in Iotbathah. ³⁴And they removed from Iotbathah, and lay in Ebronah. ³⁵And they departed from Ebronah, and lay in Ezion-gaber. ³⁶And they removed from Ezion-gaber, and pitched in the wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh. ³⁷And they removed from Kadesh, and pitched in mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom. ³⁸(And Aaron the Priest went up into mount Hor, at the commandment of the Lord, and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the lande of Egypt, in the first day of the fifth moneth. ³⁹And Aaron was an hundreth, and three and twentie yeere olde, when hee dyed in mount Hor. ⁴⁰And King Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the South of the land of Canaan, heard of the comming of the children of Israel) ⁴¹And they departed from mount Hor, and pitched in Zalmonah. ⁴²And they departed from Zalmonah, and pitched in Punon. ⁴³And they departed from Punon, and pitched in Oboth. ⁴⁴And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in Iie-abarim, in the borders of Moab. ⁴⁵And they departed from Iim, and pitched in Dibon-gad. ⁴⁶And they remooued from Dibon-gad, and lay in Almon-diblathaim. ⁴⁷And they remooued from Almon-diblathaim, and pitched in the mountaines of Abarim before Nebo. ⁴⁸And they departed from the mountaines of Abarim, and pitched in the playne of Moab, by Iorden toward Iericho. ⁴⁹And they pitched by Iorden, from Bethieshimoth vnto Abel-shittim in the playne of Moab. ⁵⁰And the Lord spake vnto Moses in the playne of Moab, by Iorden toward Iericho, saying, ⁵¹Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye are come ouer Iorden to enter into the land of Canaan, ⁵²Ye shall then driue out all the inhabitants of the land before you, and destroy all their pictures, and breake asunder all their images of metall, and plucke downe all their hie places. ⁵³And ye shall possesse the lande and dwell therein: for I haue giue you ye land to possesse it. ⁵⁴And ye shall inherite the land by lot according to your families: to the more yee shall giue more inheritance, and to the fewer the lesse inheritance. Where the lot shall fall to any man, that shall be his: according to the tribes of your fathers shall ye inherite. ⁵⁵But if ye will not driue out the inhabitants of the land before you, then those which yee let ramaine of them, shalbe prickes in your eyes, and thornes in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell. ⁵⁶Moreouer, it shall come to passe, that I shall doe vnto you, as I thought to do vnto them.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ²Commande the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When yee come into the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall fall vnto your inheritance: that is, the land of Canaan with the coastes thereof. ³And your Southquarter shalbe from the wilderness of Zin to the borders of Edom: so that your Southquarter shall be from the salt Sea coast Eastwarde: ⁴And the border shall compasse you from the South to Maaleh-akrabbim, and reach to Zin, and goe out from the South to Kadesh-barnea: thence it shall stretch to Hazar-addar, and go along to Azmon. ⁵And the border shall compasse from Azmon vnto the riuer of Egypt, and shall goe out to the Sea. ⁶And your Westquarter shall bee the great Sea: euen that border shalbe your Westcoast. ⁷And this shall bee your Northquarter: yee shall marke out your border from the great Sea vnto mount Hor. ⁸From mount Hor ye shall point out till it come vnto Hamath, and the end of the coast shall be at Zedad. ⁹And the coast shall reach out to Ziphron, and goe out at Hazar-enan. this shalbe your Northquarter. ¹⁰And ye shall marke out your Eastquarter from Hazar-enan to Shepham. ¹¹And the coast shall goe downe from Shepham to Riblah, and from the Eastside of Ain: and the same border shall descend and goe out at the side of the sea of Chinneereth Eastward. ¹²Also that border shall goe downe to Iorden, and leaue at the salt Sea. this shalbe your land with the coastes thereof round about. ¹³Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the lande which yee shall inherite by lot, which the Lord commanded to giue vnto nine tribes and halfe the tribe. ¹⁴For the tribe of the children of Reuben, according to the houtholdes of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad, according to their fathers houtholdes, and halfe the tribe of

Manasseh, haue receiued their inheritance. ¹⁵Two tribes and an halfe tribe haue receiued their inheritance on this side of Iorden toward Iericho full East. ¹⁶Againe the Lord spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁷These are the names of the men which shall deuide ye land vnto you: Eleazar the Priest, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun. ¹⁸And ye shall take also a prince of euerie tribe to deuide the land. ¹⁹The names also of the men are these: Of the tribe of Iudah, Caleb ye sonne of Iephunneh. ²⁰And of the tribe of the sonnes of Simeon, Shemuel the sonne of Ammihud. ²¹Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the sonne of Chislon. ²²Also of the tribe of the sonnes of Dan, the prince Bukki, the sonne of Iogli. ²³Of the sonnes of Ioseph: of the tribe of the sonnes of Manasseh, the prince Hanniel the sonne of Ephod. ²⁴And of the tribe of the sonnes of Ephraim, the prince Kemuel, the sonne of Shiphtan. ²⁵Of the tribe also of the sonnes of Zebulun, the prince Elizaphan, the sonne of Parnach. ²⁶So of the tribe of the sonnes of Issachar, the prince Paltiel the sonne of Azzan. ²⁷Of the tribe also of the sonnes of Asher, the prince Ahihud, the sonne of Shelomi. ²⁸And of the tribe of the sonnes of Naphtali, the prince Pedahel, the sonne of Ammihud. ²⁹These are they, whome the Lord commanded to deuide the inheritance vnto the children of Israel, in the land of Canaan.

¹And the Lord spake vnto Moses in the plaine of Moab by Iorden, toward Iericho, saying, ²Commande ye children of Israel, that they giue vnto the Leuites of the inheritace of their possession, cities to dwell in: yee shall giue also vnto the Leuites the suburbes of the cities round about them. ³So they shall haue the cities to dwell in, and their suburbes shall be for their cattell, and for their substance, and for all their beasts. ⁴And the suburbes of the cities, which ye shall giue vnto the Leuites, from the wall of the citie outward, shalbe a thousand cubites round about. ⁵And yee shall measure without the citie of the Eastside, two thousand cubites: and of the Southside, two thousand cubites: and of the Westside, two thousand cubites: and of ye Northside, two thousand cubites: and the citie shalbe in ye middes. this shalbe the measure of the suburbes of their cities. ⁶And of the cities which yee shall giue vnto the Leuites, there shalbe sixe cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint, that he which killeth, may flee thither: and to them yee shall adde two and fourtie cities more. ⁷All the cities which yee shall giue to the Leuites, shalbe eight and fourtie cities: them shall ye giue with their suburbes. ⁸And concerning the cities which yee shall giue, of the possession of the children of Israel: of many ye shall take more, and of few ye shall take lesse: euery one shall giue of his cities vnto the Leuites, according to his inheritance, which hee inheriteth. ⁹And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¹⁰Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye be come ouer Iorden into the land of Canaan, ¹¹Ye shall appoint you cities, to bee cities of refuge for you, that the slayer, which slayeth any person vnwares, may flee thither. ¹²And these cities shalbe for you a refuge from the auenger, that he which killeth, die not, vntill he stand before the Congregation in iudgement. ¹³And of the cities which ye shall giue, sixe cities shall ye haue for refuge. ¹⁴Ye shall appoint three on this side Iorden, and ye shall appoint three cities in the lande of Canaan which shalbe cities of refuge. ¹⁵These six cities shalbe a refuge for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for him that dwelleth among you, that euery one which killeth any person vnwares, may flee thither. ¹⁶And if one smite another with an instrument of yron that hee die, hee is a murtherer, and the murtherer shall die the death. ¹⁷Also if hee smite him by casting a stone, wherewith hee may be slaine, and he die, hee is a murtherer, and the murtherer shall die the death. ¹⁸Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may be slaine, if he die, he is a murtherer, and the murtherer shall die the death. ¹⁹The reuenger of the blood himselfe shall slay the murtherer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him. ²⁰But if hee thrust him of hate, or hurle at him by laying of wait, that he die, ²¹Or smite him through enimitie with his hand, that he die, he that smote him shall die ye death: for hee is a murtherer: the reuenger of the blood shall slay the murtherer when he meeteth him. ²²But if he pushed him vnaduisedly, and not of hatred, or cast vpon him any thing, without laying of waite, ²³Or any stone (whereby he might be slaine) and sawe him not, or caused it to fall vpon him, and he die, and was not his enemie, neither sought him any harme, ²⁴Then the Congregation shall iudge betweene the slayer and the auenger of blood according to these lawes. ²⁵And the Congregation shall deliuer the slayer out of the hande of the auenger of blood, and the Congregation shall restore him vnto the citie of his refuge, whither hee was fled: and hee shall abide there vnto the death of the hie Priest, which is anointed with the holy oyle. ²⁶But if the slayer come without the borders of the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled, ²⁷And the reuenger of blood finde him without the borders of the citie of his refuge, and the reueger of blood slay ye murtherer, he shalbe giltles, ²⁸Because he should haue remained in the citie of his refuge, vntill the death of the hie Priest: and after the death of the hie Priest, the slayer shall returne vnto the land of his possession. ²⁹So these thinges shall be a lawe of iudgement vnto you, throughout your generations in all your dwellings. ³⁰Whosoeuer killeth any person, the Iudge shall slay the murtherer, through witnesses: but one witnesse shall not testifie against a person to cause him to die. ³¹Moreouer ye shall take no recompense for the life of the murtherer, which is worthy to die: but he shalbe put to death. ³²Also ye shall take no recompense for him that is fled to the citie of his refuge, that he should come againe, and dwell in the lande, before the death of the

hie Priest. ³³So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye shall dwell: for blood defileth the land: and the land cannot be clensed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it. ³⁴Defile not therefore the lande which yee shall inhabite, For I dwell in the middes thereof: for I the Lord dwel among the children of Israel.

¹Then the chiefe fathers of the familie of the sonnes of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasseh, of the families of the sones of Ioseph, came, and spake before Moses, and before the princes, the chiefe fathers of the children of Israel, ²And saide, The Lord commanded my lord to giue the land to inherit by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the Lord, to giue the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother vnto his daughters. ³If they bee married to any of the sonnes of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, and shalbe put

vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shalbe: so shall it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance. ⁴Also when the Iubile of the children of Israel commeth, then shall their inheritance be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shall be: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers. ⁵Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, according to the word of the Lord, saying, The tribe of the sonnes of Ioseph haue said well.

⁶This is the thing that the Lord hath commanded, concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, They shall be wiues, to whome they thinke best, onely to the familie of the tribe of their father shall they marry: ⁷So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remoue from tribe to tribe, for euery one of the children of Israel shall ioyn himselfe to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. ⁸And euery daughter that possesseth any inheritance of the tribes of the children of Israel, shalbe wife vnto one of the familie of the tribe of her father: that the children of Israel may enioye euery man the inheritance of their fathers. ⁹Neither shall the inheritance go about from tribe to tribe: but euery one of the tribes of the childre of Israel shall sticke to his own inheritace. ¹⁰As the Lord commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad. ¹¹For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah the daughters of Zelophehad were married vnto their fathers brothers sonnes, ¹²They were wiues to certaine of the families of the sonnes of Manasseh the sonne of Ioseph: so their inheritance remained in the tribe of the familie of their father. ¹³These are the commandements and lawes which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, vnto the children of Israel in the plaine of Moab, by Iorden toward Iericho.

DEUTERONOMY

¹These bee the wordes which Moses spake vnto all Israel, on this side Iorden in the wilderness, in the plaine, ouer against the red Sea, betweene Paran and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Di-zahab. ²There are eleuen dayes iourney from Horeb vnto Kadesh-barnea, by the way of mout Seir. ³And it came to passe in the first day of the eleuenth moneth, in the fourtieth yeere that Moses spake vnto the children of Israel according vnto all that the Lord had giuen him in commandement vnto them, ⁴After that he had slaine Sihon the king of the Amorites which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, which dwelt at Ashtaroth in Edrei. ⁵On this side Iorden in the lande of Moab began Moses to declare this lawe, saying, ⁶The Lord our God spake vnto vs in Horeb, saying, Ye haue dwelt long ynough in this mount, ⁷Turne you and depart, and goe vnto the mountaine of the Amorites, and vnto all places neere thereunto in the plaine, in the mountaine, or in the valley:

both Southwarde, and to the Sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and vnto Lebanon: euen vnto the great riuer, the riuer Perath. ⁸Beholde, I haue set the land before you: go in and possesse that land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob, to giue vnto them and to their seede after them. ⁹And I spake vnto you the same time, saying, I am not able to beare you my selfe alone: ¹⁰The Lord your God hath multiplied you: and beholde, ye are this day as the starres of heauen in nomber: ¹¹(The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many moe as ye are, and blesse you, as he hath promised you) ¹²Howe can I alone beare your combrance and your charge, and your strife? ¹³Bring you men of wisdom and of vnderstanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers ouer you: ¹⁴Then ye answered me and said, The thing is good that thou hast commanded vs to doe. ¹⁵So I tooke the chiefe of your tribes wise and known men, and made them rulers ouer you, captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreds, and captaines ouer fiftie, and captaines ouer tenne, and officers among your tribes. ¹⁶And I charged your iudges that same time, saying, Heare the controuersies betweene your brethren, and iudge righteously betweene euery man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him. ¹⁷Ye shall haue no respect of person in iudgement, but shall heare the small aswell as the great: yee shall not feare the face of man: for the iudgement is Gods: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring vnto me, and I will heare it. ¹⁸Also I commanded you the same time all the things which ye should doe. ¹⁹Then we departed from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness (as yee haue seene) by the way of the mountaine of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded vs: and we came to Kadesh-barnea. ²⁰And I saide vnto you, Yee are come vnto the mountaine of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doeth giue vnto vs.

²¹Beholde, the Lord thy God hath layde the land before thee: go vp and possesse it, as the Lord the God of thy fathers hath saide vnto thee: feare not, neither be discouraged. ²²Then ye came vnto me euery one, and said, We wil send men before vs, to search vs out the land and to bring vs word againe, what way we must go vp by, and vnto what cities we shall come. ²³So the saying pleased me well, and I tooke twelue men of you, of euery tribe one. ²⁴Who departed, and went vp into the mountaine, and came vnto the riuer Eshcol, and searched out the land. ²⁵And tooke of the fruite of the land in their hands, and brought it vnto vs, and brought vs worde againe, and sayd, It is a good land, which the Lord our God doeth giue vs. ²⁶Notwithstanding, ye would not go vp, but were disobedient vnto the commandement of the Lord your God, ²⁷And murmured in your tentes, and sayd, Because the Lord hated vs, therefore hath hee brought vs out of the land of Egypt, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy vs. ²⁸Whither shall we go vp? our brethren haue discouraged our hearts, saying, The people is greater, and taller then we: the cities are great and walled vp to heauen: and moreouer we haue seene the sonnes of the Anakims there. ²⁹But I sayd vnto you, Dread not, nor be afrayd of them. ³⁰The Lord your God, who goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes, ³¹And in the wilderness, where thou hast seene how the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doeth beare his sonne, in all the way which ye haue gone, vntill ye came vnto this place. ³²Yet for all this ye did not beleue the Lord your God, ³³Who went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tentes in, in fire by night, that ye might see what way to goe, and in a cloude by day. ³⁴Then the Lord heard the voyce of your wordes, and was wroth, and sware, saying, ³⁵Surely there shall not one of these men of this froward generation, see that good land, which I sware to giue vnto your fathers, ³⁶Saue

Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh: he shall see it, and to him will I giue the land that he hath troden vpon, and to his children, because he hath constantly followed the Lord. ³⁷Also the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not goe in thither, ³⁸But Ioshua the sonne of Nun which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: incourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherite it. ³⁹Moreouer, your children, which ye sayd should be a praye, and your sonnes, which in that day had no knowledge betweene good and euill, they shall go in thither, and vnto them wil I giue it, and they shall possesse it. ⁴⁰But as for you, turne backe, and take your iourney into the wilderness by the way of the red Sea. ⁴¹Then ye answered and sayd vnto me, We haue sinned against the Lord, we wil go vp, and fight, according to all that the Lord our God hath commanded vs: and ye armed you euery man to the warre, and were ready to goe vp into the mountaine. ⁴²But the Lord said vnto me, Say vnto them, Goe not vp, neither fight, (for I am not among you) least ye fall before your enemies. ⁴³And when I told you, ye would not heare, but rebelled against the commandement of the Lord, and were presumptuous, and went vp into the mountaine. ⁴⁴Then the Amorites which dwelt in that mountaine came out against you, and chased you (as bees vse to doe) and destroied you in Seir, euen vnto Hormah. ⁴⁵And when ye came againe, ye wept before the Lord, but the Lord would not heare your voyce, nor incline his eares vnto you. ⁴⁶So ye abode in Kadesh a long time, according to the time that ye had remained before.

¹Then we turned, and tooke our iourney into the wildernes, by the way of the red Sea, as the Lord spake vnto me: and we compassed mount Seir a long time. ²And the Lord spake vnto me, saying, ³Ye haue compassed this mountaine long ynough: turne you Northward. ⁴And warne thou the people, saying, Ye shall go through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, and they shall be afraide of you: take ye good heede therefore. ⁵Ye shall not prouoke them: for I wil not giue you of their land so much as a foot breadth, because I haue giuen mount Seir vnto Esau for a possession. ⁶Ye shall buy meate of them for money to eate, and ye shall also procure water of them for money to drinke. ⁷For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in all the workes of thine hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wildernes, and the Lord thy God hath bene with thee this fourtie yeere, and thou hast lacked nothing. ⁸And when we were departed from our brethren the children of Esau which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plaine, from Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, we turned and went by the way of the wildernes of Moab. ⁹Then the Lord sayd vnto me, 'Thou shalt not vexe Moab, neither prouoke them to battel: for I wil not giue thee of their land for a possession, because I haue giuen Ar vnto the children of Lot for a possession. ¹⁰The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great and many, and tall, as the Anakims. ¹¹They also were taken for gyants as the Anakims: whom the Moabites call Emims. ¹²The Horims also dwelt in Seir before time, whome the children of Esau chased out and destroyed them before them, and dwelt in their steade: as Israel shall doe vnto the land of his possession, which the Lord hath giuen them. ¹³Now rise vp, sayd I, and get you ouer the riuier Zered: and we went ouer the riuier Zered. ¹⁴The space also wherein we came from Kadesh-barnea, vntill we were come ouer the riuier Zered, was eight and thirtie yeeres, vntill all the generation of the men of warre were wasted out from among the hoste, as the Lord sware vnto them. ¹⁵For in deede the hand of the Lord was against them, to destroy them from among the hoste, till they were consumed. ¹⁶So when all the men of warre were consumed and dead from among the people: ¹⁷Then the Lord spake vnto me, saying, ¹⁸Thou shalt goe through Ar the coast of Moab this day:

¹⁹And thou shalt come neere ouer against the children of Ammon: but shalt not lay siege vnto them, nor moue warre against them: for I will not giue thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession: for I haue giuen it vnto the children of Lot for a possession. ²⁰That also was taken for a land of gyants: for gyants dwelt therein afore time, whome the Ammonites called Zamzummims: ²¹A people that was great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims: but the Lord destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in their stead: ²²As he did to the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, when he destroyed the Horims before them, and they possessed them, and dwelt in their stead vnto this day. ²³And the Auims which dwelt in Hazarim euen vnto Azzah, the Caphtorims which came out of Caphtor destroyed them, and dwelt in their steade. ²⁴Rise vp therefore, sayd the Lord: take your iourney, and passe ouer the riuer Arnon: beholde, I haue giuen into thy hand Sihon, the Amorite, King of

Heshbon, and his land: begin to possesse it and prouoke him to battell. ²⁵This day wil I begin to send thy feare and thy dread, vpon all people vnder the whole heauen, which shall heare thy fame, and shall tremble and quake before thee. ²⁶Then I sent messengers out of the wildernes of Kedemoth vnto Sihon King of Heshbon, with wordes of peace, saying, ²⁷Let me passe through thy land: I will go by the hie way: I will neither turne vnto the right hand nor to the left. ²⁸Thou shalt sell me meate for money, for to eate, and shalt giue me water for money for to drinke: onely I will go through on my foote, ²⁹(As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did vnto me) vntill I be come ouer Iorden, into the land which the Lord our God giueth vs. ³⁰But Sihon the King of Heshbon would not let vs passe by him: for the Lord thy God had hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, because hee would deliuer him into thine hand, as appeareth this day. ³¹And the Lord sayd vnto me, Beholde,

I haue begun to giue Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possesse and inherite his land. ³²Then came out Sihon to meete vs, him selfe with all his people to fight at Iahaz. ³³But the Lord our God deliuered him into our power, and we smote him, and his sonnes, and all his people. ³⁴And we tooke all his cities the same time, and destroyed euery citie, men, and women, and children: we let nothing remaine. ³⁵Onely the cattell we tooke to our selues, and the spoyle of the cities which we tooke, ³⁶From Aroer, which is by the banke of the riuer of Arnon, and from the citie that is vpon the riuer, euen vnto Gilead: there was not one citie that escaped vs: for the Lord our God deliuered vp all before vs. ³⁷Onely vnto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor vnto any place of the riuer Iabbok, nor vnto the cities in the mountaines, nor vnto whatsoever the Lord our God forbade vs.

¹Then we turned, and went vp by the way of Bashan: and Og King of Bashan came out against vs, he, and all his people to fight at Edrei. ²And the Lord sayde vnto me, Feare him not, for I will deliuer him, and all his people, and his land into thine hand, and thou shalt doe vnto him as thou diddest vnto Sihon King of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon. ³So the Lord our God deliuered also vnto our hand, Og the King of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him, vntill none was left him aliue, ⁴And we tooke all his cities the same time, neither was there a citie which we tooke not from them, euen three score cities, and all ye countrey of Argob, the kingdome of Og in Bashan. ⁵All these cities were fenced with hie walles, gates and barres, beside vnwalled townes a great many. ⁶And we ouerthrewe them, as we did vnto Sihon King of Heshbon, destroying euery citie, with men, women, and children. ⁷But all the cattell and the spoyle of the cities we tooke for our selues. ⁸Thus we tooke at that time out of the hand of two Kings of the Amorites, the land that was on this side Iorden from the riuer of Arnon vnto mount Hermon: ⁹(Which Hermon the Sidonians call Shirion, but the Amorites call it Shenir) ¹⁰All the cities of the plaine, and all Gilead, and all Bashan vnto Salchah, and Edrei, cities of the kingdome of Og in Bashan. ¹¹For onely Og King of Bashan remained of the remnant of the gyants, whose bed was a bed of yron: is it not at Rabbath among the children of Ammon? the length thereof is nine cubites, and foure cubites the breadth of it, after the cubite of a man. ¹²And this land which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the riuer of Arnon, and halfe mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, gaue I vnto the Reubenites and Gadites. ¹³And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdome of Og, gaue I vnto the halfe tribe of Manasseh: euen all the countrey of Argob with all Bashan, which is called, The land of gyants. ¹⁴Iair the sonne of Manasseh tooke all the countrey of Argob, vnto the coastes of Geshuri, and of Maachathi: and called them after his owne name, Bashan, Hauoth

Iair vnto this day. ¹⁵And I gaue part of Gilead vnto Machir. ¹⁶And vnto the Reubenites and Gadites I gaue the rest of Gilead, and vnto the riuer of Arnon, halfe the riuer and the borders, euen vnto the riuer Iabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon: ¹⁷The plaine also and Iorden, and the borders from Chinneereth euen vnto the Sea of the plaine, to wit, the salt Sea vnder the springs of Pishgah Eastwarde. ¹⁸And I commanded you the same time, saying, The Lord your God hath giuen you this lande to possesse it: ye shall goe ouer armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all men of warre. ¹⁹Your wiues onely, and your children, and your cattel (for I know that ye haue much cattel) shall abide in your cities, which I haue giuen you, ²⁰Vntill the Lord haue giuen rest vnto your brethren as vnto you, and that they also possesse the lande, which the Lord your God hath giuen them beyond Iorden: then shall ye returne euery man vnto his possession, which I haue giuen you. ²¹And I charged Ioshua the same time, saying,

Thine eyes haue seene all that the Lord your God hath done vnto these two Kings: so shall the Lord doe vnto all the kingdomes whither thou goest. ²²Ye shall not feare them: for the Lord your God, he shall fight for you. ²³And I besought the Lord the same time, saying, ²⁴O Lord God, thou hast begunne to shewe thy seruant thy greatnesse and thy mightie hande: for where is there a God in heauen or in earth, that can do like thy workes, and like thy power? ²⁵I pray thee let me go ouer and see the good land that is beyond Iorden, that goodly mountaine, and Lebanon. ²⁶But the Lord was angrie with me for your sakes, and would not heare me: and the Lord said vnto me, Let it suffice thee, speake no more vnto me of this matter. ²⁷Get thee vp into the top of Pisgah, and lift vp thine eyes Westward, and Northwarde, and Southward, and Eastward, and behold it with thine eyes, for thou shalt not goe ouer this Iorden: ²⁸But charge Ioshua, and incourage him, and bolden him: for hee shall goe before this people, and he shall deuide for inheritance vnto them, the land which thou shalt see. ²⁹So wee abode in the valley ouer against Beth-Peor.

¹Nowe therefore hearken, O Israel, vnto the ordinances and to the lawes which I teache you to doe, that ye may liue and goe in, and possesse the lande, which the Lord God of your fathers giueth you. ²Ye shall put nothing vnto the word which I command you, neither shall ye take ought there from, that ye may keepe the commandements of the Lord your God which I commande you. ³Your eyes haue seene what the Lord did because of Baal-Peor, for al the men that folowed Baal-Peor the Lord thy God hath destroyed euery one from among you. ⁴But ye that did cleaue vnto the Lord your God, are alieue euery one of you this day. ⁵Behold, I haue taught you ordinances, and lawes, as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye should doe euen so within the land whither ye goe to

possesse it. ⁶Keepe them therefore, and doe them; for that is your wisdom, and your vnderstanding in the sight of the people, which shall heare all these ordinances, and shall say, Onely this people is wise, and of vnderstanding, and a great nation. ⁷For what nation is so great, vnto whome the gods come so neere vnto them, as the Lord our God is neere vnto vs, in all that we call vnto him for? ⁸And what nation is so great, that hath ordinances and lawes so righteous, as all this Lawe, which I set before you this day? ⁹But take heede to thy selfe, and keepe thy soule diligently, that thou forget not the thinges which thine eyes haue seene, and that they depart not out of thine heart, all the dayes of thy life: but teach them thy sonnes, and thy sonnes sonnes: ¹⁰Forget not the day that thou stoodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said vnto me, Gather me the people together, and I wil cause them heare my wordes, that they may learne to feare me all the dayes that they shall liue vpon the earth, and that they may teache their children: ¹¹Then came you neere and stode vnder the mountaine, and the mountaine burnt with fire vnto the mids of heauen, and there was darkenesse, cloudes and mist. ¹²And the Lord spake vnto you out of the middes of the fire, and ye heard the voyce of the wordes, but sawe no similitude, saue a voyce. ¹³Then hee declared vnto you his couenant which he commanded you to doe, euen the ten commandements, and wrote them vpon two tables of stone. ¹⁴And the Lord commanded me that same time, that I should teach you ordinances and lawes, which ye should obserue in the lande, whither ye goe, to possesse it. ¹⁵Take therefore good heede vnto your selues: for ye sawe no image in the day that the Lord spake vnto you in Horeb out of the middes of the fire: ¹⁶That ye corrupt not your selues, and make you a grauen image or representation of any figure: whither it be the likenes of male or female, ¹⁷The likenes of any beast that is on earth, or the likenesse of any fethered foule that flieth in the aire: ¹⁸Or the likenesse of any thing that creepeth on the earth, or the likenesse of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth, ¹⁹And lest thou lift vp thine eyes vnto heauen, and when thou seest the sunne and the moone and the starres with all the host of heauen, shouldest bee driuen to worship them and serue them, which the Lord thy God hath distributed to all people vnder the whole heauen. ²⁰But the Lord hath taken you and brought you out of the yron furnace: out of Egypt to be vnto him a people and inheritance, as appeareth this day. ²¹And the Lord was angrie with me for your words, and sware that I should not goe ouer Iorden, and that I should not goe in vnto that good land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance. ²²For I must die in this land, and shall not go ouer Iorden: but ye shall goe ouer, and possesse that good land. ²³Take heede vnto your selues, least ye forget the couenant of the Lord your God which hee made with you, and least ye make you any grauen image, or likenes of any thing, as the Lord thy God hath charged thee. ²⁴For the Lord thy God is a consuming fire, and a ielous God. ²⁵When thou shalt beget children and childrens children, and shalt haue remained long in the land, if ye corrupt your selues, and make any grauen image, or likenes of any thing, and worke euill in the sight of the Lord thy God, to prouoke him to anger, ²⁶I call heauen and earth to record against you this day, that ye shall shortly perish from the land, whereunto ye goe ouer Iorden to possesse it: ye shall not prolong your dayes therein, but shall vtterly be destroyed. ²⁷And the Lord shall scatter you among the people, and ye shall be left few in number among the nations, whither the Lord shall bring you: ²⁸And there ye shall serue gods, euen ye worke of mans hand, wood, and stone, which neither see, nor heare, nor eate, nor smelll. ²⁹But if from thence thou shalt seeke the Lord thy God, thou shalt finde him, if thou seeke him with all thine heart, and with all thy soule. ³⁰When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come vpon thee, at the length if thou returne to the Lord thy God, and bee obedient vnto his voyce, ³¹(For the Lord thy God is a mercifull God) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the couenant of thy fathers, which hee sware vnto them. ³²For inquire now of the dayes that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man vpon the earth, and aske from the one ende of heauen vnto the other, if there came to passe such a great thing as this, or whether any such like thing hath bene heard. ³³Did euer people heare the voyce of God speaking out of the middes of a fire, as thou hast heard, and liued? ³⁴Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from among nations, by tentations, by signes, and by wonders, and by warre, and by a mightie hand, and by a stretched out arme, and by great feare, according vnto all that the Lord your God did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes? ³⁵Vnto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest knowe, that the Lord hee is God, and that there is none but he alone. ³⁶Out of heauen hee made thee heare his voyce to instruct thee, and vpon earth he shewed thee his great fire, and thou heardest his voyce out of the middes of the fire. ³⁷And because hee loued thy fathers, therefore hee chose their seede after them, and hath brought thee out of Egypt in his sight by his mightie power, ³⁸To thrust out nations greater and mightier then thou, before thee, to bring thee in, and to giue thee their land for inheritance: as appeareth this day. ³⁹Vnderstande therefore this day, and consider in thine heart, that the Lord, he is God in heauen aboue, and vpon the earth beneath: there is none other. ⁴⁰Thou shalt keepe therefore his ordinances, and his commandements which I commaund thee this day, that it may goe well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayst prolong thy dayes vpon the earth, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for euer. ⁴¹Then Moses separated three cities on this side of Iorden toward the sunne rising: ⁴²That the slayer should flee thither, which had killed his neighbour at vnwares, and hated him not in time past, might flee, I say, vnto one of those cities, and liue:

⁴³That is, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plaine country of the Reubenites: and Ramoth in Gilead among the Gadites: and Golan in Bashan among them of Manasseh. ⁴⁴So this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel.

⁴⁵These are the witnesses, and the ordinances, and the lawes which Moses declared to the children of Israel after they came out of Egypt, ⁴⁶On this side Iorden, in the valley ouer against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon King of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote, after they were come out of Egypt:

⁴⁷And they possessed his land, and the lande of Og King of Bashan, two Kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Iorden towarde the sunne rising:

⁴⁸From Aroer, which is by the banke of the riuer Arnon, euen vnto mount Sion, which is Hermon, ⁴⁹And all the plaine by Iorden Eastwarde, euen vnto the Sea, of ye plaine, vnder the springs of Pisgah.

¹Then Moses called all Israiel, and saide vnto them, Heare, O Israel, the ordinances and the lawes which I propose to you this day, that yee may learne them, and take heede to obserue them. ²The Lord our God made a couenant with vs in Horeb. ³The Lord made not this couenant with our fathers onely, but with vs, euen with vs all here aliue this day. ⁴The Lord talked with you face to face in the Mount, out of the middes of the fire. ⁵(At that time I stode betweene the Lord and you, to declare vnto you ye word of the Lord: for ye were afraid at the sight of the fire, and went not vp into the mount, and he said, ⁶I am the Lord thy God, which haue brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, from the house of bondage. ⁷Thou shalt haue none other gods before my face. ⁸Thou shalt make thee no grauen image or any likenesse of that that is in heauen aboue, or which is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters vnder the earth. ⁹Thou shalt neither bowe thy selfe vnto them, nor serue them: for I the Lord thy God am a ielous God, visiting the iniquitie of the fathers vpon the children, euen vnto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me: ¹⁰And shewing mercie vnto thousandes of them that loue me, and keepe my commandements. ¹¹Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vaine: for the Lord will not holde him guiltlesse that taketh his Name in vaine. ¹²Keepe the Sabbath day, to sanctifie it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee. ¹³Sixe dayes thou shalt labour, and shalt doe all thy worke: ¹⁴But the seuenth day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: thou shalt not doe any worke therein, thou, nor thy sonne, nor thy daughter, nor thy man seruant, nor thy mayd, nor thine oxe, nor thine asse, neither any of thy cattel, nor the stranger that is within thy gates: that thy man seruant and thy mayde may rest aswell as thou. ¹⁵For, remember that thou wast a seruant in the land of Egypt, and that the Lord thy God brought thee out thence by a mightie hand and a stretched out arme: therefore the Lord thy God commanded thee to obserue the Sabbath day. ¹⁶Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath comanded thee, that thy dayes may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee vpon the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee. ¹⁷Thou shalt not kill. ¹⁸Neither shalt thou commit adulterie. ¹⁹Neither shalt thou steale. ²⁰Neither shalt thou beare false witnesse against thy neighbour. ²¹Neither shalt thou couet thy neighbours wife, neither shalt thou desire thy neighbours house, his fiede, nor his man seruant, nor his mayd, his oxe, nor his asse, nor ought that thy neighbour hath. ²²These wordes the Lord spake vnto all your multitude in the mount out of the mids of the fire, the cloude and the darkenes, with a great voyce, and added no more thereto: and wrote them vpon two tables of stone, and deliuered them vnto me. ²³And when ye heard the voyce out of the middes of the darkenes, (for the mountaine did burne with fire) then ye came to me, all the chiefe of your tribes, and your Elders: ²⁴And ye sayd, Beholde, the Lord our God hath shewed vs his glory and his greatnes, and we haue heard his voyce out of the middes of the fire: we haue seene this day that God doeth talke with man, and he liueth. ²⁵Now therefore, why should we dye? for this great fire wil consume vs: if we heare ye voyce of the Lord our God any more, we shall dye. ²⁶For what flesh was there euer, that heard the voyce of the liuing God speaking out of the middes of the fire as we haue, and liued? ²⁷Go thou neere and heare all that the Lord our God saith: and declare thou vnto vs all that the Lord our God saith vnto thee, and we will heare it, and doe it. ²⁸Then the Lord heard the voyce of your wordes, when ye spake vnto me: and the Lord sayd vnto me, I haue heard the voyce of ye wordes of this people, which they haue spoken vnto thee: they haue well sayd, all that they haue spoken.

²⁹Oh that there were such an heart in them to feare me, and to keepe all my commandements alway: that it might go well with them, and with their children for euer. ³⁰Go, say vnto them, Returne you into your tentes. ³¹But stand thou here with me, and I wil tell thee all the commandements, and the ordinances, and the lawes, which thou shalt teach them: that they may doe them in the land which I giue them to possesse it. ³²Take heede therefore, that ye doe as the Lord your God hath commanded you: turne not aside to the right hand nor to the left, ³³But walke in all the wayes which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may liue, and that it may goe well with you: and that ye may prolong your dayes in the land which ye shall possesse.

¹These now are the commandements, ordinances, and lawes, which the Lord your God commanded me to teach you, that ye might doe them in the land whither ye go to possesse it:

²That thou mightest feare the Lord thy God, and keepe all his ordinances, and his commandements which I commaund thee, thou, and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne all the dayes of thy life, euen that thy dayes may be prolonged. ³Heare therefore, O Israel, and take heede to doe it, that it may go well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily in the land that floweth with milke and hony, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promised thee. ⁴Heare, O Israel, The Lord our God is Lord onely, ⁵And thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy might. ⁶And these wordes which I commaund thee this day, shalbe in thine heart. ⁷And thou shalt rehearse them continually vnto thy children, and shalt talke of them when thou tariest in thine house, and as thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest downe, and when thou risest vp: ⁸And thou shalt binde them for a signe vpon thine hand, and they shalbe as frontlets betweene thine eyes. ⁹Also thou shalt write them vpon ye postes of thine house, and vpon thy gates. ¹⁰And when the Lord thy God hath brought thee into the land, which he sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob, to giue to thee, with great and goodly cities which thou buildedst not, ¹¹And houses full of all maner of goods which thou filledst not, and welles digged which thou diggedst not, vineyards and oliue trees which thou plantedst not, and when thou hast eaten and art full, ¹²Beware least thou forget the Lord, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. ¹³Thou shalt feare the Lord thy God, and serue him, and shalt sweare by his Name. ¹⁴Ye shall not walke after other gods, after any of the gods of the people which are round about you, ¹⁵(For the Lord thy God is a ielous God among you:) least the wrath of the Lord thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from the face of the earth. ¹⁶Ye shall not tempt the Lord your God, as ye did tempt him in Massah: ¹⁷But ye shall keepe diligently the commandements of the Lord your God, and his testimonies, and his ordinances which he hath commanded thee, ¹⁸And thou shalt doe that which is right and good in the sight of the Lord: that thou mayest prosper, and that thou mayest go in, and possesse that good land which the Lord sware vnto thy fathers, ¹⁹To cast out all thine enemies before thee, as the Lord hath sayd. ²⁰When thy sonne shall aske thee in time to come, saying, What meane these testimonies, and ordinances, and Lawes, which the Lord our God hath commanded you? ²¹Then shalt thou say vnto thy sonne, We were Pharaohs bondmen in Egypt: but the Lord brought vs out of Egypt with a mightie hand. ²²And the Lord shewed signes and wonders great and euill vpon Egypt, vpon Pharaoh, and vpon all his housholde, before our eyes, ²³And brought vs out from thence, to bring vs in, and to giue vs the land which he sware vnto our fathers. ²⁴Therefore the Lord hath commanded vs, to doe all these ordinances, and to feare the Lord our God, that it may goe euer well with vs, and that he may preserue vs alieue as at this present. ²⁵Moreouer, this shall be our righteousnes before the Lord our God, if we take heede to keepe all these commandements, as he hath commanded vs.

¹When the Lord thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possesse it, and shall roote out many nations before thee: the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and the Iebusites, seuen nations greater and mightier then thou, ²And the Lord thy God shall giue them before thee, then thou shalt smite them: thou shalt vtterly destroy them: thou shalt make no couenant with them, nor haue compassion on them, ³Neither shalt thou make marriages with them, neither giue thy daughter vnto his sonne, nor take his daughter vnto thy sonne. ⁴For they wil cause thy sonne to turne away from me, and to serue other gods: then will the wrath of the Lord waxe hote against you and destroy thee suddenly. ⁵But thus ye shall deale with them, Ye shall ouerthrowe their altars, and breake downe their pillars, and ye shall cut downe their groues, and burne their grauen images with fire. ⁶For thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God, the Lord thy God hath chosen thee, to be a precious people vnto himselfe, aboue all people that are vpon the earth. ⁷The Lord did not set his loue vpon you, nor chose you, because ye were more in number then any people: for ye were the fewest of all people: ⁸But because the Lord loued you, and because hee would keepe the othe which hee had sworne vnto your fathers, the Lord hath brought you out by a mightie hand, and deliuered you out of the house of bondage from the hand of Pharaoh King of Egypt, ⁹That thou mayest knowe, that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithfull God which keepeth couenant and mercie vnto them that loue him and keepe his commandements, euen to a thousand generations, ¹⁰And rewardeth them to their face that hate him, to bring them to destruction: he wil not deferre to reward him that hateth him, to his face. ¹¹Keepe thou therefore the commandements, and the ordinances, and the lawes, which I commaund thee this day to doe them. ¹²For if ye hearken vnto these lawes, and obserue and doe them, then the Lord thy God shall keepe with thee the couenant, and the mercie which he sware vnto thy fathers. ¹³And he wil loue thee, and blesse thee, and multiplie thee: he will also blesse the fruite of thy wombe, and the fruite of thy land, thy corne and thy wine, and thine oyle and the increase of thy kine, and the flockes of thy sheepe in the land, which he sware vnto thy fathers to giue thee. ¹⁴Thou shalt be blessed aboue all people: there shall be neither male nor female barren among you, nor among your cattell. ¹⁵Moreouer, the Lord will take away from thee all infirmities, and will put none of the euill diseases of Egypt (which thou knowest) vpon thee, but wil send them vpon all that hate thee. ¹⁶Thou shalt therefore consume all people which the Lord thy God shall giue thee: thine eye shall not spare them, neither shalt thou serue their gods, for that shalbe thy destruction. ¹⁷If thou say in thine heart, These nations are moe then I, how can I cast them out? ¹⁸Thou shalt not feare them, but remember what the Lord thy God did vnto Pharaoh, and vnto all Egypt: ¹⁹The great tentations which thine eyes sawe, and the signes and wonders, and the mighty hand and stretched out arme, whereby the Lord thy God brought thee out: so shall the Lord thy God do vnto all ye people, whose face thou fearest. ²⁰Moreouer, the Lord thy God will send hornets among them vntill they that are left, and hide themselues from thee, be destroyed. ²¹Thou shalt not feare them: for the Lord thy God is among you, a God mightie and dreadful. ²²And the Lord thy God wil roote out these nations before thee by little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, least the beasts of the fiele increase vpon thee. ²³But the Lord thy God shall giue them before thee, and shall destroy them with a mightie destruction, vntill they be brought to naught.

²⁴And he shall deliuer their Kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from vnder heauen: there shall no man be able to stand before thee, vntill thou hast destroyed them. ²⁵The grauen images of their gods shall ye burne with fire, and couet not the siluer and golde, that is on them, nor take it vnto thee, least thou be snared therewith: for it is an abomination before the Lord thy God. ²⁶Bring not therefore abomination into thine house, lest, thou be accursed like it, but vtterly abhorre it, and count it most abominable: for it is accursed.

¹Ye shall keepe all the commandements which I command thee this day, for to doe them: that ye may liue, and be multiplied, and goe in, and possesse the land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers. ²And thou shalt remember all ye way which the Lord thy God led thee this fourtie yeere in the wilderness, for to humble thee and to proue thee, to knowe what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keepe his commandements or no.

³Therefore he humbled thee, and made thee hungry, and fed thee with MAN, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know it, that he might teache thee that man liueth not by bread onely, but by euey worde that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord, doth a man liue. ⁴Thy raiment waxed not olde vpon thee, neither did thy foote swell those fourtie yeeres. ⁵Knowe therefore in thine heart, that as a man nourtereth his sonne, so the Lord thy God nourtereth thee.
⁶Therefore shalt thou keepe the commandements of the Lord thy God, that thou mayest walke in his wayes, and feare him. ⁷For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land in the which are riuers of water and fountaines, and depthes that spring out of valleis and mountaines: ⁸A land of wheate and barley, and of vineyards, and figtrees, and pomegranates: a land of oyle oliue and hony: ⁹A land wherein thou shalt eate bread without scarcitie, neither shalt thou lacke any thing therein: a land whose stones are yron, and out of whose mountaines thou shalt digge brasse. ¹⁰And when thou hast eaten and filled thy selfe, thou shalt blesse the Lord thy God for the good land, which he hath giuen thee. ¹¹Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, not keeping his commandements, and his lawes, and his ordinances, which I commaund thee this day: ¹²Lest when thou hast eaten and filled thy selfe, and hast built goodly houses and dwelt therein, ¹³And thy beastes, and thy sheepe are increased, and thy siluer and golde is multiplied, and all that thou hast is increased, ¹⁴Then thine heart be lifted vp and thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, ¹⁵Who was thy guide in the great and terrible wildernes (wherein were fierie serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where was no water, who brought forth water for thee out of ye rock of flint: ¹⁶Who fed thee in the wildernesse with MAN, which thy fathers knewe not) to humble thee, and to proue thee, that he might doe thee good at thy latter ende. ¹⁷Beware least thou say in thine heart, My power, and the strength of mine owne hand hath prepared me this abundance. ¹⁸But remember the Lord thy God: for it is he which giueth thee power to get substance to establish his couenant which he sware vnto thy fathers, as appeareth this day. ¹⁹And if thou forget the Lord thy God, and walke after other gods, and serue them, and worship them, I testifie vnto you this day that ye shall surely perish. ²⁰As the nations which the Lord destroyeth before you, so ye shall perish, because ye woulde not be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lord your God.

¹Heare O Israel, Thou shalt passe ouer Iorden this day, to goe in and to possesse nations greater and mightier then thy selfe, and cities great and walled vp to heauen, ²A people great and tall, euen the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak? ³Vnderstand therefore that this day ye Lord thy God is he which goeth ouer before thee as a consuming fire: he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them downe before thy face: so thou shalt cast them out and destroy them suddenly, as the Lord hath said vnto thee. ⁴Speake not thou in thine heart (after that the Lord thy God hath cast them out before thee) saying, For my righteousnesse the Lord hath brought me in, to possesse this land: but for the wickednesse of these nations the Lord hath cast them out before thee. ⁵For thou entrest not to inherite their lande for thy righteousnesse, or for thy vpright heart: but for the wickednesse of those nations, the Lord thy God doth cast them out before thee, and that he might performe the worde which the Lord thy God sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iacob. ⁶Vnderstand therefore, that ye Lord thy God giueth thee not this good land to possesse it for thy righteousnes: for thou art a stifnecked people. ⁷Remember, and forget not, howe thou prouokedst the Lord thy God to anger in the wilderness: since the day that thou diddest depart out of the land of Egypt, vntill ye came vnto this place ye haue rebelled against the Lord. ⁸Also in Horeb ye prouoked the Lord to anger so that the Lord was wroth with you, euen to destroy you. ⁹When I was gone vp into the mount, to receiue the tables of stone, the tables, I say, of the couenant, which the Lord made with you: and I abode in the mount fourtie daies and fourtie nights, and I neither ate bread nor yet dranke water: ¹⁰Then the Lord deliuered me two tables of stone, written with the finger of God, and in them was conteyned according to all the wordes which the Lord had said vnto you in the mount out of the middes of the fire, in the day of the assemblie. ¹¹And when the fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes were ended, the Lord gaue me the two tables of stone, the tables, I say, of the couenant. ¹²And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, get thee downe quickly from hence: for thy people which thou hast brought out of Egypt, haue corrupt their wayes: they are soone turned out of the way, which I commanded them: they haue made them a molten image. ¹³Furthermore, the Lord spake vnto me, saying, I haue seene this people, and beholde, it is a stifnecked people. ¹⁴Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and put out their name from vnder heaue, and I wil make of thee a mightie nation, and greater then they be. ¹⁵So I returned, and came downe from the Mount (and the Mount burnt with fire, and ye two Tables of the couenant were in my two handes) ¹⁶Then I looked, and beholde, ye had sinned against the Lord your God: for ye had made you a molten calfe, and had turned quickly out of the way which the Lord had commanded you. ¹⁷Therefore I tooke the two Tables, and cast them out of my two handes, and brake them before your eyes. ¹⁸And I fell downe before the Lord, fourtie dayes, and fourtie nightes, as before: I neither ate bread nor dranke water, because of al your sinnes, which ye had committed, in doing wickedly in the sight of the Lord, in that ye prouoked him vnto wrath. ¹⁹(For I was afraide of the wrath and indignation, wherewith the Lord was mooued against you, euen to destroy you) yet the Lord heard me at that time also. ²⁰Likewise ye Lord was very angrie with Aaron, euen to destroy him: but at that time I prayed also for Aaron. ²¹And I tooke your sinne, I meane the calfe which ye had made, and burnt him with fire, and stamped him and ground him small, euen vnto very dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the riuer, that descended out of the mount. ²²Also in Taberah, and in Massah and in Kibrothhattaauah ye prouoked ye Lord to anger. ²³Likewise when the Lord sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Goe vp, and possesse the land which I haue giuen you, then ye rebelled against the commandement of the Lord your God, and beleued him not, nor hearkened vnto his voyce. ²⁴Ye haue bene rebellious vnto the Lord, since the day that I knewe you. ²⁵Then I fell downe before ye

Lord fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes, as I fell downe before, because ye Lord had said, that he woulde destroy you. ²⁶And I prayed vnto the Lord, and saide, O Lord God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatnesse, whom thou hast brought out of Egypt by a mightie hand. ²⁷Remember thy seruants Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob: looke not to ye stubburnes of this people, nor to their wickednes, nor to their sinne, ²⁸Lest the countrey, whence thou broughtest them, say, Because ye Lord was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, or because he hated them, he caried them out, to slay them in the wilderness. ²⁹Yet they are thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mightie power, and by thy stretched out arme.

¹In the same time the Lord said vnto me, Hewe thee two Tables of stone like vnto the first, and come vp vnto me into the Mount, and make thee an Arke of wood, ²And I will write vpon the Tables ye wordes that were vpon the first Tables, which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the Arke. ³And I made an Arke of Shittim wood, and hewed two Tables of stone like vnto the first, and went vp into the Mountaine, and the two Tables in mine hand. ⁴Then he wrote vpon the Tables according to the first writing (the tenne commandements, which the Lord spake vnto you in the Mount out of the middes of the fire, in the day of the assemblie) and the Lord gaue them vnto me. ⁵And I departed, and came downe from the Mount, and put the Tables in the Arke which I had made: and there they be, as the Lord commanded me. ⁶And ye children of Israel tooke their iourney from Beeroth of the children of Iaakan to Mosera, where Aaron dyed, and was buried, and Eleazar his sonne became Priest in his steade. ⁷From thence they departed vnto Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Iotbath a land of running waters. ⁸The same time ye Lord separated the tribe of Leui to beare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and to stand before ye Lord, to minister vnto him, and to blesse in his Name vnto this day. ⁹Wherefore Leui hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren: for the Lord is his inheritance, as the Lord thy God hath promised him. ¹⁰And I taried in the mount, as at ye first time, fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes, and the Lord heard me at that time also, and the Lord would not destroy thee. ¹¹But the Lord said vnto me, Arise, goe forth in the iourney before the people, that they may goe in and possesse the land, which I sware vnto their fathers to giue vnto them. ¹²And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to feare the Lord thy God, to walke in all his wayes, and to loue him, and to serue the Lord thy God, with all thine heart, and with all thy soule? ¹³That thou keepe the commandements of the Lord, and his ordinances, which I commaund thee this day, for thy wealth? ¹⁴Beholde, heauen, and the heauen of heauens is the Lords thy God, and the earth, with all that therein is.

¹⁵Notwithstanding, the Lord set his delite in thy fathers to loue them, and did choose their seede after them, euen you aboue all people, as appeareth this day.

²⁰Thou shalt feare the Lord thy God: thou shalt serue him, and thou shalt cleaue vnto him, and shalt sweare by his Name. ²¹He is thy praise, and hee is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes haue seene. ²²Thy fathers went downe into Egypt with seuentie persons, and now the Lord thy God hath made thee, as ye starres of ye heauen in multitude.

¹Therefore thou shalt loue the Lord thy God, and shalt keepe that, which he commandeth to be kept: that is, his ordinances, and his lawes, and his commandements alway. ²And consider this day (for I speake not to your children, which haue neither knowen nor seene) the chastisement of the Lord your God, his greatnesse, his mighty hande, and his stretched out arme, ³And his signes, and his actes, which hee did in the middes of Egypt vnto Pharaoh the King of Egypt and vnto all his land: ⁴And what he did vnto the hoste of the Egyptians, vnto their horses, and to their charets, when he caused the waters of the red Sea to ouerflowe them, as they pursued after you, and the Lord destroied them vnto this day: ⁵And what he did vnto you in the wilderness, vntill yee came vnto this place: ⁶And what he did vnto Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab ye sonne of Reuben, when the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them with their households and their tents, and all their substance that they had in the middes of al Israel. ⁷For your eyes haue seene all the great actes of the Lord which he did. ⁸Therefore shall ye keepe all the commandements, which I commaund you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possesse the land whither ye goe to possesse it: ⁹Also that ye may prolong your daies in the land, which the Lord sware vnto your fathers, to giue vnto them and to their seede, euen a lande that floweth with milke and honie. ¹⁰For the land whither thou goest to possesse it, is not as the lande of Egypt, from whence ye came, where thou sowedst thy seede, and wateredst it with thy feete as a garden of herbes: ¹¹But the land whither ye goe to possesse it, is a land of mountaines and valleis, and drinketh water of the raine of heauen. ¹²This land doth the Lord thy God care for: the eies of the Lord thy God are alwaies vpon it, from the beginning of the yeere, euen vnto the ende of the yeere. ¹³If yee shall hearken therefore vnto my commandements, which I commaund you this day, that yee loue the Lord your God and serue him with all your heart, and with all your soule, ¹⁴I also wil giue raine vnto your land in due time, the first raine and the latter, that thou maist gather in thy wheat, and thy wine, and thine oyle. ¹⁵Also I will send grasse in thy fieldes, for thy cattel, that thou maist eate, and haue inough. ¹⁶But beware lest your heart deceiue you, and lest yee turne aside, and serue other gods, and worship them, ¹⁷And so the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and he shut vp the heauen, that there be no raine, and that your lande yeelde not her fruit, and yee perish quickly from the good land, which the Lord giueth you. ¹⁸Therefore shall ye lay vp these my words in your heart and in your soule, and binde them for a signe vpon your hand, that they may be as a frontlet betweene your eyes, ¹⁹And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them, whe thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest downe, and when thou risest vp.

²⁰And thou shalt write them vpon the postes of thine house, and vpon thy gates, ²¹That your daies may be multiplied, and the daies of your children, in ye land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers to giue them, as long as the heauens are aboue the earth. ²²For if ye keepe diligently all these commandements, which I command you to doe: that is, to loue the Lord your God, to walke in all his waies, and to cleaue vnto him, ²³Then will the Lord cast out all these nations before you, and ye shall possesse great nations and mightier then you. ²⁴All the places whereon the soles of your feete shall tread, shalbe yours: your coast shalbe from the wildernes and from Lebanon, and from the Riuer, euen the riuer Perath, vnto ye vttermost Sea. ²⁵No man shall stande against you: for the Lord your God shall cast the feare and dread of you vpon all the land that ye shall treade vpon, as he hath said vnto you. ²⁶Beholde, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse: ²⁷The blessing, if ye obey the commandements of the Lord your God which I command you this day: ²⁸And ye curse, if ye wil not obey the commandements of the Lord your God, but turne out of the way, which I commande you this day, to go after other gods, which ye haue not knowen.

²⁹When the Lord thy God therefore hath brought thee into ye lande, whither thou goest to possesse it, then thou shalt put the blessing vpon mount Gerizim, and the curse vpon mount Ebal. ³⁰Are they not beyond Iorden on that part, where the sunne goeth downe in the land of the Canaanites, which dwel in the plaine ouer against Gilgal, beside the groue of Moreh? ³¹For yee shall passe ouer Iorden, to goe in to possesse the land, which ye Lord your God giueth you, and ye shall possesse it, and dwell therein. ³²Take heede therefore that ye doe all the commandements and the lawes, which I set before you this day.

CHAPTER 12

¹These are the ordinances and the lawes, which ye shall obserue and doe in the lande (which the Lord God of thy fathers giueth thee to possesse it) as long as yee liue vpon the earth. ²Yee shall vtterly destroy all the places wherein the nations which ye shall possesse, serued their gods vpon the hie mountaines and vpon the hilles, and vnder euery greene tree. ³Also ye shall ouerthrowe their altars, and breake downe their pillars, and burne their groues with fire: and ye shall hew downe ye grauen images of their gods, and abolish their names out of that place. ⁴Ye shall not do so vnto ye Lord your God, ⁵But ye shall seeke the place which the Lord your God shall chose out of all your tribes, to put his Name there, and there to dwell, and thither thou shalt come, ⁶And ye shall bring thither your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the offering of your hands, and your vowes, and your free offrings, and the first borne of your kine and of your sheepe. ⁷And there ye shall eate before the Lord your God, and ye shall reioyce in all that yee put your hand vnto, both ye, and your houtholdes, because the Lord thy God hath blessed thee. ⁸Ye shall not doe after all these things that we doe here this day: that is, euery man whatsoeuer seemeth him good in his owne eyes. ⁹For ye are not yet come to rest, and to the inheritance which the Lord thy God giueth thee. ¹⁰But when ye goe ouer Iorden, and dwell in ye land, which the Lord your God hath giuen you to inherit, and when he hath giue you rest from al your enemies round about, and yee dwel in safetie, ¹¹When there shalbe a place which the Lord your God shall chose, to cause his name to dwell there, thither shall yee bring all that I commaund you: your burnt offrings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the offering of your hands, and all your speciall vowes which ye vowe vnto the Lord: ¹²And ye shall reioyce before the Lord your God, yee, and your sonnes and your daughters, and your seruaunts, and your maidens, and the Leuite that is within your gates: for hee hath no part nor inheritance with you. ¹³Take heede that thou offer not thy burnt offrings in euery place that thou seest: ¹⁴But in ye place which the Lord shall chose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt doe all that I commaund thee. ¹⁵Notwithstanding thou maiest kill and eate flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thine heart desireth, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which he hath giuen thee: both the vncleane and the cleane may eate thereof, as of the roe bucke, and of the hart. ¹⁶Onely ye shall not eat the blood, but powre it vpon the earth as water. ¹⁷Thou maist nor eat within thy gates the tithe of thy corne, nor of thy wine, nor of thine oyle, nor the first borne of thy kine, nor of thy sheep, neither any of thy vowes which thou vowest, nor thy free offerings, nor the offering of thine hands, ¹⁸But thou shalt eate it before the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord thy God shall chuse, thou, and thy sonne, and thy daughter, and thy seruāt, and thy maid, and the Leuite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt reioyce before the Lord thy God, in all that thou puttest thine hand to. ¹⁹Beware, that thou forsake not the Leuite, as long as thou liuest vpon the earth. ²⁰When the Lord thy God shall enlarge thy border, as hee hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I wil eate flesh, (because thine heart longeth to eate flesh) thou maiest eate flesh, whatsoever thine heart desireth. ²¹If the place which the Lord thy God hath chosen to put his Name there, be farre from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy bullockes, and of thy sheepe which the Lord hath giuen thee, as I haue commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates, whatsoever thine heart desireth. ²²Euen as the roe bucke, and the hart is eaten, so shalt thou eat them. both the vncleane and the cleane shall eate of them alike. ²³Onely bee sure that thou eate not the blood: for the blood is the life, and thou maiest not eate the life with the flesh. ²⁴Therefore thou shalt not eat it, but powre it vpon the earth as water. ²⁵Thou shalt not eat it, that it may go well with thee; and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt doe that which is right in the sight of the Lord: ²⁶But thine holy things which thou hast, and thy vowes thou shalt take vp, and come vnto the place which the Lord shall chuse. ²⁷And thou shalt make thy burnt offerings of the flesh, and of the blood vpon the altar of the Lord thy God, and the blood of thine offerings shall bee powred vpon the altar of the Lord thy God, and thou shalt eate the flesh.

²⁸Take heede, and heare all these woordes which I commaund thee, that it may goe well with thee, and with thy children after thee for euer, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the Lord thy God. ²⁹When the Lord thy God shall destroy the nations before thee, whither thou goest to possesse them, and thou shalt possesse them and dwell in their lande, ³⁰Beware, lest thou be taken in a snare after them, after that they be destroyed before thee, and lest thou aske after their gods, saying, Howe did these nations serue their gods, that I may doe so likewise? ³¹Thou shalt not doe so vnto the Lord thy God: for al abomination, which the Lord hateth, haue they done vnto their gods: for they haue burned both their sonnes and their daughters with fire to their gods. ³²Therefore whatsoeuer I command you, take heede you doe it: thou shalt put nothing thereto, nor take ought therefrom.

¹If there arise amog you a prophet or a dreamer of dreames, (and giue thee a signe or wonder, ²And the signe and the wonder, which hee hath tolde thee, come to passe) saying, Let vs go after other gods, which thou hast not knowen, and let vs serue them, ³Thou shalt not hearken vnto the wordes of the prophet, or vnto that dreamer of dreames: for the Lord your God prooueth you, to knowe whether ye loue the Lord your God with al your heart, and with all your soule. ⁴Yee shall walke after the Lord your God and feare him, and shall keepe his commandements, and hearken vnto his voyce, and yee shall serue him, and cleaue vnto him. ⁵But that prophet, or that dreamer of dreames, he shall be slaine, because hee hath spoken to turne you away from the Lord your God (which brought you out of the lande of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the house of bondage) to thrust thee out of the way, wherein the Lord thy God commanded thee to walke: so shalt thou take the euill away foorth of the middes of thee. ⁶If thy brother, the sonne of thy mother, or thine owne sonne, or thy daughter, or the wife, that lyeth in thy bosome, or thy friend, which is as thine owne soule, intice thee secretly, saying, Let vs goe and serue other gods, (which thou hast not knowen, thou, I say, nor thy fathers) ⁷Any of the gods of the people which are round about you, neere vnto thee or farre off from thee, from the one ende of the earth vnto ye other: ⁸Thou shalt not cosent vnto him, nor heare him, neither shall thine eye pitie him, nor shewe mercie, nor keepe him secret: ⁹But thou shalt euen kill him: thine hand shall be first vpon him to put him to death, and then the handes of all the people. ¹⁰And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he dye (because he hath gone about to thrust thee away from the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of ye land of Egypt, from ye house of bondage) ¹¹That all Israel may heare and feare, and doe no more any such wickednesse as this among you. ¹²If thou shalt heare say (concerning any of thy cities which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee to dwell in) ¹³Wicked men are gone out from among you, and haue drawen away the inhabitants of their citie, saying, Let vs go and serue other gods, which ye haue not knowen, ¹⁴Then thou shalt seeke, and make searche and enquire diligently: and if it be true, and the thing certaine, that such abomination is wrought among you, ¹⁵Thou shalt euen slay the inhabitants of that citie with the edge of the sworde: destroy it vtterly, and all that is therein, and the cattel thereof with the edge of the sworde. ¹⁶And thou shalt gather all the spoyle of it into the middes of the streete thereof, and burne with fire the citie and all the spoyle thereof euery whit, vnto the Lord thy God: and it shall be an heape for euer: it shall not be built againe. ¹⁷And there shall cleaue nothing of ye damned thing to thine hand, that the Lord may turne from the fiercenes of his wrath, and shewe thee mercie, and haue compassion on thee and multiplie thee, as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers: ¹⁸When thou shalt obey the voyce of the Lord thy God, and keepe all his commandements which I command thee this day, that thou do that which is right in the eyes of the Lord thy God.

¹Ye are the children of the Lord your God. Ye shall not cut yourselues, nor make you any baldnesse betweene your eyes for the dead. ²For thou art an holy people vnto ye Lord thy God, and the Lord hath chosen thee to be a precious people vnto himselfe, aboue all the people that are vpon the earth. ³Thou shalt eat no maner of abomination. ⁴These are the beastes, which ye shall eat, the beefe, the sheepe, and the goate, ⁵The hart, and the roe buck, and the bugle, and the wilde goate, and the vnicorne, and the wilde oxe, and the chamois. ⁶And euery beast that parteth ye hoofe, and cleaueth the clift into two clawes, and is of the beasts that cheweth the cudde, that shall ye eat. ⁷But these ye shall not eat, of them that chew the cud, and of them that deuide and cleaue the hoofe onely: ye camell, nor the hare, nor the cony: for they chewe the cudde, but deuide not ye hoofe: therefore they shall be vnclane vnto you: ⁸Also the swine, because he deuideth the hoofe, and cheweth not the cud, shalbe vnclane vnto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carkeises. ⁹These ye shall eat, of all that are in the waters: all that haue finnes and scales shall ye eat. ¹⁰And whatsoeuer hath no finnes nor scales, ye shall not eat: it shall be vnclane vnto you. ¹¹Of all cleane birdes ye shall eat: ¹²But these are they, whereof ye shall not eat: the eagle, nor the goshawke, nor the osprey, ¹³Nor the glead nor the kite, nor the vulture, after their kind, ¹⁴Nor all kinde of rauens, ¹⁵Nor the ostrich, nor the nightcrow, nor the semeaw, nor the hawke after her kinde, ¹⁶Neither the litle owle, nor the great owle, nor the redshanke, ¹⁷Nor the pellicane, nor the swanne, nor the cormorant: ¹⁸The storke also, and the heron in his kinde, nor the lapwing, nor the backe. ¹⁹And euery creeping thing that flieth, shall be vncleane vnto you: it shall not be eaten. ²⁰But of all cleane foules ye may eate. ²¹Ye shall eate of nothing that dieth alone, but thou shalt giue it vnto the stranger that is within thy gates, that he may eate it: or thou maiest sell it vnto a stranger: for thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not see the a kid in his mothers milke.

²²Thou shalt giue the tithe of all the increase of thy seede, that commeth foorth of the fiede yeere by yeere. ²³And thou shalt eate before the Lord thy God (in the place which he shall chose to cause his Name to dwell there) the tithe of thy corne, of thy wine, and of thine oyle, and the first borne of thy kine and of thy sheepe, that thou maiest learne to feare the Lord thy God alway.
²⁴And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to cary it, because the place is farre from thee, where the Lord thy God shall chose to set his Name, when the Lord thy God shall blesse thee, ²⁵Then shalt thou make it in money, and take the money in thine hand, and goe vnto the place which the Lord thy God shall chose. ²⁶And thou shalt bestowe the money for whatsoever thine heart desireth:

whether it be oxe, or sheepe, or wine, or strong drinke, or whatsoever thine heart desireth:
and shalt eate it there before the Lord thy God, and reioyce, both thou, and thine household. ²⁷And the Leuite that is within thy gates, shalt thou not forsake: for he hath neither part nor inheritance with thee. ²⁸At the end of three yeere thou shalt bring foorth all the tithes of thine increase of the same yeere, and lay it vp within thy gates. ²⁹Then ye Leuite shall come, because he hath no part nor inheritance with thee, and the stranger, and the fatherlesse, and the widowe, which are within thy gates, and shall eate, and be filled, that the Lord thy God may blesse thee in al the worke of thine hand which thou doest.

¹At the terme of seuen yeeres thou shalt make a freedome. ²And this is the maner of the freedome: euery creditour shall quite ye lone of his hand which he hath lent to his neighbour: he shall not aske it againe of his neighbour, nor of his brother: for the yeere of the Lords freedome is proclaimed. ³Of a stranger thou mayest require it: but that which thou hast with thy brother, thine hand shall remit: ⁴Saue when there shall be no poore with thee: for the Lord shall blesse thee in the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee, for an inheritance to possesse it: ⁵So that thou hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God to obserue and doe all these commandements, which I commande thee this day. ⁶For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee, as he hath promised thee: and thou shalt lend vnto many nations, but thou thy selfe shalt not borow, and thou shalt reigne ouer many nations, and they shall not reigne ouer thee. ⁷If one of thy brethren with thee be poore within any of thy gates in thy land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poore brother: ⁸But thou shalt open thine hand vnto him, and shalt lend him sufficient for his neede which he hath. ⁹Beware that there be not a wicked thought in thine heart, to say, The seuenth yeere, the yeere of freedome is at hand: therefore it griueth thee to looke on thy poore brother, and thou giuest him nought, and he crie vnto the Lord against thee, so that sinne be in thee: ¹⁰Thou shalt giue him, and let it not grieve thine heart to giue vnto him: for because of this the Lord thy God shall blesse thee in al thy works, and in all that thou putttest thine hand to. ¹¹Because there shall be euer some poore in the land, therefore I commande thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand vnto thy brother, to thy needie, and to thy poore in thy land. ¹²If thy brother an Ebrewe sell himselfe to thee, or an Ebrewesse, and serue thee

sixe yeere, euen in the seuenth yeere thou shalt let him goe free from thee: ¹³And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him goe away emptie, ¹⁴But shalt giue him a liberall reward of thy sheepe, and of thy corne, and of thy wine: thou shalt giue him of that wherewith the Lord thy God hath blessed thee. ¹⁵And remember that thou wast a seruant in the land of Egypt, and the Lord thy God deliuered thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day. ¹⁶And if he say vnto thee, I will not go away from thee, because he loueth thee and thine house, and because he is well with thee, ¹⁷Then shalt thou take a naule, and perce his eare through against the doore, and he shall be thy seruant for euer: and vnto thy maid seruant thou shall doe likewise. ¹⁸Let it not grieue thee, when thou lettest him goe out free from thee: for he hath serued thee sixe yeeres, which is the double worth of an hired seruant: and the Lord thy God shall blesse thee in all that thou doest. ¹⁹All the first borne males that come of thy cattell, and of thy sheepe, thou shalt sanctifie vnto the Lord thy God. Thou shalt do no worke with thy first borne bullocke, nor sheare thy first borne sheepe. ²⁰Thou shalt eate it before the Lord thy God yeere by yeere, in the place which the Lord shall chose, both thou, and thine household. ²¹But if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or haue any euill fault, thou shalt not offer it vnto the Lord thy God, ²²But shalt eate it within thy gates: the vncleane, and the cleane shall eate it alike, as the roe bucke, and as the hart. ²³Onely thou shalt not eate the blood thereof, but powre it vpon the ground as water.

¹Thou shalt keepe the moneth of Abib, and thou shalt celebrate the Passeouer vnto the Lord thy God: for in the moneth of Abib ye Lord thy God brought thee out of Egypt by night. ²Thou shalt therefore offer the Passeouer vnto the Lord thy God, of sheepe and bullockes in the place where the Lord shall chose to cause his Name to dwell. ³Thou shalt eate

no leauened bread with it: but seuen 376ork shalt thou eate vnleauened bread therewith, euen the bread of tribulation: for thou camest out of the land of Egypt in haste, that thou maist remember ye day whe thou camest out of the land of Egypt, all the 376ork of thy life. ⁴And there shalbe no leauen seene with thee in all thy coastes seuen 376ork long: neither shall there remaine the night any of the flesh vntil the morning which thou offeredst ye first day at euen. ⁵Thou maist not offer ye Passeouer within any of thy gates, which ye Lord thy God giueth thee: ⁶But in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to place his Name, there thou shalt offer the Passeouer at euen, about the going downe of the sunne, in the season that thou camest out of Egypt. ⁷And thou shalt roste and eate it in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose, and shalt returne on the morowe, and goe vnto thy tentes. ⁸Six daies shalt thou eate vnleauened bread, and ye seuenth day shall be a solemne assemblie to ye Lord thy God thou shalt do no worke therein. ⁹Seuen weekes shalt thou 376orks376 vnto thee, and shalt 376orks376le to 376orks376 ye seuen weekes, when thou beginnest to put the 376orks376 to ye corne: ¹⁰And thou shalt keepe the feast of weekes vnto the Lord thy God, euen a free gift of thine hand, which thou shalt giue vnto the Lord thy God, as the Lord thy God hath blessed thee. ¹¹And thou shalt reioyce before the Lord thy God, thou and thy sonne, and thy daughter, and thy seruant, and thy maide, and the Leuite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the 376orks376less, and the widowe, that are among you, in the place which the Lord thy God shall chuse to place his Name there, ¹²And thou shalt remember that thou wast a seruant in Egypt: therefore thou shalt obserue and doe these ordinances. ¹³Thou shalt obserue the feast of the Tabernacles seuen daies, when thou hast gathered in thy corne, and thy wine. ¹⁴And thou shalt reioyce in thy feast, thou, and thy sonne, and thy daughter, and thy seruant, and thy maid, and the Leuite, and the stranger, and the fatherlesse, and the widow, that are within thy gates. ¹⁵Seuen daies shalt thou keepe a feast vnto the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord shall chuse: when the Lord thy God shall blesse thee in all thine increase, and in all the 377orks of thine hands, thou shalt in any case be glad. ¹⁶Three times in the yeere shall all the males appeare before the Lord thy God in the place which he shall chuse: in the feast of the vnleauened bread, and in the feast of the weekes, and in the feast of the Tabernacles: and they shall not appeare before the Lord emptye. ¹⁷Euery man shall giue according to the gift of his hand, and according to the blessing of the Lord thy God, which he hath giuen thee. ¹⁸Iudges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy cities, which the Lord thy God giueth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall iudge the people with righteous iudgement. ¹⁹Wrest not thou ye Law, nor respect any person, neither take rewarde: for the reward blindeth ye eyes of the wise, and peruerteth ye worde of ye iust. ²⁰That which is iust and right shalt thou follow, that thou maiest liue, and possesse the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee. ²¹Thou shalt plant thee no groue of any trees neere vnto the altar of the Lord thy God, which thou shalt make thee. ²²Thou shalt set thee vp no pillar, which thing the Lord thy God hateth.

¹Thou shalt offer vnto the Lord thy God no bullocke nor sheepe wherein is blemish or any euill fauoured thing: for that is an abomination vnto the Lord thy God. ²If there be founde among you in any of thy cities, which the Lord thy God giueth thee, man or woman that hath wrought wickednes in the sight of the Lord thy God, in transgressing his couenant, ³And hath gone and serued other gods, and worshipped them: as the sunne, or the moone, or any of the hoste of heauen, which I haue not commanded, ⁴And it be tolde vnto thee, and thou hast heard it, then shalt thou inquire diligently: and if it be true, and the thing certaine, that such abomination is wrought in Israel, ⁵Then shalt thou bring forth that man, or that woman (which haue committed that wicked thing) vnto thy gates, whether it be man or woman, and shalt stone them with stones, til they die. ⁶At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall he that is woorthie of death, die: but at the mouth of one witnesse, he shall not die. ⁷The handes of the witnesses shall be first vpon him, to kill him: and afterward the hands of all the people: so thou shalt take the wicked away from among you. ⁸If there rise a matter too harde for thee in iudgement betweene blood and blood, betweene plea and plea, betweene plague and plague, in the matters of controuersie within thy gates, then shalt thou arise, and goe vp vnto the place which the Lord thy God shall chuse, ⁹And thou shalt come vnto the Priestes of the Leuites, and vnto the iudge that shall be in those daies, and aske, and they shall shewe thee the sentence of iudgement, ¹⁰And thou shalt do according to that thing which they of that place

(which the Lord hath chosen) shewe thee, and thou shalt obserue to doe according to all that they informe thee. ¹¹According to the Lawe, which they shall teach thee, and according to the iudgement which they shall tell thee, shalt thou doe: thou shalt not decline from the thing which they shall shew thee, neither to the right hand, nor to the left. ¹²And that man that wil doe presumptuously, not hearkening vnto the Priest (that standeth before the Lord thy God to minister there) or vnto the iudge, that man shall die, and thou shalt take away euill from Israel. ¹³So all the people shall heare and feare, and doe no more presumptuously. ¹⁴Whe thou shalt come vnto ye land which the Lord thy God giueth thee, and shalt possesse it, and dwell therein, if thou say, I will set a King ouer me, like as all the nations that are about me, ¹⁵Then thou shalt make him King ouer thee, whome the Lord thy God shall chuse: from among thy brethren shalt thou make a King ouer thee: thou shalt not set a stranger ouer thee, which is not thy brother. ¹⁶In any wise he shall not prepare him many horses, nor bring the people againe to Egypt, for to encrease the number of horses, seeing the Lord hath sayd vnto you, Ye shall henceforth goe no more againe that way. ¹⁷Neither shall hee take him many wiues, lest his heart turne away, neither shall he gather him much siluer and golde. ¹⁸And when he shall sit vpon the throne of his kingdo, then shall he write him this Law repeted in a booke, by the Priests of the Leuites. ¹⁹And it shall be with him, and he shall reade therein all daies of his life, that he may learne to feare the Lord his God, and to keepe all ye words of this Lawe, and these ordinances for to doe them: ²⁰That his heart be not lifted vp aboue his brethren, and that he turne not from the commandement, to the right hand or to the left, but that he may prolong his daies in his kingdom, he, and his sonnes in the middes of Israel.

¹The Priests of the Leuites, and all the tribe of Leui shall haue no part nor inheritace with Israel, but shall eate the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and his inheritance. ²Therefore shall they haue no inheritance among their brethren: for the Lord is their inheritance, as he hath sayd vnto them. ³And this shalbe the Priests duetie of the people, that they, which offer sacrifice, whether it be bullocke or sheepe, shall giue vnto the Priest the shoulder, and the two cheekes, and the mawe. ⁴The first fruites also of thy corne, of thy wine, and of thine oyle, and the first of the fleece of thy sheepe shalt thou giue him. ⁵For the Lord thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stande and minister in the Name of the Lord, him, and his sonnes for euer. ⁶Also when a Leuite shall come out of any of thy cities of all Israel, where hee remained, and come with all the desire of his heart vnto the place, which the Lord shall chuse, ⁷He shall then minister in the Name of the Lord his God, as all his brethren the Leuites, which remaine there before the Lord. ⁸They shall haue like portions to eat beside that which commeth of his sale of his patrimonie. ⁹When thou shalt come into ye land which the Lord thy God giueth thee, thou shalt not learne to do after ye abominations of those nations.

¹⁰Let none be founde among you that maketh his sonne or his daughter to goe thorough the fire, or that vseth witchcraft, or a regarder of times, or a marker of the flying of foules, or a sorcerer, ¹¹Or a charmer, or that counselleth with spirits, or a soothsaier, or that asketh counsel at ye dead. ¹²For all that doe such things are abomination vnto the Lord, and because of these abominations the Lord thy God doeth cast them out before thee.

¹³Thou shalt be vpright therefore with the Lord thy God. ¹⁴For these nations which thou shalt possesse, hearken vnto those that regarde the times, and vnto sorcerers: as for thee, the Lord thy God hath not suffred thee so.

¹⁵The Lord thy God will raise vp vnto thee a Prophet like vnto me, from among you, euen of thy brethren: vnto him ye shall hearken, ¹⁶According to al that thou desiredst of the Lord thy God in Horeb, in the day of the assemblie, when thou saidest, Let me heare the voice of my Lord God no more, nor see this great fire any more, that I die not.

¹⁷And the Lord sayde vnto me, They haue well spoken. ¹⁸I will raise them vp a Prophet from among their brethren like vnto thee, and will put my woordes in his mouth, and he shall speake vnto them all that I shall commaund him. ¹⁹And whosoeuer will not hearken vnto my wordes, which he shall speake in my Name, I will require it of him. ²⁰But the prophet that shall presume to speake a worde in my name, which I haue not commanded him to speake, or that speaketh in the name of other gods, euen the same prophet shall die. ²¹And if thou thinke in thine heart, Howe shall we knowe the worde which the Lord hath not spoken?

²²When a prophet speaketh in the Name of the Lord, if the thing follow not nor come to passe, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not therefore be afraid of him.

¹When the Lord thy God shall roote out the nations, whose lande the Lord thy God giueth thee, and thou shalt possesse them, and dwell in their cities, and in their houses, ²Thou shalt separate three cities for thee in the middes of thy lande which the Lord thy God giueth thee to possesse it. ³Thou shalt prepare thee the way, and deuide the coastes of the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherite, into three parts, that euery manslayer may flee thither. ⁴This also is ye cause wherfore the manslayer shall flee thither, and liue: who so killeth his neighbor ignorantly, and hated him not in time passed: ⁵As hee that goeth vnto the wood with his neighbor to hew wood, and his hand striketh with the axe to cut downe the tree, if the head slip from the helue, and hit his neighbour that he dieth, the same shall flee vnto one of the cities, and liue, ⁶Least

the auenger of the blood follow after the manslayer, while his heart is chafed, and ouertake him, because the way is long, and slaie him, although he be not worthy of death, because he hated him not in time passed. ⁷Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt appoint out three cities for thee. ⁸And when the Lord thy God enlargeth thy coastes (as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers) and giueth thee all the lande which he promised to giue vnto thy fathers, ⁹(If thou keepe all these commandements to doe them, which I commaund thee this day: to wit, that thou loue the Lord thy God, and walke in his waies for euer) then shalt thou adde three cities moe for thee besides those three, ¹⁰That innocent bloude be not shed within thy land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherite, lest bloud be vpon thee. ¹¹But if a man hate his neighbour, and lay waite for him, and rise against him, and smite any man that he die, and flee vnto any of these cities, ¹²Then the Elders of his citie shall send and set him thence, and deliuer him into the hands of the auenger of the blood, that he may die. ¹³Thine eye shall not spare him, but thou shalt put away the crie of innocent blood from Israel, that it may goe well with thee. ¹⁴Thou shalt not remooue thy neighbours marke, which they of olde time haue set in thine inheritance, that thou shalt inherite in the lande, which ye Lord thy God giueth thee to possesse it. ¹⁵One witnes shall not rise against a man for any trespasse, or for any sinne, or for any fault that hee offendeth in, but at the mouth of two witnesses or at the mouth of three witnesses shall the matter be stablished. ¹⁶If a false witnesse rise vp against a man to accuse him of trespasse, ¹⁷Then both the men which strue together, shall stand before ye Lord, euen before the Priests and the Iudges, which shall be in those daies, ¹⁸And the Iudges shall make diligent inquisition: and if the witnesse be found false, and hath giuen false witnes against his brother, ¹⁹Then shall yee doe vnto him as hee had thought to doe vnto his brother: so thou shalt take euil away forth of the middes of thee. ²⁰And the rest shall heare this, and feare, and shall henceforth commit no more any such wickednes among you. ²¹Therefore thine eye shall have no compassion, but life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foote for foote.

¹When thou shalt go forth to warre against thine enemies, and shalt see horses and charets, and people moe then thou, be not afayde of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt. ²And when ye are come neere vnto the battel, then the Priest shall come forth to speake vnto the people, ³And shall say vnto them, Heare, O Israel: ye are come this day vnto battell against your enemies: let not your heartes faynt, neither feare, nor be amased, nor adread of them. ⁴For ye Lord your God goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, and to saue you ⁵And let the officers speake vnto the people, saying, What man is there that hath buylt a new house, and hath not dedicate it? let him go and returne to his house, least he dye in the battel, and an other man dedicate it. ⁶And what man is there that hath planted a vineyarde, and hath not eaten of the fruite? let him go and returne againe vnto his house, least he die in the battel, and another eate the fruite. ⁷And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and returne againe vnto his house, lest he die in the battell, and another man take her. ⁸And let the officers speake further vnto the people, and say, Whosoeuer is afrayde and faynt hearted, let him go and returne vnto his house, least his brethrens heart faynt like his heart. ⁹And after that the officers haue made an ende of speaking vnto the people, they shall make captaines of the armie to gouerne the people. ¹⁰When thou comcest neere vnto a citie to fight against it, thou shalt offer it peace. ¹¹And if it answeere thee againe peaceably, and open vnto thee, then let all the people that is founde therein, be tributaries vnto thee, and serue thee. ¹²But if it will make no peace with thee, but make war against thee, then shalt thou besiege it. ¹³And the Lord thy God shall deliuer it into thine handes, and thou shalt smite all the males thereof with the edge of the sworde. ¹⁴Onely the women, and the children, and the cattel, and all that is in the citie, euen all the spoyle thereof shalt thou take vnto thy selfe, and shalt eate the spoyle of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee. ¹⁵Thus shalt thou do vnto all ye cities, which are a great way off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations here. ¹⁶But of the cities of this people, which the Lord thy God shall giue thee to inherite, thou shalt saue no person alieue, ¹⁷But shalt vtterly destroy them: to wit, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee, ¹⁸That they teache you not to doe after all their abominations, which they haue done vnto their gods, and so ye should sinne against the Lord your God. ¹⁹When thou hast besieged a citie long time, and made warre against it to take it, destroy not the trees therof, by smiting an axe into them: for thou mayest eate of them: therfore thou shalt not cut them downe to further thee in the siege, (for the tree of the field is mans life) ²⁰Onely those trees, which thou knowest are not for meate, those shalt thou destroy and cut downe, and make fortes against the citie that maketh warre with thee, vntil thou subdue it.

¹If one be founde slaine in the lande, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to possesse it, lying in the field, and it is not knowe who hath slaine him, ²Then thine Elders and thy Iudges shall come forth, and measure vnto the cities that are round about him that is slayne. ³Aud let ye Elders of that citie, which is next vnto the slaine man, take out of the droue an heifer that hath not bene put to labour, nor hath drawen in the yoke. ⁴And let the Elders of that citie bring the heifer vnto a stonie valley, which is neyther eared nor sowed, and strike off the heifers necke there in the valley. ⁵Also the Priests the sonnes of Leui (whom the Lord thy God hath chosen to minister, and to blesse in the name of the Lord) shall come forth, and by their word shall all strife and plague be tried. ⁶And all the Elders of that citie that came neere to the slayne man, shall wash their hands ouer the heifer that is beheaded in the valley: ⁷And shall testifie, and say, Our handes haue not shed this blood, neither haue our eies seene it. ⁸O Lord, be mercifull vnto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay no innocent blood to the charge of thy people Israel, and the blood shalbe forgien them. ⁹So shalt thou take away the cry of innocet blood from thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the Lord. ¹⁰Whe thou shalt go to warre against thine enemies, and the Lord thy God shall deliuer them into thine hands, and thou shalt take the captiues, ¹¹And shalt see among the captiues a beautifull woman, and hast a desire vnto her, and wouldest take her to thy wife, ¹²Then thou shalt bring her home to thine house, and she shall shaue her head, and pare her nayles, ¹³And she shall put off the garment that shee was taken in, and she shall remaine in thine house, and bewaile her father and her mother a moneth long: and after that shalt thou go in vnto her, and marry her, and she shalbe thy wife. ¹⁴And if thou haue no fauour vnto her, then thou mayest let her go whither she will, but thou shalt not sell her for money, nor make marchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her. ¹⁵If a man haue two wiues, one loued and another hated, and they haue borne him children, both the loued and also the hated: if the first borne be the sonne of the hated, ¹⁶Then when the time commeth, that hee appointeth his sonnes to be heires of that which he hath, he may not make the sonne of the beloued first borne before the sonne of the hated, which is the first borne: ¹⁷But he shall acknowledge the sonne of the hated for the first borne, and giue him double portion of all that he hath: for hee is the first of his strength, and to him belongeth the right of the first borne. ¹⁸If any man haue a sonne that is stubburne and disobedient, which wil not hearken vnto the voice of his father, nor the voyce of his mother, and they haue chastened him, and he would not obey them, ¹⁹Then shall his father and his mother take him, and bring him out vnto the Elders of his citie, and vnto the gate of the place where he dwelleth, ²⁰And shall say vnto the Elders of his citie, This our sonne is stubburne and disobedient, and he wil not obey our admonition: he is a riotour, and a drunkard. ²¹Then all the men of his citie shall stone him with stones vnto death: so thou shalt take away euill from among you, that all Israel may heare it, and feare. ²²If a man also haue committed a trespasse worthy of death, and is put to death, and thou hangest him on a tree, ²³His body shall not remaine all night vpon the tree, but thou shalt bury him the same day: for the curse of God is on him that is hanged. Defile not therfore thy land which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherite.

¹Thou shalt not see thy brothers oxe nor his sheepe go astray, and withdraw thy selfe from them, but shalt bring the againe vnto thy brother. ²And if thy brother bee not neere vnto thee, or if thou knowe him not, then thou shalt bring it into thine house, and it shall remaine with thee, vntill thy brother seeke after it: then shalt thou deliuer it to him againe. ³In like maner shalt thou do with his asse, and so shalt thou do with his rayment, and shalt so doe with all lost things of thy brother, which he hath lost: if thou hast found them, thou shalt not withdraw thy selfe from them. ⁴Thou shalt not see thy brothers asse nor his oxe fal downe by the way, and withdrawe thy selfe from them, but shalt lift them vp with him. ⁵The woman shall not weare that which pertaineth vnto the man, neither shall a man put on womans rayment: for all that doe so, are abomination vnto the Lord thy God. ⁶If thou finde a birdes nest in the way, in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be yong or egges, and the damme sitting vpon the yong, or vpon the egges, thou shalt not take ye

damme with the yong, ⁷But shalt in any wise let the damme go, and take the yong to thee, that thou mayest prosper and prolong thy dayes. ⁸When thou buildest a newe house, thou shalt make a battlement on thy rooffe, that thou lay not blood vpon thine house, if any man fal thence. ⁹Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with diuers kinds of seedes, lest thou defile the increase of the seede which thou hast sowed, and the fruite of the vineyarde. ¹⁰Thou shalt not plow with an oxe and an asse together. ¹¹Thou shalt not weare a garment of diuers sorts, as of woollen and linen together. ¹²Thou shalt make thee fringes vpon the foure quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou couerest thy selfe. ¹³If a man take a wife, and when he hath lyen with her, hate her, ¹⁴And laye slaunderous thinges vnto her charge, and bring vp an euill name vpon her, and say, I tooke this wife, and when I came to her, I found her not a mayde, ¹⁵Then shall the father of the mayde and her mother take and bring the signes of the maydes virginities vnto the Elders of the citie to the gate. ¹⁶And the maydes father shall say vnto the Elders, I gaue my daughter vnto this man to wife, and he hateth her: ¹⁷And lo, he layeth slaunderous things vnto her charge, saying, I founde not thy daughter a mayde: loe, these are the tokens of my daughters virginite: and they shall spreade the vesture before the Elders of the citie. ¹⁸Then the Elders of the citie shall take that man and chastise him, ¹⁹And shall condemne him in an hundreth shekels of siluer, and giue them vnto the father of the mayde, because he hath brought vp an euill name vpon a mayde of Israel: and she shalbe his wife, and he may not put her away all his life. ²⁰But if this thing be true, that the mayde be not found a virgine, ²¹Then shall they bring forth the mayde to the doore of her fathers house, and the men of her citie shall stone her with stones to death: for shee hath wrought follie in Israel, by playing ye whore in her fathers house: so thou shalt put euill away from among you. ²²If a man be found lying with a woman married to a man, then they shall dye euen both twaine: to wit, the man that lay with the wife, and the wife: so thou shalt put away euil from Israel. ²³If a maid be betrothed vnto an husband, and a man finde her in the towne and lye with her, ²⁴Then shall yee bring them both out vnto the gates of the same citie, and shall stone them with stones to death: the mayde because she cried not, being in the citie, and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbours wife: so thou shalt put away euill from among you. ²⁵But if a man finde a betrothed mayde in the field, and force her, and lye with her, then the man that lay with her, shall dye alone: ²⁶And vnto the mayd thou shalt do nothing, because there is in the mayde no cause of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour and woundeth him to death, so is this matter. ²⁷For he found her in the fieldes: the betrothed mayde cryed, and there was no man to succour her. ²⁸If a man finde a mayde that is not betrothed, and take her, and lye with her, and they be founde, ²⁹Then the man that lay with her, shall giue vnto the maydes father fiftie shekels of siluer: and she shalbe his wife, because he hath humbled her: he can not put her away all his life. ³⁰No man shall take his fathers wife, nor shall vncouer his fathers skirt.

¹None that is hurt by bursting, or that hath his priuie member cut off, shall enter into the Congregation of the Lord. ²A bastard shall not enter into the Congregation of the Lord: euen to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the Congregation of the Lord. ³The Ammonites and the Moabites shall not enter into the Congregation of the Lord: euen to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the Congregation of the Lord for euer, ⁴Because they met you not with bread and water in the way, when yee came out of Egypt, and because they hyred against thee Balaam the sonne of Beor, of Pethor in Aram-naharaim, to curse thee. ⁵Neuerthesse, the

Lord thy God would not hearken vnto Balaam, but the Lord thy God turned the curse to a blessing vnto thee, because the Lord thy God loued thee. ⁶Thou shalt not seeke their peace nor their prosperitie all thy dayes for euer. ⁷Thou shalt not abhorre an Edomite: for he is thy brother, neither shalt thou abhorre an Egyptian, because thou wast a strager in his land. ⁸The children that are begotten of them in their thirde generation, shall enter into the Congregation of the Lord. ⁹When thou goest out with the host against thine enemies, keepe thee then from all wickednesse. ¹⁰If there be among you any that is vncleane by that which commeth to him by night, he shall goe out of the hoste, and shall not enter into the hoste, ¹¹But at euen he shall wash him selfe with water, and when the sunne is downe, he shall enter into the hoste. ¹²Thou shalt haue a place also without the hoste whither thou shalt resort, ¹³And thou shalt haue a paddle among thy weapons, and when thou wouldest sit downe without, thou shalt shalt digge therewith, and returning thou shalt couer thine excrements. ¹⁴For the Lord thy God walketh in the mids of thy campe to deliuer thee, and to giue thee thine enemies before thee: therefore thine hoste shalbe holy, that he see no filthie thing in thee and turne away from thee. ¹⁵Thou shalt not deliuer the seruant vnto his master, which is escaped from his master vnto thee. ¹⁶He shall dwell with thee, euen among you, in what place he shall chuse, in one of thy cities where it liketh him best: thou shalt not vex him. ¹⁷There shalbe no whore of the daughters of Israel, neither shall there be a whore keeper of the sonnes of Israel. ¹⁸Thou shalt neyther bring the hyre of a whore, nor the price of a dogge into the house of the Lord thy God for any vow: for euen both these are abomination vnto the Lord thy God. ¹⁹Thou shalt not giue to vsurie to thy brother: as vsurie of money, vsurie of meate, vsurie of any thing that is put to vsurie. ²⁰Vnto a stranger thou mayest lend vpon vsurie, but thou shalt not lend vpon vsurie vnto thy brother, that the Lord thy God may blesse thee in all that thou settest thine hand to, in the land whither thou goest to possesse it. ²¹When thou shalt vowe a vowe vnto the Lord thy God, thou shalt not be slacke to paye it: for the Lord thy God will surely require it of thee, and so it should be sinne vnto thee. ²²But when thou absteineest from vowing, it shalbe no sinne vnto thee. ²³That which is gone out of thy lippes, thou shalt keepe and performe, as thou hast vowed it willingly vnto the Lord thy God: for thou hast spoken it with thy mouth. ²⁴When thou comdest vnto thy neighbours vineyard, then thou mayest eate grapes at thy pleasure, as much as thou wilt: but thou shalt put none in thy vessell. ²⁵When thou comdest into thy neighbours corne thou mayest plucke the eares with thine hand, but thou shalt not moue a sickle to thy neighbours corne.

¹When a man taketh a wife, and marieth her, if so be shee finde no fauour in his eyes, because hee hath espyed some filthinesse in her, then let him write her a bill of diuorcement, and put it in her hand, and send her out of his house. ²And when she is departed out of his house, and gone her way, and marrie with an other man, ³And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a letter of diuorcement, and put it in her hand, and send her out of his house, or if the latter man die which tooke her to wife: ⁴Then her first husband, which sent her away, may not take her againe to be his wife, after that she is defiled: for that is abomination in the sight of the Lord, and thou shalt not cause the land to sinne, which the Lord thy God doeth giue thee to inherite. ⁵When a man taketh a new wife, he shall not goe a warfare, neither shalbe charged with any businesse, but shalbe free at home one yeere, and reioyce with his wife which he hath taken. ⁶No man shall take the nether nor the vpper milstone to pledge: for this gage is his liuing. ⁷If any man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and maketh marchandise of him, or selleth him, that thiefe shall die: so shalt thou put euil away from among you. ⁸Take heede of the plague of leprosie, that thou obserue diligently, and doe according to all that the Priestes of the Leuites shall teach you: take heede ye doe as I commanded them. ⁹Remember what the Lord thy God did vnto Miriam by the way after that ye were come out of Egypt. ¹⁰Whe thou shalt aske again of thy neighbour any thing lent, thou shalt not goe into his house to fet his pledge. ¹¹But thou shalt stand without, and the man that borrowed it of thee, shall bring the pledge out of the doores vnto thee. ¹²Furthermore if it be a poore body, thou shalt not sleepe with his pledge, ¹³But shalt restore him the pledge when the sunne goeth downe, that he may sleepe in his raiment, and blesse thee: and it shalbe righteousnesse vnto thee before the Lord thy God. ¹⁴Thou shalt not oppresse an hyred seruant that is needie and poore, neyther of thy brethren, nor of the stranger that is in thy land within thy gates. ¹⁵Thou shalt giue him his hire for his day, neither shall the sunne goe downe vpon it: for he is poore, and therewith susteineth his life: lest he crye against thee vnto the Lord, and it be sinne vnto thee.

¹⁷Thou shalt not peruert the right of the stranger, nor of the fatherlesse, nor take a widowes rayment to pledge. ¹⁸But remember that thou wast a seruant in Egypt, and howe the Lord thy God deliuered thee thence. Therefore I commaund thee to doe this thing. ¹⁹When thou cuttest downe thine haruest in thy fielde, and hast forgotten a sheafe in the fielde, thou shalt not goe againe to fet it, but it shalbe for the stranger, for the fatherles, and for the widowe: that the Lord thy God may blesse thee in all the workes of thine hands. ²⁰When thou beatest thine oliue tree, thou shalt not goe ouer the boughes againe, but it shalbe for the stranger, for the fatherlesse, and for the widowe. ²¹When thou gatherest thy vineyard, thou shalt not gather the grapes cleane after thee, but they shalbe for the stranger, for the fatherlesse, and for the widowe. ²²And remember that thou wast a seruant in the land of Egypt: therefore I command thee to doe this thing.

¹When there shall be strife betweene men, and they shall come vnto iudgement, and sentence shall be giuen vpon them, and the righteous shall be iustified, and the wicked condemned, ²Then if so be the wicked be worthy to bee beaten, the iudge shall cause him to lie downe, and to be beaten before his face, according to his trespasse, vnto a certaine number. ³Fortie stripes shall he cause him to haue and not past, lest if he should exceede and beate him aboute that with many stripes, thy brother should appeare despised in thy sight. ⁴Thou shalt not mousell the oxe that treadeth out the corne. ⁵If brethren dwell together, and one of them dye and haue no sonne, the wife of the dead shall not marry without:

that is, vnto a stranger, but his kinseman shall goe in vnto her, and take her to wife, and doe the kinsemans office to her. ⁶And the first borne which she beareth, shall succede in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel. ⁷And if the man will not take his kinsewoman, then let his kinsewoman goe vp to the gate vnto the Elders, and say, My kinsman refuseth to rayse vp vnto his brother a name in Israel: hee will not doe the office of a kinsman vnto me. ⁸Then the Elders of his citie shall call him, and commune with him: if he stand and say, I wil not take her, ⁹Then shall his kinsewoman come vnto him in the presence of the Elders, and loose his shooe from his foote, and spit in his face, and answere, and say, So shall it be done vnto that man, that will not buyld vp his brothers house. ¹⁰And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him whose shooe is put off. ¹¹When men striue together, one with another, if the wife of the one come neere, for to ridde her husband out of the handes of him that smiteth him, and put foorth her hand, and take him by his priuities, ¹²Then thou shalt cut off her hande: thine eye shall not spare her. ¹³Thou shalt not haue in thy bagge two maner of weightes, a great and a small, ¹⁴Neither shalt thou haue in thine house diuers measures, a great and a small: ¹⁵But thou shalt haue a right and iust weight: a perfite and a iust measure shalt thou haue, that thy dayes may be lengthened in the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee. ¹⁶For all that doe such things, and all that doe vnrighteously, are abomination vnto the Lord thy God. ¹⁷Remember what Amalek did vnto thee by the way, when ye were come out of Egypt: ¹⁸How he met thee by ye way, and smote ye hindmost of you, all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast fainted and weary, and he feared not God. ¹⁹Therefore, when the Lord thy God hath giuen thee rest from all thine enemies round about in the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance to possesse it, then thou shalt put out the remembrance of Amalek from vnder heauen: forget not.

¹Also when thou shalt come into the lande which the Lord thy God giueth thee for inheritance, and shalt possesse it, and dwell therein, ²Then shalt thou take of the first of all the fruite of the earth, and bring it out of the lande that the Lord thy God giueth thee, and put it in a basket, and goe vnto the place, which the Lord thy God shall chose to place his Name there. ³And thou shalt come vnto the Priest, that shall be in those dayes, and say vnto him, I acknowledge this day vnto the Lord thy God, that I am come vnto the countrey which the Lord sware vnto our fathers for to giue vs. ⁴Then the Priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it downe before the altar of the Lord thy God. ⁵And thou shalt answere and say before the Lord thy God, A Syrian was my father, who being ready to perish for hunger, went downe into Egypt, and sojourned there with a small company, and grew there vnto a nation great, mightie and full of people. ⁶And the Egyptians vexed vs, and troubled vs, and laded vs with cruell bondage. ⁷But when we cried vnto the Lord God of our fathers, the Lord heard our voyce, and looked on our aduersitie, and on our labour, and on our oppression. ⁸And the Lord brought vs out of Egypt in a mightie hande, and a stretched out arme, with great terriblesse, both in signes and wonders. ⁹And he hath brought vs into this place, and hath giuen vs this land, euen a lande that floweth with milke and hony. ¹⁰And now, lo, I haue brought ye first frutes of the land which thou, O Lord, hast giuen me, and thou shalt set it before the Lord thy God, and worship before the Lord thy God: ¹¹And thou shalt reioyce in all the good things which the Lord thy God hath giuen vnto thee and to thine houshold, thou and the Leuite, and the stranger that is among you. ¹²When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tythes of thine increase, the thirde yeere, which is the yeere of tithing, and hast giuen it vnto the Leuite, to the stranger, to the fatherlesse, and to the widowe, that they may eate within thy gates, and be satisfied, ¹³Then thou shalt say before the Lord thy God, I haue brought the halowed thing out of mine house, and also haue giuen it vnto the Leuites and to the strangers, to the fatherlesse, and to the widow, according to all thy comandements which thou hast commanded me: I haue transgressed none of thy comandements, nor forgotten them. ¹⁴I haue not eaten therof in my mourning, nor suffred ought to perish through vncleannes, nor giuen ought thereof for the dead, but haue hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lord my God: I haue done after al that thou hast comaded me. ¹⁵Looke downe from thine holy habitation, euen from heauen, and blesse thy people Israel, and the lande which thou hast giuen vs (as thou swarest vnto our fathers) the land that floweth with milke and hony. ¹⁶This day the Lord thy God doeth command thee to do these ordinances, and lawes: keepe them therefore, and do them with al thine heart, and with all thy soule. ¹⁷Thou hast set vp the Lord this day to be thy God, and to walke in his wayes, and to keepe his ordinances, and his commandements, and his lawes, and to hearken vnto his voyce. ¹⁸And the Lord hath set thee vp this day, to be a precious people vnto him (as hee hath promised thee) and that thou shouldest keepe all his commandements, ¹⁹And to make thee high aboue al nations (which he hath made) in praise, and in name, and in glory, and that thou shouldest be an holy people vnto the Lord thy God, as he hath said.

¹Then Moses with the Elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keepe all the comandements, which I command you this day. ²And when ye shall passe ouer Iorden vnto the lande which the Lord thy God giueth thee, thou shalt set thee vp great stones, and playster them with plaister, ³And shalt write vpon them all the words of this Lawe, when thou shalt come ouer, that thou mayest go into the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee: a land that floweth with milke and hony, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promised thee. ⁴Therefore when ye shall passe ouer Iorden, ye shall set vp these stones, which I command you this daye in mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaister them with plaister. ⁵And there shalt thou build vnto the Lord thy God an altar, euen an altar of stones: thou shalt lift none yron instrument vpon them. ⁶Thou shalt make the altar of the Lord thy God of whole stones, and offer burnt offerings thereon vnto the Lord thy God. ⁷And thou shalt offer peace offrings, and shalt eate there and reioyce before the Lord thy God: ⁸And thou shalt write vpon the stones al the words of this Law, well and plainely. ⁹And Moses and the Priestes of the Leuites spake vnto all Israel, saying, Take heede and heare, O Israel: this day thou art become the people of the Lord thy God. ¹⁰Thou shalt hearken therefore vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, and do his commandements and his ordinances, which I commande thee this day. ¹¹And Moses charged the people the same day, saying, ¹²These shall stand vpon mount Gerizzim, to blesse the people when ye shall passe ouer Iorden: Simeon, and Leui, and Iudah, and Issachar, and Ioseph, and Benjamin. ¹³And these shall stand vpon mount Ebal to curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. ¹⁴And the Leuites shall answere and say vnto all the men of Israel with a loude voyce, ¹⁵Cursed be the man that shall make any carued or molten image, which is an abomination vnto the Lord, the worke of the hands of the craftesman, and putteth it in a secrete place: And all the people shall answere, and say: So be it. ¹⁶Cursed be he that curseth his father and his mother: And all the people shall say: So be it. ¹⁷Cursed be he that remoueth his neighbors marke: And all the people shall say: So be it. ¹⁸Cursed be he that maketh ye blinde go out of the way: And all the people shall say: So be it. ¹⁹Cursed be he that hindreth the right of the stranger, the fatherles, and the widow: And all the people shall say: So be it. ²⁰Cursed be hee that lyeth with his fathers wife: for he hath vncouered his fathers skirt: And all the people shall say: So be it. ²¹Cursed be he that lieth with any beast: And all the people shall say: So be it. ²²Cursed be he that lyeth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother: And all the people shall say: So be it. ²³Cursed be he that lyeth with his mother in law: And all the people shall say: So be it. ²⁴Cursed be hee that smiteth his neyghbour secretly: And all the people shall say: So be it. ²⁵Cursed be he that taketh a reward to put to death innocent blood: And all the people shall say: So be it. ²⁶Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the wordes of this Law, to do them: And all the people shall say: So be it.

¹If thou shalt obey diligently the voyce of the Lord thy God, and obserue and do all his commandements, which I commande thee this day, then the Lord thy God wil set thee on high aboue all the nations of the earth. ²And all these blessings shall come on thee, and ouertake thee, if thou shalt obey the voyce of the Lord thy God. ³Blessed shalt thou be in the citie, and blessed also in the field. ⁴Blessed shalbe the fruite of thy body, and ye fruite of thy ground, and the fruite of thy cattel, the increase of thy kine, and ye flocks of thy sheepe. ⁵Blessed shalbe thy basket and thy dough. ⁶Blessed shalt thou be, whe thou comest in, and blessed also when thou goest out. ⁷The Lord shall cause thine enemies that rise against thee, to fall before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and shall flee before thee leuen wayes. ⁸The Lord shall command the blessing to be with thee in thy store houses, and in all that thou settest thine hande to, and wil blesse thee in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee. ⁹The Lord shall make thee an holy people vnto himself, as he hath sworne vnto thee, if thou shalt keepe the commandements of the Lord thy God, and walke in his wayes. ¹⁰Then all people of the earth shall see that the Name of the Lord is called vpon ouer thee, and they shalbe afrayde of thee.

¹¹And the Lord shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruite of thy body, and in the fruite of thy cattell, and in the fruite of thy ground, in the land which the Lord sware vnto thy fathers, to giue thee. ¹²The Lord shall open vnto thee his good treasure, euen the heauen to giue rayne vnto thy kind in due season, and to blesse all the worke of thine handes: and thou shalt lende vnto many nations, but shalt not borrow thy selfe. ¹³And the Lord shall make thee the head, and not the taylor, and thou shalt be aboue onely, and shalt not bee beneath, if thou obey the commandements of the Lord thy God, which I command thee this day, to keepe and to do them. ¹⁴But thou shalt not decline from any of the wordes, which I command you this day, either to the right hand or to the left, to goe after other gods to serue them. ¹⁵But if thou wilt not obey the voyce of the Lord thy God, to keepe and to do all his commandementes and his ordinances, which I command

thee this day, then al these curses shall come vpon thee, and ouertake thee. ¹⁶Cursed shalt thou bee in the towne, and cursed also in the felde. ¹⁷Cursed shall thy basket be, and thy dough. ¹⁸Cursed shall be the fruite of thy body, and the fruite of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flockes of thy sheepe. ¹⁹Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed also when thou goest out. ²⁰The Lord shall sende vpon thee cursing, trouble, and shame, in all that which thou settest thine hand to do, vntill thou be destroyed, and perish quickly, because of the wickednesse of thy workes whereby thou hast forsaken me. ²¹The Lord shall make the pestilence cleaue vnto thee, vntill he hath consumed thee from the land, whither thou goest to possesse it. ²²The Lord shall smite thee with a consumption, and with the feuer, and with a burning ague, and with feruent heate, and with the sworde, and with blasting, and with the mildew, and they shall pursue thee vntill thou perish. ²³And thine heauen that is ouer thine head, shall be brasse, and the earth that is vnder thee, yron. ²⁴The Lord shall giue thee for the rayne of thy land, dust and ashes: euen from heauen shall it come downe vpon thee, vntil thou be destroyed. ²⁵And the Lord shall cause thee to fall before thine enemies: thou shalt come out one way against them, and shalt flee seuen wayes before them, and shalt be scattered through all the kingdomes of the earth. ²⁶And thy carkeis shall be meate vnto all foules of the ayre, and vnto the beasts of the earth, and none shall fray them away. ²⁷The Lord wil smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emeroids, and with the skab, and with the itche, that thou canst not be healed. ²⁸And ye Lord shall smite thee with madnes, and with blindnes, and with astonying of heart. ²⁹Thou shalt also grope at noone daies, as the blinde gropeth in darknes, and shalt not prosper in thy wayes: thou shalt neuer but bee oppressed with wrong and be powled euermore, and no man shall succour thee. ³⁰Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lye with her: thou shalt builde an house, and shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not eate the fruite. ³¹Thine oxen shall be slayne before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eate thereof: thine asse shall be violently taken away before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheepe shall be giuen vnto thine enemies, and no man shall rescue them for thee. ³²Thy sonnes and thy daughters shall be giuen vnto another people, and thine eyes shall still looke for them, euen till they fall out, and there shall be no power in thine hand. ³³The fruite of thy land and all thy labours shall a people, which thou knowest not, eate, and thou shalt neuer but suffer wrong, and violence alway: ³⁴So that thou shalt be madde for the sight which thine eyes shall see. ³⁵The Lord shall smite thee in the knees, and in the thighes, with a sore botche, that thou canst not be healed: euen from the sole of thy foote vnto the top of thine head. ³⁶The Lord shall bring thee and thy King (which thou shalt set ouer thee) vnto a nation, which neither thou nor thy fathers haue knowen, and there thou shalt serue other gods: euen wood and stone, ³⁷And thou shalt be a wonder, a prouerbe and a common talke among all people, whither the Lord shall carie thee. ³⁸Thou shalt carie out much seede into the felde, and shalt gather but litle in: for the grashoppers shall destroy it. ³⁹Thou shalt plant a vineyard, and dresse it, but shalt neither drinke of the wine, nor gather the grapes: for the wormes shall eat it. ⁴⁰Thou shalt haue Oliue trees in all thy coastes, but shalt not anoynt thy selfe with the oyle: for thine oliues shall fall. ⁴¹Thou shalt beget sonnes, and daughters, but shalt not haue them: for they shall goe into captiuitie. ⁴²All thy trees and fruite of thy land shall the grashopper consume. ⁴³The straunger that is among you, shall clime about thee vp on hie, and thou shalt come downe beneath alow. ⁴⁴He shall lend thee, and thou shalt not lend him: he shalbe the head, and thou shalt be ye tayle. ⁴⁵Moreouer, all these curses shall come vpon thee, and shall pursue thee and ouertake thee, till thou be destroyed, because thou obeyedst not the voyce of the Lord thy God, to keepe his commandements, and his ordinances, which he commanded thee: ⁴⁶And they shalbe vpon thee for signes and wonders, and vpon thy seede for euer, ⁴⁷Because thou seruedst not the Lord thy God with ioyfulnesse and with a good heart for the abundance of all things. ⁴⁸Therefore thou shalt serue thine enemies which the Lord shall send vpon thee, in hunger and in thirst, and in nakednesse, and in neede of all things? and he shall put a yoke of yron vpon thy necke vntill he haue destroyed thee. ⁴⁹The Lord shall bring a nation vpon thee from farre, euen from the ende of the world, flying swift as an Egle: a nation whose tongue thou shalt not vnderstand: ⁵⁰A nation of a fierce countenance, which will not regarde the person of the olde, nor haue compassion of the yong. ⁵¹The same shall eat the fruit of thy cattell, and the fruite of thy land vntill thou be destroyed, and he shall leaue thee neyther wheate, wine, nor oyle, neither the increase of thy kyne, nor the flockes of thy sheepe, vntill he haue brought thee to nought. ⁵²And he shall besiege thee in all thy cities, vntill thine hie and strong walles fall downe, wherein thou trustedst in all the lande: and hee shall besiege thee in all thy cities throughout all thy lande, which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee. ⁵³And thou shalt eat the fruite of thy bodie: euen the flesh of thy sonnes and thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee, during the siege and straitnesse wherein thine enemy shall inclose thee: ⁵⁴So that the man (that is tender and exceeding deintie among you) shalbe grieved at his brother, and at his wife, that lieth in his bosome, and at the remnant of his children, which hee hath yet left, ⁵⁵For feare of giuing vnto any of them of the flesh of his children, whom he shall eat, because he hath nothing left him in that siege, and straitnesse, wherewith thine enemy shall besiege thee in all thy cities. ⁵⁶The tender and deintie woman among you, which neuer woulde venture to set the sole of her foote vpon the ground (for her softnesse and tendernes) shalbe grieved at her husband that lieth in her bosome, and at her sonne, and at her daughter, ⁵⁷And at her afterbirth (that shall come out from betweene her feete) and at her childre, which she shall beare: for when all things lacke, she shall eat them secretly, during the siege and straitnesse, wherewith thine enemy shall besiege thee in thy cities. ⁵⁸If thou wilt not keepe and doe all the wordes of the Lawe (that are written in this booke) and feare this glorious and feareful name The Lord Thy God, ⁵⁹The the Lord wil make thy plagues wonderfull, and the plagues of thy seede, euen great plagues and of long continuance, and sore diseases, and of long durance. ⁶⁰Moreouer, he will bring vpon thee all the diseases of Egypt, whereof thou wast afraide, and they shall cleaue vnto thee. ⁶¹And euery sicknesse, and euery plague, which is not written in the booke of this Lawe, will the Lord heape vpon thee, vntill thou be destroyed. ⁶²And ye shall be left few in number, where ye were as the starres of heauen in multitude, because thou wouldest not obey the voyce of the Lord thy God.

⁶³And as the Lord hath reioyced ouer you, to doe you good, and to multiply you, so he will reioyce ouer you, to destroy you, and bring you to nought, and ye shalbe rooted out of the land, whither thou goest to possesse it.

of thine heart, which thou shalt feare, and for the sight of thine eyes, which thou shalt see. ⁶⁸And the Lord shall bring thee into Egypt againe with shippes by the way, whereof I saide vnto thee, Thou shalt see it no more againe: and there yee shall sell your selues vnto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and there shalbe no byer.

¹These are the wordes of the couenant which the Lord commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the lande of Moab beside the couenant which hee had made with them in Horeb. ²And Moses called all Israel, and said vnto them, Ye haue seene all that the Lord did before your eyes in the lande of Egypt vnto Pharaoh and vnto all his seruantes, and vnto all his lande, ³The great tentations which thine eyes haue seene, those great miracles and wonders: ⁴Yet the Lord hath not giuen you an heart to perceiue, and eyes to see, and eares to heare, vnto this day. ⁵And I haue led you fourty yere in the wilderness: your clothes are not

waxed olde vpon you, neyther is thy shooe waxed olde vpon thy foote. ⁶Ye haue eaten no bread, neither drunke wine, nor strong drinke, that ye might know how that I am the Lord your God. ⁷After, ye came vnto this place, and Sihon King of Heshbon, and Og King of Bashan came out against vs vnto battell, and we slewe them, ⁸And tooke their lande, and gaue it for an inheritance vnto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh. ⁹Keepe therefore the wordes of this couenant and doe them, that ye may prosper in all that ye shall doe. ¹⁰Ye stand this day euery one of you before the Lord your God: your heads of your tribes, your Elders and your officers, eue al ye me of Israel: ¹¹Your children, your wiues, and thy stranger that is in thy campe from the hewer of thy wood, vnto the drawer of thy water, ¹²That thou shouldest passe into the couenant of the Lord thy God, and into his othe which the Lord thy God maketh with thee this day, ¹³For to establish thee this day a people

vnto him selfe, and that he may be vnto thee a God, as he hath said vnto thee, and as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob. ¹⁴Neither make I this couenant, and this othe with you onely, ¹⁵But aswel with him that standeth here with vs this day before the Lord our God, as with him that is not here with vs this day. ¹⁶For ye knowe, how we haue dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we passed thorowe the middes of the nations, which ye passed by. ¹⁷And ye haue seene their abominations and their idoles (wood, and stone, siluer and golde) which were among them, ¹⁸That there should not be among you man nor woman, nor familie, nor tribe, which should turne his heart away this day from the Lord our God, to goe and serue the gods of these nations, and that there shoulde not be among you any roote that bringeth forth gall and wormewood, ¹⁹So that when he heareth the words of this curse, he blesse him selfe in his heart, saying, I shall haue peace, although I walke according to the stubburnes of mine owne heart, thus adding drunkennesse to thirst. ²⁰The Lord will not be mercifull vnto him, but then the wrath of the Lord and his ielousie shall smoke against that man, and euery curse that is written in this booke, shall light vpon him, and the Lord shall put out his name from vnder heauen, ²¹And the Lord shall separate him vnto euil out of all the tribes of Israel, according vnto all the curses of the couenant, that is written in the booke of this Lawe. ²²So that the generatio to come, euen your children, that shall rise vp after you, and the stranger, that shall come from a farre lande, shall say, when they shall see the plagues of this lande, and the diseases thereof, wherewith the Lord shall smite it: ²³(For all that land shall burne with brimstone and salt: it shall not be sowed, nor bring forth, nor any grasse shall growe therein, like as in the ouerthrowing of Sodom, and Gomorah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the Lord ouerthrewe in his wrath and in his anger) ²⁴Then shall all nations say, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus vnto this lande? how fierce is this great wrath? ²⁵And they shall answeare, Because they haue forsaken the couenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he had made with them, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt, ²⁶And went and serued other gods and worshipped them: euen gods which they knewe not, and which had giuen them nothing, ²⁷Therefore the wrath of the Lord waxed hot against this land, to bring vpon it euery curse that is written in this booke. ²⁸And ye Lord hath rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and hath cast them into another land, as appeareth this day. ²⁹The secret things belong to the Lord our God, but the things reueiled belong vnto vs, and to our children for euer, that we may doe all the wordes of this Lawe.

¹Nowe when all these things shall come vpon thee, either the blessing or the curse which I haue set before thee, and thou shalt turne into thine heart, among all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath driuen thee, ²And shalt returne vnto the Lord thy God, and obey his voyce in all that I commaund thee this day: thou, and thy children with all thine heart and with all thy soule, ³Then the Lord thy God wil cause thy captiues to returne, and haue compassion vpon thee, and wil returne, to gather thee out of all the people, where the Lord thy God had scattered thee. ⁴Though thou werest cast vnto the vtmost part of heauen, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence wil he take thee, ⁵And the Lord thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possesse it, and he will shewe thee fauour, and will multiplie thee aboue thy fathers. ⁶And the Lord thy God will circumsise thine heart, and the heart of thy seede, that thou mayest loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with al thy soule, that thou maiest liue. ⁷And the Lord thy God will lay all these curses vpon thine enemies, and on them, that hate thee, and that persecute thee.

⁸Returne thou therefore, and obey the voyce of the Lord, and do all his commandements, which I commaund thee this day. ⁹And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in euery worke of thine hande, in the fruite of thy bodie, and in the fruite of thy cattel, and in the fruite of the lande for thy wealth: for the Lord will turne againe, and reioyce ouer thee to do thee good, as he reioyced ouer thy fathers, ¹⁰Because thou shalt obey the voyce of the Lord thy God, in keeping his comandements, and his ordinances, which are written in the booke of this Law, when thou shalt returne vnto the Lord thy God with all thine heart and with al thy soule. ¹¹For this commandement which I commande thee this day, is not hid from thee, neither is it farre off. ¹²It is not in heauen, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go vp for vs to heauen, and bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it, that we may doe it? ¹³Neither is it beyonde the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go ouer the sea for vs, and bring it vs, and cause vs to heare

it, that we may do it? ¹⁴But the word is very neere vnto thee: euen in thy mouth and in thine heart, for to do it. ¹⁵Beholde, I haue set before thee this day life and good, death and euill, ¹⁶In that I commaund thee this day, to loue the Lord thy God, to walke in his wayes, and to keepe his commandements, and his ordinances, and his lawes, that thou mayest liue, and be multiplied, and that the Lord thy God may blesse thee in the land, whither thou goest to possesse it. ¹⁷But if thine heart turne away, so that thou wilt not obey, but shalt be seduced and worship other gods, and serue them, ¹⁸I pronounce vnto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, ye shall not prolong your dayes in the lande, whither thou passest ouer Iorden to possesse it. ¹⁹I call heauen and earth to recorde this day against you, that I haue set before you life and death, blessing and cursing. therefore chuse life, that both thou and thy seede may liue, ²⁰By louing the Lord thy God, by obeying his voyce, and by cleauing vnto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy dayes: that thou mayest dwell in the lande which the Lord sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob, to giue them.

¹Then Moses went and spake these wordes vnto all Israel, ²And said vnto them, I am an hundreth and twentie yeere olde this day: I can no more goe out and in: also the Lord hath saide vnto me, Thou shalt not goe ouer this Iorden. ³The Lord thy God he will go ouer before thee: he will destroy these nations before thee, and thou shalt possesse them. Ioshua, he shall goe before thee, as the Lord hath said. ⁴And the Lord shall doe vnto them, as he did to Sihon and to Og Kings of the Amorites: and vnto their lande whome he destroyed. ⁵And the Lord shall giue them before you that ye may do vnto them according vnto euery commandement, which I haue comanded you. ⁶Plucke vp your hearts therefore, and be strong: dread not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God him selfe doeth goe with thee: he will not

faile thee, nor forsake thee. ⁷And Moses called Ioshua, and said vnto him in the sight of all Israel, Be of a good courage and strong: for thou shalt go with this people vnto the lande which the Lord hath sworne vnto their fathers, to giue them, and thou shalt giue it them to inherite. ⁸And the Lord him selfe doeth go before thee: he will be with thee: he will not faile thee, neither forsake thee: feare not therefore, nor be discomfited. ⁹And Moses wrote this Lawe, and deliuered it vnto the Priestes the sonnes of Leui (which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord) and vnto all the Elders of Israel, ¹⁰And Moses commanded them, saying, Euery seuenth yeere when the yeere of freedome shalbe in the feast of the Tabernacles: ¹¹When all Israel shall come to appeare before the Lord thy God, in the place which he shall chuse, thou shalt reade this Lawe before all Israel that they may heare it. ¹²Gather the people together: men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and that they may learne, and feare the Lord your God, and keepe and obserue all the wordes of this Lawe, ¹³And that their children which haue not knowen it, may heare it, and learne to feare the Lord your God, as long as ye liue in the lande, whither ye goe ouer Iorden to possesse it. ¹⁴Then the Lord saide vnto Moses, Beholde, thy dayes are come, that thou must die: Call Ioshua, and stande ye in the Tabernacle of the Congregation that I may giue him a charge. So Moses and Ioshua went, and stode in the Tabernacle of the Congregation. ¹⁵And the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle, in the pillar of a cloude: and the pillar of the cloude stode ouer the doore of the Tabernacle. ¹⁶And the Lord said vnto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, and this people will rise vp, and goe a whoring after the gods of a strange land (whither they goe to dwell therein) and will forsake me, and breake my couenant which I haue made with them. ¹⁷Wherefore my wrath will waxe hote against them at that day, and I will forsake them, and will hide my face from them: then they shalbe consumed, and many aduersities and tribulations shall come vpon them: so then they will say, Are not these troubles come vpon me, because God is not with me? ¹⁸But I will surely hide my face in that day, because of all the euill, which they shall commit, in that they are turned vnto other gods. ¹⁹Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouthes, that this song may be my witnesse against the children of Israel. ²⁰For I will bring them into the land (which I sware vnto their fathers) that floweth with milke and honie, and they shall eate, and fil them selues, and waxe fat: then shall they turne vnto other gods, and serue them, and contemne me, and breake my couenant. ²¹And then when many aduersities and tribulations shall come vpon them, this song shall answere them to their face as a witnesse: for it shall not be forgotte out of the mouthes of their posteritie: for I knowe their imagination, which they goe about euen now, before I haue brought them into the lande which I sware. ²²Moses therefore wrote this song the same day and taught it the children of Israel. ²³And God gaue Ioshua the sonne of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong, and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the lande, which I sware vnto them, and I will be with thee. ²⁴And when Moses had made an ende of writing the wordes of this Lawe in a booke vntill he had finished them, ²⁵Then Moses commanded the Leuites, which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, saying, ²⁶Take the booke of this Lawe, and put ye it in the side of the Arke of the couenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witnes against thee. ²⁷For I knowe thy rebellion and thy stiffe necke: beholde, I being yet alieue with you this day, ye are rebellious against the Lord: howe much more then after my death? ²⁸Gather vnto me all the Elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speake these wordes in their audience, and call heauen and earth to recorde against them.

²⁹For I am sure that after my death ye will vtterly be corrupt and turne from the way, which I haue commanded you: therefore euill will come vpon you at the length, because ye will comit euill in the sight of the Lord, by prouoking him to anger through the worke of your hands. ³⁰Thus Moses spake in the audience of all the congregation of Israel the wordes of this song, vntill he had ended them.

¹Hearken, ye heauens, and I will speake: and let the earth heare the words of my mouth. ²My doctrine shall drop as the raine, and my speach shall stil as the dew, as the showre vpon the herbes, and as the great raine vpon the grasse. ³For I will publish the name of the Lord: giue ye glorie vnto our God. ⁴Perfect is the worke of the mighty God: for all his wayes are iudgement. God is true, and without wickednesse: iust, and righteous is he. ⁵They haue corrupted them selues toward him by their vice, not being his children, but a frowarde and crooked generation. ⁶Doe ye so rewarde the Lord, O foolish people and vnwise? is not he thy father, that hath bought thee? he hath made thee, and proportioned thee. ⁷Remember the dayes of olde: consider the yeeres of so many generations: aske thy father, and he will shewe thee: thine Elders, and they will tell thee. ⁸When the most hie God deuided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sonnes of Adam, he appoynted the borders of the people, according to the number of the children of Israel. ⁹For the Lordes portion is his people: Iaakob is the lot of his inheritance. ¹⁰He found him in ye land of ye wildernes, in a waste, and roaring wildernes: he led him about, he taught him, and kept him as ye apple of his eye. ¹¹As an eagle stereth vp her nest, flootereth ouer her birdes, stretcheth out her wings, taketh them, and beareth them on her wings, ¹²So the Lord alone led him, and there was no strange god with him. ¹³He caryed him vp to the hie places of the earth, that he might eate the fruites of the fieldes, and he caused him to sucke hony out of the stone, and oyle out of the hard rocke: ¹⁴Butter of kine, and milke of sheepe with fat of the lambes, and rammes fed in Bashan, and goates, with the fat of the graines of wheat, and the red licour of the grape hast thou drunke. ¹⁵But he that should haue bene vpright, when he waxed fat, spurned with his heele: thou art fat, thou art grosse, thou art laden with fatnes: therefore he forsooke God that made him, and regarded not the strong God of his saluation. ¹⁶They prouoked him with strange gods: they prouoked him to anger with abominations. ¹⁷They offred vnto deuils, not to God, but to gods whome they knew not: new gods that came newly vp, whome their fathers feared not. ¹⁸Thou hast forgotten the mightie God that begate thee, and hast forgotten God that formed thee. ¹⁹The Lord then sawe it, and was angrie, for the prouocation of his sonnes and of his daughters. ²⁰And he said, I will hide my face from the: I will see what their ende shalbe: for they are a frowarde generation, children in who is no faith. ²¹They haue moued me to ielousie with that which is not God: they haue prouoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will moue them to ielousie with those which are no people: I wil prouoke them to anger with a foolish nation. ²²For fire is kindled in my wrath, and shall burne vnto the bottome of hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountaines. ²³I will spend plagues vpon them: I will bestowe mine arrowes vpon them. ²⁴They shalbe burnt with hunger, and consumed with heate, and with bitter destruction: I will also sende the teeth of beastes vpon them, with the venime of serpents creeping in the dust. ²⁵The sworde shall kill them without, and in the chambers feare: both the yong man and the yong woman, the suckeling with the man of gray heare. ²⁶I haue said, I would scatter them abroad: I would make their remembrance to cease from among men, ²⁷Saue that I feared the furie of the enemie, least their aduersaries should waxe proude, and least they should say, Our hie hande and not the Lord hath done all this: ²⁸For they are a nation voide of counsel, neither is there any vnderstanding in them. ²⁹Oh that they were wise, then they would vnderstand this: they would consider their latter ende. ³⁰How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousande to flight, except their strong God had sold the, and the Lord had shut them vp? ³¹For their god is not as our God, euen our enemies being iudges. ³²For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the vines of Gomorah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters be bitter. ³³Their wine is the poyson of dragons, and the cruel gall of aspes. ³⁴Is not this laide in store with me, and sealed vp among my treasures? ³⁵Vengeance and recompence are mine: their foote shall slide in due time: for the day of their destruction is at hand, and the things that shall come vpon them, make haste. ³⁶For the Lord shall iudge his people, and repent towarde his seruants, when hee seeth that their power is gone, and none shut vp in holde nor left abroad. ³⁷When men shall say, Where are their gods, their mighty God in whome they trusted, ³⁸Which did eate the fat of their sacrifices, and did drinke the wine of their drinke offering? let them rise vp, and help you: let him be your refuge. ³⁹Behold now, for I, I am he, and there is no gods with me: I kill, and giue life: I wound, and I make whole: neither is there any that can deliuer out of mine hand. ⁴⁰For I lift vp mine hand to heauen, and say, I liue for euer. ⁴¹If I whet my glittering sworde, and mine hand take holde on iudgement, I will execute vengeance on mine enemies, and will rewarde them that hate me. ⁴²I will make mine arrowes drunke with blood, (and my sword shall eate flesh) for the blood of the slaine, and of the captiues, when I beginne to take vengeance of the enemie. ⁴³Ye nations, praise his people: for he will auenge the blood of his seruants, and will execute vengeance vpon his aduersaries, and will bee mercifull vnto his lande, and to his people. ⁴⁴Then Moses came and spake all ye words of this song in the audience of the people, he and Hoshea the sonne of Nun. ⁴⁵When Moses had made an end of speaking all these wordes to all Israel, ⁴⁶Then hee said vnto them, Set your heartes vnto all the wordes which I testifie against you this day, that ye may commande them vnto your children, that they may obserue and doo all the wordes of this Lawe. ⁴⁷For it is no vaine worde concerning you, but it is your life, and by this worde ye shall prolong your dayes in the land, whither yee go ouer Iorden to possesse it. ⁴⁸And the Lord spake vnto Moses the selfe same day, saying, ⁴⁹Goe vp into the mountaine of Abarim, vnto the mount Nebo, which is in the lande of Moab, that is ouer against Iericho: and beholde the lande of Canaan, which I giue vnto the children of Israel for a possession, ⁵⁰And die in the mount which thou goest vp vnto, and thou shalt be gathered vnto thy people, as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered vnto his people, ⁵¹Because ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel, at the waters of Meribah, at Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin: for ye sanctified me not among the children of Israel. ⁵²Thou shalt therefore see the lande before thee, but shalt not go thither, I meane, into the land which I giue the children of Israel.

of Iaakob. ⁵Then he was among the righteous people, as King, when the heades of the people, and the tribes of Israel were assembled. ⁶Let Reuben liue, and not die, though his men be a small number. ⁷And thus he blessed Iudah, and said, Heare, O Lord, the voyce of Iudah, and bring him vnto his people: his hands shalbe sufficient for him, if thou helpe him against his enemies. ⁸And of Leui he said, Let thy Thummim and thine Vrim be with thine Holy one, whome thou diddest proue in Massah, and didst cause him to striue at the waters of Meribah. ⁹Who said vnto his father and to his mother, I haue not seene him, neither knewe he his brethren, nor knewe his owne children: for they obserued thy word, and kept thy couenant. ¹⁰They shall teach Iaakob thy iudgements, and Israel thy Lawe: they shall put incense before thy face, and the burnt offering vpon thine altar. ¹¹Blesse, O Lord, his substance, and accept the worke of his handes: smite through ye loynes of them that rise against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not againe. ¹²Of Beniamin he said, The beloued of the Lord shall dwell in safetie by him: the Lord shall couer him all the day long, and dwell betweene his shoulders. ¹³And of Ioseph hee sayde, Blessed of the Lord is his land for the sweetenesse of heauen, for the dewe, and for the depth lying beneath, ¹⁴And for the sweete increase of the sunne, and for the sweete increase of the moone, ¹⁵And for the sweetenes of the top of the ancient mountaines, and for the sweetenes of the olde hilles, ¹⁶And for the sweetenesse of the earth, and abundance thereof: and the good will of him that dwelt in the bushe, shall come vpon the head of Ioseph, and vpon the toppe of the head of him that was separated from his brethren. ¹⁷His beautie shalbe like his first borne bullock, and his hornes as the hornes of an vnicorne: with them hee shall smite the people together, euen the endes of the world: these are also the ten thousands of Ephraim, and these are the thousands of Manasseh. ¹⁸And of Zebulun he sayd, Reioice, Zebulun, in thy going out, and thou Isshachar in thy tents. ¹⁹They shall call ye people vnto the mountaine: there they shall offer the sacrifices of righteousness: for they shall sucke of the abundance of the sea, and of the treasures hid in the sand. ²⁰Also of Gad he said, Blessed be hee that enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion, that catcheth for his praye the arme with the head. ²¹And hee looked to himselfe at the beginning, because there was a portion of the Lawe-giuer hid: yet hee shall come with the heades of the people, to execute the iustice of the Lord, and his iudgements with Israel. ²²And of Dan he said, Dan is a lions whelp: he shall leape from Bashan. ²³Also of Naphtali he sayd, O Naphtali, satisfied with fauour, and filled with the blessing of the Lord, possesse the West and the South. ²⁴And of Asher he saide, Asher shalbe blessed with children: he shalbe acceptable vnto his brethren, and shall dippe his foote in oyle. ²⁵Thy shooes shalbe yron and brasse, and thy strength shall continue as long as thou liuest. ²⁶There is none like God, O righteous people, which rideth vpon the heauens for thine helpe, and on the cloudes in his glory. ²⁷The eternall God is thy refuge, and vnder his armes thou art for euer: hee shall cast out the enemy before thee, and will say, Destroy them. ²⁸Then Israel the fountaine of Iakob shall dwell alone in safetie in a lande of wheat, and wine: also his heauens shall drop the dewe. ²⁹Blessed art thou, O Israel: who is like vnto thee, O people saued by the Lord, the shilde of thine helpe, and which is the sword of thy glorie? therefore thine enemies shall bee in subiection to thee, and thou shalt tread vpon their hie places.

¹Then Moses went from the plaine of Moab vp into mount Nebo vnto the top of Pisgah that is ouer against Iericho: and the Lord shewed him all the land of Gilead, vnto Dan, ²And all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Iudah, vnto the vtmost sea: ³And the South, and the plaine of the valley of Iericho, the citie of palmetrees, vnto Zoar. ⁴And the Lord said vnto him, This is the lande which I sware vnto Abraham, to Izhak and to Iaacob saying, I will giue it vnto thy seede: I haue caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not goe ouer thither. ⁵So Moses the seruant of the Lord dyed there in the land of Moab, according to the worde of the Lord. ⁶And hee buried him in a valley in the land of Moab ouer against Beth-peor, but no man knoweth of his sepulchre vnto this day. ⁷Moses was nowe an hundreth and twentie yeere olde when hee died, his eye was not dimme, nor his naturall force abated. ⁸And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plaine of Moab thirtie dayes: so the dayes of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended. ⁹And Ioshua the sonne of Nun was full of ye spirit of wisdom: for Moses had put his hands vpon him. And the children of Israel were obedient vnto him, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses. ¹⁰But there arose not a Prophet since in Israel like vnto Moses (whome the Lord knew face to face) ¹¹In all ye miracles and wonders which ye Lord sent him to do in ye land of Egypt before Pharaoh and before all his seruantes, and before al his land, ¹²And in all that mightie hand and all that great feare, which Moses wrought in the sight of all Israel.

¹Nowe after the death of Moses the seruant of the Lord, the Lord spake vnto Ioshua the sonne of Nun, Moses minister, saying, ²Moses my seruant is dead: nowe therefore arise, go ouer this Iorden, thou, and all this people, vnto the lande which I giue them, that is, to ye children of Israel. ³Euery place that the sole of your foote shall treade vpon, haue I giuen you, as I said vnto Moses. ⁴From the wilderness and this Lebanon euen vnto the great riuer, the riuer Perath: all the land of the Hittites, euen vnto the great Sea towarde the going

downe of the sunne, shalbe your coast. ⁵There shall not a man be able to withstande thee all the dayes of thy life: as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee: I will not leaue thee, nor forsake thee. ⁶Be strong and of a good courage: for vnto this people shalt thou deuide the lande for an inheritance, which I sware vnto their fathers to giue them. ⁷Onely be thou strong, and of a most valiant courage, that thou mayest obserue and doe according to all the Lawe which Moses my seruant hath commanded thee: thou shalt not turne away from it to the right hande, nor to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest. ⁸Let not this booke of the Law depart out of thy mouth, but meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest obserue and doe according to all that is written therein: for then shalt thou make thy way prosperous, and then shalt thou haue good successe. ⁹Haue not I commanded thee, saying, Be strong and of a good courage, feare not, nor be discouraged? for I the Lord thy

God will be with thee, whithersoever thou goest. ¹⁰Then Ioshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, ¹¹Pass through the hoste, and commande the people, saying, Prepare you vitales: for after three dayes ye shall passe ouer this Iorden, to goe in to possesse the lande, which the Lord your God giueth you to possesse it. ¹²And vnto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to halfe the tribe of Manasseh spake Ioshua, saying, ¹³Remember the worde, which Moses the seruant of the Lord commanded you, saying, The Lord your God hath giuen you rest, and hath giuen you this land. ¹⁴Your wiues, your children, and your cattell shall remaine in the land which Moses gaue you on this side Iorden: but ye shall goe ouer before your brethren armed, all that be men of warre, and shall helpe them, ¹⁵Vntill the Lord haue giuen your brethren rest, as well as to you, and vntill they also shall possesse the land, which the Lord your God giueth them: then shall ye returne vnto the lande of your possession and shall possesse it, which land

Moses the Lordes seruant gaue you on this side Iorden toward the sunne rising. ¹⁶Then they answered Ioshua, saying, Al that thou hast commanded vs, we will doe, and whithersoever thou sendest vs, we will goe. ¹⁷As we obeyed Moses in all things, so will we obey thee: onely the Lord thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses. ¹⁸Whosoever shall rebell against thy commandement, and will not obey thy wordes in all that thou commaundest him, let him bee put to death: onely be strong and of good courage.

¹Then Ioshua the sonne of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spie secretly, saying, Go, view the land, and also Iericho: and they went, and came into an harlots house, named Rahab, and lodged there. ²Then report was made to the King of Iericho, saying, Beholde, there came men hither to night, of the children of Israel, to spie out the countrey. ³And the King of Iericho sent vnto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, and which are

entred into thine house: for they be come to search out all the land. ⁴(But ye woman had taken the two men, and hid them) Therefore saide she thus, There came men vnto me, but I wist not whence they were. ⁵And when they shut the gate in the darke, the men went out, whither the men went I wote not: follow ye after them quickly, for ye shall ouertake them. ⁶(But she had brought them vp to the roofe of the house, and hidde them with the stalkes of flaxe, which she had spread abroad vpon the roofe) ⁷And certaine men pursued after them, the way to Iorden, vnto the foordes, and as soone as they which pursued after them, were gone out, they shut the gate. ⁸And before they were a sleepe, she came vp vnto them vpon the roofe, ⁹And saide vnto the men, I knowe that the Lord hath giuen you the land, and that the feare of you is fallen vpon vs, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you. ¹⁰For we haue heard, howe the Lord dried vp the water of the redde Sea before you, when you came out of Egypt, and what you did vnto the two Kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Iorden, vnto Sihon and to Og, whom ye vtterly destroyed: ¹¹And when wee heard it, our heartes did faint, and there remained no more courage in any because of you: for the Lord your God, he is the God in heauen aboue, and in earth beneath. ¹²Now therefore, I pray you, sweare vnto me by the Lord; that as I haue shewed you mercie, ye will also shewe mercie vnto my fathers house, and giue me a true token, ¹³And that yee will saue aliue my father and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they haue: and that yee will deliuer our soules from death. ¹⁴And the men answered her, Our life for you to die, if ye vtter not this our businesse: and when the Lord hath giuen vs the lande, we will deale mercifully and truely with thee. ¹⁵Then she let them downe by a corde thorowe the windowe: for her house was vpon the towne wall, and she dwelt vpon the wall. ¹⁶And she said vnto them, Goe you into the mountaine, least the pursuers meete with you, and hide your selues there three dayes, vntill the pursuers be returned: then afterwarde may yee goe your way. ¹⁷And the men said vnto her, We will be blamelesse of this thine othe, which thou hast made vs sweare. ¹⁸Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this cord of red threde in the window, whereby thou lettest vs downe, and thou shalt bring thy father and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy fathers houshold home to thee. ¹⁹And whosoever then doeth goe out at the doores of thine house into the streete, his blood shalbe vpon his head, and we will be giltlesse: but whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shalbe on our head, if any hande touch him: ²⁰And if thou vtter this our matter, we will be quite of thine othe, which thou hast made vs sweare. ²¹And she answered, According vnto your wordes, so be it: then she sent them away, and they departed, and she bound the red cord in ye window. ²²And they departed, and came into the mountaine, and there abode three dayes, vntil the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but founde them not. ²³So the two men returned, and descended from the mountaine, and passed ouer, and came to Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and tolde him all things that came vnto them. ²⁴Also they saide vnto Ioshua, Surely the Lord hath deliuered into our handes all the lande: for euen all the inhabitants of the cuntry faint because of vs.

¹Then Ioshua rose very earely, and they remoued from Shittim, and came to Iorden, he, and all the children of Israel, and lodged there, before they went ouer. ²And after three dayes the officers went throughout the hoste, ³And commanded the people, saying, When ye see the Arke of the couenat of the Lord your God, and the Priestes of the Leuites bearing it, ye shall depart from your place, and goe after it. ⁴Yet there shalbe a space betweene you and it, about two thousande cubites by measure: ye shall not come neere vnto it, that ye may knowe the way, by the which ye shall goe: for ye haue not gone this way in times past. ⁵(Nowe Ioshua had saide vnto the people, Sanctifie your selues: for to morowe the Lord will doe wonders among you) ⁶Also Ioshua spake vnto the Priestes, saying, Take vp the Arke of the couenant, and goe ouer before the people: so they tooke vp the Arke of the couenant, and went before the people. ⁷Then the Lord saide vnto Ioshua, This day will I begin to magnifie thee in the sight of all Israel, which shall knowe, that as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee. ⁸Thou shalt therefore command the Priestes that beare the Arke of the Couenant, saying, When ye are come to the brinke of the waters of Iorden, ye shall stande still in Iorden. ⁹Then Ioshua said vnto the children of Israel, Come hither, and heare the wordes of the Lord your God. ¹⁰And Ioshua said, Hereby ye shall know that the liuing God is among you, and that he will certainly cast out before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hiuites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Iebusites. ¹¹Beholde, the Arke of the couenant of the Lord of all the worlde passeth before you into Iorden. ¹²Nowe therefore take from among you twelue men out of the tribes of Israel, out of euery tribe a man. ¹³And assoone as the soles of the feete of the Priestes (that beare the Arke of the Lord God the Lord of all the worlde) shall stay in the waters of Iorden, the waters of Iorden shall be cut off: for the waters that come from aboue, shall stande still vpon an heape. ¹⁴Then when the people were departed from their tentes to goe ouer Iorden, the Priestes bearing the Arke of the Couenant, went before people. ¹⁵And as they that bare the Arke came vnto Iorden, and the feete of the Priestes that bare the Arke were dipped in the brinke of the water, (for Iorden vseth to fill all his bankes all the time of haruest) ¹⁶Then the waters that came downe from aboue, stayed and rose vpon an heape and departed farre from the citie of Adam, that was beside Zaretan: but the waters that came downe towarde the Sea of the wildernes, euen the salt Sea, failed, and were cut off: so the people went right ouer against Iericho. ¹⁷But the Priestes that bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, stode drie within Iorden readie prepared, and all the Israelites went ouer dry, vntill all the people were gone cleane ouer through Iorden.

¹And when all the people were wholly gone ouer Iorden, (after the Lord had spoken vnto Ioshua, saying, ²Take you twelue me out of the people, out of euery tribe a man, ³And command you them, saying, Take you hence out of the middes of Iorden, out of the place where the Priestes stode in a readinesse, twelue stones, which ye shall take away with you, and leaue them in the lodging where you shall lodge this night) ⁴Then Ioshua called the twelue men, whome he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of euery tribe a man, ⁵And Ioshua said vnto them, Go ouer before the Arke of the Lord your God, euen through the middes of Iorden, and take vp euery man of you a stone vpon his shoulder

according vnto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, ⁶That this may bee a signe among you, that whe your children shall aske their fathers in time to come, saying, What meane you by these stones? ⁷Then ye may answeere them, That the waters of Iorden were cut off before the Arke of the couenant of the Lord: for when it passed through Iorden, the waters of Iorden were cut off: therefore these stones are a memoriall vnto the children of Israel for euer. ⁸Then ye children of Israel did euen so as Ioshua had commanded, and tooke vp twelue stones out of the mids of Iorden as ye Lord had said vnto Ioshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and caried them away with them vnto the lodging, and layd them down there. ⁹And Ioshua set vp twelue stones in the middes of Iorden, in the place where the feete of the Priests, which bare the Arke of the couenant stood, and there haue they continued vnto this day. ¹⁰So the Priests, which bare ye Arke, stode in the middes of Iorden, vntill euer thing was finished that ye Lord had comanded Ioshua to say vnto the people, according to all that Moses charged Ioshua: then the people hasted and went ouer. ¹¹When all the people were cleane passed ouer, the Arke of the Lord went ouer also, and the Priests before the people. ¹²And the sonnes of Reuben, and the sonnes of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasseh went ouer before the children of Israel armed, as Moses had charged them. ¹³Euen fourty thousand prepared for warre, went before the Lord vnto battel, into ye plaine of Iericho. ¹⁴That day the Lord magnified Ioshua in the sight of all Israel, and they feared him, as they feared Moses all dayes of his life. ¹⁵And the Lord spake vnto Ioshua, saying, ¹⁶Commande the Priests that beare ye Arke of the testimonie, to come vp out of Iorden. ¹⁷Ioshua therefore commanded the Priests, saying, Come ye vp out of Iorden. ¹⁸And when the Priests that bare the Arke of the couenant of ye Lord were come vp out of the middes of Iorden, and assoone as the soles of the Priests feete were set on the dry land, the waters of Iorde returned vnto their place, and flowed ouer all the bankes thereof, as they did before. ¹⁹So the people came vp out of Iorden the tenth day of the first moneth, and pitched in Gilgal, in the Eastside of Iericho. ²⁰Also the twelue stones, which they tooke out of Iorden, did Ioshua pitch in Gilgal. ²¹And he spake vnto ye childe of Israel, saying, When your children shall aske their fathers in time to come, and say, What meane these stones? ²²Then ye shall shew your children, and say, Israel came ouer this Iorden on dry land: ²³For the Lord your God dried vp ye waters of Iorden before you, vntill ye were gone ouer, as the Lord your God did the red Sea, which hee dried vp before vs, till we were gone ouer, ²⁴That all the people of the worlde may know that the hand of the Lord is mightie, that ye might feare the Lord your God continually.

¹Nowe when all the Kings of the Amorites, which were beyond Iorden Westward, and all the

Kinges of the Canaanites which were by the Sea, heard that the Lord had dried vp the waters of Iorden before the children of Israel vntill they were gone ouer, their heart fainted: and there was no courage in them any more because of the children of Israel. ²That same time the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Make thee sharpe kniues, and returne, and circumcise the sonnes of Israel the second time. ³Then Ioshua made him sharpe kniues and circumcised the sonnes of Israel in the hill of the foreskinnes. ⁴And this is the cause why Ioshua circumcised all the people, euen the males that came out of Egypt, because all the men of warre were dead in the wilderness by the way after they came out of Egypt. ⁵For all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were borne in the wilderness by the way after they came out of Egypt, were not circumcised. ⁶For the children of Israel walked fourtie yeres in the wilderness, till all the people of the men of warre that came out of Egypt were consumed, because they obeyed not the voyce of the Lord: vnto whome the Lord sware, that he would not shewe them the lande, which the Lord had sworne vnto their fathers, that he would giue vs, euen a land that floweth with milke and hony.

⁷So their sonnes whome he rayseed vp in their steade, Ioshua circumcised: for they were vncircumcised, because they circumcised them not by the way.

⁸And when they had made an ende of circumcising al the people, they abode in the places in the campe till they were whole.

⁹After, the Lord said vnto Ioshua, This day I haue taken away the shame of Egypt from you:
wherefore he called the name of that place Gilgal, vnto this day.

¹⁰So the children of Israel abode in Gilgal, and kept ye feast of the Passeouer the fourteenth day of the moneth at euen in ye plaine of Iericho. ¹¹And they did eat of the corne of the land, on the morow after the Passeouer, vnleauened breade, and parched corne in the same day. ¹²And the MAN ceased on the morowe after they had eaten of the corne of the land, neither had the children of Israel

MAN any more, but did eate of the fruite of the land of Canaan that yeere. ¹³And when Ioshua was by Iericho, he lift vp his eyes and looked: and behold, there stood a man against him, hauing a sword drawen in his hand: and Ioshua went vnto him, and said vnto him, Art thou on our side, or on our aduersaries? ¹⁴And he said, Nay, but as a captaine of the host of the Lord am I nowe come: then Ioshua fel on his face to the earth, and did worship, and saide vnto him, What sayth my Lord vnto his seruant? ¹⁵And the captaine of ye Lords host said vnto Ioshua, Loose thy shoe of thy foote: for ye place wheron thou standest, is holy: and Ioshua did so.

CHAPTER 6

¹Now Iericho was shut vp, and closed, because of the children of Israel: none might go out nor enter in. ²And the Lord saide vnto Ioshua, Behold, I haue giuen into thine hand Iericho and the King thereof, and the strong men of warre. ³All ye therefore that be men of warre, shall compasse the citie, in going round about the citie once: thus shall you doe sixe dayes: ⁴And seuen Priests shall beare seuen trumpets of rams hornes before the Arke: and the seuenth day ye shall compasse the citie seuen times, and the Priests shall blow with the trumpets. ⁵And when they make a long blast with the rams horne, and ye heare the sound of the trumpet, al the people shall shoute with a great shoute: then shall the wall of the citie fall downe flat, and the people shall ascend vp, euery man streight before him. ⁶Then, Ioshua the sonne of Nun called the Priests and said vnto them, Take vp the Arke of the couenant, and let seuen Priests beare seuen trumpets of rams hornes before the Arke of the Lord. ⁷But he said vnto the people, Goe and compasse the citie: and let him that is armed, go forth before the Arke of the Lord. ⁸And when Ioshua had spoken vnto the people, the seuen Priestes bare the seuen trumpets of rams hornes, and went foorth before the Arke of the Lord, and blew with the trumpets, and the Arke of the couenant of ye Lord followed them. ⁹And the men of armes went before the Priestes, that blewe the trumpets: then the gathering hoste came after the Arke, as they went and blewe the trumpets. ¹⁰(Nowe Ioshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall nor shout, neither make any noyse with your voyce, neither shall a worde proceede out of your mouth, vntill the day that I say vnto you, Shout, then shall ye shoute) ¹¹So the Arke of the Lord compassed the citie, and went about it once: then they returned into the hoaste, and lodged in the campe. ¹²And Ioshua rose early in the morning, and the Priestes bare the Arke of the Lord: ¹³Also seuen Priests bare seuen trumpets of rams hornes, and went before the Arke of the Lord, and going blewe with the trumpets: and the men of armes went before them, but the gathering hoste came after the Arke of the Lord, as they went and blewe the trumpets. ¹⁴And the second day they compassed the citie once, and returned into the host: thus they did sixe dayes. ¹⁵And when the seuenth day came, they rose early, euen with the dawning of the day, and compassed the citie after ye same maner seuen times: only that day they compassed the citie seuen times. ¹⁶And when the Priests had blowen ye trumpets the seuenth time, Ioshua said vnto ye people, Shoute: for the Lord hath giuen you the citie. ¹⁷And the citie shalbe an execrable thing, both it, and all that are therein, vnto the Lord: onely Rahab the harlot shall liue, shee, and all that are with her in the house: for shee hid the messengers that we sent. ¹⁸Notwithstanding, be ye ware of the execrable thing, lest ye make your selues execrable, and in taking of the execrable thing, make also the hoste of Israel execrable, and trouble it. ¹⁹But all siluer, and gold, and vessels of brasse, and yron shalbe consecrate vnto the Lord, and shall come into the Lordes treasury. ²⁰So the people shouted, whe they had blowen trumpets: for when the people had heard the sound of the trumpet, they shouted with a great shoute: and the wall fel downe flat: so the people went vp into the citie, euery man streight before him: and they tooke the citie. ²¹And they vtterly destroyed all that was in the citie, both man and woman, yong, and olde, and oxen, and sheepe, and asse, with the edge of the sword. ²²But Ioshua had said vnto the two men that had spied out the countrey, Go into the harlots house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye sware to her. ²³So the yong men that were spies, went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that shee had: also they brought out all her familie, and put them without the host of Israel. ²⁴After they burnt the citie with fire, and all that was therein: onely the siluer and the gold, and the vessels of brasse and yron, they put vnto the treasure of the house of the Lord. ²⁵So Ioshua saued Rahab the harlot, and her fathers houshold, and all that shee had; and shee dwelt in Israel euen vnto this day, because shee had hid the messengers, which Ioshua sent to spie out Iericho. ²⁶And Ioshua sware at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before ye Lord, that riseth vp, and buildeth this citie Iericho: hee shall lay the foundation thereof in his eldest sonne, and in his yongest sonne shall hee set vp the gates of it. ²⁷So the Lord was with Ioshua, and he was famous through all the world.

¹But the children of Israel committed a trespasse in the excommunicate thing: for Achan the sonne of Carmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Zerah of the tribe of Iuda tooke of the excommunicate thing: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the children of Israel.

²And Ioshua sent men from Iericho to Ai, which is beside Bethauen, on ye East side of Bethel, and spake vnto them, saying, Goe vp, and view the countrey. And ye men went vp, and viewed Ai, ³And returned to Ioshua, and saide vnto him, Let not al the people go vp, but let as it were two or three thousand men go vp, and smite Ai, and make not al the people to labour thither, for they are fewe. ⁴So there went vp thither of the people about three thousande men, and they fledde before the men of Ai. ⁵And the men of Ai smote of them vpon a thirtie and sixe men: for they chased them from before the gate vnto Shebarim, and smote them in the going downe: wherefore the heartes of the people melted away like water. ⁶Then Ioshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth vpon his face before the Arke of the Lord, vntill the euentide, he, and the Elders of Israel, and put dust vpon their heads. ⁷And Ioshua said, Alas, O Lord God, wherefore hast thou brought this people ouer Iorden, to deliuer vs into the hande of the Amorites, and to destroye vs? would God we had bene content to dwell on the other side Iorden. ⁸Oh Lord, what shall I say, when Israel turne their backs before their enemies? ⁹For the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land shall heare of it, and shall compasse vs, and destroy our name out of the earth: and what wilt thou doe vnto thy mightie Name? ¹⁰And the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Get thee vp: wherefore lyeest thou thus vpon thy face? ¹¹Israel hath sinned, and they haue transgressed my couenant, which I commanded them: for they haue euen taken of the excommunicate thing, and haue also stollen, and dissembled also, and haue put it euen with their owne stuffe. ¹²Therefore ye children of Israel cannot stand before their enemies, but haue turned their backes before their enemies, because they be execrable: neither will I bee with you any more, except ye destroy the excommunicate from among you. ¹³Vp therefore, sanctifie the people, and say, Sanctifie your selues against to morowe: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There is an execrable thing among you, O Israel, therefore ye cannot stand against your enemies, vntill ye haue put the execrable thing from among you. ¹⁴In the morning therefore ye shall come according to your tribes, and the tribe which the Lord taketh, shall come according to the families: and the familie which the Lord shall take, shall come by the houtholds: and the houthold which the Lord shall take, shall come man by man.

¹⁵And he that is taken with the excommunicate thing, shall be burnt with fire, hee, and all that he hath, because he hath transgressed the couenant of the Lord, and because he hath wrought folly in Israel. ¹⁶So Ioshua rose vp earely in the morning and brought Israel by their tribes: and the tribe of Iudah was taken. ¹⁷And he brought the families of Iudah, and tooke the familie of the Zarhites, and he brought the familie of the Zarhites, man by man, and Zabdi was taken. ¹⁸And he brought his houthold, man by man, and Achan ye sonne of Carmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Zerah of the tribe of Iudah was take. ¹⁹Then Ioshua said vnto Achan, My sonne, I beseech thee, giue glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession vnto him, and shewe me now what thou hast done: hide it not from me. ²⁰And Achan answered Ioshua, and saide, In deede, I haue sinned against the Lord God of Israel, and thus, and thus haue I done. ²¹I sawe among the spoyle a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundreth shekels of siluer, and a wedge of golde of fiftie shekels weight, and I coueted them, and tooke them: and behold, they lye hid in the earth in the mids of my tent, and the siluer vnder it. ²²Then Ioshua sent messengers, which ran vnto the tent, and beholde, it was hid in his tent, and the siluer vnder it. ²³Therefore they tooke them out of the tent, and brought them vnto Ioshua, and vnto all the children of Israel, and layd them before the Lord. ²⁴Then Ioshua tooke Achan the sonne of Zerah, and the siluer, and the garment and the wedge of golde and his sonnes, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheepe, and his tent, and all that hee had: and all Israel with him brought them vnto the valley of Achor. ²⁵And Ioshua said, In as much as thou hast troubled vs, the Lord shall trouble thee this day: and all Israel threwe stones at him, and burned them with fire, and stoned them with stones. ²⁶And they cast vpon him a great heape of stones vnto this day: and so the Lord turned from his fierce wrath: therefore hee called the name of that place, The valley of Achor, vnto this day.

¹After, the Lord saide vnto Ioshua, Feare not, neither bee thou faint hearted: take all the men of warre with thee and arise, go vp to Ai: beholde, I haue giuen into thine hand the King of Ai, and his people, and his citie, and his land. ²And thou shalt doe to Ai and to the King thereof, as thou didst vnto Iericho and to the King thereof: neuerthelesse the spoyle thereof and the cattell thereof shall ye take vnto you for a praye: thou shalt lye in wait against the citie on the backside thereof. ³Then Ioshua arose, and all the men of warre to goe vp against Ai: and Ioshua chose out thirtie thousand strong men, and valiant, and sent them away by night. ⁴And he commanded them, saying, Behold, yee shall lye in waite against the citie on the backside of the citie: goe not very farre from the citie, but be ye all in a readinesse. ⁵And I and all the people that are with me, will approche vnto the citie: and when they shall come out against vs, as they did at the first time, then will we flee before them. ⁶For they will come out after vs, till we haue brought them out of the citie: for they will say, 'They flee before vs as at the first time: so we will flee before them. ⁷Then you shall rise vp from lying in waite and destroy the citie: for the Lord your God wil deliuer it into your hand. ⁸And when ye haue taken the citie, ye shall set it on fire: according to the commandement of the Lord shall ye do: behold, I haue charged you. ⁹Ioshua then sent them forth, and they went to lye in waite, and abode betweene Beth-el and Ai, on the Westside of Ai: but Ioshua lodged that night among the people. ¹⁰And Ioshua rose vp early in the morning, and nombred the people: and he and the Elders of Israel went vp before the people against Ai. ¹¹Also all the men of warre that were with him went vp and drewe neere, and came against the citie, and pitched on the Northside of Ai: and there was a valley betweene them and Ai. ¹²And hee tooke about fiue thousande men, and set them to lye in waite betweene Beth-el and Ai, on the Westside of the citie. ¹³And the people set all the hoste that was on the Northside against the citie, and the liers in waite on the West, against the citie: and Ioshua went the same night into the mids of the valley. ¹⁴And when the King of Ai sawe it, then the men of the citie hasted and rose vp earely, and went out against Israel to battell, hee and all his people at the time appointed, before the plaine: for he knew not that any lay in waite against him on the backside of the citie. ¹⁵Then Ioshua and all Israel as beaten before them, fled by the way of the wildernes. ¹⁶And all the people of the citie were called together, to pursue after them: and they pursued after Ioshua, and were drawen away out of the city, ¹⁷So that there was not a man left in Ai, nor in Beth-el, that went not out after Israel: and they left the citie open, and pursued after Israel. ¹⁸Then the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Stretch out the speare that is in thine hande, towarde Ai: for I wil giue it into thine hand: and Ioshua stretched out the speare that hee had in his hand, toward the citie. ¹⁹And they that lay in wait, arose quickly out of their place, and ranne as soone as he had stretched out his hand, and they entred into the citie, and tooke it, and hasted, and set the citie on fire. ²⁰And the men of Ai looked behinde them, and sawe it: for loe, the smoke of the citie ascended vp to heauen, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: for the people that fled to the wilderness, turned backe vpon the pursuers. ²¹When Ioshua and all Israel sawe that they that lay in waite, had taken the citie, and that the smoke of the citie mounted vp, then they turned againe and slewe the men of Ai. ²²Also the other issued out of the citie against them: so were they in the middes of Israel, these being on the one side, and the rest on the other side: and they slewe them, so that they let none of them remaine nor escape. ²³And the King of Ai they tooke alieue, and brought him to Ioshua. ²⁴And when Israel had made an ende of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the felde, that is, in the wilderness, where they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sworde, vntill they were consumed, all the Israelites returned vnto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sworde. ²⁵And all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelue thousande, euen all the men of Ai. ²⁶For Ioshua drewe not his hande backe againe which he had stretched out with the speare, vntill hee had vtterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. ²⁷Onely the cattell and the spoyle of this citie, Israel tooke for a praye vnto themselues, according vnto the worde of the Lord, which hee commanded Ioshua. ²⁸And Ioshua burnt Ai, and made it an heape for euer, and a wildernes vnto this day. ²⁹And the King of Ai hee hanged on a tree, vnto the euening. And as soone as the sunne was down, Ioshua commanded that they should take his carkeis downe from the tree, and cast it at the entring of ye gate of the city, and lay thereon a great heape of stones, that remaineth vnto this day. ³⁰Then Ioshua built an altar vnto the Lord God of Israel, in mount Ebal, ³¹As Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the booke of the Lawe of Moses, an altar of whole stone, ouer which no man had lift an yron: and they offered thereon burnt offrings vnto the Lord, and sacrificed peace offerings. ³²Also he wrote there vpon the stones, a rehearsall of the Lawe of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel. ³³And all Israel (and their Elders, and officers and their iudges stode on this side of the Arke, and on that side, before the Priestes of the Leuites, which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord) as well the stranger, as he that is borne in the countrey: halfe of them were ouer against mount Gerizim, and halfe of them ouer against mount Ebal, as Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded before, that they should blesse the people of Israel. ³⁴Then afterwarde hee read all the wordes of the Lawe, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the booke of the Lawe. ³⁵There was not a worde of all that Moses had commanded, which Ioshua read not before all the Congregation of Israel, as well before the women and the children, as the stranger that was conuersant among them.

¹And when all the Kings that were beyonde Iorden, in the mountaines and in the valleis, and by all the coastes of the great Sea ouer against Lebanon (as the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites) heard thereof, ²They gathered themselues together, to fight against Ioshua, and against Israel with one accord. ³But the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Ioshua had done vnto Iericho, and to Ai. ⁴And therefore they wrought craftily: for they went, and fayned themselues ambassadours, and tooke olde sackes vpon their asses, and olde bottels for wine, both rent and bound vp, ⁵And olde shoes and clouted vpon their feete: also the raiment vpon them was old, and all their prouision of bread was dried, and mouled. ⁶So they came vnto Ioshua into the hoste to

Gilgal, and said vnto him, and vnto the men of Israel, Wee be come from a farre countrey: nowe therefore make a league with vs. ⁷Then the men of Israel said vnto the Hiuites, It may be that thou dwellest among vs, how then can I make a league with thee? ⁸And they said vnto Ioshua, We are thy seruants. Then Ioshua saide vnto them, Who are ye? and whence come ye? ⁹And they answered him, From a very farre countrey thy seruants are come for the Name of the Lord thy God: for we haue heard his fame and all that he hath done in Egypt, ¹⁰And all that he hath done to the two Kings of the Amorites that were beyonde Iorden, to Sihon King of Heshbon, and to Og King of Bashan, which were at Ashtaroth. ¹¹Wherefore our elders, and all the inhabitants of our countrey spake to vs, saying, Take vitailles with you for the iourney, and go to meete them, and say vnto them, Wee are your seruants: now therefore make ye a league with vs. ¹²This our bread we tooke it hote with vs for vittailles out of our houses, the day we departed to come vnto you: but nowe beholde, it is dried, and it is mouled. ¹³Also these bottels of wine which we filled, were newe, and lo, they be rent, and these our garments and our shooes are olde, by reason of the exceeding great iourney. ¹⁴And the men accepted their tale concerning their vittailles, and counselled not with the mouth of the Lord. ¹⁵So Ioshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, that he would suffer them to liue: also the Princes of the Congregation sware vnto them. ¹⁶But at the end of three dayes, after they had made a league with them, they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them. ¹⁷And the children of Israel tooke their iourney, and came vnto their cities the third day, and their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth and Kiriath-iearim. ¹⁸And the children of Israel slewe them not, because the Princes of the Congregation had sworne vnto them by the Lord God of Israel: wherefore all the Congregation murmured against the Princes. ¹⁹Then all the Princes said vnto all the Congregation, We haue sworne vnto them by the Lord God of Israel: nowe therefore we may not touch them. ²⁰But this we wil doe to them, and let them liue, least the wrath be vpon vs because of the othe which we sware vnto them. ²¹And the Princes sayd vnto them againe, Let them liue, but they shall hewe wood, and drawe water vnto all the Congregation, as the Princes appoint them. ²²Ioshua then called them, and talked with them, and sayd, Wherefore haue ye beguiled vs, saying, We are very farre from you, when ye dwel among vs? ²³Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the house of my God. ²⁴And they answered Ioshua, and sayd, Because it was tolde thy seruants, that the Lord thy God had commanded his seruant Moses to giue you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land out of your sight, therefore we were exceeding sore afraid for our liues at the presence of you, and haue done this thing: ²⁵And beholde nowe, we are in thine hand: doe as it seemeth good and right in thine eyes to doe vnto vs. ²⁶Euen so did he vnto them, and deliuered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slewe them not. ²⁷And Ioshua appointed them that same day to be hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the Congregation, and for the altar of the Lord vnto this day, in the place which he should chuse.

¹Now when Adoni-zedek King of Ierusalem had heard how Ioshua had taken Ai and had destroyed it, (for as he had done to Iericho and to the King thereof, so he had done to Ai and to the King thereof) and howe the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them, ²Then they feared exceedingly: for Gibeon was a great citie, as one of the royall cities: for it was greater then Ai, and all the men thereof were mightie. ³Wherefore Adoni-zedek King of Ierusalem sent vnto Hoham King of Hebron, and vnto Piram King of

Iarmuth, and vnto Iapia King of Lachish, and vnto Debir King of Eglon, saying, ⁴Come vp vnto me, and helpe me, that we may smite Gibeon: for they haue made peace with Ioshua and with the children of Israel. ⁵Therefore the fiue Kings of the Amorites, the King of Ierusalem, the King of Hebron, the King of Iarmuth, the King of Lachish, and the King of Eglon gathered themselues together, and went vp, they with all their hostes, and besieged Gibeon, and made warre against it. ⁶And the men of Gibeon sent vnto Ioshua, euen to the hoste to Gilgal, saying, Withdrawe not thine hand from thy seruants: come vp to vs quickly, and saue vs, and helpe vs: for all the Kings of the Amorites which dwell in the mountaines, are gathered together against vs. ⁷So Ioshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of warre with him, and all the men of might. ⁸And the Lord sayd vnto Ioshua, Feare them not: for I haue giuen them into thine hand: none of them shall stand against thee. ⁹Ioshua therefore came vnto them suddenly: for he went vp from Gilgal all the night. ¹⁰And the Lord discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth vp to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah and to Makkedah. ¹¹And as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going downe to Beth-horon, the Lord cast downe great stones from heauen vpon them, vntill Azekah, and they dyed: they were more that dyed with the hailestones, then they whom the children of Israel slewe with the sword. ¹²Then spake Ioshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord gaue the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he sayd in the sight of Israel, Sunne, stay thou in Gibeon, and thou moone, in the valley of Aialon. ¹³And the Sunne abode, and the moone stood still, vntill the people auenged themselues vpon their enemies: (Is not this written in the booke of Iasher?) so the Sunne abode in the middes of the heauen, and hasted not to goe downe for a whole day. ¹⁴And there was no day like that before it, nor after it, that the Lord heard the voyce of a man: for the Lord fought for Israel. ¹⁵After, Ioshua returned, and all Israel with him vnto the campe to Gilgal: ¹⁶But the fiue Kings fled and were hid in a caue at Makkedah. ¹⁷And it was tolde Ioshua, saying, The fiue Kings are found hid in a caue at Makkedah. ¹⁸Then Ioshua said, Roule great stones vpon the mouth of the caue, and set men by it for to keepe them. ¹⁹But stand ye not still: follow after your enemies, and smite all the hindmost, suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the Lord your God hath giuen them into your hand. ²⁰And when Ioshua and the children of Israel had made an ende of slaying them with an exceeding great slaughter till they were consumed, and the rest that remained of them were entred into walled cities, ²¹Then all the people returned to the campe, to Ioshua at Makkedah in peace: no man mooued his tongue against the children of Israel. ²²After, Ioshua sayd, Open the mouth of the caue, and bring out these fiue Kings vnto me forth of the caue. ²³And they did so, and brought out those fiue Kings vnto him forth of the caue, euen the King of Ierusalem, the King of Hebron, ye King of Iarmuth, the King of Lachish, and the King of Eglon. ²⁴And when they had brought out those Kings vnto Ioshua, Ioshua called for all the men of Israel, and sayd vnto the chiefe of the men of warre, which went with him, Come neere, set your feete vpon the necks of these Kings: and they came neere and set their feete vpon their necks. ²⁵And Ioshua sayd vnto them, Feare not, nor be faint hearted, but be strong and of a good courage: for thus will the Lord doe to all your enemies, against whome ye fight. ²⁶So then Ioshua smote them, and slewe them, and hanged them on fiue trees, and they hanged still vpon the trees vntill the euening. ²⁷And at the going downe of the sunne, Ioshua gaue commandement, that they should take them downe off the trees, and cast them into the caue (wherein they had bene hid) and they layde great stones vpon the caues mouth, which remaine vntill this day. ²⁸And that same day Ioshua tooke Makkedah and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the King thereof destroyed he with them, and all the soules that were therein, he let none remaine: for hee did to the King of Makkedah as he had done vnto the King of Iericho. ²⁹Then Ioshua went from Makkedah, and all Israel with him vnto Libnah, and fought against Libnah. ³⁰And the Lord gaue it also and the King thereof into the hand of Israel: and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein: he let none remaine in it: for he did vnto the King thereof, as he had done vnto the King of Iericho. ³¹And Ioshua departed from Libnah, and all Israel with him vnto Lachish, and besieged it, and assaulted it. ³²And the Lord gaue Lachish into the hand of Israel, which tooke it the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein, according to all as he had done to Libnah. ³³Then Horam King of Gezer came vp to helpe Lachish: but Ioshua smote him and his people, vntill none of his remained. ³⁴And from Lachish

Ioshua departed vnto Eglon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged it, and assaulted it, ³⁵And they tooke it the same day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein he vtterly destroyed the same day, according to all that he had done to Lachish. ³⁶Then Ioshua went vp from Eglon, and all Israel with him vnto Hebron, and they fought against it. ³⁷And when they had taken it, they smote it with the edge of the sword, and the King thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the soules that were therein: he left none remaining, according to all as he had done to Eglon: for he destroyed it vtterly, and all the soules that were therein. ³⁸So Ioshua returned, and all Israel with him to Debir, and fought against it. ³⁹And when he had taken it, and the King thereof, and all the citie thereof, they smote them with the edge of the sword, and vtterly destroyed all the soules that were therein, he let none remaine: as he did to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the King thereof, as he had also done to Libnah, and to the King thereof. ⁴⁰So Ioshua smote all the hill countreys, and the South countreys, and the valleys, and the hill sides, and all their Kings, and let none remaine, but vtterly destroyed euery soule, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded. ⁴¹And Ioshua smote them from Kadesh-barnea euen vnto Azzah, and all the countrey of Goshen, euen vnto Gibeon. ⁴²And all these Kings, and their land did Ioshua take at one time, because the Lord God of Israel fought for Israel. ⁴³Afterward, Ioshua and all Israel with him returned vnto the campe in Gilgal.

¹And whe Iabin King of Hazor had heard this, then he sent to Iobab King of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, ²And vnto the Kings that were by ye North in the mountaines and plaines toward the Southside of Cinneroth, and in the valleys, and in the borders of Dor Westward, ³And vnto the Canaanites, both by East, and by West, and vnto

the Amorites, and Hittites, and Perizzites, and Iebusites in the mountaines, and vnto the Hiuites vnder Hermon in the land of Mizpeh. ⁴And they came out and all their hostes with them, many people as the sande that is on the sea shore for multitude, with horses and charets exceeding many. ⁵So all these Kings met together, and came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, for to fight against Israel. ⁶Then the Lord sayd vnto Ioshua, Be not afrayd for them: for to morowe about this time will I deliuer them all slaine before Israel: thou shalt hough their horses, and burne their charets with fire. ⁷Then came Ioshua and al the men of warre with him against them by the waters of Merom suddenly, and fell vpon them. ⁸And the Lord gaue them into the hand of Israel: and they smote them, and chased them vnto great Zidon, and vnto Misrephothmaim, and vnto the valley of Mizpeh Eastward, and smote them vntill they had none remaining of them. ⁹And Ioshua did vnto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their charets with fire. ¹⁰At that time also Ioshua turned backe, and tooke Hazor, and smote the King thereof with the sword: for Hazor before time was the head of all those kingdomes. ¹¹Moreouer, they smote all the persons that were therein with the edge of the sworde, vtterly destroying all, leauing none aliue, and hee burnt Hazor with fire. ¹²So all ye cities of those Kings, and all the kings of them did Ioshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and vtterly destroyed them, as Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded. ¹³But Israel burnt none of the cities that stode still in their strength, saue Hazor onely, that Ioshua burnt. ¹⁴And all the spoyle of these cities and the cattel the children of Israel tooke for their praye, but they smote euery man with the edge of the sword vntill they had destroyed them, not leauing one aliue. ¹⁵As the Lord had commanded Moses his seruant, so did Moses commande Ioshua, and so did Ioshua: he left nothing vndone of all that the Lord had commanded Moses. ¹⁶So Ioshua tooke all this land of the mountaines, and all the South, and all the lande of Goshen, and the lowe countrey, and the plaine, and the mountaine of Israel, and the lowe countrey of the same, ¹⁷From the mount Halak, that goeth vp to Seir, euen vnto Baalgad in the valley of Lebanon, vnder mount Hermon: and all their Kings he tooke, and smote them, and slewe them. ¹⁸Ioshua made warre long time with all those Kings, ¹⁹Neither was there any citie that made peace with the children of Israel, saue those Hiuites that inhabited Gibeon: all other they tooke by battell. ²⁰For it came of the Lord, to harden their heartes that they shoulde come against Israel in battell to the intent that they shoulde destroye them vtterly, and shewe them no mercie, but that they shoulde bring them to nought: as the Lord had commanded Moses. ²¹And that same season came Ioshua, and destroyed the Anakims out of the mountaines: as out of Hebron, out of Debir, out of Anab, and out of all the mountaines of Iudah, and out of all the mountaines of Israel: Ioshua destroyed them vtterly with their cities. ²²There was no Anakim left in the lande of the children of Israel: onely in Azzah, in Gath, and in Ashdod were they left. ²³So Ioshua tooke the whole land, according to all that the Lord had saide vnto Moses: and Ioshua gaue it for an inheritance vnto Israel according to their portion through their tribes: then the land was at rest without warre.

¹And these are the Kings of the land, which the children of Israel smote and possessed their land, on the other side Iorden toward the rising of the sunne, from the riuier Arnon, vnto mount Hermon, and all the plaine Eastward. ²Sihon King of the Amorites, that dwelt in Heshbon, hauing dominion from Aroer, which is beside the riuier of Arnon, and from the middle of the riuier, and from halfe Gilead vnto the riuier Iabbok, in the border of the children of Ammon. ³And from the plaine vnto the sea of Cinneroth

Eastward, and vnto the Sea of the plaine, euen the salt sea Eastward, the way to Beth-ieshimoth, and from the South vnder the springs of Pisgah. ⁴They conquered also the coast of Og King of Bashan of the remnant of the gyants, which dwelt at Ashtaroth, and at Edrei, ⁵And reigned in mount Hermon, and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, vnto the border of the Geshurites, and the Maachathites, and halfe Gilead, euen the border of Sihon King of Heshbon. ⁶Moses the seruant of the Lord, and the children of Israel smote them: Moses also the seruant of the Lord gaue their land for a possession vnto the Reubenites, and vnto the Gadites, and to halfe the tribe of Manasseh. ⁷These also are the Kings of the countrey, which Ioshua and the children of Israel smote on this side Iorden, Westward, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon, euen vnto the mount Halak that goeth vp to Seir, and Ioshua gaue it vnto the tribes of Israel for a possession, according to their portions: ⁸In the mountaines, and in the valleys, and in the plaines, and in the hill sides, and in the wildernes, and in the South, where were the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites. ⁹The King of Iericho was one: the King of Ai, which is beside Beth-el, one: ¹⁰The King of Ierusalem, one: the King of Hebron, one: ¹¹The King of Iarmuth, one: the King of Lachish, one: ¹²The King of Eglon, one: the King of Gezer, one: ¹³The King of Debir, one: the King of Geder, one: ¹⁴The King of Hormah, one: the King of Arad, one: ¹⁵The King of Libnah, one: the King of Adullam, one: ¹⁶The King of Makkedah, one: the King of Beth-el, one: ¹⁷The King of Tappuah, one: the King of Hephher, one: ¹⁸The King of Aphek, one: the King of Lasharon, one: ¹⁹The King of Madon, one: the King of Hazor, one: ²⁰The king of Shimron-meron, one: the King of Achshaph, one: ²¹The King of Taanach, one: the King of Megiddo, one: ²²The King of Kedesh, one: the King of Iokneam of Carmel, one: ²³The King of Dor, in the countrey of Dor, one: the King of the nations of Gilgal, one: ²⁴The King of Tirzah, one. all the Kings were thirtie and one.

¹Nowe when Ioshua was olde, and striken in yeeres, the Lord said vnto him, Thou art olde and growen in age, and there remaineth exceeding much land to be possessed: ²This is the land that remaineth, all the regions of the Philistims, and all Geshuri, ³From Nilus which is in Egypt, euen vnto the borders of Ekron Northward: this is counted of the Canaanites, euen fīue Lordships of the Philistims, the Azzithites, and the Ashdodites, the Eshkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites, and the Auites: ⁴From the South, all the land of the Canaanites, and the caue that is beside the Sidonians, vnto Aphek, and to the borders of the Amorites: ⁵And the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunne rising from Bahal-gad vnder mount Hermon, vntil one come to Hamath. ⁶All the inhabitants of the mountaines from Lebanon vnto Misrephothmaim, and all the Sidonians, I wil cast them out from before the children of Israel: only deuide thou it by lot vnto the Israelites, to inherite, as I haue commanded thee. ⁷Nowe therefore deuide this lande to inherite, vnto the nine tribes, and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh. ⁸For with halfe therof the Reubenites and the Gadites haue receiued their inheritance, which Moses gaue them beyond Iorden Eastward, euen as Moses the seruant of the Lord had giuen them, ⁹From Aroer that is on the brinke of the riuier Arnon, and from the citie that is in the mids of the riuier, and all the plaine of Medeba vnto Dibon, ¹⁰And all the cities of Sihon King of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, vnto the borders of the children of Ammon, ¹¹And Gilead, and the borders of the Geshurites and of the Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, with all Bashan vnto Salcah: ¹²All the kingdome of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei: (who remained of the rest of the gyants) for these did Moses smite, and cast them out. ¹³But the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites euen vnto this day. ¹⁴Onely vnto the tribe of Leui he gaue none inheritance, but the sacrifices of the Lord God of Israel are his inheritance, as he said vnto him. ¹⁵Moses then gaue vnto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance, according to their families. ¹⁶And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the brinke of the riuier Arnon, and from the citie that is in the middes of the riuier, and all the plaine which is by Medeba: ¹⁷Heshbon with all the cities thereof, that are in the plaine: Dibon and Bamoth-baal, and Bethbaal-meon: ¹⁸And Iahazah, and Kedemoth and Mephaath: ¹⁹Kiriathaim also, and Sibmah, and Zerethshahar in the mount of Emek: ²⁰And Beth-peor, and Ashdoth-pisgah, and Beth-ieshimoth: ²¹And all the cities of the plaine: and all the kingdome of Sihon King of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whome Moses smote with the Princes of Midian, Eui, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the countrey. ²²And Balaam the sonne of Beor the soothsayer did the children of Israel slay with the sword, among them that were slaine. ²³And the border of the children of Reuben was Iorden with the coastes. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, with the cities and their villages. ²⁴Also Moses gaue inheritance vnto ye tribe of Gad, euen vnto the children of Gad according to their families. ²⁵And their coastes were Iazer, and all the cities of Gilead and halfe the lande of the children of Ammon vnto Aroer, which is before Rabbah: ²⁶And from Heshbon vnto Ramoth, Mizpeh, and Betonim: and from Mahanaim vnto the borders of Debir: ²⁷And in the valley Beth-aram, and Bethnimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdome of Sihon King of Heshbon, vnto Iorden and the borders euen vnto the Sea coast of Cinneereth, beyond Iorden Eastward. ²⁸This is the inheritance of the children of Gad, after their families, with the cities, and their villages. ²⁹Also Moses gaue inheritance vnto the halfe tribe of Manasseh: and this belonged to the halfe tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families. ³⁰And their border was from Mahanaim, euen all Bashan, to wit, all the kingdome of Og King of Bashan, and all the townes of Iair which are in Bashan, threescore cities, ³¹And halfe Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were giuen vnto the children of Machir the sonne of Manasseh, to halfe of the children of Machir after their families. ³²These are the heritages, which Moses did distribute in the plaine of Moab beyond Iorden, toward Iericho Eastward. ³³But vnto the tribe of Leui Moses gaue none inheritance: for the Lord God of Israel is their inheritance, as he said vnto them.

¹These also are the places which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the Priest, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed to them, ²By the lot of their inheritance, as the Lord had commanded by the hande of Moses, to giue to the nine tribes, and the halfe tribe. ³For Moses had giuen inheritance vnto two tribes and an halfe tribe, beyond Iorde: but vnto the Leuites he gaue none inheritance among them. ⁴For the childe of Ioseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gaue no part vnto the Leuites in the lande, saue cities to dwell in, with the suburbs of the same for their beastes and their substance. ⁵As the Lord had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did when they deuided the land. ⁶Then the children of Iudah came vnto Ioshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh the Kenezite saide vnto him, Thou knowest what the Lord saide vnto Moses the man of God, concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea.

⁷Fourtie yeere olde was I, when Moses the seruant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh-barnea to espie the land, and I brought him word againe, as I thought in mine heart. ⁸But my brethren that went vp with me, discouraged the heart of the people: yet I followed still the Lord my God. ⁹Wherefore Moses sware the same day, saying, Certainly the land whereon thy feete haue troden, shalbe thine inheritance, and thy childrens for euer, because thou hast followed constantly the Lord my God. ¹⁰Therefore beholde now, the Lord hath kept me aliue, as he promised: this is the fourtie and fift yeere since the Lord spake this thing vnto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wildernes: and now loe, I am this day foure score and fiue yeere olde: ¹¹And yet am as strong at this time, as I was when Moses sent me: as strong as I was then, so strong am I now, either for warre, or for gouernment. ¹²Nowe therefore giue me this mountaine whereof ye Lord spake in that day (for thou heardest in that day, how the Anakims were there, and the cities great and walled) if so be the Lord will be with me, that I may driue them out, as the Lord said. ¹³Then Ioshua blessed him, and gaue vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, Hebron for an inheritance. ¹⁴Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh the Kenezite, vnto this day: because he followed constantly the Lord God of Israel. ¹⁵And the name of Hebron was before time, Kiriath-arba: which Arba was a great man amog the Anakims: thus the land ceased from warre.

¹This then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Iudah by their families: euen to the border of Edom and the wilderness of Zin, Southward on the Southcoast. ²And their South border was the salt Sea coast, from the point that looketh Southward. ³And it went out on the Southside towarde Maalet-akrabbim, and went along to Zin, and ascended vp on the Southside vnto Kadesh-barnea, and went along to Hezron, and went vp to Adar, and fet a compasse to Karkaa. ⁴From thence went it along to Azmon, and reached vnto the riuer of Egypt, and the end of that coast was on the Westside: this shall be your South coast. ⁵Also the Eastborder shalbe the salt Sea, vnto the end of Iorden: and the border on the North quarter from the point of the Sea, and from the end of Iorden. ⁶And this border goeth vp to Beth-hogla, and goeth along by ye Northside of Beth-arabah: so the border from thence goeth vp to the stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben. ⁷Againe this border goeth vp to Debir from the valley of Achor, and Northwarde, turning toward Gilgal, that lyeth before the going vp to Adummim, which is on the Southside of the riuer: also this border goeth vp to the waters of En-shemesh, and endeth at En-rogel. ⁸Then this border goeth vp to the valley of the sonne of Hinnom; on the Southside of the Iebusites: the same is Ierusalem. also this border goeth vp to the top of the mountaine that lyeth before the valley of Hinnom Westward, which is by the end of the valley of ye gyants Northward. ⁹So this border compasseth from the top of the mountaine vnto the fountaine of the water of Nephtoah, and goeth out to the cities of mount Ephron: and this border draweth to Baalah, which is Kiriath-iearim. ¹⁰Then this border compasseth from Baalah Westward vnto mount Seir, and goeth along vnto the side of mount Iearim, which is Chesalon on the Northside: so it commeth downe to Bethshemesh, and goeth to Timnah. ¹¹Also this border goeth out vnto the side of Ekron Northwarde: and this border draweth to Shicron, and goeth along to mount Baalah, and stretcheth vnto Iabneel: and the endes of this coast are to the Sea. ¹²And the Westborder is to the great Sea: so this border shalbe the bounds of the children of Iudah round about, according to their families. ¹³And vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh did Ioshua giue a part among the children of Iudah, as the Lord commanded him, euen Kiriath-arba of the father of Anak, which is Hebron. ¹⁴And Caleb droue thence three sonnes of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the sonnes of Anak. ¹⁵And he went vp thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before time was Kiriath-sepher. ¹⁶Then Caleb sayd, He that smiteth Kiriath-sepher, and taketh it, euen to him wil I giue Achsah my daughter to wife. ¹⁷And Othniel, the sonne of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb tooke it: and he gaue him Achsah his daughter to wife. ¹⁸And as she went in to him, she moued him, to aske of her father a fiede: and she lighted off her asse, and Caleb sayd vnto her, What wilt thou? ¹⁹Then she answered, Giue me a blessing: for thou hast giuen mee the South countrey: giue me also springs of water. And hee gaue her the springs aboue and the springs beneath. ²⁰This shalbe the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Iudah according to their families. ²¹And the vtmost cities of the tribe of the children of Iudah, toward the coastes of Edom Southward were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Iagur, ²²And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah, ²³And Kedesh, and

Hazor, and Ithnan, ²⁴Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth, ²⁵And Hazor, Hadattah, and Kerioth, Hesron (which is Hazor) ²⁶Amam, and Shema, and Moladah, ²⁷And Hazar, Gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-palet, ²⁸And Hasar-shual, and Beersheba, and Biziothiah, ²⁹Baalah, and Iim, and Azem, ³⁰And Eltolad, and Chesil, and Hormah, ³¹And Ziklag, and Madmanna, and Sansannah, ³²And Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon: all these cities are twentie and nine with their villages. ³³In the lowe countrey were Eshtaol, and Zoreah, and Ashnah, ³⁴And Zanoah, and Engannim, Tappuah, and Enam, ³⁵Iarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah, ³⁶And Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteene cities with their villages. ³⁷Zenam, and Hadashah, and Migdal-gad, ³⁸And Dileam, and Mizpeh, and Ioktheel, ³⁹Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon, ⁴⁰And Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Kithlish, ⁴¹And Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteene cities with their villages. ⁴²Lebnah, and Ether, and Ashan, ⁴³And Iiphttah, and Ashnah, and Nezib, ⁴⁴And Keilah, and Aczib, and Mareshah: nine cities with their villages. ⁴⁵Ekron with her townes and her villages, ⁴⁶From Ekron, euen vnto the Sea, all that lyeth about Ashdod with their villages. ⁴⁷Ashdod with her townes and her villages: Azzah with her townes and her villages, vnto the riuier of Egypt, and the great Sea was their coast. ⁴⁸And in the mountaines were Shamir, and Iattir, and Socoh, ⁴⁹And Dannah, and Kiriath-sannath (which is Debir) ⁵⁰And Anab, and Ashtemoth, and Anim, ⁵¹And Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh: eleuen cities with their villages, ⁵²Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean, ⁵³And Ianum, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah, ⁵⁴And Humtah, and Kiriath-arba, (which is Hebron) and Zior: nine cities with their villages. ⁵⁵Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Iuttah, ⁵⁶And Izreel, and Iokdeam, and Zanoah, ⁵⁷Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages. ⁵⁸Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor, ⁵⁹And

Maarah, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon: six cities with their villages. ⁶⁰Kiriath-baal, which is Kiriath-iearim, and Rabbah: two cities with their villages. ⁶¹In the wilderness were Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah, ⁶²And Nibshan, and the citie of salt, and Engedi: six cities with their villages. ⁶³Neuerthelesse, the Iebusites that were the inhabitants of Ierusalem, could not the children of Iudah cast out, but the Iebusites dwell with the children of Iudah at Ierusalem vnto this day.

¹And the lot fell to the children of Ioseph from Iorden by Iericho vnto the water of Iericho Eastward, and to the wilderness that goeth vp from Iericho by the mount Beth-el: ²And goeth out from Beth-el to Luz, and runneth along vnto the borders of Archiataroth, ³And goeth down Westward to the coast of Iaphleti, vnto the coast of Beth-horon the nether, and to Gezer: and the endes thereof are at the Sea. ⁴So the children of Ioseph, Manasseh and Ephraim tooke their inheritance. ⁵Also the borders of the children of Ephraim according to their families, euen the borders of their inheritance on the Eastside were Atroth-addar, vnto Beth-horon the vpper. ⁶And this border goeth out to the Sea vnto Michmethah on the Northside, and this border returneth Eastward vnto Taanathshiloh, and passeth it on the Eastside vnto Ianohah, ⁷And goeth downe from Ianohah to Ataroth, and Naarath, and commeth to Iericho, and goeth out at Iorden. ⁸And this border goeth from Tappuah Westward vnto the riuer Kanah, and the endes thereof are at the Sea: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families. ⁹And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh: all the cities with their villages. ¹⁰And they cast not out the Canaanite that dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanite dwelt among the Ephraimites vnto this day, and serued vnder tribute.

¹This was also the lot of the tribe of Manasseh: for he was the first borne of Ioseph, to wit, of Machir the first borne of Manasseh, and the father of Gilead: now because he was a man of warre, he had Gilead and Bashan. ²And also of the rest of the sonnes of Manasseh by their families, euen of the sonnes of Abiezer, and of the sonnes of Helek, and of ye sonnes of Azriel, and of the sonnes of Shechem, and of the sonnes of Hephher, and of the sonnes of Shemida: these were the males of Manasseh, the sonne of Ioseph according to their families. ³But Zelophehad the sonne of Hephir, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, ye sonne of Manasseh, had no sonnes, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah: ⁴Which came before Eleazar the Priest, and before Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The Lord commanded Moses to giue vs an inheritance among our brethren: therefore according to the commandement of the Lord he gaue them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. ⁵And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side Iorden, ⁶Because the daughters of Manasseh did inherite among his sonnes: and Manassehs other sonnes had the land of Gilead. ⁷So the borders of Manasseh were from Asher to Michmethah that lieth before Shechem, and this border goeth on the right hand, euen vnto the inhabitants of Entappuah. ⁸The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah beside the border of Manasseh belongeth to the sonnes of Ephraim. ⁹Also this border goeth downe vnto the riuier Kanah Southward to the riuier: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: and the border of Manasseh is on the Northside of the riuier, and the endes of it are at the Sea, ¹⁰The South perteyneth to Ephraim, and the North to Manasseh, and the Sea is his border: and they met together in

Asher Northwarde, and in Issachar Eastward. ¹¹And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth-shean, and her townes, and Ibleam, and her townes, and the inhabitants of Dor with ye townes thereof, and the inhabitants of En-dor with the townes thereof, and the inhabitants of Thaanach with her townes, and the inhabitants of Megiddo with the townes of the same, euen three countreis. ¹²Yet the children of Manasseh coulede not destroy those cities, but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land. ¹³Neuerthesse, when the children of Israel were strong, they put the Canaanites vnder tribute, but cast them not out wholly. ¹⁴Then the children of Ioseph spake vnto Ioshua, saying, Why hast thou giuen me but one lot, and one portion to inherite, seeing I am a great people, for as much as the Lord hath blessed me hitherto? ¹⁵Ioshua then answered them, If thou be much people, get thee vp to the wood, and cut trees for thy selfe there in the lande of the Perizzites, and of the gyants, if mount Ephraim be too narowe for thee. ¹⁶Then the children of Ioseph saide, The mountaine will not be ynough for vs: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the lowe countrey haue charets of yron, aswell they in Beth-shean, and in the townes of the same, as they in the valley of Izreel. ¹⁷And Ioshua spake vnto the house of Ioseph, to Ephraim, and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power, and shalt not haue one lot. ¹⁸Therefore the mountaine shall be thine: for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it downe: and the endes of it shall be thine, and thou shalt cast out the Canaanites, though they haue yron charets, and though they be strong.

¹And the whole Congregation of the children of Israel, came together at Shiloh: for they set vp the Tabernacle of the Congregation there, after the land was subiect vnto them. ²Nowe there remained among the children of Israel seuen tribes, to whom they had not deuided their inheritance. ³Therefore Ioshua said vnto the children of Israel, Howe long are ye so slacke to enter and possesse the land which the Lord God of your fathers hath giuen you? ⁴Giue from among you for euery tribe three men, that I may sende them, and that they may rise, and walke through the land, and distribute it according to their inheritance, and returne to me. ⁵And that they may deuide it vnto them into seuen parts, (Iudah shall abide in his coast at the South, and the house of Ioseph shall stand in their coastes at the North) ⁶Ye shall describe the land therefore into seuen partes, and shall bring them hither to me, and I will cast lottes for you here before the Lord our God. ⁷But the Leuites shall haue no part among you: for the Priesthood of the Lord is their inheritance: also Gad and Reuben and halfe the tribe of Manasseh haue receiued their inheritance beyond Iorden Eastward, which Moses the seruant of the Lord gaue them. ⁸Then the men arose, and went their way: and Ioshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Depart, and goe through the land, and describe it, and returne to me, that I may here cast lottes for you before the Lord in Shiloh. ⁹So the men departed, and passed through the lande, and described it by cities into seuen partes in a booke, and returned to Ioshua into the campe at Shiloh. ¹⁰Then Ioshua cast lottes for them in Shiloh before the Lord, and there Ioshua deuided the land vnto the children of Israel, according to their portions: ¹¹And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came foorth according to their families, and the cost of their lot lay betweene the children of Iudah, and the children of Ioseph. ¹²And their coast on the Northside was from Iorden, and the border went vp to the side of Iericho on the Northpart, and went vp through the mountaines Westward, and the endes thereof are in the wilderness of Beth-auen: ¹³And this border goeth along from thence to Luz, euen to the Southside of Luz (the same is Beth-el) and this border descendeth to Atroth-addar, neere the mount, that lyeth on the Southside of Beth-horon the nether. ¹⁴So the border turneth, and compasseth the corner of the endes thereof, that is, of the border, reach to the point of the salt Sea Northward, and to the ende of Iorden Southward: this is the Southcoast. ²⁰Also Iorden is the border of it on the Eastside: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin by the coastes thereof rounde about according to their families. ²¹Nowe the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families, are Iericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz, ²²And Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Beth-el, ²³And Auim, and Parah, and Ophrah, ²⁴And Chephar, Ammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba: twelue cities with their villages. ²⁵Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth, ²⁶And Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah, ²⁷And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah, ²⁸And Zela, Eleph, and Iebusi, (which is Ierusalem) Gibeath, and Kiriath: fourteene cities with their villages: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

Sea Southward, from the mount that lyeth before Beth-horon Southward: and the endes thereof are at Kiriath-baal (which is Kiriath-iearim) a citie of the children of Iudah: this is the Westquarter. ¹⁵And the Southquarter is from the ende of Kiriath-iearim, and this border goeth out Westward, and commeth to the fountaine of waters of Nephtoah. ¹⁶And this border descendeth at the ende of the mountaine, that lyeth before the valley of Ben-hinnom, which is in the valley of the gyants Northward, and descendeth into the valley of Hinnom by the side of Iebusi Southwarde, and goeth downe to En-rogel, ¹⁷And compasseth from the North, and goeth foorth to En-shemesh, and stretcheth to Geliloth, which is toward the going vp vnto Adummim, and goeth downe to the stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben. ¹⁸So it goeth along to the side ouer against the plaine Northward, and goeth downe into the plaine. ¹⁹After, this border goeth along to the side of Beth-hoglah Northward: and the

¹And the second lot came out to Simeon, euen for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was in the middes of the inheritance of the children of Iudah. ²Nowe they had in their inheritance, Beersheba, and Sheba, and Moladah, ³And Hazur-shual, and Balah, and Azem, ⁴And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah, ⁵And Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susah, ⁶And Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhem: thirteene cities with their villages. ⁷Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan: foure cities with their villages. ⁸And all the villages that were round about these cities, vnto Baalathbeer, and Ramath Southward: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. ⁹Out of the portion of the children of Iudah came ye inheritance of the country⁴⁵¹ of Simeon: for the part of ye children of Iudah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance

within their inheritance. ¹⁰Also the third lot arose for the children of Zebulun according to their families: and the coastes of their inheritance came to Sarid, ¹¹And their border goeth vp Westwarde, euen to Maralah, and reacheth to Dabbasheth, and meeteth with the riuier that lyeth before Iokneam, ¹²And turneth from Sarid Eastward toward the sunne rising vnto the border of Chisloth-tabor, and goeth out to Daberath, and ascendeth to Iaphia, ¹³And from thence goeth along Eastwarde toward the sunne rising to Gittah-hepher to Ittah-kazin, and goeth foorth to Rimmon, and turneth to Neah. ¹⁴And this border compasseth it on ye North side to Hannathon, and the endes thereof are in the valley of Iiphtah-el, ¹⁵And Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Beth-lehem: twelue cities with their villages. ¹⁶This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages. ¹⁷The fourth lot came out to Issachar, euen for the children of

Issachar according to their families. ¹⁸And their coast was Izreelah, and Chesulloth, and Shunem, ¹⁹And Hapharaim, and Shion, and Anaharath, ²⁰And Harabbith, and Kishion, and Abez, ²¹And Remeth, and Engannim, and Enhaddah, and Beth-pazzez. ²²And this coast reacheth to Tabor, and Shahazimath, and Beth-shemesh, and the endes of their coast reach to Iorden: sixteene cities with their villages. ²³This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families: that is, the cities, and their villages. ²⁴Also the fift lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families. ²⁵And their coast was Helcath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph, ²⁶And Alammelech, and Amad, and Misheal, and came to Carmel Westward, and to Shihor Libnath, ²⁷And turneth toward the sunne rising to Beth-dagon, and commeth to Zebulun, and to the valley of Iiptah-el, toward the Northside of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goeth out on the left side of Cabul, ²⁸And to Ebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, vnto great Zidon. ²⁹Then the coast turneth to Ramah and to the strong citie of Zor, and this border turneth to Hosah, and the ends thereof are at the Sea from Hebel to Achzib, ³⁰Vmmah also and Aphek, and Rehob: two and twentie cities with their villages. ³¹This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages. ³²The sixt lot came out to the children of Naphtali, euen to the children of Naphtali according to their families. ³³And their coast was from Heleph, and from Allon in Zaanannim, and Adaminekeb, and Iabneel, euen to Lakum, and the ends thereof are at Iorden. ³⁴So this coast turneth Westwarde to Aznoth-tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the Southside, and goeth to Asher on the Westside, and to Iudah by Iorden toward the sunne rising. ³⁵And the strong cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Cinneereth, ³⁶And

Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor, ³⁷And Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor, ³⁸And Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anah, and Beth-shemesh: nineteene cities with their villages.

³⁹This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families: that is, the cities and their villages. ⁴⁰The seuenth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families. ⁴¹And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh, ⁴²And Shaalabbin, and Aialon, and Ithlah, ⁴³And Elon, and Temnathah, and Ekron, ⁴⁴And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalah, ⁴⁵And Iehud, and Beneberak, and Gath-rimmon, ⁴⁶And Me-iarkon, and Rakkon, with the border that lieth before Iapho.

⁴⁷But the coastes of the children of Dan fell out too countr for them: therefore the children of Dan went vp to fight against Leshem, and tooke it, and smote it with the edge of the sworde, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan after the name of Dan their father. ⁴⁸This is the inheritance of the tribe of the country⁴⁵³ of Dan according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages. ⁴⁹When they had made an ende of deuiding the lande by the coastes thereof, then the children of Israel gaue an inheritance vnto Ioshua the sonne of Nun among them. ⁵⁰According to the worde of the Lord they gaue him the citie which hee asked, euen Timnath-serah in mount Ephraim: and hee built the citie and dwelt therein. ⁵¹These are ye heritages which Eleazar the Priest, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel deuided by lot in Shiloh before the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: so they made an ende of deuiding the country.

¹The Lord also spake vnto Ioshua, saying, ²Speake to the children of Israel, and say, Appoint you cities of refuge, whereof I spake vnto you by the hand of Moses, ³That the slaier that killeth any person by ignorance, and vnwittingly, may flee thither, and they shall be your refuge from the auenger of blood.

⁴And he that doeth flee vnto one of those cities, shall stand at the entring of the gate of the citie, and shall shewe his cause to the Elders of the citie: and they shall receiue him into the citie vnto them, and giue him a place, that hee may dwell with them. ⁵And if the auenger of blood pursue after him, they shall not deliuer the slaier into his hand because hee smote his neighbour ignorantly, neither hated he him before time:

⁶But hee shall dwell in that citie vntill hee stande before the Congregation in iudgement, or vntill the death of the hie Priest that shall be in those daies: then shall the slaier returne, and come vnto his owne citie, and vnto his owne house, euen vnto the citie from whence he fled. ⁷Then they appointed Kedesh in Galil in mount Naphtali, and Shechem in mount Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba, (which is Hebron) in the mountaine of Iudah. ⁸And on the other side Iorden toward Iericho

Eastward, they appoynted Bezer in the wilderness vpon the plaine, out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead, out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, out of the tribe of Manasseh. ⁹These were the cities appoynted for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourned among them, that whosoever killed any person ignorantly, might flee thither, and not die by the hande of the auenger of blood, vntill hee stoode before the Congregation.

¹Then came the principall fathers of the Leuites vnto Eleazar the Priest, and vnto Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and vnto the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, ²And spake vnto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The Lord commanded by the hande of Moses, to giue vs cities to dwell in, with the suburbes thereof for our cattell. ³So the children of Israel gaue vnto the Leuites, out of their inheritance at the commandement of the Lord these cities with their suburbes.

⁴And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron ye Priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot, out of the tribe of Iudah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin thirteene cities. ⁵And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the halfe tribe of Manasseh, tenne cities. ⁶Also the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of ye tribe of Naphtali, and out of the halfe tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteene cities. ⁷The children of Merari according to their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelue cities. ⁸So the children of Israel gaue by lot vnto the Levites these cities with their suburbes, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses. ⁹And they gaue out of the tribe of the children of Iudah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeo, these cities which are here named. ¹⁰And they were the childrens of Aaron being of the families of the Kohathites, and of the sonnes of Leui, (for theirs was the first lot) ¹¹So they gaue them Kiriath-arba of the father of Anok (which is Hebron) in the mountaine of Iudah, with the suburbes of the same round about it. ¹²(But the lande of the citie, and the villages thereof, gaue they to Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh to be his possession) ¹³Thus they gaue to the children of Aaron the Priest, a citie of refuge for the slaier, euen Hebron with her suburbes, and Libnah with her suburbes, ¹⁴And Iattir with her suburbes, and Eshtemoa, and her suburbes, ¹⁵And Holon with her suburbes, and Debir with her suburbes, ¹⁶And Ain with her suburbes, and Iuttah with her suburbes, Beth-shemesh with her suburbes: nine cities out of those two tribes. ¹⁷And out of the tribe of Benjamin they gaue Gibeon with her suburbes, Geba with her suburbes, ¹⁸Anathoth with her suburbes, and Almon with her suburbes: foure cities. ¹⁹All the cities of the children of Aaron

Priests, were thirteene cities with their suburbes. ²⁰But to the families of the children of Kohath of the Leuites, which were the rest of the children of Kohath (for the cities of their lot were out of the tribe of Ephraim) ²¹They gaue them the citie of refuge for the slaier, Shechem with her suburbes in mount Ephraim, and Gezer with her suburbes, ²²And Kibzaim with her suburbs, and Bethhoron with her suburbes: foure cities. ²³And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with her suburbes, Gibethon with her suburbes, ²⁴Aiialon with her suburbes, Gath-rimmon with her suburbes: foure cities. ²⁵And out of the halfe tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with her suburbes, and Gath-rimmon with her suburbes: two cities. ²⁶All the cities for the other families of the children of Kohath were ten with their suburbes. ²⁷Also vnto the children of Gershon of the families of the Leuites, they gaue out of the halfe tribe of Manasseh, the citie of refuge for the slaier, Golan in Bashan with her suburbes, and Beeshterah with her suburbes: two cities. ²⁸And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbes, Dabereh with her suburbes, ²⁹Iarmuth with her suburbes, Engannim with her suburbes: foure cities. ³⁰And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbes, Abdon with her suburbes, ³¹Helkah with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbes: foure cities. ³²And out of the tribe of Naphtali, the citie of refuge for the slaier, Kedesh in Galil with her suburbes, and Hammoth-dor with her suburbes, and Kartan with her suburbes: three cities. ³³Al the cities of the Gershonites according to their families, were thirteene cities with their suburbes. ³⁴Also vnto the families of the children of Merari the rest of the Leuites, they gaue out of the tribe of Zebulun, Iokneam with her suburbs, and Kartah with her suburbes, ³⁵Dimnah with her suburbes, Nahalal, with her suburbes: foure cities. ³⁶And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with her suburbs, and Iahazah with her suburbs, ³⁷Kedemoth with her suburbes, and Mephaath with her suburbs: foure cities. ³⁸And out of the tribe of Gad they gaue for a citie of refuge for the slaier, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, and Mahanaim with her suburbs, ³⁹Heshbon with her suburbs, and Iazer with her suburbs: foure cities in all. ⁴⁰So all the cities of the children of Merari according to their families (which were the rest of the families of the Leuites) were by their lot, twelue cities. ⁴¹And all the cities of the Leuites within the possession of the children of Israel, were eight and fourtie with their suburbs. ⁴²These cities lay euery one seuerallie with their suburbs round about them: so were all these cities. ⁴³So the Lord gaue vnto Israel all ye land, which hee had sworne to giue vnto their fathers: and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. ⁴⁴Also the Lord gaue them rest rounde about according to all that hee had sworne vnto their fathers: and there stode not a man of all their enemies before them: for the Lord deliuered all their enemies into their hand. ⁴⁵There failed nothing of all the good things, which the Lord hath sayde vnto the house of Israel, but all came to passe.

¹Then Ioshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the halfe tribe of Manasseh, ²And sayd vnto them, Ye haue kept all that Moses the seruauent of the Lord commanded you, and haue obeied my voice in all that I commanded you: ³You haue not forsaken your brethren this long season vnto this day, but haue diligently kept the commandement of the Lord your God. ⁴And nowe the Lord hath giuen rest vnto your brethren as he promised them: therefore nowe returne ye and goe to your tentes, to the land of your possession, which Moses the seruauent of the Lord hath giuen you beyond Iorden. ⁵But take diligent heede, to doe the commandement and Lawe, which Moses the seruauent of the Lord commanded you: that is, that ye loue the Lord your God, and walke in all his wayes, and keepe his commandements, and cleaue vnto him, and serue him with all your heart and with all your soule. ⁶So Ioshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went vnto their tents. ⁷Nowe vnto one halfe of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had giuen a possession in Bashan: and vnto the other halfe thereof gaue Ioshua among their brethren on this side Iorden Westwarde: therefore when Ioshua sent them away vnto their tents, and blessed them, ⁸Thus he spake vnto them, saying, Returne with much riches vnto your tents, and with a great multitude of cattell, with siluer and with golde, with brasse and with yron, and with great abundance of rayment: deuide the spoyle of your enemies with your brethren. ⁹So the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel from Shiloh (which is in the land of Canaan) to goe vnto the countrey of Gilead to the land of their possession, which they had obteyned, according to ye word of the Lord by the hand of Moses. ¹⁰And when they came vnto the borders of Iorden (which are in the land of Canaan) then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasseh, built there an altar by Iorden, a great altar to see to. ¹¹When the children of Israel heard say, Beholde, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasseh haue built an altar in the forefront of the lande of Canaan vpon the borders of Iorden at the passage of the children of Israel: ¹²When the children of Israel heard it, then the whole Congregation of the children of Israel gathered them together at Shiloh to goe vp to warre against them. ¹³Then the children of Israel sent vnto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to ye halfe tribe of Manasseh into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest, ¹⁴And with him ten princes, of euery chiefe house a prince, according to all the tribes of Israel: for euery one was chiefe of their fathers housholde among the thousands of Israel. ¹⁵So they went vnto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of

Manasseh, vnto the land of Gilead, and spake with them, saying, ¹⁶Thus saith the whole congregation of the Lord, What transgression is this that ye haue transgressed against the God of Israel, to turne away this day from the Lord, in that ye haue built you an altar for to rebell this day against the Lord? ¹⁷Haue we too litle for the wickednesse of Peor, whereof we are not clensed vnto this day, though a plague came vpon the Congregation of the Lord? ¹⁸Ye also are turned away this day from the Lord: and seeing ye rebell to day against ye Lord, euen to morowe he will be wroth with all the Congregation of Israel. ¹⁹Notwithstanding if the land of your possession be vncleane, come ye ouer vnto the land of the possession of the Lord, wherein the Lordes Tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among vs: but rebell not against the Lord, nor rebell not against vs in building you an altar, beside the altar of the Lord our God. ²⁰Did not Achan ye sonne of Zerah trespasse grievously in the execrable thing, and wrath fell on all the Congregation of Israel? and this man alone perished not in his wickednesse. ²¹Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasseh answered, and saide vnto the heads ouer the thousands of Israel, ²²The Lord God of gods, the Lord God of gods, he knoweth, and Israel himselfe shall know: if by rebellion, or by transgression against ye Lord we haue done it, saue thou vs not this day. ²³If we haue built vs an altar to returne away from the Lord, either to offer thereon burnt offering, or meate offering, or to offer peace offerings thereon, let the Lord himselfe require it: ²⁴And if we haue not rather done it for feare of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might say vnto our children, What haue ye to doe with the Lord God of Israel? ²⁵For the Lord hath made Iorden a border betweene vs and you, ye children of Reuben, and of Gad: therefore ye haue no part in the Lord: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the Lord. ²⁶Therefore we said, We will nowe go about to make vs an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice, ²⁷But it shall be a witnesse betweene vs and you, and betweene our generations after vs, to execute the seruice of the Lord before him in our burnt offerings, and in our sacrifices, and in our peace offerings, and that your children should not say to our children in time to come, Ye haue no part in the Lord. ²⁸Therefore said we, If so be that they should so say to vs or to our generations in time to come, then will we answere, Beholde the facion of the altar of the Lord, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice, but it is a witnesse betweene vs and you. ²⁹God forbid, that we should rebell against the Lord, and turne this day away from the Lord to builde an altar for burnt offering, or for meate offering, or for sacrifice, saue the altar of the Lord our God, that is before his Tabernacle. ³⁰And when Phinehas the Priest, and the princes of the Congregation and heads ouer the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the wordes, that the children of Reuben, and children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spake, they were well content. ³¹And Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest said vnto the children of Reuben and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceiue, that the Lord is among vs, because ye haue not done this trespasse against the Lord: nowe ye haue deliuered the children of Israel out of the hand of the Lord. ³²Then Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest with the princes returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, vnto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them answere. ³³And the saying pleased the children of Israel: and the children of Israel blessed God, and minded not to goe against them in battell, for to destroy the land, wherein the children of Reuben, and Gad dwelt. ³⁴Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad called the altar Ed: for it shall be a witnesse betweene vs, that the Lord is God.

¹And a long season after that the Lord had giuen rest vnto Israel from all their enemies round about, and Ioshua was olde, and stricken in age, ²Then Ioshua called all Israel, and their Elders, and their heads, and their iudges, and their officers, and said vnto them, I am old, and stricken in age. ³Also ye haue seene all that the Lord your God hath done vnto al these nations before you, howe the Lord your God him selfe hath fought for you. ⁴Beholde, I haue deuided vnto you by lot these nations that remaine, to be an inheritance according to your tribes, from Iorden, with all the nations that I haue destroyed, euen vnto the great Sea Westward. ⁵And the Lord your God shall expell them before you, and cast them out of your sight, and ye shall possesse their land, as the Lord your God hath said vnto you. ⁶Be ye therefore of a valiant courage, to obserue and doe all that is written in the booke of the Lawe of Moses, that ye turne not therefrom to the right hand nor to the left, ⁷Neither companie with these nations: that is, with them which are left with you, neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to sweare by them, neither serue them nor bowe vnto them: ⁸But sticke fast vnto the Lord your God, as ye haue done vnto this day. ⁹For ye Lord hath cast out before you great nations and mightie, and no man hath stand before your face hitherto. ¹⁰One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the Lord your God, he fighteth for you, as he hath promised you. ¹¹Take good heede therefore vnto your selues, that ye loue the Lord your God. ¹²Els, if ye goe backe, and cleaue vnto the rest of these nations: that is, of them that remaine with you, and shall make marriages with them, and goe vnto them, and they to you, ¹³Knowe ye for certaine, that the Lord your God will cast out no more of these nations from before you: but they shall be a snare and destruction vnto you, and a whip on your sides, and thornes in your eyes, vntill ye perish out of this good land, which ye Lord your God hath giue you. ¹⁴And beholde, this day do I enter into the way of all ye world, and ye know in al your heartes and in all your soules, that nothing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God promised you, but all are come to passe vnto you: nothing hath failed thereof. ¹⁵Therefore as all good things are come vpon you, which the Lord your God promised you, so shall the Lord bring vpon you euery euill thing, vntill he haue destroyed you out of this good land, which ye Lord your God hath giue you. ¹⁶When ye shall transgresse the couenant of the Lord your God, which he commanded you, and shall goe and serue other gods, and bowe your selues to them, then shall the wrath of the Lord waxe hote against you, and ye shall perish quickly out of the good lande which he hath giuen you.

¹And Ioshua assembled againe all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called the Elders of Israel, and their heades, and their iudges, and their officers, and they presented themselues before God. ²Then Ioshua said vnto all the people, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt beyond the flood in olde time, euen Terah the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor, and serued other gods. ³And I tooke your father Abraham from beyond the flood, and brought him through all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seede, and gaue him Izhak. ⁴And I gaue vnto Izhak, Iaakob and Esau: and I gaue vnto Esau mount Seir, to possesse it: but Iaakob and his children went downe into Egypt. ⁵I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt: and when I had so done among them, I brought you out. ⁶So I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and ye came vnto the Sea, and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with charets and horsemen vnto the red sea. ⁷Then they cryed vnto the Lord, and he put a darkenesse betweene you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea vpon them, and couered them: so your eyes haue seene what I haue done in Egypt also ye dwelt in the wilderness a long season. ⁸After, I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt beyond Iorden, and they fought with you: but I gaue them into your hand, and ye possessed their countrey, and I destroyed them out of your sight. ⁹Also Balak the sonne of Zippor King of Moab arose and warred against Israel, and sent to call Balaam the sonne of Beor for to curse you, ¹⁰But I would not heare Balaam: therefore he blessed you, and I deliuered you out of his hand. ¹¹And ye went ouer Iorden, and came vnto Iericho, and the men of Iericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hiuites and the Iebusites, and I deliuered them into your hand. ¹²And I sent hornets before you, which cast them out before you, euen the two kings of the Amorites, and not with thy sword, nor with thy bow. ¹³And I haue giuen you a land, wherein ye did not labour, and cities which ye built not, and yee dwell in them, and eate of the vineyards and oliue trees, which yee planted not. ¹⁴Nowe therefore feare the Lord, and serue him in vprightnesse and in trueth, and put away the gods, which your fathers serued beyonde the flood and in Egypt, and serue the Lord. ¹⁵And if it seeme euill vnto you to serue the Lord, choose you this day whome yee will serue, whether the gods which your fathers serued (that were beyond the flood) or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but I and mine house will serue the Lord. ¹⁶Then the people answered and saide, God forbid, that we shoulde forsake the Lord, to serue other gods. ¹⁷For the Lord our God, he brought vs and our fathers out of the lande of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and he did those great miracles in our sight, and preserved vs in all the way that we went, and among all the people through whome we came. ¹⁸And the Lord did cast out before vs all the people, euen the Amorites which dwelt in the lande: therefore will we also serue the Lord, for he is our God. ¹⁹And Ioshua saide vnto the people, Ye can not serue the Lord: for he is an holie God: he is a ielous God: hee will not pardon your iniquitie nor your sinnes. ²⁰If yee forsake the Lord and serue strange gods, then he will returne and bring euill vpon you, and consume you, after that hee hath done you good. ²¹And the people saide vnto Ioshua, Nay, but we will serue the Lord. ²²And Ioshua saide vnto the people, Yee are witnesses against your selues, that yee haue chosen you the Lord, to serue him: and they sayd, We are witnesses. ²³Then put away now, saide he, the strange gods which are among you, and bowe your hearts vnto the Lord God of Israel. ²⁴And ye people saide vnto Ioshua, The Lord our God wil we serue, and his voyce wil we obey. ²⁵So Ioshua made a couenant with the people the same day, and gaue them an ordinance and lawe in Shechem. ²⁶And Ioshua wrote these woordes in the booke of the Lawe of God, and tooke a great stone, and pitched it there vnder an oke that was in the Sanctuarie of the Lord. ²⁷And Ioshua saide vnto all the people, Beholde, this stone shall be a witnesse vnto vs: for it hath heard all the wordes of the Lord which he spake with vs: it shall be therefore a witnesse against you, lest yee denie your God. ²⁸Then Ioshua let the people depart, euery man vnto his inheritance. ²⁹And after these things Ioshua the sonne of Nun, the seruaunt of the Lord died, being an hundreth and ten yeeres olde. ³⁰And they buried him in ye border of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the Northside of mount Gaash. ³¹And Israel serued the Lord all the daies of Ioshua, and all the daies of the Elders that ouerliued Ioshua, and which had knowen all the workes of the Lord that he had done for Israel. ³²And the bones of Ioseph, which the children of Israel brought out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem in a parcell of ground which Iaakob bought of the sonnes of Hamor the father of Shechem, for an hundreth pieces of siluer, and the children of Ioseph had them in their inheritance. ³³Also Eleazar the sonne of Aaron died, whome they buried in the hill of

¹After that Ioshua was dead, the children of Israel asked ye Lord, saying, Who shall goe vp for vs against the Canaanites, to fight first against them? ²And the Lord said, Iudah shall goe vp: behold, I haue giuen the land into his hande. ³And Iudah said vnto Simeon his brother, Come vp with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites: and I likewise will goe with thee into thy lot: so Simeon went with him. ⁴Then Iudah went vp, and the Lord deliuered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men. ⁵And they founde Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and slewe the Canaanites, and the Perizzites. ⁶But Adoni-bezek fled, and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off the thumbes of his hands and of his feete. ⁷And Adoni-bezek said, Seuentie Kings hauing the thumbes of their hands and of their feete cut off, gathered bread vnder my table: as I haue done, so God hath rewarded me. so they brought him to Ierusalem, and there he died. ⁸(Nowe the children of Iudah had fought against Ierusalem, and had taken it and smitten it with the edge of the sworde, and had set the citie on fire.) ⁹Afterwarde also the children of Iudah went downe to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountaine, and towarde the South, and in the lowe countrey. ¹⁰And Iudah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron, which Hebron beforetime was called Kiriath-arba: and they slewe Sheshai, and Ahiman and Talmai. ¹¹And from thence hee went to the inhabitantes of Debir, and the name of Debir in olde time was Kiriath-sepher. ¹²And Caleb saide, He that smiteth Kiriath-sepher, and taketh it, euen to him wil I giue Achsah my daughter to wife. ¹³And Othniel the sonne of Kenaz Calebs yonger brother tooke it, to whome hee gaue Achsah his daughter to wife.

¹⁴And when shee came to him, shee mooued him to aske of her father a field, and shee lighted off her asse, and Caleb saide vnto her, What wilt thou? ¹⁵And shee answered him, Giue mee a blessing: for thou hast giuen me a South countrey, giue me also springs of water: and Caleb gaue her the springs aboue and the springs beneath. ¹⁶And the childre of Keni Moses father in law went vp out of the citie of the palme trees with the children of Iudah, into the wilderness of Iudah, that lieth in the South of Arad, and went and dwelt among the people. ¹⁷But Iudah went with Simeon his brother, and they slewe the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and vtterly destroyed it, and called the name of the citie Hormah. ¹⁸Also Iudah tooke Azzah with the coasts thereof, and Askelon with the coasts thereof, and Ekron with the coastes thereof. ¹⁹And the Lord was with Iudah, and he possessed the mountaines: for he could not driue out the inhabitanes of the valles, because they had charrets of yron.

²⁰And they gaue Hebron vnto Caleb, as Moses had saide, and hee expelled thence the three sonnes of Anak. ²¹But the children of Beniamin did not cast out the Iebusites, that inhabited Ierusalem: therefore the Iebusites dwell with the children of Beniamin in Ierusalem vnto this day. ²²They also that were of the house of Ioseph, went vp to Beth-el, and the Lord was with them, ²³And the house of Ioseph caused to viewe Beth-el (and the name of the citie beforetime was Luz) ²⁴And the spies sawe a man come out of the citie, and they saide vnto him, Shewe vs, we praie thee, the way into the citie, and we will shewe thee mercie. ²⁵And when hee had shewed them the waie into the citie, they smote the citie with the edge of the sworde, but they let the man and all his housholde depart. ²⁶Then the man went into the lande of the Hittites, and built a citie, and called the name thereof Luz, which is the name thereof vnto this daie. ²⁷Neither did Manasseh destroie Bethshean with her townes, nor Taanach with her townes, nor the inhabitantes of Dor with her townes, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam with her townes, neither the inhabitants of Megiddo with her townes: but the Canaanites dwelled still in that lande. ²⁸Neuerthesse when Israel was strong, they put the Canaanites to tribute, and expelled them not wholly. ²⁹Likewise Ephraim expelled not the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them. ³⁰Neither did Zebulun expell the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol, but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries. ³¹Neither did Asher cast out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob, ³²But the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitantes of the lande: for they did not driue them out. ³³Neither did Naphtali driue out the inhabitants of Bethshemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the lande: neuerthesse the inhabitantes of Bethshemesh, and of Bethanath became tributaries vnto them. ³⁴And the Amorites droue the children of Dan into the mountaine: so that they suffered them not to come downe to the valley. ³⁵And the Ammonites dwelt still in mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim, and when the hand of Iosephs familie preuailed, they became tributaries: ³⁶And the coast of the Amorites was from Maaleh-akrabbim, euen from Selah and vpward.

¹And an Angel of the Lord came vp from Gilgal to Bochim, and sayd, I made you to go vp out of Egypt, and haue brought you vnto the land which I had sworne vnto your fathers, and sayd, I wil neuer breake my couenant with you. ²Ye also shall make no couenant with the inhabitants of this land, but shall breake downe their altars: but ye haue not obeyed my voyce. Why haue ye done this? ³Wherefore, I sayd also, I wil not cast them out before you, but they shalbe as thornes vnto your sides, and their gods shalbe your destruction.

4And when the Angel of the Lord spake these wordes vnto all the children of Israel, the people lift vp their voyce, and wept.
5Therefore they called the name of that place, Bochim, and offered sacrifices there vnto the Lord. 6Now when Ioshua had sent the people away, the children of Israel went euery man into his inheritance, to possesse the land.
7And the people had serued the Lord al the dayes of Ioshua, and all the dayes of the Elders that outliued Ioshua, which had seene all the great works of the Lord that he did for Israel. 8But Ioshua the sonne of Nun the seruant of the Lord dyed, when he was an hundreth and ten yeeres olde: 9And they buried him in the coastes of his inheritance, in Timnath-heres in mount Ephraim, on the Northside of mount Gaash. 10And so all that generation was gathered vnto their fathers, and another generation arose after them, which neither knewe the Lord, nor yet the works, which he had done for Israel. 11Then the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and serued Baalim, 12And forsooke ye Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the lande of Egypt, and followed other gods, euen the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed vnto them, and prouoked the Lord to anger. 13So they forsooke the Lord, and serued Baal, and Ashtaroth. 14And the wrath of the Lord was hote against Israel, and he deliuered them into the hands of spoylers, that spoyled them, and he sold them into the handes of their enemies rounde about them, so that they could no longer stande before their enemies.

15Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the Lord was sore against them, as ye Lord had sayd, and as the Lord had sworne vnto them: so he punished them sore.
16Notwithstanding, the Lord raysed vp Iudges, which deliuered them out of the hands of their oppressours. 17But yet they would not obey their Iudges: for they went a whoring after other gods, and worshipped them, and turned quickly out of the way, wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandements of the Lord: they did not so. ¹⁸And when the Lord had rayseed them vp Iudges, the Lord was with the Iudge, and deliuered them out of the hande of their enemies all the dayes of the Iudge (for the Lord had compassion on their gronings, because of them that oppressed them and tormented them) ¹⁹Yet when the Iudge was dead, they returned, and did worse then their fathers, in following other gods to serue them and worshippe them: they ceased not from their owne inuentions, nor from their rebellious way. ²⁰Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he sayd, Because this people hath transgressed my couenant, which I commaded their fathers, and hath not obeyed my voyce, ²¹Therefore will I no more cast out before them any of the nations, which Ioshua left when he dyed, ²²That through them I may proue Israel, whether they wil keepe the way of the Lord, to walke therein, as their fathers kept it, or not. ²³So the Lord left those nations, and droue them not out immediatly, neither deliuered them into the hand of Ioshua.

¹These nowe are the nations which the Lord left, that he might proue Israel by them (euen as many of Israel as had not knowen all the warres of Canaan, ²Only to make the generations of the children of Israel to know, and to teach them warre, which doutles their predecessors knew not) ³Fiue princes of the Philistims, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hiuites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon vntill one come to Hamath. ⁴And these remayned to proue Israel by them, to wit, whether they would obey the commandements of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. ⁵And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and the Iebusites, ⁶And they tooke their daughters to bee their

wiues, and gaue their daughters to their sonnes, and serued their gods. ⁷So the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and forgate the Lord their God, and serued Baalim, and Asheroth. ⁸Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he solde them into the hand of Chushan rishathaim King of Aram-naharaim, and the children of Israel serued Chushan rishathaim eyght yeeres. ⁹And when the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred vp a sauour to ye children of Israel, and he saued them, euen Othniel the sonne of Kenaz, Calebs yonger brother. ¹⁰And the spirite of the Lord came vpon him, and he iudged Israel, and went out to warre: and the Lord deliuered Chushan rishathaim king of Aram into his hand, and his hand preuailed against Chushan rishathaim. ¹¹So the lande had rest fourtie yeeres, and Othniel the sonne of Kenaz dyed. ¹²Then the children of Israel againe committed wickednesse in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord strengthened Eglon King of

Moab against Israel, because they had committed wickednesse before the Lord. ¹³And he gathered vnto him the children of Ammon, and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and they possessed the citie of palme trees. ¹⁴So the children of Israel serued Eglon king of Moab eightene yeeres. ¹⁵But when the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred them vp a sauour, Ehud the sonne of Gera the sonne of Iemini, a man lame of his right hande: and the children of Israel sent a present by him vnto Eglon King of Moab. ¹⁶And Ehud made him a dagger with two edges of a cubite length, and he did gird it vnder his rayment vpon his right thigh, ¹⁷And he presented ye gift vnto Eglon King of Moab (and Eglon was a very fat man) ¹⁸And when he had now presented the present, he sent away the people that bare ye present, ¹⁹But he turned againe from the quarris, that were by Gilgal, and said, I haue a secret errand vnto thee, O King. Who said, Keepe silence: and all that stoode about him, went out from him. ²⁰Then Ehud came vnto him. (and he sate alone in a sommer parler, which he had) and Ehud said, I haue a message vnto thee from God. Then he arose out of his throne, ²¹And Ehud put forth his left hand, and tooke the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his bellie, ²²So that the hafte went in after the blade, and the fatte closed about the blade, so that he could not drawe the dagger out of his bellie, but the dirt came out. ²³Then Ehud gate him out into the porch, and shut the doores of the parler vpon him, and locked them. ²⁴And when he was gone out, his seruantes came: who seeing that the doores of the parler were locked, they sayd, Surely he doeth his easement in his sommer chamber. ²⁵And they taryed till they were ashamed: and seeing he opened not the doores of the parler, they tooke the key, and opened them, and behold, their lord was fallen dead on the earth. ²⁶So Ehud escaped (while they taryed) and was passed the quarris, and escaped vnto Seirah. ²⁷And when he came home, he blew a trumpet in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel went downe with him from the mountaine, and he went before them. ²⁸Then said he vnto them, Follow me: for the Lord hath deliuered your enemies, euen Moab into your hand. So they went downe after him, and tooke the passages of Iorden towarde Moab, and suffred not a man to passe ouer. ²⁹And they slewe of the Moabites the same time about ten thousand men, all fed men, and all were warriours, and there escaped not a man. ³⁰So Moab was subdued that daye, vnder the hand of Israel: and the land had rest fourescore yeeres. ³¹And after him was Shamgar the sonne of Anath, which slewe of the Philistims sixe hundreth men with an oxe goade, and he also deliuered Israel.

¹And the children of Israel began againe to do wickedly in the sight of the Lord when Ehud was dead. ²And the Lord sold them into the hande of Iabin King of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor, whose

chiefe Captaine was called Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles. ³Then the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord: (for he had nine hundreth charets of yron, and twentie yeeres he had vexed the children of Israel very sore) ⁴And at that time Deborah a Prophetesse the wife of Lapidoth iudged Israel. ⁵And this Deborah dwelt vnder a palme tree, betweene Ramah and Beth-el in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel came vp to her for iudgement. ⁶Then shee sent and called Barak the sonne of Abinoam out of Kadesh of Naphtali, and sayd vnto him, Hath not the Lord God of Israel commanded, saying, Goe, and drawe towarde mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousande men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun? ⁷And I wil drawe vnto thee to the riuier Kishon Sisera, the captaine of Iabins armie with his charets, and his multitude, and wil deliuer him into thine hand. ⁸And Barak sayd vnto her, If thou wilt go with me, I will go: but if thou wilt not goe with me, I will not go. ⁹Then shee answered, I will surely goe with thee, but this iourney that thou takest, shall not be for thine honour: for the Lord shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh. ¹⁰And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and he went vp on his feete with ten thousand men, and Deborah went vp with him. ¹¹(Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab the father in lawe of Moses, was departed from the Kenites, and pitched his tent vntill the playne of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh) ¹²Then they shewed Sisera, that Barak the sonne of Abinoam was gone vp to mout Tabor. ¹³And Sisera called for all his charets, euen nine hundreth charets of yron, and all the people that were with him from Harosheth of the Gentiles, vnto the riuier Kishon. ¹⁴Then Deborah sayd vnto Barak, Vp: for this is the day that the Lord hath deliuered Sisera into thine hand. Is not the Lord gone out before thee? So Barak went downe from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. ¹⁵And the Lord destroyed Sisera and all his charets, and al his hoste with the edge of the sword before Barak, so that Sisera lighted downe off his charet, and fled away on his feete. ¹⁶But Barak pursued after the charets, and after the hoste vnto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the hoste of Sisera fel vpon the edge of the sworde: there was not a man left. ¹⁷Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feete to the tent of Iael the wife of Heber the Kenite: (for peace was betweene Iabin the king of Hazor, and betweene the house of Heber the Kenite) ¹⁸And Iael went out to meete Sisera, and sayd vnto him, Turne in, my lord, turne in to me: feare not. And when he had turned in vnto her into her tent, she couered him with a mantell. ¹⁹And he said vnto her, Giue me, I pray thee, a litle water to drinke: for I am thirstie. And shee opened a bottel of milke, and gaue him drinke, and couered him. ²⁰Againe he sayde vnto her, Stande in the doore of the tent, and when any man doth come and enquire of thee, saying, Is any man there? thou shalt say, Nay. ²¹Then Iael

Hebers wife tooke a nayle of the tent, and tooke an hammer in her hande, and went softly vnto him, and smote the nayle into his temples, and fastened it into the grounde, (for he was fast a sleepe and weary) and so he dyed. ²²And behold, as Barak pursued after Sisera, Iael came out to meete him, and sayd vnto him, Come, and I wil shewe thee the man, whome thou seekest: and when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nayle in his temples. ²³So God brought downe Iabin the King of Canaan that day before the children of Israel. ²⁴And the hande of the children of Israel prospered, and preuailed against Iabin the King of Canaan, vntill they had destroyed Iabin King of Canaan.

¹Then sang Deborah, and Barak the sonne of Abinoam the same day, saying, ²Praise ye the Lord for the auenging of Israel, and for the people that offred themselues willingly. ³Heare, ye Kings, hearken ye princes: I, euen I will sing vnto the Lord: I will sing praise vnto the Lord God of

Israel. ⁴Lord, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou departedst out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heauens rained, the cloudes also dropped water. ⁵The mountaines melted before the Lord, as did that Sinai before the Lord God of Israel. ⁶In the dayes of Shamgar the sonne of Anath, in the dayes of Iael the hie wayes were vnoccupied, and the trauelers walked through by wayes. ⁷The townes were not inhabited: they decayed, I say, in Israel, vntill I Deborah came vp, which rose vp a mother in Israel. ⁸They chose new gods: then was warre in the gates. Was there a shielde or speare seene among fourtie thousand of Israel? ⁹Mine heart is set on the gouernours of Israel, and on them that are willing among the people: praise ye the Lord. ¹⁰Speake ye that ride on white asses, yee that dwel by Middin, and that walke by the way. ¹¹For the noyse of the archers appaised among the drawers of water: there shall they rehearse the righteousnesse of the Lord, his righteousnesse of his townes in Israel: then did the people of the Lord goe downe to the gates. ¹²Vp Deborah, vp, arise, and sing a song: arise Barak, and leade thy captiuitie captiue, thou sonne of Abinoam. ¹³For they that remaine, haue dominio ouer the mightie of the people: the Lord hath giuen me dominion ouer the strong. ¹⁴Of Ephraim their roote arose against Amalek: and after thee, Benjamin shall fight against thy people, O Amalek: of Machir came rulers, and of Zebulun they that handle the pen of the writer. ¹⁵And the Princes of Issachar were with Deborah, and Issachar, and also Barak: he was set on his feete in the valley: for the diuisions of Reuben were great thoughts of heart. ¹⁶Why abodest thou among the sheepfolds, to heare the bleatings of the flockes? for the diuisions of Reuben were great thoughts of heart. ¹⁷Gilead abode beyonde Iorden: and why doeth Dan remayne in shippes? Asher sate on the sea shoare, and taryed in his decayed places. ¹⁸But the people of Zebulun and Naphtali haue ieopard their liues vnto the death in the hie places of the field.

¹⁹The Kings came and fought: then fought the Kings of Canaan in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo: they receiued no gaine of money. ²⁰They fought from heauen, euen the starres in their courses fought against Sisera. ²¹The Riuier Kishon swepe them away, that ancient riuier the riuier Kishon. O my soule, thou hast marched valiantly. ²²Then were the horsehooues broken with the oft beating together of their mightie men. ²³Curse ye Meroz: (sayd the Angel of the Lord) curse the inhabitantes thereof, because they came not to helpe the Lord, to helpe the Lord against the mighty. ²⁴Iael the wife of Heber the Kenite shall be blessed aboue other women: blessed shall she be aboue women dwelling in tentes. ²⁵He asked water, and shee gaue him milke: she brought forth butter in a lordly dish. ²⁶She put her hand to the naile, and her right hand to the workemans hammer: with the hammer smote she Sisera: she smote off his head, after she had wounded, and pearsed his temples. ²⁷He bowed him downe at her feete, he fell downe, and lay still: at her feete hee bowed him downe, and fell: and when he had sunke downe, he lay there dead. ²⁸The mother of Sisera looked out at a windowe, and cryed thorowe the lattesse, Why is his charet so long a comming? why tary the wheelles of his charets? ²⁹Her wise ladies answered her, Yea. Shee answered her selfe with her owne wordes, ³⁰Haue they not gotten, and they deuide the spoyle? euery man hath a mayde or two. Sisera hath a praye of diuers coloured garmentes, a pray of sundry colours made of needle worke: of diuers colours of needle worke on both sides, for the chiefe of the spoyle. ³¹So let all thine enemies perish, O Lord: but they that loue him, shall be as the Sunne when he riseth in his might, and the lande had rest fourtie yeres.

¹Afterwarde the children of Israel committed wickednesse in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord gaue them into the handes of Midian seuen yeres. ²And the hand of Midian preuayled against Israel, and because of the

Midianites the children of Israel made them dennes in the mountaines, and caues, and strong holdes. ³When Israel had sowed, then came vp the Midianites, the Amalekites, and they of the East, and came vpon them, ⁴And camped by them, and destroyed the fruite of the earth, euen til thou come vnto Azzah, and left no foode for Israel, neither sheepe, nor oxe, nor asse. ⁵For they went vp, and their cattel, and came with their tentes as grasshoppers in multitude: so that they and their camels were without number: and they came into the land to destroy it. ⁶So was Israel exceedingly impouerished by the Midianites: therefore the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord. ⁷And when the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord because of the Midianites, ⁸The Lord sent vnto the children of Israel a Prophet, who sayd vnto them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, I haue brought you vp from Egypt, and haue brought you out of the house of bondage, ⁹And I haue deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and haue cast them out before you, and giuen you their land. ¹⁰And I sayde vnto you, I am the Lord your God: feare not the gods of the Amorites in whose lande you dwell: but ye haue not obeyed my voyce. ¹¹And the Angell of the Lord came, and sate vnder the oke which was in Ophrah, that pertained vnto Ioash the father of the Ezrites, and his sonne Gideon threshed wheate by the winepresse, to hide it from the Midianites. ¹²Then the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him, and said vnto him, The Lord is with thee, thou valiant man. ¹³To whome Gideon answered, Ah my Lord, if the Lord be with vs, why then is all this come vpon vs? and where be all his miracles which our fathers tolde vs of, and sayd, Did not the Lord bring vs out of Egypt? but now the Lord hath forsaken vs, and deliuered vs into the hand of the Midianites. ¹⁴And the Lord looked vpon him, and sayd, Goe in this thy might, and thou shalt saue Israel out of the handes of the Midianites: haue not I sent thee? ¹⁵And he answered him, Ah my Lord, whereby shall I saue Israel? beholde, my father is poore in Manasseh, and I am the least in my fathers house. ¹⁶Then the Lord sayd vnto him, I wil therefore be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites, as one man. ¹⁷And he answered him, I pray thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, then shewe me a signe, that thou talkest with me. ¹⁸Depart not hence, I pray thee, vntil I come vnto thee, and bring mine offering, and lay it before thee. And he sayde, I will tary vntill thou come againe. ¹⁹Then Gideon went in, and made ready a kidde, and vnleauened bread of an Ephah of floure, and put the flesh in a basket, and put the broth in a pot, and brought it out vnto him vnder the oke, and presented it. ²⁰And the Angell of God saide vnto him, Take the flesh and the vnleauened bread, and lay them vpon this stone, and powre out the broth: and he did so. ²¹Then the Angell of the Lord put forth the ende of the staffe that he had in his hand, and touched the flesh and the vnleauened bread: and there arose vp fire out of the stone, and consumed the flesh and the vnleauened bread: so the Angel of the Lord departed out of his sight. ²²And when Gideon perceiued that it was an Angel of the Lord, Gideon then sayde, Alas, my Lord God: for because I haue seene an Angell of the Lord face to face, I shall die. ²³And the Lord said vnto him, Peace be vnto thee: feare not, thou shalt not die. ²⁴Then Gideon made an altar there vnto the Lord, and called it, Iehouah shalom: vnto this day it is in Ophrah, of the father of the Ezrites. ²⁵And the same night the Lord sayd vnto him, Take thy fathers yong bullocke, and an other bullocke of seuen yeeres olde, and destroy the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut downe the groue that is by it, ²⁶And build an altar vnto the Lord thy God vpon the top of this rocke, in a plaine place: and take the seconde bullocke, and offer a burnt offering with the woode of the groue, which thou shalt cut downe. ²⁷Then Gideon tooke tenne men of his seruants, and did as ye Lord bade him: but because he feared to doe it by day for his fathers housholde, and the men of the citie, he did it by night. ²⁸And when the men of the citie arose early in the morning, beholde, the altar of Baal was broken, and the groue cut downe that was by it, and the seconde bullocke offred vpon the altar that was made. ²⁹Therefore they saide one to another, Who hath done this thing? and when they inquired and asked, they saide, Gideon the sonne of Ioash hath done this thing. ³⁰Then the men of the citie said vnto Ioash, Bring out thy sonne, that hee may dye: for he hath destroyed the altar of Baal, and hath also cut downe the groue that was by it. ³¹And Ioash said vnto all that stood by him, Will ye pleade Baals cause? or will ye saue him? he that will contend for him, let him dye or the morning. If he be God, let him pleade for himselfe against him that hath cast downe his altar. ³²And in that day was Gideon called Ierubbaal, that is, Let Baal pleade for himselfe because he hath broken downe his altar. ³³Then all the Midianites and the

Amalekites and they of ye East, were gathered together, and went and pitched in the valley of Izreel. ³⁴But the Spirit of the Lord came vpon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet, and Abiezer was ioyned with him. ³⁵And he sent messengers thorowout al Manasseh, which also was ioyned with him, and he sent messengers vnto Asher, and to Zebulun and to Naphtali, and they came vp to meete them. ³⁶Then Gideon said vnto God, If thou wilt saue Israel by mine hand, as thou hast sayd, ³⁷Beholde, I wil put a fleece of wooll in the threshing place: if the dewe come on the fleece onely, and it be drie vpon all the earth, then shall I be sure, that thou wilt saue Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said. ³⁸And so it was: for he rose vp earely on the morow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, and filled a bowle of water. ³⁹Againe, Gideon sayde vnto God, Be not angry with me, that I may speake once more: let me prooue once againe, I pray thee, with the fleece: let it now be drie onely vpon the fleece, and let dewe be vpon all the ground.

⁴⁰And God did so that same night: for it was drie vpon the fleece onely, and there was dewe on all the ground.

¹Then Ierubbaal (who is Gideon) rose vp early, and all the people that were with him, and pitched beside the well of Harod, so that the hoste of the Midianites was on the Northside of them in the valley by the hill of Moreh. ²And the Lord said vnto Gideon, The people that are with thee, are too many for me to giue the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel make their vaunt against me, and say, Mine hand hath saued mee. ³Now therefore proclaime in the audience of the people, and say, Who so is timerous or fearefull, let him returne, and depart earely from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people which were at mount Gilead, two and twentie thousand: so ten thousand remayned. ⁴And the Lord said vnto Gideon, The people are yet too many: bring them downe vnto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and of whome I say vnto thee, This man shall goe with thee, the same shall go with thee: and of whomsoeuer I say vnto thee, This man shall not goe with thee, the same shall not go. ⁵So he brought downe the people vnto the water. And the Lord sayd vnto Gideon, As many as lap the water with their tongues, as a dog lappeth, them put by themselues, and euery one that shall bow downe his knees to drinke, put apart. ⁶And the number of them that lapped by putting their handes to their mouthes, were three hundreth men: but all the remnant of the people kneeled downe vpon their knees to drinke water. ⁷Then the Lord sayde vnto Gideon, By these three hundreth men that lapped, will I saue you, and deliuer the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go euery man vnto his place. ⁸So the people tooke vitales with them, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel, euery man vnto his tent, and reteined the three hundreth men: and the hoste of Midian was beneath him in a valley. ⁹And the same night the Lord sayde vnto him, Arise, get thee downe vnto the hoste: for I haue deliuered it into thine hand. ¹⁰But if thou feare to go downe, then go thou, and Phurah thy seruant downe to the hoste, ¹¹And thou shalt hearken what they say, and so shall thine handes be strong to go downe vnto the hoste. Then went he downe and Phurah his seruant vnto the outside of the souldiers that were in the hoste. ¹²And the Midianites, and the Amalekites and all they of the East, lay in the valley like grasshoppers in multitude, and their camels were without number, as the sande which is by the sea side for multitude. ¹³And when Gideon was come, beholde, a man tolde a dreame vnto his neighbour, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dreame, and lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled from aboue into the hoste of Midian, and came vnto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and ouerturned it, that the tent fell downe. ¹⁴And his fellow answered, and sayde, This is nothing els saue the sworde of Gideon the sonne of Ioash a man of Israel: for into his hande hath

God deliuered Midian and all the hoste. ¹⁵When Gideon heard the dreame tolde, and the interpretation of the same, he worshipped, and returned vnto the hoste of Israel, and said, Vp: for the Lord hath deliuered into your hande the hoste of Midian. ¹⁶And hee deuided the three hundreth men into three bandes, and gaue euery man a trumpet in his hande with emptie pitchers, and lampes within the pitchers. ¹⁷And he sayd vnto them, Looke on me, and do likewise, when I come to the side of the hoste: euen as I do, so do you. ¹⁸When I blowe with a trumpet and all that are with me, blowe ye with trumpets also on euery side of the hoste, and say, For the Lord, and for Gideon. ¹⁹So Gideon and the hundreth men that were with him, came vnto the outside of the hoste, in the beginning of the middle watche, and they raised vp the watchmen, and they blew with their trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their handes. ²⁰And the three companies blew with trumpets and brake the pitchers, and helde the lampes in

²¹And they stode, euery man in his place round about the hoste: and all the hoste ranne, and cryed, and fled. ²²And the three hundreth blewe with trumpets, and the Lord set euery mans sworde vpon his neighbour, and vpon all the hoste: so the hoste fled to Beth-hashittah in Zererah, and to the border of Abel-meholah, vnto Tabbath. ²³Then the men of Israel being gathered together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, pursued after the Midianites.

²⁴And Gideon sent messengers vnto all mount Ephraim, saying, Come downe against the Midianites, and take before them the waters vnto Beth-barah, and Iorden. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and tooke the waters vnto Beth-barah, and Iorden. ²⁵And they tooke two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb, and slew Oreb vpon the rocke Oreb, and slewe Zeeb at the winepresse of Zeeb, and pursued the Midianites, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyonde Iorden.

¹Then the men of Ephraim sayde vnto him, Why hast thou serued vs thus that thou calledst vs not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? and they chode with him sharply. ²To whom he said, What haue I now done in comparison of you? is not the gleaning of grapes of Ephraim better, then the vintage of Abiezer? ³God hath deliuered into your handes the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? and when he had thus spoken, then their spirits abated toward him. ⁴And Gideon came to Iorden to passe ouer, hee, and the three hundreth men that were with him, weary, yet pursuing them. ⁵And he said vnto the men of Succoth, Giue, I pray you, morsels of bread vnto the people that follow me (for they be wearie) that I may follow after Zebah, and Zalmunna Kings of Midian. ⁶And the princes of Succoth sayde, Are the handes of Zebah and Zalmunna nowe in thine hads, that we should giue bread vnto thine army? ⁷Gideon then sayde, Therefore when the Lord hath deliuered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, I will teare your flesh with thornes of the wildernes and with breers. ⁸And he went vp thence to Penuel, and spake vnto them likewise, and the men of Penuel answered him, as the men of Succoth answered. ⁹And he sayd also vnto the men of Penuel, When I come againe in peace, I will breake downe this towre. ¹⁰Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hostes with them, about fiftene thousande, all that were left of all the hostes of them of the East: for there was slaine an hundreth and twentie thousand men, that drew swordes. ¹¹And Gideon went through them that dwelt in Tabernacles on the East side of Nobah and Iogbehah, and smote the hoste: for the hoste was carelesse. ¹²And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, hee followed after them, and tooke the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the hoste. ¹³So

Gideon the sonne of Ioash returned from battel, the sunne being yet hie, ¹⁴And tooke a seruant of the me of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he wrote to him the princes of Succoth and the Elders thereof, euen seuentie and seuen men. ¹⁵And he came vnto the men of Succoth, and sayd, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, by whome ye vpbrayded me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in thine hands, that we should giue bread vnto thy weary men? ¹⁶Then he tooke the Elders of the citie, and thornes of the wildernes and breers, and did teare the men of Succoth with them. ¹⁷Also he brake downe the towre of Penuel, and slew the men of the citie. ¹⁸Then saide he vnto Zebah and Zalmunna, What maner of men were they, whom ye slew at Tabor? and they answered, As thou art, so were they: euery one was like the children of a King. ¹⁹And he said, They were my brethren, euen my mothers children: as the Lord liueth, if ye had saued their liues, I would not slay you. ²⁰Then he sayde vnto Iether his first borne sonne, Vp, and slay them: but the boy drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet yong.

²¹Then Zebah and Zalmunna sayd, Rise thou, and fall vpon vs: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and tooke away the ornamentes, that were on their camels neckes.

²²Then the men of Israel sayd vnto Gideon, Reigne thou ouer vs, both thou, and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne: for thou hast deliuered vs out of the hand of Midian.

²³And Gideon sayde vnto them, I will not reigne ouer you, neither shall my childe reigne ouer you, but the Lord shall reigne ouer you.

²⁴Againe Gideon sayd vnto them, I would desire a request of you, that you would giue mee euery man the earings of his pray (for they had golden earings because they were Ismaelites)

²⁵And they answered, Wee will giue them. And they spred a garment, and did cast therein euery man the earings of his pray. ²⁶And the weight of the golden earings that he required, was a thousande and seuen hundreth shekels of golde, beside collers and iewels, and purple rayment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the cheynes that were about their camels neckes.

²⁷And Gideon made an Ephod thereof, and put it in Ophrah his citie: and all Israel went a whoring there after it, which was the destruction of Gideon and his house.

²⁸Thus was Midian brought lowe before the children of Israel, so that they lift vp their heads no more: and the countrey was in quietnes fourtie yeeres in the dayes of Gideon.

²⁹Then Ierubbaal the sonne of Ioash went, and dwelt in his owne house.

³⁰And Gideon had seuentie sonnes begotten of his body: for he had many wiues.

³¹And his concubine that was in Shechem, bare him a sonne also, whose name he called Abimelech.

³²So Gideon the sonne of Ioash dyed in a good age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Ioash his father in Ophrah, of the father of ye Ezrites.

³³But when Gideon was dead, the children of Israel turned away and went a whoring after Baalim, and made Baalberith their God. ³⁴And the children of Israel remembred not the Lord their God, which had deliuered the out of the hands of all their enemies on euery side. ³⁵Neither shewed they mercy on the house of Ierubbaal, or Gideon, according to al the goodnesse which he had shewed vnto Israel.

¹Then Abimelech the sonne of Ierubbaal went to Shechem vnto his mothers brethren, and communed with them, and with all the familie, and house of his mothers father, saying, ²Say, I pray you, in the audience of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, that all the sonnes of Ierubbaal, which are seuentie persons, reigne ouer you, either that one reigne ouer you? Remember also, that I am your bone, and your flesh. ³Then his mothers brethren spake of him in the audience of all the men of Shechem, all these wordes: and their hearts were moued to follow Abimelech: for sayd they, He is our brother. ⁴And they gaue him seuentie pieces of siluer out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vayne and light fellowes which followed him. ⁵And he went vnto his fathers house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren, the sonnes of Ierubbaal, about seuentie persons vpon one stone: yet Iotham the yongest sonne of Ierubbaal was left: for he hid himselfe. ⁶And all the men of Shechem gathered together with all the house of Millo, and came and made Abimelech King in the playne, where the stone was erected in Shechem. ⁷And when they told it to Iotham, he went and stode in the top of mount Gerizim, and lift vp his voyce, and cryed, and sayd vnto them, Hearken vnto mee, you men of Shechem, that God may hearken vnto you. ⁸The trees went foorth to anoynt a King ouer them, and sayde vnto the oliue tree, Reigne thou ouer vs. ⁹But the oliue tree said vnto them, Should I leaue my fatnes, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to aduance me aboue ye trees? ¹⁰Then the trees sayde to the fig tree, Come thou, and be King ouer vs. ¹¹But the fig tree answered them, Should I forsake my sweetnesse, and my good fruite, and goe to aduance me aboute the trees? ¹²Then sayd the trees vnto the Vine, Come thou, and be king ouer vs. ¹³But the Vine sayde vnto them, Should I leaue my wine, whereby I cheare God and man, and goe to aduance me aboute the trees? ¹⁴Then said all the trees vnto the bramble, Come thou, and reigne ouer vs. ¹⁵And the bramble said vnto the trees, If ye will in deede anynt me King ouer you, come, and put your trust vnder my shadowe: and if not, the fire shall come out of the bramble, and consume the Cedars of Lebanon. ¹⁶Now therefore, if ye doe truely and vncorruptly to make Abimelech King, and if ye haue delt well with Ierubbaal and with his house, and haue done vnto him according to the deseruing of his handes, ¹⁷(For my father fought for you, and aduentured his life, and deliuered you out of the handes of Midian. ¹⁸And yee are risen vp against my fathers house this day, and haue slayne his children, about seuentie persons vpon one stone, and haue made Abimelech the sonne of his mayde seruant, King ouer the men of Shechem, because hee is your brother) ¹⁹If ye then haue delt truely and purely with Ierubbaal, and with his house this day, then reioyce with you. ²⁰But if not, let a fire come out from Abimelech, and consume the men of Shechem and the house of Millo: also let a fire come foorth from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and consume Abimelech. ²¹And Iotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there for feare of Abimelech his brother. ²²So Abimelech reigned three yeere ouer Israel. ²³But God sent an euil spirit betweene Abimelech, and the men of Shechem: and the men of Shechem brake their promise to Abimelech, ²⁴That the crueltie toward the seuentie sonnes of Ierubbaal and their blood might come and be laide vpon Abimelech their brother, which had slayne them, and vpon the men of Shechem, which had ayded him to kill his brethren. ²⁵So the men of Shechem set men in wayte for him in the toppes of the mountaines: who robbed all that passed that way by them: and it was tolde Abimelech. ²⁶Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed came with his brethren, and they went to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him. ²⁷Therefore they went out into the field, and gathered in their grapes and troade them, and made merie, and went into the house of their gods, and did eate and drinke, and cursed Abimelech. ²⁸Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed sayde, Who is Abimelech? and who is Shechem, that wee should serue him? Is he not the sonne of Ierubbaal? and Zebul is his officer? Serue rather the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serue him? ²⁹Now would God this people were vnder mine hand: then would I put away Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out. ³⁰And when Zebul the ruler of the citie heard the wordes of Gaal the sonne of Ebed, his wrath was kindled. ³¹Therefore he sent messengers vnto Abimelech priuily, saying, Beholde, Gaal the sonne of Ebed and his brethren be come to Shechem, and beholde, they fortifie the citie against thee. ³²Now therefore arise by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lye in wayte in the fielde. ³³And rise early in the morning as soone as the sunne is vp, and assault the citie: and when he and the people that is with him, shall come out against thee, doe to him what thou canst. ³⁴So Abimelech rose vp, and all the people that were with him by night: and they lay in wayte against Shechem in foure bandes. ³⁵Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed went out and stood in the entring of the gate of the citie: and Abimelech rose vp, and the folke that were with him, from lying in waite. ³⁶And when Gaal sawe the people, he said to Zebul, Beholde, there come people downe from the tops of the mountaines: and Zebul said vnto him, The shadowe of the mountaines seeme men vnto thee. ³⁷And Gaal spake againe, and said, See, there come folke downe by the middle of the land, and another bande commeth by the way of the plaine of Meonenim.

³⁸Then sayd Zebul vnto him, Where is now thy mouth, that said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serue him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Go out now, I pray thee, and fight with them. ³⁹And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech. ⁴⁰But Abimelech pursued him, and he fledde before him, and many were ouerthrowen and wounded, euen vnto the entring of the gate.

⁴¹And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren that they should not dwell in Shechem.

⁴²And on the morowe, the people went out into the fiede: which was tolde Abimelech. ⁴³And he tooke the people, and deuided them into three bandes, and layde wayte in the fieldes, and looked, and beholde, the people were come out of the citie, and he rose vp against them, and smote them.

⁴⁴And Abimelech, and the bandes that were with him, russhed forward, and stode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and the two other bandes ran vpon all the people that were in the fiede and slewe them. ⁴⁵And when Abimelech had fought against the citie all that day, he tooke the citie, and slewe the people that was therein, and destroyed the citie and sowed salt in it. ⁴⁶And when all the men of the towre of Shechem heard it, they entred into an holde of the house of the god Berith. ⁴⁷And it was tolde Abimelech, that all the men of the towre of Shechem were gathered together. ⁴⁸And Abimelech gate him vp to mounte Zalmon, hee and all the people that were with him: and Abimelech tooke axes with him, and cut downe boughes of trees, and tooke them, and bare them on his shoulder, and sayde vnto the folke that were with him, What ye haue seene me doe, make haste, and doe like me. ⁴⁹Then all the people also cut downe euery man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the holde, and set the holde on fire with them: so all the men of the towre of Shechem dyed also, about a thousand men and women. ⁵⁰Then went Abimelech to Tebez, and besieged Tebez, and tooke it. ⁵¹But there was a strong towre within the citie, and thither fledde all the men and women, and all the chiefe of the citie, and shut it to them, and went vp to the toppe of the towre. ⁵²And Abimelech came vnto the towre and fought against it, and went hard vnto the doore of the towre to set it on fire. ⁵³But a certaine woman cast a piece of a milstone vpon Abimelechs head, and brake his braine pan. ⁵⁴Then Abimelech called hastily his page that bare his harneis, and sayde vnto him, Drawe thy sworde and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slewe him. And his page thrust him thorowe, and he dyed. ⁵⁵And when the men of Israel sawe that Abimelech was dead, they departed euery man vnto his owne place. ⁵⁶Thus God rendred the wickednes of Abimelech, which he did vnto his father, in slaying his seuentie brethren. ⁵⁷Also all the wickednes of the men of Shechem did God bring vpon their heads. So vpon them came the curse of Iotham the sonne of Ierubbaal.

¹After Abimelech there arose to defend Israel, Tola, the sonne of Puah, the sone of Dodo, a man of Issachar, which dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim. ²And he iudged Israel three and twentie yeere and dyed, and was buried in Shamir. ³And after him arose Iair a Gileadite, and iudged Israel two and twenty yeere. ⁴And he had thirtie sonnes that rode on thirtie assecolts, and they had thirtie cities, which are called Hauoth-Iair vnto this day, and are in the land of Gilead. ⁵And Iair dyed, and was buried in Kamon. ⁶And the children of Israel wrought wickednesse againe in the sight of the Lord, and serued Baalim and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Aram, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistims, and forsooke the Lord and serued not him. ⁷Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he solde them into the hands of the Philistims, and into the handes of the children of Ammon: ⁸Who from that yere vexed and oppressed the children of Israel eightene yeres, euen all the children of Israel that were beyond Iorden, in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. ⁹Moreouer, the children of Ammon went ouer Iorden to fight against Iudah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim: so that Israel was sore tormented. ¹⁰Then the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord, saying, We haue sinned against thee, euen because we haue forsaken our owne God, and haue serued Baalim. ¹¹And the Lord sayd vnto the children of Israel, Did not I deliuer you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon and from the Philistims? ¹²The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites did oppresse you, and ye cryed to me and I saued you out of their hands. ¹³Yet ye haue forsaken me, and serued other gods: wherefore I will deliuer you no more. ¹⁴Goe, and cry vnto the gods which ye haue chosen: let them saue you in the time of your tribulation.

¹⁵And the children of Israel sayde vnto the Lord, We haue sinned: doe thou vnto vs whatsoever please thee: onely we pray thee to deliuer vs this day. ¹⁶Then they put away the strange gods from among them and serued the Lord: and his soule was grieved for the miserie of Israel. ¹⁷Then the children of Ammon gathered themselues together, and pitched in Gilead: and the children of Israel assembled themselues, and pitched in Mizpeh. ¹⁸And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, Whosoever will beginne the battell against the children of Ammon, the same shall be head ouer all the inhabitants of Gilead.

¹Then Gilead begate Iphtah, and Iphtah the Gileadite was a valiant man, but the sonne of an harlot. ²And Gileads wife bare him sonnes, and when the womans children were come to age, they thrust out Iphtah, and sayd vnto him, Thou shalt not inherite in our fathers house: for thou art the sonne of a strange woman. ³Then

Iphtah fledde from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there gathered idle fellowes to Iphtah, and went out with him. ⁴And in processe of time the children of Ammon made warre with Israel. ⁵And when the children of Ammon fought with Israel, the Elders of Gilead went to fet Iphtah out of the land of Tob. ⁶And they saide vnto Iphtah, Come and be our captaine, that we may fight with the children of Ammon. ⁷Iphtah then answered the Elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expell me out of my fathers house? how then come you vnto me now in time of your tribulation? ⁸Then the Elders of Gilead saide vnto Iphtah, Therefore we turne againe to thee now, that thou mayest goe with vs, and fight against the children of Ammon, and bee our head ouer all the inhabitants of Gilead. ⁹And Iphtah said vnto the Elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home againe to fight against the children of Ammon, if the Lord giue them before me, shall I be your head? ¹⁰And the Elders of Gilead saide to Iphtah, The Lord be witnesse betweene vs, if we doe not according to thy wordes. ¹¹Then Iphtah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captaine ouer them: and Iphtah rehearsed all his wordes before the Lord in Mizpeh. ¹²Then Iphtah sent messengers vnto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to doe with me, that thou art come against me, to fight in my lande? ¹³And the King of the children of Ammon answered vnto the messengers of Iphtah, Because Israel tooke my lande, when they came vp from Egypt, from Arnon vnto Iabbok, and vnto Iorden: now therefore restore those lands quietly. ¹⁴Yet Iphtah sent messengers againe vnto the King of the children of Ammon, ¹⁵And said vnto him, Thus saith Iphtah, Israel tooke not the lande of Moab, nor the lande of the children of Ammon. ¹⁶But when Israel came vp from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness vnto the redde Sea, then they came to Kadesh. ¹⁷And Israel sent messengers vnto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, goe thorowe thy lande: but the King of Edom woulde not consent: and also they sent vnto the King of Moab, but he would not: therefore Israel abode in Kadesh. ¹⁸Then they went through the wilderness, and compassed the lande of Edom, and the lande of Moab, and came by the Eastside of the lande of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, and came not within the coast of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab. ¹⁹Also Israel sent messengers vnto Sihon, King of the Amorites, the King of Heshbon, and Israel said vnto him, Let vs passe, we pray thee, by thy lande vnto our place. ²⁰But Sihon consented not to Israel, that he shoulde goe through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Iahaz, and fought with Israel. ²¹And the Lord God of Israel gaue Sihon and all his folke into the handes of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the lande of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that countrey: ²²And they possessed all the coast of the Amorites, from Arnon vnto Iabbok, and from the wilderness euen vnto Iorden. ²³Nowe therefore the Lord God of Israel hath cast out the Amorites before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possesse it? ²⁴Wouldest not thou possesse that which Chemosh thy god giueth thee to possesse? So whomesoeuer the Lord our God driueth out before vs, them will we possesse. ²⁵And art thou nowe farre better then Balak the sonne of Zippor King of Moab? did he not striue with Israel and fight against them, ²⁶When Israel dwelt in Heshbon and in her townes, and in Aroer and in her townes, and in all the cities that are by the coastes of Arnon, three hundreth yeeres? why did ye not then recouer them in that space? ²⁷Wherefore, I haue not offended thee: but thou doest me wrong to warre against me. The Lord the Iudge be iudge this day betweene the children of Israel, and the children of Ammon. ²⁸Howbeit the King of the children of Ammon hearkened not vnto the wordes of Iphtah, which he had sent him. ²⁹Then the Spirite of the Lord came vpon Iphtah, and he passed ouer to Gilead and to Manasseh, and came to Mizpeh in Gilead, and from Mizpeh in Gilead he went vnto the children of Ammon. ³⁰And Iphtah vowed a vowe vnto the Lord, and said, If thou shalt deliuer the children of Ammon into mine handes, ³¹Then that thing that commeth out of the doores of mine house to meete me, when I come home in peace from the children of Ammon, shall be the Lordes, and I will offer it for a burnt offering. ³²And so Iphtah went vnto the children of Ammon to fight against them, and the Lord deliuered them into his handes. ³³And he smote them from Aroer euen till thou come to Minnith, twentie cities, and so foorth to Abel of the vineyardes, with an exceeding great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were humbled before the children of Israel. ³⁴Nowe when Iphtah came to Mizpeh vnto his house, beholde, his daughter came out to meete him with timbrels and daunces, which was his onely childe: he had none other sonne, nor daughter. ³⁵And when hee sawe her, hee rent his clothes, and saide, Alas my daughter, thou hast brought me lowe, and art of them that trouble me: for I haue opened my mouth vnto the Lord, and can not goe backe. ³⁶And she said vnto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth vnto the Lord, doe with me as thou hast promised, seeing that the Lord hath auenged thee of thine enemies the children of Ammon. ³⁷Also she saide vnto her father, Doe thus much for me: suffer me two moneths, that I may goe to the mountaines, and bewaile my virginity, I and my fellowes. ³⁸And he sayde, Goe: and he sent her away two moneths: so she went with her companions, and lamented her virginity vpon the moutaines. ³⁹And after the ende of two moneths, she turned againe vnto her father, who did with her according to his vowe which he had vowed, and she had knowen no man. and it was a custome in Israel: ⁴⁰The daughters of Israel went yere by yere to lament the daughter of Iphtah the Gileadite, foure dayes in a yeere.

¹And the me of Ephraim gathered themselues together, and went Northwarde, and saide vnto Iphtah, Wherefore wentest thou to fight against the children of Ammon, and diddest not call vs to goe with thee? we will therefore burne thine house vpon thee with fire. ²And Iphtah said vnto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon, and when I called you, ye deliuered me not out of their handes. ³So when I sawe that ye deliuered me not, I put my life in mine hands, and went vpon the children of Ammon: so the Lord deliuered them into mine handes. Wherefore then are ye come vpon me now to fight against me? ⁴Then Iphtah gathered all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Gileadites are runnagates of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites. ⁵Also the Gileadites tooke the passages of Iorden before the Ephraimites, and when the Ephraimites that were escaped, saide, Let me passe, then the men of Gilead said vnto him,

Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay, ⁶Then said they vnto him, Say nowe Shibboleth: and he said, Sibboleth: for he could not so pronounce: then they tooke him, and slewe him at the passages of Iorden: and there fel at that time of the Ephraimites two and fourtie thousand. ⁷And Iphtah iudged Israel sixe yeere: then dyed Iphtah the Gileadite, and was buryed in one of the cities of Gilead. ⁸After him Ibzan of Beth-lehem iudged Israel, ⁹Who had thirtie sonnes and thirtie daughters, which he sent out, and tooke in thirtie daughters from abroad for his sonnes. and he iudged Israel seuen yeere. ¹⁰Then Ibzan died, and was buryed at Bethlehem. ¹¹And after him iudged Israel Elon, a Zebulonite, and he iudged Israel tenne yeere. ¹²Then Elon the Zebulonite dyed, and was buryed in Aijalon in the countrey of Zebulun. ¹³And after him Abdon the sonne of Hillel the Pirathonite iudged Israel. ¹⁴And he had fourty sonnes and thirtie nephewes that rode on seuentie assecoltes: and he iudged Israel eight yeeres.

¹Bvt the children of Israel continued to commit wickednesse in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord deliuerd them into the handes of the Philistims fourtie yeere. ²Then there was a man in Zorah of the familie of the Danites, named Manoah, whose wife was baren, and bare not. ³And the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto the woman, and said vnto her, Beholde now, thou art baren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceiue, and beare a sonne. ⁴And now therefore beware that thou drinke no wine, nor strong drinke, neither eate any vncleane thing. ⁵For loe, thou shalt conceiue and beare a sonne, and no razor shall come on his head: for the childe shall be a Nazarite vnto God from his birth: and he shall begin to saue Israel out of the handes of the Philistims. ⁶Then the wife came,

and tolde her husband, saying, A man of God came vnto me, and the facion of him was like the facion of the Angel of God exceeding feareful, but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name, ⁷But he saide vnto me, Beholde, thou shalt conceiue, and beare a sonne, and now thou shalt drinke no wine, nor strong drinke, neither eate any vncleane thing: for the childe shall be a Nazarite to God from his birth to the day of his death. ⁸Then Manoah prayed to the Lord and saide, I pray thee, my Lord, Let the man of God, whome thou sentest, come againe now vnto vs, and teach vs what we shall doe vnto the child when he is borne. ⁹And God heard the voyce of Manoah, and the Angel of God came againe vnto the wife, as she sate in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her. ¹⁰And the wife made haste and ranne, and shewed her husband and sayde vnto him, Behold, the man hath appeared vnto me, that came vnto me to day. ¹¹And Manoah arose and went after his wife, and came to the man, and saide vnto him, Art thou the man that spakest vnto the woman? and he said, Yea. ¹²Then Manoah sayde, Nowe let thy saying come to passe: but howe shall we order the childe and doe vnto him? ¹³And the Angell of the Lord saide vnto Manoah, The woman must beware of all that I said vnto her. ¹⁴She may eate of nothing that commeth of the vinetree: she shall not drinke wine nor strong drinke, nor eate any vncleane thing: let her obserue all that I haue commanded her. ¹⁵Manoah then said vnto the Angell of the Lord, I pray thee, let vs reteine thee, vntill we haue made readie a kid for thee. ¹⁶And the Angel of the Lord said vnto Manoah, Though thou make me abide, I will not eate of thy bread, and if thou wilt make a burnt offring, offer it vnto the Lord: for Manoah knewe not that it was an Angel of the Lord. ¹⁷Againe Manoah said vnto the Angell of the Lord, What is thy name, that when thy saying is come to passe, we may honour thee? ¹⁸And the Angell of the Lord saide vnto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, which is secret? ¹⁹Then Manoah tooke a kid with a meate offering, and offered it vpon a stone vnto the Lord: and the Angell did wonderously, whiles Manoah and his wife looked on. ²⁰For when the flame came vp toward heauen from the altar, the Angel of the Lord ascended vp in the flame of the altar, and Manoah and his wife behelde it, and fell on their faces vnto the ground. ²¹(So the Angel of the Lord did no more appeare vnto Manoah and his wife.) Then Manoah knewe that it was an Angel of the Lord. ²²And Manoah said vnto his wife, We shall surely dye, because we haue seene God. ²³But his wife saide vnto him, If the Lord woulde kill vs, he woulde not haue receiued a burnt offring, and a meate offring of our hands, neither would he haue shewed vs all these things, nor would now haue tolde vs any such. ²⁴And the wife bare a sonne, and called his name Samson: and the childe grewe, and the Lord blessed him. ²⁵And the Spirite of the Lord beganne to strengthen him in the host of Dan, betweene Zorah, and Eshtaol.

¹Nowe Samson went downe to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistims, ²And he came vp and told his father and his mother and saide, I haue seene a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistims: now therfore giue me her to wife. ³Then his father and his mother sayde vnto him, Is there neuer a wife among the daughters of thy brethren, and among all my people, that thou must go to take a wife of the vncircumcised Philistims? And Samson sayd vnto his father, Giue mee her, for she pleaseth me well. ⁴But his father and his mother knewe not that it came of the Lord, that he should seeke an occasion against the Philistims: for at that time the Philistims reigned ouer Israel. ⁵Then went Samson and his father and his mother downe to Timnath, and came to ye vineyardes at Timnath: and beholde, a young Lyon roared vpon him. ⁶And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he tare him, as one should haue rent a kid, and had nothing in his hand, neither told he his father nor his mother what he had done. ⁷And he went down, and talked with the woman which was beautifull in the eyes of Samson. ⁸And within a fewe dayes, when he returned to receiue her, he went aside to see the karkeis of the Lion: and behold, there was a swarme of bees, and hony in the body of the Lyon. ⁹And he tooke therof in his handes, and went eating, and came to his father and to his mother, and gaue vnto them, and they did eate: but hee told not them, that he had taken the hony out of the body of the lyon. ¹⁰So his father went down vnto the woman, and Samson made there a feast: for so vsed the yong men to doe. ¹¹And when they sawe him, they brought thirtie companions to be with him. ¹²Then Samson sayd vnto them, I will nowe put forth a riddle vnto you: and if you can declare it me within seuen dayes of the feast, and finde it out, I will giue you thirty sheetes, and thirtie change of garments. ¹³But if you cannot declare it mee, then shall yee giue mee thirty sheetes and thirtie change of garments. And they answered him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may heare it. ¹⁴And he sayd vnto them, Out of the eater came meate, and out of the strong came sweetnesse: and they could not in three dayes expound the riddle. ¹⁵And when the seuenth day was come, they said vnto Samsons wife, Entise thine husband, that he may declare vs the riddle, lest wee burne thee and thy fathers house with fire. Haue ye called vs, to possesse vs? is it not so? ¹⁶And Samsons wife wept before him, and said, Surely thou hatest mee and louest mee not: for thou hast put forth a riddle vnto the children of my people, and hast not told it mee. And hee sayd vnto her, Beholde, I haue not told it my father, nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee? ¹⁷Then Samsons wife wept before him seuen dayes, while their feast lasted: and when the seuenth day came he tolde her, because she was importunate vpon him: so she told the riddle to the children of her people. ¹⁸And the men of ye citie sayde vnto him the seuenth day before the Sunne went downe, What is sweeter then honie? and what is stronger then a lyon? Then sayd hee vnto them, If yee had not plowed with my heiffer, yee had not found out my riddle. ¹⁹And the Spirite of the Lord came vpon him, and he went downe to Ashkelon, and slew thirtie men of them and spoyled them, and gaue chaunge of garments vnto them, which expounded the riddle: and his wrath was kindled, and he went vp to his fathers house. ²⁰Then Samsons wife was giuen to his companion, whom he had vsed as his friend.

¹But within a while after, in the time of wheate haruest, Samson visited his wife with a kid, saying, I wil go in to my wife into the chamber: but her father would not suffer him to goe in. ²And her father sayde, I thought that thou hadst hated her: therefore gaue I her to thy companion. Is not her yonger sister fayrer then shee? take her, I pray thee, in stead of the other. ³Then Samson saide vnto them, Nowe am I more blamelesse then the Philistims: therefore will I doe them displeasure. ⁴And Samson went out, and tooke three hundreth foxes, and tooke firebrands, and turned them taile to taile, and put a firebrand in ye middes betweene two tailes. ⁵And when he had set the brandes on fire, he sent them out into the standing corne of the Philistims, and burnt vp both the rickes and the standing corne with the vineyardes and oliues. ⁶Then the Philistims sayde, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson the sonne in law of the Timnite, because hee had taken his wife, and giuen her to his companion. Then the Philistims came vp and burnt her and her father with fire. ⁷And Samson saide vnto them, Though yee haue done this, yet wil I be auenged of you, and then I wil cease. ⁸So hee smote them hippe and thigh with a mightie plague: then hee went and dwelt in the top of the rocke Etam. ⁹Then the Philistims came vp, and pitched in Iudah, and were spread abroad in

Lehi. ¹⁰And the men of Iudah sayde, Why are yee come vp vnto vs? And they answered, To binde Samson are we come vp, and to do to him as hee hath done to vs. ¹¹Then three thousande men of Iudah went to the top of the rocke Etam, and sayde to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistims are rulers ouer vs? Wherefore then hast thou done thus vnto vs? And he answered them, As they did vnto me, so haue I done vnto them. ¹²Againe they sayd vnto him, Wee are come to binde thee, and to deliuer thee into the hande of the Philistims. And Samson sayde vnto them, Swear vnto me, that yee will not fall vpon me your selues. ¹³And they answered him, saying, No, but we will bynde thee and deliuer thee vnto their hande, but we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two newe cordes, and brought him from the rocke. ¹⁴When hee came to Lehi, the Philistims shouted against him, and the Spirite of the Lord came vpon him, and the cordes that were vpon his armes, became as flaxe that was burnt with fire: for the bandes loosed from his handes. ¹⁵And he found a new iawebone of an asse, and put forth his hand, and caught it, and slewe a thousand men therewith. ¹⁶Then Samson sayd, With the iaw of an asse are heapes vpon heapes: with the iawe of an asse haue I slaine a thousand men. ¹⁷And when he had left speaking, hee cast away the iawebone out of his hande, and called that place, Ramath-Lehi. ¹⁸And he was sore a thirst, and called on the Lord, and sayde, Thou hast giuen this great deliuerance into the hand of thy seruauant: and nowe shall I dye for thirst, and fall into the handes of the vncircumcised? ¹⁹Then God brake the cheeke tooth, that was in the iawe, and water came thereout: and when he had drunke, his Spirit came againe, and he was reuiued: wherefore the name therof is called, Enhakkore, which is in Lehi vnto this day. ²⁰And hee iudged Israel in the dayes of the Philistims twentie yeeres.

¹Then went Samson to Azzah, and sawe there an harlot, and went in vnto her. ²And it was tolde to the Azzahites, Samson is come hither. And they went about, and laied wayte for him all night in the gate of the citie, and were quiet all the nyght, saying, Abide till the morning earely, and we shall kill him. ³And Samson slept till midnight, and arose at midnight, and tooke the doores of the gates of the citie, and the two postes and lift them away with the barres, and put them vpon his shoulders, and caried them vp to the top of the mountaine that is before Hebron. ⁴And after this hee loued a woman by the riuier of Sorek, whose name was Delilah: ⁵Vnto whome came the princes of the Philistims, and said vnto her, Entise him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what meane we may ouercome him, that we may binde him, and punish him, and euery one of vs shall giue thee eleuen hundreth shekels of siluer. ⁶And Delilah saide to Samson, Tell mee, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest bee bound, to doe thee hurt. ⁷Samson then answered vnto her, If they binde mee with seuen greene cordes, that were neuer dried, then shall I bee weake, and be as an other man. ⁸And the princes of the Philistims brought her seuen greene cordes that were not dry, and she bound him therewith. ⁹(And she had men lying in wayte with her in the chamber) Then she said vnto him, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson. And hee brake the cordes, as a threede of towne is broken, when it feeleth fire: so his strength was not knownen. ¹⁰After Delilah saide vnto Samson, See, thou hast mocked mee and tolde mee lies. I pray thee nowe, tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. ¹¹Then he answered her, If they binde mee with newe ropes that neuer were occupied, then shall I be weake, and be as an other man. ¹²Delilah therefore tooke newe ropes, and bounde him therewith, and saide vnto him, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson: (and men lay in wayte in the chamber) and hee brake them from his armes, as a threede. ¹³Afterward Delilah said to Samson, Hitherto thou hast beguiled mee, and tolde me lies:

tell me how thou mightest be bounde. And he sayde vnto her, If thou plattedst seuen lockes of mine head with the threedes of the woufe. ¹⁴And she fastened it with a pinne, and saide vnto him, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleepe, and went away with the pinne of the webbe and the woufe. ¹⁵Againe shee sayde vnto him, Howe canst thou say, I loue thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou hast mocked mee these three times, and hast not tolde me wherein thy great strength lieth. ¹⁶And because shee was importunate vpon him with her wordes continually, and vexed him, his soule was pained vnto the death. ¹⁷Therefore he tolde her all his heart, and said vnto her, There neuer came rasor vpon mine head: for I am a Nazarite vnto God from my mothers wombe: therefore if I bee shauen, my strength will goe from me, and I shalbe weake, and be like all other men. ¹⁸And when Delilah sawe that he had tolde her all his heart, she sent, and called for the Princes of ye Philistims, saying,

Come vp once againe: for he hath shewed mee all his heart. Then the Princes of the Philistims came vp vnto her, and brought the money in their handes. ¹⁹And she made him sleepe vpon her knees, and she called a man, and made him to shaue off the seuen lockes of his head, and shee began to vex him, and his strength was gone from him. ²⁰Then she said, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson. And hee awoke out of his sleepe, and thought, I will go out now as at other times, and shake my selfe, but he knewe not that the Lord was departed from him. ²¹Therefore the Philistims tooke him, and put out his eyes, and brought him downe to Azzah, and bounde him with fetters: and hee did grinde in the prison house. ²²And the heare of his head began to growe againe after that it was shauen. ²³Then the Princes of the Philistims gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice vnto Dagon their god, and to reioyce: for they said, Our god hath deliuered Samson our enemie into our handes. ²⁴Also when the people saw him, they praysed their god:

for they sayde, Our god hath deliuered into our hands our enemie and destroyer of our countrey, which hath slayne many of vs. ²⁵And when their heartes were merie, they said, Call Samson, that he may make vs pastime. So they called Samson out of the prison house, and he was a laughing stocke vnto them, and they set him betweene the pillars. ²⁶Then Samson saide vnto the seruant that led him by the hande, Lead me, that I may touch the pillars that the house standeth vpon, and that I may leane to them. ²⁷(Nowe the house was full of men and women, and there were all the princes of the Philistims: also vpon the roofe were about three thousande men and women that behelde while Samson played) ²⁸Then Samson called vnto the Lord, and sayde, O Lord God, I pray thee, thinke vpon me: O God, I beseech thee, strengthen me at this time onely, that I may be at once auenged of the Philistims for my two eyes. ²⁹And Samson layd hold on the two middle pillars whereupon the house stood, and on which it was borne vp: on the one with his right hand, and on the other with his left. ³⁰Then Samson saide, Let me lose my life with the Philistims: and he bowed him with all his might, and the house fell vpon the princes, and vpon all the people that were therein. so the dead which he slewe at his death were more then they which he had slaine in his life. ³¹Then his brethren, and all the house of his father came downe and tooke him, and brought him vp and buried him betweene Zorah and Eshtaol, in the sepulchre of Manoah his father: nowe he had iudged Israel twenty yeeres.

¹There was a man of mount Ephraim, whose name was Michah, ²And he saide vnto his mother, The eleuen hundreth shekels of siluer that were taken from thee, for the which thou cursedst, and spakedst it, euen in mine hearing, beholde, the siluer is with me, I tooke it. Then his mother saide, Blessed be my sonne of the Lord. ³And when he had restored the eleuen hundreth shekels of siluer to his mother, his mother sayd, I had dedicate the siluer to the Lord of mine hand for my sonne, to make a grauen and molten image. Now therefore I will giue it thee again. ⁴And when he had restored the money vnto his mother, his mother tooke two hundreth shekels of siluer, and gaue them to the founder, which made thereof a grauen and molten image, and it was in the house of Michah. ⁵And this man Michah had an house of gods, and made an Ephod, and Teraphim, and cosecrated one of his sonnes, who was his Priest. ⁶In those dayes there was no King in Israel, but euery man did that which was good in his owne eyes. ⁷There was also a yong man out of Bethlehem Iudah, of the familie of Iudah: who was a Leuite, and sojourned there. ⁸And the man departed out of the citie, euen out of Beth-lehem Iudah, to dwell where he coulde finde a place: and as he iourneyed, he came to mount Ephraim to the house of Michah ⁹And Michah saide vnto him, Whence comest thou? And the Leuite answered him, I come from Beth-lehem

Iudah, and goe to dwell where I may finde a place. ¹⁰Then Michah said vnto him, Dwell with me, and be vnto me a father and a Priest, and I will giue thee ten shekels of siluer by yeere, and a sute of apparell, and thy meate and drinke. So the Leuite went in. ¹¹And the Leuite was content to dwel with the man, and the yong man was vnto him as one of his owne sonnes. ¹²And Michah consecrated the Leuite, and the yong man was his Priest, and was in the house of Michah. ¹³Then said Michah, Nowe I know that the Lord will be good vnto me, seeing I haue a Leuite to my Priest.

out, and saide vnto them, Goe, and search out the lande. Then they came to mount Ephraim to the house of Michah and lodged there. ³When they were in the house of Michah, they knewe the voyce of the yong man the Leuite: and being turned in thither, they saide vnto him, Who brought thee hither? or what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou to doe here? ⁴And he answered them, Thus and thus dealeth Michah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his Priest. ⁵Againe they said vnto him, Aske counsell nowe of God, that we may knowe whether the way which we goe, shalbe prosperous. ⁶And the Priest sayde vnto them, Goe in peace: for the Lord guideth your way which ye goe. ⁷Then the fiue men departed and came to Laish, and sawe the people that were therein, which dwelt carelesse, after the maner of the Zidonians, quiet and sure, because no man made any trouble in the lande, or vsurped any dominion: also they were farre from the Zidonians, and had no businesse with other men. ⁸So they came againe vnto their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren saide vnto them, What haue ye done? ⁹And they answered, Arise, that we may goe vp against them: for we haue seene the lande, and surely it is very good, and doe ye sit stil? be not slouthfull to goe and enter to possesse the lande: ¹⁰(If ye will goe, ye shall come vnto a carelesse people, and the countrey is large) for God hath giuen it into your hande. It is a place which doeth lacke nothing that is in the worlde. ¹¹Then there departed thence of the familie of the Danites, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, sixe hundreth men appointed with instruments of warre. ¹²And they went vp, and pitched in Kiriath-iearim in Iudah: wherefore they called that place, Mahaneh-Dan vnto this day: and it is behinde Kiriath-iearim. ¹³And they went thence vnto mount Ephraim, and came to the house of Michah. ¹⁴Then answered the fiue men, that went to spie out the countrey of Laish, and said vnto their brethren, Knowe ye not, that there is in these houses an Ephod, and Teraphim, and a grauen and a molten image? Nowe therefore consider what ye haue to doe. ¹⁵And they turned thitherward and came to the house of the yong man the Leuite, euen vnto the house of Michah, and saluted him peaceably. ¹⁶And the six hundreth men appointed with their weapons of warre, which were of the children of Dan, stode by the entring of the gate. ¹⁷Then the fiue men that went to spie out the land, went in thither, and tooke the grauen image and the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the molten image: and the Priest stode in the entring of the gate with the sixe hundreth men, that were appointed with weapons of warre, ¹⁸And the other went into Michahs house and fet the grauen image, the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the molten image. Then saide the Priest vnto them, What doe ye? ¹⁹And they answered him, Holde thy peace: lay thine hande vpon thy mouth, and come with vs to be our father and Priest. Whether is it better that thou shouldest be a Priest vnto ye house of one man, or that thou shouldest be a Priest vnto a tribe and to a familie in Israel? ²⁰And the Priestes heart was glad, and hee tooke the Ephod and the Teraphim, and the grauen image, and went among the people. ²¹And they turned and departed, and put the children, and the cattell, and the substance before them. ²²When they were farre off from the house of Michah, the men that were in the houses neere to Michahs house, gathered together, and pursued after the children of Dan, ²³And cryed vnto the children of Dan: who turned their faces, and said vnto Michah, What ayleth thee, that thou makest an outcrie? ²⁴And hee saide, Yee haue taken away my gods, which I made, and the Priest, and go your wayes: and what haue I more? howe then say ye vnto me, what ayleth thee? ²⁵And the children of Dan sayde vnto him, Let not thy voyce be heard among vs, least angrie fellowes runne vpon thee, and thou lose thy life with the liues of thine housholde. ²⁶So the children of Dan went their wayes: and when Michah saw that they were too strong for him, hee turned, and went backe vnto his house. ²⁷And they tooke the things which Michah had made, and the Priest which he had, and came vnto Laish, vnto a quiet people and without mistrust, and smote them with the edge of the sworde, and burnt the citie with fire: ²⁸And there was none to helpe, because Laish was farre from Zidon, and they had no businesse with other men: also it was in the valley that lyeth by Beth-rehob. After, they built the citie, and dwelt therein, ²⁹And called the name of the citie Dan, after the name of Dan their father which was borne vnto Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the beginning. ³⁰Then the children of Dan set them vp the grauen image: and Jonathan the sonne of Gershom, the sonne of Manasseh and his sonnes were the Priestes in the tribe of the Danites vntil the day of the captiuitie of the lande. ³¹So they set them vp the grauen image, which Michah had made, all the while the house of God was in Shiloh.

¹Also in those dayes, when there was no king in Israel, a certaine Leuite dwelt on the side of mount Ephraim, and tooke to wife a concubine out of Beth-lehem Iudah, ²And his concubine played ye whore there, and went away from him vnto her fathers house to Beth-lehem Iudah, and there continued the space of foure moneths. ³And her husband arose and went after her, to speake friendly vnto her, and to bring her againe: he had also his seruant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him vnto her fathers house, and when the yong womans father sawe him, he reioyced of his comming. ⁴And his father in lawe, the yong womans father reteined him: and he abode with him three dayes: so they did eate and drinke, and lodged there. ⁵And when the fourth day came, they arose earely in the morning, and he prepared to depart: then the yong womans father said vnto his sonne in lawe, Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and then go your way. ⁶So they sate downe, and did eate and drinke both of them together. And the yong womans father said

vnto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tary all night, and let thine heart be merie. ⁷And when the man rose vp to depart, his father in lawe was earnest: therefore he returned, and lodged there. ⁸And he arose vp earely the fifth day to depart, and the yong womans father saide, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee: and they taryed vntill after midday, and they both did eate. ⁹Afterwarde when the man arose to depart with his concubine and his seruant, his father in lawe, the yong womans father said vnto him, Beholde nowe, the day draweth towarde euen: I pray you, tary all night: beholde, the sunne goeth to rest: lodge here, that thine heart may be merie, and to morowe get you earely vpon your way, and goe to thy tent. ¹⁰But the man would not tarry, but arose and departed, and came ouer against Iebus, (which is Ierusalem) and his two asses laden, and his concubine were with him. ¹¹When they were neere to Iebus, the day was sore spent, and the seruant said vnto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let vs turne into this citie of the Iebusites, and lodge all night there. ¹²And his master answered him, We will not turne into the citie of strangers that are not of the children of Israel, but we will goe forth to Gibeah. ¹³And he said vnto his seruant, Come, and let vs drawe neere to one of these places, that wee may lodge in Gibeah or in Ramah. ¹⁴So they went forward vpon their way, and the sunne went downe vpon them neere to Gibeah, which is in Benjamin. ¹⁵Then they turned thither to goe in and lodge in Gibeah: and when he came, he sate him downe in a streete of the citie: for there was no man that tooke them into his house to lodging. ¹⁶And beholde, there came an old man from his work out of the field at euen, and the man was of mount Ephraim, but dwelt in Gibeah: and the men of the place were the children of Iemini. ¹⁷And when he had lift vp his eyes, he sawe a wayfaring man in the streetes of the citie: then this olde man sayde, Whither goest thou, and whence camest thou? ¹⁸And hee answered him,

Wee came from Beth-lehem Iudah, vnto the side of Mout Ephraim: from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem Iudah, and go now to the house of the Lord: and no man receiue me to house, ¹⁹Although we haue straw and prouader for our asses, and also bread and wine for me and thine handmayde, and for the boy that is with thy seruant: we lacke nothing. ²⁰And the olde man sayde, Peace bee with thee: as for all that thou lackest, shalt thou finde with me: onely abide not in the streete al night. ²¹So he brought him into his house, and gaue fodder vnto the asses: and they washed their feete, and did eate and drinke. ²²And as they were making their hearts merie, beholde, the men of the citie, wicked men beset the house round about, and smote at the doore, and spake to this olde man the master of the house saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house that we may knowe him. ²³And this man the master of ye house went out vnto the, and said vnto them, Nay my brethre, do not so wickedly, I pray you: seeing that this man is come into mine house, do not this villenie. ²⁴Behold, here is my daughter, a virgine, and his concubine: them wil I bring out nowe, and humble them, and doe with them what seemeth you good: but to this man doe not this villenie. ²⁵But the men woulde not hearken to him: therefore ye man tooke his concubine, and brought her out vnto them: and they knewe her and abused her all the night vnto the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her goe. ²⁶So the woman came in the dawning of the day, and fell downe at the doore of the mans house where her Lord was, till the light day. ²⁷And her lorde arose in the morning, and opened the doores of the house, and went out to goe his way, and beholde, the woman his concubine was dead at the doore of the house and her handes lay vpon the thresholde. ²⁸And hee said vnto her, Vp and let vs goe: but shee answered not. Then he tooke her vp vpon the asse, and the man rose vp, and went vnto his place. ²⁹And whe he was come to his house, he took a knife, and laid hand on his concubine, and deuided her in peces with her bones into twelue parts, and sent her through all quarters of Israel. ³⁰And all that saw it, said, There was no such thing done or seene since the time that the children of Israel came vp from the lande of Egypt vnto this day: consider the matter, consult and giue sentence.

¹Then all the children of Israel went out, and the Congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, vnto the Lord in Mizpeh. ²And the chiefe of all the people, and all the tribes of Israel assembled in the Congregation of the people of God foure hundreth thousand footemen that drewe sword. ³(Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone vp to Mizpeh) Then the children of Israel saide, Howe is this wickednesse committed? ⁴And the same Leuite, the womans husband that was slaine, answered and saide, I came vnto Gibeah that is in Benjamin with my concubine to lodge, ⁵And the men of Gibeah arose against me, and beset the house round about vpon mee by night, thinking to haue slaine me, and haue forced my concubine that she is dead. ⁶Then I tooke my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the countrey of the inheritance of Israel: for they haue committed abomination and villenie in Israel. ⁷Behold, ye are al children of Israel: giue your aduise, and counsell herein. ⁸Then all the people arose as one man, saying, There shall not a man of vs goe to his tent, neither any turne into his house. ⁹But now this is that thing which we will do to Gibeah: we wil goe vp by lot against it, ¹⁰And we wil take ten men of the hundreth throughout al the tribes of Israel, and an hundreth of the thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand to bring vitaille for the people that they may do (when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin) according to all the villeny, that it hath done in Israel. ¹¹So all the men of Israel were gathered against the citie, knit together, as one man. ¹²And the tribes of Israel sent men through al the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickednesse is this that is committed among you? ¹³Nowe therefore deliuer vs those wicked men which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away euill from Israel: but the children of Benjamin would not obey the voyce of their brethren the children of Israel. ¹⁴But ye children of Benjamin gathered them selues together out of the cities vnto Gibeah, to come out and fight against the children of Israel. ¹⁵And ye children of Benjamin were nombred at that time out of the cities sixe and twenty thousand men that drewe sworde, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were nombred seuen hundreth chosen men. ¹⁶Of all this people were seuen hundreth chosen men, being left handed: all these could sling stones at an heare breadth, and not faile. ¹⁷Also the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were nombred foure hundreth thousande men that drew sword, euen all men of warre. ¹⁸And the children of Israel arose, and went vp to the house of God, and asked of God, saying,

Which of vs shall goe vp first to fight against the children of Benjamin? And the Lord said, Iudah shalbe first. ¹⁹Then the children of Israel arose vp earely and camped against Gibeah. ²⁰And the men of Israel went out to battell against Benjamin, and the men of Israel put themselves in aray to fight against the beside Gibeah. ²¹And the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and slewe downe to the ground of the Israelites that day two and twentie thousand men. ²²And the people, the men of Israel plucked vp their hearts, and set their battell againe in aray in the place where they put them in aray the first day. ²³(For the children of Israel had gone vp and wept before the Lord vnto the euening, and had asked of the Lord, saying, Shall I goe againe to battell against the children of Benjamin my brethren? and the Lord said, Go vp against them) ²⁴Then the children of Israel came neere against the children of Benjamin the second day. ²⁵Also the second day Benjamin came forth to meete them out of Gibeah, and slewe downe to the grounde of the children of Israel againe eightene thousand men: all they could handle the sword. ²⁶Then all the children of Israel went vp and all the people came also vnto the house of God, and wept and sate there before the Lord and fasted that day vnto the euening, and offred burnt offrings and peace offrings before the Lord. ²⁷And the children of Israel asked the Lord (for there was the Arke of the couenat of God in those dayes, ²⁸And Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron stoode before it at that time) saying, Shall I yet goe anie more to battell against the children of Benjamin my brethren, or shall I cease? And the Lord said, Go vp: for to morowe I will deliuer them into your hand. ²⁹And Israel set men to lie in waite round about Gibeah. ³⁰And the children of Israel went vp against the children of Benjamin the third day, and put theselues in aray against Gibeah, as at other times. ³¹Then the children of Benjamin comming out against the people, were drawen from the citie: and they began to smite of ye people and kill as at other times, euen by the wayes in the fiede (whereof one goeth vp to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah) vpon a thirtie men of Israel. ³²(For the children of Benjamin sayd, They are fallen before vs, as at the first. But the children of Israel saide, Let vs flee and plucke them away from the citie vnto the hie wayes) ³³And all the men of Israel rose vp out of their place, and put themselues in aray at Baal-tamar: and the men that lay in wayte of the Israelites came forth of their place, euen out of the medowes of Gibeah, ³⁴And they came ouer against Gibeah, ten thousande chosen men of all Israel, and the battell was sore: for they knewe not that the euill was neere them. ³⁵And the Lord smote Benjamin before Israel, and the children of Israel destroyed of the Beniamites the same day fife and twenty thousand and an hundreth men: all they could handle the sword. ³⁶So the children of Benjamin sawe that they were stricken downe: for the men of Israel gaue place to the Beniamites, because they trusted to the men that lay in waite, which they had laide beside Gibeah. ³⁷And they that lay in wait hasted, and brake forth toward Gibeah, and the ambushment drewe themselues along, and smote all the citie with the edge of the sword. ³⁸Also the men of Israel had appoynted a certaine time with the ambushmentes, that they should make a great flame and smoke rise vp out of the citie. ³⁹And when the men of Israel retired in the battell, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirtie persons: for they said, Surely they are stricken downe before vs, as in the first battell. ⁴⁰But when the flame bega to arise out of the citie, as a pillar of smoke, the Beniamites looked backe, and behold, the flame of the citie began to ascend vp to heauen. ⁴¹Then the men of Israel turned againe, and the men of Benjamin were astonied: for they saw that euill was neere vnto them. ⁴²Therefore they fled before the men of Israel vnto the way of the wildernesse, but the battell ouertooke them: also they

which came out of the cities, slew them among them. ⁴³Thus they compassed the Beniamites about, and chased them at ease, and ouerranne them, euen ouer against Gibeah on the Eastside. ⁴⁴And there were slaine of Benjamin eyghtene thousand men, which were all men of warre. ⁴⁵And they turned and fled to the wildernes vnto the rocke of Rimmon: and the Israelites glayned of them by the way fife thousand men, and pursued after them vnto Gidom, and slewe two thousand men of them, ⁴⁶So that all that were slayne that day of Benjamin, were fife and twentie thousand men that drewe sword, which were all men of warre: ⁴⁷But sixe hundreth men turned and fled to the wilderness vnto the rocke of Rimmon, and abode in the rocke of Rimmon foure moneths. ⁴⁸Then the men of Israel returned vnto the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword from the men of the citie vnto the beasts, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they coulede come by.

¹Moreouer, the men of Israel sware in Mizpeh, saying, None of vs shall giue his daughter vnto the Beniamites to wyfe. ²And the people came vnto ye house of God and abode there till euen before God, and lift vp their voyces, and wept with great lamentation, ³And sayde, O Lord God of Israel, why is this come to passe in Israel, that this day one tribe of Israel should want? ⁴And on the morow the people rose vp and made there an altar, and offred burnt offrings and peace offrings. ⁵Then the children of Israel said, Who is he among all the tribes of Israel, that came not vp with the Congregation vnto the Lord? for they had made a great othe concerning him that came not vp to the Lord to Mizpeh, saying, Let him die the death. ⁶And the children of Israel were sory for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. ⁷How shall we do for wiues to them that remaine, seeing we haue sworne by the Lord, that we will not giue them of our daughters to wiues? ⁸Also they saide, Is there any of the tribes of Israel that came not vp to Mizpeh to the Lord? and beholde, there came none of Iabesh Gilead vnto the hoste and to the Congregation. ⁹For when the people were vewed; beholde, none of the inhabitants of Iabesh Gilead were there. ¹⁰Therefore the Congregation sent thither twelue thousande men of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, Goe, and smite the inhabitants of Iabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, both women, and children. ¹¹And this is it that ye shall do: ye shall vtterly destroye all the males and all the women that haue lien by men. ¹²And they found among the inhabitants of Iabesh Gilead foure hundreth maides, virgins that had knowne no man by lying with any male: and they brought them vnto the hoste to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. ¹³Then the whole Congregation sent and spake with the children of Benjamin that were in the rocke of Rimmon, and called peaceably vnto them: ¹⁴And Benjamin came againe at that time, and they gaue them wiues which they had saued alieue of the women of Iabesh Gilead: but they had not so ynough for them. ¹⁵And the people were sorie for Benjamin, because the Lord had made a breach in the tribes of Israel. ¹⁶Therefore the Elders of the Congregation said, How shall we doe for wiues to the remnant? for the women of Benjamin are destroyed. ¹⁷And they saide, there must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel. ¹⁸Howbeit we may not giue them wiues of our daughters: for the childre of Israel had sworne, saying, Cursed be he that giueth a wise to Benjamin. ¹⁹Therefore they said, Beholde, there is a feast of the Lord euery yere in Shiloh in a place, which is on the Northside of Beth-el, and on the Eastside of the way that goeth vp from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the South of Lebonah. ²⁰Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Goe, and lye in waite in the vineyardes. ²¹And when ye see that the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catche you euery man a wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and goe into the land of Benjamin. ²²And when their fathers or their brethren come vnto vs to complaine, we wil say vnto them, Haue pitie on them for our sakes, because we reserued not to eche man his wife in the warre, and because ye haue not giuen vnto them hitherto, ye haue sinned. ²³And the children of Benjamin did so, and tooke wiues of them that danced according to their nomber: which they tooke, and went away, and returned to their inheritance, and repaired the cities and dwelt in them. ²⁴So the children of Israel departed thence at that time, euery man to his tribe, and to his familie, and went out from thence euery man to his inheritance. ²⁵In those dayes there was no King in Israel, but euery man did that which was good in his eyes.

¹In the time that the Iudges ruled, there was a dearth in the lande, and a man of Beth-lehem Iudah went for to sojourne in the countrey of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sonnes. ²And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife, Naomi: and the names of his two sonnes, Mahlon, and Chilion, Ephrathites of Beth-lehem Iudah: and when they came into the land of Moab, they continued there. ³Then Elimelech the husband of Naomi died, and she remayned with her two sonnes, ⁴Which tooke them wiues of the Moabites: the ones name was Orpah, and the name of ye other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten yeeres. ⁵And Mahlon and Chilion dyed also both twaine: so the woman was left destitute of her two sonnes, and of her husband. ⁶Then she arose with her daughters in law, and returned from the countrey of Moab: for she had heard say in the countrey of Moab, that the Lord had visited his people, and

giuen them bread. ⁷Wherefore shee departed out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her, and they went on their way to returne vnto the land of Iudah. ⁸Then Naomi saide vnto her two daughters in lawe, Goe, returne eche of you vnto her owne mothers house: the Lord shew fauour vnto you, as ye haue done with the dead, and with me. ⁹The Lord graunt you, that you may finde rest, either of you in the house of her husband. And when she kissed them, they lift vp their voice and wept. ¹⁰And they saide vnto her, Surely we will returne with thee vnto thy people. ¹¹But Naomi saide, Turne againe, my daughters: for what cause will you go with me? are there any more sonnes in my wombe, that they may bee your husbands? ¹²Turne againe, my daughters: go your way: for I am too olde to haue an husband. If I should say, I haue hope, and if I had an husband this night: yea, if I had borne sonnes, ¹³Would yee tarie for them, till they were of age? would ye be deferred for them from taking of husbands? nay my daughters: for it grieueth me much for your sakes that the hand of the Lord is gone out against me. ¹⁴Then they lift vp their voyce and wept againe, and Orpah kissed her mother in lawe, but Ruth abode still with her. ¹⁵And Naomi said, Beholde, thy sister in law is gone backe vnto her people and vnto her gods: returne thou after thy sister in lawe. ¹⁶And Ruth answered, Intreate mee not to leaue thee, nor to depart from thee: for whither thou goest, I will goe: and where thou dwellest, I will dwell: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God. ¹⁷Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried. the Lord do so to me and more also, if ought but death depart thee and me. ¹⁸Whe she saw that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, she left speaking vnto her. ¹⁹So they went both vntill they came to Beth-lehem: and when they were come to Beth-lehem, it was noysed of them through all the citie, and they said, Is not this Naomi? ²⁰And she answered them, Call me not Naomi, but call me Mara: for the Almightye hath giuen me much bitternes. ²¹I went out full, and the Lord hath caused me to returne emptie: why call ye me Naomi, seeing the Lord hath humbled me, and the Almightye hath brought me vnto aduersitie? ²²So Naomi returned and Ruth the Moabitesse her daughter in law with her, when she came out of the countrey of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of barly haruest.

¹Then Naomis husband had a kinsman, one of great power of the familie of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz. ²And Ruth ye Moabitesse said vnto Naomi, I pray thee, Let mee goe to the felde, and gather eares of corne after him, in whose sight I finde fauour. And she said vnto her, Goe my daughter. ³And she went, and came and gleaned in the felde after the reapers, and it came to passe, that she met with the portion of the felde of Boaz, who was of the familie of Elimelech. ⁴And behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and saide vnto the reapers, The Lord be with you:

and they answered him, The Lord blesse thee. ⁵Then saide Boaz vnto his seruant that was appointed ouer the reapers, Whose maide is this? ⁶And the seruant that was appointed ouer the reapers, answered, and said, It is the Moabitish maide, that came with Naomi out of the countrey of Moab: ⁷And shee saide vnto vs, I pray you, let mee gleane and gather after the reapers among the sheaues: so shee came, and hath continued from that time in the morning vnto now, saue that she taried a litle in the house. ⁸Then said Boaz vnto Ruth, Hearest thou, my daughter? goe to none other felde to gather, neither goe from hence: but abide here by my maydens. ⁹Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reape, and goe thou after the maidens. Haue I not charged the seruants, that they touche thee not? Moreouer whe thou art a thirst, go vnto ye vessels, and drinke of that which ye seruants haue drawen. ¹⁰Then shee fell on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground, and said vnto him, How haue I found fauour in thine eyes, that thou shouldest know me, seeing I am a stranger? ¹¹And Boaz answered, and said vnto her, All is told and shewed me that thou hast done vnto thy mother in lawe, since the death of thine husband, and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and ye land where thou wast borne, and art come vnto a people which thou knewest not in time past. ¹²The Lord recompense thy worke, and a ful reward be giuen thee of the Lord God of Israel, vnder whose wings thou art come to trust. ¹³Then she saide, Let me finde fauour in thy sight, my lord: for thou hast comforted mee, and spoken comfortably vnto thy mayde, though I be not like to one of thy maydes. ¹⁴And Boaz said vnto her, At the meale time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dippe thy morsell in the vineger. And she sate beside the reapers, and hee reached her parched corne: and shee did eate, and was sufficed, and left thereof. ¹⁵And when she arose to gleane, Boaz commanded his seruants, saying, Let her gather among the sheaues, and doe not rebuke her. ¹⁶Also let fall some of the sheaues for her, and let it lie, that she may gather it vp, and rebuke her not. ¹⁷So she gleaned in the field vntill euening, and she thressed that shee had gathered, and it was about an Ephah of barley. ¹⁸And she tooke it vp, and went into the citie, and her mother in law saw what she had gathered: Also she tooke foorth, and gaue to her that which she had reserued, when she was sufficed. ¹⁹Then her mother in lawe saide vnto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he, that knewe thee. And she shewed her mother in lawe, with whome she had wrought, and saide, The mans name, with whom I wrought to day, is Boaz. ²⁰And Naomi said vnto her daughter in law, Blessed be he of the Lord: for he ceaseth not to doe good to the liuing and to the dead. Againe Naomi saide vnto her, The man is neere vnto vs, and of our affinitie. ²¹And Ruth the Moabitesse said, He said also certainly vnto mee, Thou shalt be with my seruants, vntill they haue ended all mine haruest. ²²And Naomi answered vnto Ruth her daughter in lawe, It is best, my daughter, that thou goe out with his maides, that they meete thee not in an other fiede.

²³Then she kept her by the maides of Boaz, to gather vnto the end of barly haruest, and of wheate haruest, and dwelt with her mother in lawe.

¹Afterward Naomi her mother in lawe said vnto her, My daughter, shall not I seeke rest for thee, that thou mayest prosper? ²Now also is not Boaz our kinsman, with whose maides thou wast? beholde, he winoweth barly to night in the floore. ³Wash thy sellfe therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment vpon thee, and get thee downe to the floore: let not the man know of thee, vntill he haue left eating and drinking. ⁴And when he shall sleepe, marke the place where he layeth him downe, and go, and vncouer the place of his feete, and lay thee downe, and he shall tell thee what thou shalt doe. ⁵And she answered her, All that thou biddest me, I will doe. ⁶So she went downe vnto the floore, and did according to all that her mother in lawe bade her. ⁷And when Boaz had eaten, and drunken, and cheared his heart, he went to lie downe at the end of the heape of corne, and she came softly, and vncouered the place of his feet, and lay downe. ⁸And at midnight the man was afraide and caught holde: and loe, a woman lay at his feete. ⁹Then he sayd, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmayd: spread therefore the wing of thy garment ouer thine handmayd: for thou art the kinsman. ¹⁰Then sayd he, Blessed be thou of the Lord, my daughter: thou hast shewed more goodnes in the latter end, then at the beginning, in as much as thou followedst not yong men, were they poore or rich. ¹¹And now, my daughter, feare not: I will doe to thee all that thou requirest: for all the citie of my people doeth knowe, that thou art a vertuous woman. ¹²And now, it is true that I am thy kinsman, howbeit there is a kinsman neerer then I. ¹³Tarie to night, and when morning is come, if he will doe the duetie of a kinsman vnto thee, well, let him doe the kinsmans duetie: but if he will not doe the kinsmans part, then wil I doe the duetie of a kinsman, as the Lord liueth: sleepe vntill the morning. ¹⁴And she lay at his feete vntill the morning: and she arose before one could know another: for he sayd, Let no man knowe, that a woman came into the floore. ¹⁵Also he sayd, Bring the sheete that thou hast vpon thee, and holde it. And when she helde it, he measured sixe measures of barley, and layde them on her, and she went into the citie. ¹⁶And when she came to her mother in law, she sayd, Who art thou, my daughter? And she tolde her all that the man had done to her, ¹⁷And said, These sixe measures of barley gaue he me: for he sayd to me, Thou shalt not come emptie vnto thy mother in lawe. ¹⁸Then sayd she, My daughter, sit still, vntill thou knowe how the thing will fall: for the man wil not be in rest, vntill he hath finished the matter this same day.

¹Then went Boaz vp to the gate, and sate there, and beholde, the kinsman, of whome Boaz had spoken, came by: and he sayd, Ho, such one, come, sit downe here. And he turned, and sate downe. ²Then he tooke ten men of the Elders of the citie, and sayd, Sit ye downe here. And they sate downe. ³And he said vnto ye kinsman, Naomi, that is come againe out of ye countrey of Moab, wil sell a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelechs. ⁴And I thought to aduertise thee, saying, Buy it before the assistants, and before the Elders of my people. If thou wilt redeeme it, redeeme it: but if thou wilt not redeeme it, tel me: for I know that there is none besides thee to redeeme it, and I am after thee. Then he answered, I wil redeeme it. ⁵Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must also buy it of Ruth the Moabitesse the wife of the dead, to stirre vp the name of the dead, vpon his inheritance. ⁶And the kinsman answered, I can not redeeme it, lest I destroy mine owne inheritance: redeeme my right to thee, for I can not redeeme it.

⁷Now this was the maner beforetime in Israel, concerning redeeming and changing, for to stablish all things: a man did plucke off his shooe, and gaue it his neighbour, and this was a sure witnes in Israel. ⁸Therefore the kinsman sayd to Boas, Buy it for thee: and he drew off his shooe. ⁹And Boaz sayd vnto the Elders and vnto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I haue bought all that was Elimelechs, and all that was Chilions and Mahlons, of the hand of Naomi. ¹⁰And moreouer, Ruth the Moabitesse the wife of Mahlon, haue I bought to be my wife, to stirre vp the name of the dead vpon his inheritance, and that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day. ¹¹And all the people that were in the gate, and the Elders sayd, We are witnesses: the Lord make the wife that commeth into thine house, like Rahel and like Leah, which twaine did build the house of Israel: and that thou mayest doe worthily in

Ephrathah, and be famous in Beth-lehem, ¹²And that thine house be like the house of Pharez (whom Thamar bare vnto Iudah) of the seede which the Lord shall giue thee of this yong woman. ¹³So Boaz tooke Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in vnto her, the Lord gaue that she conceiued, and bare a sonne. ¹⁴And the women sayd vnto Naomi, Blessed be the Lord, which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, and his name shalbe continued in Israel. ¹⁵And this shall bring thy life againe, and cherish thine olde age: for thy daughter in lawe which loueth thee, hath borne vnto him, and she is better to thee then seuen sonnes. ¹⁶And Naomi tooke the childe, and layde it in her lap, and became nource vnto it. ¹⁷And the women her neighbours gaue it a name, saying, There is a childe borne to Naomi, and called the name thereof Obed: the same was the father of Ishai, the father of Dauid. ¹⁸These now are ye generations of Pharez: Pharez begate Hezron, ¹⁹And Hezron begate Ram, and Ram begate

¹There was a man of one of the two Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah the sonne of Ieroham, the sonne of Elihu, the sonne of Tohu, the sonne of Zuph, an Ephrathite: ²And he had two wiues: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. ³And this man went vp out of his citie euery yeere, to worship and to sacrifice vnto the Lord of hostes in Shiloh, where were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas Priests of the Lord. ⁴And on a day, when Elkanah sacrificed, he gaue to Peninnah his wife and to all her sonnes and daughters portions,

⁵But vnto Hannah he gaue a worthy portion: for he loued Hannah, and the Lord had made her barren. ⁶And her aduersarie vexed her sore, forasmuch as she vpbraided her, because the Lord had made her barren. ⁷(And so did he yeere by yeere) and as oft as she went vp to the house of the Lord, thus she vexed her, that she wept and did not eate. ⁸Then sayd Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thine heart troubled? am not I better to thee then ten sonnes? ⁹So Hannah rose vp after that they had eaten and drunke in Shiloh (and Eli the Priest sate vpon a stoole by one of the postes of the Temple of the Lord) ¹⁰And she was troubled in her minde, and prayed vnto the Lord, and wept sore: ¹¹Also she vowed a vowe, and sayd, O Lord of hostes, if thou wilt looke on the trouble of thine handmaide, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaide, but giue vnto thine handmaide a manchilde, then I will giue him vnto the Lord all the dayes of his life, and there shall no rasor come vpon his head. ¹²And as she continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth. ¹³For Hannah spake in her heart: her lips did moue onely, but her voyce was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had bene drunken. ¹⁴And Eli sayde vnto her, Howe long wilt thou be drunken? Put away thy drunkennesse from thee. ¹⁵Then Hannah answered and sayd, Nay my lord, but I am a woman troubled in spirit: I haue drunke neither wine nor strong drinke, but haue powred out my soule before the Lord. ¹⁶Count not thine handmaide for a wicked woman: for of the abundance of my complaint and my grieve haue I spoken hitherto. ¹⁷Then Eli answered, and sayd, Go in peace, and the God of Israel graunt thy petition that thou hast asked of him. ¹⁸She sayd againe, Let thine handmayd finde grace in thy sight: so the woman went her way, and did eate, and looked no more sad. ¹⁹Then they rose vp early, and worshipped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah. Nowe

Elkanah knewe Hannah his wife, and the Lord remembred her. ²⁰For in processe of time Hannah conceiued, and bare a sonne, and she called his name Samuel, Because, said she, I haue asked him of the Lord. ²¹So the man Elkanah and all his house went vp to offer vnto the Lord the yeerely sacrifice, and his vowe: ²²But Hannah went not vp: for she sayd vnto her husband, I will tarie vntill the childe be weined, then I will bring him that hee may appeare before the Lord, and there abide for euer. ²³And Elkanah her husband sayd vnto her, Do what seemeth thee best: tarie vntill thou hast weined him: only the Lord accomplish his word. So the woman abode, and gaue her sonne sucke vntill she weined him. ²⁴And when she had weined him, she tooke him with her with three bullockes and an Ephah of floure and a bottell of wine, and brought him vnto the house of the Lord in Shiloh, and the childe was yong. ²⁵And they slewe a bullocke, and brought the childe to Eli. ²⁶And she said, Oh my Lord, as thy soule liueth, my lord, I am the woman that stoode with thee here praying vnto the Lord. ²⁷I prayed for this childe, and the Lord hath giuen me my desire which I asked of him. ²⁸Therefore also I haue giuen him vnto the Lord: as long as he liueth hee shalbe giuen vnto the Lord: and he worshipped the Lord there.

¹And Hannah prayed, and said, Mine heart reioyceth in the Lord, mine horne is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged ouer mine enemies, because I reioyce in thy saluation. ²There is none holy as the Lord: yea, there is none besides thee, and there is no god like our God. ³Speake no more presumptuously: let not arrogancie come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him enterprises are established. ⁴The bow and the mightie men are broken, and the weake haue girded themselues with strength. ⁵They that were full, are hired foorth for bread, and the hungrie are no more hired, so that the barren hath borne seuen: and shee that had many children, is feeble. ⁶The Lord killeth and maketh aliue: bringeth downe to the graue and raiseth vp. ⁷The Lord maketh poore and maketh rich: bringeth lowe, and exalteth. ⁸He raiseth vp ye poore out of the dust, and lifteth vp the begger from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherite the seate of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lordes, and he hath set the world vpon them. ⁹Hee will keepe the feete of his Saintes, and the wicked shall keepe silence in darkenes: for in his owne might shall no man be strong. ¹⁰The Lordes aduersaries shall be destroyed, and out of heauen shall he thunder vpon them: the Lord shall iudge the endes of the worlde, and shall giue power vnto his King, and exalt the horne of his Anoynted. ¹¹And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, and the childe did minister vnto the Lord before Eli the Priest. ¹²Now the sonnes of Eli were wicked men, and knewe not the Lord. ¹³For the Priestes custome towarde the people was

this: when any man offered sacrifice, the Priestes boy came, while the flesh was seething, and a fleshhooke with three teeth, in his hand, ¹⁴And thrust it into the kettle, or into the caldron, or into the panne, or into the pottle: all that the fleshhooke brought vp, the Priest tooke for himselfe: thus they did vnto all the Israelites, that came thither to Shiloh. ¹⁵Yea, before they burnt the fat, the priests boy came and saide to the man that offered, Giue me flesh to rost for the priest: for he wil not haue sodden flesh of thee, but rawe. ¹⁶And if any man saide vnto him, Let them burne the fatte according to the custome, then take as much as thine heart desireth: then hee would answere, No, but thou shalt giue it now: and if thou wilt not, I will take it by force. ¹⁷Therefore the sinne of the yong men was very great before the Lord: for men abhorred the offering of the Lord. ¹⁸Now Samuel being a yong childe ministred before the Lord, girded with a linen Ephod. ¹⁹And his mother made him a litle coat, and brought it to him from yeere to yeere, when she came vp with her husband, to offer the yerely sacrifice. ²⁰And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The Lord giue thee seede of this woman, for the petition that she asked of the Lord: and they departed vnto their place. ²¹And the Lord visited Hannah, so that she conceiued, and bare three sonnes, and two daughters. And the childe Samuel grewe before the Lord. ²²So Eli was very olde, and heard all that his sonnes did vnto all Israel, and howe they laye with the women that assembled at the doore of the tabernacle of the Congregation. ²³And hee saide vnto them, Why doe ye such things? for of all this people I heare euill reportes of you. ²⁴Do no more, my sonnes, for it is no good report that I heare, which is, that ye make the Lords people to trespasse. ²⁵If one man sinne against another, the Iudge shall iudge it: but if a man sinne against the Lord, who will pleade for him? Notwithstanding they obeyed not the voyce of their father, because the Lord would slay them. ²⁶(Nowe the childe Samuel profited and grewe, and was in fauour both with the Lord and also with men) ²⁷And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Did not I plainly appeare vnto the house of thy fater, when they were in Egypt in Pharaohs house? ²⁸And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my Priest, to offer vpon mine altar, and to burne incense, and to weare an Ephod before me, and I gaue vnto the house of thy father all the offrings made by fire of the children of Israel. ²⁹Wherefore haue you kicked against my sacrifice and mine offering, which I commanded in my Tabernacle, and honourest thy children aboue mee, to make your selues fatte of the first frutes of all the offerings of Israel my people? ³⁰Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I saide, that thine house and the house of thy father should walke before mee for euer: but nowe the Lord saith, It shall not be so: for them that honour me, I will honour, and they that despise me, shall be despised. ³¹Beholde, the dayes come, that I will cut off thine arme, and the arme of thy fathers house, that there shall not be an olde man in thine house. ³²And thou shalt see thine enemie in the habitation of the Lord in all thinges wherewith God shall blesse Israel, and there shall not be an olde man in thine house for euer. ³³Neuerthesse, I will not destroy euery one of thine from mine altar, to make thine eyes to faile, and to make thine heart sorowfull: and all ye multitude of thine house shall die when they be men. ³⁴And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, that shall come vpon thy two sonnes Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die both. ³⁵And I will stirre me vp a faithfull Priest, that shall do according to mine heart and according to my minde: and I wil build him a sure house, and he shall walke before mine Anointed for euer. ³⁶And all that are left in thine house, shall come and bowe downe to him for a piece of siluer and a morsell of bread, and shall say, Appoint me, I pray thee, to one of the priestes offices, that I may eate a morsell of bread.

¹Nowe the childe Samuel ministred vnto the Lord before Eli: and the word of the Lord was precious in those dayes: for there was no manifest vision. ²And at that time, as Eli lay in his place, his eyes began to waxe dimme that he could not see. ³And yet the light of God went out, Samuel slept in the temple of the Lord, where the Arke of God was. ⁴Then the Lord called Samuel: and hee said, Here I am. ⁵And he ranne vnto Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou calledst me. But he said, I called thee not: goe againe and sleepe. And he went and slept. ⁶And the Lord called once againe, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou diddest call me. And he answered, I called thee not, my sonne: go againe and sleepe. ⁷Thus did Samuel, before hee knewe the Lord, and before the word of the Lord was reueiled vnto him. ⁸And the Lord called Samuel againe the thirde time: and he arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou hast called me. Then Eli perceiued that the Lord had called the childe. ⁹Therefore Eli saide vnto Samuel, Goe and sleepe: and if he call thee, then say, Speake Lord, for thy seruant heareth. So Samuel went, and slept in his place. ¹⁰And the Lord came, and stooode, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speake, for thy seruant heareth. ¹¹Then the Lord said to Samuel, Beholde, I wil doe a thing in Israel, whereof whosoever shall heare, his two eares shall tingle. ¹²In that day I will raise vp against Eli all things which I haue spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an ende. ¹³And I haue tolde him that I will iudge his house for euer, for the iniquitie which hee knoweth, because his sonnes ranne into a slaunder, and he stayed them not. ¹⁴Nowe therefore I haue sworne vnto the house of Eli, that the wickednes of Elis house, shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for euer. ¹⁵Afterward Samuel slept vntil the morning, and opened the doores of the house of the Lord, and Samuel feared to shewe Eli the vision.

¹⁶Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel my sonne. And he answered, Here I am. ¹⁷Then he said, What is it, that the Lord said vnto thee? I pray thee, hide it not from mee. God doe so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me, of all that he said vnto thee. ¹⁸So Samuel tolde him euery whit, and hid nothing from him. Then hee said, It is the Lord: let him do what seemeth him good. ¹⁹And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and let none of his words fall to the ground. ²⁰And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba knew that faithfull Samuel was the Lordes Prophet. ²¹And the Lord appeared againe in Shiloh: for the Lord reueiled himselfe to Samuel in Shiloh by his word.

¹And Samuel spake vnto all Israel: and Israel went out against the Philistims to battel and pitched beside Eben-ezer: and the Philistims pitched in Aphek. ²And the Philistims put themselues in aray against Israel: and when they ioyned the battell, Israel was smitten downe before the Philistims: who slewe of the armie in the fielde about foure thousand men. ³So when the people were come into the campe, the Elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the Lord smitten vs this day before ye Philistims? let vs bring the Arke of the couenant of the Lord out of Shiloh vnto vs, that when it commeth among vs, it may saue vs out of the hande of our enemies. ⁴Then the people sent to Shiloh, and brought from thence the Arke of the couenant of the Lord of hostes, who dwelleth betweene the Cherubims: and there were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehas, with the Arke of the couenant of God. ⁵And when the Arke of the couenant of the Lord came into the hoste, all Israel shouted a mightie shoute, so that the earth rang againe. ⁶And when the Philistims heard the noyse of the shoute, they said, What meaneth the sound of this mightie shoute in the host of the Ebrewes? and they vnderstoode, that the Arke of the Lord was come into the hoste. ⁷And the Philistims were afraide, and saide, God is come into the hoste: therefore saide they, Wo vnto vs: for it hath not bene so heretofore. ⁸Wo vnto vs, who shall deliuer vs out of the hande of these mightie Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wildernes. ⁹Be strong and play the men, O Philistims, that ye be not seruants vnto the Ebrewes, as they haue serued you: be valiant therefore, and fight. ¹⁰And the Philistims fought, and Israel was smitten downe, and fled euery man into his tent: and there was an exceeding great slaughter: for there fell of Israel thirtie thousand footemen. ¹¹And the Arke of God was taken, and the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas died. ¹²And there ranne a man of Benjamin out of the armie, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and earth vpon his head. ¹³And when hee came, loe, Eli sate vpon a seate by the wayside, wayting: for his heart feared for the Arke of God and when the man came into the citie to tell it, all the citie cried out. ¹⁴And when Eli heard the noyse of the crying, he sayd, What meaneth this noyse of the tumult? and the man came in hastily, and tolde Eli. ¹⁵(Nowe Eli was fourescore and eightene yeere olde, and his eyes were dimme that hee could not see) ¹⁶And the man sayd vnto Eli, I came from the armie, and I fled this day out of the hoste: and he sayd, What thing is done, my sonne? ¹⁷Then the messenger answered and sayd, Israel is fled before the Philistims, and there hath bene also a great slaughter among the people: and moreouer thy two sonnes, Hophni and Phinehas are dead, and the Arke of God is taken. ¹⁸And when he had made mention of the Arke of God, Eli fell from his seate backward by the side of the gate, and his necke was broken, and he dyed: for he was an olde man and heauie: and he had iudged Israel fourtie yeeres. ¹⁹And his daughter in lawe Phinehas wife was with childe neere her trauell: and when she heard the report that the Arke of God was taken, and that her father in lawe and her husband were dead, she bowed her selfe, and trauailed: for her paines came vpon her. ²⁰And about the time of her death, the women that stooode about her, sayd vnto her, Feare not: for thou hast borne a sonne: but she answered not, nor regarded it. ²¹And she named the childe Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel, because the Arke of God was taken, and because of her father in lawe and her husband. ²²She sayde againe, The glory is departed from Israel: for the Arke of God is taken.

¹Then the Philistims tooke the Arke of God and caried it from Eben-ezer vnto Ashdod, ²Euen the Philistims tooke ye Arke of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. ³And when they of Ashdod rose the next day in the morning, beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground before the Arke of the Lord, and they tooke vp Dagon, and set him in his place againe. ⁴Also they rose vp earely in the morning the next day, and beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground before the Arke of the Lord, and the head of Dagon and the two palmes of his hands were cut off vpon the threshold: onely the stumpe of Dagon was left to him. ⁵Therefore the Priests of Dagon, and all that come into Dagon's house tread not on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, vnto this day. ⁶But the hand of the Lord was heauie vpon them of Ashdod, and destroyed them, and smote them with the emerods, both Ashdod, and the coastes thereof. ⁷And when the men of Ashdod sawe this, they sayd, Let not the Arke of the God of Israel abide with vs: for his hand is sore vpon vs and vpon Dagon our god. ⁸They sent therefore and gathered all the princes of the Philistims vnto them, and sayde, What shall we doe with the Arke of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the Arke of the God of Israel be caried about vnto Gath: and they caried the Arke of the God of Israel about. ⁹And when they had caried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the citie with a very great destruction, and he smote the men of the citie both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret partes. ¹⁰Therefore they sent the Arke of God to Ekron: and as soone as the Arke of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cryed out, saying, They haue brought the Arke of the God of Israel to vs to slay vs and our people. ¹¹Therefore they sent, and gathered together all the princes of the Philistims and sayd, Sende away the Arke of the God of Israel, and let it returne to his owne place, that it slay vs not and our people: for there was a destruction and death throughout all the citie, and the hand of God was very sore there. ¹²And the men that dyed not, were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the citie went vp to heauen.

¹So the Arke of the Lord was in the countrey of the Philistims seuen moneths. ²And the Philistims called the priests and the soothsayers, saying, What shall we doe with the Arke of the Lord? tell vs wherewith we shall send it home againe. ³And they sayd, If you send away the Arke of the God of Israel, send it not away emptie, but giue vnto it a sinne offering: then shall ye be healed, and it shall be knowne to you, why his hand departeth not from you. ⁴Then sayd they, What shalbe the sinne offring, which we shall giue vnto it? And they answered, Fiue golden emerods and fiue golden mise, according to the number of the princes of the Philistims: for one plague was on you all, and on your princes. ⁵Wherefore ye shall make the similitudes of your emerods, and the similitudes of your mise that destroy the land: so ye shall giue glory vnto the God of Israel, that he may take his hand from you, and from your gods, and from your land. ⁶Wherefore then should ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let them goe, and they departed? ⁷Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on whome there hath come no yoke: and tye the kine to the cart, and bring the calues home from them. ⁸Then take the Arke of the Lord, and set it vpon the cart, and put the iewels of gold which ye giue it for a sinne offering in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may go. ⁹And take heede, if it goe vp by the way of his owne coast to Beth-shemesh, it is he that did vs this great euill: but if not, we shall know then, that it is not his hand that smote vs, but it was a chance that happened vs. ¹⁰And the men did so: for they tooke two kine that gaue milke, and tied them to the cart, and shut the calues at home. ¹¹So they set the Arke of the Lord vpon the cart, and the coffer with the mise of golde, and with the similitudes of their emerods. ¹²And the kine went the streight way to Beth-shemesh, and kept one path and lowed as they went, and turned neither to the right hand nor to the left: also the Princes of the Philistims went after them, vnto the borders of Beth-shemesh. ¹³Nowe they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheate haruest in the valley, and they lift vp their eyes, and spied the Arke, and reioyced when they sawe it. ¹⁴And the cart came into the felde of Ioshua a Beth-shemite, and stood still there. There was also a great stone, and they claue the wood of the cart, and offered the kine for a burnt offring vnto the Lord. ¹⁵And the Leuites tooke downe the Arke of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the iewels of golde were, and put them on the great stone, and the men of Beth-shemesh offred burnt offring, and sacrificed sacrifices that same day vnto the Lord. ¹⁶And when the fiue Princes of ye Philistims had seene it, they returned to Ekron the same day. ¹⁷So these are the golden emerods, which the Philistims gaue for a sinne offering to the Lord: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, and for Ekron one, ¹⁸And golden mise, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistims, belonging to the fiue princes, both of walled townes, and of townes vnwalled, vnto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set the Arke of the Lord: which stone remaineth vnto this day in the felde of Ioshua the Beth-shemite. ¹⁹And hee smote of the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked in the Arke of the Lord: he slew euen among the people fiftie thousand men and three score and ten men. and the people lamented, because the Lord had slaine the people with so great a slaughter. ²⁰Wherefore the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? and to whom shall he go from vs? ²¹And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-iearim, saying, The Philistims haue brought againe the Arke of the Lord: come ye downe and take it vp to you.

¹Then the men of Kiriath-iearim came, and tooke vp the Arke of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill: and they sanctified Eleazar his sonne, to keepe the Arke of the Lord. ²(For while the Arke abode in Kiriath-iearim, the time was long, for it was twentie yeeres) and al the house of Israel lamented after ye Lord. ³Then Samuel spake vnto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye be come againe vnto the Lord with all your heart, put away the strange gods from among you, and Ashtarothe, and direct your hearts vnto the Lord, and serue him only, and he shall deliuer you out of the hand of ye Philistims. ⁴Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtarothe, and serued the Lord onely. ⁵And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you vnto the Lord. ⁶And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drewe water and powred it out before the Lord, and fasted the same day, and sayd there, We haue sinned against the Lord. And Samuel iudged the children of Israel in Mizpeh. ⁷When the Philistims heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the princes of the Philistims went vp against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard that, they were afraide of the Philistims. ⁸And the children of Israel sayd to Samuel, Cease not to crie vnto the Lord our God for vs, that hee may saue vs out of the hand of the Philistims. ⁹Then Samuel tooke a sucking lambe, and offered it all together for a burnt offering vnto the Lord, and Samuel cryed vnto the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him.

¹⁰And as Samuel offered the burnt offering, the Philistims came to fight against Israel: but the Lord thundred with a great thunder that day vpon the Philistims, and scattered them: so they were slaine before Israel.

¹¹And the men of Israel went from Mizpeh and pursued the Philistims, and smote them vntill they came vnder Beth-car. ¹²Then Samuel tooke a stone and pitched it betweene Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name thereof, Eben-ezer, and he sayd, Hitherto hath the Lord holpen vs. ¹³So the Philistims were brought vnder, and they came no more againe into the coastes of Israel: and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistims all the dayes of Samuel.

¹⁴Also the cities which the Philistims had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, from Ekron euen to Gath: and Israel deliuered the coastes of the same out of the hands of the Philistims: and there was peace betweene Israel and the Amorites. ¹⁵And Samuel iudged Israel all the dayes of his life, ¹⁶And went about yeere by yeere to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and iudged Israel in all those places. ¹⁷Afterward hee returned to Ramah: for there was his house, and there he iudged Israel: also he built an altar there vnto the Lord.

¹When Samuel was nowe become olde, he made his sonnes Iudges ouer Israel. ²(And the name of his eldest sonne was Ioel, and the name of the second Abiah) euen Iudges in Beersheba. ³And his sonnes walked not in his wayes, but turned aside after lucre, and tooke rewards, and peruerted the iudgement. ⁴Wherefore all the Elders of Israel gathered them together, and came to Samuel vnto Ramah, ⁵And said vnto him, Beholde, thou art olde, and thy sonnes walke not in thy wayes: make vs nowe a King to iudge vs like all nations. ⁶But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Giue vs a King to iudge vs: and Samuel prayed vnto the Lord. ⁷And the Lord said vnto Samuel, Heare the voyce of the people in all that they shall say vnto thee: for they haue not cast thee away, but they haue cast me away, that I should not reigne ouer the. ⁸As they haue euer done since I brought them out of Egypt euen vnto this day, (and haue forsaken me, and serued other gods) euen so doe they vnto thee. ⁹Nowe therefore hearken vnto their voyce: howbeit yet testifie vnto them, and shewe them the maner of ye King that shall reigne ouer them. ¹⁰So Samuel told all the wordes of the Lord vnto the people that asked a King of him. ¹¹And he saide, This shall be the maner of the King that shall reigne ouer you: he will take your sonnes, and appoint them to his charets, and to be his horsemen, and some shall runne before his charet. ¹²Also he will make them his captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer fifties, and to eare his ground, and to reape his haruest, and to make instruments of warre, and the thinges that serue for his charets.

¹There was nowe a man of Benjamin, mightie in power named Kish, the sonne of Abiel, the sonne of Zeror, the sonne of Bechorath, the sonne of Aphiah, the sonne of a man of Iemini. ²And he had a sonne called Saul, a goodly yong man and a faire: so that among the children of Israel there was none goodlier then he: from the shoulders vpwarde he was hier then any of the people. ³And the asses of Kish Sauls father were lost: therefore Kish said to Saul his sonne, Take nowe one of the seruants with thee, and arise, goe, and seeke the asses. ⁴So he passed through mount Ephraim, and went through the lande of Shalishah, but they found them not. Then they went through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: he went also through ye land of Iemini, but they found the not. ⁵When they came to the lande of Zuph, Saul saide vnto his seruant that was with him, Come and let vs returne, lest my father leaue the care of asses, and take thought for vs. ⁶And he said vnto him, Behold nowe, in this citie is a man of God, and he is an honorable man: all that he saith commeth to passe: let vs nowe goe thither, if so be that he can shewe vs what way we may goe. ⁷Then saide Saul to his seruant, Well then, let vs goe: but what shall we bring vnto the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the man of God: what haue we? ⁸And the seruant answered Saul againe, and said, Beholde, I haue founde about me the fourth part of a shekell of siluer: that will I giue the man of God, to tell vs our way. ⁹(Beforetime in Israel when a man went to seeke an answere of God, thus he spake, Come, and let vs goe to the Seer: for he that is called nowe a Prophet, was in the olde time called a Seer) ¹⁰Then saide Saul to his seruant, Well saide, come, let vs goe: so they went into the citie where the man of God was. ¹¹And as they were going vp the hie way to the citie, they found maydes that came out to draw water, and said vnto them, Is there here a Seer? ¹²And they answered them, and said, Yea: loe, he is before you: make haste nowe, for he came this day to the citie: for there is an offering of the people this day in the hie place. ¹³When ye shall come into the citie, ye shall finde him straightway yet he come vp to the hie place to eate: for the people will not eate vntill he come, because he will blesse the sacrifice: and then eate they that be bidden to the feast: nowe therefore goe vp: for euen now shall ye find him. ¹⁴Then they went vp into the citie, and when they were come into the middes of the citie, Samuel came out against them, to goe vp to the hie place. ¹⁵But the Lord had reueiled to Samuel secretly (a day before Saul came) saying, ¹⁶To morow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin: him shalt thou anoint to be gouernour ouer my people Israel, that he may saue my people out of the hands of the Philistims: for I haue looked vpon my people, and their crie is come vnto me. ¹⁷When Samuel therefore sawe Saul, the Lord answered him, See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of, he shall rule my people. ¹⁸Then went Saul to Samuel in the middes of the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is. ¹⁹And Samuel answered Saul, and saide, I am the Seer: goe vp before me vnto the hie place: for ye shall eate with me to day. and to morowe I will let thee goe, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart. ²⁰And as for thine asses that were lost three dayes ago, care not for them: for they are founde. and on whom is set all the desire of Israel? is it not vpon thee and on all thy fathers house? ²¹But Saul answered, and said, Am not I the sonne of Iemini of the smallest tribe of Israel? and my familie is the least of all the families of the tribe of Beniamin. Wherefore then speakest thou so to me? ²²And Samuel tooke Saul and his seruant, and brought them into the chamber, and made them sit in the chieftest place among them that were bidden: which were about thirtie persons. ²³And Samuel saide vnto the cooke, Bring foorth the portion which I gaue thee, and whereof I said vnto thee, Keepe it with thee. ²⁴And the cooke tooke vp the shoulder, and that which was vpon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Beholde, that which is left, set it before thee and eate: for hitherto hath it bene kept for thee, saying, Also I haue called the people. So Saul did eate with Samuel that day. ²⁵And when they were come downe from the hie place into the citie, he communed with Saul vpon the top of the house. ²⁶And when they arose early about ye spring of the day, Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Vp, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out, both he, and Samuel. ²⁷And when they were come downe to the ende of the citie, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the seruant goe before vs, (and he went) but stand thou still now, that I may shewe thee the worde of God.

founde: and lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and soroweth for you, saying, What shall I doe for my sonne? ³Then shalt thou go forth from thence and shalt come to the plaine of Tabor, and there shall meete thee three men going vp to God to Bethel: one carying three kiddes, and an other carying three loaues of bread, and another carying a bottle of wine: ⁴And they will aske thee if all be well, and will giue thee the two loaues of bread, which thou shalt receiue of their handes. ⁵After that shalt thou come to the hill of God, where is the garisons of the Philistims: and when thou art come thither to the citie, thou shalt meete a companie of Prophets comming downe from the hie place with a viole, and a tymbrell, and a pipe, and an harpe before them, and they shall prophecie. ⁶Then the Spirit of the Lord will come vpon thee, and thou shalt prophecie with them, and shalt be turned into another man. ⁷Therefore when these signes shall come vnto to thee, doe as occasion shall serue: for God is with thee. ⁸And thou shalt goe downe before me to Gilgal: and I also will come downe vnto thee to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace. Tary for me seuen dayes, till I come to thee and shewe thee what thou shalt doe. ⁹And when he had turned his backe to goe from Samuel, God gaue him another heart: and all those tokens came to passe that same day. ¹⁰And when they came thither to the hill, beholde, the companie of Prophets meete him, and the Spirit of God came vpon him, and he prophecied among them. ¹¹Therefore all the people that knewe him before, when they saw that he prophecied among the Prophets, saide eche to other, What is come vnto the sonne of Kish? is Saul also among the Prophets? ¹²And one of the same place answered, and said, But who is their father? Therefore it was a prouerbe, Is Saul also among the Prophets? ¹³And when he had made an ende of prophecying, he came to the hie place. ¹⁴And Sauls vnkle saide vnto him, and to his seruant, Whither went ye? And he saide, To seeke the asses: and when we sawe that they were no where, we came to Samuel. ¹⁵And Sauls vnckle saide, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said vnto you. ¹⁶Then Saul saide to his vnckle, He tolde vs plainely that the asses were founde: but concerning the kingdome whereof Samuel spake, tolde he him not. ¹⁷And Samuel assembled the people vnto the Lord in Mizpeh, ¹⁸And he saide vnto the children of Israel, Thus saith ye Lord God of Israel, I haue brought Israel out of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the handes of all kingdomes that troubled you. ¹⁹But ye haue this day cast away your God, who onely deliuereth you out of all your aduersities and tribulations: and ye said vnto him, No, but appoint a King ouer vs. Nowe therefore stand ye before the Lord according to your tribes, and according to your thousands. ²⁰And when Samuel had gathered together all the tribes of Israel, the tribe of Benjamin was taken. ²¹Afterwarde he assembled the tribe of Benjamin according to their families, and the familie of Matri was taken. So Saul the sonne of Kish was taken, and when they sought him, he coulde not be found. ²²Therefore they asked the Lord againe, if that man should yet come thither. And the Lord answered, Beholde, he hath hid himselfe among the stuffe. ²³And they ranne, and brought him thence: and when he stode among the people, he was hier then any of the people from the shoulders vpwarde. ²⁴And Samuel saide to all the people, See ye not him, whom the Lord hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? and all the people shouted and saide, God saue the King. ²⁵Then Samuel tolde the people the duetie of the kingdome, and wrote it in a booke, and laied it vp before the Lord, and Samuel sent all the people away euery man to his house. ²⁶Saul also went home to Gibeah, and there followed him a bande of men, whose heart God had touched, ²⁷But the wicked men saide, Howe shall hee saue vs? So they despised him, and brought him no presents: but he held his tongue.

¹Then Nahash the Ammonite came vp, and besieged Iabesh Gilead: and all the men of Iabesh saide vnto Nahash, Make a couenant with vs, and we will be thy seruants. ²And Nahash ye Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a couenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eies, and bring that shame vpon all Israel. ³To whome the Elders of Iabesh said, Giue vs seuen daies respet, that we may sende messengers vnto all the coastes of Israel: and then if no man deliuer vs, we will come out to thee. ⁴Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and tolde these tidings in the eares of the people: and all the people lift vp their voices and wept. ⁵And behold, Saul came following the cattell out of the fiede, and Saul saide, What aileth this people, that they weepe? And they tolde him the tidings of the men of Iabesh. ⁶Then the Spirit of God came vpon Saul, when he heard those tidings, and he was exceeding angrie, ⁷And tooke a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coastes of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoeuer commeth not foorth after Saul, and after Samuel, so shall his oxen be serued. And the feare of the Lord fell on the people, and they came out with one consent. ⁸And when he nombred them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundreth thousande men: and the men of Iudah thirtie thousand. ⁹Then they saide vnto the messengers that came, So say vnto the men of Iabesh Gilead, To morowe by then the sunne be hote, ye shall haue helpe. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Iabesh, which were glad. ¹⁰Therefore the men of Iabesh sayde, To morowe we will come out vnto you, and yee shall doe with vs all that pleaseth you. ¹¹And when the morowe was come, Saul put the people in three bandes, and they came in vpon the hoste in the morning watche, and slewe the Ammonites vntill the heate of the day: and they that remained, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together. ¹²Then the people said vnto Samuel, Who is he that saide, Shall Saul reigne ouer vs? bring those men that we may slaie them. ¹³But Saul said, There shall no man die this day: for to day the Lord hath saued Israel. ¹⁴Then saide Samuel vnto ye people, Come, that we may goe to Gilgal, and renue the kingdome there. ¹⁵So all the people went to Gilgal, and made Saul King there before the Lord in Gilgal: and there they offered peace offerings before the Lord: and there Saul and all the men of Israel reioyced exceedingly.

¹Samuel then said vnto all Israel, Behold, I haue hearkened vnto your voyce in all that yee sayde vnto mee, and haue appoynted a King ouer you. ²Now therefore behold, your King walketh before you, and I am old and graie headed, and beholde, my sonnes are with you: and I haue walked before you from my childehood vnto this day. ³Beholde, here I am: beare recorde of me before the Lord and before his Anointed. Whose oxen haue I taken? or whose asse haue I taken? or whome haue I done wrong to? or whome haue I hurt? or of whose hande haue I receiued any bribe, to blinde mine eyes therewith, and I will restore it you? ⁴Then they sayde, Thou hast done vs no wrong, nor hast hurt vs, neither hast thou taken ought of any mans hand. ⁵And he saide vnto them, The Lord is witnesse against you, and his Anointed is witnesse this day, that yee haue founde nought in mine handes. And they answered, He is witnesse. ⁶Then Samuel sayde vnto the people, It is the Lord that made Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt. ⁷Nowe therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the Lord according to all the righteousnesse of the Lord, which he shewed to you and to your fathers. ⁸After that Iacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried vnto the Lord, then the Lord sent Moses and Aaron which brought your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place. ⁹And when they forgate the Lord their God, he solde them into the hand of Sisera captaine of the hoste of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistims, and into the hande of the king of Moab, and they fought against them. ¹⁰And they cried vnto the Lord, and saide, We haue sinned, because we haue forsaken the Lord, and haue serued Baalim and Ashtaroth. Nowe therefore deliuer vs out of the handes of our enemies, and we will serue thee. ¹¹Therefore the Lord sent Ierubbaal and Bedan and Iphtaph, and Samuel, and deliuered you out of the handes of your enemies on euery side, and yee dwelled safe. ¹²Notwithstanding when you sawe, that Nahash the King of the children of Ammon came against you, ye sayde vnto me, No, but a King shall reigne ouer vs: when yet the Lord your God was your King. ¹³Nowe therefore beholde the King whome yee haue chosen, and whome yee haue desired: loe therefore, the Lord hath set a King ouer you. ¹⁴If ye wil feare the Lord and serue him, and heare his voyce, and not disobey the worde of the Lord, both yee, and the King that reigneth ouer you, shall follow the Lord your God. ¹⁵But if yee will not obey the voyce of the Lord, but disobey the Lordes mouth, then shall the hand of the Lord be vpon you, and on your fathers. ¹⁶Nowe also stande and see this great thing which the Lord will doe before your eyes. ¹⁷Is it not nowe wheat haruest? I wil call vnto the Lord, and he shall send thunder and raine, that yee may perceiue and see, howe that your wickednesse is great, which ye haue done in the sight of the Lord in asking you a King. ¹⁸Then Samuel called vnto the Lord, and the Lord sent thunder and raine the same day: and all the people feared the Lord and Samuel exceedingly. ¹⁹And all the people said vnto Samuel, Pray for thy seruaunts vnto the Lord thy God, that we die not: for we haue sinned in asking vs a King, beside all our other sinnes. ²⁰And Samuel said vnto the people, Feare not. (ye haue indeede done all this wickednesse, yet depart not from following the Lord, but serue the Lord with all your heart, ²¹Neither turne yee backe: for that shoulde be after vaine things which cannot profite you, nor deliuer you, for they are but vanitie) ²²For the Lord will not forsake his people for his great Names sake: because it hath pleased the Lord to make you his people. ²³Moreouer God forbid, that I should sinne against the Lord, and cease praying for you, but I will shewe you the good and right way. ²⁴Therefore feare you the Lord, and serue him in the trueth with all your hearts, and consider howe great things he hath done for you. ²⁵But if ye doe wickedly, ye shall perish, both yee, and your King.

¹Saul nowe had beene King one yeere, and he reigned two yeeres ouer Israel. ²Then Saul chose him three thousand of Israel: and two thousande were with Saul in Michmash, and in mount Beth-el, and a thousande were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent euery one to his tent. ³And Jonathan smote the garison of the Philistims, that was in the hill: and it came to the Philistims eares: and Saul blewe the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Heare, O yee Ebrewes. ⁴And al Israel heard say, Saul hath destroyed a garison of the Philistims: wherefore Israel was had in abomination with the Philistims: and the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal. ⁵The Philistims also gathered themselues together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand charets, and sixe thousande horsemen: for the people was like the sand which is by the seas side in multitude, and came vp, and pitched in Michmash Eastward from Beth-auen. ⁶And when the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were in distresse) the people hid themselues in caues, and in holdes, and in rockes, and in towres, and in pittes. ⁷And some of the Ebrewes went ouer Iorden vnto the lande of Gad and Gilead: and Saul was yet in Gilgal, and al the people for feare followed him. ⁸And he taried seuen daies, according vnto the time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, therefore the people were scattered from him. ⁹And Saul sayde, Bring a burnt offering to me and peace offrings: and he offered a burnt offering. ¹⁰And assoone as hee had made an ende of offering the burnt offering, beholde, Samuel came: and Saul went foorth to meete him, to salute him. ¹¹And Samuel saide, What hast thou done? Then Saul saide, Because I sawe that the people was scatted from me, and that thou camest not within the daies appoynted, and that the Philistims gathered themselues together to Michmash, ¹²Therefore said I, The Philistims will come downe nowe vpon me to Gilgal, and I haue not made supplication vnto the Lord. I was bolde therefore and offred a burnt offring. ¹³And Samuel saide to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandement of the Lord thy God, which he commanded thee: for the Lord had nowe stablished thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer. ¹⁴But nowe thy kingdom shall not continue: the Lord hath sought him a man after his owne heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be gouernour ouer his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord had commanded thee. ¹⁵And Samuel arose, and gate him vp from Gilgal in Gibeah of Benjamin: and Saul nombred the people that were found with him, about sixe hundreth men. ¹⁶And Saul and Ionathan his sonne, and the people that were found with them, had their abiding in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistims pitched in Michmash. ¹⁷And there came out of the hoste of the Philistims three bandes to destroye, one bande turned vnto the way of Ophrah vnto the lande of Shual, ¹⁸And another bad turned toward the way to Beth-horon, and the third band turned toward the way of the coast that looketh toward the valley of Zeboim, towarde the wilderness. ¹⁹Then there was no smith founde throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistims sayde, Lest the Ebrewes make them swordes or speares. ²⁰Wherefore all ye Israelites went downe to the Philistims, to sharpen euery man his share, his mattocke, and his axe, and his weeding hooke. ²¹Yet they had a file for the shares, and for the mattockes, and for the picke forkes, and for the axes, and for to sharpen the goades. ²²So whe the day of battell was come, there was neither sworde nor speare founde in the handes of any of the people that were with Saul and with Ionathan: but onely with Saul and Ionathan his sonne was there founde. ²³And the garison of the Philistims came out to the passage of Michmash.

¹Then on a day Ionathan the sonne of Saul sayde vnto the yong man that bare his armour, Come and let vs goe ouer towarde the Philistims garison, that is yonder on the other side, but he tolde not his father. ²And Saul taried in the border of Gibeah vnder a pomegranate tree, which was in Migron, and the people that were with him, were about sixe hundreth men. ³And Ahiah the sonne of Ahitub, Ichabods brother, the sonne of Phinehas, the sonne of Eli, was the Lordes Priest in Shiloh, and ware an Ephod: and the people knewe not that Ionathan was gone. ⁴Nowe in the way whereby Ionathan sought to go ouer to the Philistims garison, there was a sharpe rocke on the one side, and a sharpe rocke on the other side: the name of the one was called Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. ⁵The one rocke stretched from the North towarde Michmash, and the other was from the South toward Gibeah. ⁶And Ionathan saide to the yong man that bare his armour, Come, and let vs goe ouer vnto the garison of these vncircumcised: it may be that the Lord will worke with vs: for it is not hard to the Lord to saue with many, or with fewe. ⁷And he that bare his armour, saide vnto him, Doe all that is in thine heart: goe where it pleaseth thee: beholde, I am with thee as thine heart desireth. ⁸Then said Ionathan, Beholde, we goe ouer vnto those men, and will shewe our selues vnto them. ⁹If they say on this wise to vs, Tarie vntill we come to you, then we will stand still in our place, and not goe vp to them. ¹⁰But if they say, Come vp vnto vs, then we will goe vp: for the Lord hath deliuered them into our hande: and this shall be a signe vnto vs. ¹¹So they both shewed themselues vnto the garison of the Philistims: and the Philistims said, See, the Ebrewes come out of the holes wherein they had hid themselues. ¹²And the men of the garison answered Jonathan, and his armour bearer, and said, Come vp to vs: for we will shewe you a thing. Then Jonathan said vnto his armour bearer, Come vp after me: for the Lord hath deliuered them into the hand of Israel. ¹³So Jonathan went vp vpon his hands and vpon his feete, and his armour bearer after him: and some fell before Jonathan, and his armour bearer slewe others after him. ¹⁴So the first slaughter which Jonathan and his armour bearer made, was about twentie men, as it were within halfe an acre of land which two oxen plowe. ¹⁵And there was a feare in the hoste, and in the field, and among all the people: the garison also, and they that went out to spoyle, were afraid themselues: and the earth trembled: for it was stricken with feare by God. ¹⁶Then the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Beniamin sawe: and beholde, the multitude was discomfited, and smitten as they went. ¹⁷Therefore saide Saul vnto the people that were with him, Search nowe and see, who is gone from vs. And when they had nombred, beholde, Jonathan and his armour bearer were not there. ¹⁸And Saul said vnto Ahiah, Bring hither the Arke of God (for the Arke of God was at that time with the children of Israel) ¹⁹And while Saul talked vnto the Priest, the noyse that was in the hoste of the Philistims, spred farther abroad, and encreased: therefore Saul said vnto the Priest, Withdraw thine hand. ²⁰And Saul was assembled with all the people that were with him, and they came to the battell: and behold, euery mans sworde was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture. ²¹Moreouer, the Ebrewes that were with the Philistims beforetime, and were come with them into all partes of the hoste, euen they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan. ²²Also all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard, that the Philistims were fled, they followed after them in the battell. ²³And so the Lord saued Israel that day: and the battell continued vnto Beth-auen. ²⁴And at that time the men of Israel were pressed with hunger: for Saul charged the people with an othe, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth foode till night, that I may be auenged of mine enemies: so none of the people tasted any sustenance. ²⁵And all they of the land came to a wood, where hony lay vpon the ground. ²⁶And the people came into the wood, and beholde, the hony dropped, and no man moued his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the othe. ²⁷But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the othe: wherefore he put forth the ende of the rod that was in his hand, and dipt it in an hony combe, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes receiued sight. ²⁸Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father made the people to sweare, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth sustenance this day: and the people were faint. ²⁹Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see nowe howe mine eyes are made cleare, because I haue tasted a litle of this honie: ³⁰Howe much more, if the people had eaten to day of the spoyle of their enemies which they found? for had there not bene nowe a greater slaughter among the Philistims? ³¹And they smote the Philistims that day, from Michmash to Aiialon: and the people were exceeding faint. ³²So the people turned to the spoile, and tooke sheepe, and oxen, and calues, and slewe them on the ground, and the people did eate them with the blood. ³³Then men tolde Saul, saying, Beholde, the people sinne against the Lord, in that they eate with the blood. And he saide, Ye haue trespassed: roule a great stone vnto me this day. ³⁴Againe Saul said, Goe abroad among the people, and bid them bring me euery man his oxe, and euery man his sheepe, and slay them here, and eate and sinne not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And ye people brought euery man his oxe in his hand that night, and slew them there. ³⁵Then Saul made an altar vnto the Lord, and that was the first altar that he made vnto the Lord. ³⁶And Saul saide, Let vs goe downe after the Philistims by night, and spoyle them vntill the morning shine, and let vs not leaue a man of them. And they saide, Doe whatsoeuer thou thinkest best. Then saide the Priest, Let vs drawe neere hither vnto God. ³⁷So Saul asked of God, saying, Shall I goe downe after ye Philistims? wilt thou deliuer them into the hands of Israel? But he answered him not at that time. ³⁸And Saul said, All ye chiefe of the people, come ye hither, and knowe, and see by whom this sinne is done this day. ³⁹For as the Lord liueth, which saueth Israel, though it be done by Ionathan my sonne, he shall dye the death. But none of all the people answered him. ⁴⁰Then he saide vnto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Ionathan my sonne will be on the other side. And the people saide vnto Saul, Doe what thou thinkest best. ⁴¹Then Saul said vnto the Lord God of Israel, Giue a perfite lot. And Ionathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped. ⁴²And Saul saide, Cast lot betweene me and Ionathan my sonne. And Ionathan was taken. ⁴³Then Saul said to Ionathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Ionathan tolde him, and said, I tasted a litle hony with the ende of the rod, that was in mine hand, and loe, I must die. ⁴⁴Againe Saul answered, God doe so and more also, vnlesse thou die the death, Ionathan. ⁴⁵And the people said vnto Saul, Shall Ionathan die, who hath so mightily deliuered Israel? God forbid. As the Lord liueth, there shall not one heare of his head fall to the ground: for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people deliuered Ionathan that he dyed not. ⁴⁶Then Saul came vp from the Philistims: and the Philistims went to their owne place. ⁴⁷So Saul helde the kingdome ouer Israel, and fought against all his enemies on euery side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the Kings of Zobah, and against the Philistims: and whithersoever he went, he handled them as wicked men. ⁴⁸He gathered also an hoste and smote Amalek, and deliuered Israel out of the handes of them that spoyled them. ⁴⁹Nowe the sonnes of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Malchishua: and the names of his two daughters, the elder was called Merab, and the yonger was named Michal. ⁵⁰And the name of Sauls wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of his chiefe captaine was Abner the sonne of Ner, Sauls vncler. ⁵¹And Kish was Sauls father: and Ner the father of Abner was the sonne of Abiel. ⁵²And there was sore warre against the Philistims all the dayes of Saul: and whomsoever Saul sawe to be a strong man, and meete for the warre, he tooke him vnto him.

¹Afterward Samuel said vnto Saul, The Lord sent me to anoint thee King ouer his people, ouer Israel: nowe therefore obey the voyce of the wordes of the Lord. ²Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I remember what Amalek did to Israel, howe they laide waite for the in ye way, as they came vp from Egypt. ³Nowe therefore goe, and sinite Amalek, and destroy ye all that pertaineth vnto them, and haue no compassion on them, but slay both man and woman, both infant and suckling, both oxen, and sheepe, both camell, and asse. ⁴And Saul assembled ye people, and nombred them in Telaim, two hundred thousande footemen, and ten thousand men of Iudah. ⁵And Saul came to a citie of Amalek, and set watch at the riuer. ⁶And Saul said vnto the Kenites, Goe, depart, and get you downe from among the Amalekites, least I destroy you with them: for ye shewed mercie to all the children of Israel, when they came vp from Egypt: and the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. ⁷So Saul smote the Amalekites from Hailah as thou comest to Shur, that is before Egypt, ⁸And tooke Agag the King of the Amalekites aliue, and destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. ⁹But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the better sheepe, and the oxen, and the fat beasts, and the lambes, and all that was good, and they would not destroy them: but euery thing that was vile and nought worth, that they destroyed. ¹⁰Then came the worde of the Lord vnto Samuel, saying, ¹¹It repenteth me that I haue made Saul King: for he is turned from me, and hath not performed my commandements. And Samuel was mooued, and cryed vnto the Lord all night. ¹²And when Samuel arose early to meete Saul in the morning, one tolde Samuel, saying, Saul is gone to Carmel: and beholde, he hath made him there a place, from whence he returned, and departed, and is gone downe to Gilgal. ¹³Then Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said vnto him. Blessed be thou of the Lord, I haue fulfilled the commandement of the Lord. ¹⁴But Samuel saide, What meaneth then the bleating of the sheepe in mine eares, and the lowing of the oxen which I heare? ¹⁵And Saul answered, They haue brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheepe, and of the oxen to sacrifice them vnto the Lord thy God, and the remnant haue we destroyed. ¹⁶Againe Samuel saide to Saul, Let me tell thee what the Lord hath saide to me this night. And he said vnto him, Say on. ¹⁷Then Samuel saide, When thou wast litle in thine owne sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel? for the Lord anointed thee King ouer Israel. ¹⁸And the Lord sent thee on a iourney, and saide, Goe, and destroy those sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them, vntill thou destroy them. ¹⁹Nowe wherefore hast thou not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, but hast turned to the pray, and hast done wickedly in the sight of the Lord? ²⁰And Saul saide vnto Samuel, Yea, I haue obeyed the voyce of the Lord, and haue gone the way which the Lord sent me, and haue brought Agag the King of Amalek, and haue destroyed the Amalekites. ²¹But the people tooke of the spoyle, sheepe, and oxen, and the chieftest of the things which shoulde haue bene destroyed, to offer vnto the Lord thy God in Gilgal. ²²And Samuel saide, Hath the Lord as great pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as when the voyce of the Lord is obeyed? beholde, to obey is better then sacrifice, and to hearken is better then the fatte of rammes. ²³For rebellion is as the sinne of withcraft, and transgression is wickednesse and idolatrie. Because thou hast cast away the worde of the Lord, therefore hee hath cast away thee from being King. ²⁴Then Saul sayde vnto Samuel, I haue sinned: for I haue transgressed the commandement of the Lord, and thy wordes, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voyce. ²⁵Nowe therefore I pray thee, take away my sinne, and turne againe with mee, that I may worship the Lord. ²⁶But Samuel saide vnto Saul, I will not returne with thee: for thou hast cast away the word of the Lord, and the Lord hath cast away thee, that thou shalt not be King ouer Israel. ²⁷And as Samuel turned himselfe to goe away, he caught the lappe of his coate, and it rent. ²⁸Then Samuel saide vnto him, The Lord hath rent the kingdome of Israel from thee this day, and hath giuen it to thy neighbour, that is better then thou. ²⁹For in deede the strength of Israel will not lye nor repent: for hee is not a man that hee should repent. ³⁰Then he saide, I haue sinned: but honour mee, I pray thee, before the Elders of my people, and before Israel, and turne againe with mee, that I may worship the Lord thy God. ³¹So Samuel turned againe, and followed Saul: and Saul worshipped the Lord. ³²Then saide Samuel, Bring yee hither to me Agag ye King of the Amalekites: and Agag came vnto him pleasantly, and Agag saide, Truly the bitternesse of death is passed. ³³And Samuel sayde, As thy sworde hath made women childlesse, so shall thy mother bee childelesse among other women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal. ³⁴So Samuel departed to Ramah, and Saul went vp to his house to Gibeah of Saul. ³⁵And Samuel came no more to see Saul vntill the day of his death: but Samuel mourned for Saul, and the Lord repented that hee made Saul King ouer Israel.

¹The Lord then saide vnto Samuel, Howe long wilt thou mourne for Saul, seeing I haue cast him away from reigning ouer Israel? fill thine horne with oyle and come, I will sende thee to Ishai the Bethlehemite: for I haue prouided mee a King among his sonnes. ²And Samuel sayde, Howe can I goe? for if Saul shall heare it, he will kill me. Then the Lord answered, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to doe sacrifice to the Lord. ³And call Ishai to the sacrifice, and I will shewe thee what thou shalt doe, and thou shalt anoynt vnto me him whom I name vnto thee. ⁴So Samuel did that the Lord bade him, and came to Beth-lehem, and the Elders of the towne were astonied at his comming, and sayd, Comdest thou peaceablie? ⁵And he answered, Yea: I am come to doe sacrifice vnto the Lord: sanctifie your selues, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Ishai and his sonnes, and called them to the sacrifice. ⁶And when they were come, hee looked on Eliab, and saide, Surely the Lordes Anointed is before him. ⁷But the Lord said vnto Samuel, Looke not on his countenance, nor on the height of his stature, because I haue refused him: for God seeth not as man seeth: for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord beholdeth the heart. ⁸Then Ishai called Abinadab, and made him come before Samuel. And he saide, Neither hath the Lord chosen this. ⁹Then Ishai made Shammah come. And he said, Neither yet hath the Lord chosen him. ¹⁰Againe Ishai made his seue sonnes to come before Samuel: and Samuel saide vnto Ishai, The Lord hath chosen none of these. ¹¹Finally, Samuel said vnto Ishai, Are there no more children but these? And hee sayde, There remaineth yet a litle one behinde, that keepeth the sheepe. Then Samuel saide vnto Ishai, Sende and set him: for we will not sit downe, till he be come hither. ¹²And he sent, and brought him in: and he was ruddie, and of a good countenance, and comely visage. And the Lord saide, Arise, and anoynt him: for this is he.

¹³Then Samuel tooke the horne of oyle, and anoynted him in the middes of his brethren. And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon Dauid, from that day forward: then Samuel rose vp, and went to Ramah. ¹⁴But the Spirite of the Lord departed from Saul, and an euill spirite sent of the Lord vexed him. ¹⁵And Sauls seruants said vnto him, Beholde now, the euill spirite of God vexeth thee. ¹⁶Let our Lord therefore command thy seruants, that are before thee, to seeke a man that is a cunning plaier vpon the harpe: that when the euil spirit of God commeth vpon thee, hee may play with his hand, and thou maiest be eased.

¹⁷Saul then saide vnto his seruantes, Prouide me a man, I pray you, that can play well, and bring him to me. ¹⁸Then answered one of his seruantes, and sayde, Beholde, I haue seene a sonne of Ishai, a Bethlehemite, that can plaie, and is strong, valiant and a man of warre and wise in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him. ¹⁹Wherefore

Saul sent messengers vnto Ishai, and said, Send me Dauid thy sonne which is with the sheepe.

²⁰And Ishai tooke an asse laden with breade and a flagon of wine and a kidde, and sent them by the hand of Dauid his sonne vnto Saul. ²¹And Dauid came to Saul, and stode before him: and he loued him verie well, and he was his armour bearer. ²²And Saul sent to Ishai, saying, Let Dauid now remaine with me: for he hath found fauour in my sight. ²³And so when the euil spirite of God came vpon Saul, Dauid tooke an harpe and plaied with his hande, and Saul was refreshed, and was eased: for the euill spirit departed from him.

¹Nowe the Philistims gathered their armies to battell, and came together to Shochoh, which is in Iudah, and pitched betweene Shochoh and Azekah, in the coast of Dammim. ²And Saul, and the men of Israel assembled, and pitched in the valley of Elah, and put themselues in battell araie to meete the Philistims. ³And the Philistims stode on a mountaine on the one side, and Israel stode on a mountaine on the other side: so a valley was betweene them. ⁴Then came a man betweene them both out of the tents of the Philistims, named Goliath of Gath: his height was sixe cubites and an hande breadth, ⁵Aud had an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and a brigandine vpon him: and the weight of his brigandine was fife thousand shekels of brasse. ⁶And he had bootes of brasse vpon his legs, and a shield of brasse vpon his shoulders. ⁷And the shaft of his speare was like a weauers beame: and his speare head weyed sixe hundreth shekels of yron: and one bearing a shielde went before him. ⁸And he stode, and cried against the hoste of Israel, and saide vnto them, Why are yee come to set your battell in aray? am not I a Philistim, and you seruaunts to Saul? chuse you a man for you, and let him come downe to me. ⁹If he be able to fight with me, and kill me, then wil we be your seruants: but if I ouercome him, and kill him, then shall yee be our seruants, and serue vs. ¹⁰Also the

Philistim saide, I defie the hoste of Israel this day: giue mee a man, that we may fight together. ¹¹When Saul and all Israel heard those wordes of the Philistim, they were discouraged, and greatly afraide. ¹²Nowe this Dauid was the sonne of an Ephrathite of Beth-lehem Iudah, named Ishai, which had eight sonnes: and this man was taken for an olde man in the daies of Saul. ¹³And the three eldest sonnes of Ishai went and followed Saul to the battell: and the names of his three sonnes that went to battell, were Eliab the Eldest, and the next Abinadab, and the thirde Shammah. ¹⁴So Dauid was the least: and the three eldest went after Saul. ¹⁵Dauid also went, but hee returned from Saul to feede his fathers sheepe in Beth-lehem. ¹⁶And the Philistim drew neere in the morning, and euening, and continued fourtie daies. ¹⁷And Ishai said vnto Dauid his sone, Take nowe for thy brethren an Ephah of this parched corne, and these ten cakes, and runne to the hoste to thy brethren. ¹⁸Also carie these ten fresh cheeses vnto the captaine, and looke howe thy brethren fare, and receiue their pledge. ¹⁹(Then Saul and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistims) ²⁰So Dauid rose vp earely in the morning, and left the sheepe with a keeper, and tooke and went as Ishai had commanded him, and came within the compasse of the hoste: and the hoste went out in araie, and shouted in the battell. ²¹For Israel and the Philistims had put themselues in araie, armie against armie. ²²And Dauid left the things, which hee bare, vnder the handes of the keeper of the cariage, and ranne into the hoste, and came, and asked his brethren howe they did. ²³And as hee talked with them, beholde, the man that was betweene the two armies, came vp, (whose name was Goliath ye Philistim of Gath) out of the armie of the Philistims, and spake such woordes, and Dauid heard them. ²⁴And all the men of Israel, when they sawe the man, ranne away from him, and were sore afraied. ²⁵For euery man of Israel saide, Sawe yee not this man that commeth vp? euen to reuile Israel is he come vp: and to him that killeth him, wil the king giue great riches, and will giue him his daughter, yea, and make his fathers house free in Israel. ²⁶Then Dauid spake to the men that stoode with him, and sayde, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistim, and taketh away the shame from Israel? for who is this vncircumcised Philistim, that he shoulde reuile the hoste of the liuing God? ²⁷And the people answered him after this maner, saying, Thus shall it be done to the man that killeth him. ²⁸And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake vnto the men, and Eliab was verie angrie with Dauid, and sayde, Why camest thou downe hither? and with whome hast thou left those fewe sheepe in the wilderness? I knowe thy pride and the malice of thine heart, that thou art come downe to see the battell. ²⁹Then Dauid sayde, What haue I nowe done? Is there not a cause? ³⁰And hee departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same maner, and the people answered him according to the former woordes. ³¹And they that heard the wordes which Dauid spake, rehearsed them before Saul, which caused him to be brought. ³²So Dauid saide to Saul, Let no mans heart faile him, because of him: thy seruant wil goe, and fight with this Philistim. ³³And Saul sayde to Dauid, Thou art not able to goe against this Philistim to fight with him: for thou art a boye, and he is a man of warre from his youth. ³⁴And Dauid answered vnto Saul, Thy seruant kept his fathers sheepe, and there came a lyon, and likewise a beare, and tooke a sheepe out of the flocke, ³⁵And I went out after him and smote him, and tooke it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by the beard, and smote him, and slue him. ³⁶So thy seruant slue both the lyon, and the beare: therefore this vncircumcised Philistim shall be as one of them, seeing hee hath railed on the hoste of the liuing God. ³⁷Moreouer Dauid sayd, The Lord that deliuered me out of the pawe of the lyon, and out of the paw of the beare, he wil deliuer me out of the hand of this Philistim. Then Saul sayd vnto Dauid, Go, and the Lord be with thee. ³⁸And Saul put his rayment vpon Dauid, and put an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and put a brigandine vpon him. ³⁹Then girded Dauid his sword vpon his rayment, and began to go: for he neuer proued it: and Dauid sayde vnto Saul, I can not goe with these: for I am not accustomed. wherefore Dauid put them off him. ⁴⁰Then tooke he his staffe in his hand, and chose him fīue smoothe stones out of a brooke, and put them in his shepherds bagge or skrippe, and his sling was in his hand, and he drewe neere to the Philistim. ⁴¹And the Philistim came and drew neere vnto Dauid, and the man that bare the shielde went before him. ⁴²Now when the Philistim looked about and saw Dauid, he disdeined him: for he was but yong, ruddie, and of a comely face. ⁴³And the Philistim sayde vnto Dauid, Am I a dog, that thou commest to me with staues? And the Philistim cursed Dauid by his gods. ⁴⁴And the Philistim sayd to Dauid, Come to me, and I will giue thy flesh vnto the foules of the heauen, and to the beastes of the field. ⁴⁵Then sayd Dauid to the Philistim, Thou comdest to me with a sword, and with a speare, and with a shield, but I come to thee in the Name of the Lord of hostes, the God of the hoste of Israel, whom thou hast rayled vpon. ⁴⁶This day shall the Lord close thee in mine hand, and I shall smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and I wil giue the carkeises of the hoste of the Philistims this daye vnto the foules of the heauen, and to the beastes of the earth, that all the world may know that Israel hath a God, ⁴⁷And that all this assembly may know, that the Lord saueth not with sworde nor with speare (for the battel is the Lords) and he will giue you into our handes. ⁴⁸And when the Philistim arose to come and drawe neere vnto Dauid, Dauid hasted and ran to fight against the Philistim. ⁴⁹And Dauid put his hande in his bagge, and tooke out a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistim in his forehead, that the stone sticked in his forehead, and he fell groueling to the earth. ⁵⁰So Dauid ouercame the Philistim with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistim, and slew him, when Dauid had no sword in his hand. ⁵¹Then Dauid ranne, and stood vpon the Philistim, and tooke his sword and drew it out of his sheath, and slewe him, and cut off his head therewith. So whe the Philistims saw, that their champion was dead, they fled. ⁵²And the men of Israel and Iudah arose, and shouted, and followed after the Philistims, vntill they came to the valley, and vnto the gates of Ekron: and the Philistims fell downe wounded by the way of Shaaraim, euen to Gath and to Ekron. ⁵³And the children of Israel returned from pursuing the Philistims, and spoyled their tents. ⁵⁴And Dauid tooke the head of ye Philistim, and brought it to Ierusalem, and put his armour in his tent. ⁵⁵When Saul sawe Dauid go forth against the Philistim, he sayd vnto Abner the captaine of his hoste, Abner, whose sonne is this yong man? and Abner answered, As thy soule liueth, O King, I can not tell. ⁵⁶Then the King sayde, Enquire thou whose sonne this yong man is. ⁵⁷And when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Philistim, then Abner tooke him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistim in his hand. ⁵⁸And Saul sayde to him, Whose sonne art thou, thou yong man? And Dauid answered, I am the sonne of thy seruant Ishai the Bethlehemite.

¹And when he had made an ende of speaking vnto Saul, the soule of Ionathan was knit with the soule of Dauid, and Ionathan loued him, as his owne soule. ²And Saul tooke him that day, and woulde not let him returne to his fathers house. ³Then Ionathan and Dauid made a couenant: for he loued him as his owne soule. ⁴And Ionathan put off the robe that was vpon him, and gaue it Dauid, and his garments, euen to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle. ⁵And Dauid went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaued himselfe wisely: so that Saul set him ouer the men of warre, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Sauls seruants. ⁶When they came againe, and Dauid returned from the slaughter of the Philistim, the women came out of all cities of Israel singing and dauncing to meete king Saul, with timbrels, with instruments of ioy, and with rebeckes. ⁷And the women sang by course in their play, and sayd, Saul hath slayne his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousand. ⁸Therefore Saul was exceeding wroth, and the saying displeased him, and he sayde, They haue ascribed vnto Dauid ten thousand, and to me they haue ascribed but a thousand, and what can he haue more saue the kingdome? ⁹Wherefore Saul had an eye on Dauid from that day forward. ¹⁰And on the morowe, the euill spirite of God came vpon Saul, and he prophecied in the middes of the house: and Dauid played with his hand like as at other times, and there was a speare in Sauls hand. ¹¹And Saul tooke the speare, and sayd, I will smite Dauid through to the wall. But Dauid auoyded twise out of his presence. ¹²And Saul was afrayd of Dauid, because the Lord was with him, and was departed from Saul. ¹³Therefore Saul put him from him, and made him a captaine ouer a thousand, and he went out and in before the people. ¹⁴And Dauid behaued himselfe wisely in all his wayes: for the Lord was with him. ¹⁵Wherefore when Saul saw that he was very wise, he was afrayde of him. ¹⁶For all Israel and Iudah loued Dauid, because he went out and in before them. ¹⁷Then Saul sayd to Dauid, Beholde mine eldest daughter Merab, her I will giue thee to wife: onely be a valiant sonne vnto me, and fight the Lordes battels: for Saul thought, Mine hand shall not be vpon him, but the hand of the Philistims shalbe vpon him. ¹⁸And Dauid answered Saul, What am I? and what is my life, or the family of my father in Israel, that I should be sonne in law to the King? ¹⁹Howbeit when Merab Sauls daughter should haue bene giuen to Dauid, she was giuen vnto Adriel a Meholathite to wife. ²⁰Then Michal Sauls daughter loued Dauid: and they shewed Saul, and the thing pleased him. ²¹Therefore Saul said, I wil giue him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistims may bee against him. Wherefore Saul sayde to Dauid, Thou shalt this day be my sonne in law in the one of the twayne. ²²And Saul commanded his seruants, Speake with Dauid secretly, and say, Behold, ye King hath a fauour to thee, and all his seruants loue thee: be now therefore the Kings sonne in law. ²³And Sauls seruantes spake these wordes in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid sayd, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a Kings sonne in lawe, seeing that I am a poore man and of small reputation? ²⁴And then Sauls seruats brought him word againe, saying, Such wordes spake Dauid. ²⁵And Saul sayd, This wise shall ye say to Dauid, The King desireth no dowrie, but an hundred foreskinnes of the Philistims, to bee auenged of the Kings enemies: for Saul thought to make

Dauid fall into the handes of the Philistims. ²⁶And when his seruantes tolde Dauid these wordes, it pleased Dauid well, to be the Kings sonne in law: and the dayes were not expired. ²⁷Afterwarde Dauid arose with his men, and went and slewe of the Philistims two hundreth men: and Dauid brought their foreskinnes, and they gaue them wholly to the King that hee might be the Kings sonne in lawe: therefore Saul gaue him Michal his daughter to wife. ²⁸Then Saul sawe, and vnderstoode that the Lord was with Dauid, and that Michal the daughter of Saul loued him. ²⁹Then Saul was more and more afrayde of Dauid, and Saul became alway Dauids enemye. ³⁰And when the Princes of the Philistims went forth, at their going forth Dauid behaued himselfe more wisely then all the seruants of Saul, so that his name was much set by.

¹Then Saul spake to Jonathan his sonne, and to all his seruantes, that they shoulde kill Dauid: but

Jonathan Sauls sonne had a great fauour to Dauid. ²And Jonathan told Dauid, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slay thee: nowe therefore, I pray thee, take heede vnto thy selfe vnto the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thy selfe. ³And I will go out, and stand by my father in the field where thou art, and will commune with my father of thee, and I will see what he sayth, and will tell thee. ⁴And Jonathan spake good of Dauid vnto Saul his father, and said vnto him, Let not the King sinne against his seruant, against Dauid: for he hath not sinned against thee, but his works haue bene to thee very good. ⁵For he did put his life in daunger, and slew the Philistim, and the Lord wrought a great saluation for al Israel: thou sawest it, and thou reioycdst: wherefore then wilt thou sinne against innocent blood, and slay Dauid without a cause? ⁶Then Saul hearkened vnto the voyce of Jonathan, and Saul sware, As the Lord liueth, he shall not dye. ⁷So Jonathan called Dauid, and Jonathan shewed him all those words, and Jonathan brought Dauid to Saul, and hee was in his presence as in times past. ⁸Againe the warre began, and Dauid went out and fought with the Philistims, and slew them with a great slaughter, and they fled from him. ⁹And the euill spirit of the Lord was vpon Saul, as hee sate in his house hauing his speare in his hand, and Dauid played with his hand. ¹⁰And Saul intended to smite Dauid to the wall with the speare: but hee turned aside out of Sauls presence, and he smote the speare against the wall: but Dauid fled, and escaped the same night. ¹¹Saul also sent messengers vnto Dauids house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal Dauids wife told it him, saying, If thou saue not thy selfe this night, to morowe thou shalt be slayne. ¹²So Michal let Dauid downe through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped. ¹³Then Michal tooke an image, and layde it in the bed, and put a pillow stuffed with goates heare vnder the head of it, and couered it with a cloth. ¹⁴And when Saul sent messengers to take Dauid, she said, He is sicke. ¹⁵And Saul sent the messengers againe to see Dauid, saying, Bring him to me in the bed, that I may slay him. ¹⁶And when the messengers were come in, behold, an image was in the bed, with a pillow of goates heare vnder the head of it. ¹⁷And Saul said vnto Michal, Why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away mine enemie, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said vnto me, Let me go, or els I will kill thee. ¹⁸So Dauid fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth. ¹⁹But one tolde Saul, saying, Beholde, Dauid is at Naioth in Ramah. ²⁰And Saul sent messengers to take Dauid: and when they sawe a company of Prophets prophecying, and Samuel standing as appoynted ouer them, the Spirit of God fell vpon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophecied. ²¹And when it was tolde Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophecied likewise: againe Saul sent the third messengers, and they prophecied also. ²²Then went he himselfe to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu, and he asked, and sayd, Where are Samuel and Daid? and one sayd, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah. ²³And he went thither, euen to Naioth in Ramah, and the Spirit of God came vpon him also, and he went prophecyng vntill hee came to Naioth in Ramah. ²⁴And he stript off his clothes, and he prophesied also before Samuel, and fell downe naked all that day and all that night: therefore they say, Is Saul also among the Prophets?

¹And Daid fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and sayd before Jonathan, What haue I done? what is mine iniquitie? and what sinne haue I committed before thy father, that he seeketh my life? ²And he sayde vnto him, God forbid, thou shalt not die: beholde, my father will do nothing great nor small, but he will shewe it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? he will not doe it. ³And Daid sware againe and sayd, Thy father knoweth that I haue found grace in thine eyes: therefore he thinketh, Jonathan shall not knowe it, lest he be sorie: but in deede, as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, there is but a step betweene me and death. ⁴Then said Jonathan vnto Daid, Whatsoeuer thy soule requireth, that I wil do vnto thee. ⁵And Daid said vnto Jonathan, Behold, to morowe is the first day of the moneth, and I shoulde sit with the King at meate: but let me goe, that I may hide my selfe in the fieldes vnto the third day at euen. ⁶If thy father make mention of me, then say, Daid asked leaue of me, that he might goe to Beth-lehem to his owne citie: for there is a yeerely sacrifice for all that familie. ⁷And if he say thus, It is well, thy seruant shall haue peace: but if he be angrie, be sure that wickednesse is concluded of him. ⁸So shalt thou shew mercy vnto thy seruant: for thou hast ioyned thy seruant into a couenant of the Lord with thee, and if there be in me iniquitie, slay thou me: for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father? ⁹And

Jonathan answered, God keepe that from thee: for if I knewe that wickednesse were concluded of my father to come vpon thee, would not I tell it thee? ¹⁰Then said Dauid to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? how shall I knowe, if thy father answeere thee cruelly? ¹¹And Jonathan sayde to Dauid, Come and let vs goe out into the field: and they twaine went out into the field. ¹²Then Jonathan sayde to Dauid, O Lord God of Israel, when I haue groped my fathers minde to morow at this time, or within this three dayes, and if it be well with Dauid, and I then send not vnto thee, and shewe it thee, ¹³The Lord doe so and much more vnto Jonathan: but if my father haue minde to doe thee euill, I will shew thee also, and sende thee away, that thou mayest goe in peace: and the Lord be with thee as he hath bene with my father. ¹⁴Likewise I require not whiles I liue: for I dout not but thou wilt shew me the mercy of the Lord, that I die not. ¹⁵But I require that thou cut not off thy mercie from mine house for euer: no, not when the Lord hath destroyed the enemies of Dauid, euery one from the earth. ¹⁶So Jonathan made a bond with the house of Dauid, saying, Let the Lord require it at the hands of Dauids enemies. ¹⁷And againe Jonathan sware vnto Dauid, because he loued him (for he loued him as his owne soule) ¹⁸Then said Jonathan to him, To morowe is the first day of the moneth: and thou shalt be looked for, for thy place shalbe emptie. ¹⁹Therefore thou shalt hide thy selfe three dayes, then thou shalt goe downe quickly and come to the place where thou diddest hide thy selfe, when this matter was in hand, and shalt remayne by the stone Ezel. ²⁰And I will shoote three arrowes on the side thereof, as though I shot at a marke. ²¹And after I wil sende a boy, saying, Goe, seeke the arrowes. If I say vnto the boy, See, the arrowes are on this side thee, bring them, and come thou: for it is well with thee and no hurt, as the Lord liueth. ²²But if I say thus vnto the boy, Behold, the arrowes are beyonde thee, goe thy way: for the Lord hath sent thee away. ²³As touching the thing which thou and I haue spoken of, beholde, the Lord be betweene thee and me for euer. ²⁴So Dauid hid him selfe in the field: and when the first day of the moneth came, the King sate to eate meate. ²⁵And the King sate, as at other times vpon his seate, euen vpon his seate by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sate by Sauls side, but Dauids place was emptie. ²⁶And Saul sayde nothing that day: for hee thought, Some thing hath befallen him, though he were cleane, or els becaus he was not purified. ²⁷But on the morowe which was the second day of the moneth, Dauids place was emptie againe: and Saul sayde vnto Jonathan his sonne, Wherefore commeth not the sonne of Ishai to meate, neither yesterday nor to day? ²⁸And Jonathan answered vnto Saul, Dauid required of me, that he might goe to Beth-lehem. ²⁹For he sayde, Let me goe, I pray thee: for our familie offreth a sacrifice in the citie, and my brother hath sent for me: therfore now if I haue found fauour in thine eyes, let me goe, I pray thee, and see my brethren: this is the cause that he commeth not vnto the Kings table. ³⁰Then was Saul angrie with Jonathan, and sayde vnto him, Thou sonne of the wicked rebellious woman, doe not I know, that thou hast chosen the sonne of Ishai to thy confusion, and to the confusion and shame of thy mother? ³¹For as long as the sonne of Ishai liueth vpon the earth, thou shalt not be stablished, nor thy kingdome: wherefore now send and fet him vnto me, for he shall surely die. ³²And Jonathan answered vnto Saul his father, and said vnto him, Wherefore shall he die? what hath he done? ³³And Saul cast a speare at him to hit him, whereby Jonathan knew, that it was determined of his father to slay Dauid. ³⁴So Jonathan arose from the table in a great anger, and did eate no meate the seconde day of the moneth: for he was sorie for Dauid, and because his father had reuiled him. ³⁵On the next morning therefore Jonathan than went out into the fiede, at the time appoynted with Dauid, and a litle boy with him. ³⁶And he saide vnto his boy, Runne now, seeke the arrowes which I shoote, and as the boy ran, he shot an arrowe beyond him. ³⁷And when the boy was come to the place where the arrowe was that Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cryed after the boy, and sayde, Is not the arrowe beyond thee? ³⁸And Jonathan cryed after the boy, Make speede, haste and stand not still: and Ionathans boy gathered vp the arrowes, and came to his master, ³⁹But the boy knewe nothing: onely Jonathan and Dauid knew the matter. ⁴⁰Then Jonathan gaue his bowe and arrowes vnto the boy that was with him, and sayd vnto him, Goe, carrie them into the citie. ⁴¹Assoone as the boy was gone, Dauid arose out of a place that was towarde the South, and fel on his face to the ground, and bowed him selfe three times: and they kissed one another, and wept both twaine, till Dauid exceeded. ⁴²Therefore Jonathan said to Dauid, Goe in peace: that which we haue sworne both of vs in the Name of the Lord, saying, The Lord be betweene me and thee, and betweene my seede and betweene thy seede, let it stand for euer. (I Samuel :) And he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the citie.

¹Then came Dauid to Nob, to Ahimelech the Priest, and Ahimelech was astonied at the meeting of Dauid, and saide vnto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee? ²And Dauid saide to Ahimelech the Priest, The King hath commanded mee a certaine thing, and hath sayd vnto me, Let no man know whereabout I sende thee, and what I haue commanded thee: and I haue appointed my seruants to such and such places. ³Nowe therefore if thou hast ought vnder thine hande, giue me fīue cakes of bread, or what commeth to hand. ⁴And the Priest answered Dauid, and saide, There is no common bread vnder mine hande, but here is halowed bread, if the yong men haue kept themselues, at least from women. ⁵Dauid then answered the Priest, and sayde vnto him, Certainly women haue bene separatate from vs these two or three dayes since I came out: and the vessels of the yong men were holy, though the way were prophane, and how much more then shall euery one be sanctified this day in the vessell? ⁶So the Priest gaue him halowed bread: for there was no bread there, saue the shewe bread that was taken from before the Lord, to put hote bread there, the day that it was taken away. ⁷(And there was the same day one of the seruants of Saul abiding before the Lord, named Doeg the Edomite, the chieftest of Sauls heardmen) ⁸And Dauid said vnto Ahimelech, Is there not here vnder thine hand a speare or a sworde? for I haue neither brought my sworde nor mine harnesse with me, because the Kings businesse required haste. ⁹And the Priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistim, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapt in a cloth behinde the Ephod: if thou wilt take that to thee, take it: for there is none other saue that here: And Dauid sayd, There is none to that, giue it me. ¹⁰And Dauid arose and fled the same day from the presence of Saul, and went to Achish the King of Gath. ¹¹And the seruants of Achish said vnto him, Is not this Dauid the King of the land? did they not sing vnto him in daunces, saying, Saul hath slayne his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousande? ¹²And Dauid considered these wordes, and was sore afraide of Achish the King of Gath. ¹³And hee changed his behauiour before them, and fayned him selfe mad in their handes, and scrabled on the doores of the gate, and let his spettel fall downe vpon his beard. ¹⁴Then said Achish vnto his seruants, Lo, ye see the man is beside him selfe, wherefore haue ye brought him to me? ¹⁵Haue I neede of mad men, that ye haue brought this fellowe to play the mad man in my presence? shall he come into mine house?

¹Dauid therefore departed thence, and saued him selfe in the caue of Adullam: and when his brethren and all his fathers house heard it, they went downe thither to him. ²And there gathered vnto him all men that were in trouble and all men that were in dette, and all those that were vexed in minde, and he was their prince, and there were with him about foure safeguard men. ³And Dauid went thence to Mizpeh in Moab, and said vnto the King of Moab, I pray thee, let my father and my mother come and abide with you, till I knowe what God wil doe for me. ⁴And he brought them before the King of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the while that Dauid was in the holde. ⁵And the Prophet Gad sayde vnto Dauid, Abide not in the holde, but depart and goe into the land of Iudah. Then Dauid departed and came into the forest of Hareth. ⁶And Saul heard that Dauid was discouered, and the men that were with him, and Saul safeguar in Gibeah vnder a tree in Ramah, hauing his speare in his hande, and all his seruants stode about him. ⁷And Saul said vnto his seruants that stood about him, Heare now, ye sonnes of Iemini, wil the sonne of Ishai giue euery one of you fields and safeguard: will he make you all captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer safeguard566: ⁸That all ye haue conspired against me, and there is none that safegu mee that my sonne hath made a couenant with the sonne of Ishai? And there is none of you that is sory for me, or sheweth mee, that my sonne hath stirred vp my seruant to lie in wayte against me, as appeareth this day? ⁹Then answered Doeg the Edomite (who was safeguard ouer the seruants of Saul) and sayd, I saw the sonne of Ishai when he came to Nob, to Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitub, ¹⁰Who asked safegua of the Lord for him and gaue him vitales, and he gaue him also the sword of Goliath the Philistim. ¹¹Then the King sent to call Ahimelech the Priest the sonne of Ahitub, and all his fathers house, to wit, the Priests that were in Nob: and they came all to the King. ¹²And Saul said, Heare now thou sonne of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord. ¹³Then Saul sayde vnto him, Why haue yee conspired against me, thou and the sonne of Ishai, in that thou hast giuen him vitale, and a sworde, and hast asked safegua of God for him, that he should rise against me, and lye in wayte as appeareth this day?

¹⁴And Ahimelech answered the King, and sayde, Who is so faithfull among all thy seruants as Daud, being also the Kings sonne in lawe, and goeth at thy commandement, and is honourable in thine house?

¹⁵Haue I this day first begun to aske safegua of God for him? Be it farre from mee, let not the King impute any thing vnto his seruant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy seruant knew nothing of all this, lesse nor more. ¹⁶Then the King sayd, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy fathers house. ¹⁷And the King sayde vnto the safeguard that stode about him, Turne, and slay the Priestes of the Lord, because their hand also is with Daud, and because they knewe when he fled, and shewed it not vnto mee. But the seruantes of the King would not moue their hands to fall vpon the Priests of the Lord. ¹⁸Then the King sayde to Doeg, Turne thou and fall vpon the Priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ran vpon the Priestes, and slewe that same daye foure score and fiue persons that did weare a linen Ephod. ¹⁹Also Nob the cite of the Priestes smote he with the edge of the sword, both man and woman, both childe and suckling, both ox and asse, and sheepe with the edge of the sword. ²⁰But one of the sonnes of Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitub (whose name was Abiathar) escaped and fled after Daud. ²¹And Abiathar shewed Daud, that Saul had slayne the Lords Priestes. ²²And Daud sayd vnto Abiathar, I knewe it the same day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would tell Saul. I am the cause of the death of all the persons of thy fathers house. ²³Abide thou with me, and feare not: for he that seeketh my life, shall seeke thy life also: for with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

¹Then they tolde Daud, saying, Beholde, the Philistims fight against Keilah, and spoyle the barnes. ²Therefore Daud asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shal I goe and smite these Philistims? And the Lord answered Daud, Go and smite the Philistims, and saue Keilah. ³And Dauds men said vnto him, See, we be a frayde here in Iudah, howe much more if we come to Keilah against the hoste of ye Philistims? ⁴Then Dauid asked counsell of the Lord againe. And the Lord answered him, and sayd, Arise, go downe to Keilah: for I wil deliuer the Philistims into thine hand. ⁵So Dauid and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistims, and brought away their cattel, and smote them with a great slaughter: thus Dauid saued the inhabitants of Keilah. ⁶(And when Abiathar the sonne of Ahimelech fled to Dauid to Keilah, he brought an Ephod with him) ⁷And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was come to Keilah, and Saul sayd, God hath deliuered him into mine hand: for he is shut in, seeing he is come into a citie that hath gates and barres. ⁸Then Saul called all the people together to warre, for to go downe to Keilah, and to besiege Dauid and his men. ⁹And Dauid hauing knowledge that Saul imagined mischief against him, saide to Abiathar the Priest, Bring the Ephod. ¹⁰Then sayde Dauid, O

Lord God of Israel, thy seruāt hath heard, that Saul is about to come to Keilah to destroy the citie for my sake. ¹¹Wil the lordes of Keilah deliuer me vp into his hand? and will Saul come downe, as thy seruāt hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy seruāt. And the Lord sayde, He will come downe. ¹²Then said Dauid, Will the lords of Keilah deliuer me vp, and the men that are with me, into the hand of Saul? And the Lord sayde, They will deliuer thee vp. ¹³Then Dauid and his men, which were about sixe hundreth, arose, and departed out of Keilah, and went whither they coulde. And it was tolde Saul, that Dauid was fled from Keilah, and he left off his iourney. ¹⁴And Dauid abode in the wildernes in holdes, and remayned in a mountaine in the wildernes of Ziph. And Saul sought him euery day, but God deliuered him not into his hand. ¹⁵And Dauid sawe that Saul was come out for to seeke his life: and Dauid was in the wildernes of Ziph in the wood. ¹⁶And Ionathan Sauls sonne arose and went to Dauid into the wood, and comforted him in God, ¹⁷And said vnto him, Feare not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not finde thee, and thou shalt be King ouer Israel, and I shalbe next vnto thee: and also Saul my father knoweth it. ¹⁸So they twaine made a couenant before ye Lord: and Dauid did remaine in the wood: but Jonathan went to his house. ¹⁹Then came vp the Ziphims to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doeth not Dauid hide himselfe by vs in holdes, in the wood in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the right side of Ieshimon? ²⁰Nowe therefore, O King, come downe according to all that thine heart can desire, and our part shall be to deliuer him into the Kings handes. ²¹Then Saul said, Be ye blessed of the Lord: for ye haue had compassion on mee. ²²Goe, I pray you, and prepare ye yet better: know and see his place where he haunteth, and who hath seene him there: for it is sayd to me, He is subtile, and craftie. ²³See therefore and know all the secret places where he hideth himselfe, and come ye againe to me with the certaintie, and I will goe with you: and if he be in the lande, I will searche him out throughout all the thousands of Iudah. ²⁴Then they arose and went to Ziph before Saul, but Dauid and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the playne on the right hande of Ieshimon. ²⁵Saul also and his men went to seeke him, and they told Dauid: wherefore he came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he folowed after Dauid in the wildernes of Maon. ²⁶And Saul and his men went on the one side of the mountaine, and Dauid and his men on the other side of the mountaine: and Dauid made haste to get from the presence of Saul: for Saul and his men compassed Dauid and his men round about, to take them. ²⁷But there came a messenger to Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come: for the Philistims haue inuaded the land. ²⁸Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing Dauid, and went against the Philistims. Therefore they called that place, Sela-hammahlekoth. ²⁹And David went up from thence, and dwelt in the strongholds of En-gedi.

¹And Dauid went thence, and dwelt in holdes at En-gedi. ²When Saul was turned from ye Philistims, they told him, saying, Behold, Dauid is in the wildernes of En-gedi. ³Then Saul tooke three thousande chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seeke Dauid and his men vpon the rocks among the wilde goates. ⁴And hee came to the sheepecoates by the way where there was a caue, and Saul went in to do his easement: and Dauid and his men sate in the inward parts of the caue. ⁵And the men of Dauid said vnto him, See, the day is come, whereof the Lord sayde vnto thee, Beholde, I will deliuer thine enemy into thine hande, and thou shalt doe to him as it shall seeme good to thee. Then Dauid arose and cut off the lap of Sauls garment priuily. ⁶And afterward Dauid was touched in his heart, because he had cut off the lappe which was on Sauls garment. ⁷And he said vnto his men, The Lord keepe mee from doing that thing vnto my master the Lords Anoynted, to lay mine hand vpon him: for he is the Anoynted of the Lord. ⁸So Dauid ouercame his seruants with these words, and suffered them not to arise against Saul: so Saul rose vp out of the caue and went away. ⁹Dauid also arose afterward, and went out of the caue, and cryed after Saul, saying, O my lorde the King. And when Saul looked behinde him, Dauid inclined his face to the earth, and bowed himselfe. ¹⁰And Dauid saide to Saul, Wherefore giest thou an eare to mens words, that say, Behold, Dauid seeketh euill against thee? ¹¹Behold, this day thine eyes haue seene, that the Lord had deliuered thee this day into mine hand in the caue, and some bade me kill thee, but I had compassion on thee, and said, I will not lay mine hande on my master: for he is the Lordes Anoynted. ¹²Moreouer my father, behold: behold, I say, the lappe of thy garment in mine hand: for when I cut off the lappe of thy garment, I killed thee not. Vnderstad and see, that there is neither euil nor wickednesse in mee, neither haue I sinned against thee, yet thou huntest after my soule to take it. ¹³The Lord be iudge betweene thee and me, and the Lord auenge me of thee, and let not mine hand be vpon thee.

¹⁴According as the olde prouerbe sayeth, Wickednesse proceedeth from the wicked, but mine hand be not vpon thee. ¹⁵After whom is the King of Israel come out? after whome doest thou pursue? after a dead dog, and after a flea? ¹⁶The Lord therefore be iudge, and iudge betweene thee and me, and see, and pleade my cause, and deliuer me out of thine hand.

¹⁷Whe Dauid had made an end of speaking these words to Saul, Saul sayd, Is this thy voyce, my sonne Dauid? and Saul lift vp his voice, and wept, ¹⁸And sayd to Dauid, Thou art more righteous then I: for thou hast rendred me good, and I haue rendred thee euill.

¹⁹And thou hast shewed this day, that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the Lord had closed me in thine hands, thou killedst me not. ²⁰For who shall finde hisemie, and let him depart free? wherefore the Lord render thee good for that thou hast done vnto me this day. ²¹For now behold, I know that thou shalt be King, and that the kingdome of Israel shall be stablished in thine hand. ²²Swear now therefore vnto me by the Lord, that thou wilt not destroy my seede after me, and that thou wilt not abolish my name out of my fathers house. (I Samuel) So Dauid sware vnto Saul, and Saul went home: but Dauid and his men went vp vnto ye hold.

¹Then Samuel dyed, and all Israel assembled, and mourned for him, and buried him in his owne house at Ramah. And Dauid arose and went downe to the wildernes of Paran. ²Now in Maon was a man, who had his possessio in Carmel, and the man was exceeding mightie and had three thousand sheepe, and a thousand goates: and he was shering his sheepe in Carmel. ³The name also of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail, and she was a woman of singular wisdom, and beautifull, but the man was churlish, and euil conditioned, and was of the familie of Caleb.

⁴And Dauid heard in the wilderness, that Nabal did shere his sheepe. ⁵Therefore Dauid sent tenne yong men, and Dauid said vnto the yong men, Go vp to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and aske him in my name how he doeth.

⁶And thus shall ye say for salutation, Both thou, and thine house, and all that thou hast, be in peace, wealth and prosperitie.

⁷Behold, I haue heard, that thou hast sherers: now thy shepherds were with vs, and we did the no hurt, neyther did they misse any thing all the while they were in Carmel. ⁸Aske thy seruants and they wil shew thee. Wherefore let these yong men finde fauour in thine eyes: (for we come in a good season) giue, I pray thee, whatsoeuer commeth to thine hand vnto thy seruants, and to thy sonne Dauid. ⁹And when Dauids yong men came, they tolde Nabal all those wordes in the name of Dauid, and helde their peace.

¹⁰Then Nabal answered Dauids seruantes, and sayd, Who is Dauid? and who is the sonne of Ishai? there be many seruantes nowe a dayes, that breake away euery man from his master.

¹¹Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I haue killed for my sherers, and giue it vnto men, whom I know not whence they be? ¹²So Dauids seruants turned their way, and went againe, and came, and tolde him all those things.

¹³And Dauid said vnto his men, Girde euery man his sword about him. And they girded euery man his sworde: Dauid also girded his sworde.

And about foure hundreth men went vp after Dauid, and two hundreth abode by the cariage.

¹⁴Nowe one of the seruantes tolde Abigail Nabals wife, saying, Beholde, Dauid sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master, and he rayled on them. ¹⁵Notwithstanding the men were very good vnto vs, and we had no displeasure, neither missed we any thing as long as we were conuersant with them, when we were in the fieldes.

¹⁷Nowe therefore take heede, and see what thou shalt doe: for euill will surely come vpon our master, and vpon all his familie: for he is so wicked that a man can not speake to him. ¹⁸Then Abigail made haste, and tooke two hundreth cakes, and two bottels of wine, and fiue sheepe ready dressed, and fiue measures of parched corne, and an hundreth frailes of raisins, and two hundreth of figs, and laded them on asses. ¹⁹Then she said vnto her seruants, Go ye before me: beholde, I will come after you: yet she tolde not her husband Nabal. ²⁰And as shee rode on her asse, shee came downe by a secret place of the mountaine, and beholde, Dauid and his men came downe against her, and she met them. ²¹And Dauid said, In deede I haue kept all in vaine that this fellow had in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained vnto him: for he hath requited me euill for good. ²²So and more also doe God vnto the enemies of Dauid: for surely I will not leaue of all that he hath, by the dawning of the day, any that pisseth against the wall. ²³And when Abigail sawe Dauid, she hasted and lighted off her asse, and fell before Dauid on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground, ²⁴And fel at his feete, and sayd, Oh, my lord, I haue committed the iniquitie, and I pray thee, let thine handmayde speake to thee, and heare thou the wordes of thine handmayde. ²⁵Let not my lorde, I pray thee, regard this wicked man Nabal: for as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name, and follie is with him: but I thine handmayde sawe not the yong men of my lord whom thou sentest. ²⁶Now therefore my lord, as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth (the Lord, I say, that hath withholden thee from comming to shedde blood, and that thine hand should not saue thee) so now thine enemies shall be as Nabal, and they that intend to doe my lord euill. ²⁷And now, this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought vnto my lorde, let it be giuen vnto the yong men, that follow my lord. ²⁸I pray thee, forgiue the trespasse of thine handmaide: for the Lord will make my lorde a sure house, because my lord fighteth the battels of the Lord, and none euill hath bene found in thee in all thy life. ²⁹Yet a man hath risen vp to persecute thee, and to seeke thy soule, but the soule of my lorde shall be bounde in the bundel of life with the Lord thy God: and the soule of thine enemies shall God cast out, as out of the middle of a sling. ³⁰And when the Lord shall haue done to my lord al the good that he hath promised thee, and shall haue made thee ruler ouer Israel, ³¹Then shall it be no grieffe vnto thee, nor offence of minde vnto my lord, that he hath not shed blood causelesse, nor that my lorde hath not preserued him selfe: and when the Lord shall haue dealt well with my lorde, remember thine handmaide. ³²Then Dauid said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meete me. ³³And blessed be thy counsel, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from comming to shed blood, and that mine hand hath not saued me. ³⁴For in deede, as the Lord God of Israel liueth, who hath kept me backe from hurting thee, except thou haddest hasted and met mee, surely there had not bene left vnto Nabal by the dawning of the day, any that pisseth against the wall. ³⁵Then Dauid receiued of her hande that which she had brought him, and said to her, Goe vp in peace to thine house: beholde, I haue heard thy voyce, and haue graunted thy petition. ³⁶So Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he made a feast in his house, like the feast of a King, and Nabals heart was merie within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore shee tolde him nothing, neither lesse nor more, vntil the morning arose. ³⁷Then in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabal, his wife tolde him those wordes, and his heart died within him, and he was like a stone. ³⁸And about ten dayes after, the Lord smote Nabal, that he dyed. ³⁹Now when Dauid heard, that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord that hath iudged the cause of my rebuke of ye hand of Nabal, and hath kept his seruant from euil: for the Lord hath recompensed the wickednesse of Nabal vpon his owne head. Also Dauid sent to commune with Abigail to take her to his wife. ⁴⁰And whe the seruants of Dauid were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake vnto her, saying, Dauid sent vs to thee, to take thee to his wife. ⁴¹And she arose, and bowed her selfe on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmayde be a seruant to wash the feete of the seruants of my lord. ⁴²And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode vpon an asse, and her fiue maides folowed her, and she went after the messengers of Dauid, and was his wife. ⁴³Dauid also tooke Ahinoam of Izreel, and they were both his wiues. ⁴⁴Now Saul had giuen Michal his daughter Dauids wife to Phalti the sonne of Laish, which was of Gallim.

¹Againe the Ziphims came vnto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doeth not Dauid hide him selfe in the hill of Hachilah before Ieshimon? ²Then Saul arose, and went downe to the wildernes of Ziph, hauing three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, for to seeke Dauid in the wildernes of Ziph. ³And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Ieshimon by the way side. Now Dauid abode in the wildernes, and he sawe that Saul came after him into the wildernes. ⁴(For Dauid had sent out spies, and vnderstood, that Saul was come in very deede) ⁵Then Dauid arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched, and when Dauid beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the sonne of Ner which was his chiefe captaine, (for Saul lay in the fort, and the people pitched round about him) ⁶Then spake Dauid, and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah, brother to Ioab, saying, Who will go downe with me to Saul to the hoste? Then Abishai said, I will goe downe with thee. ⁷So Dauid and Abishai came downe to the people by night: and beholde, Saul lay sleeping within the fort, and his speare did sticke in the ground at his head: and Abner and the people lay round about him. ⁸Then saide Abishai to Dauid, God hath closed thine enemy into thine hande this day: now therefore, I pray thee, let me smite him once with a speare to the earth, and I will not smite him againe. ⁹And Dauid sayde to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can lay his hand on the Lordes anoynted, and be gilty? ¹⁰Moreouer Dauid said, As the Lord liueth, eyther the Lord shall smite him, or his day shall come to dye, or he shall descend into battel, and perish. ¹¹The Lord keepe mee from laying mine hand vpon the Lordes anointed: but, I pray thee, take now the speare that is at his head, and the pot of water, and let vs goe hence. ¹²So Dauid tooke the speare and the pot of water from Sauls head, and they gate them away, and no man saw it, nor marked it, neither did any awake, but they were all asleepe: for the Lord had sent a dead sleepe vpon them. ¹³Then Dauid went vnto the other side, and stode on the toppe of an hill a farre off, a great space being betweene them. ¹⁴And Dauid cryed to the people, and to Abner the sonne of Ner, saying, Hearest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered, and said, Who art thou that cryest to the King? ¹⁵And Dauid said to Abner, Art not thou a man? and who is like thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the King? for there came one of the folke in to destroy the King thy lord. ¹⁶This is not well done of thee: as the Lord liueth, ye are worthy to dye, because ye haue not kept your master the Lordes Anointed: and now see where the Kings speare is, and the pot of water that was at his head. ¹⁷And Saul knewe Dauids voyce, and sayde, Is this thy voyce, my sonne Dauid? And Dauid sayde, It is my voyce, my lord O King. ¹⁸And he sayde, Wherefore doeth my lord thus persecute his seruant? for what haue I done? or what euill is in mine hand? ¹⁹Now therefore, I beseech thee, let my lord the King heare the wordes of his seruant. If the Lord haue stirred thee vp against me, let him smell the sauour of a sacrifice: but if the children of men haue done it, cursed be they before the Lord: for they haue cast me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, Goe, serue other gods. ²⁰Nowe therefore let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the King of Israel is come out to seeke a flea, as one would hunt a partridge in the mountaines. ²¹Then sayde Saul, I haue sinned: come againe, my sonne Dauid: for I will doe thee no more harme, because my soule was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I haue done foolishly, and haue erred exceedingly. ²²Then Dauid answered, and saide, Beholde the Kings speare, let one of the yong men come ouer and set it. ²³And let the Lord rewarde euery man according to his righteousnesse and faithfulness: for the Lord had deliuered thee into mine handes this day, but I woulde not lay mine hand vpon the Lords anointed. ²⁴And beholde, like as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes: so let my life be set by in the eyes of the Lord, that he may deliuer me out of all tribulation. ²⁵Then Saul said to Dauid, Blessed art thou, my sonne Dauid: for thou shalt doe great things, and also preuaile. So Dauid went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

¹And Dauid said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: is it not better for me that I saue my selfe in the lande of the Philistims, and that Saul may haue no hope of me to seeke me any more in all the coastes of Israel, and so escape out of his hand? ²Dauid therefore arose, and he, and the sixe hundreth men that were with him, went vnto Achish the sonne of Maach King of Gath. ³And Dauid dwelt with Achish at Gath, he, and his men, euery man with his housholde, Dauid with his two wiues, Ahinoam the Izreelite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite. ⁴And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was fled to Gath: so he sought no more for him. ⁵And Dauid saide vnto Achish, If I haue nowe founde peace in thine eyes, let them giue me a place in some other citie of the countrey, that I may dwell there: for why should thy seruant dwel in ye head citie of the kingdome with thee? ⁶Then Achish gaue him Ziklag that same day: therefore Ziklag pertaineth vnto the kings of Iudah vnto this day. ⁷And the time that Dauid dwelt in the countrey of the Philistims, was foure moneths and certaine dayes. ⁸Then Dauid and his men went vp, and inuaded the Geshurites, and the Girzites, and the Amalekites: for they inhabited the lande from the beginning, from the way, as thou goest to Shur, euen vnto the lande of Egypt. ⁹And Dauid smote the lande, and left neither man nor woman aliue, and tooke sheepe, and oxen, and asses, and camels, and apparell, and returned and came to Achish. ¹⁰And Achish said, Where haue ye bene a rouing this day? And Dauid answered, Against the South of Iudah, and against the South of the Ierahmeelites, and against the South of ye Kenites. ¹¹And Dauid saued neither man nor woman aliue, to bring them to Gath, saying, Lest they should tel on vs, and say, So did Dauid, and so will be his maner all the while that he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philistims. ¹²And Achish beleueed Dauid, saying, He hath made his people of Israel vtterly to abhorre him: therefore he shalbe my seruant for euer.

¹Nowe at that time the Philistims assembled their bandes and armie to fight with Israel: therfore Achish said to Dauid, Be sure, thou shalt go out with me to the battel, thou, and thy men. ²And Dauid said to Achish, Surely thou shalt knowe, what thy seruant can doe. And Achish sayde to Dauid, Surely I will make thee keeper of mine head for euer. ³(Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah his owne citie: and Saul had put away the sorcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land) ⁴Then the Philistims assembled themselves, and came, and pitched in Shunem: and Saul assembled all Israel, and they pitched in Gilboa. ⁵And when Saul saw the hoste of the Philistims, he was afraid, and his heart was sore astonied. ⁶Therefore Saul asked counsel of the Lord, and the Lord answered him not, neither by dreames, nor by Vrim, nor yet by Prophets.

⁷Then saide Saul vnto his seruants, Seeke me a woman that hath a familiar spirite, that I may goe to her, and aske of her. And his seruants said to him, Beholde, there is a woman at En-dor that hath a familiar spirit. ⁸Then Saul changed him selfe, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he saide, I pray thee, coniecture vnto me by the familiar spirite, and bring me him vp whome I shall name vnto thee. ⁹And the woman saide vnto him, Beholde, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath destroyed the sorcerers, and the southsayers out of the land: wherefore then seekest thou to take me in a snare to cause me to die? ¹⁰And Saul sware to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liueth, no harme shall come to thee for this thing. ¹¹Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring vp vnto thee? And he answered, Bring me vp Samuel. ¹²And when the woman sawe Samuel, she cryed with a loude voyce, and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceiued me? for thou art Saul. ¹³And the King said vnto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said vnto Saul, I saw gods ascending vp out of the earth. ¹⁴Then he said vnto her, What facion is hee of? And she answered, An olde man commeth vp lapped in a mantel: and Saul knewe that it was Samuel, and he enclined his face to the ground, and bowed him selfe. ¹⁵And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me vp? Then Saul answered, I am in great distresse: for the Philistims make warre against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by Prophetes, neither by dreames: therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayest tell me, what I shall doe. ¹⁶Then said Samuel, Wherefore then doest thou aske of me, seeing the Lord is gone from thee, and is thine enemy? ¹⁷Euen the Lord hath done to him, as hee spake by mine hande: for the Lord will rent the kingdome out of thine hande, and giue it thy neighbour Dauid. ¹⁸Because thou obeyedst not the voyce of the Lord, nor executedst his fierce wrath vpon the Amalekites, therefore hath the Lord done this vnto thee this day. ¹⁹Moreouer the Lord wil deliuer Israel with thee into the handes of the Philistims: and to morowe shalt thou and thy sonnes be with me, and the Lord shall giue the hoste of Israel into the handes of the Philistims. ²⁰Then Saul fell streight way all along on the earth, and was sore afraide because of the wordes of Samuel, so that there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day nor all the night. ²¹Then the woman came vnto Saul, and sawe that he was sore troubled, and said vnto him, See, thine handmaide hath obeyed thy voyce, and I haue put my soule in mine hande, and haue obeyed thy wordes which thou saydest vnto me. ²²Now therefore, I pray thee, hearke thou also vnto ye voyce of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsell of bread before thee, that thou mayest eat and get thee strength, and go on thy iourney. ²³But he refused, and said, I will not eate: but his seruants and the woman together compelled him, and he obeyed their voyce: so he arose from the earth, and sate on the bed. ²⁴Nowe the woman had a fat calfe in the house, and she hasted, and killed it, and tooke floure and kneaded it, and baked of it vnleauened bread. ²⁵Then she brought them before Saul, and before his seruants: and when they had eaten, they stode, and went away the same night.

¹So the Philistims were gathered together with all their armies in Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by the fountaine, which is in Izreel. ²And the princes of the Philistims went foorth by hundreths and thousandes, but Dauid and his men came behinde with Achish. ³Then saide the princes of the Philistims, What doe these Ebrewes here? And Achish said vnto the princes of the Philistims, Is not this Dauid the seruant of Saul the King of Israel, who hath bene with me these dayes, or these yeeres, and I haue found nothing in him, since he dwelt with me vnto this day? ⁴But the princes of the Philistims were wroth with him, and the princes of the Philistims said vnto him, Sende this fellow backe, that he may goe againe to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not goe downe with vs to battell, least that in the battell he be an aduersarie to vs: for wherewith should he obtaine the fauour of his master? shoulde it not be with the heades of these men? ⁵Is not this Dauid, of whome they sang in daunces, saying, Saul slewe his thousande, and Dauid his ten thousande? ⁶Then Achish called Dauid, and said vnto him, As the Lord liueth, thou hast bene vpright and good in my sight, when thou wentest out and in with mee in the hoste, neither haue I founde euill with thee, since thou camest to me vnto this day, but the princes doe not fauour thee. ⁷Wherefore nowe returne, and go in peace, that thou displease not the princes of the Philistims. ⁸And Dauid said vnto Achish, But what haue I done? and what hast thou founde in thy seruant as long as I haue bene with thee vnto this day, that I may not goe and fight against the enemies of my lorde the King? ⁹Achish then answered, and said to Dauid, I knowe thou pleasest mee, as an Angell of God: but the princes of the Philistims haue saide, Let him not goe vp with vs to battell. ¹⁰Wherefore now rise vp earely in the morning with thy masters seruants that are come with thee: and when ye be vp earely, assoone as ye haue light, depart. ¹¹So Dauid and his men rose vp earely to depart in the morning, and to returne into the lande of the Philistims: and the Philistims went vp to Izreel.

¹Bvt when Dauid and his men were come to Ziklag the thirde day, the Amalekites had inuaded vpon the South, euen vnto Ziklag, and had smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire, ²And had taken the women that were therein, prisoners, both small and great, and slewe not a man, but caryed them away, and went their wayes. ³So Dauid and his men came to the city, and beholde, it was burnt with fire, and their wiues, and their sonnes, and their daughters were taken prisoners. ⁴Then

Dauid and the people that was with him, lift vp their voyces and wept, vntill they could weepe no more. ⁵Dauids two wiues were taken prisoners also, Ahinoam the Izreelite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. ⁶And Dauid was in great sorowe: for the people entended to stone him, because the heartes of all the people were vexed euery man for his sonnes and for his daughters: but Dauid comforted him selfe in the Lord his God. ⁷And Dauid saide to Abiathar the Priest Ahimelechs sonne, I pray thee, bring me the Ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to Dauid. ⁸Then Dauid asked counsell at the Lord, saying, Shall I follow after this companie? shall I ouertake them? And he answered him, Followe: for thou shalt surely ouertake them, and recouer all. ⁹So Dauid and the sixe hundreth men that were with him, went, and came to the riuier Besor, where a part of them abode: ¹⁰But Dauid and foure hundreth men followed (for two hundreth abode behinde, being too wearie to goe ouer the riuier Besor) ¹¹And they found an Egyptian in the felde, and brought him to Dauid, and gaue him bread and he did eat, and they gaue him water to drinke. ¹²Also they gaue him a fewe figges, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirite came againe to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunke any water in three dayes, and three nightes. ¹³And Dauid saide vnto him, To whome belonest thou? and whence art thou? And he saide, I am a yong man of Egypt, and seruant to an Amalekite: and my master left me three dayes agoe, because I fell sicke. ¹⁴We roued vpon the South of Chereth, and vpon the coast belonging to Iudah, and vpon the South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire. ¹⁵And Dauid saide vnto him, Canst thou bring me to this companie? And he said, Swear vnto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliuer me into the handes of my master, and I will bring thee to this companie. ¹⁶And when he had brought him thither, beholde, they lay scattered abroad vpon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dauncing, because of all the great pray that they had taken out of the lande of the Philistims, and out of the land of Iudah. ¹⁷And Dauid smote them from the twilight, euen vnto the euening of the next morowe, so that there escaped not a man of them, saue foure hundreth yong men, which rode vpon camels, and fled. ¹⁸And Dauid recouered all that the Amalekites had taken: also Dauid rescued his two wiues. ¹⁹And they lacked nothing, small or great, sonne or daughter, or of the spoyle of all that they had taken away: Dauid recouered them all. ²⁰Dauid also tooke all the sheepe, and the oxen, and they draue them before his cattell, and said, This is Dauids pray. ²¹And Dauid came to the two hundreth men that were too wearie for to follow Dauid: whome they had made also to abide at the riuier Besor: and they came to meete Dauid, and to meete the people that were with him: so when Dauid came neere to the people, hee saluted them. ²²Then answered all the euill and wicked of the men that went with Dauid, and saide, Because they went not with vs, therefore will wee giue them none of the pray that wee haue recouered, saue to euery man his wife and his children: therefore let them carie them away and depart. ²³Then saide Dauid, Yee shall not doe so, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath giuen vs, who hath preserued vs, and deliuered the companie that came against vs, into our handes. ²⁴For who will obey you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth downe to the battel, so shall his part be, that tarieth by the stuffe: they shall part alike. ²⁵So from that day forward hee made it a statute and a lawe in Israel, vntill this day. ²⁶When Dauid therefore came to Ziklag, he sent of the pray vnto the Elders of Iudah and to his friends, saying, See there is a blessing for you of the spoyle of the enemies of the Lord. ²⁷Hee sent to them of Beth-el, and to them of South Ramoth, and to them of Iattir, ²⁸And to them of Aroer, and to them of Siphmoth, and to them of Eshtemoa, ²⁹And to them of Rachal, and to them of the cities of the Ierahmeelites, and to them of the cities of the Kenites, ³⁰And to them of Hormah, and to them of Choraschan, and to them of Athach, ³¹And to them of Hebron, and to all the places where Dauid and his men had hanted.

¹Now the Philistims fought against Israel, and the me of Israel fled away from ye Philistims, and they fell downe wounded in mount Gilboa. ²And the Philistims preassed sore vpon Saul and his sonnes, and slewe Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua Sauls sonnes. ³And when the battel went sore against Saul, the archers and bowmen hit him, and hee was sore wounded of the archers. ⁴Then saide Saul vnto his armour bearer, Drawe out thy sworde, and thrust mee through therewith, lest the vncircumcised come and thrust me through and mocke me: but his armour bearer would not, for hee was sore afraid. Therefore Saul tooke a sworde and fell vpon it. ⁵And when his armour bearer sawe that Saul was dead, he fell likewise vpon his sword, and dyed with him. ⁶So Saul dyed, and his three sonnes, and his armour bearer, and all his men that same day together. ⁷And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they of the other side Iorden saw that the men of Israel were put to flight, and that Saul and his sonnes were dead, then they left the cities, and ran away: and the Philistims came and dwelt in them. ⁸And on the morowe when the Philistims were come to spoyle them that were slaine, they founde Saul and his three sonnes lying in mount Gilboa, ⁹And they cut off his head, and stripped him out of his armour, and sent into the land of ye Philistims on euery side, that they should publish it in the temple of their idoles, and among the people. ¹⁰And they layed vp his armour in the house of Ashtaroth, but they hanged vp his body on the wall of Beth-shan. ¹¹When the inhabitants of Iabesh Gilead heard, what the Philistims had done to Saul, ¹²Then they arose (as many as were strong men) and went all night, and tooke the body of Saul, and the

¹After the death of Saul, when Daud was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites and had beene two dayes in Ziklag, ²Behold, a man came the third day out of the host from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth vpon his head: and when hee came to Daud, he fell to the earth, and did obeisance. ³Then Daud saide vnto him, Whence comest thou? And he said vnto him, Out of the host of Israel I am escaped. ⁴And Daud saide vnto him, What is done? I pray thee, tell me. Then he said, that the people is fled from the battel, and many of the people are ouerthrowen, and dead, and also Saul and Ionathan his sonne are dead. ⁵And Daud saide vnto the yong man that tolde it him, Howe knowest thou that Saul and Ionathan his sonne be dead? ⁶Then the yong man that tolde him, answered, As I came to mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned vpon his speare, and loe, the charets and horsemen followed hard after him. ⁷And when he looked backe, he saw me, and called me. And I answered, Here am I. ⁸And he said vnto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite. ⁹Then saide hee vnto me, I pray thee come vpon mee, and slay me: for anguish is come vpon me, because my life is yet whole in me. ¹⁰So I came vpon him, and slewe him, and because I was sure that hee coulde not liue, after that hee had fallen, I tooke the crowne that was vpon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arme, and brought them hither vnto my lord. ¹¹Then Daud tooke hold on his clothes, and rent them, and likewise al the men that were with him. ¹²And they mourned and wept, and fasted vntil euen, for Saul and for Ionathan his sonne, and for the people of the Lord, and for the house of Israel, because they were slaine with the sword.

¹³Afterward Dauid saide vnto the yong man that tolde it him, Whence art thou? And hee answered, I am the sonne of a stranger an Amalekite. ¹⁴And Dauid said vnto him, How wast thou not afrayd, to put forth thine hand to destroy the Anoynted of the Lord? ¹⁵Then Dauid called one of his yong men, and said, Goe neere, and fall vpon him. And hee smote him that he dyed.

¹⁶Then said Dauid vnto him, Thy blood be vpon thine owne head: for thine owne mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I haue slaine the Lords Anoynted.

¹⁷Then Dauid mourned with this lamentation ouer Saul, and ouer Jonathan his sonne, ¹⁸(Also he bade them teach the children of Iudah to shoote, as it is written in the booke of Iasher) ¹⁹O noble Israel, hee is slane vpon thy hie places: how are the mightie ouerthrowen! ²⁰Tell it not in Gath, nor publish it in the streetes of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistims reioyce, lest the daughters of the vncircumcised triumph. ²¹Ye mountaines of Gilboa, vpon you be neither dewe nor raine, nor be there fieldes of offrings: for there the shielde of the mightie is cast downe, the shielde of Saul, as though he had not bene anointed with oyle.

²²The bow of Jonathan neuer turned backe, neither did the sword of Saul returne emptie from the blood of the slaine, and from the fatte of the mightie.

²³Saul and Jonathan were louely and pleasant in their liues, and in their deaths they were not deuided: they were swifter then eagles, they were stronger then lions. ²⁴Yee daughters of Israel, weepe for Saul, which clothed you in skarlet, with pleasures, and hanged ornaments of gold vpon your apparel. ²⁵Howe were the mightie slaine in the mids of the battel! O Jonathan, thou wast slaine in thine hie places. ²⁶Wo is me for thee, my brother Jonathan: very kinde hast thou bene vnto me: thy loue to me was wonderfull, passing the loue of women: howe are the mightie ouerthrowen, and the weapons of warre destroyed!

¹After this, Dauid asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I go vp into any of the cities of Iudah? And the Lord sayd vnto him, Goe vp. And Dauid sayd Whither shall I goe? Hee then answered, Vnto Hebron. ²So Dauid went vp thither, and his two wiues also, Ahinoam the Izreelite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite. ³And Dauid brought vp the men that were with him, euery man with his houshold, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron. ⁴Then the men of Iudah came, and there they anoynted Dauid King ouer the house of Iudah. And they tolde Dauid, saying, that the men of Iabesh Gilead buried Saul. ⁵And Dauid sent messengers vnto the men of Iabesh Gilead, and said vnto them, Blessed are ye of the Lord, that yee haue shewed such kindenes vnto your lord Saul, that you haue buried him. ⁶Therefore now the Lord shewe mercie and trueth vnto you: and I will recompence you this benefite, because ye haue done this thing. ⁷Therefore now let your handes be strong, and be you valiant:

albeit your master Saul bee dead, yet neuerthelesse the house of Iudah hath anoynted me King ouer them. ⁸But Abner the sonne of Ner that was captaine of Sauls hoste, tooke Ish-bosheth the sonne of Saul, and brought him to Mahanaim, ⁹And made him King ouer Gilead, and ouer the Ashurites, and ouer Izreel, and ouer Ephraim, and ouer Benjamin, and ouer al Israel. ¹⁰Ish-bosheth Sauls sonne was fourtie yeere olde when he began to reigne ouer Israel, and reigned two yeere: but the house of Iudah followed Dauid. ¹¹(And the time which Dauid reigned in Hebron ouer the house of Iudah, was seuen yeere and sixe moneths) ¹²And Abner the sonne of Ner, and the seruantes of Ish-bosheth the sonne of Saul went out of Mahanaim to Gibeon. ¹³And Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah, and the seruants of Dauid went out and met one another by the poole of Gibeon: and they sate downe, the one on the one side of the poole, and the other on the otherside of the poole. ¹⁴Then Abner saide to Ioab, Let the yong men nowe arise, and play before vs. And Ioab said, Let them arise. ¹⁵Then there arose and went ouer twelue of Benjamin by number, which pertained to Ish-bosheth the sonne of Saul, and twelue of the seruants of Dauid. ¹⁶And euery one caught his fellowe by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellowes side, so they fell downe together: wherefore ye place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon. ¹⁷And the battel was exceeding sore that same day: for Abner and the men of Israel fell before the seruants of Dauid. ¹⁸And there were three sonnes of Zeruiah there, Ioab, and Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was as light on foote as a wilde roe. ¹⁹And Asahel followed after Abner, and in going he turned neither to the right hand nor to the left from Abner. ²⁰Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, Yea. ²¹Then Abner said, Turne thee either to the right hande, or to the left, and take one of the yong men, and take thee his weapons: and Asahel would not depart from him. ²²And Abner saide to Asahel, Depart from me: wherefore shoulde I smite thee to the ground? howe then shoulde I be able to holde vp my face to Ioab thy brother? ²³And when he would not depart, Abner with the hinder end of the speare smote him vnder the fift ryb, that the speare came out behind him: and he fell downe there, and dyed in his place. And as many as came to the place where Asahel fell downe and dyed, stode still. ²⁴Ioab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sunne went downe, when they were come to the hill Ammah, that lieth before Giah, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. ²⁵And the children of Benjamin gathered them selues together after Abner, and were on an heape and stode on the top of an hill. ²⁶Then Abner called to Ioab, and said, Shall the sworde deuoure for euer? knowest thou not, that it will be bitternesse in the latter ende? howe long then shall it be, or thou bid the people returne from following their brethren? ²⁷And Ioab sayde, As God liueth, if thou haddest not spoken, surely euē in the morning the people had departed euery one backe from his brother. ²⁸So Ioab blew a trumpet, and all the people stoode still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more. ²⁹And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plaine, and went ouer Iorden, and past through all Bithron till they came to Mahanaim. ³⁰Ioab also returned backe from Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Dauids seruants nineteene men and Asahel. ³¹But the seruants of Dauid had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abners men, so that three hundreth and threescore men dyed. ³²And they tooke vp Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Bethlehem: and Ioab and his men went all night, and when they came to Hebron, the day arose.

¹There was then long warre betweene the house of Saul and the house of Dauid: but Dauid waxed stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker. ²And vnto

Dauid were children borne in Hebron: and his eldest sonne was Amnon of Ahinoam the Izreelite, ³And his seconde, was Chileab of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite: and the third, Absalom the sonne of Maacah the daughter of Talmai the King of Geshur, ⁴And the fourth, Adoniiah the sonne of Haggith, and the fifth, Shephatiah the sonne of Abital, ⁵And the sixt, Ithream by Eglah Dauids wife: these were borne to Dauid in Hebron. ⁶Nowe while there was warre betweene the house of Saul and the house of Dauid, Abner made all his power for the house of Saul. ⁷And Saul had a concubine named Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ish-bosheth sayde to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in to my fathers concubine? ⁸Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I a dogges head, which against Iudah do shew mercie this day vnto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his neighbours, and haue not deliuered thee into the hande of Dauid, that thou chargest me this day with a fault concerning this woman? ⁹So doe God to Abner, and more also, except, as the Lord hath sworne to Dauid, euen so I doe to him, ¹⁰To remoue the kingdome from the house of Saul, that the throne of Dauid may be stablished ouer Israel, and ouer Iudah, euen from Dan to Beer-sheba. ¹¹And he durst no more answer to Abner: for he feared him. ¹²Then Abner sent messengers to Dauid on his behalfe, saying, Whose is the lande? who should also say, Make couenant with me, and beholde, mine hande shalbe with thee, to bring all Israel vnto thee. ¹³Who saide, Well, I will make a couenant with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, that thou see not my face except thou bring Michal Sauls daughter when thou comest to see me. ¹⁴Then Dauid sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Sauls sonne, saying, Deliuer me my wife Michal, which I married for an hundreth foreskinnes of the Philistims. ¹⁵And Ish-bosheth sent, and tooke her from her husband Phaltiel the sonne of Laish. ¹⁶And her husband went with her, and came weeping behinde her, vnto Bahurim: then saide Abner vnto him, Go, and returne. So he returned. ¹⁷And Abner had communication with the Elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for Dauid in times past, that he might be your King. ¹⁸Nowe then doe it: for the Lord hath spoken of Dauid, saying, By the hand of my seruant Dauid I will saue my people Israel out of the handes of the Philistims, and out of the handes of all their enemies. ¹⁹Also Abner spake to Benjamin, and afterward Abner went to speake with Dauid in Hebron, concerning all that Israel was content with, and the whole house of Benjamin. ²⁰So Abner came to Dauid to Hebron, hauing twentie men with him, and Dauid made a feast vnto Abner, and to the men that were with him. ²¹Then Abner sayde vnto Dauid, I will rise vp, and goe gather all Israel vnto my lorde the King, that they may make a couenant with thee, and that thou mayest reigne ouer all that thine heart desireth. Then Dauid let Abner depart, who went in peace. ²²And beholde, the seruants of Dauid and Ioab came from the campe, and brought a great pray with them (but Abner was not with Dauid in Hebron: for he had sent him away, and he departed in peace) ²³When Ioab, and all the hoste that was with him were come, men tolde Ioab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the King, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace. ²⁴Then Ioab came to the King, and saide, What hast thou done? beholde, Abner came vnto thee, why hast thou sent him away, and he is departed? ²⁵Thou knowest Abner the sonne of Ner: for he came to deceiue thee, and to knowe thy outgoing and ingoing, and to knowe all that thou doest. ²⁶And when Ioab was gone out from Dauid, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him againe from the well of Siriah vnknowing to Dauid. ²⁷And when Abner was come againe to Hebron, Ioab tooke him aside in the gate to speake with him peaceably, and smote him vnder the fift ryb, that he dyed, for the blood of Asahel his brother. ²⁸And when afterwarde it came to Dauids eare, he saide, I and my kingdome are giltlesse before the Lord for euer, concerning the blood of Abner the sonne of Ner. ²⁹Let the blood fall on the head of Ioab, and on all his fathers house, that the house of Ioab be neuer without some that haue running issues, or leper, or that leaneth on a staffe, or that doeth fall on the sworde, or that lacketh bread. ³⁰(So Ioab and Abishai his brother slewe Abner, because he had slaine their brother Asahel at Gibeon in battel) ³¹And Dauid said to Ioab, and to al the people that were with him, Rent your clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourne before Abner: and King Dauid him selfe followed the beare. ³²And when they had buryed Abner in Hebron, the King lift vp his voyce, and wept beside the sepulchre of Abner, and all the people wept. ³³And the King lamented ouer Abner, and sayde, Dyed Abner as a foole dyeth? ³⁴Thine handes were not bounde, nor thy feete tyed in fetters of brasse: but as a man falleth before wicked men, so diddest thou fall. And all the people wept againe for him.

³⁵Afterwarde all the people came to cause Dauid eate meate while it was yet day, but Dauid sware, saying, So doe God to me and more also, if I taste bread, or ought els till the sunne be downe.

³⁶And all the people knewe it, and it pleased them: as whatsoeuer the King did, pleased all the people.

³⁷For all the people and all Israel vnderstoode that day, howe that it was not the Kings deede that Abner the sonne of Ner was slaine. ³⁸And the King said vnto his seruants, Know ye not, that there is a prince and a great man falle this day in Israel? ³⁹And I am this day weake and newly anoynted King: and these men the sonnes of Zeruiah be too harde for me: the Lord rewarde the doer of euill according to his wickednesse.

¹And when Sauls sonne heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, then his handes were feeble, and all Israel was afraide, ²And Sauls sonne had two men that were captaines of bandes: the one called Baanah, and the other called Rechab, the sonnes of Rimmon a Beerothite of the children of Benjamin. (for Beeroth was reckened to Benjamin, ³Because the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and soiourned there, vnto this day).

⁴And Jonathan Sauls sonne had a sonne that was lame on his feete: he was fiue yere olde when the tydings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Israel: then his nourse tooke him, and fledde away. And as she made haste to flee, the childe fell, and beganne to halte, and his name was Mephibosheth. ⁵And the sonnes of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah went and came in the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth (who slept on a bed at noone) ⁶And beholde, Rechab and Baanah his brother came into the middes of the house as they would haue wheate, and they smote him vnder the fift ryb, and fled. ⁷For when they came into the house, he slept on his bed in his bed chamber, and they smote him, and slewe him, and beheaded him, and tooke his head, and gate them away through the plaine all the night. ⁸And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth vnto Dauid to Hebron, and saide to the King, Beholde the head of Ish-bosheth Sauls sonne thine enemye, who sought after thy life: and the Lord hath auenged my lord the King this day of Saul, and of his seede. ⁹Then Dauid answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sonnes of Rimmon the Beerothite, and saide vnto them, As the Lord liueth, who hath deliuered my soule out of al aduersity, ¹⁰When one tolde me, and sayde that Saul was dead, (thinking to haue brought good tydings) I tooke him and slewe him in Ziklag, who thought that I woulde haue giuen him a rewarde for his tidings: ¹¹How much more, when wicked men haue slaine a righteous person in his owne house, and vpon his bed? shall I not now therfore require his blood at your hand, and take you from the earth? ¹²Then Dauid commanded his yong men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feete, and hanged them vp ouer the poole in Hebron: but they tooke the head of Ishbosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

¹Then came all the tribes of Israel to Dauid vnto Hebron, and said thus, Beholde, we are thy bones and thy flesh. ²And in time past when Saul was our King, thou leddest Israel in and out: and the Lord hath sayde to thee, Thou shalt feede my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captaine ouer Israel. ³So all the Elders of Israel came to the King to Hebron: and King Dauid made a couenant with them in Hebron before the Lord: and they anoynted Dauid King ouer Israel. ⁴Dauid was thirtie yeere olde when he began to reigne: and hee reigned fortie yeere. ⁵In Hebron hee reigned ouer Iudah seuen yeere, and sixe moneths: and in Ierusalem hee reigned thirtie and three yeeres ouer all Israel and Iudah. ⁶The King also and his men went to Ierusalem vnto the Iebusites, the inhabitants of the land: who spake vnto Dauid, saying, Except thou take away the blinde and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking that Dauid coulede not come thither. ⁷But Daud tooke the fort of Zion: this is the citie of Daud. ⁸Nowe Daud had sayd the same day, Whosoeuer smiteth the Iebusites, and getteth vp to the gutters and smiteth the lame and blinde, which Dauds soule hateth, I will preferre him: therefore they saide, The blinde and the lame shall not come into that house. ⁹So Daud dwelt in that forte, and called it the citie of Daud, and Daud built rounde about it, from Millo, and inward. ¹⁰And Daud prospered and grewe: for the Lord God of hostes was with him. ¹¹Hiram also king of Tyrus sent messengers to Daud, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons for walles: and they built Daud an house. ¹²Then Daud knewe that the Lord had stablished him King ouer Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdome for his people Israels sake. ¹³And Daud tooke him more concubines and wiues out of Ierusalem, after hee was come from Hebron, and more sonnes and daughters were borne to Daud. ¹⁴And these bee the names of the sonnes that were borne vnto him in Ierusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Salomon, ¹⁵And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Iaphia, ¹⁶And Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet. ¹⁷But when the Philistims hearde that they had anoynted Daud King ouer Israel, all the Philistims came vp to seeke Daud: and when Daud heard, he went downe to a fort. ¹⁸But the Philistims came, and spred themselues in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁹Then Daud asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I goe vp to the Philistims? wilt thou deliuer them into mine handes? And the Lord answered Daud, Goe vp: for I will doubtlesse deliuer the Philistims into thine handes. ²⁰Then Daud came to Baal-perazim, and smote them there, and sayde, The Lord hath deuided mine enemies asunder before mee, as waters be deuided asunder: therefore he called the name of that place, Baal-perazim. ²¹And there they left their images, and Daud and his men burnt them. ²²Again the Philistims came vp, and spred themselues in the valley of Rephaim. ²³And when Dauid asked counsell of the Lord, hee answered, Thou shalt not goe vp, but turne about behinde them, and come vpon them ouer against the mulberie trees. ²⁴And when thou hearest the noyse of one going in the toppes of the mulberie trees, then remoue: for then shall the Lord goe out before thee, to smite the hoste of the Philistims. ²⁵Then Dauid did so as the Lord had commanded him, and smote the Philistims from Geba, vntil thou come to Gazer.

¹Againe Dauid gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, euen thirtie thousand, ²And Dauid arose and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Iudah to bring vp from thence the Arke of God, whose name is called by the Name of the Lord, of hostes, that dwelleth vpon it betweene the Cherubims. ³And they put the Arke of God vpon a newe cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah. And Vzzah and Ahio the sonnes of Abinadab did driue the newe carte. ⁴And when they brought the Arke of God out of the house of Abinadab, that was at Gibeah, Ahio went before the Arke, ⁵And Dauid and al the house of Israel played before the Lord on all instruments made of firre, and on harpes, and on Psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals. ⁶And when they came to Nachons threshing floore, Vzzah put his hande to the Arke of God, and helde it: for the oxen did shake it. ⁷And the Lord was verie wroth with Vzzah, and God smote him in the same place for his fault, and there he dyed by the Arke of God. ⁸And Dauid was displeased, because the Lord had smitten Vzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez Vzzah vntill this day. ⁹Therefore Dauid that day feared the Lord, and sayd, How shall the Arke of the Lord come to mee? ¹⁰So Dauid would not bring the Arke of the Lord vnto him into the citie of Dauid, but Dauid caried it into ye house of Obed-edom a Gittite. ¹¹And the Arke of the Lord continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite, three moneths, and the Lord blessed Obed-edom, and all his household. ¹²And one told King Dauid, saying, The Lord hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that hee hath, because of the Arke of God: therefore Dauid went and brought the Arke of God from the house of Obed-edom, into the citie of Dauid with gladnesse. ¹³And when they that bare the Arke of the Lord had gone sixe paces, he offred an ox, and a fatte beast. ¹⁴And Dauid danced before the Lord with al his might, and was girded with a linnen Ephod. ¹⁵So Dauid and all the house of Israel, brought the Arke of the Lord with shouting, and sound of trumpet. ¹⁶And as the Arke of the Lord came into the citie of Dauid, Michal Sauls daughter looked through a windowe, and sawe King Dauid leape, and dance before the Lord, and shee despised him in her heart. ¹⁷And when they had brought in the Arke of the Lord, they set it in his place, in the mids of the tabernacle that Dauid had pitched for it: then Dauid offred burnt offrings, and peace offrings before the Lord. ¹⁸And assoone as

Dauid had made an ende of offering burnt offrings and peace offrings, hee blessed the people in the Name of the Lord of hostes, ¹⁹And gaue among all the people, euen among the whole multitude of Israel, aswel to the women as men, to euerie one a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a bottell of wine: so all the people departed euerie one to his house. ²⁰The Dauid returned to blesse his house, and Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meete Dauid, and sayde, O howe glorious was the King of Israel this day, which was vncouered to day in the eyes of the maidens of his seruantes, as a foole vncouereth himselfe. ²¹Then Dauid sayd vnto Michal, It was before the Lord, which chose me rather then thy father, and all his house, and commanded me to bee ruler ouer the people of the Lord, euen ouer Israel: and therefore will I play before the Lord, ²²And will yet be more vile then thus, and will be low in mine owne sight, and of the verie same maidseruants, which thou hast spoken of, shall I be had in honour. ²³Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no childe vnto the day of her death.

¹Afterwarde when the King sate in his house and the Lord had giuen him rest rounde about from all his enemies, ²The King saide vnto Nathan the Prophet, Beholde, nowe I dwel in an house of cedar trees, and the Arke of God remayneth within the curtaines. ³Then Nathan sayde vnto the King, Go, and doe all that is in thine heart: for the Lord is with thee. ⁴And the same night the worde of the Lord came vnto Nathan, saying, ⁵Goe and tell my seruant Dauid, Thus saith the Lord, Shalt thou buylde me an house for my dwelling? ⁶For I haue dwelt in no house since the time that I brought the children of Israel out of Egypt vnto this day, but haue walked in a tent and tabernacle. ⁷In al the places wherein I haue walked with all the children of Israel, spake I one worde with any of the tribes of Israel when I commanded the iudges to feede my people Israel? or sayde I, Why build ye not me an house of cedar trees? ⁸Nowe therefore so say vnto my seruant Dauid, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I tooke thee from the sheepeccote following the sheepe, that thou mightest bee ruler ouer my people, ouer Israel. ⁹And I was with thee wheresoeuer thou hast walked, and haue destroyed all thine enemies out of thy sight, and haue made thee a great name, like vnto the name of the great men that are in the earth. ¹⁰(Also I will appoynt a place for my people Israel, and will plant it, that they may dwell in a place of their owne, and moue no more, neither shall wicked people trouble them any more as before time, ¹¹And since the time that I set Iudges ouer my people of Israel) and I will giue thee rest from al thine enemies: also the Lord telleth thee, that he will make thee an house. ¹²And when thy daies bee fulfilled, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, and I wil set vp thy seede after thee, which shall proceede out of thy body, and will stablish his kingdome.

¹³He shall buyld an house for my Name, and I will stablish ye throne of his kingdome for euer.

¹⁴I will be his father, and hee shall bee my sonne: and if he sinne, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the plagues of the children of men. ¹⁵But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I tooke it from Saul whome I haue put away before thee. ¹⁶And thine house shall be stablished and thy kingdome for euer before thee, euen thy throne shalbe stablished for euer. ¹⁷According to all these wordes, and according to all this vision, Nathan spake thus vnto Dauid. ¹⁸Then King Dauid went in, and sate before the Lord, and sayde, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto? ¹⁹And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord God, therefore thou hast spoken also of thy seruants house for a great while: but doth this appertaine to man, O Lord God? ²⁰And what can Dauid say more vnto thee? for thou, Lord God, knowest thy seruant. ²¹For thy words sake, and according to thine owne heart hast thou done all these great things, to make them knowen vnto thy seruant.

²²Wherefore thou art great, O Lord God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that wee haue heard with our eares. ²³And what one people in the earth is like thy people, like Israel? whose God went and redeemed them to himselfe, that they might be his people, and that hee might make him a name, and do for you great things, and terrible for thy land, O Lord, euen for thy people, whome thou redeemedst to thee out of Egypt, from the nations, and their gods? ²⁴For thou hast ordeyned to thy selfe thy people Israel to be thy people for euer: and thou Lord art become their God. ²⁵Nowe therefore, O Lord God, confirme for euer the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy seruant and his house, and doe as thou hast sayde. ²⁶And let thy Name bee magnified for euer by them that shall say, The Lord of hostes is the God ouer Israel: and let the house of thy seruant Dauid be stablished before thee. ²⁷For thou, O Lord of hostes, God of Israel, hast reueiled vnto thy seruant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy seruant bene bold to pray this prayer vnto thee. ²⁸Therefore now, O Lord God, (for thou art God, and thy words be true, and thou hast tolde this goodnes vnto thy seruant) ²⁹Therefore nowe let it please thee to blesse the house of thy seruant, that it may continue for euer before thee: for thou, O Lord God, hast spoken it: and let the house of thy seruant be blessed for euer, with thy blessing.

¹After this now, Dauid smote the Philistims, and subdued them, and Dauid tooke the bridle of bondage out of the hand of the Philistims. ²And hee smote Moab, and measured them with a corde, and cast them downe to the ground: he measured them with two cordes to put them to death, and with one full corde to keepe them aliue: so became the Moabites Dauids seruants, and brought gifts. ³Dauid smote also Hadadezer the sonne of Rehob King of Zobah, as he went to recouer his border at the riuier Euphrates. ⁴And Dauid tooke of them a thousand and seuen hundreth horsemen, and twenty thousande footemen, and Dauid destroyed all the charets, but he reserued an hundreth charets of them. ⁵Then came the Aramites of Dammeseke to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, but Dauid slewe of the Aramites two and twenty thousande men. ⁶And Dauid put a garison in Aram of Damesek: and the Aramites became seruants to Dauid, and brought gifts. And the Lord saued Dauid wheresoeuer he went. ⁷And Dauid tooke the shieldes of gold that beloged to the seruants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Ierusalem. ⁸And out of Betah, and Berothai (cities of Hadadezer) king Dauid brought exceeding much brasse. ⁹Then Toi king of Hamath heard howe Dauid had smitten all the hoste of Hadadezer, ¹⁰Therefore Toi sent Ioram his sonne vnto King Dauid, to salute him, and to reioyce with him because he had fought against Hadadezer, and beaten him (for Hadadezer had warre with Toi) who brought with him vessels of siluer, and vessels of golde, and vessels of brasse. ¹¹And King Dauid did dedicate them vnto the Lord with the siluer and golde that he had dedicate of all the nations, which he had subdued: ¹²Of Aram, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistims, and of Amalek, and of the spoyle of Hadadezer ye sonne of Rehob King of Zobah. ¹³So Dauid gate a name after that hee returned, and had slayne of the Aramites in the valley of salt eighteene thousand men. ¹⁴And he put a garison in Edom: throughout all Edom put he souldiers, and all they of Edom became Dauids seruants: and the Lord kept Dauid whithersoever he went. ¹⁵Thus Dauid reigned ouer all Israel, and executed iudgement and iustice vnto all his people. ¹⁶And Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah was ouer the hoste, and Ioshaphat the sonne of Ahilud was recorder. ¹⁷And Zadok the sonne of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the sonne of Abiathar were the Priestes, and Seraiah the Scribe. ¹⁸And Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and Dauids sonnes were chiefe rulers.

¹And Dauid sayde, Is there yet any man left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him mercie for Ionathans sake? ²And there was of the housholde of Saul a seruant whose name was Ziba, and when they had called him vnto Dauid, the King sayd vnto him, Art thou Ziba? And he sayd, I thy seruant am he. ³Then the King sayd, Remayneth there yet none of the house of Saul, on whome I may shewe the mercie of God? Ziba then answered the King, Jonathan hath yet a sonne lame of his feete. ⁴Then the King said vnto him, Where is he? And Ziba said vnto the King, Behold, he is in the house of Machir ye sonne of Ammiel of Lo-debar. ⁵Then King Dauid sent, and tooke him out of the house of Machir the sonne of Ammiel of Lo-debar. ⁶Nowe when Mephibosheth the sonne of Jonathan, the sonne of Saul was come vnto Dauid, he fel on his face, and did reuerence. And Dauid sayde, Mephibosheth? And he answered, Beholde thy seruant.

⁷Then Dauid sayd vnto him, Feare not: for I wil surely shewe thee kindnes for Ionathan thy fathers sake, and will restore thee all the fieldes of Saul thy father, and thou shalt eate bread at my table continually. ⁸And he bowed himselfe and sayd, What is thy seruant, that thou shouldest looke vpon such a dead dog as I am? ⁹Then the king called Ziba Sauls seruant, and said vnto him, I haue giue vnto thy masters sonne all that pertained to Saul and to all his house. ¹⁰Thou therefore and thy sonnes and thy seruantes shall till the lande for him, and bring in that thy masters sonne may haue foode to eate. And Mephibosheth thy masters sonne shall eate bread alway at my table (nowe Ziba had fifteene sonnes, and twentie seruants) ¹¹Then sayd Ziba vnto the King, According to all that my lord the King hath commaded his seruant, so shall thy seruant do, that Mephibosheth may eate at my table, as one of the Kings sonnes. ¹²Mephibosheth also had a yong sonne named Micha, and all that dwelled in the house of Ziba, were seruants vnto Mephibosheth. ¹³And Mephibosheth dwelt in Ierusalem: for he did eate continually at the Kings table, and was lame on both his feete.

¹After this, the King of the children of Ammon dyed, and Hanun his sonne reigned in his steade. ²Then sayde Dauid, I will shewe kindnesse vnto Hanun the sonne of Nahash, as his father shewed kindnesse vnto me. And Dauid sent his seruantes to comfort him for his father. So Dauids seruants came into the lande of the children of Ammon. ³And the princes of the children of Ammon sayde vnto Hanun their lorde, Thinkest thou that Dauid doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters to thee? hath not Dauid rather sent his seruants vnto thee, to search the citie, and to spie it out, and to ouerthrow it? ⁴Wherefore Hanun tooke Dauids seruants, and shaued off the halfe of their beard, and cut off their garments in the middle, euen to their buttockes, and sent them away. ⁵When it was told vnto Dauid, he sent to meete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the King sayde, Tary at Iericho, vntill your beards be growen, then returne. ⁶And when the children of Ammon sawe that they stanke in the sight of Dauid, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Aramites of the house of Rehob, and the Aramites of Zoba, twentie thousande footemen, and of King Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelue thousande men. ⁷And when Dauid heard of it, he sent Ioab, and all the hoste of the strong men. ⁸And the children of Ammon came out, and put their armie in araye at the entring in of the gate: and the Aramites of Zoba, and of Rehob, and of Ish-tob, and of Maacah were by themselues in the fielde. ⁹When Ioab saw that the front of the battel was against him before and behinde, he chose of all the choyse of Israel, and put them in aray against the Aramites. ¹⁰And the rest of the people hee deliuered into the hande of Abishai his brother, that hee might put them in aray against the children of Ammon. ¹¹And he sayde, If the Aramites be stronger then I, thou shalt helpe me, and if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, I will come and succour thee. ¹²Be strong and let vs be valiant for our people, and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord do that which is good in his eyes. ¹³Then Ioab, and the people that was with him, ioyned in battel with the Aramites, who fled before him. ¹⁴And when the children of Ammon sawe that the Aramites fled, they fled also before Abishai, and entred into the citie. so Ioab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Ierusalem. ¹⁵And when the Aramites sawe that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered them together. ¹⁶And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Aramites that were beyond the Riuer: and they came to Helam, and Shobach the captaine of the hoste of Hadarezer went before them. ¹⁷When it was shewed Dauid, then he gathered all Israel together, and passed ouer Iorden and came to Helam: and the Aramites set themselues in aray against Dauid, and fought with him: ¹⁸And the Aramites fled before Israel: and Dauid destroyed seuen hundreth charets of the Aramites, and fourtie thousande horsemen, and smote Shobach the captaine of his hoste, who dyed there. ¹⁹And when all the Kings, that were seruants to Hadarezer, saw that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and serued them. and the Aramites feared to helpe the children of Ammon any more.

¹And when the yeere was expired in the time when Kinges goe forth to battell, Dauid sent Ioab, and his seruantes with him, and all Israel, who destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah: but Dauid remayned in Ierusalem. ²And when it was euening tide, Dauid arose out of his bed, and walked vpon the rooffe of the Kings palace: and from the rooffe he sawe a woman washing her selfe: and the woman was very beautifull to looke vpon. ³And Dauid sent and inquired what woman it was: and one sayde, Is not this Bath-sheba the daughter of Eliam, wife to Vriah the

Hittite? ⁴Then Dauid sent messengers, and tooke her away: and she came vnto him and he lay with her: (now she was purified from her vncleannes) and she returned vnto her house. ⁵And the woman conceiued: therefore shee sent and tolde Dauid, and sayd, I am with childe. ⁶Then Dauid sent to Ioab, saying, Send me Vriah the Hittite. And Ioab sent Vriah to Dauid. ⁷And when Vriah came vnto him, Dauid demanded him how Ioab did, and howe the people fared, and how the warre prospered. ⁸Afterward Dauid said to Vriah, Go downe to thine house, and wash thy feete. So Vriah departed out of the Kings palace, and the king sent a present after him. ⁹But Vriah slept at the doore of the Kings palace with all the seruants of his lord, and went not downe to his house. ¹⁰Then they tolde Dauid, saying, Vriah went not downe to his house: and Dauid saide vnto Vriah, Comcest thou not from thy iourney? why didst thou not go downe to thine house? ¹¹Then Vriah answered Dauid, The Arke and Israel, and Iudah dwell in tents: and my lord Ioab and the seruants of my lord abide in the open fields: shall I then go into mine house to eate and drinke, and lie with my wife? by thy life, and by the life of thy soule, I will not do this thing. ¹²Then Dauid sayd vnto Vriah, Tary yet this day, and to morow I will send thee away. So Vriah abode in Ierusalem that day, and the morowe. ¹³Then Dauid called him, and hee did eate and drinke before him, and he made him drunke: and at euen he went out to lie on his couch with the seruants of his Lord, but went not downe to his house. ¹⁴And on the morowe Dauid wrote a letter to Ioab, and sent it by the hand of Vriah. ¹⁵And he wrote thus in the letter, Put ye Vriah in the forefront of the strength of the battell, and recule ye backe from him, that he may be smitten, and die. ¹⁶So when Ioab besieged the citie, he assigned Vriah vnto a place, where he knewe that strong men were. ¹⁷And the men of the citie came out, and fought with Ioab: and there fell of the people of the seruants of Dauid, and Vriah the Hittite also dyed. ¹⁸Then Ioab sent and tolde Dauid all the things concerning the warre, ¹⁹And he charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an ende of telling all the matters of the warre vnto the King, ²⁰And if the kings anger arise, so that he say vnto thee, Wherefore approched ye vnto the citie to fight? knewe ye not that they would hurle from the wall? ²¹Who smote Abimelech sonne of Ierubesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a milstone vpon him from the wall, and he died in Thebez? why went you nie the wall? Then say thou, Thy seruant Vriah the Hittite is also dead. ²²So the messenger went, and came and shewed Dauid all that Ioab had sent him for. ²³And the messenger said vnto Dauid, Certainly the men preuailed against vs, and came out vnto vs into the field, but we pursued them vnto the entring of the gate. ²⁴But the shooters shot from ye wall against thy seruants, and some of the Kings seruants be dead: and thy seruant Vriah the Hittite is also dead. ²⁵Then Dauid said vnto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say vnto Ioab, Let not this thing trouble thee: for the sworde deuoureth one as well as another: make thy battell more strong against the citie and destroy it, and encourage thou him. ²⁶And when the wife of Vriah heard that her husband Vriah was dead, she mourned for her husband. ²⁷So when the mourning was past, Dauid sent and tooke her into his house, and shee became his wife, and bare him a sonne: but ye thing that Dauid had done, displeased the Lord.

¹Then the Lord sent Nathan vnto Dauid, who came to him, and sayd vnto him, There were two men in one citie, the one riche, and the other poore. ²The rich man had exceeding many sheepe and oxen: ³But the poore had none at all, saue one litle sheepe which he had bought, and nourished vp: and it grew vp with him, and with his children also, and did eate of his owne morsels, and dranke of his owne cup, and slept in his bosome, and was vnto him as his daughter. ⁴Now there came a stranger vnto the rich man, who refused to take of his owne sheepe, and of his owne oxen to dresse for the stranger that was come vnto him, but tooke the poore mans sheepe, and dressed it for the man that was come to him. ⁵Then Dauid was exceeding wroth with the man, and sayde to Nathan, As the Lord liueth, the man that hath done this thing, shall surely dye, ⁶And he shall restore the lambe foure folde, because he did this thing, and had no pitie thereof. ⁷Then Nathan sayd to Dauid, Thou art the man. Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, I anoynted thee King ouer Israel, and deliuered thee out of the hand of Saul, ⁸And gaue thee thy lordes house, and thy lords wiues into thy bosome, and gaue thee the house of Israel, and of Iudah, and would moreouer (if that had bene too litle) haue giuen thee such and such things. ⁹Wherefore hast thou despised the commandement of the Lord, to doe euill in his sight? thou hast killed Vriah the Hittite with ye sworde, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slaine him with the sworde of the children of Ammon. ¹⁰Now therefore the sworde shall neuer depart from thine house, because thou hast despised me, and taken the wife of Vriah the Hittite to be thy wife. ¹¹Thus sayth the Lord, Behold, I will rayse vp euil against thee out of thine owne house, and will take thy wiues before thine eyes, and giue them vnto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wiues in the sight of this sunne. ¹²For thou diddest it secretly: but I will doe this thing before all Israel, and before the sunne. ¹³Then Dauid sayde vnto Nathan, I haue sinned against the Lord. And Nathan sayde vnto Dauid, The Lord also hath put away thy sinne, thou shalt not die. ¹⁴Howbeit because by this deede thou hast caused the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the childe that is borne vnto thee shall surely die. ¹⁵So Nathan departed vnto his house: and the Lord stroke the childe that Vriahs wife bare vnto Dauid, and it was sicke. ¹⁶Dauid therefore besought God for the childe, and fasted and went in, and lay all night vpon the earth. ¹⁷Then the Elders of his house arose to come vnto him, and to cause him to rise from the groud: but he would not, neither did he eate meate with them. ¹⁸So on the seuenth day the childe dyed: and the seruants of Dauid feared to tell him that the childe was dead: for they sayde, Beholde, while the childe was aliuie, we spake vnto him, and he woulde not hearken vnto our voyce: how then shall we say vnto him, The childe is dead, to vexe him more? ¹⁹But when Dauid sawe that his seruantes whispered, Dauid perceiued that the childe was dead: therefore Dauid sayde vnto his seruants, Is the childe dead? And they sayd, He is dead. ²⁰Then Dauid arose from the earth, and washed and anoynted himselfe, and changed his apparell, and came into the house of the Lord, and worshipped, and afterward came to his owne house, and bade that they should set bread before him, and he did eate. ²¹Then saide his seruants vnto him, What thing is this, that thou hast done? thou diddest fast and weepe for the childe while it was aliue, but when the childe was dead, thou diddest rise vp, and eate meate. ²²And he sayde, While the childe was yet aliue, I fasted, and wept: for I sayde, Who can tell whether God will haue mercy on me, that the childe may liue? ²³But now being dead, wherefore shoulde I now fast? Can I bring him againe any more? I shall goe to him, but he shall not returne to me. ²⁴And Dauid comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in vnto her, and lay with her, and she bare a sonne, and he called his name Salomon: also the Lord loued him. ²⁵For the Lord had sent by Nathan the Prophet: therefore he called his name Iedidiah, because the Lord loued him. ²⁶Then Ioab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and tooke the citie of the kingdome. ²⁷Therefore Ioab sent messengers to Dauid, saying, I haue fought against Rabbah, and haue taken the citie of waters. ²⁸Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and besiege the city, that thou mayest take it, lest the victorie be attributed to me. ²⁹So Dauid gathered al the people together, and went against Rabbah, and besieged it, and tooke it. ³⁰And he tooke their Kings crowne from his head, (which weighed a talent of golde, with precious stones) and it was set on Dauids head: and he brought away the spoyle of the citie in exceeding great abundance. ³¹And he carryed away the people that was therein, and put them vnder sawes, and vnder yron harowes, and vnder axes of yron, and cast them into the tyle kylne: euen thus did he with all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then Dauid and all the people returned vnto Ierusalem.

¹Now after this so it was, that Absalom the sonne of Dauid hauing a fayre sister, whose name was Tamar, Amnon the sonne of Dauid loued her. ²And Amnon was so sore vexed, that he fell sicke for his sister Tamar: for she was a virgin, and it seemed hard to Amnon to doe any thing to her. ³But Amnon had a friend called Ionadab, the sonne of Shimeah Dauids brother: and Ionadab was a very subtile man. ⁴Who sayde vnto him, Why art thou the Kings sonne so leane from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? Then Amnon answered him, I loue Tamar my brother Absaloms sister. ⁵And Ionadab sayd vnto him, Lie downe on thy bed, and make thy selfe sicke: and when thy father shall come to see thee, say vnto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and giue me meate, and let her dresse meate in my sight, that I may see it, and eate it of her hand. ⁶So Amnon lay downe, and made himselfe sicke: and when the King came to see him, Amnon sayde vnto the King, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may receiue meate at her hand. ⁷Then Dauid sent home to Tamar, saying, Goe now to thy brother Amnons house, and dresse him meate. ⁸So Tamar went to her brother Amnons house, and he lay downe: and she tooke floure, and knead it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes. ⁹And she tooke a pan, and powred them out before him, but he would not eat. Then Amnon saide, Cause ye euery man to goe out from me: so euery man went out from him. ¹⁰Then Amnon said vnto Tamar, Bring the meate into the chamber, that I may eate of thine hand. And Tamar tooke the cakes which shee had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother. ¹¹And when she had set them before him to eate, he tooke her, and sayd vnto her, Come, lye with me, my sister. ¹²But shee answered him, Nay, my brother, doe not force me: for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: commit not this follie. ¹³And I, whither shall I cause my shame to goe? and thou shalt be as one of the fooles in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, speake to the King, for he will not denie me vnto thee. ¹⁴Howbeit he would not hearken vnto her voyce, but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her. ¹⁵Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater then the loue, wherewith hee had loued her: and Amnon sayde vnto her,

Vp, get thee hence. ¹⁶And she answered him, There is no cause: this euill (to put mee away) is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me: but he would not heare her, ¹⁷But called his seruant that serued him, and sayd, Put this woman now out from me, and locke the doore after her. ¹⁸(And she had a garment of diuers coulours vpon her: for with such garments were the Kings daughters that were virgins, apparelled) Then his seruant brought her out, and locked the doore after her. ¹⁹And Tamar put ashes on her head and rent the garment of diuers colours which was on her, and layde her hand on her head, and went her way crying. ²⁰And Absalom her brother sayd vnto her, Hath Amnon thy brother bene with thee? Now yet be still, my sister: he is thy brother: let not this thing grieue thine heart. So Tamar remayned desolate in her brother Absaloms house. ²¹But when King Daud heard all these things, he was very wroth. ²²And Absalom sayde vnto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar. ²³And after the time of two yeeres, Absalom had sheepsherers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim, and Absalom called all the Kings sonnes. ²⁴And Absalom came to the King and sayd, Beholde now, thy seruant hath sheepsherers: I pray thee, that the King with his seruants would goe with thy seruant. ²⁵But the King answered Absalom, Nay my sonne, I pray thee, let vs not goe all, lest we be chargeable vnto thee. Yet Absalom lay sore vpon him: howbeit he would not go, but thanked him. ²⁶Then sayd Absalom, But, I pray thee, shall not my brother Amnon goe with vs? And the king answered him, Why should he go with thee? ²⁷But Absalom was instant vpon him, and he sent Amnon with him, and all the Kings children. ²⁸Now had Absalom commanded his seruants, saying, Marke now when Amnons heart is merry with wine, and when I say vnto you, Smite Amnon, kill him, feare not, for haue not I commanded you?

be bold therefore, and play the men. ²⁹And the seruantes of Absalom did vnto Amnon, as Absalom had commanded: and al the Kings sonnes arose, and euey man gate him vp vpon his mule, and fled. ³⁰And while they were in the way, tydings came to Dauid, saying, Absalom hath slaine al the Kings sonnes, and there is not one of them left. ³¹Then the King arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the ground, and all his seruants stode by with their clothes rent. ³²And Ionadab the sonne of Shimeah Dauids brother answered and sayde, Let not my lord suppose that they haue slayne all the yong men the Kings sonnes: for Amnon onely is dead, because Absalom had reported so, since hee forced his sister Tamar. ³³Nowe therefore let not my lord the King take the thing so grieuously, to thinke that all ye Kings sonnes are dead: for Amnon only is dead. ³⁴Then Absalom fled: and the yong man that kept the watch, lift vp his eyes, and looked, and behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behinde him.

³⁵And Ionadab said vnto the King, Behold, ye Kings sonnes come: as thy seruant sayd, so it is. ³⁶And assoone as hee had left speaking, behold, the Kings sonnes came, and lift vp their voyces, and wept: and the King also and all his seruants wept exceedingly sore. ³⁷But Absalom fled away, and went to Talmay the sonne of Ammihur King of Geshur: and Dauid mourned for his sonne euey day. ³⁸So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three yeeres. ³⁹And King Dauid desired to go forth vnto Absalom, because he was pacified concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

¹Then Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah perceyued, that the Kings heart was toward Absalom, ²And Ioab sent to Tekoah, and brought thence a subtile woman, and sayd vnto her, I pray thee, fayne thy selfe to mourne, and nowe put on mourning apparel, and anoynt not thy selfe with oyle: but be as a woman that had now long time mourned for the dead. ³And come to the King, and speake on this maner vnto him, (for Ioab taught her what she should say). ⁴Then the woman of Tekoah spake vnto the king, and fel downe on her face to the ground, and did obeysance, and sayd, Helpe, O King. ⁵Then the King sayd vnto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am in deede a widow, and mine husband is dead: ⁶And thine handmayd had two sonnes, and they two stroue together in the fiede: (and there was none to part them) so the one smote the other, and slew him. ⁷And beholde, the whole familie is risen against thine handmayde, and they sayde, Deliuer him that smote his brother, that we may kill him for the soule of his brother whome hee slewe, that we may destroy the heire also: so they shall quenche my sparkle which is left, and shall not leaue to mine husband neither name nor posteritie vpon the earth. ⁸And the King said vnto the woman, Go to thine house, and I wil giue a charge for thee. ⁹Then the woman of Tekoah said vnto the King, My lord, O King, this trespas be on me, and on my fathers house, and the King and his throne be giltlesse. ¹⁰And the King sayde, Bring him to me that speaketh against thee, and he shall touche thee no more. ¹¹Then said she, I pray thee, let the King remember the Lord thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer many reuengers of blood to destroy, lest they slay my sonne. And he answered, As the Lord liueth, there shall not one heare of thy sonne fall to the earth. ¹²Then the woman said, I pray thee, let thine handmayde speake a worde to my lord the King. And he sayd, Say on. ¹³Then the woman sayde, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? or why doeth the King, as one which is faultie, speake this thing, that he will not bring againe his banished? ¹⁴For we must needes dye, and we are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered vp againe: neither doeth God spare any person, yet doeth he appoynt meanes, not to cast out from him, him that is expelled. ¹⁵Nowe therefore that I am come to speake of this thing vnto my lord the King, the cause is that the people haue made me afraide: therefore thine handmayde sayd, Nowe will I speake vnto the King: it may be that the King will perfourme the request of his handmayde. ¹⁶For the King wil heare, to deliuer his handmayde out of the hande of the man that woulde destroy mee, and also my sonne from the inheritance of God. ¹⁷Therefore thine handmaid sayd, The word of my lord the King shall now be comfortable: for my lorde the King is euen as an Angel of God in hearing of good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee. ¹⁸Then the King answered, and said vnto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall aske thee. And the woman sayde, Let my lord the King now speake. ¹⁹And the King said, Is not the hand of Ioab with thee in all this? Then the woman answered, and sayd, As thy soule liueth, my lord the King, I will not turne to the right hande nor to the left, from ought that my lorde the King hath spoken: for euen thy seruant Ioab bade mee, and he put all these wordes in the mouth of thine handmayde. ²⁰For to the intent that I should chage the forme of speach, thy seruant Ioab hath done this thing: but my lord is wise according to the wisdome of an Angel of God to vnderstande all things that are in the earth. ²¹And the King sayde vnto Ioab, Beholde now, I haue done this thing: go then, and bring the yong man Absalom againe. ²²And Ioab fell to the grounde on his face, and bowed himselfe, and thanked the King. Then Ioab sayde, This day thy seruant knoweth, that I haue found grace in thy sight, my lord the King, in that the King hath fulfilled the request of his seruant. ²³And Ioab arose, and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Ierusalem. ²⁴And the King sayde, Let him turne to his owne house, and not see my face. So Absalom turned to his owne house, and saw not the Kings face. ²⁵Nowe in all Israel there was none to be so much praysed for beautie as Absalom: from the sole of his foote euen to the toppe of his head there was no blemish in him. ²⁶And when he polled his head, (for at euery yeeres ende he polled it: because it was too heauie for him, therefore he polled it) he weyghed the heare of his head at two hundreth shekels by the Kings weight. ²⁷And Absalom had three sonnes, and one daughter named Tamar, which was a fayre woman to looke vpon. ²⁸So Absalom dwelt the space of two yeres in Ierusalem, and saw not the Kings face. ²⁹Therefore Absalom sent for Ioab to sende him to the King, but he would not come to him: and when he sent againe, he would not come. ³⁰Therefore he sayde vnto his seruants, Beholde, Ioab hath a fiede by my place, and hath barley therein: go, and set it on fire: and Absaloms seruants set the field on fire. ³¹Then Ioab arose, and came to Absalom vnto his house, and sayd vnto him, Wherefore haue thy seruants burnt my field with fire? ³²And Absalom answered Ioab, Beholde, I sent for thee, saying, Come thou hither, and I wil send thee to the King for to say, Wherefore am I come from

Geshur? It had bene better for me to haue bene there still: nowe therefore let mee see the Kings face: and if there be any trespasse in me, let him kill me. ³³Then Ioab came to the King, and told him: and he called for Absalom, who came to the King, and bowed himselfe to the grounde on his face before the King, and the King kissed Absalom.

¹After this, Absalom prepared him charets and horses, and fiftie men to runne before him. ²And Absalom rose vp early, and stode hard by the entring in of the gate: and euery man that had any matter, and came to the King for iudgement, him did Absalom call vnto him, and sayde, Of what citie art thou? And he answered, Thy seruant is of one of the tribes of Israel. ³Then Absalom said vnto him, See, thy matters are good and righteous, but there is no man deputed of the King to heare thee. ⁴Absalom sayd moreouer, Oh that I were made Iudge in the lande, that euery man which hath any matter of controuersie, might come to me, that I might do him iustice. ⁵And when any man came neere to him, and did him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and tooke him, and kissed him. ⁶And on this maner did Absalom to al Israel, that came to the King for iudgement: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. ⁷And after fourtie yeeres, Absalom sayd vnto the King, I pray thee, let me go to Hebron, and render my vowe which I haue vowed vnto the Lord. ⁸For thy seruant vowed a vowe when I remayned at Geshur, in Aram, saying, If the Lord shall bring me againe in deede to Ierusalem, I will serue the Lord. ⁹And the King sayd vnto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron. ¹⁰Then Absalom sent spyes throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, When yee heare the sound of the trumpet, Ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron. ¹¹And with Absalom went two hundreth men out of Ierusalem, that were called: and they went in their simplicitie, knowing nothing. ¹²Also Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite Dauids counsellor, from his citie Giloh, while he offered sacrifices: and the treason was great: for the people increased still with Absalom. ¹³Then came a messenger to Dauid, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are turned after Absalom. ¹⁴Then Dauid sayd vnto all his seruants that were with him at Ierusalem, Vp, and let vs flee: for we shall not escape from Absalom: make speede to depart, lest he come suddenly and take vs, and bring euill vpon vs, and smite the citie with the edge of the sworde. ¹⁵And the Kings seruants sayd vnto him, Behold, thy seruants are ready to do according to all that my lord the King shall appoynt. ¹⁶So the King departed and all his houshold after him, and the King left ten concubines to keepe the house. ¹⁷And the King went forth and all the people after him, and taried in a place farre off. ¹⁸And all his seruants went about him, and all the Cherethites and all the Pelethites and all the Gittites, euen sixe hundreth men which were come after him from Gath, went before the King. ¹⁹Then sayde the King to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore comdest thou also with vs? Returne aud abide with the King, for thou art a stranger: depart thou therefore to thy place.

²⁰Thou camest yesterday, and should I cause thee to wander to day and go with vs? I will goe whither I can: therefore returne thou and cary againe thy brethren: mercy and trueth be with thee.

²¹And Ittai answered the King, and sayde, As the Lord liueth, and as my lord the King liueth, in what place my lord the King shalbe, whether in death or life, euen there surely will thy seruant bee. ²²Then Dauid sayd to Ittai, Come, and go forward. And Ittai the Gittite went, and all his men, and all the children that were with him. ²³And all the countrey wept with a loude voyce, and all the people went forward, but the King passed ouer the brooke Kidron: and all the people went ouer toward the way of ye wildernes. ²⁴And lo, Zadok also was there, and all the Leuites with him, bearing the Arke of the couenant of God: and they set downe the Arke of God, and Abiathar went vp vntill the people

²⁵Then the King said vnto Zadok, Carie the Arke of God againe into the citie: if I shall finde fauour in the eyes of the Lord, he will bring me againe, and shewe me both it, and the Tabernacle thereof. ²⁶But if he thus say, I haue no delite in thee, behold, here am I, let him doe to me as seemeth good in his eyes. ²⁷The King sayde againe vnto Zadok the Priest, Art not thou a Seer? returne into the citie in peace, and your two sonnes with you: to wit, Ahimaaz thy sonne, and Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar. ²⁸Behold, I wil tarie in the fieldes of the wildernes, vntill there come some worde from you to be tolde me. ²⁹Zadok therefore and Abiathar caried the Arke of God againe to Ierusalem, and they taried there. ³⁰And Dauid went vp the mount of oliues and wept as he went vp, and had his head couered, and went barefooted: and al the people that was with him, had euery man his head couered, and as they went vp, they wept. ³¹Then one tolde Dauid, saying, Ahithophel is one of them that haue conspired with Absalom: and Dauid sayde, O Lord, I pray thee, turne the counsell of Ahithophel into foolishnesse. ³²Then Dauid came to the toppe of the mount where he worshipped God: and beholde, Hushai the Archite came against him with his coate torne, and hauing earth vpon his head. ³³Vnto whom Dauid sayd, If thou goe with me, thou shalt be a burthen vnto me. ³⁴But if thou returne to the citie, and say vnto Absalom, I wil be thy seruant, O King, (as I haue bene in time past thy fathers seruant, so will I now be thy seruant) then thou mayest bring me the counsell of Ahithophel to nought. ³⁵And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the Priests? therefore what so euer thou shalt heare out of the Kings house, thou shalt shew to Zadok and Abiathar the Priests. ³⁶Beholde, there are with them their two sonnes: Ahimaaz Zadoks sonne, and Ionathan Abiathars sonne: by them also shall ye send me euery thing that ye can heare. ³⁷So Hushai Dauids friend went into the citie: and Absalom came into Ierusalem.

¹When Dauid was a little past the top of the hill, behold, Ziba the seruant of Mephibosheth mette him with a couple of asses sadled, and vpon them two hundreth cakes of bread, and an hundreth bunches of raisins, and an hundreth of dried figges, and a bottel of wine. ²And the King said vnto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, They be asses for the kings housholde to ride on, and bread and dried figges for the yong men to eate, and wine, that the faint may drinke in the wilderness. ³And the king sayde, But where is thy masters sonne? Then Ziba answered the King, Beholde, he remayneth in Ierusalem: for he sayde, This day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdome of my father. ⁴Then said the King to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained vnto Mephibosheth. And Ziba saide, I beseech thee, let me finde grace in thy sight, my lord, O King. ⁵And when king Dauid came to Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the familie of the house of Saul, named Shimei the sonne of Gera: and he came out, and cursed. ⁶And he cast stones at Dauid, and at all the seruants of King Dauid: and all the people, and all the men of warre were on his right hande, and on his left. ⁷And thus sayde Shimei when hee cursed, Come forth, come forth thou murtherer, and wicked man. ⁸The Lord hath brought vpon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned: and the Lord hath deliuered thy kingdome into the hand of Absalom thy sonne: and beholde, thou art taken in thy wickednesse, because thou art a murtherer. ⁹Then saide Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah vnto the King, Why doeth this dead dog curse my lord the King? let me goe, I pray thee, and take away his head. ¹⁰But the King saide, What haue I to doe with you, ye sonnes of Zeruiah? for he curseth, eue because the Lord hath bidden him curse Dauid: who dare then say, Wherefore hast thou done so? ¹¹And Dauid sayd to Abishai, and to all his seruants, Beholde, my sonne which came out of mine owne bowels, seeketh my life: then howe much more now may this sonne of Iemini? Suffer him to curse: for the Lord hath bidden him. ¹²It may be that the Lord will looke on mine affliction, and doe me good for his cursing this day. ¹³And as Dauid and his men went by the way, Shimei went by the side of the mountaine ouer against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones against him, and cast dust. ¹⁴Then came the King and all the people that were with him wearie, and refreshed them selues there. ¹⁵And Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Ierusalem, and Ahithophel with him. ¹⁶And when Hushai the Archite Dauids friend was come vnto Absalom, Hushai said vnto Absalom, God saue the King, God saue the King. ¹⁷Then Absalom sayd to Hushai, Is this thy kindenes to thy friend? Why wentest thou not with thy friend? ¹⁸Hushai then answered vnto Absalom, Nay, but whome the Lord, and this people, and all the men of Israel chuse, his will I be, and with him will I dwell. ¹⁹And moreouer vnto whome shall I doe seruice? not to his sonne? as I serued before thy father, so will I before thee. ²⁰Then spake Absalom to Ahithophel, Giue counsell what we shall doe. ²¹And Ahithophel said vnto Absalom, Goe in to thy fathers concubines, which he hath left to keepe the house: and when all Israel shall heare, that thou art abhorred of thy father, the hands of all that are with thee, shall be strong. ²²So they spread Absalom a tent vpon the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his fathers concubines in the sight of all Israel. ²³And the counsell of Ahithophel which he counseled in those dayes, was like as one had asked counsell at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with Dauid and with Absalom.

¹Moreouer Ahithophel said to Absalom, Let me chuse out now twelue thousand men, and I will vp and follow after Dauid this night, ²And I will come vpon him:

for he is wearie, and weake handed: so I will feare him, and all the people that are with him, shall flee, and I will smite the King onely, ³And I will bring againe all the people vnto thee, and when all shall returne, (the man whome thou seekest being slaine) all the people shalbe in peace. ⁴And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the Elders of Israel. ⁵Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let vs heare likewise what he sayth. ⁶So when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spake vnto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken thus: shall we doe after his saying, or no? tell thou. ⁷Hushai then answered vnto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath giuen, is not good at this time. ⁸For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father, and his men, that they be strong men, and are chafed in minde as a beare robbed of her whelps in the field: also thy father is a valiant warriour, and will not lodge with the people. ⁹Behold, he is hid now in some caue, or in some place: and though some of them be ouerthrowen at the first, yet the people shall heare, and say, The people that follow Absalom, be ouerthrowen. ¹⁰Then he also that is valiant whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall shrink and faint: for all Israel knoweth, that thy father is valiant, and they which be with him, stout men. ¹¹Therefore my counsell is, that all Israel be gathered vnto thee, from Dan euen to Beer-sheba as the sand of the sea in number, and that thou goe to battell in thine owne person. ¹²So shall we come vpon him in some place, where we shall finde him, and we will vpon him as the dewe falleth on the ground: and of all the men that are with him, wee will not leaue him one. ¹³Moreouer if he be gotten into a citie, then shall all the men of Israel bring ropes to that citie, and we will draw it into the riuer, vntill there be not one small stone founde there. ¹⁴Then Absalom and all the men of Israel sayde, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better, then the counsell of Ahithophel: for the Lord had determined to destroy the good counsell of Ahithophel, that the Lord might bring euill vpon Absalom. ¹⁵Then said Hushai vnto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that maner did Ahithophel and the Elders of Israel counsell Absalom: and thus and thus haue I counseled. ¹⁶Now therefore sende quickly, and shewe Dauid, saying, Tarie not this night in the fieldes of the wilderness, but rather get thee ouer, lest the King be deuoured and all the people that are with him. ¹⁷Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz abode by En-rogel: (for they might not be seene to come into the citie) and a maid went, and tolde them, and they went and shewed King Dauid. ¹⁸Neuerthesse a yong man sawe them, and tolde it to Absalom. therefore they both departed quickly, and came to a mans house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court, into the which they went downe. ¹⁹And the wife tooke and spred a couering ouer the welles mouth, and spred ground corne thereon, that the thing should not be known. ²⁰And when Absaloms seruants came to the wife into the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and

Jonathan? And the woman answered them, They be gone ouer the brooke of water. And when they had sought them, and could not finde them, they returned to Ierusalem. ²¹And assoone as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and tolde King Dauid, and sayde vnto him, Vp, and get you quickly ouer the water: for such counsell hath Ahithophel giuen against you. ²²Then Dauid arose, and all the people that were with him, and they went ouer Iorden vntil the dawning of the day, so that there lacked not one of them, that was not come ouer Iorden. ²³Nowe when Ahithophel sawe that his counsell was not followed, he saddled his asse, and arose, and he went home vnto his citie, and put his houshold in order, and hanged him selfe, and dyed, and was buried in his fathers graue. ²⁴Then Dauid came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed ouer Iorden, he, and all the men of Israel with him. ²⁵And Absalom made Amasa captaine of the hoste in the stead of Ioab: which Amasa was a mans sonne named Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Ioabs mother. ²⁶So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead. ²⁷And when Dauid was come to Mahanaim, Shobi the sonne of Nahash out of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the sonne of Ammiel out of Lodebar, and Barzelai the Gileadite out of Rogel ²⁸Brought beds, and basens, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and floure, and parched corne, and beanes, and lentiles, and parched corne. ²⁹And they brought hony, and butter, and sheepe, and cheese of kine for Dauid and for the people that were with him, to eate: for they said, The people is hungry, and wearie, and thirstie in the wilderness.

¹Then Dauid numbred the people that were with him, and set ouer them captaines of thousands and captaines of hundreths. ²And Dauid sent foorth the third part of the people vnder the hand of Ioab, and the thirde part vnder the hand of Abishai Ioabs brother the sonne of Zeruiah: and the other third part vnder the hand of Ittai the Gittite. and the King said vnto the people, I will go with you my selfe also. ³But the people answered, Thou shalt not goe foorth: for if we flee away, they will not regarde vs, neither will they passe for vs, though halfe of vs were slaine: but thou art now worth ten thousande of vs: therefore nowe it is better that thou succour vs out of the citie. ⁴Then the King said vnto them, What seemeth you best, that I will doe. So the King stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreths and by thousands. ⁵And the King commanded Ioab and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Entreate the yong man Absalom gently for my sake. and all the people heard whe the King gaue al the captaines charge concerning Absalom. ⁶So the people went out into the field to meete Israel, and the battell was in the wood of Ephraim: ⁷Where the people of Israel were slaine before the seruants of Dauid: so there was a great slaughter that day, euen of twentie thousande. ⁸For the battel was skattered ouer all the countrey: and the wood deuoured much more people that day, then did the sworde. ⁹Nowe Absalom met the seruants of Dauid, and Absalom rode vpon a mule, and the mule came vnder a great thicke oke: and his head caught holde of the oke, and he was taken vp betweene the heauen and the earth: and the mule that was vnder him went away. ¹⁰And one that sawe it, tolde Ioab, saying, Beholde, I sawe Absalom hanged in an oke. ¹¹Then Ioab saide vnto the man that tolde him, And hast thou in deede seene? why then diddest thou not there smite him to the grounde, and I woulde haue giuen thee ten shekels of siluer, and a girdle? ¹²Then the man saide vnto Ioab, Though I should receiue a thousande shekels of siluer in mine hande, yet woulde I not lay mine hande vpon the Kings sonne: for in our hearing the King charged thee, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Beware, least any touche the yong man Absalom. ¹³If I had done it, it had bene the danger of my life: for nothing can be hid from the King: yea, thou thy selfe wouldest haue bin against me. ¹⁴Then saide Ioab, I will not thus tary with thee. And he tooke three dartes in his hande, and thrust them through Absalom, while he was yet aliue in the middes of the oke. ¹⁵And tenne seruants that bare Ioabs armour, compassed about and smote Absalom, and slewe him. ¹⁶Then Ioab blewe the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Ioab helde backe the people. ¹⁷And they tooke Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and layed a mightie great heape of stones vpon him: and all Israel fled euery one to his tent. ¹⁸Nowe Absalom in his life time had taken and reared him vp a pillar, which is in the kings dale: for he saide, I haue no sonne to keepe my name in remembrance. and he called the pillar after his owne name, and it is called vnto this day, Absaloms place. ¹⁹Then said Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok, I pray thee, let me runne, and beare the King tidings that the Lord hath deliuered him out of the hande of his enemies. ²⁰And Ioab said vnto him, Thou shalt not be the messenger to day, but thou shalt beare tidings another time, but to day thou shalt beare none: for the Kings sonne is dead. ²¹Then said Ioab to Cushi, Goe, tel the king, what thou hast seene. And Cushi bowed himselfe vnto Ioab, and ran. ²²Then saide Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok againe to Ioab, What, I pray thee, if I also runne after Cushi? And Ioab said, Wherefore now wilt thou runne, my sonne, seeing that thou hast no tidings to bring? ²³Yet what if I runne? Then he saide vnto him, Runne. So Ahimaaz ranne by the way of the plaine, and ouerwent Cushi. ²⁴Nowe Dauid sate betweene the two gates. And the watchman went to the top of the gate vpon the wall, and lift vp his eyes, and sawe, and beholde, a man came running alone. ²⁵And the watchman cryed, and tolde ye king. And the King said, If he be alone, he bringeth tidings. And he came apace, and drew neere. ²⁶And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called vnto the porter, and said, Behold, another man runneth alone. And the King said, He also bringeth tidings. ²⁷And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the formost is like the running of Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok. Then the King said, He is a good man, and commeth with good tidings. ²⁸And Ahimaaz called, and sayde vnto the King, Peace be with thee: and he fell downe to the earth vpon his face before the King, and saide, Blessed be the Lord thy God, who hath shut vp the men that lift vp their handes against my lorde the King. ²⁹And the King saide, Is the yong man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Ioab sent the Kings seruant, and me thy seruant, I sawe a great tumult, but I knewe not what. ³⁰And the King said vnto him, Turne aside, and stand here. so he turned aside and stode still. ³¹And beholde, Cushie came, and Cushie saide, Tidings, my lorde the King: for the Lord hath deliuered thee this day out of the hande of all that rose against thee. ³²Then the King saide vnto Cushie, Is the yong man Absalom safe? And Cushie answered, The enemies of my lorde the King, and all that rise against thee to doe thee hurt, be as that yong man is. ³³And the King was mooued, and went vp to the chamber ouer the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my sonne Absalom, my sonne, my sonne Absalom: woulde God I had dyed for thee, O Absalom, my sonne, my sonne.

¹And it was tolde Ioab, Behold, the King weepeth and mourneth for Absalom. ²Therefore the victorie of that day was turned into mourning to all the people: for the people heard say that day, The King soroweth for his sonne. ³And the people went that day into the citie secretly, as people confounded hide them selues when they flee in battell. ⁴So the King hid his face, and the King cryed with a loude voyce, My sonne Absalom, Absalom my sonne, my sonne. ⁵Then Ioab came into the house to the King, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy seruants, which this day haue saued thy life and the liues of thy sones, and of

thy daughters, and the liues of thy wiues, and the liues of thy concubines, ⁶In that thou louest thine enemies, and hatest thy friendes: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither thy princes nor seruants: therefore this day I perceiue, that if Absalom had liued, and we all had dyed this day, that then it would haue pleased thee well. ⁷Nowe therefore vp, come out, and speake comfortably vnto thy seruants: for I sweare by the Lord, except thou come out, there will not tarie one man with thee this night: and that wil be worse vnto thee, then all the euill that fell on thee from thy youth hitherto. ⁸Then the King arose, and sate in the gate: and they tolde vnto all the people, saying, Beholde, the King doeth sit in the gate: and all the people came before the King: for Israel had fled euery man to his tent. ⁹Then all the people were at strife thorowout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The King saued vs out of the hand of our enemies, and he deliuered vs out of the hande of the Philistims, and nowe he is fled out of the lande for

Absalom. ¹⁰And Absalom, whome we anoynted ouer vs, is dead in battel: therefore why are ye so slow to bring the King againe? ¹¹But King Dauid sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the Priestes, saying, Speake vnto the Elders of Iudah, and say, Why are ye behind to bring the King againe to his house, (for the saying of al Israel is come vnto the king, euen to his house) ¹²Ye are my brethren: my bones and my flesh are ye: wherefore then are ye the last that bring the King againe? ¹³Also say ye to Amasa, Art thou not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me and more also, if thou be not captaine of the hoste to me for euer in the rounge of Ioab. ¹⁴So he bowed the heartes of all the men of Iudah, as of one man: therefore they sent to the King, saying, Returne thou with all thy seruants. ¹⁵So the King returned, and came to Iorden. And Iudah came to Gilgal, for to goe to meete the King, and to conduct him ouer Iorde. ¹⁶And Shimei the sonne of Gera, ye sonne of Iemini, which was of Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Iudah to meete king Dauid, ¹⁷And a thousande men of Beniamin with him, and Ziba the seruant of the house of Saul, and his fiftene sonnes and twentie seruants with him: and they went ouer Iorden before ye king. ¹⁸And there went ouer a boate to carie ouer the Kings houshold, and to do him pleasure. Then Shimei the sonne of Gera fell before the King, when he was come ouer Iorden, ¹⁹And saide vnto the King, Let not my lorde impute wickednesse vnto me, nor remember ye thing that thy seruant did wickedly when my lorde the King departed out of Ierusalem, that the King should take it to his heart. ²⁰For thy seruant doeth knowe, that I haue done amisse: therefore beholde, I am the first this day of al the house of Ioseph, that am come to goe downe to meete my lord the King. ²¹But Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah answered, and said, Shal not Shimei die for this, because he cursed the Lordes anoynted? ²²And Dauid saide, What haue I to do with you, ye sonnes of Zeruiah, that this day ye should be aduersaries vnto me? shall there any man die this day in Israel? for doe not I know that I am this day King ouer Israel? ²³Therefore the King saide vnto Shimei, Thou shalt not die, and the king sware vnto him. ²⁴And Mephibosheth the sonne of Saul came downe to meete the king, and had neither washed his feete, nor dressed his beard, nor washed his clothes from the time the king departed, vntill he returned in peace. ²⁵And when he was come to Ierusalem, and met the king, the king said vnto him, Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth? ²⁶And he answered, My lorde the king, my seruant deceiued me: for thy seruant said, I would haue mine asse saddled to ride thereon, for to goe with the king, because thy seruant is lame. ²⁷And he hath accused thy seruant vnto my lorde the king: but my lorde the king is as an Angel of God: doe therefore thy pleasure. ²⁸For all my fathers house were but dead men before my lord the king, yet diddest thou set thy seruant among them that did eate at thine owne table: what right therefore haue I yet to crye any more vnto the king? ²⁹And the king said vnto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I haue said, Thou, and Ziba deuide the landes. ³⁰And Mephibosheth saide vnto the king, Yea, let him take all, seeing my lorde the king is come home in peace. ³¹Then Barzillai the Gileadite came downe from Rogelim, and went ouer Iorden with the king, to conduct him ouer Iorden. ³²Nowe Barzillai was a very aged man, euen fourescore yeere olde, and he had prouided the king of sustenance, while he lay at Mahanaim: for he was a man of very great substance. ³³And the king said vnto Barzillai, Come ouer with me, and I will feede thee with me in Ierusalem. ³⁴And Barzillai said vnto the king, Howe long haue I to liue, that I should goe vp with the king to Ierusalem? ³⁵I am this day fourescore yeere olde: and can I discerne betweene good or euill? Hath thy seruant any taste in that I eat or in that I drinke? Can I heare any more the voyce of singing men and women?

wherefore then should thy seruant be anymore a burthen vnto my lord the king? ³⁶Thy seruant will goe a litle way ouer Iorden with the King, and why wil the king recompence it me with such a rewarde? ³⁷I pray thee, let thy seruant turne backe againe, that I may die in mine owne citie, and be buryed in the graue of my father and of my mother: but beholde thy seruant Chimham, let him goe with my lorde the king, and doe to him what shall please thee. ³⁸And the king answered, Chimham shall go with me, and I will do to him that thou shalt be content with: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee. ³⁹So all the people went ouer Iorden: and the King passed ouer: and the King kissed Barzillai, and blessed him, and hee returned vnto his owne place. ⁴⁰Then the King went to Gilgal, and Chimham went with him, and all the people of Iudah conducted the King, and also halfe ye people of Israel. ⁴¹And behold, all the men of Israel came to the King, and sayd vnto the King, Why haue our brethren the men of

Iudah stollen thee away, and haue brought the King and his houshold, and all Dauids men with him ouer Iorden? ⁴²And all the men of Iudah answered the men of Israel, Because the King is neere of kin to vs: and wherefore now be ye angry for this matter? haue we eaten of the Kings cost, or haue wee taken any bribes? ⁴³And the men of Israel answered the men of Iudah, and saide, Wee haue ten partes in the King, and haue also more right to Dauid then ye: Why then did ye despise vs, that our aduise should not bee first had in restoring our King? And the wordes of the men of Iudah were fiercer then the wordes of the men of Israel.

¹Then there was come thither a wicked man (named Sheba the sonne of Bichri, a man of Iemini) and hee blew the trumpet, and saide, Wee haue no part in Dauid, neither haue we inheritance in the sonne of Ishai: euery man to his tents, O Israel. ²So euery man of Israel went from Dauid and followed Sheba the sonne of Bichri: but the men of Iudah claue fast vnto their King, from Iorden euen to Ierusalem. ³When Dauid then came to his house to Ierusalem, the King tooke the ten women his concubines, that hee had left behinde him to keepe the house, and put them in warde, and fed them, but lay no more with them: but they were enclosed vnto the day of their death, liuing in widowhode. ⁴Then sayde the King to Amasa, Assemble me the men of Iudah within three dayes, and be thou here present. ⁵So Amasa went to assemble Iudah, but hee taried longer then the time which he had appoynted him. ⁶Then Dauid sayd to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the sonne of Bichri doe vs more harme then did Absalom: take thou therefore thy lords seruants and follow after him, lest he get him walled cities, and escape vs. ⁷And there went out after him Ioabs men, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mightie men: and they departed out of Ierusalem, to follow after Sheba the sonne of Bichri. ⁸When they were at the great stone, which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them, and Iobabs garment, that hee had put on, was girded vnto him, and vpon it was a sword girded, which hanged on his loynes in the sheath, and as hee went, it vsed to fall out. ⁹And Iobab sayde to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? and Iobab tooke Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kisse him. ¹⁰But Amasa tooke no heede to the sworde that was in Iobabs hande: for therewith he smote him in the fift rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and smote him not the second time: so he dyed. then Iobab and Abishai his brother followed after Sheba the sonne of Bichri. ¹¹And one of Iobabs men stode by him, and saide, He that fauoureth Iobab, and hee that is of Dauids part, let him go after Iobab. ¹²And Amasa wallowed in blood in the mids of the way: and when the man sawe that all the people stood still, he remooued Amasa out of the way into the field, and cast a cloth vpon him, because he saw that euery one that came by him, stode still. ¹³When hee was remoued out of the way, euerie man went after Iobab, to follow after Sheba the sonne of Bichri.

¹⁴And he went through all the tribes of Israel vnto Abel, and Bethmaachah and all places of Berim: and they gathered together, and went also after him. ¹⁵So they came, and besieged him in Abel, neere to Bethmaachah: and they cast vp a mount against the citie, and the people thereof stood on the ramper, and al the people that was with Iobab, destroyed and cast downe the wall. ¹⁶Then cried a wise woman out of the citie, Heare, heare, I pray you, say vnto Iobab, Come thou hither, that I may speake with thee. ¹⁷And when hee came neere vnto her, the woman said, Art thou Iobab? And he answered, Yea. And she said to him, Heare the wordes of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do heare. ¹⁸Then shee spake thus, They spake in the olde time, saying, They shoulde aske of Abel. and so haue they continued. ¹⁹I am one of them, that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: and thou goest about to destroy a citie, and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou deuoure the inheritance of the Lord? ²⁰And Iobab answered, and said, God forbid, God forbid it me, that I should deuoure, or destroy it. ²¹The matter is not so, but a man of mout Ephraim (Sheba ye sonne of Bichri by name) hath lift vp his had against ye King, euen against Dauid: deliuer vs him onely, and I will depart from the citie. And the woman saide vnto Ioab, Beholde, his head shalbe throwen to thee ouer the wall. ²²Then the woman went vnto all the people with her wisdom, and they cut off the head of Sheba the sonne of Bichri, and cast it to Ioab: the he blewe the trumpet, and they retired from the citie, euery man to his tent: and Ioab returned to Ierusalem vnto the King. ²³Then Ioab was ouer all the hoste of Israel, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada ouer the Cherethites and ouer the Pelethies, ²⁴And Adoram ouer the tribute, and Ioshaphat the sonne of Ahilud the recorder, ²⁵And Sheia was Scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar the Priests, ²⁶And also Ira the Iairite was chiefe about Dauid.

¹Then there was a famine in the dayes of Dauid, three yeeres together: and Dauid asked counsell of the Lord, and the Lord answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloodie house, because hee slewe the Gibeonites. ²Then ye King called the Gibeonites and said vnto them. (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but a remnant of the Amorites, vnto whom ye children of Israel had sworne: but Saul sought to slay them for his zeale toward the children of Israel and Iudah) ³And Dauid said vnto the Gibeonites, What shall I doe for you, and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may blesse the inheritance of the Lord? ⁴The Gibeonites then answered him, Wee will haue no siluer nor golde of Saul nor of his house, neither for vs shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I doe for you. ⁵Then they answered the King, The man that consumed vs and that imagined euill against vs, so that we are destroyed from remaining in any coast of Israel, ⁶Let seuen men of his sonnes be deliuered vnto vs, and we will hang them vp vnto the Lord in Gibeah of Saul, the Lordes chosen. And the King said, I will giue them. ⁷But the King had compassion on Mephibosheth the sonne of Jonathan the sonne of Saul, because of the Lordes othe, that was betweene them, euen betweene Dauid and Jonathan the sonne of Saul. ⁸But the King tooke the two sonnes of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whome shee bare vnto Saul, euen Armoni and Mephibosheth and the fiue sonnes of Michal, the daughter of Saul, whome shee bare to Adriel the sonne of Barzillai the Meholahite. ⁹And hee deliuered them vnto the handes of the Gibeonites, which hanged them in the mountaine before the Lord: so they died all seuen together, and they were slaine in the time of haruest: in the first dayes, and in the beginning of barly haruest. ¹⁰Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah tooke sackcloth and hanged it vp for her vpon the rocke, from the beginning of haruest, vntill water dropped vpon them from the heauen, and suffered neither the birdes of the aire to light on the by day, nor beasts of the fiele by night. ¹¹And it was told Dauid, what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah ye concubine of Saul had done. ¹²And Dauid went and tooke the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his sonne from the citzens of Iabesh Gilead, which had stollen them from the streete of Beth-shan, where the Philistims had hanged them, when the Philistims had slaine Saul in Gilboa. ¹³So hee brought thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his sonne, and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged. ¹⁴And the bones of Saul and of Jonathan his sonne buried they in the coutrey of Benjamin in Zelah, in the graue of Kish his father: and when they had perfourmed all that the King had commanded, God was then appeased with the land. ¹⁵Againe the Philistims had warre with Israel: and Dauid went downe, and his seruants with him, and they fought against the Philistims, and Dauid fainted. ¹⁶Then Ishi-benob which was of the sonnes of Haraphah (the head of whose speare wayed three hundreth shekels of brasse) euen he being girded with a newe sword, thought to haue slaine Dauid.

¹⁷But Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistim, and killed him. Then Dauids men sware vnto him, saying, Thou shalt goe no more out with vs to battell, lest thou quench the light of Israel.

¹⁸And after this also there was a battell with the Philistims at Gob, then Sibbechai the Hushathite slewe Saph, which was one of ye sonnes of Haraphah. ¹⁹And there was yet another battel in Gob with the Philistims, where Elhanah the sonne of Iaare-oregim, a Bethlehemite slewe Goliath the Gittite: the staffe of whose speare was like a weauers beame. ²⁰Afterward there was also a battel in Gath, where was a man of a great stature, and had on euerie hand sixe fingers, and on euerie foote sixe toes, foure and twentie in number: who was also the sonne of Haraphah. ²¹And when hee reuiled Israel, Jonathan the sonne of Shima the brother of Dauid slewe him. ²²These foure were borne to Haraphah in Gath, and died by the hande of Dauid and by the hands of his seruants.

¹And Dauid spake the woordes of this song vnto the Lord, what time the Lord had deliuered him out of the handes of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul. ²And he sayd, The Lord is my rocke and my fortresse, and he that deliuereth mee. ³God is my strength, in him will I trust: my shielde, and the horne of my saluation, my hie tower and my refuge: my Sauour, thou hast saued me from violence. ⁴I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be prayd: so shall I be safe from mine enemies. ⁵For the pangs of death haue compassed me: the floods of vngodlinesse haue made mee afrayd. ⁶The sorowes of the graue compassed mee about: the snares of death ouertooke mee. ⁷But in my tribulation did I call vpon the Lord, and crie to my God, and he did heare my voyce out of his temple, and my crie did enter into his eares. ⁸Then the earth trembled and quaked: the foundations of the heauens

mooued and shooke, because he was angrie. ⁹Smoke went out at his nostrels, and consuming fire out of his mouth: coles were kindled thereat. ¹⁰He bowed the heauens also, and came downe, and darkenes was vnder his feete. ¹¹And he rode vpon Cherub and did flie, and hee was seene vpon the winges of the winde. ¹²And hee made darkenesse a Tabernacle round about him, euen the gatherings of waters, and the cloudes of the ayre. ¹³At the brightnesse of his presence the coles of fire were kindled. ¹⁴The Lord thundred from heauen, and the most hie gaue his voyce. ¹⁵He shot arrowes also, and scattered them: to wit, lightning, and destroyed them. ¹⁶The chanel also of the sea appeared, euen the foundations of the worlde were discouered by the rebuking of the Lord, and at the blast of the breath of his nostrels. ¹⁷He sent from aboue, and tooke me: hee drewe me out of many waters. ¹⁸He deliuered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me. ¹⁹They preuented me in the day of my calamitie, but the Lord was my stay, ²⁰And brought me forth into a large place: he deliuered me, because he faouored me. ²¹The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the purenesse of mine handes he recompensed me. ²²For I kept the wayes of the Lord, and did not wickedly against my God. ²³For all his lawes were before me, and his statutes: I did not depart therefrom. ²⁴I was vpriht also towarde him, and haue kept me from my wickednesse. ²⁵Therefore the Lord did reward me according to my righteousness, according to my purenesse before his eyes. ²⁶With the godly thou wilt shewe thy selfe godly: with the vpriht man thou wilt shew thy selfe vpriht. ²⁷With the pure thou wilt shewe thy selfe pure, and with the frowarde thou wilt shew thy selfe frowarde. ²⁸Thus thou wilt saue the poore people: but thine eyes are vpon the hautie to humble them. ²⁹Surely thou art my light, O Lord: and the Lord will lighten my darkenes. ³⁰For by thee haue I broken through an hoste, and by my God haue I leaped ouer a wall. ³¹The way of God is vncorrupt: the word of the Lord is tryed in the fire: he is a shield to all that trust in him. ³²For who is God besides the Lord? and who is mightie, saue our God? ³³God is my strength in battel, and maketh my way vpright. ³⁴He maketh my feete like hindes feete, and hath set me vpon mine hie places. ³⁵He teacheth mine handes to fight, so that a bowe of brasse is broken with mine armes. ³⁶Thou hast also giuen me the shield of thy saluation, and thy louing kindnesse hath caused me to increase. ³⁷Thou hast enlarged my steppes vnder me, and mine heeles haue not slid. ³⁸I haue pursued mine enemies and destroyed them, and haue not turned againe vntill I had consumed them. ³⁹Yea, I haue consumed them and thrust them through, and they shall not arise, but shall fall vnder my feete. ⁴⁰For thou hast girded me with power to battell, and them that arose against me, hast thou subdued vnder me. ⁴¹And thou hast giuen me the neckes of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me. ⁴²They looked about, but there was none to saue them, euen vnto the Lord, but he answered them not. ⁴³Then did I beate them as small as the dust of the earth: I did treade them flat as the clay of the streete, and did spread them abroad. ⁴⁴Thou hast also deliuered me from the contentions of my people: thou hast preserued me to be the head ouer nations: the people which I knewe not, doe serue me. ⁴⁵Strangers shalbe in subiection to me: assoone as they heare, they shall obey me. ⁴⁶Strangers shall shrink away, and feare in their priuie chambers. ⁴⁷Let the Lord liue, and blessed be my strength: and God, euen the force of my saluation be exalted. ⁴⁸It is God that giueth me power to reuenge me, and subdue the people vnder me, ⁴⁹And rescueth me from mine enemies: (thou also hast lift me vp from them that rose against me, thou hast deliuered me from the cruell man. ⁵⁰Therefore I will praise thee, O Lord amog the nations, and will sing vnto thy Name) ⁵¹He is the tower of saluation for his King, and sheweth mercie to his anointed, euen to Dauid, and to his seede for euer.

¹These also be the last wordes of Dauid, Dauid the sonne of Ishai saith, euen the man who was set vp on hie, the Anointed of the God of Iacob, and the sweete singer of Israel saith, ²The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his worde was in my tongue. ³The God of Israel spake to me, ye strength of Israel saide, 'Thou shalt beare rule ouer men, being iust, and ruling in the feare of God. ⁴Euen as the morning light when the sunne riseth, the morning, I say, without cloudes, so shall mine house be, and not as the grasse of the earth is by the bright raine. ⁵For so shall not mine house be with God: for he hath made with me an euerlasting couenant, perfite in all pointes, and sure: therefore all mine health and whole desire is, that he will not make it growe so. ⁶But the wicked shalbe euery one as thornes thrust away, because they can not be taken with handes. ⁷But the man that shall touch them, must be defended with yron, or with the shaft of a speare: and they shall be burnt with fire in the same place. ⁸These be the names of the mightie men whome Dauid had. He that sate in the seate of wisdom, being chiefe of the princes, was Adino of Ezni, he slewe eight hundreth at one time. ⁹And after him was Eleazar the sonne of Dodo, the sonne of Ahohi, one of the three worthies with Dauid, when they defied the Philistims gathered there to battel, when the men of Israel were gone vp. ¹⁰He arose and smote the Philistims vntill his hande was wearie, and his hande claued vnto the sworde: and the Lord gaue great victorie the same day, and the people returned after him onely to spoyle. ¹¹After him was Shammah the sonne of Age the Hararite: for the Philistims assembled at a towne, where was a piece of a fiede full of lentils, and the people fled from the Philistims. ¹²But he stode in the middes of the fiede, and defended it, and slewe the Philistims: so the Lord gaue great victorie. ¹³Afterward three of the thirtie captaines went downe, and came to Dauid in the haruest time vnto the caue of Adullam, and the hoste of the Philistims pitched in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁴And Dauid was then in an holde, and the garison of ye Philistims was then in Beth-lehem. ¹⁵And Dauid longed, and said, Oh, that one would giue me to drinke of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate. ¹⁶The three mightie brake into the host of the Philistims, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem that was by the gate, and tooke and brought it to Dauid, who would not drinke thereof, but powred it for an offring vnto ye Lord, ¹⁷And said, O Lord, be it farre from me, that I should doe this. Is not this the blood of the men that went in ieopardie of their liues? therefore he would not drinke it. These things did these three mightie men. ¹⁸And Abishai the brother of Ioab, the sonne of Zeruiah, was chiefe among the three, and he lifted vp his speare against three hundreth, and slewe them, and he had the name among the three. ¹⁹For he was most excellent of the three, and was their captaine, but he attained not vnto the first three. ²⁰And Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada the sonne of a valiant man, which had done many actes, and was of Kabzeel, slewe two strong men of Moab: he went downe also, and slewe a lyon in the middes of a pit in the time of snowe. ²¹And he slewe an Egyptian a man of great stature, and the Egyptian had a speare in his hande: but he went downe to him with a staffe, and plucked the speare out of the Egyptians hand, and slewe him with his owne speare. ²²These things did Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and had the name among the three worthies. ²³He was honourable among thirtie, but he attained not to the first three: and Dauid made him of his counsell. ²⁴Asahel the brother of Ioab was one of the thirtie: Elhanan the sonne of Dodo of Beth-lehem: ²⁵Shammah the Harodite: Elikah ye Harodite: ²⁶Helez the Paltite: Ira the sonne of Ikkesh the Tekoite:

²⁷Abiezer the Anethothite: Mebunnai the Husathite: ²⁸Zalmon an Ahohite: Maharai the Netophathite: ²⁹Heleb the sonne of Baanah a Netophathite: Ittai the sonne of Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin: ³⁰Benaiah the Pirathonite: Hiddai of the riuer of Gaash: ³¹Abi-albon the Arbathite: Azmaueth the Barhumite: ³²Elihaba the Shaalbonite: of the sonnes of Iashen, Ionathan: ³³Shammah the Hararite: Ahiam the sonne of Sharar the Hamrite: ³⁴Eliphelet the sonne of Ahasbai the sonne of Maachathi: Eliam the sonne of Ahithophel the Gilonite: ³⁵Hezrai the Carmelite: Paarai the Arbite: ³⁶Igal the sonne of Nathan of Zobah: Bani the Gadite: ³⁷Zelek the Ammonite: Naharai the Becrothite, the armour bearer of Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah: ³⁸Ira the Ithrite: Gareb the Ithrite: ³⁹Uriiah the Hittite, thirtie and seuen in all.

¹And the wrath of the Lord was againe kindled against Israel, and he moued Dauid against them, in that he saide, Goe, number Israel and Iudah. ²For the King said to Ioab the captaine of the hoste, which was with him, Goe speedily now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan euen to Beersheba, and nomber ye the people, that I may knowe the number of the people. ³And Ioab saide vnto the King, 'The Lord thy God increase the people an hundreth folde more then they be, and that the eyes of my lorde the King may see it: but why doeth my lord the King desire this thing?' ⁴Notwithstanding the Kings worde preuailed against Ioab and against the captaines of the hoste: therefore Ioab and the captaines of the hoste went out from the presence of the King to nomber the people of Israel. ⁵And they passed ouer Iorden, and pitched in Aroer at the right side of the citie that is in the middes of the valley of Gad and toward Iazer. ⁶Then they came to Gilead, and to Tahtim-hodshi, so they came to Dan Iaan, and so about to Zidon, ⁷And came to the fortresse of Tyrus and to all the cities of the Hiuites and of the Canaanites, and went toward the South of Iudah, euen to Beer-sheba. ⁸So when they had gone about all the lande, they returned to Ierusalem at the ende of nine moneths and twentie dayes. ⁹And Ioab deliuered the nomber and summe of the people vnto the King: and there were in Israel eight hundreth thousande strong men that drewe swordes, and the men of Iudah were fife hundreth thousand men. ¹⁰Then Dauids heart smote him, after that he had numbred the people: and Dauid said vnto the Lord, I haue sinned exceedingly in that I haue done: therefore now, Lord, I beseech thee, take away the trespasse of thy seruant: for I haue done very foolishly. ¹¹And when Dauid was vp in the morning, the worde of the Lord came vnto the Prophet Gad Dauids Seer, saying, ¹²Go, and say vnto Dauid, Thus saith ye Lord, I offer thee three thinges, chuse thee which of them I shall doe vnto thee. ¹³So Gad came to Dauid, and shewed him, and said vnto him, Wilt thou that seuen yeeres famine come vpon thee in thy lande, or wilt thou flee three moneths before thine enemies, they following thee, or that there bee three dayes pestilence in thy land? nowe aduise thee, and see, what answere I shall giue to him that sent me. ¹⁴And Dauid said vnto Gad, I am in a wonderfull strait: let vs fall nowe into the hand of the Lord, (for his mercies are great) and let mee not fall into the hand of man. ¹⁵So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel, from the morning euen to the time appointed: and there dyed of the people from Dan euen to Beer-sheba seuentie thousand men. ¹⁶And when the Angel stretched out his hande vpon Ierusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented of the euil, and said to the Angel that destroyed the people, It is sufficient, holde nowe thine hand. And the Angel of the Lord was by the threshing place of Araunah the Iebusite. ¹⁷And Dauid spake vnto the Lord (when he sawe the Angel that smote the people) and saide, Behold, I haue sinned, yea, I haue done wickedly: but these sheepe, what haue they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, be against mee and against my fathers house. ¹⁸So Gad came the same day to Dauid, and said vnto him, Go vp, reare an altar vnto the Lord in the threshing floore of Araunah the Iebusite. ¹⁹And Dauid (according to the saying of Gad) went vp, as the Lord had commanded. ²⁰And Araunah looked, and sawe the King and his seruants comming towarde him, and Araunah went out, and bowed himselfe before the King on his face to the ground, ²¹And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the King come to his seruant? Then Dauid answered, To bye the threshing floore of thee for to builde an altar vnto the Lord, that the plague may cease from the people. ²²Then Araunah saide vnto Dauid, Let my lord the King take and offer what seemeth him good in his eyes: beholde the oxen for the burnt offering, and charets, and the instruments of the oxen for wood. ²³(All these things did Araunah as a King giue vnto the King: and Araunah saide vnto the King, The Lord thy God be fauourable vnto thee) ²⁴Then the King saide vnto Araunah, Not so, but I will bye it of thee at a price, and will not offer burnt offering vnto ye Lord my God of that which doeth cost me nothing. So Dauid bought the threshing floore, and the oxen for fiftie shekels of siluer. ²⁵And Dauid built there an altar vnto the Lord, and offred burnt offrings and peace offrings, and the Lord was appeased toward ye lande, and the plague ceased from Israel.

¹Now when King Dauid was olde, and stricken in yeeres, they couered him with clothes, but no heate came vnto him. ²Wherefore his seruants saide vnto him, Let there be sought for my lord ye King a yong virgin, and let her stand before the king, and cherish him: and let her lie in thy bosome, that my lord the King may get heate. ³So they sought for a faire young maide thoroughout all the coastes of Israel, and founde one Abishag a Shunamite, and brought her to the king. ⁴And the maid was exceeding faire, and cherished the king, and ministred to him, but the King knew her not. ⁵Then Adonijah the sonne of Haggith exalted himselfe, saying, I will be king. And he gate him charets and horsemen, and fiftie men to run before him. ⁶And his father would not displease him from his childehood, to say, Why hast thou done so? And hee was a very goodly man, and his mother bare him next after Absalom. ⁷And he tooke counsel of Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah, and of Abiathar the Priest: and they helped forward Adonijah. ⁸But Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and Nathan the Prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the men of might, which were with Dauid, were not with Adonijah. ⁹Then Adonijah sacrificed sheepe and oxen, and fat cattel by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by En-rogel, and called all his brethren the kings sonnes, and al the men of Iudah ye Kings seruants, ¹⁰But Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah, and the mightie men, and Salomon his brother hee called not. ¹¹Wherefore Nathan spake vnto Bath-sheba the mother of Salomon, saying, Hast thou not heard, that Adonijah ye sonne of Haggith doeth reigne, and Dauid our lord knoweth it not? ¹²Now therefore come, and I will now giue thee counsell, howe to saue thine owne life, and the life of thy sonne Salomon. ¹³Go, and get thee in vnto King Dauid, and say vnto him, Didest not thou, my lorde, O King, sweare vnto thine handmaide, saying, Assuredly Salomon thy sonne shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne? why is then Adonijah King? ¹⁴Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the King, I also will come in after thee, and confirme thy wordes. ¹⁵So Bath-sheba went in vnto the King into the chamber, and the King was verie olde, and Abishag the Shunammite ministred vnto ye King. ¹⁶And Bath-sheba bowed and made obeisance vnto the King. And the King saide, What is thy matter? ¹⁷And shee answered him, My lorde, thou swarest by the Lord thy God vnto thine handmaide, saying, Assuredly Salomon thy sonne shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne. ¹⁸And beholde, nowe is Adoniah king, and now, my lord, O King, thou knowest it not. ¹⁹And he hath offred many oxen, and fatte cattel, and sheepe, and hath called all the sonnes of the King, and Abiathar the Priest, and Ioab the captaine of the hoste: but Salomon thy seruant hath he not bidden. ²⁰And thou, my lorde, O King, knowest that the eyes of all Israel are on thee, that thou shouldest tell them, who shoulde sit on the throne of my lord the King after him. ²¹For els when my lord the King shall sleepe with his fathers, I and my sonne Salomon shalbe reputed vile. ²²And lo, while she yet talked with the King, Nathan also the Prophet came in. ²³And they tolde the King, saying, Beholde, Nathan the Prophet. And when he was come in to the King, hee made obeisance before the King vpon his face to the ground. ²⁴And Nathan saide, My lorde, O King, hast thou said, Adoniah shall reigne after mee, and he shall sit vpon my throne? ²⁵For hee is gone downe this day, and hath slaine many oxen, and fat cattel, and sheepe, and hath called al the Kings sonnes, and the captaines of the hoste, and Abiathar the Priest: and behold, they eate and drinke before him, and say, God saue King Adoniah. ²⁶But me thy seruant, and Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and thy seruant Salomon hath he not called. ²⁷Is this thing done by my lord the King, and thou hast not shewed it vnto thy seruant, who should sitte on the throne of my lorde the King after him? ²⁸Then King Dauid answered, and saide, Call me Bath-sheba. And shee came into ye Kings presence, and stode before the King. ²⁹And the King sware, saying, As the Lord liueth, who hath redeemed my soule out of all aduersitie, ³⁰That as I sware vnto thee by the Lord God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Salomon thy sonne shall reigne after me, and hee shall sit vpon my throne in my place, so will I certainly doe this day. ³¹Then Bath-sheba bowed her face to the earth, and did reuerence vnto the King, and said, God saue my lord King Dauid for euer. ³²And King Dauid saide, Call mee Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada. And they came before the King. ³³Then the King said vnto them, Take with you the seruants of your lorde, and cause Salomon my sonne to ride vpon mine owne mule, and carie him downe to Gihon. ³⁴And let Zadok the Priest and Nathan the Prophet anoint him there King ouer Israel, and blowe ye the trumpet, and say, God saue king Salomon. ³⁵Then come vp after him, that hee may come and sit vpon my throne: and hee shall bee King in my steade: for I haue appointed him to be prince ouer Israel and ouer Iudah. ³⁶Then Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada answered the King, and said, So be it, and the Lord God of my lord the King ratifie it. ³⁷As the Lord hath bene with my lorde the King, so be he with Salomon, and exalt his throne aboue the throne of my lorde king Dauid. ³⁸So Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites went downe and caused Salomon to ride vpon king Dauids mule, and brought him to Gihon. ³⁹And Zadok the Priest tooke an horne of oyle out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Salomon: and they blewe the trumpet, and all the people said, God saue king Salomon. ⁴⁰And all the people came vp after him, and the people piped with pipes, and reioyced with great ioye, so that the earth rang with the sound of them. ⁴¹And Adonijah and all the ghestes that were with him, heard it: (and they had made an ende of eating) and when Ioab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, What meaneth this noise and vprore in the citie? ⁴²And as he yet spake, beholde, Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar the Priest came: and Adonijah said, Come in: for thou art a worthie man, and bringest good tidings. ⁴³And Jonathan answered, and said to Adonijah, Verely our lord King Dauid hath made Salomon King. ⁴⁴And the King hath sent with him Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they haue caused him to ride vpon the Kings mule. ⁴⁵And Zadok the Priest, and Nathan ye Prophet haue anointed him King in Gihon: and they are gone vp from thence with ioy, and the citie is moued: this is the noise that ye haue heard. ⁴⁶And Salomon also sitteth on the throne of the kingdome. ⁴⁷And moreouer the Kings seruantes came to blesse our lord King Dauid, saying, God make the name of Salomon more famous then thy name, and exalt his throne aboute thy throne: therefore the King worshipped vpon the bed. ⁴⁸And thus sayd the King also, Blessed bee the Lord God of Israel, who hath made one to sit on my throne this day, euen in my sight. ⁴⁹Then all the ghestes that were with Adonijah, were afraide, and rose vp, and went euery man his way. ⁵⁰And Adonijah fearing the presence of Salomon, arose and went, and tooke holde on the hornes of the altar. ⁵¹And one tolde Salomon, saying, Beholde, Adonijah doeth feare King Salomon: for lo, he hath caught holde on the hornes of the altar, saying, Let King Salomon sweare vnto me this day, that he will not slay his seruant with the sword. ⁵²Then Salomon sayd, If he will shewe him selfe a worthy man, there shall not an heare of him fall to the earth, but if wickednes be found in him, he shall dye. ⁵³Then King Salomon sent, and they brought him from the altar, and he came and did obeisance vnto King Salomon. And Salomon sayde vnto him, Go to thine house.

that they walke before me in trueth, with all their hearts, and with all their soules, thou shalt not (sayd he) want one of thy posteritie vpon the throne of Israel. ⁵Thou knowest also what Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captaines of the hostes of Israel, vnto Abner the sonne of Ner, and vnto Amasa the sonne of Iether: whome he slewe, and shed blood of battell in peace, and put the blood of warre vpon his girdle that was about his loynes, and in his shooes that were on his feete. ⁶Doe therefore according to thy wisdome, and let thou not his hoare head go downe to the graue in peace. ⁷But shew kindnes vnto the sonnes of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among them that eate at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom thy brother. ⁸And beholde, with thee is Shimei the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Iemini, of Bahurim, which cursed mee with an horrible curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but hee came downe to meete me at Iorden, and I sware to him by the Lord, saying, I will not slay thee with the sword. ⁹But thou shalt not count him innocent: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to doe vnto him: therefore thou shalt cause his hoare head to goe downe to the graue with blood. ¹⁰So Dauid slept with his fathers, and was buried in the citie of Dauid. ¹¹And the dayes which Dauid reigned vpon Israel, were fourtie yeeres: seuen yeeres reigned he in Hebron, and thirtie and three yeeres reigned he in Ierusalem. ¹²Then sate Salomon vpon the throne of Dauid his father, and his kingdome was stablished mightily. ¹³And Adonijah the sonne of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Salomon: and she saide, Comdest thou peaceably? And hee said, Yea. ¹⁴He said moreouer, I haue a sute vnto thee. And she sayd, Say on. ¹⁵Then he said, Thou knowest that the kingdome was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reigne: howbeit the kingdome is turned away, and is my brothers: for it came to him by the Lord. ¹⁶Nowe therefore I aske thee one request, refuse me not. And she said vnto him, Say on. ¹⁷And he sayd, Speake, I pray thee, vnto Salomon ye King, (for he will not say thee nay) that he giue me Abishag the Shunammite to wife. ¹⁸And Bath-sheba sayd, Well, I will speake for thee vnto the King. ¹⁹Bath-sheba therefore went vnto King Salomon, to speake vnto him for Adonijah: and the King rose to meete her, and bowed himselfe vnto her, and sate downe on his throne: and he caused a seate to be set for the Kings mother, and she sate at his right hand. ²⁰Then she sayd, I desire a small request of thee, say me not nay. Then the King sayde vnto her, Aske on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay. ²¹She sayd then, Let Abishag the Shunammite be giuen to Adonijah thy brother to wife. ²²But King Salomon answered and sayd vnto his mother, And why doest thou aske Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? aske for him the kingdome also: for he is mine elder brother, and hath for him both Abiathar the Priest, and Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah.

²³Then King Salomon sware by the Lord, saying, God doe so to me and more also, if Adonijah hath not spoken this worde against his owne life. ²⁴Now therefore as ye Lord liueth, who hath established me, and set me on the throne of Dauid my father, who also hath made me an house, as he promised, Adonijah shall surely die this day. ²⁵And King Salomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and hee smote him that he dyed. ²⁶Then the King sayd vnto Abiathar the Priest, Go to Anathoth vnto thine owne fieldes: for thou art worthy of death: but I will not this day kill thee, because thou barest the Arke of the Lord God before Dauid my father, and because thou hast suffered in all, wherein my father hath bene afflicted. ²⁷So Salomon cast out Abiathar from being Priest vnto the Lord, that he might fulfill the wordes of the Lord, which he spake against the house of Eli in Shiloh. ²⁸Then tidings came to Ioab: (for Ioab had turned after Adonijah, but he turned not after Absalom) and

Ioab fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and caught hold on the hornes of the altar. ²⁹And it was tolde king Salomon, that Ioab was fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and beholde, he is by the altar. Then Salomon sent Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, saying, Goe, fall vpon him. ³⁰And Benaiah came to the Tabernacle of the Lord, and sayd vnto him, Thus sayth the King, Come out. And he sayde, Nay, but I will die here. Then Benaiah brought the King worde againe, saying, Thus sayd Ioab, and thus he answered me. ³¹And the King sayde vnto him, Doe as he hath sayd, and smite him, and bury him, that thou mayest take away the blood, which Ioab shed causelesse, from me and from the house of my father. ³²And the Lord shall bring his blood vpon his owne head: for he smote two men more righteous and better then he, and slew them with the sword, and my father Dauid knew not: to wit, Abner the sonne of Ner, captaine of the hoste of Israel, and Amasa the sonne of Iether captaine of the hoste of Iudah. ³³Their blood shall therefore returne vpon the head of Ioab, and on the head of his seede for euer: but vpon Dauid, and vpon his seede, and vpon his house, and vpon his throne shall there be peace for euer from the Lord. ³⁴So Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada went vp, and smote him, and slewe him, and he was buried in his owne house in the wilderness. ³⁵And the King put Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada in his rouse ouer the hoste: and the King set Zadok the Priest in the rouse of Abiathar. ³⁶Afterwarde the King sent, and called Shimei, and sayde vnto him, Buylde thee an house in Ierusalem, and dwell there, and depart not thence any whither. ³⁷For that day that thou goest out, and passest ouer the riuier of Kidron, knowe assuredly, that thou shalt dye the death: thy blood shall be vpon thine owne head. ³⁸And Shimei sayd vnto the King, The thing is good: as my lord the King hath sayd, so wil thy seruant doe. So Shimei dwelt in Ierusalem many dayes. ³⁹And after three yeres two of the seruants of Shimei fled away vnto Achish sonne of Maachah King of Gath: and they tolde Shimei, saying, Behold, thy seruants be in Gath. ⁴⁰And Shimei arose, and saddled his asse, and went to Gath to Achish, to seeke his seruantes: and Shimei went, and brought his seruants from Gath. ⁴¹And it was tolde Salomon, that Shimei had gone from Ierusalem to Gath, and was come againe. ⁴²And the King sent and called Shimei, and sayde vnto him, Did I not make thee to sweare by the Lord, and protested vnto thee, saying, That day that thou goest out, and walkest any whither, knowe assuredly that thou shalt dye the death? And thou saydest vnto mee, The thing is good, that I haue heard. ⁴³Why then hast thou not kept the othe of the Lord, and the commandement wherewith I charged thee? ⁴⁴The King sayde also to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickednes whereunto thine heart is priuie, that thou diddest to Daud my father: the Lord therefore shall bring thy wickednesse vpon thine owne head. ⁴⁵And let King Salomon be blessed, and the throne of Daud stablished before the Lord for euer. ⁴⁶So the King comanded Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada: who went out and smote him that he dyed. And the kingdome was established in the hand of Salomon.

¹Salomon then made affinitie with Pharaoh King of Egypt, and tooke Pharaohs daughter, and brought her into the citie of Daud, vntill hee had made an ende of buylding his owne house, and the house of the Lord, and the wall of Ierusalem round about. ²Only the people sacrificed in the hie places, because there was no house buylt vnto the name of the Lord, vntill those dayes. ³And Salomon loued the Lord, walking in the ordinances of Daud his father: onely he sacrificed and offred incense in the hie places. ⁴And the King went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the chiefe hie place: a thousand burnt offrings did Salomon offer vpon that altar. ⁵In Gibeon the Lord appeared to Salomon in a dreame by night: and God sayd, Aske what I shall

giue thee. ⁶And Salomon sayd, Thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant Dauid my father great mercie, when hee walked before thee in trueth, and in righteousnesse, and in vprightnes of heart with thee: and thou hast kept for him this great mercie, and hast giuen him a sonne, to sit on his throne, as appeareth this day. ⁷And now, O Lord my God, thou hast made thy seruant King in steade of Dauid my father: and I am but a yong childe, and know not howe to go out and in. ⁸And thy seruant is in the mids of thy people, which thou hast chosen, euen a great people which cannot be told nor nobred for multitude. ⁹Giue therefore vnto thy seruant an vnderstanding heart, to iudge thy people, that I may discern betweene good and bad: for who is able to iudge this thy mightie people? ¹⁰And this pleased the Lord well, that Salomon had desired this thing. ¹¹And God sayde vnto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thy selfe long life, neyther hast asked riches for thy selfe, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies, but hast asked for thy selfe vnderstanding to heare iudgement, ¹²Beholde, I haue done according to thy wordes: lo, I haue giuen thee a wise and an vnderstanding heart, so that there hath bene none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall arise the like vnto thee. ¹³And I haue also giuen thee that, which thou hast not asked, both riches and honour, so that among the Kings there shall be none like vnto thee all thy dayes. ¹⁴And if thou wilt walke in my wayes, to keepe mine ordinances and my commandements, as thy father Dauid did walke, I will prolong thy dayes. ¹⁵And when Salomon awoke, behold, it was a dreame, and he came to Ierusalem, and stode before the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and offred burnt offrings and made peace offrings, and made a feast to all his seruants. ¹⁶Then came two harlots vnto the King, and stode before him. ¹⁷And the one woman sayd, Oh my lorde, I and this woman dwell in one house, and I was deliuered of a childe with her in the house. ¹⁸And the third day after that I was deliuered, this woman was deliuered also: and we were in the house together: no stranger was with vs in the house, saue we twaine. ¹⁹And this womans sonne died in the night: for she ouerlay him. ²⁰And she rose at midnight, and tooke my sonne from my side, while thine handmaide slept, and layde him in her bosome, and layde her dead sonne in my bosome. ²¹And when I rose in the morning to giue my sonne sucke, beholde, he was dead: and when I had well considered him in the morning, beholde, it was not my sonne, whom I had borne. ²²Then the other woman sayd, Nay, but my sonne liueth, and thy sonne is dead. Againe she sayde, No, but thy sonne is dead, and mine aliue: thus they spake before the King. ²³Then sayde the King, She sayth, This that liueth is my sonne, and the dead is thy sonne: and the other sayth, Nay, but the dead is thy sonne, and the liuing is my sonne. ²⁴Then the King said, Bring me a sworde: and they brought out a sworde before the King. ²⁵And the King sayde, Deuide ye the liuing child in twaine, and giue the one halfe to the one, and the other halfe to the other. ²⁶Then spake the woman, whose the liuing child was, vnto the King, for her compassion was kindled toward her sonne, and she sayde, Oh my lorde, giue her the liuing childe, and slay him not: but the other sayde, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but deuide it. ²⁷Then the King answered, and sayde, Giue her the liuing childe, and slay him not: this is his mother. ²⁸And all Israel heard the iudgement, which the King had iudged, and they feared the King: for they sawe that the wisdom of God was in him to doe iustice.

¹And King Salomon was King ouer all Israel. ²And these were his princes, Azariah the sonne of Zadok the Priest, ³Elihoreph and Ahiah the sonnes of Shisha scribes, Iehoshaphat the sonne of Ahilud, the recorder, ⁴And Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada was ouer the hoste, and Zadok and Abiathar Priests, ⁵And Azariah the sonne of Nathan was

ouer the officers, and Zabud the sonne of Nathan Priest was the Kings friend, ⁶And Ahishar was ouer the houshold: and Adoniram the sonne of Abda was ouer the tribute. ⁷And Salomon had twelue officers ouer all Israel, which prouided vitales for the King and his housholde: eche man had a moneth in the yeere to prouide vitales. ⁸And these are their names: the sonne of Hur in mount Ephraim: ⁹The sonne of Dekar in Makaz, and in Shaalbim and Beth-shemesh, and Elon and Beth-hanan: ¹⁰The sonne of Hesed in Aruboth, to whom pertained Sochoh, and all the land of Hephher: ¹¹The sonne of Abinadab in all the region of Dor, which had Taphath the daughter of Salomon to wife. ¹²Baana the sonne of Ahilud in Taanach, and Megiddo, and in all Beth-shean, which is by Zartanah beneath Izreel, from Beth-shean to Abelmeholah, eue til beyond ouer against Iokmeam: ¹³The sonne of Geber in Ramoth Gilead, and his were the townes of Iair, the sonne of Manasseh, which are in Gilead, and vnder him was the region of

Argob, which is in Bashan: threescore great cities with walles and barres of brasse. ¹⁴Ahinadab the sonne of Iddo had to Mahanaim: ¹⁵Ahimaaz in Naphtali, and he tooke Basmath the daughter of Salomon to wife: ¹⁶Baanah the sonne of Hushai in Asher and in Aloth: ¹⁷Iehoshaphat the sonne of Paruah in Issachar. ¹⁸Shimei the sonne of Elah in Benjamin: ¹⁹Geber the sonne of Vri in the countrey of Gilead, the land of Sihon King of the Amorites, and of Og King of Bashan, and was officer alone in the land. ²⁰Iudah and Israel were many, as the sand of the sea in number, eating, drinking, and making merry. ²¹And Salomon reigned ouer all kingdomes, from the Riuer vnto the lande of the Philistims, and vnto the border of Egypt, and they brought presents, and serued Salomon all the dayes of his life. ²²And Salomons vitales for one day were thirtie measures of fine floure, and threescore measures of meale: ²³Ten fat oxen, and twentie oxen of the pastures, and an hundreth sheepe, beside hartes, and buckes, and bugles, and fat foule. ²⁴For he ruled in all the region on the other side of the Riuer, from Tiphseh euen vnto Azzah, ouer all the Kings on the other side the Riuer: and he had peace round about him on euery side. ²⁵And Iudah and Israel dwelt without feare, euery man vnder his vine, and vnder his fig tree, from Dan, euen to Beer-sheba, all the dayes of Salomon. ²⁶And Salomon had fourtie thousande stables of horses for his charets, and twelue thousand horsemen. ²⁷And these officers prouided vitale for king Salomon, and for all that came to King Salomons table, euery man his moneth, and they suffred to lacke nothing. ²⁸Barley also and strawe for the horses and mules brought they vnto the place where the officers were, euery man according to his charge. ²⁹And God gaue Salomon wisdom and vnderstanding exceeding much, and a large heart, euen as the sand that is on the sea shore, ³⁰And Salomons wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the East and all the wisdom of Egypt. ³¹For he was wiser then any man: yea, then were Ethan the Ezrahite, the Heman, then Chalcol, then Darda the sonnes of Mahol: and he was famous throughout all nations round about. ³²And Salomon spake three thousand prouerbs: and his songs were a thousand and fife. ³³And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon, euen vnto the hyssope that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of foules, and of creeping thinges, and of fishes. ³⁴And there came of all people to heare the wisdom of Salomon, from all Kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

¹And Hiram King of Tyrus sent his seruants vnto Salomon, (for he had heard, that they had anoynted him King in the rouse of his father) because Hiram had euer loued Dauid. ²Also Salomon sent to Hiram, saying, ³Thou knowest that Dauid my father could not build an house vnto the Name of the Lord his God, for the warres which were about him on euery side, vntill the Lord had put them vnder the soles of his feete. ⁴But now the Lord my God hath giuen me rest on euery side, so that there is neither aduersarie, nor euill to resist. ⁵And beholde, I purpose to build an house vnto ye Name of the Lord my God, as the Lord spake vnto Dauid my father, saying, Thy sonne, whom I wil set vpon thy throne for thee, he shall build an house vnto my Name. ⁶Now therefore commaund, that they hewe me cedar trees out of Lebanon, and my seruants shall be with thy seruants, and vnto thee will I giue the hire for thy seruants, according to all that thou shalt appoynt: for thou knowest that there are none among vs, that can hewe timber like vnto the Sidonians. ⁷And when Hiram heard the wordes of Salomon, he reioyced greatly, and sayde, Blessed be the Lord this day, which hath giuen vnto Dauid a wise sonne ouer this mightie people. ⁸And Hiram sent to Salomon, saying, I haue considered the things, for the which thou sentest vnto me, and will accomplish all thy desire, concerning the cedar trees and firre trees. ⁹My seruants shall bring them downe from Lebanon to the sea: and I will conuey them by sea in raftes vnto the place that thou shalt shew me, and wil cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receiue them: nowe thou shalt doe mee a pleasure to minister foode for my familie. ¹⁰So Hiram gaue Salomon cedar trees and firre trees, euen his full desire. ¹¹And Salomon gaue Hiram twentie thousand measures of wheate for foode to his householde, and twentie measures of beaten oyle. Thus much gaue Salomon to Hiram yere by yere. ¹²And the Lord gaue Salomon wisdom as he promised him. And there was peace betweene Hiram and Salomon, and they two made a couenant. ¹³And King Salomon raised a summe out of all Israel, and the summe was thirtie thousand men: ¹⁴Whome he sent to Lebanon, ten thousand a moneth by course: they were a moneth in Lebanon, and two moneths at home. And Adoniram was ouer the summe. ¹⁵And Salomon had seuentie thousand that bare burdens, and fourescore thousand masons in the mountaine, ¹⁶Besides the princes, whome Salomon appoynted ouer the worke, euen three thousande and three hundreth, which ruled the people that wrought in the worke. ¹⁷And the King commanded them, and they brought great stones and costly stones to make the foundation of the house, euen hewed stones. ¹⁸And Salomons workemen, and the workemen of Hiram, and the masons hewed and prepared timber and stones for the buylding of the house.

¹And in the foure hundreth and foure score yeere (after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt) and in the fourth yere of the reigne of Salomon ouer Israel, in the moneth Zif, (which is the second moneth) he built the house of the Lord. ²And the house which King Salomon built for the Lord, was three score cubites long, and twentie broad, and thirtie cubites hie. ³And the porch before the Temple of the house was twentie

cubites long according to the breadth of the house, and ten cubites broad before the house. ⁴And in the house he made windowes, broad without, and narrowe within. ⁵And by the wall of the house hee made galleries round about, euen by the walles of the house round about the Temple and the oracle, and made chambers round about. ⁶The nethermost gallerie was fiue cubites broad, and the middlemost sixe cubites broad, and the third seuen cubites broad: for he made restes round about without the house, that the beames should not be fastened in the walles of the house. ⁷And when the house was built, it was built of stone perfite, before it was brought, so that there was neither hammer, nor axe, nor any toole of yron heard in the house, while it was in building. ⁸The doore of the middle chamber was in the right side of the house, and men went vp with winding stayres into the middlemost, and out of the middlemost into the third. ⁹So he built the house and finished it, and sieled the house being vawted with sieling of cedar trees. ¹⁰And he built the galleries vpon al the wall of the house of fīue cubites height, and they were ioyned to the house with beames of cedar. ¹¹And the worde of the Lord came to Salomon, saying, ¹²Cocerning this house which thou buildest, if thou wilt walke in mine ordinances, and execute my iudgements, and keepe al my commadements, to walke in them, then will I performe vnto thee my promise, which I promised to Dauid thy father. ¹³And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and wil not forsake my people Israel. ¹⁴So Salomon built the house and finished it, ¹⁵And built the walles of the house within, with boards of cedar tree from the pauement of the house vnto the walles of the sieling, and within he couered them with wood, and couered the floore of the house with planks of firre. ¹⁶And he built twentie cubites in the sides of the house with boards of cedar, from the floore to the walles, and he prepared a place within it for the oracle, euen the most holy place.

¹⁷But the house, that is, the Temple before it, was fourtie cubites long. ¹⁸And the cedar of the house within was carued with knops, and grauen with floures: all was cedar, so that no stone was seene. ¹⁹Also he prepared the place of the oracle in the mids of the house within, to set the Arke of the couenant of the Lord there. ²⁰And the place of the oracle within was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites broad, and twentie cubites hie, and hee couered it with pure golde, and couered the altar with cedar. ²¹So Salomon couered the house within with pure golde: and he shut the place of the oracle with chaines of gold, and couered it with golde. ²²And he ouerlayde all the house with gold, vntill all the house was made perfite. also he couered the whole altar, that was before the oracle, with golde. ²³And within the oracle he made two Cherubims of oliue tree, ten cubites hie. ²⁴The wing also of the one Cherub was fīue cubites, and the wing of the other Cherub was fīue cubites: from the vttermost part of one of his wings vnto the vttermost part of the other of his wings, were ten cubites. ²⁵Also the other Cherub was of ten cubites: both the Cherubims were of one measure and one sise. ²⁶For the height of the one Cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other Cherub. ²⁷And he put the Cherubims within the inner house, and the Cherubims stretched out their wings, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other Cherub touched the other wall: and their other wings touched one another in the middes of the house. ²⁸And he ouerlaid the Cherubims with golde. ²⁹And he carued all the walles of the house round about with grauen figures of Cherubims and of Palmetrees, and grauen flowres within and without. ³⁰And the floore of the house hee couered with golde within and without. ³¹And in the entring of the oracle he made two doores of oliue tree: and the vpper post and side postes were fīue square. ³²The two doores also were of oliue tree, and he graued them with grauing of Cherubims and palme trees, and grauen floures, and couered them with golde, and layed thin golde vpon the Cherubims and vpon the palme trees. ³³And so made he for the doore of the Temple, postes of oliue tree foure square. ³⁴But the two doores were of firre tree, the two sides of the one doore were round, and the two sides of the other doore were round. ³⁵And he graued Cherubims, and palme trees, and carued floures and couered the carued worke with golde, finely wrought. ³⁶And hee built the court within with three rowes of hewed stone, and one rowe of beames of cedar. ³⁷In the fourth yeere was the foundation of the house of the Lord layed in the moneth of Zif: ³⁸And in the eleuenth yeere in the moneth of Bul, (which is the eight moneth) hee finished the house with all the furniture thereof, and in euery point: so was he seuen yeere in building it.

¹Bvt Salomon was building his owne house thirteene yeeres, and finished all his house. ²He built also an house called the forest of Lebanon, an hundreth cubites long, and fiftie cubites broad, and thirtie cubites hie, vpon foure rowes of cedar pillars, and cedar beames were layed vpon the pillars. ³And it was couered aboue with cedar vpon the beames, that lay on the fourtie and fiue pillars, fifteene in a rowe. ⁴And the windowes were in three rowes, and windowe was against windowe in three rankes. ⁵And all the doores, and the side postes with the windowes were foure square, and windowe was ouer against windowe in three rankes. ⁶And he made a porche of pillars fiftie cubites long, and thirtie cubites broade, and the porch was before them, euen before them were thirtie pillars. ⁷Then he made a porch for the throne, where he iudged, euen a porch of iudgement, and it was sieled with cedar from pauement to pauement. ⁸And in his house, where he dwelt, was an other hall more inwarde then the porche which was of the same worke. Also Salomon made an house for Pharaohs daughter (whom he had taken to wife) like vnto this porche. ⁹All these were of costly stones, hewed by measure, and sawed with sawes within and without, from the foundation vnto the stones of an hand breadth, and on the outside to the great court. ¹⁰And the foundation was of costly stones, and great stones, euen of stones of ten cubites, and stones of eight cubites. ¹¹Aboue also were costly stones, squared by rule, and boardes of cedar. ¹²And the great court round about was with three rowes of hewed stones, and a rowe of cedar beames: so was it to ye inner court of the house of the Lord, and to the porche of the house. ¹³Then King Salomon sent, and set one Hiram out of Tyrus. ¹⁴He was a widowes sonne of the tribe of Naphtali, his father being a man of Tyrus, and wrought in brasse: he was full of wisdom, and vnderstanding, and knowledge to worke all maner of worke in brasse: who came to King Salomon, and wrought all his worke. ¹⁵For he cast two pillars of brasse: ye height of a pillar was eightene cubites, and a threede of twelue cubites did compasse either of ye pillars. ¹⁶And he made two chapiters of molten brasse to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of one of the chapiters was fiue cubites, and the height of the other chapter was fiue cubites. ¹⁷He made grates like networke, and wrethen worke like chaynes for the chapiters that were on the top of the pillars, euen seuen for the one chapter, and seuen for the other chapter. ¹⁸So he made the pillars and two rowes of pomegranates round about in the one grate to couer the chapiters that were vpon the top. And thus did he for the other chapter. ¹⁹And the chapiters that were on the toppe of the pillars were after lilye worke in ye porch, foure cubites. ²⁰And the chapiters vpon the two pillars had also aboue, ouer against the belly within the networke pomegranates: for two hudreth pomegranates were in the two rankes about vpon either of the chapiters. ²¹And he set vp the pillars in the porche of the Temple. And when hee had set vp the right pillar, he called the name thereof Iachin: and when he had set vp the left pillar, he called the name thereof Boaz. ²²And vpon the top of the pillars was worke of lilyes: so was the workemanship of the pillars finished. ²³And he made a molten sea ten cubites wide from brim to brim, rounde in compasse, and fiue cubites hie, and a line of thirtie cubites did compasse it about. ²⁴And vnder the brimme of it were knoppes like wilde cucumers compassing it round about, ten in one cubite, compassing the sea round about: and the two rowes of knoppes were cast, when it was molten. ²⁵It stode on twelue bulles, three looking towarde the North, and three toward the West, and three toward the South, and three towarde the East: and the sea stode aboue vpon them, and all their hinder partes were inward. ²⁶It was an hand bredth thicke, and the brim thereof was like the worke of the brim of a cup with floures of lilyes: it contained two thousad Baths. ²⁷And he made tenne bases of brasse, one base was foure cubites long, and foure cubites broad, and three cubites hie. ²⁸And the worke of the bases was on this maner, They had borders, and the borders were betweene the ledges: ²⁹And on the borders that were betweene the ledges, were lyons, bulles and Cherubims: and vpon the ledges there was a base aboue: and beneath the lyons and bulles, were addicions made of thinne worke. ³⁰And euery base had foure brasen wheelles, and plates of brasse: and the foure corners had vndersettters: vnder the caldron were vndersettters molten at the side of euery addicion. ³¹And the mouth of it was within the chapter and aboue to measure by the cubite: for the mouth thereof was round made like a base, and it was a cubite and halfe a cubite: and also vpon the mouth thereof were grauen workes, whose borders were foure square, and not round. ³²And vnder the borders were foure wheelles, and the axeltrees of the wheelles ioyned to the base: and the height of a wheele was a cubite and halfe a cubite. ³³And the facion of the wheelles was like the facion of a charet wheele, their axeltrees, and their naues and their felloes, and their spokes were all molten. ³⁴And foure vndersettters were vpon the foure corners of one base: and the vndersettters thereof were of the base it selfe. ³⁵And in the toppe of the base was a rounde compasse of halfe a cubite hie round about: and vpon the toppe of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same. ³⁶And vpon the tables of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof he did graue Cherubims, lions and palmetrees, on the side of euery one, and addicions round about. ³⁷Thus made he the tenne bases, They had all one casting, one measure, and one syse. ³⁸Then made he ten caldrons of brasse, one caldron conteyned fourty Baths: and euery caldron was foure cubites, one caldron was vpon one base throughout the ten bases. ³⁹And he set the bases, fve on the right side of the house, and fve on the left side of the house. And he set the sea on the right side of the house Eastward toward the South. ⁴⁰And Hiram made caldrons, and besomes, and basens, and Hiram finished all the worke that he made to King Salomon for the house of ye Lord: ⁴¹To wit, two pillars and two bowles of the chapiters that were on the toppe of the two pillars, and two grates to couer the two bowles of the chapiters which were vpon the toppe of the pillars, ⁴²And foure hundreth pomegranates for the two grates, euen two rowes of pomegranates for euery grate to couer the two bowles of the chapiters, that were vpon the pillars, ⁴³And the ten bases, and ten caldrons vpon the bases, ⁴⁴And the sea, and twelue bulles vnder that sea, ⁴⁵And pottes, and besomes and basens: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to King Salomon for the house of the Lord, were of shining brasse. ⁴⁶In the plaine of Iorden did the King cast them in clay betweene Succoth and Zarthan. ⁴⁷And Salomon left to weigh all the vessels because of the exceeding abundance, neyther could the weight of the brasse be counted. ⁴⁸So Salomon made all the vessels that perteyned vnto the house of the Lord, the golden altar, and the golden table, whereon the shewbread was, ⁴⁹And the candlestickes, fiue at the right side, and fiue at the left, before the oracle of pure gold, and the flowres, and the lampes, and the snuffers of golde, ⁵⁰And the bowles, and the hookes, and the basens, and the spoones, and the ashpannes of pure golde, and the hinges of golde for the doores of the house within, euen for the most holy place, and for the doores of the house, to wit, of the Temple. ⁵¹So was finished all the worke that King Salomon made for the house of the Lord, and Salomon brought in the things which Dauid his father had dedicated: the siluer and the golde and the vessels, and layed them among the treasures of the house of the Lord.

¹Then King Salomon assembled the Elders of Israel, euen all the heads of the tribes, the chiefe fathers of the children of Israel vnto him in Ierusalem, for to bring vp the Arke of the couenant of the Lord from the citie of Dauid, which is Zion. ²And all the men of Israel assembled vnto King Salomon at the feast in the moneth of Ethanim, which is the seuenth moneth. ³And all the Elders of Israel came and the Priests tooke the Arke. ⁴They bare the Arke of the Lord, and they bare the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle: those did the Priestes and Leuites bring vp. ⁵And King Salomon and all the Congregation of Israel, that were assembled vnto him, were with him before the Arke, offering sheepe and beeues, which could not be tolde, nor nombred for multitude. ⁶So the Priestes brought the Arke of the couenant of the Lord vnto his place, into the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, euen vnder the wings of the Cherubims. ⁷For ye Cherubims stretched out their wings ouer the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims couered the Arke, and the barres thereof aboue. ⁸And they drewe out the barres, that the endes of the barres might appeare out of the Sanctuarie before the oracle, but they were not seene without: and there they are vnto this day. ⁹Nothing was in the Arke saue the two tables of stone which Moses had put there at Horeb, where the Lord made a couenant with the children of Israel, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁰And when the Priestes were come out of the Sanctuarie, the cloude filled the house of the Lord, ¹¹So that the Priestes could not stande to minister, because of the cloude: for the glorie of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord. ¹²Then spake Salomon, The Lord said, that he woulde dwell in the darke cloude. ¹³I haue built thee an house to dwell in, an habitation for thee to abide in for euer. ¹⁴And the King turned his face, and blessed all the Congregation of Israel: for all the Congregation of Israel stode there. ¹⁵And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who spake with his mouth vnto Dauid my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, ¹⁶Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no citie of all the tribes of Israel, to builde an house that my name might be there: but I haue chosen Dauid to be ouer my people Israel. ¹⁷And it was in ye heart of Dauid my father to builde an house to the Name of the Lord God of Israel. ¹⁸And the Lord said vnto Dauid my father, Where as it was in thine heart to build an house vnto my Name, thou diddest well, that thou wast so minded: ¹⁹Neuerthesse thou shalt not builde the house, but thy sonne that shall come out of thy loynes, he shall builde the house vnto my Name. ²⁰And the Lord hath made good his worde that he spake: and I am risen vp in the rouse of Dauid my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and haue built the house for the Name of the Lord God of Israel. ²¹And I haue prepared therein a place for the Arke, wherein is the couenant of the Lord which he made with our fathers, whe he brought them out of the lande of Egypt. ²²Then Salomon stode before the altar of the Lord in the sight of all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his handes toward heauen, ²³And sayd, O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in heauen aboue, or in the earth beneath, thou that keepest couenant and mercie with thy seruants that walke before thee with all their heart, ²⁴Thou that hast kept with thy seruant Dauid my father, that thou hast promised him: for thou spakest with thy mouth and hast fulfilled it with thine hande, as appeareth this day. ²⁵Therefore now, Lord God of Israel, keepe with thy seruant Dauid my father that thou hast promised him, saying, Thou shalt not want a man in my sight to sit vpon ye throne of Israel: so that thy childe take heed to their way, that they walke before me; as thou hast walked in my sight ²⁶And now, O God of Israel, I pray thee, let thy worde be verified, which thou spakest vnto thy seruant Dauid my father. ²⁷Is it true in deede that God will dwell on the earth? beholde, the heauens, and the heauens of heauens are not able to containe thee: howe much more vnable is this house that I haue built? ²⁸But haue thou respect vnto the prayer of thy seruant, and to his supplication, O Lord, my God, to heare the cry and prayer which thy seruant prayeth before thee this day: ²⁹That thine eyes may be open toward this house, night and day, euen toward the place whereof thou hast said, My Name shalbe there: that thou mayest hearken vnto the prayer which thy seruant prayeth in this place. ³⁰Heare thou therefore the supplication of thy seruant, and of thy people Israel, which pray in this place, and heare thou in the place of thine habitation, euen in heauen, and when thou hearest, haue mercie. ³¹When a man shall trespasse against his neighbour, and he lay vpon him an othe to cause him to sweare, and the swearer shall come before thine altar in this house, ³²Then heare thou in heauen, and doe and iudge thy seruants, that thou condemne the wicked to bring his way vpon his head, and iustifie the righteous, to giue him according to his righteousness. ³³When thy people Israel shall be ouerthrowen before the enemy, because they haue sinned against thee, and turne againe to thee, and confesse thy Name, and pray and make supplication vnto thee in this house, ³⁴Then heare thou in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the sinne of thy people Israel, and bring them againe vnto the lande, which thou gauest vnto their fathers. ³⁵When heauen shalbe shut vp, and there shalbe no raine because they haue sinned against thee, and shall pray in this place, and confesse thy Name, and turne from their sinne, when thou doest afflict them, ³⁶Then heare thou in heauen, and pardon the sinne of thy seruants and of thy people Israel (when thou hast taught the the good way wherein they may walke) and giue raine vpon the land that thou hast giuen to thy people to inherite. ³⁷When there shalbe famine in the land, when there shalbe pestilence, when there shall be blasting, mildewe, grashopper or caterpillar, when their enemy shall besiege them in the cities of their lande, or any plague, or any sicknesse, ³⁸Then what prayer, and supplication so euer shalbe made of any man or of all thy people Israel, when euery one shall knowe the plague in his owne heart, and stretch foorth his handes in this house, ³⁹Heare thou then in heauen, in thy dwelling place, and be mercifull, and doe, and giue euery man according to all his wayes, as thou knowest his heart, (for thou only knowest the heartes of all the children of men) ⁴⁰That they may feare thee as long as they liue in ye lad, which thou gauest vnto our fathers. ⁴¹Moreouer as touching the stranger that is not of thy people Israel, who shall come out of a farre countrey for thy Names sake, ⁴²(When they shall heare of thy great name, and of thy mightie hande, and of thy stretched out arme) and shall come and pray in this house, ⁴³Heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth for vnto thee: that all the people of the earth may know thy Name, and feare thee, as do thy people Israel: and that they may know, that thy Name is called vpon in this house which I haue built. ⁴⁴When thy people shall go out to battell against their enemy by the way that thou shalt sende them, and shall pray vnto the Lord toward the way of the citie which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I haue built for thy Name, ⁴⁵Heare thou then in heauen their prayer and their supplication, and iudge their cause. ⁴⁶If they sinne against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not) and thou be angry with them, and deliuer them vnto the enemies, so that they cary them away prisoners vnto the land of the enemies, either farre or neere, ⁴⁷Yet if they turne againe vnto their heart in the lande (to the which they be caryed away captiues) and returne and pray vnto thee in the lande of them that caryed them away captiues, saying, We haue sinned, we haue transgressed, and done wickedly, ⁴⁸If they turne againe vnto thee with all their heart, and with all their soule in the lande of their enemies, which led them away captiues, and pray vnto thee toward the way of their land, which thou gauest vnto their fathers, and toward the citie which thou hast chosen, and the house, which I haue built for thy Name, ⁴⁹Then heare thou their prayer and their supplication in heauen thy dwelling place, and iudge their cause, ⁵⁰And be mercifull vnto thy people that haue sinned against thee, and vnto all their iniquities (wherein they haue transgressed against thee) and cause that they, which led them away captiues, may haue pitie and compassion on them: ⁵¹For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out of Egypt from the middes of the yron furnace. ⁵²Let thine eyes be open vnto the prayer of thy seruant, and vnto the prayer of thy people Israel, to hearken vnto them, in all that they call for vnto thee. ⁵³For thou diddest separate them to thee from among all people of the earth for an inheritance, as thou saidest by the hand of Moses thy seruant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God. ⁵⁴And when Salomon had made an ende of praying all this prayer and supplication vnto the Lord, he arose from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees, and stretching of his handes to heauen, ⁵⁵And stode and blessed all the Congregation of Israel with a loud voyce, saying, ⁵⁶Blessed be the Lord that hath giuen rest vnto his people Israel, according to all that hee promised: there hath not fayled one word of all his good promise which he promised by the hand of Moses his seruant. ⁵⁷The Lord our God be with vs, as he was with our fathers, that he forsake vs not, neither leaue vs, ⁵⁸That he may bow our heartes vnto him, that we may walke in all his waies, and keepe his commandements, and his statutes, and his lawes, which he commanded our fathers. ⁵⁹And these my wordes, which I haue prayed before the Lord, be neere vnto the Lord our God day and night, that he defende the cause of his seruant, and the cause of his people Israel alway as the matter requireth, ⁶⁰That all the people of ye earth may knowe, that the Lord is God, and none other. ⁶¹Let your heart therefore be perfit with the Lord our God to walke in his statutes, and to keepe his commandements, as this day.

⁶²Then the King and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before the Lord. ⁶³And Salomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings which he offered vnto the Lord, to wit, two and twentie thousande beeues, and an hundreth and twentie thousande sheepe: so the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord. ⁶⁴The same day did the King halowe the middle of the court, that was before the house of the Lord: for there he made burnt offerings, and the meate offrings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar that was before the Lord, was too litle to receiue the burnt offerings, and the meate offerings, and the fat of the peace offrings. ⁶⁵And Salomon made at that time a feast and all Israel with him, a very great Congregation, euen from the entring in of Hamath vnto the riuer of Egypt, before the Lord our God, seuen dayes and seuen dayes, euen fourteene dayes. ⁶⁶And the eight day he sent the people away: and they thanked the King and went vnto their tentes ioyous and with glad heart, because of al the goodnesse that the Lord had done for Dauid his seruant, and for Israel his people.

¹When Salomon had finished the building of the house of ye Lord, and the kings palace, and all that Salomon desired and minded to do, ²Then the Lord appeared vnto Salomon the second time, as he appeared vnto him at Gibeon. ³And the Lord sayd vnto him, I haue heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I haue halowed this house (which thou hast built) to put my Name there for euer, and mine eyes, and mine heart shall be there perpetually. ⁴And if thou wilt walke before mee (as Dauid thy father walked in purenesse of heart and in righteousnesse) to doe according to al that I haue commanded thee, and keepe my statutes, and my iudgements, ⁵Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer, as I promised to Dauid thy father, saying, Thou shalt not want a man vpon the throne of Israel. ⁶But if ye and your children

turne away from mee, and wil not keepe my commandements, and my statutes (which I haue set before you) but go and serue other gods, and worship them, ⁷Then will I cutte off Israel from the lande, which I haue giuen them, and the house which I haue halowed for my Name, will I cast out of my sight, and Israel shall be a prouerbe, and a common talke among all people. ⁸Euen this hie house shall bee so: euery one that passeth by it, shalbe astonied, and shall hisse, and they shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus vnto this land and to this house? ⁹And they shall answere, Because they forsooke the Lord their God, which brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and haue taken holde vpon other gods, and haue worshipped them, and serued them, therefore hath the Lord brought vpon them all this euill. ¹⁰And at the ende of twentie yeeres, when Salomon had buylded the two houses, the house of the Lord, and the Kings palace, ¹¹(For the which Hiram the King of Tyrus had brought to Salomon timber of cedar, and firre trees, and golde, and whatsoeuer he desired) then King Salomon gaue to Hiram twentie cities in the land of Galil. ¹²And Hiram came out from Tyrus to see the cities which Salomon had giuen him, and they pleased him not. ¹³Therefore hee sayde, What cities are these which thou hast giuen me, my brother? And hee called them the land of Cabul vnto this day. ¹⁴And Hiram had sent the King sixe score talents of gold. ¹⁵And this is the cause of the tribute why King Salomon raised tribute, to wit, to builde the house of the Lord, and his owne house, and Millo, and the wall of Ierusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer. ¹⁶Pharaoh King of Egypt had come vp, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slew the Canaanites, that dwelt in the citie, and gaue it for a present vnto his daughter Salomons wife. ¹⁷(Therefore Salomon builde Gezer and Beth-horon the nether, ¹⁸And Baalath and Tamor in the wildernes of the land, ¹⁹And all the cities of store, that Salomon had, euen cities for charets, and cities for horsemen, and all that Salomon desired and woulde build in Ierusalem, and in Lebanon and in all the land of his dominion) ²⁰Al the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hiuites, and Iebusites, which were not of the children of Israel: ²¹To wit, their children that were left after them in the lande, whome the children of Israel were not able to destroy, those did Salomon make tributaries vnto this day. ²²But of the children of Israel did Salomon make no bondmen: but they were men of warre and his seruants, and his princes, and his captaines, and rulers of his charets and his horsemen. ²³These were the princes of the officers, that were ouer Salomons worke: euen fiue hundreth and fiftie, and they ruled the people that wrought in the worke. ²⁴And Pharaohs daughter came vp from the citie of Daud vnto the house which Salomon had built for her: then did he buyld Millo. ²⁵And thrise a yere did Salomon offer burnt offrings and peace offrings vpon the altar which he built vnto the Lord: and hee burnt incense vpon the altar that was before the Lord, when hee had finished the house. ²⁶Also King Salomon made a nauie of ships in Ezeon-geber, which is beside Eloth, and the brinke of the red Sea, in the land of Edom. ²⁷And Hiram sent with the nauie his seruats, that were mariners, and had knowledge of the sea, with the seruants of Salomon. ²⁸And they came to Ophir and sette from thence foure hundreth and twentie talents of gold, and brought it to King Salomon.

¹And the Queene of Sheba hearing ye fame of Salomon (concerning the Name of the Lord) came to proue him with hard questions. ²And she came to Ierusalem with a verie great traine, and camels that bare sweete odours, and golde exceeding much, and precious stones: and shee came to Salomon, and communed with him of all that was in her heart. ³And Salomon declared vnto her all her questions: nothing was hid from the King, which he expounded not vnto her. ⁴Then the Queene of Sheba sawe all

Salomons wisdom, and the house that he had built, ⁵And the meate of his table, and the sitting of his seruants, and the order of his ministers, and their apparel, and his drinking vessels, and his burnt offrings, that he offered in the house of the Lord, and she was greatly astonished. ⁶And shee sayde vnto the King, It was a true worde that I heard in mine owne lande of thy sayings, and of thy wisdom. ⁷Howbeit I beleued not this report till I came, and had seene it with mine eyes: but lo, ye one halfe was not tolde mee: for thou hast more wisdom and prosperitie, then I haue heard by report. ⁸Happy are the men, happie are these thy seruants, which stande euer before thee, and heare thy wisdom. ⁹Blessed be the Lord thy God, which loued thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel, because the Lord loued Israel for euer and made thee King to doe equitie and righteousness. ¹⁰And she gaue the King sixe score talents of golde, and of sweete odours exceeding much, and precious stones. There came no more such abundance of sweete odours, as the Queene of Sheba gaue to King Salomon. ¹¹The nauie also of Hiram (that caried gold from Ophir) brought likewise great plentie of Almuggim trees from Ophir and precious stones. ¹²And the King made of ye Almuggim trees pillars for the house of the Lord, and for ye Kings palace, and made harpes and psalteries for singers. There came no more such Almuggim trees, nor were any more seene vnto this day. ¹³And King Salomon gaue vnto the Queene of Sheba, whatsoever she would aske, besides that, which Salomon gaue her of his kingly liberalitie: so she returned and went to her owne countrey, both shee, and her seruantes. ¹⁴Also the weight of golde, that came to Salomon in one yeere, was sixe hundreth three score and six talents of gold, ¹⁵Besides that he had of marchant men and of the marchandises of them that solde spices, and of all the Kinges of Arabia, and of the princes of the countrey. ¹⁶And King Salomon made two hundreth targets of beaten golde, sixe hundreth shekels of gold went to a target: ¹⁷And three hundreth shieldes of beaten golde, three pound of gold went to one shilde: and the King put them in the house of the wood of Lebanon. ¹⁸Then the King made a great throne of yuorie, and couered it with the best golde. ¹⁹And the throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind, and there were staves on either side on the place of the throne, and two lions standing by the staves. ²⁰And there stode twelue lions on the sixe steps on either side: there was not the like made in any kingdome. ²¹And all King Salomons drinking vessels were of golde, and all the vessels of the house of the woode of Lebanon were of pure golde, none were of siluer: for it was nothing esteemed in the dayes of Salomon. ²²For the King had on the sea the nauie of Tharshish with the nauie of Hiram: once in three yere came the nauie of Tharshish, and brought golde and siluer, yuorie, and apes and peacockes. ²³So King Salomon exceeded all the kings of the earth both in riches and in wisdom. ²⁴And al the world sought to see Salomon, to heare his wisdom, which God had put in his heart, ²⁵And they brought euery man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of golde, and raiment, and armour, and sweete odours, horses and mules, from yeere to yeere. ²⁶Then Salomon gathered together charrets and horsemen: and he had a thousand and foure hundreth charets, and twelue thousande horsemen, whome hee placed in the charet cities, and with the King at Ierusalem. ²⁷And the King gaue siluer in Ierusalem as stones, and gaue cedars as the wilde figtrees that growe abundantly in the plaine. ²⁸Also Salomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linen: the Kings marchants receiued the linen for a price. ²⁹There came vp and went out of Egypt some charet, worth sixe hundreth shekels of siluer: that is, one horse, an hundreth and fiftie and thus they brought horses to all the Kings of the Hittites and to the Kings of Aram by their meanes.

¹Bvt King Salomon loued many outlandish women: both the daughter of Pharaoh, and the women of Moab, Ammon, Edom, Zidon and Heth, ²Of the nations, whereof the Lord had sayd vnto the children of Israel, Goe not ye in to them, nor let them come in to you: for surely they will turne your hearts after their gods, to them, I say, did Salomon ioyne in loue. ³And he had seuen hundreth wiues, that were princesses, and three hundreth concubines, and his wiues turned away his heart. ⁴For when Salomon was olde, his wiues turned his heart after other gods, so that his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the heart of Dauid his father. ⁵For Salomon followed Ashtaroth the god of the Zidonians, and Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. ⁶So Salomon wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lord, but continued not to follow the Lord, as did Dauid his father. ⁷Then did Salomon build an hie place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, in the mountaine that is ouer against

Ierusalem, and vnto Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon. ⁸And so did he for all his outlandish wiues, which burnt incense and offered vnto their gods. ⁹Therefore the Lord was angry with Salomon, because hee had turned his heart from the Lord God of Israel, which had appeared vnto him twise, ¹⁰And had giuen him a charge concerning this thing, that he should not follow other gods: but he kept not that, which the Lord had commanded him. ¹¹Wherefore the Lord sayd vnto Salomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my couenant, and my statutes (which I commanded thee) I will surely rent the kingdome from thee, and will giue it to thy seruant. ¹²Notwithstanding in thy dayes I will not doe it, because of Dauid thy father, but I will rent it out of the hand of thy sonne: ¹³Howbeit I wil not rent all the Kingdome, but will giue one tribe to thy sonne, because of Dauid my seruant, and because of Ierusalem which I haue chosen. ¹⁴Then the

Lord stirred vp an aduersarie vnto Salomon, euen Hadad the Edomite, of the Kings seede, which was in Edom. ¹⁵For when Dauid was in Edom, and Ioab the captaine of the hoste had smitten all the males in Edom, and was gone vp to bury ye slaine, ¹⁶(For six moneths did Ioab remaine there, and all Israel, till he had destroyed all the males in Edom) ¹⁷Then this Hadad fled and certaine other Edomites of his fathers seruants with him, to goe into Egypt, Hadad being yet a litle childe. ¹⁸And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran, and tooke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt vnto Pharaoh King of Egypt, which gaue him an house, and appointed him vitales, and gaue him lande. ¹⁹So Hadad found great fauour in the sight of Pharaoh, and he gaue him to wife the sister of his owne wife, euen the sister of Tahpenes the Queene. ²⁰And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his sonne, whome Tahpenes wayned in Pharaohs house: and Genubath was in Pharaohs house among the sonnes of Pharaoh. ²¹And when

Hadad heard in Egypt, that Dauid slept with his fathers, and that Ioab the captaine of the hoste was dead, Hadad sayde to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may goe to mine owne countrey. ²²But Pharaoh saide vnto him, What hast thou lacked with me, that thou wouldest thus go to thine owne countrey? And he answered, Nothing, but in any wise let me goe. ²³And God stirred him vp another aduersarie, Rezon the sonne of Eliada, which fled from his lorde Hadadezer King of Zobah. ²⁴And he gathered men vnto him, and had bene captaine ouer the company, when Dauid slew them. And they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, and they made him King in Damascus. ²⁵Therefore was he an aduersarie to Israel all the daies of Salomon: besides the euil that Hadad did, he also abhorred Israel, and reigned ouer Aram ²⁶And Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat an Ephrathite of Zereda Salomons seruant (whose mother was called Zeruah a widowe) lift vp his hand against the King. ²⁷And this was the cause that he lift vp his hande against the King, When Salomon built Millo, he repared the broken places of the citie of Daud his father. ²⁸And this man Ieroboam was a man of strength and courage, and Salomon seeing that the yong man was meete for the worke, he made him ouerseer of all the labour of the house of Ioseph. ²⁹And at that time, when Ieroboam went out of Ierusalem, the Prophet Ahiah the Shilonite founde him in the way, hauing a newe garment on him, and they two were alone in ye field. ³⁰Then Ahiah caught the newe garment that was on him, and rent it in twelue pieces, ³¹And said to Ieroboam, Take vnto thee ten pieces: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Beholde, I wil rent the kingdome out of ye hands of Salomon, and will giue ten tribes to thee. ³²But he shall haue one tribe for my seruant Dauids sake, and for Ierusalem the citie, which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, ³³Because they haue forsaken me, and haue worshipped Ashtarothe god of the Zidonians, and Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and haue not walked in my wayes (to do right in mine eyes, and my statutes, and my lawes) as did Daud his father. ³⁴But I will not take the whole kingdome out of his hande: for I will make him prince all his life long for Daud my seruants sake, whome I haue chosen, and who kept my commandements and my statutes. ³⁵But I will take the kingdome out of his sonnes hand, and will giue it vnto thee, euen the ten tribes. ³⁶And vnto his sonne will I giue one tribe, that Daud my seruant may haue a light alway before me in Ierusalem the citie, which I haue chosen me, to put my Name there. ³⁷And I wil take thee, and thou shalt reigne, euen as thine heart desireth, and shalt be King ouer Israel. ³⁸And if thou hearken vnto all that I commande thee, and wilt walke in my wayes, and doe right in my sight, to keepe my statutes and my commandements, as Daud my seruant did, then will I be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built vnto Daud, and wil giue Israel vnto thee. ³⁹And I will for this afflict the seede of Dauid, but not for euer. ⁴⁰Salomon sought therefore to kill Ieroboam, and Ieroboam arose, and fled into Egypt vnto Shishak King of Egypt, and was in Egypt vntil the death of Salomon. ⁴¹And the rest of the wordes of Salomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the booke of the actes of Salomon? ⁴²The time that Salomon reigned in Ierusalem ouer all Israel, was fourtie yeere. ⁴³And Salomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the citie of Dauid his father: and Rehoboam his sonne reigned in his steade.

¹And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for al Israel were come to Sheche, to make him king ²And whe Ieroboam ye sonne of Nebat heard of it (who was yet in Egypt, whither Ieroboam had fled from king Salomon, and dwelt in Egypt) ³Then they sent and called him: and Ieroboam and all the Congregation of Israel came, and spake vnto Rehoboam, saying, ⁴Thy father made our yoke

griuous: now therefore make thou the griuous seruitude of thy father, and his sore yoke which he put vpon vs, lighter, and we will serue thee. ⁵And he said vnto them, Depart yet for three dayes, then come againe to me. And the people departed. ⁶And King Rehoboam tooke counsell with the olde men that had stande before Salomon his father, while he yet liued, and sayde, What counsell giue ye, that I may make an answeere to this people? ⁷And they spake vnto him, saying, If thou be a seruant vnto this people this day, and serue them, and answeere them, and speake kinde wordes to them, they will be thy seruants for euer. ⁸But he forsooke the counsell that the olde men had giuen him, and asked counsell of the yong men that had bene brought vp with him, and waited on him. ⁹And he said vnto them, What counsell giue ye, that we may answeere this people, which haue spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke, which thy father did put vpon vs, lighter? ¹⁰Then the yong men that were brought vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say vnto this people, that haue spoken vnto thee, and said, Thy father hath made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter vnto vs: euen thus shalt thou say vnto them, My least part shalbe bigger then my fathers loynes. ¹¹Now where as my father did burden you with a grievous yoke, I will yet make your yoke heauier: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges. ¹²Then Ieroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me againe ye thirde day. ¹³And the king answered the people sharpely, and left the old mens counsell that they gaue him, ¹⁴And spake to them after the counsell of the yong men, saying, My father made your yoke grievous, and I will make your yoke more grievous: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges. ¹⁵And the King hearkened not vnto the people: for it was the ordinance of the Lord, that he might perfourme his saying, which the Lord had spoken by

Ahiiah the Shilonite vnto Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat. ¹⁶So when all Israel sawe that the King regarded them not, the people answered the King thus, saying, What portion haue we in Daudid? we haue none inheritance in the sonne of Ishai. To your tents, O Israel: nowe see to thine owne house, Daudid. So Israel departed vnto their tents. ¹⁷Howbeit ouer the children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Iudah, did Rehoboam reigne still. ¹⁸Nowe the King Rehoboam sent Adoram the receiuer of the tribute, and all Israel stoned him to death: then King Rehoboam made speede to get him vp to his charet, to flee to Ierusalem. ¹⁹And Israel rebelled against the house of Daudid vnto this day. ²⁰And when all Israel had heard that Ieroboam was come againe, they sent and called him vnto the assemblie, and made him King ouer all Israel: none followed the house of Daudid, but the tribe of Iudah onely. ²¹And when Rehoboam was come to Ierusalem, he gathered all the house of Iudah with the tribe of

Benjamin an hundreth and foure score thousand of chosen men (which were good warriours) to fight against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon. ²²But the worde of God came vnto Shemaiah the man of God, saying, ²³Speake vnto Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon King of Iudah, and vnto all the house of Iudah and Benjamin, and the remnant of the people, saying, ²⁴Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go vp, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: returne euery man to his house: for this thing is done by me. They obeyed therefore the worde of the Lord and returned, and departed, according to the worde of the Lord. ²⁵Then Ieroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went from thence, and built Penuel. ²⁶And Ieroboam thought in his heart, Nowe shall the kingdome returne to the house of Dauid. ²⁷If this people goe vp and doe sacrifice in the house of the Lord at Ierusalem, then shall the heart of this people turne againe vnto their lorde, euen to Rehoboam King of Iudah: so shall they kill me and goe againe to Rehoboam King of Iudah. ²⁸Whereupon the King tooke counsell, and made two calues of golde, and saide vnto them, It is too much for you to goe vp to Ierusalem: beholde, O Israel, thy gods, which brought thee vp out of the lande of Egypt. ²⁹And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other set he in Dan. ³⁰And this thing turned to sinne: for the people went (because of the one) euen to Dan. ³¹Also he made an house of hie places, and made Priestes of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sonnes of Leui. ³²And Ieroboam made a feast the fifteenth day of the eight moneth, like vnto the feast that is in Iudah, and offred on the altar. So did he in Beth-el and offered vnto the calues that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the Priestes of the hie places, which he had made. ³³And he offered vpon the altar, which he had made in Beth-el, the fifteenth day of the eight moneth, (euen in the moneth which he had forged of his owne heart) and made a solemne feast vnto the children of Israel: and he went vp to the altar, to burne incense.

¹And beholde, there came a man of God out of Iudah (by the commandement of the Lord) vnto Beth-el, and Ieroboam stode by the altar to offer incense. ²And he cryed against the altar by the comandement of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord, Beholde, a child shalbe borne vnto the house of Daud, Iosiah by name, and vpon thee shall he sacrifice the Priestes of the hie places that burne incense vpon thee, and they shall burne mens bones vpon thee. ³And he gaue a signe the same time, saying, This is the signe, that the Lord hath spoken, Behold, the altar shall rent, and the ashes that are vpon it, shall fall out. ⁴And when the King had heard the saying of the man of God, which he had cryed against the altar in Beth-el, Ieroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, Lay holde on him: but his hande which he put foorth against him, dried vp, and he could not pull it in againe to him. ⁵The altar also claued asunder, and the ashes fell out from the altar, according to the signe, which the man of God had giuen by the commandement of the Lord. ⁶Then the King answered, and saide vnto the man of God, I beseeche thee, pray vnto ye Lord thy God, and make intercession for me, that mine hand may bee restored vnto me. And the man of God besought the Lord, and the Kings hand was restored, and became as it was afore. ⁷Then the King sayde vnto the man of God, Come home with mee, that thou mayest dyne, and I will giue thee a reward. ⁸But the man of God saide vnto the King, If thou wouldest giue me halfe thine house, I would not goe in with thee, neither woulde I eate bread nor drinke water in this place. ⁹For so was it charged mee by the worde of the Lord, saying, Eate no bread nor drinke water, nor turne againe by the same way that thou camest. ¹⁰So he went another way and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el. ¹¹And an olde Prophet dwelt in

Beth-el, and his sonnes came and tolde him all ye woorkes, that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el, and the wordes which he had spoken vnto the King, tolde they their father. ¹²And their father sayde vnto them, What way went he? and his sonnes shewed him what waye the man of God went, which came from Iudah. ¹³And hee saide vnto his sonnes, Saddle mee the asse. Who saddled him the asse, and hee rode thereon, ¹⁴And went after the man of God, and found him sitting vnder an oke: and he saide vnto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Iudah? And he sayd, Yea. ¹⁵Then he said vnto him, Come home with me, and eate bread. ¹⁶But he answered, I may not returne with thee, nor go in with thee, neither wil I eate bread nor drinke water with thee in this place. ¹⁷For it was charged me by the word of the Lord, saying, Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne againe to goe by the way that thou wentest. ¹⁸And he said vnto him, I am a Prophet also as thou art, and an Angel spake vnto me by the worde of the Lord, saying, Bring him againe with thee into thine house, that hee may eate bread and drinke water: but he lyed vnto him. ¹⁹So he went againe with him, and did eate bread in his house, and dranke water. ²⁰And as they sate at the table, the worde of the Lord came vnto the Prophet, that brought him againe. ²¹And hee cried vnto the man of God that came from Iudah, saying, Thus sayeth the Lord, Because thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandement which the Lord thy God commanded thee, ²²But camest backe againe, and hast eaten bread and drunke water in the place (whereof he did say vnto thee, Thou shalt eate no bread nor drinke any water) thy carkeis shall not come vnto the sepulchre of thy fathers. ²³And when he had eaten bread and drunke, he saddled him the asse, to wit, to the Prophet whome he had brought againe. ²⁴And when hee was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slewe him, and his body was cast in the way, and the asse stode thereby: the lion stood by the corps also. ²⁵And beholde, men that passed by, sawe the carkeis cast in the way, and the lion standing by the corps: and they came and tolde it in ye towne where the olde Prophet dwelt. ²⁶And when the Prophet that brought him backe againe from the waye, hearde thereof, hee sayde, It is the man of God, who hath bene disobedient vnto the commandement of the Lord: therefore the Lord hath deliuered him vnto the lion, which hath rent him and slayne him, according to the worde of the Lord, which hee spake vnto him. ²⁷And he spake to his sonnes, saying, Saddle me the asse. And they saddled him. ²⁸And he went and founde his body cast in the way, and the asse and the lion stode by the corps: and the lion had not eaten the bodie, nor torne the asse. ²⁹And the Prophet tooke vp the body of the man of God, and layed it vpon the asse, and brought it againe, and the olde Prophet came to the citie, to lament and burie him. ³⁰And hee layed his bodie in his owne graue, and they lamented ouer him, saying, Alas, my brother. ³¹And when he had buried him, hee spake to his sonnes, saying, When I am dead, burie ye mee also in the sepulchre, wherein the man of God is buried: lay my bones beside his bones. ³²For that thing which he cried by the word of the Lord against the altar that is in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the hie places, which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to passe. ³³Howbeit after this, Ieroboam conuerted not from his wicked way, but turned againe, and made of the lowest of the people Priests of the hie places. Who would, might consecrate him selfe, and be of the Priestes of the hie places. ³⁴And this thing turned to sinne vnto the house of Ieroboam, euen to roote it out, and destroy it from the face of the earth.

¹At that time Abiiah the sonne of Ieroboam fell sicke. ²And Ieroboam saide vnto his wife, Vp, I pray thee, and disguise thy selfe, that they know not that thou art the wife of Ieroboam, and goe to Shiloh: for there is Ahiiah the Prophet, which tolde mee that I shoulde bee King ouer this people, ³And take with thee tenne loaues and craknels, and a bottell of honie, and go to him: hee shall tell thee what shall become of the yong man. ⁴And Ieroboams wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahiah: but Ahiah could not see, for his sight was decayed for his age. ⁵Then the Lord saide vnto Ahiah, Beholde, the wife of Ieroboam commeth to aske a thing of thee for her sonne, for he is sicke: thus and thus shalt thou say vnto her: for when shee commeth in, shee shall feine her selfe to be another. ⁶Therefore when Ahiah heard the sounde of her feete as shee came in at the doore, hee saide, Come in, thou wife of Ieroboam: why feinst thou thus thy selfe to bee an other? I am sent to thee with heauie tidings. ⁷Goe, tel Ieroboam, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Forasmuch as I haue exalted thee from among the people, and haue made thee prince ouer my people Israel, ⁸And haue rent the kingdome away from the house of Daud, and haue giuen it thee, and thou hast not bene as my seruant Daud, which kept my commandements, and followed mee with all his heart, and did onely that which was right in mine eyes, ⁹But hast done euil aboute al that were before thee (for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to prouoke me, and hast cast me behinde thy backe) ¹⁰Therefore beholde, I will bring euill vpon the house of Ieroboam, and will cut off from Ieroboam him that pisseth against the wall, aswell him that is shut vp, as him that is left in Israel, and will sweepe away the remnant of the house of Ieroboam, as a man sweepeth away dounge, till it be all gone. ¹¹The dogges shall eate him of Ieroboams stocke that dyeth in the citie, and the foules of the aire shall eate him that dyeth in the fielde: for the Lord hath said it. ¹²Vp therefore and get thee to thine house: for when thy feete enter into the citie, the childe shall die. ¹³And al Israel shall mourne for him, and burie him: for he onely of Ieroboam shall come to the graue, because in him there is found some goodnes towarde the Lord God of Israel in the house of Ieroboam. ¹⁴Moreouer, the Lord shall stirre him vp a King ouer Israel, which shall destroy the house of Ieroboam in that day: what? yea, euen now. ¹⁵For the Lord shall smite Israel, as when a reede is shaken in the water, and hee shall weede Israel out of his good lad, which he gaue to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the Riuer, because they haue made them groues, prouoking the Lord to anger. ¹⁶And he shall giue Israel vp, because of the sinnes of Ieroboam, who did sinne, and made Israel to sinne. ¹⁷And Ieroboams wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah, and when shee came to the threshold of the house, the yong man dyed, ¹⁸And they buried him, and all Israel lamented him; according to the word of the Lord, which hee spake by the hand of his seruant Ahiah the Prophet. ¹⁹And the rest of Ieroboams actes, how hee warred, and howe hee reigned, beholde, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. ²⁰And the dayes which Ieroboam reigned, were two and twentie yeere: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his sonne reigned in his steade. ²¹Also Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon reigned in Iudah. Rehoboam was one and fourtie yere olde, when he began to reigne, and reigned seuateene yere in Ierusalem, the citie which the Lord did chuse out of al the tribes of Israel, to put his Name there: and his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonite. ²²And Iudah wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lord: and they prouoked him more with their sinnes, which they had committed, then all that which their fathers had done. ²³For they also made them hie places, and images, and groues on euery hie hill, and vnder euery greene tree. ²⁴There were also Sodomites in the lande, they did according to all the abominations of the nations, which the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel. ²⁵And in the fift yere of King Rehoboam, Shishak King of Egypt came vp against Ierusalem, ²⁶And tooke the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the Kings house, and tooke away all: also he caried away all the shields of golde which Salomon had made. ²⁷And King Rehoboam made for them brasen shieldes, and committed them vnto ye hands of the chiefe of the garde, which wayted at the doore of the Kings house. ²⁸And when the King went into the house of the Lord, the garde bare them, and brought them againe into the gard chamber. ²⁹And the rest of the actes of Rehoboam, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? ³⁰And there was warre betweene Rehoboam and Ieroboam continually. ³¹And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid: his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonite. And Abiiam his sonne reigned in his stead.

¹And in the eighteenth yeere of King Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, reigned Abiiam ouer

Iudah. ²Three yeere reigned hee in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Maachah the daughter of Abishalom. ³And hee walked in all the sinnes of his father, which hee had done before him: and his heart was not perfit with the Lord his God as the heart of Dauid his father. ⁴But for Dauids sake did the Lord his God giue him a light in Ierusalem, and set vp his sonne after him, and established Ierusalem, ⁵Because Dauid did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and turned from nothing that he commanded him, all the dayes of his life, saue onely in the matter of Vriah the Hittite. ⁶And there was warre betweene Rehoboam and Ieroboam as long as he liued. ⁷The rest also of the actes of Abiiam, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? there was also warre betweene Abiiam, and Ieroboam. ⁸And Abiiam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Dauid: and Asa his sonne reigned in his steade. ⁹And in the twentieth yeere of Ieroboam King of Israel reigned

Asa ouer Iudah. ¹⁰He reigned in Ierusalem one and fourtie yeere, and his mothers name was Maachah the daughter of Abishalom. ¹¹And Asa did right in the eyes of the Lord, as did Dauid his father. ¹²And he tooke away the Sodomites out of the lande, and put away all the idoles that his fathers had made. ¹³And he put downe Maachah his mother also from her estate, because shee had made an idole in a groue: and Asa destroyed her idoles, and burnt them by the brooke Kidron. ¹⁴But they put not downe the hie places. Neuertheles Asas heart was vpriight with the Lord all his dayes. ¹⁵Also he brought in the holy vessels of his father, and the things that he had dedicated vnto ye house of the Lord, siluer, and golde, and vessels. ¹⁶And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasha King of Israel all their dayes. ¹⁷Then Baasha king of Israel went vp against Iudah, and buylt Ramah, so that he woulde let none go out or in to Asa King of Iudah. ¹⁸Then Asa tooke all the siluer and the gold that was left in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the kings house, and deliuered them into the handes of his seruantes, and King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad the sonne of Tabrimon, the sonne of Hezion king of Aram that dwelt at Damascus, saying, ¹⁹There is a couenant betweene me and thee, and betweene my father and thy father: behold, I haue sent vnto thee a present of siluer and golde: come, breake thy couenant with Baasha King of Israel, that he may depart from me. ²⁰So Ben-hadad hearkened vnto King Asa, and sent the captaines of the hosts, which he had, against the cities of Israel, and smote lion, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. ²¹And when Baasha heard thereof, hee left buylding of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah. ²²Then king Asa assembled al Iudah, none excepted. and they tooke the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had buylt, and King Asa built with them Geba of Beniamin and Mizpah. ²³And the rest of all the actes of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he buylt, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? but in his olde age he was diseased in his feete. ²⁴And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father. And Iehoshaphat his sonne reigned in his steade. ²⁵And Nadab the sonne of Ieroboam began to reigne ouer Israel the second yere of Asa King of Iudah, and reigned ouer Israel two yeere. ²⁶And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, walking in the way of his father, and in his sinne wherewith he made Israel to sinne. ²⁷And Baasha the sonne of Ahijah of ye house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha slue him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistims: for Nadab and all Israel layde siege to Gibbethon. ²⁸Euen in the third yeere of Asa King of Iudah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his steade. ²⁹And when he was King, he smote all the house of Ieroboam, he left none aliue to Ieroboam, vntill hee had destroyed him, according to the word of the Lord which he spake by his seruant Ahijah the Shilonite, ³⁰Because of the sinnes of Ieroboam which he committed, and wherewith he made Israel to sinne, by his prouocation, wherewith he prouoked the Lord God of Israel. ³¹And the residue of the actes of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ³²And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasha King of Israel, all their dayes. ³³In the thirde yeere of Asa King of Iudah, began Baasha the sonne of Ahijah to reigne ouer all Israel in Tirzah, and reigned foure and twentie yeeres. ³⁴And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, walking in the way of Ieroboam, and in his sinne, wherewith he made Israel to sinne.

¹Then the word of the Lord came to Iehu the sonne of Hanani against Baasha, saying, ²Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee captaine ouer my people Israel, and thou hast walked in the way of Ieroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sinne, to prouoke me with their sinnes, ³Beholde, I will take away the posteritie of Baasha, and the posteritie of his house, and will make thine house like the house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat. ⁴He that dyeth of Baashas stocke in the citie, him shall the dogs eate: and that man of him which dyeth in the fieldes, shall the foules of the ayre eate. ⁵And the rest of the actes of Baasha and what he did, and his power, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁶So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his sonne reigned in his steade. ⁷And also by the hande of Iehu the sonne of Hanani the Prophet, came the worde of the Lord to Baasha, and to his house, that he shoulde be like the house of Ieroboam, euen for all the wickednes that he did in the sight of the Lord, in prouoking him with the worke of his hands, and because he killed him. ⁸In the sixe and twentie yeere of Asa king of Iudah began Elah ye sonne of Baasha to reigne ouer Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two yeere. ⁹And his seruant Zimri, captaine of halfe his charets, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah drinking, til he was drunken in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah. ¹⁰And Zimri came and smote him and killed him, in the seuen and twentie yeere of Asa king of Iudah, and reigned in his stead. ¹¹And when he was King, and sate on his throne, he slew al the house of Baasha, not leauing thereof one to pisse against a wall, neither of his kinsfolkes nor of his friendes. ¹²So did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the Lord which he spake against Baasha by the hande of Iehu the Prophet, ¹³For all the sinnes of Baasha, and sinnes of Elah his sonne, which they sinned and made Israel to sinne, and prouoked the Lord God of Israel with their vanities. ¹⁴And the rest of the actes of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ¹⁵In the seuen and twentie yeere of Asa King of Iudah did Zimri reigne seuen dayes in Tirzah, and the people was then in campe against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistims. ¹⁶And the people of the hoste heard saye, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slayne the King. Wherefore all Israel made Omri the captaine of the hoste, king ouer Israel that same day, euen in the hoste. ¹⁷Then Omri went vp from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. ¹⁸And when Zimri saw, that the citie was taken, he went into the palace of the Kings house, and burnt himselfe, and the Kings house with fire, and so dyed, ¹⁹For his sinnes which hee sinned, in doing that which is euil in the sight of the Lord, in walking in the way of Ieroboam, and in his sinnes which he did, causing Israel to sinne. ²⁰And the rest of the actes of Zimri, and his treason that hee wrought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kinges of Israel? ²¹Then were the people of Israel deuided into two partes: for halfe the people followed Tibni the sonne of Ginath to make him King, and the other halfe followed Omri. ²²But the people that folowed Omri, preuayled against the people that followed Tibni the sonne of Ginath: so Tibni dyed, and Omri reigned. ²³In the one and thirtie yeere of Asa King of Iudah bega Omri to reigne ouer Israel, and reigned twelue yeere. Sixe yeere reigned he in Tirzah. ²⁴And he bought the mountaine Samaria of one Shemer for two talents of siluer, and buylt in the mountaine, and called the name of the citie, which he buylt, after the name of Shemer lord of the mountaine, Samaria. ²⁵But Omri did euil in the eyes of the Lord, and did worse then all that were before him. ²⁶For he walked in all the way of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, and in his sinnes wherewith he made Israel to sinne in prouoking the Lord God of Israel with their vanities. ²⁷And the rest of the actes of Omri, that hee did, and his strength that he shewed, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ²⁸And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his sonne reigned in his stead.

²⁹Nowe Ahab the sonne of Omri began to reigne ouer Israel, in the eyght and thirtie yeere of Asa king of Iudah: and Ahab the sonne of Omri reigned ouer Israel in Samaria two and twenty yere.
³⁰And Ahab the sonne of Omri did worse in ye sight of the Lord then al that were before him.
³¹For was it a light thing for him to walke in the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, except hee tooke Iezebel also the daughter of Ethbaal King of the Zidonians to wife, and went and serued Baal, and worshipped him? ³²Also he reared vp an altar to Baal in the house of Baal, which he had buylt in Samaria.
³³And Ahab made a groue, and Ahab proceeded, and did prouoke the Lord God of Israel more then all the kings of Israel that were before him. ³⁴In his dayes did Hiel the Bethelite buylde Iericho: he layed the foundation thereof in Abiram his eldest sonne, and set vp the gates thereof in his yongest sonne Segub, according to the worde of the Lord which he spake by Ioshua the sonne of Nun.

¹And Eliiah the Tishbite one of the inhabitats of Gilead sayde vnto Ahab, As the Lord God of Israel liueth, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dewe nor rayne these yeeres, but according to my worde. ²And the worde of the Lord came vnto him, saying, ³Go hence, and turne thee Eastwarde, and hide thy selfe in the riuier Cherith, that is ouer against Iorden, ⁴And thou shalt drinke of the riuier: and I haue comanded the rauens to feede thee there. ⁵So he went and did according vnto the word of the Lord: for he went, and remained by the riuier Cherith that is ouer against Iorden. ⁶And the rauens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the euening, and he dranke of the riuier. ⁷And after a while the riuier dried vp, because there fell no rayne vpon the earth. ⁸And the worde of the Lord came vnto him, saying, ⁹Vp, and get thee to Zarephath, which is in Zidon, and remaine there: beholde, I haue commanded a widow there to

sustaine thee. ¹⁰So he arose, and went to Zarephath: and when he came to the gate of the citie, beholde, the widowe was there gathering stickes: and he called her, and sayde, Bring me, I pray thee, a litle water in a vessel, that I may drinke. ¹¹And as she was going to fet it, he called to her, and sayde, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsell of bread in thine hand. ¹²And shee sayde, As the Lord thy God liueth, I haue not a cake, but euen an handfull of meale in a barrel, and a litle oyle in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering a fewe stickes for to go in, and dresse it for me and my sonne, that we may eate it, and dye. ¹³And Eliiah said vnto her, Feare not, come, do as thou hast sayd, but make me thereof a litle cake first of all, and bring it vnto mee, and afterward make for thee, and thy sonne. ¹⁴For thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The meale in the barrel shall not be wasted, neither shall the oyle in the cruse be diminished, vnto the time that the Lord send rayne vpon the earth. ¹⁵So she went, and did as Eliiah sayd, and she did eate: so did he and her house for a certaine time.

¹⁶The barrell of the meale wasted not, nor the oyle was spent out of the cruse, according to the worde of the Lord, which he spake by the hand of Eliiah. ¹⁷And after these things, the sonne of the wife of the house fell sicke, and his sicknesse was so sore, that there was no breath left in him. ¹⁸And she said vnto Eliiah, What haue I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come vnto me to call my sinne to remembrance, and to slay my sonne? ¹⁹And he said vnto her, Giue me thy sonne. and he tooke him out of her bosome, and caryed him vp into a chamber, where he abode, and laid him vpon his owne bed. ²⁰Then he called vnto the Lord, and sayde, O Lord my God, hast thou punished also this widowe, with whome I sojourne, by killing her sonne? ²¹And he stretched himselfe vpon the childe three times, and called vnto the Lord, and saide, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let this chilles soule come into him againe. ²²Then the Lord heard the voyce of Eliiah, and the soule of the child came into him againe, and he reuiued. ²³And

Elijah tooke the childe, and brought him downe out of the chamber into the house, and deliuered him vnto his mother, and Elijah sayd, Behold, thy sonne liueth. ²⁴And the woman saide vnto Elijah, Now I knowe that thou art a man of God, and that the worde of the Lord in thy mouth is true.

¹After many dayes, the worde of the Lord came to Elijah, in the third yeere, saying, Goe, shewe thy selfe vnto Ahab, and I will sende rayne vpon the earth. ²And Elijah went to shew himselfe vnto Ahab, and there was a great famine in Samaria. ³And Ahab called Obadiah the gouernour of his house: (and Obadiah feared God greatly: ⁴For when Iezebel destroyed the Prophets of the Lord, Obadiah tooke an hundreth Prophets, and hid them, by fiftie in a caue, and he fed them with bread and water.) ⁵And Ahab saide vnto Obadiah, Goe into the land, vnto all the fountaines of water, and vnto all the riuers, if so be that we may finde grasse to saue the horses and the mules aliue, lest we depriue the lande of the beastes. ⁶And so they deuided the lande betweene them to walke thorowe it. Ahab went one way by him selfe, and Obadiah went another way by him selfe. ⁷And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art not thou my lord Elijah? ⁸And he answered him, Yea, goe tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. ⁹And he said, What haue I sinned, that thou wouldest deliuer thy seruant into the hande of Ahab, to slay me? ¹⁰As the Lord thy God liueth, there is no nation or kingdome, whither my lorde hath not sent to seeke thee: and when they sayd, He is not here, he tooke an othe of the kingdome and nation, if they had not found thee. ¹¹And now thou sayest, Goe, tell thy lorde, Beholde, Elijah is here. ¹²And when I am gone from thee, the Spirit of the Lord shall cary thee into some place that I doe not know: so when I come and tell Ahab, if he cannot finde thee, then wil he kill me: But I thy seruant feare the Lord from my youth. ¹³Was it not tolde my lord, what I did when Iezebel slew the Prophets of the Lord, how I hid an hundreth men of the Lordes Prophets by fifties in a caue, and fed them with bread and water? ¹⁴And now thou sayest, Go, tel thy lord, Behold, Eliiah is here, that he may slay me. ¹⁵And Eliiah said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, before whome I stand, I will surely shewe my selfe vnto him this day. ¹⁶So Obadiah went to meete Ahab, and tolde him: And Ahab went to meete Eliiah. ¹⁷And when Ahab saw Eliiah, Ahab said vnto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? ¹⁸And he answered, I haue not troubled Israel, but thou, and thy fathers house, in that ye haue forsaken the commandements of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim. ¹⁹Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel vnto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal foure hundreth and fiftie, and the prophets of the groues foure hundreth, which eate at Iezebels table. ²⁰So Ahab sent vnto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together vnto mount Carmel. ²¹And Eliiah came vnto all the people, and said, How long halt ye betweene two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him: but if Baal be he, then goe after him. And the people answered him not a worde. ²²Then said Eliiah vnto the people, I onely remayne a Prophet of the Lord: but Baals prophets are foure hundreth and fiftie men. ²³Let them therefore giue vs two bullockes, and let them chuse the one, and cut him in pieces, and lay him on the wood, but put no fire vnder, and I will prepare the other bullocke, and lay him on the wood, and will put no fire vnder. ²⁴Then call ye on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the Lord: and then the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered, and sayde, It is well spoken. ²⁵And Eliiah said vnto the prophets of Baal, Chuse you a bullocke, and prepare him first, (for ye are many) and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire vnder. ²⁶So they tooke the one bullocke, that was giuen them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal, from morning to noone, saying, O

Baal, heare vs: but there was no voyce, nor any to answe: and they leapt vpon the altar that was made. ²⁷And at noone Eliah mocked them, and said, Cry loude: for he is a god: either he talketh or pursueth his enemies, or is in his iourney, or it may be that he sleepeth, and must be awaked. ²⁸And they cryed loude, and cut them selues as their maner was, with kniues and launcers, till the blood gushed out vpon them. ²⁹And when midday was passed, and they had prophecied vntil the offering of the euening sacrifice, there was neither voyce, nor one to answe, nor any that regarded. ³⁰And Eliah said vnto all the people, Come to me. And all the people came to him. And he repayred the altar of the Lord that was broken downe. ³¹And Eliah tooke twelue stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sonnes of Iaakob, (vnto whome the worde of the Lord came, saying, Israel shalbe thy name) ³²And with the stones he buylt an altar in the Name of the Lord: and he made a ditch round about the altar, as great as woulde containe two measures of seede. ³³And he put the wood in order, and hewed the bullocke in pieces, and layd him on the wood, ³⁴And said, Fill foure barrells with water, and powre it on the burnt offering and on the wood. Againe he said, Doe so againe. And they did so the second time. And he sayde, Doe it the third time. And they did it the third time. ³⁵And the water ran round about the altar: and he filled the ditch with water also. ³⁶And when they should offer the euening sacrifice, Eliah the Prophet came, and sayd, Lord God of Abraham, Izhak and of Israel, let it be knowen this day, that thou art the God of Israel, and that I am thy seruant, and that I haue done all these things at thy commandement. ³⁷Heare me, O Lord, heare me, and let this people know that thou art the Lord God, and that thou hast turned their heart againe at the last. ³⁸Then the fire of the Lord fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked vp the water that was in the ditche.

³⁹And when all the people sawe it, they fell on their faces, and saide, The Lord is God, the Lord is God. ⁴⁰And Elijah said vnto them, Take the prophets of Baal, let not a man of them escape. and they tooke them, and Eliiah brought them to the brooke Kishon, and slewe them there. ⁴¹And Eliiah sayde vnto Ahab, Get thee vp, eate and drinke, for there is a sound of much rayne. ⁴²So Ahab went vp to eate and to drinke, and Eliiah went vp to the top of Carmel: and he crouched vnto the earth, and put his face betweene his knees, ⁴³And sayde to his seruant, Goe vp now and looke towarde the way of the Sea. And he went vp, and looked, and sayde, There is nothing. Againe he sayd, Goe againe seuen times. ⁴⁴And at the seuenth time he sayd, Behold, there ariseth a litle cloude out of the sea like a mans hand. Then he sayd, Vp, and say vnto Ahab, Make readie thy charet, and get thee downe, that the raine stay thee not. ⁴⁵And in the meane while the heauen was blacke with cloudes and winde, and there was a great rayne. Then Ahab went vp and came to Izreel. ⁴⁶And the hand of the Lord was on Eliiah, and he girded vp his Ioynes, and ran before Ahab till he came to Izreel.

¹Now Ahab tolde Iezebel all that Eliiah had done, and how he had slaine all the prophets with the sword. ²Then Iezebel sent a messenger vnto Eliiah, saying, The gods doe so to me and more also, if I make not thy life like one of their liues by to morowe this time. ³When he sawe that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which is in Iudah, and left his seruant there. ⁴But he went a dayes iourney into the wilderness, and came and sate downe vnder a iuniper tree, and desired that he might die, and sayde, It is now ynough: O Lord, take my soule, for I am no better then my fathers. ⁵And as he lay and slept vnder the iuniper tree, behold now, an Angel touched him, and said vnto him, Vp, and eate. ⁶And when he looked about, behold, there was a cake baken on the coles, and a pot of water at his head: so he did eate and drinke, and returned and slept. ⁷And the Angel of the Lord came againe the second time, and touched him, and sayd, Vp, and eate: for thou hast a great iourney. ⁸Then he arose, and did eate and drinke, and walked in the strength of that meate fourtie dayes and fourtie nights, vnto Horeb the mount of God. ⁹And there he entred into a caue, and lodged there: and beholde, the Lord spake to him, and said vnto him, What doest thou here, Eliiah? ¹⁰And he answered, I haue bene very ielous for the Lord God of hostes: for the children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenant, broken downe thine altars, and slayne thy Prophets with the sword, and I onely am left, and they seeke my life to take it away. ¹¹And he saide, Come out, and stand vpon the mount before the Lord. And beholde, the Lord went by, and a mightie strong winde rent the mountaines, and brake the rockes before the Lord: but the Lord was not in the winde: and after the wind came an earthquake: but the Lord was not in the earthquake:

¹²And after the earthquake came fire: but the Lord was not in the fire: and after the fire came a still and soft voyce. ¹³And when Eliiah heard it, he couered his face with his mantel, and went out, and stode in the entring in of ye caue: and behold, there came a voyce vnto him, and sayd, What doest thou here, Eliiah? ¹⁴And he answered, I haue bene very ielous for the Lord God of hostes, because the children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenant, cast downe thine altars, and slayne thy Prophets with the sworde, and I onely am left, and they seeke my life to take it away. ¹⁵And the Lord said vnto him, Goe, returne by the wildernes vnto Damascus, and when thou comest there, anoint Hazael King ouer Aram. ¹⁶And Iehu the sonne of Nimshi shalt thou anoynt King ouer Israel: and Elisha the sonne of Shaphat of Abel Meholah shalt thou anoynt to be Prophet in thy rouse. ¹⁷And him that escapeth from the sworde of Hazael, shall Iehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Iehu, shall Elisha slay. ¹⁸Yet wil I leaue seuen thousand in Israel, euen all the knees that haue not bowed vnto Baal, and euery mouth that hath not kissed him. ¹⁹So he departed thence, and found Elisha the sonne of Shaphat who was plowing with twelue yoke of oxen before him, and was with the twelft: and Eliiah went towards him, and cast his mantel vpon him. ²⁰And he left the oxen, and ran after Eliiah, and sayde, Let mee, I pray thee, kisse my father and my mother, and then I wil follow thee. Who answered him, Go, returne: for what haue I done to thee? ²¹And when he went backe againe from him, he tooke a couple of oxen, and slewe them, and sod their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gaue vnto the people, and they did eate: then he arose and went after Eliiah, and ministred vnto him.

¹Then Ben-hadad the King of Aram assembled all his armie, and two and thirtie Kings with him, with horses, and charets, and went vp and besieged Samaria, and fought against it. ²And he sent messengers to Ahab King of

Israel, into the citie, ³And sayd vnto him, Thus sayth Ben-hadad, Thy siluer and thy golde is mine: also thy women, and thy fayre children are mine. ⁴And the King of Israel answered, and sayd, My lord King, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I haue. ⁵And when the messengers came againe, they said, Thus commandeth Ben-hadad, and saith, When I shall send vnto thee, and command, thou shalt deliuer me thy siluer and thy golde, and thy women, and thy children, ⁶Or els I will sende my seruants vnto thee by to morow this time: and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy seruants: and whatsoeuer is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall take it in their handes, and bring it away. ⁷Then the King of Israel sent for all the Elders of the land, and sayd, Take heede, I pray you, and see how he seeketh mischief: for he sent vnto me for my wiues, and for my children, and for my siluer, and for my golde, and I denyed him not. ⁸And all the Elders, and all the people sayd to him, Hearken not vnto him, nor consent. ⁹Wherefore hee sayde vnto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lorde the King, All that thou diddest sende for to thy seruant at the first time, that I will doe, but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him an answeere. ¹⁰And Ben-hadad sent vnto him, and sayde, The gods do so to me and more also, if the dust of Samaria be ynough to all the people that follow me, for euery man an handfull. ¹¹And the King of Israel answered, and sayd, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth his harneis, boast himselfe, as he that putteth it off. ¹²And when he heard that tidings, as he was with the Kings drinking in the paulions, he sayd vnto his seruants, Bring forth your engines, and they set them against the citie. ¹³And beholde, there came a Prophet vnto Ahab King of Israel, saying, Thus sayeth the Lord, Hast thou seene all this great multitude? beholde, I will deliuer it into thine hande this day, that thou mayest knowe, that I am the Lord. ¹⁴And Ahab sayd, By whome? And he sayde, Thus sayth the Lord, By the seruants of the princes of the prouinces. He sayde againe, Who shall order the battel? And he answered, Thou. ¹⁵Then he nombred the seruantes of the princes of the prouinces, and they were two hundreth, two and thirtie: and after them he nombred the whole people of all the children of Israel, euen seuen thousand. ¹⁶And they went out at noone: but Ben-hadad did drinke till he was drunken in the tentes, both he and the Kings: for two and thirtie Kings helped him. ¹⁷So the seruants of the princes of the prouinces went out first: and Ben-hadad sent out, and they shewed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria. ¹⁸And he sayde, Whether they be come out for peace, take them aliue: or whether they bee come out to fight, take them yet aliue. ¹⁹So they came out of the citie, to wit, the seruants of the princes of the prouinces, and the hoste which followed them. ²⁰And they slew euery one his enemy: and the Aramites fled, and Israel pursued them: but Ben-hadad ye King of Aram escaped on an horse with his horsemen. ²¹And the King of Israel went out, and smote the horses and charets, and with a great slaughter slew he the Aramites. ²²(For there had come a Prophet to the King of Israel, and had sayd vnto him, Goe, be of good courage, and consider, and take heede what thou doest: for when the yeere is gone about, the King of Aram wil come vp against thee) ²³Then the seruants of the King of Aram said vnto him, Their gods are gods of the moutaines, and therefore they ouercame vs: but let vs fight against them in the playne, and doubtlesse we shall ouercome them. ²⁴And this doe, Take the Kings away, euery one out of his place, and place captaines for them. ²⁵And number thy selfe an armie, like the armie that thou hast lost, with such horses, and such charets, and we wil fight against them in the plaine, and doubtlesse we shall ouercome them: and he hearkened vnto their voyce, and did so. ²⁶And after the yeere was gone about, Ben-hadad nombred the Aramites, and went vp to Aphek to fight against Israel. ²⁷And the children of Israel were nombred, and were all assembled and went against them, and the children of Israel pitched before them, like two litle flockes of kiddes: but the Aramites filled the countrey. ²⁸And there came a man of God, and spake vnto the King of Israel, saying, Thus sayeth the Lord, Because the Aramites haue sayd, The Lord is the God of the mountaines, and not God of the valleis, therefore will I deliuer all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the Lord. ²⁹And they pitched one ouer against the other seuen dayes, and in the seuenth day the battel was ioyned: and the children of Israel slew of the Aramites an hundreth thousand footemen in one day. ³⁰But the rest fled to Aphek into the citie: and there fel a wall vpon seuen and twentie thousand men that were left: and Ben-hadad fled into the citie, and came into a secret chamber. ³¹And his seruants sayd vnto him, Beholde now, we haue heard say that the Kings of the house of Israel are mercifull Kings: we pray thee, let vs put sacke cloth about our loynes, and ropes about our heads, and goe out to the King of Israel: it may be that he will saue thy life. ³²Then they gyrded sackcloth about their loynes, and put ropes about their heads, and came to the King of Israel, and sayd, Thy seruant Ben-hadad sayth, I pray thee, let me liue: and he sayd, Is he yet aliue? he is my brother. ³³Now the men tooke diliget heede, if they could catch any thing of him, and made haste, and sayd, Thy brother Ben-hadad. And he sayd, Go, bring him. So Ben-hadad came out vnto him, and he caused him to come vp vnto the chariot. ³⁴And Ben-hadad sayd vnto him, The cities, which my father tooke from thy father, I wil restore, and thou shalt make streetes for thee in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will let thee goe with this couenant. So he made a couenant with him, and let him goe. ³⁵Then a certaine man of the children of the Prophets sayd vnto his neighbour by the comandement of the Lord, Smite me, I pray thee. But the man refused to smite him. ³⁶Then sayd he vnto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, beholde, as soone as thou art departed from me, a lyon shall slay thee. So when he was departed from him, a lyon found him and slew him. ³⁷Then he founde another man, and sayde, Smite mee, I pray thee. And the man smote him, and in smiting wounded him. ³⁸So the Prophet departed, and wayted for the King by the way, and disguised himselfe with ashes vpon his face. ³⁹And when the King came by, he cried vnto the King, and said, Thy seruant went into the middes of the battel: and beholde, there went away a man, whom another man brought vnto me, and sayd, Keepe this man: if he be lost, and want, thy life shall go for his life, or els thou shalt pay a talent of siluer. ⁴⁰And as thy seruant had here and there to do, he was gone: And the King of Israel said vnto him, So shall thy iudgement be: thou hast giuen sentence. ⁴¹And hee hasted, and tooke the ashes away from his face: and the King of Israel knewe him that he was of the Prophets: ⁴²And he said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast let goe out of thine handes a man whom I appoynted to dye, thy life shall goe for his life, and thy people for his people. ⁴³And the King of Israel went to his house heauie and in displeasure, and came to Samaria.

¹After these things Naboth the Izreelite had a vineyarde in Izreel, hard by the palace of Ahab King of Samaria. ²And Ahab spake vnto Naboth, saying, Giue me thy vineyarde, that I may make mee a garden of herbes thereof, because it is neere by mine house: and I will giue thee for it a better vineyarde then it is: or if it please thee, I will giue thee the worth of it in money. ³And Naboth said to Ahab, The Lord keepe me from giuing the inheritance of my father vnto thee. ⁴Then Ahab came into his house heauie and in displeasure, because of the word which Naboth the Izreelite had spoken vnto him. for hee had sayde, I will not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers, and he lay vpon his bed, and turned his face and would eate no bread. ⁵Then Iezebel his wife came to him and said vnto him, Why is thy spirit so sad that thou eatest no bread? ⁶And he said vnto her, Because I spake vnto Naboth the Izreelite, and sayd vnto him, Giue me thy vineyard for money, or if it please thee, I will giue thee another vineyard for it: but he answered, I wil not giue thee my vineyarde. ⁷Then Iezebel his wife sayde vnto him, Doest thou nowe gouerne the kingdome of Israel? vp, eate bread, and be of good cheere, I will giue thee the vineyard of Naboth the Izreelite. ⁸So she wrote letters in Ahabs name, and sealed them with his seale, and sent the letters vnto the Elders, and to the nobles that were in his citie dwelling with Naboth. ⁹And shee wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaime a fast, and set Naboth among the chiefe of the people, ¹⁰And set two wicked men before him, and let them witnesse against him, saying, Thou diddest blaspheme God and the King: then cary him out, and stone him that he may dye. ¹¹And the men of his citie, euen the Elders and gouernours, which dwelt in his citie, did as Iezebel had sent vnto them: as it was written in the letters, which she had sent vnto them. ¹²They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth among the chiefe of the people, ¹³And there came two wicked men, and sate before him: and the wicked men witnessed against Naboth in the presence of the people saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the King. Then they caried him away out of the citie, and stoned him with stones, that he dyed. ¹⁴Then they sent to Iezabel, saying, Naboth is stoned and is dead. ¹⁵And when Iezabel heard that Naboth was stoned and was dead, Iezabel sayd to Ahab, Vp, and take possession of the vineyarde of Naboth the Izreelite, which he refused to giue thee for money: for Naboth is not aliue, but is dead. ¹⁶And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he rose to go downe to the vineyard of Naboth the Izreelite, to take possession of it. ¹⁷And the word of the Lord came vnto Eliiah the Tishbite, saying, ¹⁸Arise, goe downe to meete Ahab King of Israel, which is in Samaria. loe, he is in the vineyarde of Naboth, whither he is gone downe to take possession of it. ¹⁹Therefore shalt thou say vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, Hast thou killed, and also gotten possession? And thou shalt speake vnto him, saying, Thus sayth the Lord, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, shall dogs licke euen thy blood also. ²⁰And Ahab sayd to Eliiah, Hast thou found mee, O mineemie? And he answered, I haue found thee: for thou hast solde thy selfe to worke wickednes in the sight of the Lord. ²¹Beholde, I will bring euill vpon thee, and wil take away thy posteritie, and wil cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, as well him that is shut vp, as him that is left in Israel, ²²And I wil make thine house like the house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the sonne of Ahiah, for the prouocation wherewith thou hast prouoked, and made Israel to sinne. ²³And also of Iezabel spake the Lord, saying, The dogs shall eate Iezabel, by the wall of Izreel. ²⁴The dogs shall eate him of Ahabs stocke, that dyeth in the citie: and him that dyeth in the fieldes, shall the foules of the ayre eate. ²⁵(But there was none like Ahab, who did fell him selfe, to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lord: whom Iezebel his wife prouoked. ²⁶For he did exceeding abominably in following idoles, according to all that the Amorites did, whom the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.) ²⁷Nowe when Ahab heard those wordes, he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth vpon him and fasted, and lay in sackcloth and went softly. ²⁸And the worde of the Lord came to Eliiah the Tishbite, saying, ²⁹Seest thou how Ahab is humbled before me? because he submitteth himselfe before me, I will not bring that euill in his dayes, but in his sonnes dayes wil I bring euill vpon his house.

¹And they continued three yeere without warre betweene Aram and Israel. ²And in the third yeere did Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah come downe to ye King of Israel. ³(Then the King of Israel saide vnto his seruants, Knowe ye not that Ramoth Gilead was ours? and wee stay, and take it not out of ye hand of the King of Aram?) ⁴And he sayde vnto Iehoshaphat, Wilt thou goe with mee to battel against Ramoth Gilead? And Iehoshaphat saide vnto the King of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and mine horses as thine horses. ⁵Then Iehoshaphat saide vnto the King of Israel, Aske counsaile, I pray thee, of the Lord to day. ⁶Then the King of Israel gathered the prophets vpon a foure hundreth men, and said vnto them, Shal I go against Ramoth Gilead to battel, or shall I let it alone? And they said, Go vp: for ye Lord shall deliuer it into the hands of the King. ⁷And Iehoshaphat said, Is there here neuer a Prophet of the Lord more, that we might inquire of him? ⁸And the King of Israel said vnto Iehoshaphat, There is yet one man (Michaiah the sonne of Imlah) by whom we may aske counsel of the Lord, but I hate him: for he doeth not prophecie good vnto me, but euill. And Iehoshaphat sayd, Let not the

King say so. ⁹Then the King of Israel called an Eunuche, and sayde, Call quickly Michaiah the sonne of Imlah. ¹⁰And the King of Israel and Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah sate either of them on his throne in their apparell in the voyde place at the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets prophecied before them. ¹¹And Zidkiiah the sonne of Chenaanah made him hornes of yron, and sayd, Thus sayth the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Aramites, vntill thou hast consumed them. ¹²And all the prophets prophecied so, saying, Goe vp to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliuer it into the Kings hand. ¹³And the messenger that was gone to call Michaiah spake vnto him, saying, Beholde now, the wordes of the prophets declare good vnto the King with one accorde: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like the worde of one of them, and speake thou good. ¹⁴And Michaiah saide, As the Lord liueth, whatsoever the Lord sayth vnto me, that will I speake. ¹⁵So he came to the King, and the King said vnto him, Michaiah, shall we go against Ramoth Gilead to battel, or shall we leaue off? And he answered him, Goe vp, and prosper: and the Lord shall deliuer it into the hand of the King. ¹⁶And the King said vnto him, How oft shall I charge thee, that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the Name of the Lord? ¹⁷Then he said, I sawe all Israel scattered vpon the mountaines, as sheepe that had no shepheard. And the Lord sayde, These haue no master, let euery man returne vnto his house in peace. ¹⁸(And the King of Israel saide vnto Iehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee, that he would prophecie no good vnto me, but euill?) ¹⁹Againe he said, Heare thou therefore the worde of the Lord. I sawe the Lord sit on his throne, and all the hoste of heauen stood about him on his right hand and on his left hand. ²⁰And the Lord sayd, Who shall entise Ahab that he may go and fall at Ramoth Gilead? And one said on this maner, and another sayd on that maner. ²¹Then there came forth a spirit, and stode before the Lord, and sayd, I wil entise him. And the Lord sayd vnto him, Wherewith? ²²And he sayd, I will goe out, and be a false spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. Then he sayd, Thou shalt entise him, and shalt also preuayle: goe forth, and doe so. ²³Now therefore behold, the Lord hath put a lying spirite in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the Lord hath appoynted euill against thee. ²⁴Then Zidkiah the sonne of Chenaanah came neere, and smote Michaiah on the cheeke and sayd, When went the Spirite of the Lord from me, to speake vnto thee? ²⁵And Michaiah saide, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt goe from chamber to chamber to hide thee. ²⁶And the King of Israel sayd, Take Michaiah, and cary him vnto Amon the gouernour of the citie, and vnto Ioash the Kings sonne, ²⁷And say, Thus saith the King, Put this man in the prison house, and feede him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, vntill I returne in peace. ²⁸And Michaiah sayde, If thou returne in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by me. And he sayd, Hearken all ye people. ²⁹So the King of Israel and Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah went vp to Ramoth Gilead. ³⁰And the King of Israel sayde to Iehoshaphat, I will change mine apparell, and will enter into the battell, but put thou on thine apparell. And the King of Israel changed himselfe, and went into the battell. ³¹And the King of Aram commanded his two and thirtie captaines ouer his charets, saying, Fight neither with small, nor great, saue onely against the King of Israel. ³²And when the captaines of the charets saw Iehoshaphat, they sayd, Surely it is the King of Israel, and they turned to fight against him: and Iehoshaphat cryed. ³³And when the captaines of the charets saw that he was not the King of Israel, they turned backe from him. ³⁴Then a certaine man drewe a bow mightily and smote the King of Israel betweene the ioyntes of his brigandine. Wherefore he sayde vnto his charet man, Turne thine hand and cary me out of the hoste: for I am hurt. ³⁵And the battell encreased that day, and the King stooode still in his charet against the Aramites, and dyed at euen: and the blood ran out of the wound into the middes of the charet. ³⁶And there went a proclamation thorowout the hoste about the going downe of the sunne, saying, Euery man to his citie, and euery man to his owne countrey. ³⁷So the King died, and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the King in Samaria. ³⁸And one washed the charet in the poole of Samaria, and the dogs licked vp his blood (and they washed his armour) according vnto the word of the Lord which he spake. ³⁹Concerning the rest of the actes of Ahab and all that he did, and the yuorie house which he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ⁴⁰So Ahab slept with his fathers, and Ahaziah his sonne reigned in his stead. ⁴¹And Iehoshaphat the sonne of Asa began to reigne vpon Iudah in the fourth yeere of Ahab King of Israel. ⁴²Iehoshaphat was fīue and thirty yere olde, when he began to reigne, and reigned fīue and twentie yeere in Ierusalem. And his mothers name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ⁴³And he walked in all the wayes of Asa his father, and declined not therefrom, but did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord. Neuerthelesse the hie places were not taken away: for the people offred still and burnt incense in the hie places. ⁴⁴And Iehoshaphat made peace with the King of Israel. ⁴⁵Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoshaphat, and his worthy deedes that he did, and his battels which he fought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? ⁴⁶And the Sodomites, which remayned in the dayes of his father Asa, he put cleane out of the land. ⁴⁷There was then no King in Edom: the deputie was King. ⁴⁸Iehoshaphat made shippes of Tharshish to sayle to Ophir for golde, but they went not, for the shippes were broken at Ezion Gaber. ⁴⁹Then sayde Ahaziah the sonne of Ahab vnto Iehoshaphat, Let my seruants goe with thy seruants in the ships, But Iehoshaphat would not. ⁵⁰And Iehoshaphat did sleepe with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father, and Iehoram his sonne reigned in his stead. ⁵¹Ahaziah the sonne of Ahab began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, the seuateenth yeere of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, and reigned two yeeres ouer Israel. ⁵²But he did euill in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne. ⁵³For he serued Baal and worshipped him, and prouoked the Lord God of Israel vnto wrath, according vnto all that his father had done.

¹Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab: ²And Ahaziah fell thorow the lattesse windowe in his vpper chamber which was in Samaria: so he was sicke: then he sent messengers, to whome he saide, Goe, and enquire of Baal-zebub the God of Ekron, if I shall recouer of this my disease. ³Then the Angel of the Lord said to Eliiah the Tishbite, Arise, and goe vp to meete the messengers of the King of Samaria, and say vnto them, Is it not because there is no God in Israel, that ye goe to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? ⁴Wherefore thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone vp, but shalt die the death. So Eliiah departed. ⁵And the messengers returned vnto him, to whome he said, Why are ye nowe returned? ⁶And they answered him, There came a man and met vs, and saide vnto vs, Goe, and returne vnto the King which sent you, and say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Is it not because there is no God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Baal-zebub the God of Ekron? Therefore thou shalt not come downe from the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but shalt die ye death. ⁷And he saide vnto them, What maner of man was he which came and met you, and tolde you these wordes? ⁸And they said vnto him, He was an hearie man, and girded with a girdle of lether about his loynes. Then sayde he, It is Eliiah the Tishbite. ⁹Therefore the King sent vnto him a captaine ouer fiftie with his fiftie men, who went vp vnto him: for beholde, he sate on the toppe of a mountaine, and he saide vnto him, O man of God, the King hath commanded that thou come downe. ¹⁰But Eliiah answered, and saide to the captaine ouer the fiftie, If that I be a man of God, let fire come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fiftie. So fire came downe from the heauen and deuoured him and his fiftie. ¹¹Againe also he sent vnto him another captaine ouer fiftie, with his fiftie. Who spake, and saide vnto him, O man of God, thus the King commandeth, Come downe quickly. ¹²But Eliiah answered, and saide vnto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fiftie. So fire came downe from the heauen, and deuoured him and his fiftie. ¹³Yet againe he sent the third captaine ouer fiftie with his fiftie. And the thirde captaine ouer fiftie went vp, and came, and fell on his knees before Eliiah, and besought him, and saide vnto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life and the life of these thy fiftie seruants be precious in thy sight. ¹⁴Beholde, there came fire downe from the heauen and deuoured the two former captaines ouer fiftie with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight. ¹⁵And the Angel of the Lord said vnto Eliiah, Goe downe with him, be not afraide of his presence. So he arose, and went downe with him vnto the King. ¹⁶And he saide vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron, (was it not because there was no God in Israel to inquire of his worde?) therefore thou shalt not come downe off the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but shalt die the death. ¹⁷So he dyed according to the worde of the Lord which Eliiah had spoken. And Iehoram began to reigne in his steade, in the seconde yeere of Iehoram the sonne of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, because he had no sonne.

¹⁸Concerning the rest of the actes of Ahaziah, that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

¹And when the Lord would take vp Eliiah into heauen by a whirle winde, Eliiah went with Elisha from Gilgal. ²Then Eliiah saide to Elisha, Tarie here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath sent me to Bethel. But Elisha said, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. So they came downe to Beth-el. ³And the children of the Prophets that were at Beth-el, came out to Elisha, and said vnto him, Knowest thou that the Lord will take thy master from thine head this day? And he said, Yea, I knowe it: holde ye your peace. ⁴Againe Eliiah saide vnto him, Elisha, tarie here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath sent me to Iericho: But he said, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. So they came to Iericho. ⁵And the children of the Prophets that were at Iericho, came to Elisha, and saide vnto him, Knowest thou, that the Lord will take thy master from thine head this day? And he sayde, Yea, I knowe it: holde ye your peace.

⁶Moreouer Eliiah saide vnto him, Tarie, I pray thee, here: for the Lord hath sent me to Iorden. But he saide, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. So they went both together.

⁷And fiftie men of the sonnes of the Prophets went and stode on the other side a farre off, and they two stode by Iorden. ⁸Then Eliiah tooke his cloke, and wrapt it together, and smote the waters, and they were deuided hither and thither, and they twaine went ouer on the dry lande. ⁹Nowe when they were passed ouer, Eliiah saide vnto Elisha, Aske what I shall doe for thee before I be taken from thee. And Elisha saide, I pray thee, let thy Spirit be double vpon me. ¹⁰And he saide, Thou hast asked an hard thing: yet if thou see me when I am taken from thee, thou shalt haue it so: and if not, it shall not be.

¹¹And as they went walking and talking, beholde, there appeared a charet of fire, and horses of fire, and did separate them twaine. So Eliiah went vp by a whirle winde into heauen. ¹²And Elisha saw it, and he cryed, My father, my father, the charet of Israel, and the horsemen thereof: and he sawe him no more: and he tooke his owne clothes, and rent them in two pieces. ¹³He tooke vp also the cloke of Eliiah that fell from him, and returned, and stooode by the banke of Iorden. ¹⁴After, he tooke the cloke of Eliiah, that fell from him, and smote the waters, and sayde, Where is the Lord God of Eliiah? And so he also, after he had striken the waters, so that they were deuided this way and that way, went ouer, euen Elisha. ¹⁵And when the children of the Prophets, which were at Iericho, saw him on the other side, they sayde, The Spirite of Eliiah doeth rest on Elisha: and they came to meete him, and fell to the grounde before him, ¹⁶And said vnto him, Beholde now, there be with thy seruants fiftie strong men: let them go, we pray thee, and seeke thy master, if so be the Spirite of the Lord hath taken him vp, and cast him vpon some mountaine, or into some valley. But he said, Ye shall not sende. ¹⁷Yet they were instant vpon him, til he was ashamed: wherefore he saide, Sende. So they sent fiftie men, which sought three dayes, but founde him not. ¹⁸Therefore they returned to him, (for he taryed at Iericho) and he said vnto them, Did not I say vnto you, Goe not? ¹⁹And the men of the citie saide vnto Elisha, Beholde, we pray thee: the situation of this citie is pleasant, as thou, my lorde, seest, but the water is naught, and the ground baren. ²⁰Then he saide, Bring me a newe cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him. ²¹And he went vnto the spring of the waters, and cast there the salt, and said, Thus saith the Lord, I haue healed this water: death shall no more come thereof, neither barrenesse to the ground. ²²So the waters were healed vntill this day, according to the worde of Elisha which hee had spoken. ²³And he went vp from thence vnto Beth-el. And as he was going vp the way, litle children came out of the citie, and mocked him, and saide vnto him, Come vp, thou balde head, come vp, thou balde head. ²⁴And he turned backe, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord. And two beares came out of the forest, and tare in pieces two and fourtie children of them. ²⁵So he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

¹Nowe Iehoram the sonne of Ahab beganne to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, the eighteenth yeere of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, and reigned twelue yeeres. ²And he wrought euill in the sight of the Lord, but not like his father nor like his mother: for he tooke away the image of Baal that his father had made. ³Neuerthelesse, he cleaued vnto the sinnes of Ieroboam, the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom. ⁴Then Mesha King of Moab had store of sheepe, and rendred vnto the King of Israel an hundreth thousande lambes, and an hundreth thousande rammes with the wooll. ⁵But when Ahab was dead, the king of Moab rebelled against the King of Israel. ⁶Therefore King Iehoram went out of Samaria the same season, and nombred all Israel, ⁷And went, and sent to Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, saying, The King of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou goe with me to battell against Moab? And he answered, I will goe vp: for I am, as thou art, my people, as thy people, and mine horses as thine horses. ⁸Then said he, What way shall we goe vp? And he answered, The way of the wilderness of Edom. ⁹So went the King of Israel and the king of Iudah, and the King of Edom, and when they had compassed the way seuen dayes, they had no water for the hoste, nor for the cattell that followed them. ¹⁰Therefore the King of Israel sayde, Alas, that the Lord hath called these three Kings, to giue them into the hand of Moab. ¹¹But Iehoshaphat saide, Is there not here a Prophet of the Lord, that we may inquire of the Lord by him? And one of the King of Israels seruants answered, and said, Here is Elisha the sonne of Shaphat, which powred water on the handes of Eliiah. ¹²Then Iehoshaphat saide, The worde of the Lord is with him. Therefore the King of Israel, and Iehoshaphat, and the King of Edom went downe to him. ¹³And Elisha sayde vnto the King of Israel, What haue I to doe with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father and to the prophets of thy mother. And the King of Israel saide vnto him, Nay: for the Lord hath called these three Kings, to giue them into the hande of Moab. ¹⁴Then Elisha said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, in whose sight I stande, if it were not, that I regarde the presence of Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah, I woulde not haue looked towarde thee, nor seene thee. ¹⁵But nowe bring me a minstrel. And when the minstrel played, the hand of the Lord came vpon him. ¹⁶And he saide, Thus saith the Lord, Make this valley full of ditches. ¹⁷For thus saith the Lord, Ye shall neither see winde nor see raine, yet the valley shalbe filled with water, that ye may drinke, both ye and your cattel, and your beastes. ¹⁸But this is a small thing in the sight of the Lord: for he will giue Moab into your hande. ¹⁹And ye shall smite euery strong towne and euery chiefe citie, and shall fell euery faire tree, and shall stoppe all the fountaines of water, and marre euery good field with stones. ²⁰And in the morning whe the meat offering was offred, beholde, there came water by the way of Edom: and the countrey was filled with water. ²¹And when al the Moabites heard that the Kings were come vp to fight against them, they gathered all that was able to put on harnesse, and vpwarde, and stood in their border. ²²And they rose earely in the morning, when the sunne arose vpon the water, and the Moabites saw the water ouer against them, as red as blood. ²³And they saide, This is blood the Kings are surely slaine, and one hath smitten another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoyle. ²⁴And when they came to the host of Israel, the Israelites arose vp, and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them, but they inuaded them, and smote Moab.

²⁵And they destroyed the cities: and on all the good field euery man cast his stone, and filled them and they stopt all the fountaines of water, and felled all the good trees: onely in Kirharaseth left they the stones thereof: howbeit they went about it with slings, and smote it.
²⁶And when the King of Moab saw that the battel was too sore for him, he tooke with him seuen hudreth men that drew the sword, to break through vnto the King of Edom: but they could not. ²⁷Then he tooke his eldest sonne, that should haue reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offring vpon the wall: so that Israel was sore grieued, and they departed from him, and returned to their countrey.

¹And one of the wiues of the sonnes of the Prophets cried vnto Elisha, saying, Thy seruant mine husband is dead, and thou knowest, that thy seruant did feare the Lord: and the creditour is come to take my two sonnes to bee his bondmen. ²Then Elisha saide vnto her, What shall I do for thee? tell mee, what hast thou at home? And she sayd, Thine handmayd hath nothing at home, saue a pitcher of oyle. ³And he sayde, Goe, and borowe thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, emptie vessels, and spare not. ⁴And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the doore vpon thee and vpon thy sonnes, and powre out into all those vessels, and set aside those that are full. ⁵So shee departed from him, and shut the doore vpon her, and vpon her sonnes. And they brought to her, and she powred out. ⁶And when the vessels were full, shee sayde vnto her sonne, Bring mee yet a vessel. And hee said vnto her, There is no moe vessels. And the oyle ceased.

⁷Then shee came and tolde the man of God. And he saide, Goe, and sell the oyle, and pay them that thou art in debt vnto, and liue thou and thy children of the rest.
⁸And on a time Elisha came to Shunem, and there a woman of great estimation constrained him to eate bread: and as he passed by, he turned in thither to eate bread.

⁹And she sayde vnto her husband, Beholde, I know now, that this is an holy man of God that passeth by vs continually. ¹⁰Let vs make him a litle chamber, I pray thee, with walles, and let vs set him there a bed, and a table, and a stoole, and a candlesticke, that hee may turne in thither when hee commeth to vs. ¹¹And on a day, hee came thither and turned into the chamber, and lay therein, ¹²And sayd to Gehazi his seruant, Call this Shunammite: and when hee called her, she stood before him. ¹³Then he sayd vnto him, Say vnto her now, Beholde, thou hast had all this great care for vs, what shall we doe for thee? Is there any thing to bee spoken for thee to the King or to the captaine of the hoste? And shee answered, I dwell among mine owne people. ¹⁴Againe he sayde, What is then to be done for her? Then Gehazi answered, In deede she hath no sonne, and her husband is olde. ¹⁵Then said he, Cal her. And hee called her, and shee stode in the doore. ¹⁶And he said, At this time appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a sonne. And she sayd, Oh my Lord, thou man of God, doe not lye vnto thine handmayd. ¹⁷So the woman conceiued, and bare a sonne at that same season, according to the time of life, that Elisha had sayd vnto her. ¹⁸And when the childe was growen, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father, and to the reapers. ¹⁹And he sayde to his father, Mine head, mine head. Who sayd to his seruant, Beare him to his mother. ²⁰And hee tooke him and brought him to his mother, and hee sate on her knees till noone, and dyed. ²¹Then shee went vp, and layed him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the doore vpon him, and went out. ²²Then she called to her husband, and sayd, Send with me, I pray thee, one of the yong men and one of the asses: for I will haste to the man of God, and come againe. ²³And he sayd, Wherefore wilt thou goe to him to day? it is neither newe moone nor Sabbath day. And she answered, All shalbe well. ²⁴Then she sadled an asse, and sayde to her seruant, Driue, and goe forward: staye not for me to get vp, except I bid thee. ²⁵So she went, and came vnto the man of God to mount Carmel. And when the man of God sawe her ouer against him, he sayd to Gehazi his seruant, Beholde, the Shunammite. ²⁶Runne now, I say, to meete her, and say vnto her, Art thou in health? is thine husband in health? and is the child in health? And she answered, We are in health. ²⁷And when shee came to the man of God vnto the moutaine, she caught him by his feete: and Gehazi went to her, to thrust her away: but the man of God said, Let her alone: for her soule is vexed within her, and the Lord hath hid it from me, and hath not told it mee. ²⁸Then she said, Did I desire a sonne of my lord? did I not say, Deceiue me not? ²⁹Then he sayd to Gehazi, Gird thy loynes, and take my staffe in thine hand, and goe thy way: if thou meete any, salute him not: and if any salute thee, answere him not: and laye my staffe vpon the face of the childe. ³⁰And the mother of the childe sayde, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. Therefore he arose, and followed her. ³¹But Gehazi was gone before them, and had layed the staffe vpon the face of the childe, but he neither spake nor heard: wherefore hee returned to meete him, and told him, saying, The childe is not waken. ³²Then came Elisha into the house, and beholde, the childe was dead, and layed vpon his bedde. ³³He went in therefore, and shut the doore vpon them twayne, and prayed vnto the Lord. ³⁴After he went vp, and lay vpon the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes vpon his eies, and his hands vpon his handes, and stretched himselfe vpon him, and the flesh of the child waxed warme. ³⁵And hee went from him, and walked vp and downe in the house, and went vp and spread himselfe vpon him: then the childe neede seuen times, and opened his eyes. ³⁶Then he called Gehazi, and sayd, Call this Shunammite. So he called her, which came in vnto him. And he said vnto her, Take thy sonne. ³⁷And she came, and fell at his feete, and bowed her selfe to the ground, and tooke vp her sonne, and went out.

³⁸Afterward Elisha returned to Gilgal, and a famine was in the land, and the children of the Prophets dwelt with him. And hee sayd vnto his seruant, Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the children of the Prophets.

⁴²Then came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, euen twenty loaues of barley, and full eares of corne in the huske. And hee saide, Giue vnto the people, that they may eate. ⁴³And his seruant answered, How shoulde I set this before an hundreth men? He sayd againe, Giue it vnto the people, that they may eate: for thus sayth the Lord, They shall eate, and there shall remaine. ⁴⁴So he set it before them, and they did eate, and left ouer, according to the word of the Lord.

¹Now was there one Naaman captaine of the hoste of the King of Aram, a great man, and honourable in the sight of his lorde, because that by him the Lord had deliuered the Aramites. He also was a mightie man and valiant, but a leper. ²And the Aramites had gone out by bands, and had taken a litle mayde of the land of Israel, and shee serued Naamans wife. ³And she sayd vnto her mistres, Would God my lord were with the Prophet that is in Samaria, he would soone deliuer him of his leprosie. ⁴And he went in, and tolde his lorde, saying, Thus and thus saith the mayde that is of the land of Israel. ⁵And the King of Aram sayde, Goe thy way thither, and I will send a letter vnto the King of Israel. And he departed, and tooke with him ten talents of siluer, and sixe thousand pieces of golde, and ten change of rayments, ⁶And brought the letter to the King of Israel to this effect, Now when this letter is come vnto thee, vnderstand, that I haue sent thee Naaman my seruant, that thou maiest heale him of his leprosie. ⁷And when the King of Israel had read the letter, he rent his clothes, and sayde, Am I God, to kill and to giue life, that hee doth send to mee, that I should heale a man from his leprosie? wherfore consider, I pray you, and see howe he seeketh a quarell against me. ⁸But when Elisha the man of God had heard that the King of Israel had rent his clothes, hee sent vnto the King, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall knowe that there is a Prophet in Israel. ⁹Then Naaman came with his horses, and with his charets, and stode at the doore of the house of Elisha. ¹⁰And Elisha sent a messenger vnto him, saying, Go and wash thee in Iorden seuen times, and thy flesh shall come againe to thee, and thou shalt be censed. ¹¹But Naaman was wroth and went away, and sayde, Beholde, I thought with my selfe, Hee will surely come out, and stande, and call on the Name of the Lord his God and put his hand on the place, and heale the leprosie. ¹²Are not Abanah and Pharpar, riuers of Damascus, better then all the waters of Israel? may I not washe mee in them, and bee censed? so hee turned, and departed in displeasure. ¹³But his seruants came, and spake vnto him, and sayd, Father, if the Prophet had commanded thee a great thing, wouldest thou not haue done it? howe much rather then, when hee sayth to thee, Wash and be cleane? ¹⁴Then went he downe, and washed him selfe seuen times in Iorden, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came againe, like vnto ye flesh of a litle child, and he was cleane. ¹⁵And hee turned againe to the man of God, hee, and all his companie, and came and stood before him, and sayd, Behold, now I knowe that there is no God in all the world, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a reward of thy seruant. ¹⁶But hee sayde, As the Lord liueth (before whom I stand) I wil not receiue it. And he would haue constrained him to receiue it, but he refused. ¹⁷Moreouer Naaman sayde, Shall there not be giuen to thy seruant two mules loades of this earth? for thy seruant will henceforth offer neither burnt sacrifice nor offering vnto any other god, saue vnto the Lord. ¹⁸Herein the Lord bee mercifull vnto thy seruant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon, to worship there, and leaneth on mine hand, and I bowe my selfe in the house of Rimmon: when I doe bowe downe, I say, in the house of Rimmon, the Lord be mercifull vnto thy seruant in this point. ¹⁹Vnto whome he saide, Goe in peace. So he departed from him about halfe a dayes iourney of grounde. ²⁰And Gehazi the seruant of Elisha the man of God sayde, Beholde, my master hath spared this Aramite Naaman, receiuing not those things at his hand that he brought: as the Lord liueth, I will runne after him, and take somewhat of him. ²¹So Gehazi followed speedily after Naaman. And when Naaman sawe him running after him, he light downe from the charet to meete him, and said, Is all well? ²²And he answered, All is well: my master hath set me, saying, Behold, there be come to me, euen nowe from mount Ephraim two yong men of the children of the Prophets: giue them, I pray thee, a talent of siluer, and two change of garmets. ²³And Naaman saide, Yea, take two talents: and he compelled him, and bound two talents of siluer in two bagges, with two change of garments, and gaue them vnto two of his seruants, that they might beare them before him. ²⁴And when he came to the towre, he tooke them out of their handes, and laide them in the house, and sent away the men: and they departed. ²⁵Then he went in, and stode before his master. And Elisha said vnto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy seruant went no whither. ²⁶But he saide vnto him, Went not mine heart with thee when the man turned againe from his charet to meete thee? Is this a time to take money, and to receiue garments, and oliues, and vineyardes, and sheepe, and oxen, and men seruants, and maide seruants? ²⁷The leprosie therefore of Naaman shall cleaue vnto thee, and to thy seede for euer. And he went out from his presence a leper white as snowe.

¹And the children of the Prophets saide vnto Elisha, Behold, we pray thee, the place where we dwell with thee, is too litle for vs. ²Let vs nowe goe to Iorden, that we may take thence euery man a beame, and make vs a place to dwell in. And he answered, Goe. ³And one said, Vouchsafe, I pray thee, to go with thy seruants, and he answered, I will goe. ⁴So he went with them, and when they came to Iorden, they cut downe wood. ⁵And as one was felling of a tree, the yron fell into the water: then he cryed, and said, Alas master, it was but borrowed. ⁶And the man of God saide, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place. Then he cut downe a piece of wood, and cast in thither, and he caused the yron to swimme. ⁷Then he saide, Take it vp to thee. And he stretched out his hand, and tooke it. ⁸Then the King of Aram warred against Israel, and tooke counsell with his seruants, and said, In such and such a place shalbe my campe. ⁹Therefore the man of God sent vnto the King of Israel, saying, Beware thou goe not ouer to such a place: for there the Aramites are come downe. ¹⁰So the King of Israel sent to the place which the man of God tolde him, and warned him of, and saued himselfe from thence, not once, nor twise. ¹¹And the heart of the King of Aram was troubled for this thing: therefore he called his seruants and saide vnto them, Will ye not shewe me, which of vs bewrayeth our counsel to the king of Israel? ¹²Then one of his seruants saide, None, my lorde, O King, but Elisha the Prophet that is in Israel, telleth the King of Israel, euen the wordes that thou speakest in thy priuie chamber.

¹³And he said, Goe, and espie where he is, that I may sende and fetch him. And one tolde him, saying, Beholde, he is in Dothan.

¹⁴So he sent thither horses, and charets, and a mightie hoste: and they came by night, and compassed the citie. ¹⁵And when the seruant of the man of God arose earely to goe out, beholde, an hoste compassed the citie with horses and charets. Then his seruant sayde vnto him, Alas master, howe shall we doe? ¹⁶And he answered, Feare not: for they that be with vs, are moe then they that be with them. ¹⁷Then Elisha prayed, and saide, Lord, I beseech thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the seruant, and he looked, and beholde, the mountaine was full of horses and charets of fyre round about Elisha. ¹⁸So they came downe to him, but Elisha prayed vnto the Lord, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindnesse. And he smote them with blindnes, according to the worde of Elisha. ¹⁹And Elisha said vnto them, This is not the way, neither is this the citie: follow me, and I will leade you to the man whome ye seeke. But he ledde them to Samaria.

²⁰And when they were come to Samaria, Elisha saide, Lord, open their eyes that they may see. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they saw, and beholde, they were in the mids of Samaria. ²¹And the King of Israel sayde vnto Elisha when he sawe them, My father, shall I smite them, shall I smite them? ²²And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: doest thou not smite them that thou hast taken with thy sworde, and with thy bowe? but set bread and water before them, that they may eate and drinke and goe to their master. ²³And he made great preparation for them: and when they had eaten and drunken, he sent them away: and they went to their master. So ye bands of Aram came no more into the land of Israel. ²⁴But afterward Ben-hadad King of Aram gathered all his hoste, and went vp, and besieged Samaria. ²⁵So there was a great famine in Samaria: for loe, they besieged it vntill an asses head was at foure score pieces of siluer, and the fourth part of a kab of doues dounge at fīue pieces of siluer. ²⁶And as the King of Israel was going vpon the wall, there cryed a woman vnto him, saying, Helpe, my lord, O King. ²⁷And he said, Seeing the Lord doeth not succour thee, howe shoulde I helpe thee with the barne, or with the wine presse? ²⁸Also the King said vnto her, What ayleth thee? And she answered, This woman sayde vnto me, Giue thy sonne, that we may eate him to day, and we will eate my sonne to morowe, ²⁹So we sod my sonne, and did eate him: and I saide to her the day after, Giue thy sonne, that we may eate him, but she hath hid her sonne. ³⁰And when the King had heard the wordes of the woman, he rent his clothes, (and as he went vpon the wall, the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth within vpon his flesh) ³¹And he saide, God doe so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the sonne of Shaphat shall stande on him this day. ³²(Nowe Elisha sate in his house, and the Elders sate with him.) And the King sent a man before him: but before the messenger came to him, he saide to the Elders, See ye not howe this murtherers sonne hath sent to take away mine head? take heede when the messenger commeth, and shut the doore and handle him roughly at the doore: is not the sounde of his masters feete behinde him? ³³While he yet talked with them, beholde, the messenger came downe vnto him, and saide, Behold, this euill commeth of the Lord: should I attende on the Lord any longer?

Why sitte we here vntill we die? ⁴If we say, We will enter into the citie, the famine is in the citie, and we shall die there: and if we sit here, we dye also. Nowe therefore come, and let vs fall into the campe of the Aramites: if they saue our liues, we shall liue: and if they kill vs, we are but dead. ⁵So they rose vp in the twilight, to goe to the campe of the Aramites: and when they were come to the vtmost part of the campe of the Aramites, loe, there was no man there. ⁶For the Lord had caused the campe of the Aramites to heare a noyse of charets and a noise of horses, and a noise of a great armie, so that they sayde one to another, Beholde, the King of Israel hath hired against vs the Kings of the Hittites, and the Kings of the Egyptians to come vpon vs. ⁷Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, and left their tentes and their horses, and their asses, euen the campe as it was, and fledde for their liues. ⁸And when these lepers came to the vtmost part of the campe, they entred into one tent, and did eate and drinke, and caryed thence siluer and golde, and raiment, and went and hid it: after they returned, and entred into another tent, and caryed thence also, and went and hid it. ⁹Then saide one to another, We doe not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we holde our peace. if we tary till day light, some mischief will come vpon vs. Nowe therefore, come, let vs goe, and tell the Kings housholde. ¹⁰So they came, and called vnto the porters of the citie, and tolde them, saying, We came to the campe of the Aramites, and loe, there was no man there, neither voyce of man, but horses tyed and asses tyed: and the tents are as they were. ¹¹And the porters cryed and declared to the Kings house within. ¹²Then the King arose in the night, and saide vnto his seruants, I wil shew you now, what the Aramites haue done vnto vs. They know that we are affamished, therefore they are gone out of the campe to hide them selues in the felde, saying, When they come out of the citie, we shall catch them aliue, and get into the citie. ¹³And one of his seruants answered, and said, Let me take now fiue of the horses that remaine, and are left in the citie, (behold, they are euen as all the multitude of Israel that are left therein: beholde, I say, they are as the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) and we wil send to see. ¹⁴So they tooke two charets of horses, and the King sent after the hoste of the Aramites, saying, Goe and see. ¹⁵And they went after them vnto Iorden, and loe, all the way was full of clothes and vessels which the Aramites had cast from them in their hast: and the messengers returned, and told ye King. ¹⁶Then the people went out and spoyled the campe of the Aramites: so a measure of fine floure was at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel according to the word of the Lord. ¹⁷And the King gaue the prince (on whose hande he leaned) the charge of the gate, and the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed, as the man of God had saide, which spake it, when the King came downe to him. ¹⁸And it came to passe, as the man of God had spoken to the King, saying, Two measures of barley at a shekel, and a measure of fine floure shall be at a shekel, to morowe about this time in the gate of Samaria. ¹⁹But the prince had answered the man of God, and saide, Though the Lord would make windowes in the heauen, coulde it come so to passe? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not eate thereof. ²⁰And so it came vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed.

¹Then spake Elisha vnto the woman, whose sonne he had restored to life, saying, Vp, and goe, thou, and thine house, and soiourne where thou canst soiourne: for the Lord hath called for a famine, and it commeth also vpon the land seuen yeeres. ²And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God, and went both shee and her housholde and soiourned in the lande of the Philistims seuen yeeres. ³And at the seuen yeeres ende, the woman returned out of the lande of the Philistims, and went out to call vpon the King for her house and for her land. ⁴And the King talked with Gehazi the seruant of the man of God, saying, Tell mee, I pray thee, all the great actes, that Elisha hath done. ⁵And as he told the King, howe he had restored one dead to life, behold, the woman, whose sonne he had raised to life, called vpon the King for her house and for her land. Then Gehazi sayd, My lorde, O King, this is the woman, and this is her sonne, whom Elisha restored to life. ⁶And when the King asked the woman, shee told him: so the King appoynted her an Eunuch, saying, Restore thou all that are hers, and all the fruites of her landes since the day shee left the land, euen vntill this time. ⁷Then Elisha came to Damascus, and Ben-hadad the King of Aram was sicke, and one told him, saying, The man of God is come hither. ⁸And the king sayd vnto Hazael, Take a present in thine hande, and goe meete the man of God, that thou mayest inquire of ye Lord by him, saying, Shall I recouer of this disease? ⁹So Hazael went to meete him, and tooke the present in his hand, and of euery good thing of Damascus, euen the burden of fourtie camels, and came and stood before him, and sayde, Thy sonne Ben-hadad King of Aram hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recouer of this disease? ¹⁰And Elisha sayd to him, Goe, and say vnto him, Thou shalt recouer: howbeit the Lord hath shewed me, that he shall surely dye. ¹¹And hee looked vpon him stedfastly, till Hazael was ashamed, and the man of God wept. ¹²And Hazael sayde, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I knowe the euill that thou shalt do vnto the children of Israel: for their strong cities shalt thou set on fire, and their yong men shalt thou slay with the sworde, and shalt dash their infantes against the stones, and rent in pieces their women with child. ¹³Then Hazael said, What? is thy seruant a dog, that I should doe this great thing? And Elisha answered, The Lord hath shewed mee, that thou shalt be King of Aram. ¹⁴So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, What saide Elisha to thee? And he answered, Hee tolde mee that thou shouldest recouer. ¹⁵And on the morow he tooke a thick cloth and dipt in it water, and spread it on his face, and hee dyed: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

¹⁶Now in the fift yere of Ioram ye sonne of Ahab King of Israel, and of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, Iehoram the sonne of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah began to reigne. ¹⁷He was two and thirtie yere olde, when he began to reigne: and hee reigned eight yeere in Ierusalem. ¹⁸And hee walked in the wayes of the Kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife, and hee did euill in the sight of the Lord. ¹⁹Yet the Lord would not destroy Iudah, for Dauid his seruants sake, as he had promised him to giue him a light, and to his children for euer.

²⁰In those dayes Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah, and made a King ouer themselues. ²¹Therefore Ioram went to Zair, and all his charets with him, and he arose by night, and smote the Edomites which were about him with the captains of the charets, and the people fled into their tents. ²²So Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah vnto this day. then Libnah rebelled at that same time. ²³Concerning the rest of the actes of Ioram and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? ²⁴And Ioram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid. And Ahaziah his sonne reigned in his stead. ²⁵In the twelft yere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab King of Israel did Ahaziah the sonne of Iehoram King of Iudah begin to reigne. ²⁶Two and twentie yeere olde was Ahaziah when he began to reigne, and he reigned one yere in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri King of Israel. ²⁷And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did euill in the sight of the Lord, like the house of Ahab: for hee was the sonne in law of the house of Ahab. ²⁸And he went with Ioram the sonne of Ahab to warre against Hazael King of Aram in Ramoth Gilead, and the Aramites smote Ioram. ²⁹And King Ioram returned to bee healed in Izreel of the wounds which ye Aramites had giuen him at Ramah, whe he fought against Hazael King of Aram. And Ahaziah the sonne of Iehoram King of Iudah went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Ahab in Izreel, because he was sicke.

¹Then Elisha the Prophet called one of ye children of the Prophets, and sayde vnto him, Gird thy loynes and take this boxe of oyle in thine hand and get thee to Ramoth Gilead. ²And when thou comest thither, looke where is Iehu ye sonne of Iehoshaphat, the sonne of Nimshi, and go, and make him arise vp from among his brethren, and leade him to a secret chamber. ³Then take the boxe of oyle and powre it on his head, and say, Thus sayth the Lord, I haue anointed thee for King ouer Israel. then open the doore, and flee without any tarying. ⁴So the seruatiue of ye Prophet gate him to Ramoth Gilead. ⁵And when he came in, behold, the captaines of the armie were sitting. And he sayde, I haue a message to thee, O

captaine. And Iehu sayd, Vnto which of all vs? And he answered, To thee, O captaine. ⁶And he arose, and went into the house, and he powred the oyle on his head and sayde vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, I haue anointed thee for King ouer the people of the Lord, euen ouer Israel. ⁷And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may auenge the blood of my seruants the Prophets, and the blood of al the seruants of the Lord of the hand of Iezebel. ⁸For the whole house of Ahab shalbe destroyed: and I will cut off from Ahab, him that maketh water against the wall, as well him that is shut vp, as him that is left in Israel. ⁹And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Ierooboam the sonne of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the sonne of Ahiiah. ¹⁰And the dogges shall eate Iezebel in the fildes of Izreel, and there shalbe none to burie her. And he opened the doore, and fled. ¹¹Then Iehu came out to the seruants of his lord. And one sayd vnto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellowe to thee? And hee sayde vnto them, Ye knowe the man, and what his talke was. ¹²And they sayde, It is false, tell vs it now. Then he sayd, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I haue anointed thee for King ouer Israel. ¹³Then they made haste, and tooke euerie man his garment, and put it vnder him on the top of the staires, and blewe the trumpet, saying, Iehu is King. ¹⁴So Iehu ye sonne of Iehoshaphat the sonne of Nimshi conspired against Ioram: (Now Ioram kept Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael King of Aram. ¹⁵And King Ioram returned to bee healed in Izreel of the woundes, which the Aramites had giuen him, when hee fought with Hazael King of Aram) and Iehu sayde, If it be your mindes, let no man depart and escape out of the citie, to goe and tell in Izreel. ¹⁶So Iehu gate vp into a charet, and went to Izreel: for Ioram lay there, and Ahaziah King of Iudah was come downe to see Ioram. ¹⁷And the watchman that stode in the towre in Izreel spyed the companie of Iehu as hee came, and sayd, I see a companie. And Iehoram said, Take a horseman and send to meete them, that hee may say, Is it peace? ¹⁸So there went one on horseback to meete him, and sayde, Thus sayth the King, Is it peace? And Iehu sayd, What hast thou to do with peace? Turne behinde me. And the watchman tolde, saying, The messenger came to them, but he commeth not againe. ¹⁹Then hee sent out another on horsebacke, which came to them, and sayde, Thus sayth the King, Is it peace? And Iehu answered, What hast thou to doe with peace? turne behinde me. ²⁰And the watchman tolde, saying, He came to them also, but commeth not againe, and the marching is like the marching of Iehu the sonne of Nimshi: for he marcheth furiously. ²¹Then Iehoram sayd, Make ready: and his charet was made ready. And Iehoram King of Israel and Ahaziah King of Iudah went out eyther of them in his charet against Iehu, and met him in the felde of Naboth the Izreelite. ²²And when Iehoram sawe Iehu, he sayde, Is it peace,

Iehu? And he answered, What peace? whiles the whoredomes of thy mother Iezebel, and her witchcraftes are yet in great number? ²³Then Iehoram turned his hand, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, O Ahaziah, there is treason. ²⁴But Iehu tooke a bowe in his hande, and smote Iehoram betweene the shoulders, that the arowe went through his heart: and he fell downe in his charet. ²⁵Then said Iehu to Bidkar a captaine, Take, and cast him in some place of the fiede of Naboth the Izreelite: for I remember that when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the Lord layed this burden vpon him. ²⁶Surely I haue seene yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sonnes, saide the Lord, and I will render it thee in this fiede, saith the Lord: nowe therefore take and cast him in the fiede, according to the word of the Lord. ²⁷But when Ahaziah the King of Iudah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house: And Iehu pursued after him, and sayd, Smite him also in the charet: and they smote him in the going vp to

Gur, which is by Ibleam. And hee fled to Megiddo, and there dyed. ²⁸And his seruants caried him in a charet to Ierusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the citie of Dauid. ²⁹And in the eleuenth yere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab, began Ahaziah to reigne ouer Iudah. ³⁰And when Iehu was come to Izreel, Iezebel heard of it, and painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a windowe. ³¹And as Iehu entred at the gate, shee sayde, Had Zimri peace, which slewe his master? ³²And he lift vp his eyes to the windowe, and sayd, Who is on my side, who? Then two or three of her Eunuches looked vnto him. ³³And he sayde, Cast her downe: and they cast her downe, and hee sprinkled of her blood vpon the wall, and vpon the horses, and he trode her vnder foote. ³⁴And when he was come in, he did eate and drinke, and sayde, Visite now yonder cursed woman, and burie her: for she is a Kings daughter. ³⁵And they went to burie her, but they foud no more of her, then the skull and the feete, and the

³⁶Wherefore they came agayne and tolde him. And he said, This is the worde of the Lord, which he spake by his seruant Eliiah the Tishbite, saying, In the felde of Izreel shall ye dogs eate the flesh of Iezebel. ³⁷And the carkeis of Iezebel shalbe as dounge vpon the ground in the field of Izreel, so that none shall say, This is Iezebel.

¹Ahab had nowe seuentie sonnes in Samaria. And Iehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Izreel, and to the Elders, and to the bringers vp of Ahabs children, to this effect, ²Nowe when this letter commeth to you, (for ye haue with you your masters sonnes, yee haue with you both charets and horses, and a defenced citie, and armour) ³Consider therefore which of your masters sonnes is best and most meete, and set him on his fathers throne, and fight for your masters house. ⁴But they were exceedingly afraid, and saide, Behold two Kings coulde not stande before him, how shall we then stand? ⁵And he that was gouernour of Ahabs house, and he that ruled the citie, and the Elders, and the bringers vp of the children sent to Iehu, saying, We are thy seruants, and will doe all that thou shalt bid vs: we will make no King: do what seemeth good to thee. ⁶Then he wrote another letter to them, saying, If ye be mine, and wil obey my voyce, take the heads of ye men that are your masters sonnes, and come to me to Izreel by to morowe this time. (Nowe the Kings sonnes, euen seuentie persons were with the great men of the citie, which brought them vp) ⁷And when the letter came to them, they tooke the Kings sonnes, and slewe the seuentie persons, and layde their heads in baskets, and sent them vnto him to Izreel. ⁸Then there came a messenger and tolde him, saying, They haue brought the heads of the Kings sonnes. And he sayd, Let them lay them on two heapes at the entring in of the gate vntil the morning. ⁹And when it was day, he went out, and stood and sayd to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these? ¹⁰Knowe nowe that there shall fall vnto the earth nothing of the word of the Lord, which the Lord spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the Lord hath brought to passe the things that hee spake by his seruant Eliiah. ¹¹So Iehu slew al that remained of the house of Ahab in Izreel, and all that were great with him, and his familiars and his priestes, so that he let none of his remaine. ¹²And he arose, and departed and came to Samaria. And as Iehu was in the way by an house where the shepherds did shere, ¹³He met with the brethre of Ahaziah king of Iudah, and sayd, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah, and goe downe to salute the children of the King and the children of the Queene. ¹⁴And he sayde, Take them alieue. And they tooke them alieue, and slew them at the well beside the house where the sheepe are shorne, euen two and fourtie men, and he left not one of them. ¹⁵And when he was departed thence, hee met with

Iehonadab the sonne of Rechab comming to meete him, and he blessed him, and sayde to him, Is thine heart vpriight, as mine heart is towarde thine? And Iehonadab answered, Yea, doubtlesse. Then giue me thine hande. And when he had giuen him his hande, he tooke him vp to him into the charet. ¹⁶And he sayde, Come with me, and see the zeale that I haue for the Lord: so they made him ride in his charet. ¹⁷And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained vnto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the worde of the Lord, which he spake to Eliiah. ¹⁸Then Iehu assembled all the people, and sayd vnto them, Ahab serued Baal a litle, but Iehu shall serue him much more. ¹⁹Now therefore call vnto me all ye prophets of Baal, all his seruants, and all his priestes, and let not a man be lacking: for I haue a great sacrifice for Baal: whosoever is lacking, he shall not liue. But Iehu did it by a subiltie to destroy ye seruats of Baal. ²⁰And Iehu sayd, Proclaime a solemne assemblie for Baal. And they proclaimed it. ²¹So Iehu sent vnto all Israel, and all the seruants of Baal came, and there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from ende to ende. ²²Then he said vnto him that had the charge of the vestrie, Bring forth vestments for al the seruants of Baal. And he brought the out vestments. ²³And when Iehu went, and Iehonadab the sonne of Rechab into the house of Baal, he sayde vnto the seruants of Baal, Searche diligently, and looke, lest there be here with you any of the seruants of the Lord, but the seruants of Baal only. ²⁴And when they went in to make sacrifice and burnt offering, Iehu appoynted foure score men without, and sayd, If any of the men whome I haue brought into your hands, escape, his soule shalbe for his soule. ²⁵And when hee had made an ende of the burnt offering, Iehu sayde to the garde, and to the captaines, Goe in, slay them, let not a man come out. And they smote them with the edge of the sworde. And the garde, and the captaines cast them out, and went vnto the citie, where was the temple of Baal. ²⁶And they brought out the images of the temple of Baal, and burnt them. ²⁷And they destroyed the image of Baal, and threwe downe the house of Baal, and made a iakes of it vnto this day. ²⁸So Iehu destroyed Baal out of Israel. ²⁹But from the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat which made Israel to sinne, Iehu departed not from them, neither from the golden calues that were in Beth-el and that were in Dan. ³⁰And the Lord sayde vnto Iehu, Because thou hast diligently executed that which was right in mine eyes, and hast done vnto the house of Ahab according to all things that were in mine heart, therefore shall thy sonnes vnto the fourth generation sit on the throne of Israel. ³¹But Iehu regarded not to walke in the law of the Lord God of Israel with all his heart: for hee departed not from the sinnes of Ieroboam, which made Israel to sinne. ³²In those dayes the Lord began to lothe Israel, and Hazael smote them in all the coastes of Israel, ³³From Iorden Eastward, euen all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and them that were of Manasseh, from Aroer (which is by the riuer Arnon) and Gilead and Bashan. ³⁴Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehu, and all that he did, and all his valiant deedes, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ³⁵And Iehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Iehoahaz his sonne reigned in his stead. ³⁶And the time that Iehu reigned ouer Israel in Samaria is eight and twentie yeeres.

¹Then Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah when she saw that her sonne was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the Kings seede. ²But Iehosheba the daughter of King Ioram, and sister to Ahaziah tooke Ioash the sonne of Ahaziah, and stale him from among the Kings sonnes that shoulde be slaine, both him and his nource, keeping them in the bed chaber, and they hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slaine. ³And he was with her hid in the house of the Lord sixe

yeere: and Athaliah did reigne ouer the land. ⁴And the seuenth yeere Iehoiada sent and tooke the captaines ouer hundreths, with other captaines and them of the garde, and caused them to come vnto him into the house of the Lord, and made a couenant with them, and tooke an othe of them in the house of the Lord, and shewed them the Kings sonne. ⁵And he commanded them, saying, This is it that ye must doe, The third part of you, that commeth on the Sabbath, shall warde towarde the Kings house: ⁶And another third part in the gate of Sur: and another thirde part in the gate behinde them of the garde: and ye shall keepe watche in the house of Massah. ⁷And two parts of you, that is, all that goe out on the Sabbath day, shall keepe the watch of the house of the Lord about the King. ⁸And ye shall compasse the King rounde about, euery man with his weapon in his hande, and whosoeuer commeth within the ranges, let him be slayne: be you with the King, as he goeth out and in. ⁹And the captaines of the hundreths did according to all that Iehoiada the Priest commaded, and they tooke euery man his men that entred in to their charge on the Sabbath with them that went out of it on the Sabbath, and came to Iehoiada the Priest. ¹⁰And the Priest gaue to the captaines of hundreths the speares and the shieldes that were King Dauids, and were in the house of the Lord. ¹¹And the garde stode, euery man with his weapon in his hande, from the right side of the house to the left side, about the altar and about the house, round about the King. ¹²Then he brought out the Kings sonne, and put the crowne vpon him and gaue him the Testimonie, and they made him King: also they anoynted him, and clapt their handes, and sayde, God saue the King. ¹³And when Athaliah heard the noyse of the running of the people, shee came in to the people in the house of the Lord. ¹⁴And when shee looked, beholde, the King stode by a pillar, as the maner was, and the princes and the trumpetters by the King, and al the people of the land reioyced, and blew with trumpets. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, treason. ¹⁵But Iehoiada the Priest commanded the captaines of the hundreths that had the rule of the hoste, and sayde vnto them, Haue her forth of the ranges, and he that followeth her, let him die by the sworde: for the Priest had sayd, Let her not be slaine in the house of the Lord. ¹⁶Then they laid hands on her, and she went by the way, by the which the horses goe to the house of the King, and there was she slaine. ¹⁷And Iehoiada made a couenant betweene the Lord, and the King and the people, that they should be the Lordes people: likewise betweene the King and the people. ¹⁸Then all the people of the lande went into the house of Baal, and destroyed it with his altars, and his images brake they downe courageously, and slewe Mattan the Priest of Baal before the altars: and the Priest set a garde ouer the house of the Lord. ¹⁹Then he tooke the captaines of hudreths, and the other captaines, and the garde, and all the people of the lande: and they brought the King from the house of the Lord, and came by the way of the gate of the garde to the Kings house: and he sate him downe on the throne of the Kings. ²⁰And all the people of the land reioyced, and the citie was in quiet: for they had slaine Athaliah with the sworde beside the Kings house. ²¹Seuen yeere olde was Iehoash when he began to reigne.

Lord, ⁵Let the Priestes take it to them, euery man of his acquaintance: and they shall reparaire the broken places of the house, wheresoeuer any decay is founde. ⁶Yet in the three and twentieth yeere of King Iehoash the Priestes had not mended that which was decayed in the Temple. ⁷Then King Iehoash called for Iehoiada the Priest, and the other Priestes, and sayd vnto them, Why reparaire yee not the ruines of the Temple? nowe therefore receiue no more money of your acquaintance, except yee deliuer it to reparaire the ruines of the Temple. ⁸So the Priestes consented to receiue no more money of the people, neither to reparaire the decayed places of the Temple. ⁹Then Iehoiada the Priest tooke a chest and bored an hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side, as euery man commeth into the Temple of the Lord. And the Priestes that kept the doore, put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the Lord. ¹⁰And when they sawe there was much money in the chest, the

Kinges Secretarie came vp and the hie Priest, and put it vp after that they had tolde the money that was found in the house of the Lord, ¹¹And they gaue the money made readie into the handes of them, that vndertooke the worke, and that had the ouersight of the house of the Lord; and they payed it out to the carpenters and builders that wrought vpon the house of the Lord, ¹²And to the masons and hewers of stone, and to bye timber and hewed stone, to repayre that was decayed in the house of the Lord, and for all that which was layed out for the reparation of the Temple. ¹³Howbeit there was not made for the house of the Lord bowles of siluer, instruments of musicke, basons, trumpets, nor any vessels of golde, or vessels of siluer of the money that was brought into the house of the Lord. ¹⁴But they gaue it to the workemen, which repayed therewith the house of the Lord. ¹⁵Moreouer, they reckoned not with the men, into whose handes they deliuered that money to be bestowed on workemen: for they dealt faithfully. ¹⁶The money of the trespasse offring and the money of ye sinne offerings was not brought into the house of the Lord: for it was the Priests. ¹⁷Then came vp Hazael King of Aram, and fought against Gath and tooke it, and Hazael set his face to goe vp to Ierusalem. ¹⁸And Iehoash King of Iudah tooke all the halowed thinges that Iehoshaphat, and Iehoram, and Ahaziah his fathers Kings of Iudah had dedicated, and that he himselfe had dedicated, and all the golde that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lord and in the Kings house, and sent it to Hazael King of Aram, and he departed from Ierusalem. ¹⁹Concerning the rest of the acts of Ioash and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? ²⁰And his seruants arose and wrought treason, and slewe Ioash in the house of Millo, when he came downe to Silla: ²¹Euen Iozachar the sonne of Shimeath, and Iehozabad the sonne of Shomer his seruants smote him, and he dyed: and they buried him with his fathers in the citie of Dauid. And Amaziah his sonne reigned in his stead.

¹In the three and twentieth yeere of Ioash the sonne of Ahaziah King of Iudah, Iehoahaz the sonne of Iehu began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seuentene yeere. ²And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, and followed the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom. ³And the Lord was angry with Israel, and deliuered them into the hand of Hazael King of Aram, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the sonne of Hazael, all his dayes. ⁴And Iehoahaz besought the Lord, and the Lord heard him: for he saw the trouble of Israel, wherewith the King of Aram troubled them. ⁵(And the Lord gaue Israel a deliuerer, so that they came out from vnder the subiection of the Aramites. And the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as before time. ⁶Neuerthesse they departed not from the sinnes of the house of Ieroboam which made Israel sinne, but walked in them. euen the groue also remayned still in Samaria) ⁷For he had left of the people to Iehoahaz but fiftie horsemen, and tenne charets, and tenne thousand footemen, because the King of Aram had destroyed them, and made them like dust beaten to powder. ⁸Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoahaz and all that he did, and his valiant deedes, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ⁹And Iehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Ioash his sonne reigned in his steade. ¹⁰In the seuen and thirtieth yere of Ioash King of Iudah began Iehoash the sonne of Iehoahaz to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteene yeere, ¹¹And did euil in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from all the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat that made Israel to sinne, but he walked therein. ¹²Concerning the rest of the actes of Ioash and all that he did, and his valiant deedes, and how he fought against Amaziah King of Iudah, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

¹³And Ioash slept with his fathers, and Ieroboam sate vpon his seate: and Ioash was buryed in Samaria among the Kings of Israel.
¹⁴When Elisha fell sicke of his sickenesse whereof he dyed, Ioash the King of Israel came downe vnto him, and wept vpon his face, and sayd, O my father, my father, the charet of Israel, and the horsemen of the same.
¹⁵Then Elisha sayde vnto him, Take a bowe and arrowes. And he tooke vnto him bowe and arrowes. ¹⁶And he sayde to the King of Israel, Put thine hand vpon the bowe. And he put his hand vpon it. And Elisha put his hands vpon the Kings hands, ¹⁷And saide, Open the windowe Eastward. And when he had opened it, Elisha said, Shoote.
And he shot. And he sayd, Beholde the arrowe of the Lordes deliuerance and the arrowe of deliuerance against Aram: for thou shalt smite the Aramites in Aphek, till thou hast consumed them. ¹⁸Againe he said, Take the arrowes. And he tooke them. And he sayde vnto the King of Israel,

Smite the ground. And he smote thrise, and ceased. ¹⁹Then the man of God was angry with him, and sayde, Thou shouldest haue smitten fiue or sixe times, so thou shouldest haue smitten Aram, till thou haddest consumed it, where nowe thou shalt smite Aram but thrise. ²⁰So Elisha dyed, and they buryed him. And certaine bandes of the Moabites came into the land that yeere. ²¹And as they were burying a man, behold, they saw the souldiers: therfore they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha. And when the man was downe, and touched the bones of Elisha, he reuiued and stode vpon his feete. ²²But Hazael King of Aram vexed Israel all the dayes of Iehoahaz. ²³Therefore the Lord had mercy on them and pitied them, and had respect vnto them because of his couenant with Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from him as yet. ²⁴So Hazael the King of Aram dyed: and Ben-hadad his sonne reigned in his stead. ²⁵Therefore Iehoash the sonne of Iehoahaz returned, and tooke out of the hand of Ben-hadad the sonne of Hazael the cities which he had taken away by warre out of the hand of Iehoahaz his father: for three times did Ioash beate him, and restored the cities vnto Israel.

¹The second yeere of Ioash sonne of Iehoahaz King of Israel reigned Amaziah the sonne of Ioash King of Iudah. ²He was fiue and twentie yeere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned nine and twentie yeere in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Ieoadan of Ierusalem. ³And he did vprightly in the sight of the Lord, yet not like Dauid his father, but did according to all that Ioash his father had done. ⁴Notwithstanding the hie places were not taken away: for as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense in the hie places. ⁵And when the kingdome was confirmed in his hand, he slewe his seruants which had killed the King his father. ⁶But the children of those that did slay him, he slewe not, according vnto that that is written in the booke of the Lawe of Moses, wherein the Lord commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children put to death for the fathers: but euery man shall be put to death for his owne sinne. ⁷He slew also of Edom in the valley of salt ten thousand, and tooke the citie of Sela by warre, and called the name thereof Ioktheel vnto this day. ⁸Then Amaziah sent messengers to Iehoash the sonne of Iehoahaz, sonne of Iehu King of Israel, saying, Come, let vs see one another in the face. ⁹Then Iehoash the King of Israel sent to Amaziah King of Iudah, saying, The thistle that is in Lebanon, sent to the cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, Giue thy daughter to my sonne to wife: and the wilde beast that was in Lebanon, went and trode downe the thistle. ¹⁰Because thou hast smitten Edom, thine heart hath made thee proud: bragge of glory, and tary at home. why doest thou prouoke to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, and Iudah with thee? ¹¹But Amaziah would not heare: therefore Iehoash King of Israel went vp: and he and

Amaziah King of Iudah sawe one another in the face at Bethshemesh which is in Iudah. ¹²And Iudah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fledde euery man to their tents. ¹³But Iehoash King of Israel tooke Amaziah King of Iudah, the sonne of Iehoash the sonne of Ahaziah, at Bethshemesh, and came to Ierusalem, and brake downe the wall of Ierusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, foure hundreth cubites. ¹⁴And he tooke all the gold and siluer, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the Kings house, and the children that were in hostage, and returned to Samaria. ¹⁵Concerning the rest of the acts of Iehoash which he did and his valiant deedes, and how he fought with Amaziah King of Iudah, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ¹⁶And Iehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried at Samaria among the Kings of Israel: and Ieroboam his sonne reigned in his stead. ¹⁷And Amaziah the sonne of Ioash King of Iudah, liued after the death of Iehoash sonne of Iehoahaz King of Israel fifteene yeere. ¹⁸Concerning the rest of the actes of Amaziah, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? ¹⁹But they wrought treason against him in Ierusalem, and he fled to Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish, and slewe him there. ²⁰And they brought him on horses, and he was buried at Ierusalem with his fathers in the citie of Daud. ²¹Then all the people of Iudah tooke Azariah which was sixteene yeere olde, and made him King for his father Amaziah. ²²He built Elath, and restored it to Iudah, after that the King slept with his fathers. ²³In the fifteenth yeere of Amaziah the sonne of Ioash King of Iudah, was Ieroboam the sonne of Ioash made King ouer Israel in Samaria, and reigned one and fourtie yeere. ²⁴And he did euill in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from all the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne. ²⁵He restored the coast of Israel, from the entring of Hamath, vnto the Sea of the wilderness, according to the worde of the Lord God of Israel, which he spake by his seruant Ionah the sonne of Amittai the Prophet, which was of Gath Hopher. ²⁶For the Lord saw the exceeding bitter affliction of Israel, so that there was none shutte vp, nor any left, neyther yet any that could helpe Israel. ²⁷Yet the Lord had not decreed to put out the name of Israel from vnder the heauen: therefore he preserued them by the hand of Ieroboam the sonne of Ioash. ²⁸Concerning the rest of the actes of Ieroboam, and all that he did, and his valiant deedes, and how he fought, and how he restored Damascus, and Hamath to Iudah in Israel, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ²⁹So Ieroboam slept with his fathers, euen with the Kings of Israel, and Zachariah his sonne reigned in his steade.

¹In the seuen and twentieth yeere of Ieroboam King of Israel, began

Azariah, sonne of Amaziah King of Iudah to reigne. ²Sixteene yeere olde was he, when he was made King, and he reigned two and fiftie yeere in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Iecholiah of Ierusalem. ³And he did vprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah did. ⁴But the hie places were not put away: for the people yet offered, and burned incense in the hie places. ⁵And the Lord smote the King: and he was a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt in an house apart, and Iotham the kings sonne gouerned the house, and iudged the people of the land. ⁶Concerning the rest of the actes of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? ⁷So Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buryed him with his fathers in the citie of Daud, and Iotham his sonne reigned in his stead. ⁸In the eyght and thirtieth yeere of Azariah King of Iudah did Zachariah the sonne of Ieroboam reigne ouer Israel in Samaria sixe moneths, ⁹And did euill in the sight of the Lord, as did his fathers: for he departed not from the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne. ¹⁰And Shallum the sonne of Iabesh conspired against him, and smote him in the sight of the people, and killed him, and reigned in his stead. ¹¹Concerning the rest of the actes of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. ¹²This was the word of the Lord, which he spake vnto Iehu, saying, Thy sonnes shall sit on the throne of Israel vnto the fourth generation after thee. And it came so to passe. ¹³Shallum the sonne of Iabesh began to reigne in the nine and thirtieth yeere of Vzziah King of Iudah: and he reigned the space of a moneth in Samaria. ¹⁴For Menahem the sonne of Gadi went vp from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the sonne of Iabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead. ¹⁵Cocerning the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the treason which he wrought, beholde, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

¹⁶Then Menahem destroyed Tiphseh, and all that were therein, and the coastes thereof from Tirzah, because they opened not to him, and he smote it, and ript vp all their women with childe. ¹⁷The nine and thirtieth yeere of Azariah King of Iudah, beganne Menahem the sonne of Gadi to reigne ouer Israel, and reigned ten yeeres in Samaria. ¹⁸And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, and departed not all his dayes from the sinne of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne. ¹⁹Then Pul the king of Asshur came against the land: and Menahem gaue Pul a thousand talents of siluer, that his hande might bee with him, and establish the kingdome in his hand. ²⁰And Menahem exacted the money in Israel, that all men of substance shoulde giue the King of Asshur fiftie shekels of siluer a piece: so the king of Asshur returned and taried not there in the land. ²¹Concerning the rest of the actes of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²²And Menahem slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his sonne did reigne in his steade. ²³In ye fiftieth yere of Azariah king of Iudah, began Pekahiah the sonne of Menahem to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, and reigned two yere. ²⁴And he did euill in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne. ²⁵And Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, his captaine conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria in the place of the Kings palace with Argob and Arieah, and with him fiftie men of the Gileadites: so he killed him, and reigned in his steade. ²⁶Concerning the rest of the actes of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. ²⁷In the two and fiftieth yere of Azariah King of Iudah began Pekah the sonne of Remaliah to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, and reigned twentie yeere. ²⁸And he did euil in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, that made Israel to sinne. ²⁹In the dayes of

Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath Pileser king of Asshur, and tooke Iion, and Abel, Beth-maachah, and Ianoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilah, and all the land of Naphtali, and caryed them away to Asshur. ³⁰And Hoshea the sonne of Elah wrought treason against Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, and smote him, and slewe him, and reigned in his stead in the twentieth yeere of Iotham the sonne of Vzziah. ³¹Concerning the rest of the actes of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel. ³²In the second yere of Pekah the sonne of Remaliah King of Israel, began Iotham sonne of Vzziah King of Iudah to reigne. ³³Fiue and twentie yeere olde was he, when he began to reigne, and he reigned sixteene yeere in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Ierusha the daughter of Zadok. ³⁴And hee did vprightly in the sight of the Lord: he did according to all that his father Vzziah had done. ³⁵But the hie places were not put away: for the people yet offered and burnt incense in the hie places: he buylt the hyest gate of the house of the Lord. ³⁶Concerning the rest of the acts of Iotham, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah? ³⁷In those dayes the Lord began to send against Iudah Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah the sonne of Remaliah. ³⁸And Iotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Daud his father, and Ahaz his sonne reigned in his steade.

¹The seuteenth yeere of Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, Ahaz the sonne of Iotham King of Iudah began to reigne. ²Twentie yeere olde was Ahaz, when hee began to reigne, and he reigned sixteene yeere in Ierusalem, and did not vprightly in the sight of the Lord his God, like Daud his father: ³But walked in the way of ye kings of Israel, yea, and made his sonne to go through the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel. ⁴Also he offred and burnt incense in the hie places and on the hilles, and vnder euery greene tree. ⁵Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah sonne of Remaliah King of Israel came vp to Ierusalem to fight: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not ouercome him. ⁶At the same time Rezin king of Aram restored Elath to Aram, and droue the Iewes from Elath: so the Aramites came to Elath, and dwelt there vnto this day. ⁷Then Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser king of Asshur, saying, I am thy seruant and thy sonne: come vp, and deliuer me out of the hand of the king of Aram, and out of the hand of the King of Israel which rise vp against me. ⁸And Ahaz tooke the siluer and the golde that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the Kings house, and sent a present vnto the King of Asshur. ⁹And the King of Asshur consented vnto him: and the King of Asshur went vp against Damascus. and when he had taken it, he caryed the people away to Kir, and slew Rezin. ¹⁰And King Ahaz went vnto Damascus to meete Tiglath

Pileser King of Asshur: and when King Ahaz sawe the altar that was at Damascus, he sent to Vriiah the Priest the paterne of the altar, and the facion of it, and all the workemanship thereof. ¹¹And Vriiah the Priest made an altar in al poyntes like to that which King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so did Vriiah the Priest against King Ahaz came from Damascus. ¹²So when the King was come from Damascus, the King sawe the altar: and the King drewe neere to the altar and offered thereon. ¹³And hee burnt his burnt offering, and his meate offering, and powred his drinke offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offrings besides the altar, ¹⁴And set it by the brasen altar which was before the Lord, and brought it in farther before the house betweene the altar and the house of the Lord, and set it on the North side of the altar. ¹⁵And King Ahaz commanded Vriiah the Priest, and sayde, Vpon the great altar set on fire in the morning the burnt offering, and in the euen the meate offering, and the Kings burnt offering and his meate offering, with the burnt offring of all the people of the lande, and their meate offering, and their drinke offrings: and powre thereby all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice, and the brasen altar shalbe for me to inquire of God. ¹⁶And Vriiah the Priest did according to all that King Ahaz had commanded. ¹⁷And King Ahaz brake the borders of the bases, and tooke the caldrons from off them, and tooke downe the sea from the brasen oxen that were vnder it, and put it vpon a pauement of stones. ¹⁸And the vaile for the Sabbath (that they had made in the house) and the Kings entrie without turned he to the house of the Lord, because of the King of Asshur. ¹⁹Concerning the rest of the actes of Ahaz, which he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? ²⁰And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid, and Hezekiah his sonne reigned in his steade.

¹In the twelfth yeere of Ahaz King of Iudah began Hoshea the sonne of Elah to reigne in Samaria ouer Israel, and reigned nine yeeres. ²And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, but not as the Kinges of Israel, that were before him. ³And Shalmaneser king of Asshur came vp against him, and Hoshea became his seruant, and gaue him presents. ⁴And the King of Asshur founde treason in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So King of Egypt, and brought no present vnto the King of Asshur, as he had done yeerely: therefore the king of Asshur shut him vp, and put him in prison. ⁵Then the king of Asshur came vp throughout all the lande, and went against Samaria, and besieged it three yeere. ⁶In the ninth yeere of Hoshea, the King of Asshur tooke Samaria, and caryed Israel away vnto Asshur, and put them in Halah, and in Habor by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. ⁷For when the children of Israel sinned against the Lord their God, which had brought them out of the land of

Egypt, from vnder ye hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and feared other gods, ⁸And walked according to the facions of the Heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel, and after the maners of the Kings of Israel, which they vsed, ⁹And the children of Israel had done secretly things that were not vpriight before the Lord their God, and throughout all their cities had built hie places, both from the tower of the watch, to the defended citie, ¹⁰And had made them images and groues vpon euery hie hill, and vnder euery greene tree, ¹¹And there burnt incense in all the hie places, as did the heathen, whom the Lord had taken away before them, and wrought wicked things to anger the Lord, ¹²And serued idoles: whereof the Lord had sayd vnto them, Ye shall do no such thing, ¹³Notwithstanding the Lord testified to Israel, and to Iudah by all the Prophets, and by all the Seers, saying, Turne from your euill wayes, and keepe my commandements and my statutes, according to all the Lawe, which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my seruants the Prophets.

¹⁴Neuerthelesse they would not obey, but hardened their neckes, like to the neckes of their fathers, that did not beleue in the Lord their God. ¹⁵And they refused his statutes and his couenant, that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies (wherewith he witnessed vnto them) and they followed vanitie, and became vaine, and followed the heathen that were round about them: concerning whome the Lord had charged them, that they should not do like them. ¹⁶Finally they left all the commandements of the Lord their God, and made them molten images, euen two calues, and made a groue, and worshipped all the hoste of heauen, and serued Baal. ¹⁷And they made their sonnes and their daughters passe thorowe the fire, and vsed witchcraft and inchantments, yea, solde them selues to doe euill in the sight of the Lord, to anger him. ¹⁸Therefore the Lord was exceeding wroth with Israel, and put them out of his sight, and none was left but the tribe of Iudah onely. ¹⁹Yet Iudah kept not the commandements of the Lord their God, but walked according to the facion of Israel, which they vsed. ²⁰Therefore the Lord cast off all the seede of Israel, and afflicted them, and deliuered them into the handes of spoylers, vntill he had cast them out of his sight. ²¹For he cut off Israel from the house of Daud, and they made Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat King: and Ieroboam drewe Israel away from following the Lord, and made them sinne a great sinne. ²²For the children of Israel walked in all the sinnes of Ieroboam, which he did, and departed not therefrom, ²³Vntill the Lord put Israel away out of his sight, as he had said by all his seruants the Prophets, and caryed Israel away out of their land to Asshur vnto this day. ²⁴And the King of Asshur brought folke from Babel, and from Cuthah, and from Aua, and from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria in steade of the children of Israel: so they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof. ²⁵And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they feared not the Lord: therefore the Lord sent lions among them, which slewe them. ²⁶Wherefore they spake to the King of Asshur, saying, The nations which thou hast remoued, and placed in the cities of Samaria, knowe not the maner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and behold, they slay them, because they knowe not the maner of the God of the land. ²⁷Then the King of Asshur commanded, saying, Carie thither one of the Priestes whome ye brought thence, and let him goe and dwell there, and teache them the maner of the God of the countrey. ²⁸So one of the Priestes, which they had caryed from Samaria, came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they shoulde feare the Lord. ²⁹Howbeit euery nation made their gods, and put them in the houses of the hie places, which the Samaritanes had made, euery nation in their cities, wherein they dwelt. ³⁰For the men of Babel made Succoth-Benoth: and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, ³¹And the Auims made Nibhaz, and Tartak: and the Sepharuims burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech, and Anammelech the gods of Sepharuaim. ³²Thus they feared the Lord, and appoynted out Priestes out of them selues for the hie places, who prepared for them sacrifices in the houses of the hie places. ³³They feared the Lord, but serued their gods after the maner of the nations whome they caryed thence. ³⁴Vnto this day they doe after the olde maner: they neyther feare God, neyther doe after their ordinances, nor after their customes, nor after the Lawe, nor after the commandement, which the Lord commanded the children of Iaakob, whom he named Israel, ³⁵And with whom the Lord had made a couenant, and charged them, saying, Feare none other gods, nor bowe your selues to them, nor serue them, nor sacrifice to them: ³⁶But feare the Lord which brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power, and a stretched out arme:

him feare ye, and worshippe him, and sacrifice to him. ³⁷Also keepe ye diligently the statutes and the ordinances, and the Lawe, and the commandement, which he wrote for you, that ye do them continually, and feare not other gods. ³⁸And forget not the couenant that I haue made with you, neither feare ye other gods, ³⁹But feare the Lord your God, and he will deliuer you out of the handes of all your enemies. ⁴⁰Howbeit they obeyed not, but did after their olde custome. ⁴¹So these nations feared the Lord, and serued their images also: so did their children, and their childrens children: as did their fathers, so do they vnto this day.

¹Now in the third yeere of Hoshea, sonne of Elah King of Israel, Hezekiah the sonne of Ahaz king of Iudah began to reigne. ²He was fiue and twentie yeere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned nine and twenty yeere in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Abi the daughter of Zachariah, ³And he did vprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Dauid his father had done. ⁴He tooke away the hie places, and brake the images, and cut downe the groues, and brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for vnto those dayes the children of Israel did burne incense to it, and hee called it Nehushtan. ⁵He trusted in the Lord God of Israel: so that after him was none like him among all the Kings of Iudah, neither were there any such before him. ⁶For he claue to the Lord, and departed not from him, but kept his commandements, which the Lord had commanded Moses. ⁷So the Lord was with him, and he prospered in all thinges, which he tooke in hande: also he rebelled against the King of Asshur, and serued him not. ⁸He smote the Philistims vnto Azzah, and the coastes thereof, from the watch towre vnto the defended citie. ⁹And in the fourth yere of King Hezekiah, (which was the seuenth yeere of Hoshea sonne of Elah King of Israel) Shalmaneser King of Asshur came vp against

Samaria, and besieged it. ¹⁰And after three yeeres they tooke it, euen in the sixt yeere of Hezekiah: that is, the ninth yeere of Hoshea King of Israel was Samaria taken.

¹¹Then the King of Asshur did carry away Israel vnto Asshur, and put them in Halah and in Habor, by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, ¹²Because they would not obey the voyce of the Lord their God, but transgressed his couenant: that is, all that Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded, and would neyther obey nor doe them.

¹⁵Therefore Hezekiah gaue all the siluer that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the Kings house. ¹⁶At the same season did Hezekiah pul off the plates of the doores of the Temple of the Lord, and the pillars (which the sayd Hezekiah King of Iudah had couered ouer) and gaue them to the King of Asshur. ¹⁷And the King of Asshur sent Tartan, and Rab-saris, and Rabshakeh from Lachish to King Hezekiah with a great hoste against Ierusalem. And they went vp, and came to Ierusalem, and when they were come vp, they stood by the conduite of the vpper poole, which is by the path of the fullers fiede, ¹⁸And called to the King. Then came out to them Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah, which was steward of the house, and Shebnah the chancellor, and Ioah the sonne of Asaph the recorder. ¹⁹And Rabshakeh sayde vnto them, Tell ye Hezekiah, I pray you, Thus saith the great King, euen the great King of Asshur, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? ²⁰Thou thinkest, Surely I haue eloquence, but counsell and strength are for the warre. On whom then doest thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? ²¹Lo, thou trustest now in this broken staffe of reede, to wit, on Egypt, on which if a man leane, it will goe into his hand, and pearce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt vnto all that trust on him. ²²But if ye say vnto me, We trust in the Lord our God, is not that he whose hie places, and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath sayd to Iudah and Ierusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Ierusalem? ²³Now therefore giue hostages to my lord the King of Asshur, and I will giue thee two thousand horses, if thou be able to set riders vpon them. ²⁴For how canst thou despise any captaine of the least of my masters seruants, and put thy trust on Egypt for charets and horsemen? ²⁵Am I now come vp without the Lord to this place, to destroy it? the Lord sayd to me, Goe vp against this land, and destroy it. ²⁶Then Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Ioah said vnto Rabshakeh, Speake I pray thee, to thy seruants in the Aramites language, for we vnderstand it, and talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the audience of the people that are on the wall. ²⁷But Rabshakeh saide vnto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speake these words, and not to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eate their owne dounge, and drinke their owne pisse with you? ²⁸So Rabshakeh stode and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes language, and spake, saying, Heare the wordes of the great King, of the king of Asshur. ²⁹Thus sayth the King, Let not Hezekiah deceiue you: for he shall not be able to deliuer you out of mine hand. ³⁰Neither let Hezekiah make you to trust in the Lord, saying, The Lord will surely deliuer vs, and this citie shall not be giuen ouer into the hand of the king of Asshur. ³¹Hearken not vnto Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Asshur, Make appointment with me, and come out to me, that euery man may eate of his owne vine, and euery man of his owne figge tree, and drinke euery man of the water of his owne well, ³²Till I come, and bring you to a land like your owne land, euen a land of wheate and wine, a land of bread and vineyardes, a lande of oliues oyle, and hony, that ye may liue and not die: and obey not Hezekiah, for he deceiueth you, saying, The Lord will deliuer vs. ³³Hath any of the gods of the nations deliuered his lande out of the hand of the King of Asshur? ³⁴Where is the god of Hamah, and of Arpad? where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena and Iuah? how haue they deliuered Samaria out of mine hand? ³⁵Who are they among all the gods of the nations, that haue deliuered their lande out of mine hand, that the Lord should deliuer Ierusalem out of mine hand? ³⁶But the people helde their peace, and answered not him a worde: for the Kings commandement was, saying, Answer ye him not. ³⁷Then Eliakim, the sonne of Hilkiyah which was steward of the house, and Shebna the chancellor, and Ioah the sonne of Asaph the recorder came to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and tolde him the wordes of Rabshakeh.

¹And when King Hezekiah heard it, he rent his clothes and put on sackcloth, and came into the house of the Lord, ²And sent Eliakim which was the stewarde of the house, and Shebna the chancellor, and the Elders of the Priestes clothed in sackcloth to Isaiah the Prophet the sonne of Amoz. ³And they said vnto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of tribulation and of rebuke, and blasphemie: for the childre are come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring foorth. ⁴If so be the Lord thy God hath heard all the wordes of Rabshakeh, whome the King of Asshur his master hath sent to raile on the liuing God, and to reproch him with wordes which the Lord thy God hath heard, then lift thou vp thy prayer for the remnant that are left. ⁵So the seruants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah. ⁶And Isaiah said vnto them, So shall ye say to your master, Thus sayeth the Lord, Be not afraide of the words which thou hast heard, wherewith the seruants of the king of Asshur haue blasphemed me. ⁷Beholde, I will sende a blast

vpon him, and he shall heare a noyse, and returne to his owne lande: and I will cause him to fall by the sworde in his owne lande.

⁸So Rabshakeh returned, and founde the King of Asshur fighting against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. ⁹He heard also men say of Tirhakah King of Ethiopia, Beholde, he is come out to fight against thee: he therefore departed and sent other messengers vnto Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰Thus shall ye speake to Hezekiah King of Iudah, and say, Let not thy God deceiue thee in whome thou trustest, saying, Ierusalem shall not be deliuered into the hande of the King of Asshur. ¹¹Beholde, thou hast heard what the Kings of Asshur haue done to all landes, how they haue destroyed them: and shalt thou be deliuered? ¹²Haue the gods of the heathen deliuered them which my fathers haue destroyed? as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden, which were in Thelasar? ¹³Where is the King of Hamath, and the King of Arpad, and the King of the citie of Shepharuaim,

Hena and Iuah? ¹⁴So Hezekiah receiued the letter of the hande of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went vp into the house of the Lord, and Hezekiah spread it before the Lord. ¹⁵And Hezekiah prayed before the Lord, and saide, O Lord God of Israel, which dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art very God alone ouer all the kingdomes of the earth: thou hast made the heauen and the earth. ¹⁶Lord, bow downe thine eare, and heare: Lord open thine eyes and behold, and heare the wordes of Saneherib, who hath sent to blaspheme the liuing God. ¹⁷Trueth it is, Lord, that the Kings of Asshur haue destroyed the nations and their landes, ¹⁸And haue set fire on their gods: for they were no gods, but the worke of mans hands, euen wood and stone: therefore they destroyed them. ¹⁹Nowe therefore, O Lord our God, I beseech thee, saue thou vs out of his hande, that all the kingdomes of the earth may knowe, that thou, O Lord, art onely God. ²⁰Then Isaiah the sonne of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I haue heard that which thou hast prayed me, concerning Saneherib King of Asshur. ²¹This is the worde that the Lord hath spoken against him, O Virgine, daughter of Zion, he hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorne: O daughter of Ierusalem, he hath shaken his head at thee. ²²Whome hast thou railed on? and whome hast thou blasphemed? and against whome hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thine eyes on hie? euen against the Holie one of Israel. ²³By thy messengers thou hast rayled on the Lord, and said, By the multitude of my charets I am come vp to the toppe of the mountaines, by the sides of Lebanon, and will cut downe the hie cedars thereof, and the faire firre trees thereof, and I will goe into the lodging of his borders, and into the forest of his Carmel. ²⁴I haue digged, and drunke the waters of others, and with the plant of my feete haue I dried all the floods closed in. ²⁵Hast thou not heard, howe I haue of olde time made it, and haue formed it long ago? and should I nowe bring it, that it should be destroyed, and laid on ruinous heapes, as cities defended? ²⁶Whose inhabitants haue small power, and are afraid, and confounded: they are like the grasse of the field, and greene herbe, or grasse on ye house toppes, or as corne blasted before it be growen. ²⁷I knowe thy dwelling, yea, thy going out, and thy comming in, and thy furie against me. ²⁸And because thou ragest against me, and thy tumult is come vp to mine eares, I will put mine hooke in thy nostrels, and my bridle in thy lippes, and will bring thee backe againe the same way thou camest. ²⁹And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, O Hezekiah, Thou shalt eate this yeere such things as growe of them selues, and the next yeere such as growe without sowing, and the third yeere sowe ye and reape, and plant vineyardes, and eate the fruites thereof. ³⁰And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Iudah, shall againe take roote downewarde, and beare fruit vpwarde. ³¹For out of Ierusalem shall goe a remnant, and some that shall escape out of mount Zion: the zeale of the Lord of hostes shall doe this. ³²Wherefore thus saith the Lord, concerning the King of Asshur, He shall not enter into this citie, nor shoote an arrowe there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a mount against it: ³³But he shall returne the way he came, and shall not come into this citie, saith the Lord. ³⁴For I will defende this citie to saue it for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake. ³⁵And the same night the Angell of the Lord went out and smote in the campe of Asshur an hundreth foure score and fife thousande: so when they rose earely in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses. ³⁶So Saneherib King of Asshur departed, and went his way, and returned, and dwelt in Nineueh. ³⁷And as he was in the Temple worshipping Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sharezer his sonnes slewe him with the sworde: and they escaped into the land of Ararat, and Esarhaddon his sonne reigned in his steade.

¹About that time was Hezekiah sicke vnto death: and the Prophet Isaiah the sonne of Amoz came to him, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Put thine house in an order: for thou shalt die, and not liue. ²Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the Lord, saying, ³I beseech thee, O Lord, remember nowe, howe I haue walked before thee in trueth and with a perfite heart, and haue done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept sore. ⁴And afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle of the court, the worde of the Lord came to him, saying, ⁵Turne againe, and tell Hezekiah the captaine of my people, Thus saith the Lord God of Dauid thy father, I haue heard thy prayer, and seene thy teares: behold, I haue healed thee, and ye third day thou shalt go vp to ye house of ye Lord, ⁶And I wil adde vnto thy dayes fiftene yere, and wil deliuer thee and this citie out of the hand of the King of Asshur, and will defende this citie for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruats sake. ⁷Then Isaiah sayde, Take a lumpe of dry figges. And they tooke it, and layed it on the boyle, and he recouered. ⁸For Hezekiah had saide vnto Isaiah, What shalbe the signe that the Lord will heale me, and that I shall goe vp into the house of the Lord the thirde day? ⁹And Isaiah answered, This signe shalt thou haue of the Lord, that the Lord will doe that he hath spoken, Wilt thou that the shadowe goe forwarde ten degrees, or go backe ten degrees? ¹⁰And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadowe to passe forward ten degrees: not so then, but let ye shadow go backe ten degrees. ¹¹And Isaiah the Prophet called vnto the Lord, and he brought againe the shadowe ten degrees backe by the degrees whereby it had gone downe in the diall of Ahaz. ¹²The same season Berodach Baladan the sonne of Baladan King of Babel, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard howe that Hezekiah was sicke. ¹³And Hezekiah heard them, and shewed them all his treasure house, to wit, the siluer, and the golde, and the spices, and the precious oyntment, and all the house of his armour, and al that was founde in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, and in all his realme, that Hezekiah shewed them not. ¹⁴Then Isaiah the Prophet came vnto King Hezekiah, and saide vnto him, What saide these men? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekiah said, They be come from a farre countrey, euen from Babel. ¹⁵Then saide he, What haue they seene in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house haue they seene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed the. ¹⁶And Isaiah said vnto Hezekiah, Heare the worde of the Lord. ¹⁷Beholde, the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, and what so euer thy fathers haue layed vp in store vnto this day, shall be caryed into Babel: Nothing shall be left, saith the Lord. ¹⁸And of thy sonnes, that shall proceede out of thee, and which thou shalt beget, shall they take away, and they shalbe eunuches in the palace of the King of Babel. ¹⁹Then Hezekiah said vnto Isaiah, The word of the Lord which thou hast spoken, is good: for saide he, Shall it not be good, if peace and trueth be in my dayes? ²⁰Concerning the rest of the actes of Hezekiah, and all his valiant deedes, and howe he made a poole and a cundite, and brought water into the citie, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? ²¹And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his sonne reigned in his steade.

¹Manasseh was twelue yeere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned fiftie and fve yeere in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Hephzi-bah. ²And he did euill in the sight of the Lord after the abomination of the heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel. ³For he went backe and built the hie places, which Hezekiah his father had destroyed: and he erected vp altars for Baal, and made a groue, as did Ahab King of Israel, and worshipped all the hoste of heauen and serued them. ⁴Also he built altars in the house of the Lord, of the which the Lord saide,

In Ierusalem will I put my Name. ⁵And he built altars for al the hoste of ye heauen in the two courtes of the house of the Lord. ⁶And he caused his sonnes to passe through the fire, and gaue him selfe to witchcraft and sorcerie, and he vsed them that had familiar spirits and were soothsayers, and did much euill in the sight of the Lord to anger him. ⁷And he set the image of the groue, that he had made, in the house, whereof ye Lord had saide to Dauid and to Salomon his sonne, In this house and in Ierusalem, which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my Name for euer. ⁸Neither will I make the feete of Israel, mooue any more out of the lande, which I gaue their fathers: so that they will obserue and doe all that I haue commanded them, and according to all the Lawe that my seruant Moses commanded them. ⁹Yet they obeyed not, but Manasseh ledde them out of the way, to doe more wickedly then did the heathen people, whom the Lord destroyed before the children of Israel. ¹⁰Therefore the

Lord spake by his seruants the Prophets, saying, ¹¹Because that Manasseh King of Iudah hath done such abominations, and hath wrought more wickedly then al that the Amorites (which were before him) did, and hath made Iudah sinne also with his idoles, ¹²Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Beholde, I will bring an euill vpon Ierusalem and Iudah, that who so heareth of it, both his eares shall tingle. ¹³And I will stretch ouer Ierusalem the line of Samaria, and the plommet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Ierusalem, as a man wipeth a dish, which he wipeth, and turneth it vpside downe. ¹⁴And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliuer them into the hande of their enemies, and they shalbe robbed and spoyled of all their aduersaries, ¹⁵Because they haue done euil in my sight, and haue prouoked mee to anger, since the time their fathers came out of Egypt vntill this day. ¹⁶Moreouer Manasseh shed innocent blood exceeding much, till hee replenished Ierusalem from corner to corner, beside his sinne wherwith he made Iudah to sinne, and to doe euill in the sight of the Lord. ¹⁷Concerning the rest of the actes of Manasseh, and all that hee did, and his sinne that he sinned, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? ¹⁸And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, euen in the garden of Vzza: and Amon his sonne reigned in his steade. ¹⁹Amon was two and twentie yere olde, when he began to reigne, and hee reigned two yeere in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Iotbah. ²⁰And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, as his father Manasseh did. ²¹For hee walked in all the way that his father walked in, and serued the idoles that his father serued, and worshipped them. ²²And he forsooke the Lord God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the Lord. ²³And the seruantes of Amon conspired against him, and slewe the King in his owne house. ²⁴And the people of the land slewe all them that had conspired against King Amon, and the people made Iosiah his sonne King in his steade.

²⁵Concerning the rest of the actes of Amon, which he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

²⁶And they buried him in his sepulchre in the garden of Vzza: and Iosiah his sonne reigned in his steade

¹Iosiah was eight yeere olde when he beganne to reigne, and hee reigned one and thirtie yeere in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Iedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozcath. ²And hee did vprightly in the sight of the Lord, and walked in all the wayes of Dauid his father, and bowed neither to the right hand, nor to the left. ³And in the eighteenth yeere of King Iosiah, the King sent Shaphan the sonne of Azaliah the sonne of Meshullam the chancellor to ye house of the Lord, saying, ⁴Goe vp to Hilkiah the high Priest, that hee may summe the siluer which is brought into the house of the Lord, which the keepers of the doore haue gathered of the people. ⁵And let them deliuer it into the hande of them that doe the worke, and haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord: let them giue it to them that worke in the house of the Lord, to reparaire the decayed places of the house: ⁶To wit, vnto the artificers and carpenters and masons, and to bye timber, and hewed stone to reparaire the house. ⁷Howebeit, let no rekoning bee made with them of the money, that is deliuered into their hand: for they deale faithfully. ⁸And Hilkiah the high Priest sayde vnto Shaphan the chancellor, I haue found the booke of the Lawe in the house of the Lord: and Hilkiah gaue the booke to Shaphan, and hee reade it. ⁹So Shaphan the chancellor came to ye King, and brought him word againe, and saide, Thy seruants haue gathered the money, that was found in the house, and haue deliuered it vnto the hands of them that doe the worke, and haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord. ¹⁰Also Shaphan the chancellor shewed the King saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath deliuered me a booke. And Shaphan read it before the King.

¹¹And when the King had heard the wordes of the booke of the Law, he rent his clothes.
¹²Therefore the King commanded Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan, and Achbor the sonne of Michaiah, and Shaphan the chancellor, and Asahiah the Kings seruant, saying, ¹³Go ye and inquire of the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Iudah concerning the wordes of this booke that is founde: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled against vs, because our fathers haue not obeyed the wordes of this booke, to doe according vnto all that which is written therein for vs. ¹⁴So Hilkiah the Priest and Ahikam, and Achbor and Shaphan, and Asahiah went vnto Huldah the Prophetesse the wife of Shallum, ye sonne of Tikuah, the sonne of Harhas keeper of the wardrobe: (and she dwelt in Ierusalem in the colledge) and they communed with her. ¹⁵And shee answered them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, 'Tel the man that sent you to mee, ¹⁶Thus sayth the Lord, Behold, I wil bring euill vpon this place, and on the inhabitants thereof, euen al the words of the booke which ye King of Iudah hath read, ¹⁷Because they haue forsaken mee, and haue burnt incense vnto other gods, to anger me with all ye works of their hands: my wrath also shalbe kindled against this place and shall not be queched: ¹⁸But to the King of Iudah, who sent you to inquire of the Lord, so shall ye say vnto him, 'Thus sayeth the Lord God of Israel, 'The wordes that thou hast heard, shall come to passe. ¹⁹But because thine heart did melt, and thou hast humbled thy selfe before the Lord, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants of the same, to wit, that it should be destroyed and accursed, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I haue also heard it, saith the Lord. ²⁰Beholde therefore, I wil gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be put in thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the euil, which I will bring vpon this place. Thus they brought the King worde againe.

¹Then the King sent, and there gathered vnto him all the Elders of Iudah and of Ierusalem. ²And the King went vp into the house of the Lord, with all the men of Iudah and all the inhabitants of Ierusalem with him, and the Priests and Prophets, and all the people both small and great: and he reade in their eares all the wordes of the booke of the couenant, which was found in the house of the Lord. ³And the King stood by the pillar, and made a couenant before the Lord, that they shoulde walke after the Lord, and keepe his commandements, and his testimonies, and his statutes with all their heart, and with all their soule, that they might accomplish the wordes of this couenant written in this booke. And all the people stood to the couenant. ⁴Then the King commanded Hilkiah the hie Priest and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the doore, to bring out of ye Temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the groue, and for all the hoste of heauen, and he burnt them without Ierusalem in the fieldes of Kedron, and caryed the pouder of them into Beth-el. ⁵And he put downe the Chemarims, whom the Kings of Iudah had founded to burne incense in the hie places, and in the cities of Iudah, and about Ierusalem, and also them that burnt incense vnto Baal, to the sunne and to the moone, and to the planets, and to all the hoste of heauen. ⁶And he brought out the groue from the Temple of the Lord without Ierusalem vnto the valley of Kedron, and burnt it in the valley Kedron, and stampt it to pouder, and cast the dust thereof vpon the graues of the children of the people. ⁷And hee brake downe the houses of the Sodomites, that were in the house of the Lord, where the women woue hangings for the groue. ⁸Also he brought all the priests out of the cities of Iudah, and defiled the hie places where the Priests had burnt incense, euen from Geba to Beer-sheba, and destroyed the hie places of the gates, that were in the entring in of the gate of Ioshua the gouernour of the citie, which was at the left hand of the gate of the citie. ⁹Neuerthesse the Priests of the hie places came not vp to the altar of the Lord in Ierusalem, saue onely they did eate of the vnleauened bread among their brethren. ¹⁰He defiled also Topheth, which was in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man shoulde make his sonne or his daughter passe through the fire to Molech. ¹¹He put downe also the horses that the Kings of Iudah had giuen to the sunne at the entring in of the house of the Lord, by the chamber of Nethanmelech the eunuche, which was ruler of the suburbes, and burnt the charets of the sunne with fire. ¹²And the altars that were on the top of the chamber of Ahaz, which the Kings of Iudah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord did the King breake downe, and hasted thence, and cast the dust of them in the brooke Kedron. ¹³Moreouer the King defiled the

hie places that were before Ierusalem and on the right hand of the mount of corruption (which Salomon the King of Israel had buylt for Ashtoreth the idole of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the idole of the Moabites, and for Milchom the abomination of the children of Ammon) ¹⁴And he brake the images in pieces, and cut downe the groues and filled their places with the bones of men. ¹⁵Furthermore the altar that was at Beth-el, and the hie place made by Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, both this altar and also the hie place, brake he downe, and burnt the hie place, and stampit it to powder and burnt the groue. ¹⁶And as Iosiah turned himselfe, he spied the graues, that were in the mount, and sent and tooke the bones out of the graues, and burnt them vpon the altar and polluted it, according to the word of the Lord, that the man of God proclaimed, which cryed the same wordes. ¹⁷Then he sayde, What title is that which I see? And the men of the citie sayd vnto him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Iudah, and tolde these things that thou hast done to the altar of Beth-el.

¹⁸Then sayde he, Let him alone: let none remooue his bones. So his bones were sau'd with the bones of the Prophet that came from Samaria. ¹⁹Iosiah also tooke away all the houses of the hie places, which were in the cities of Samaria, which the Kings of Israel had made to anger the Lord, and did to them according to all the factes that he had done in Beth-el.

²⁰And he sacrificed all the Priests of the hie places, that were there vpon the altars, and burnt mens bones vpon them, and returned to Ierusalem. ²¹Then the king commanded all the people, saying, Keepe the passeouer vnto the Lord your God, as it is written in the booke of this couenant.

²²And there was no Passeouer holden like that from the dayes of the Iudges that iudged Israel, nor in all the dayes of the Kings of Israel, and of the Kings of Iudah.

²³And in the eighteenth yere of King Iosiah was this Passeouer celebrated to the Lord in Ierusalem. ²⁴Iosiah also tooke away them that had familiar spirits, and the soothsayers, and the images, and the idoles, and al the abominations that were espied in the lande of Iudah and in Ierusalem, to performe the wordes of the Lawe, which were written in the booke that Hilkiah the Priest found in the house of the Lord. ²⁵Like vnto him was there no King before him, that turned to the Lord with al his heart, and with all his soule, and with all his might according to all the Lawe of Moses, neither after him arose there anie like him.

²⁶Notwithstanding the Lord turned not from the fiercenesse of his great wrath wherewith he was angrie against Iudah, because of all the prouocatis wherewith Manasseh had prouoked him.

²⁷Therefore the Lord saide, I will put Iudah also out of my sight, as I haue put away Israel, and will cast off this citie Ierusalem, which I haue chosen, and the house whereof I said, My name shalbe there. ²⁸Concerning the rest of the actes of Iosiah, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? ²⁹In his dayes Pharaoh Nechoh King of Egypt went vp against the King of Asshur to the riuer Perath. And King Iosiah went against him, whome when Pharaoh sawe, he slewe him at Megiddo. ³⁰Then his seruants caryed him dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Ierusalem, and buried him in his owne sepulchre. And the people of the lande tooke Iehoahaz the sonne of Iosiah, and anointed him, and made him King in his fathers steade. ³¹Iehoahaz was three and twentie yeere olde when he beganne to reigne, and reigned three moneths in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Hamutal the daughter of Ieremiah of Libnah. ³²And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done. ³³And Pharaoh Nechoh put him in bondes at Riblah in the lande of Hamath, while he reigned in Ierusalem, and put the lande to a tribute of an hundreth talents of siluer, and a talent of golde. ³⁴And Pharaoh Nechoh made Eliakim the sonne of Iosiah King in steade of Iosiah his father, and turned his name to Iehoiakim, and tooke Iehoahaz away, which when he came to Egypt, dyed there. ³⁵And Iehoiakim gaue the siluer and the golde to Pharaoh, and taxed the land to giue the money, according to the commadement of Pharaoh: he leuyed of euery man of the people of the lande, according to his value, siluer and golde to giue vnto Pharaoh Nechoh. ³⁶Iehoiakim was fiue and twentie yere olde, when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleuen yeeres in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Zebudah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. ³⁷And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.

according to the worde of the Lord, which he spake by his seruants the Prophets. ³Surely by the commandement of the Lord came this vpon Iudah, that he might put them out of his sight for the sinnes of Manasseh, according to all that he did, ⁴And for the innocent blood that he shed, (for he filled Ierusalem with innocent blood) therefore the Lord would not pardon it. ⁵Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kinges of Iudah? ⁶So Iehoiakim slept with his fathers, and Iehoiachin his sonne reigned in his steade. ⁷And the King of Egypt came no more out of his lande: for the King of Babel had taken from the riuier of Egypt, vnto the riuier Perath, all that pertained to the King of Egypt. ⁸Iehoiachin was eightene yere old, when he beganne to reigne, and reigned in Ierusalem three moneths. His mothers name also was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Ierusalem. ⁹And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father had done. ¹⁰In that time came the seruants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babel vp against Ierusalem: so the citie was besieged. ¹¹And Nebuchadnezzar King of Babel came against the citie, and his seruants did besiege it. ¹²Then Iehoiachin the king of Iudah came out against the King of Babel, he, and his mother and his seruants, and his princes, and his eunuches: and the King of Babel tooke him in the eyght yeere of his reigne. ¹³And he caryed out thence all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the Kings house, and brake all the vessels of gold, which Salomon King of Israel had made in the Temple of the Lord, as the Lord had saide. ¹⁴And he caryed away all Ierusalem, and all the princes, and all the strong men of warre, euen ten thousande into captiuitie, and all the workemen, and cunning men: so none remained sauing the poore people of the lande. ¹⁵And he caryed away Iehoiachin into Babel, and the Kings mother, and the Kinges wiues, and his eunuches, and the mightie of the lande caryed he away into captiuitie from Ierusalem to Babel, ¹⁶And al the men of warre, euen seuen thousand, and carpenters, and lockesmithes a thousande: all that were strong and apt for warre, did the King of Babel bring to Babel captiues. ¹⁷And the King of Babel made Mattaniah his vncle King in his steade, and changed his name to Zedekiah. ¹⁸Zedekiah was one and twentie yeere olde, when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleuen yeeres in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Hamutal the daughter of Ieremiah of Libnah. ¹⁹And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Iehoiakim had done. ²⁰Therefore certainly the wrath of the Lord was against Ierusalem and Iudah vntill he cast them out of his sight. And Zedekiah rebelled against the King of Babel.

¹And in the ninth yeere of his reigne, the tenth moneth and tenth day of the moneth Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel came, he, and all his hoste against

Ierusalem, and pitched against it, and they built fortes against it round about it. ²So the citie was besieged vnto the eleueth yeere of King Zedekiah. ³And the ninth day of the moneth the famine was sore in the citie, so that there was no bread for the people of the lande. ⁴Then the citie was broken vp, and all the men of warre fled by night, by the way of the gate, which is betweene two walles that was by the Kings garden: nowe the Caldees were by the citie round about: and the King went by the way of the wilderness. ⁵But the armie of the Caldees pursued after the King, and tooke him in the desertes of Iericho, and all his hoste was scattered from him. ⁶Then they tooke the King, and caried him vp to the King of Babel to Riblah, where they gaue iudgement vpon him. ⁷And they slew the sonnes of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bounde him in chaines, and caried him to Babel. ⁸And in the fift moneth, and seuenth day of the moneth, which was the nineteenth yere of King Nebuchad-nezzar King of

Babel, came Nebuzar-adan chiefe stewarde and seruaunt of the King of Babel, to Ierusalem, ⁹And burnt the house of the Lord, and the Kings house, and all the houses of Ierusalem, and all the great houses burnt he with fire. ¹⁰And all the armie of the Caldees that were with the chiefe stewarde, brake downe the walles of Ierusalem round about. ¹¹And the rest of the people that were left in the citie, and those that were fled and fallen to the King of Babel, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan chiefe steward carie away captiue. ¹²But the chiefe steward left of the poore of the land to dresse the vines, and to till the land. ¹³Also the pillars of brasse that were in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the brasen Sea that was in the house of the Lord, did the Caldees breake, and caried the brasse of them to Babel. ¹⁴The pots also and the besomes, and the instruments of musike, and the incense dishes, and al the vessels of brasse that they ministred in, tooke they away. ¹⁵And the asshe pannes, and the

basens, and all that was of gold, and that was of siluer, tooke the chiefe steward away, ¹⁶With the two pillars, one Sea and the bases, which Salomon had made for the house of the Lord: the brasse of all these vessels was without weight. ¹⁷The height of the one pillar was eightene cubits, and the chapter thereon was brasse, and the height of the chapter was with networke three cubites, and pomegranates vpon the chapter rounde about, all of brasse: and likewise was the second pillar with the networke. ¹⁸And the chiefe steward tooke Seraiah the chiefe Priest, and Zephaniah the second Priest, and the three keepers of the doore. ¹⁹And out of the citie hee tooke an Eunuch that had the ouersight of the men of warre, and fiue men of them that were in the Kinges presence, which were founde in the citie, and Sopher captaine of the hoste, who mustred the people of the lande, and threescore men of the people of the lande, that were founde in the citie. ²⁰And Nebuzar-adan the chiefe stewarde tooke them, and brought them to the King of Babel to Riblah. ²¹And the King of Babel smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. And they anoynted Dauid King ouer Israel, according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Samuel. ⁴And Dauid and all Israel went to Ierusalem, which is Iebus, where were the Iebusites, the inhabitants of the land. ⁵And the inhabitants of Iebus said to Dauid, Thou shalt not come in hither. Neuertheles Dauid tooke the towre of Zion, which is the city of Dauid. ⁶And Dauid sayd, Whosoeuer smiteth the Iebusites first, shalbe the chiefe and captaine. Then Dauid receiued them, and made them captaines of the garison. ¹⁹And of Manasseh some fell to Dauid, when he came with the Philistims against Saul to battell, but they helped them not: for the Princes of the Philistims by aduisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul for our heads. ²⁰As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Iozabad, and Iediael, and Michael, and Iozabad, and

²¹And they helped Dauid against that bad: for they were all valiant men and were captaines in the hoste. ²²For at that time day by day there came to Dauid to helpe him, vntill it was a great hoste, like the hoste of God. ²³And these are the numbers of the captaines that were armed to battell, and came to Dauid to Hebron to turne the kingdome of Saul to him, according to the worde of the Lord. ²⁴The children of Iudah that bare shield and speare, were sixe thousand and eight hundreth armed to the warre. ²⁵Of the children of Simeon valiant men of warre, seuen thousand and an hundreth. ²⁶Of the children of Leui foure thousande and sixe hundreth. ²⁷And Iehoiada was the chiefe of them of Aaron: and with him three thousande and seuen hundreth. ²⁸And Zadok a yong man very valiant, and of his fathers housholde came two and twentie captaines. ²⁹And of the children of Benjamin the brethren of Saul three thousande: for a great part of them vnto that time kept the warde of the house of Saul. ³⁰And of the children of Ephraim twentie thousande, and eight hundreth valiant men and famous men in the housholde of their fathers. ³¹And of the halfe tribe of Manasse eighteene thousand, which were appointed by name to come and make Dauid King. ³²And of the children of Issachar which were men that had vnderstanding of the times, to knowe what Israel ought to doe: the heades of them were two hundreth, and all their brethren were at their commandement. ³³Of Zebulun that went out to battell, expert in warre, and in all instruments of warre, fiftie thousande which could set the battell in aray: they were not of a double heart. ³⁴And of Naphtali a thousand captaines, and with them with shielde and speare seuen and thirtie thousande. ³⁵And of Dan expert in battell, eyght and twentie thousande, and sixe hundreth. ³⁶And of Asher that went out to the battell and were trained in the warres, fourtie thousand. ³⁷And of the other side of Iorden of the Reubenites, and of the Gadites, and of the halfe tribe of Manasseh with all instruments of warre to fight with, an hundreth and twentie thousand. ³⁸All these men of warre that coulde leade an armie, came with vpright heart to Hebron to make Dauid King ouer all Israel: and all the rest of Israel was of one accorde to make Dauid King: ³⁹And there they were with Dauid three dayes, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them. ⁴⁰Moreouer they that were neere them vntill Issachar, and Zebulun, and Naphtali brought bread vpon asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, euen meate, floure, figges, and reisis, and wine and oyle, and beeuies and sheepe abundantly: for there was ioy in Israel.

¹And Dauid counselled with the captaines of thousandes and of hundreths, and with all the gouernours. ²And Dauid said to all the Congregation of Israel, If it seeme good to you, and that it proceedeth of the Lord our God, we will sende to and from vnto our brethren, that are left in all the lande of Israel (for with them are the Priests and the Leuites in the cities and their suburbes) that they may assemble them selues vnto vs. ³And we will bring againe the Arke of our God to vs: for we sought not vnto it in the dayes of Saul. ⁴And all the Congregation answered, Let vs doe so: for the thing seemed good in the eyes of all the people. ⁵So Dauid gathered all Israel together from Shihor in Egypt, euen vnto the entring of Hamath, to bring the Arke of God from Kiriath-iearim. ⁶And Dauid went vp and all Israel to Baalath, in Kiriath-iearim, that was in Iudah, to bring vp from thence the Arke of God the Lord that dwelleth betweene the Cherubims, where his Name is called on. ⁷And they caryed the Arke of God in a newe cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Vzza and Ahio guided the cart. ⁸And Dauid and all Israel played before God with all their might, both with songes and with harpes, and with vials, and with timbrels and with cymbales and with trumpets. ⁹And when they came vnto the thresshing floore of Chidon, Vzza put forth his hand to holde the Arke, for the oxen did shake it. ¹⁰But the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Vzza, and he smote him, because he layed his hande vpon the Arke: so he dyed there before God. ¹¹And Dauid was angrie, because the Lord had made a breach in Vzza, and he called the name of that place Perez-vzza vnto this day. ¹²And Dauid feared God that day, saying, Howe shall I bring in to me the Arke of God? ¹³Therefore Dauid brought not the Arke to him into the citie of Dauid, but caused it to turne into the house of Obed Edom the Gittite. ¹⁴So the Arke of God remained in the house of Obed Edom, euen in his house three moneths: and the Lord blessed the house of Obed Edom, and all that he had.

¹Then sent Hiram the King of Tyrus messengers to Dauid, and cedar trees, with masons and carpenters to builde him an house. ²Therefore Dauid knewe that the Lord had confirmed him King ouer Israel, and that his kingdome was lift vp on hie, because of his people Israel. ³Also Dauid tooke moe wiues at Ierusalem, and Dauid begate moe sonnes and daughters. ⁴And these are the names of the children which he had at Ierusalem, Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Salomon, ⁵And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet, ⁶And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Iaphia, ⁷And Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphalet. ⁸But when the Philistims heard that Dauid was anointed King ouer Israel, all the Philistims came vp to seeke Dauid. And when Dauid heard, he went out against them. ⁹And the Philistims came, and spread them selues in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁰Then Dauid asked counsel at God, saying, Shall I goe vp against the Philistims, and wilt thou deliuer them into mine hande? And the Lord saide vnto him, Goe vp: for I will deliuer them into thine hande. ¹¹So they came vp to Baal-perazim, and Dauid smote them there: and Dauid said, God hath deuided mine enemies with mine hande, as waters are deuided: therefore they called the name of that place, Baal-perazim. ¹²And there they had left their gods: and Dauid said, Let them euen be burnt with fire. ¹³Againe the Philistims came and spread them selues in the valley. ¹⁴And when Dauid asked againe counsell at God, God said to him, Thou shalt not goe vp after them, but turne away from them, that thou mayest come vpon them ouer against the mulberie trees. ¹⁵And when thou hearest the noyse of one going in the toppes of the mulberie trees, then goe out to battel: for God is gone foorth before thee, to smite the hoste of the Philistims. ¹⁶So Dauid did as God had commanded him: and they smote the hoste of the Philistims from Gibeon euen to Gezer. ¹⁷And the fame of Dauid went out into all landes, and the Lord brought the feare of him vpon all nations.

¹And Dauid made him houses in the citie of Dauid, and prepared a place for the Arke of God, and pitched for it a tent. ²Then Dauid saide, None ought to carie the

Arke of God, but the Leuites: for the Lord hath chosen them to beare the Arke of the Lord, and to minister vnto him for euer. ³And Dauid gathered all Israel together to Ierusalem to bring vp the Arke of the Lord vnto his place, which he had ordeined for it. ⁴And Dauid assembled the sonnes of Aaron, and the Leuites. ⁵Of the sonnes of Kohath, Vriel the chiefe, and his brethren sixe score. ⁶Of the sonnes of Merari, Asaiah the chiefe, and his brethren two hundreth and twentie. ⁷Of the sonnes of Gershom, Ioel the chiefe, and his brethren an hundreth and thirtie. ⁸Of the sonnes of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chiefe, and his brethren two hundreth. ⁹Of the sonnes of Hebron, Eliel the chiefe, and his brethren fourescore. ¹⁰Of the sonnes of Vzziel, Amminadab the chiefe, and his brethren an hundreth and twelue. ¹¹And Dauid called Zadok and Abiathar the Priestes, and of the Leuites, Vriel, Asaiah and Ioel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab: ¹²And he saide vnto them, Ye are the chiefe fathers of the Leuites: sanctifie your selues, and your brethren, and bring vp the Arke of the Lord God of Israel vnto the place that I haue prepared for it. ¹³For because ye were not there at the first, the Lord our God made a breach among vs: for we sought him not after due order. ¹⁴So the Priestes and the Leuites sanctified them selues to bring vp the Arke of the Lord God of Israel. ¹⁵And the sonnes of the Leuites bare the Arke of God vpon their shoulders with the barres, as Moses had commanded, according to the worde of the Lord. ¹⁶And Dauid spake to the chiefe of the Leuites, that they should appoint certaine of their brethren to sing with instruments of musike, with viales and harpes, and cymbales, that they might make a sounde, and lift vp their voyce with ioye. ¹⁷So the Leuites appointed Heman the sonne of Ioel, and of his brethren Asaph the sonne of Berechiah, and of the sonnes of Merari their brethren, Ethan the sonne of Kushaiah, ¹⁸And with them their brethren in the seconde degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Iaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Iehiel, and Vnni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneah, and Obed Edom, and Ieiel the porters. ¹⁹So Heman, Asaph and Ethan were fingers to make a sounde with cymbales of brasse, ²⁰And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Iehiel, and Vnni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah with viales on Alamoth, ²¹And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneah, and Obed Edom, and Ieiel, and Azaziah, with harpes vpon Sheminith Ienazzeah. ²²But Chenaniah the chiefe of the Leuites had the charge, bearing ye burden in the charge, for he was able to instruct. ²³And Berechiah and Elkanah were porters for the Arke. ²⁴And Shecaniah and Iehoshaphat and Nethaneel and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer the Priestes did blowe with trumpets before the Arke of God, and Obed Edom and Ieiah were porters for the Arke. ²⁵So Dauid and the Elders of Israel and the captaines of thousandes went to bring vp the Arke of the couenant of the Lord from the house of Obed Edom with ioye. ²⁶And because that God helped the Leuites that bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, they offered seuen bullockes and seuen rammes. ²⁷And Dauid had on him a linen garment, as all the Leuites that bare the Arke, and the singers and Chenaniah that had the chiefe charge of the singers: and vpon Dauid was a linnen Ephod. ²⁸Thus all Israel brought vp the Arke of the Lordes couenant with shouting and sounde of cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbales, making a sound with viols and with harpes. ²⁹And when the Arke of the couenant of the Lord came into the citie of Dauid, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at a windowe, and sawe King Dauid dauncing and playing, and she despised him in her heart.

¹So they brought in the Arke of God, and set it in the middes of the Tabernacle that Dauid had pitched for it, and they offred burnt offrings and peace offrings before God. ²And when Dauid had made an ende of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, hee blessed the people in the Name of the Lord. ³And he dealt to euery one of Israel both man and woman, to euery one a cake of breade, and a piece of flesh, and a bottel of wine. ⁴And he appointed certaine of the Leuites to minister before the Arke of the Lord, and to rehearse and to thanke and prayse the Lord God of Israel: ⁵Asaph the chiefe, and next to him Zechariah, Ieiel, and Shemiramoth, and Iehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed Edom, euen Ieiel with instruments, viols and harpes, and Asaph to make a sound with cymbales, ⁶And Benaiah and Iahaziel Priestes, with trumpets continually before the Arke of the couenant of God. ⁷Then at that time Dauid did appoint at the beginning to giue thanks to the Lord by the hand of Asaph and his brethren. ⁸Praise the Lord and call vpon his Name:

declare his workes among the people. ⁹Sing vnto him, sing praise vnto him, and talke of all his wonderfull workes. ¹⁰Reioyce in his holy Name: let the hearts of them that seeke the Lord reioyce. ¹¹Seeke the Lord and his strength: seeke his face continually. ¹²Remember his marueilous workes that he hath done, his wonders, and the iudgements of his mouth, ¹³O seede of Israel his seruant, O the children of Iaakob his chosen. ¹⁴He is the Lord our God: his iudgements are throughout all the earth. ¹⁵Remember his couenant for euer, and the worde, which hee commanded to a thousand generations: ¹⁶Which he made with Abraham, and his othe to Izhak: ¹⁷And hath confirmed it to Iaakob for a Law, and to Israel for an euerlasting couenant, ¹⁸Saying, To thee will I giue the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance. ¹⁹When ye were fewe in number, yea, a very fewe, and strangers therein, ²⁰And walked about from nation to nation, and from one kingdome to another people, ²¹He suffered no man to do them wrong, but rebuked Kings for their sakes, saying, ²²Touch not mine anoynted, and doe my Prophets no harme. ²³Sing vnto the Lord all the earth: declare his saluation from day to day. ²⁴Declare his glory among the nations, and his wonderful workes among all people. ²⁵For the Lord is great and much to be praised, and hee is to bee feared aboue all gods. ²⁶For all the gods of the people are idoles, but the Lord made the heauens. ²⁷Prayse and glory are before him: power and beautie are in his place. ²⁸Giue vnto the Lord, ye families of the people: giue vnto the Lord glory and power. ²⁹Giue vnto the Lord ye glory of his Name: bring an offring and come before him, and worship the Lord in the glorious Sanctuarie. ³⁰Tremble ye before him, al the earth: surely the world shalbe stable and not moue. ³¹Let the heauens reioyce, and let the earth be glad, and let them say among the nations, 'The Lord reigneth. ³²Let the sea roare, and all that therein is: Let the field be ioyfull and all that is in it. ³³Let the trees of the wood then reioyce at the presence of the Lord: for he commeth to iudge the earth.

³⁴Prayse the Lord, for hee is good, for his mercie endureth for euer.

³⁵And say ye, Saue vs, O God, our saluation, and gather vs, and deliuer vs from the heathen, that we may prayse thine holy Name, and glorie in thy praise. ³⁶Blessed be the Lord God of Israel for euer and euer: and let all people say, So be it, and praise the Lord. ³⁷Then he left there before the Arke of the Lordes couenant Asaph and his brethren to minister continually before the Arke, that which was to be done euery day:

³⁸And Obed Edom and his brethren, three score and eight: and Obed Edom the sonne of Ieduthun, and Hosah were porters. ³⁹And Zadok the Priest and his brethren the Priestes were before the Tabernacle of ye Lord, in the hie place that was at Gibeon, ⁴⁰To offer burnt offrings vnto the Lord, vpon the burnt offering altar continually, in the morning and in the euening, euen according vnto all that is written in the law of the Lord, which hee commanded Israel. ⁴¹And with them were Heman, and Ieduthun, and the rest that were chosen (which were appointed by names) to praise the Lord, because his mercie endureth for euer. ⁴²Euen with them were Heman and Ioduthun, to make a sound with the cornets and with the cymbales, with excellent instruments of musicke: and the sonnes of Ieduthun were at the gate. ⁴³And all the people departed, euerie man to his house: and Dauid returned to blesse his house.

¹Nowe afterward when Dauid dwelt in his house, he saide to Nathan the Prophet, Beholde, I dwell in an house of cedar trees, but the Arke of the Lordes couenant remaineth vnder curtaines. ²Then Nathan said to Dauid, Do all that is in thine heart: for God is with thee. ³And the same night euen the word of God came to Nathan, saying, ⁴Goe, and tell Dauid my seruant, Thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not buylde me an house to dwell in: ⁵For I haue dwelt in no house, since the day that I brought out the childre of Israel vnto this daye, but I haue bene from tent to tent, and from habitation to habitation. ⁶Wheresoeuer I haue walked with all Israel spake I one word to any of the iudges of Israel (whome I commanded to feede my people) saying, Why haue ye not built mee an house of cedar trees? ⁷Nowe therefore thus shalt thou say vnto my seruant Dauid, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I tooke thee from the sheepecoat and from following the sheepe, that thou shouldest bee a prince ouer my people Israel. ⁸And I haue bene with thee whithersoeuer thou hast walked, and haue destroyed all thine enemies out of thy sight, and haue made thee a name, like the name of the great men that are in the earth. ⁹(Also I will appoynt a place for my people Israel, and will plant it, that they may dwell in their place, and moue no more: neither shall the wicked people vex them any more, as at the beginning, ¹⁰And since the time that I commanded iudges ouer my people Israel) And I wil subdue all thine enemies: therefore I say vnto thee, that the Lord wil buylde thee an house. ¹¹And when thy dayes shalbe fulfilled to go with thy fathers, then will I rayse vp thy seede after thee, which shalbe of thy sonnes, and will stablish his kingdome. ¹²He shall builde me an house, and I will stablish his throne for euer. ¹³I wil be his father, and he shalbe my sonne, aud I will not take my mercie away from him, as I tooke it from him that was before thee. ¹⁴But I wil establish him in mine house, and in my kingdome for euer, and his throne shalbe stablished for euer, ¹⁵According to all these wordes, and according to al this vision. So Nathan spake to Dauid. ¹⁶And Dauid the King went in and sate before the Lord and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto? ¹⁷Yet thou esteeming this a small thing, O God, hast also spoken concerning the house of thy seruaut for a great while, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of hie degree, O Lord God.

¹⁸What can Dauid desire more of thee for the honour of thy seruant? for thou knowest thy seruant. ¹⁹O Lord, for thy seruantes sake, euen according to thine heart hast thou done all this great thing to declare all magnificence. ²⁰Lord, there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we haue heard with our eares. ²¹Moreouer what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whose God went to redeeme them to be his people, and to make thy selfe a Name, and to doe great and terrible things by casting out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast deliuered out of Egypt? ²²For thou hast ordeined thy people Israel to be thine owne people for euer, and thou Lord art become their God. ²³Therefore nowe Lord, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy seruant and concerning his house, be confirmed for euer, and doe as thou hast sayd, ²⁴And let thy name be stable and magnified for euer, that it may be sayd, The Lord of hostes, God of Israel, is the God of Israel, and let the house of Dauid thy seruant bee stablished before thee. ²⁵For thou, O my God, hast reueiled vnto the eare of thy seruant, that thou wilt builde him an house: therefore thy seruant hath bene bolde to pray before thee. ²⁶Therefore nowe Lord (for thou art God, and hast spoken this goodnesse vnto thy seruant) ²⁷Now therfore, it hath pleased thee to blesse the house of thy seruant, that it may bee before thee for euer: for thou, O Lord, hast blessed it, and it shalbe blessed for euer.

¹And after this Dauid smote the Philistims, and subdued them, and tooke Gath, and the villages thereof out of the hand of the Philistims. ²And he smote Moab, and the Moabites became Dauids seruants, and brought giftes. ³And Dauid smote Hadarezer King of Zobah vnto Hamath, as he went to stablish his border by the riuier Perath. ⁴And Dauid tooke from him a thousand charets, and seuen thousand horsemen, and

twentie thousand footemen, and destroyed all the charets, but he reserued of them an hundreth charets. ⁵Then came the Aramites of Damascus to succour Hadarezer King of Zobah, but Dauid slewe of the Aramites two and twentie thousand. ⁶And Dauid put a garison in Aram of Damascus, and the Aramites became Dauids seruants, and brought giftes: and the Lord preserued Dauid wheresoeuer he went. ⁷And Dauid tooke the shieldes of gold that were of the seruants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Ierusalem. ⁸And from Tibhath, and from Chun (cities of Hadarezer) brought Dauid exceeding much brasse, wherewith Salomon made the brasen Sea, and the pillars and the vessels of brasse. ⁹Then Tou King of Hamath heard howe Dauid had smitten all the hoste of Hadarezer King of Zobah: ¹⁰Therefore he sent Hadoram his sonne to King Dauid, to salute him, and to reioyce with him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and beaten him (for Tou had warre with Hadarezer) who brought all vessels of golde and siluer and brasse. ¹¹And King Dauid did dedicate them vnto the Lord, with the siluer and golde that hee brought from all the nations, from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistims, and from Amalek. ¹²And Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah smote of Edom in the salt valley eighteene thousand, ¹³And he put a garison in Edom, and all the Edomites became Dauids seruantes: and the Lord preserued Dauid wheresoeuer he went. ¹⁴So Dauid reigned ouer all Israel, and executed iudgement and iustice to all his people. ¹⁵And Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah was ouer the hoste, and Iehoshaphat the sonne of Ahilud recorder, ¹⁶And Zadok the sonne of Ahitub, and Abimelech the sonne of Abiathar were the Priests, and Shausa the Scribe, ¹⁷And Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada was ouer the Cherethites and the Pelethites: and the sonnes of Dauid were chiefe about the King.

²And Dauid said, I will shew kindnesse vnto Hanun the sonne of Nahash, because his father shewed kindnesse vnto me. And Dauid sent messengers to comfort him for his father. So the seruants of Dauid came into the lande of the children of Ammon to Hanun to comfort him. ³And the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, 'Thinkest thou that Dauid doeth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters vnto thee? Are not his seruants come to thee to search, to seeke and to spie out the land?

⁶When the children of Ammon saw that they stanke in the sight of Dauid, then sent Hanun and the children of Ammon a thousande talents of siluer to hire them charets and horsemen out of Aram Naharaim and out of Aram Maachah, and out of Zobah. ⁷And they hired them two and thirty thousande charets, and the King of Maachah and his people, which came and pitched before Medeba: and the children of Ammon gathered themselues together from their cities, and came to the battell. ⁸And when Dauid heard, he sent Ioab and all the hoste of the valiant men. ⁹And the children of Ammon came out, and set their battell in aray at the gate of the citie. And the Kings that were come, were by them selues in the fiede. ¹⁰When Ioab saw that the front of the battel was against him before and behinde, then he chose out of all the choyse of Israel, and set him selfe in aray to meete the Aramites. ¹¹And the rest of the people he deliuered vnto the hande of Abishai his brother, and they put them selues in aray against the children of Ammon.

¹²And he saide, If Aram be too strong for me, then thou shalt succour me: and if the children of Ammon preuaile against thee, then I wil succour thee. ¹³Be strong, and let vs shewe our selues valiant for our people, and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord doe that which is good in his owne sight. ¹⁴So Ioab and the people that was with him, came neere before the Aramites vnto the battel, and they fled before him. ¹⁵And when the children of Ammon sawe that the Aramites fled, they fled also before Abishai his brother, and entred into the citie: so Ioab came to Ierusalem. ¹⁶And when the Aramites sawe that they were discomfited before Israel, they sent messengers and caused the Aramites to come forth that were beyond the riuer: and Shophach the captaine of the hoste of Hadarezer went before them. ¹⁷And when it was shewed Dauid, he gathered all Israel, and went ouer Iorden, and came vnto them, and put him selfe in aray against them: And when Dauid had put him selfe in battel aray to meete the Aramites, they fought with him. ¹⁸But the Aramites fled before Israel, and Dauid destroyed of the Aramites seuen thousand charets, and fourtie thousand footemen, and killed Shophach the captaine of the hoste. ¹⁹And when the seruants of Hadarezer sawe that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Dauid, and serued him. And the Aramites would no more succour the children of Ammon.

¹And when the yere was expired, in the time that Kings goe out a warfare, Ioab caryed out the strength of the armie, and destroyed the countrey of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah (but Dauid taryed at Ierusalem) and Ioab smote Rabbah and destroyed it. ²Then Dauid tooke the crowne of their King from off his head, and founde it the weight of a talent of golde, with precious stones in it: and it was set on Dauids head, and he brought away the spoyle of the citie exceeding much. ³And he caryed away the people that were in it, and cut them with sawes, and with harowes of yron, and with axes: euen thus did Dauid with all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then Daud and all the people came againe to Ierusalem. ⁴And after this also there arose warre at Gezer with the Philistims: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slewe Sippai, of the children of Haraphah, and they were subdued. ⁵And there was yet another battell with the Philistims: and Elhanan the sonne of Iair slewe Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spearestaffe was like a weauers beame. ⁶And yet againe there was a battel at Gath, where was a man of a great stature, and his fingers were by sixes, euen foure and twentie, and was also the sonne of Haraphah. ⁷And when he reuiled Israel, Iehonathan the sonne of Shimea Dauids brother did slay him. ⁸These were borne vnto Haraphah at Gath, and fell by the hand of Daud: and by the hands of his seruants.

¹And Satan stooode vp against Israel, and prouoked Daud to nomber Israel. ²Therefore Daud said to Ioab, and to the rulers of the people, Go, and nomber Israel from Beer-sheba euen to Dan, and bring it to me, that I may knowe the number of them. ³And Ioab answered, The Lord increase his people an hundreth times so many as they be, O my lord the King: are they not all my lords seruats? wherefore doeth my lord require this thing? why should he be a cause of trespasse to Israel? ⁴Neuerthesse the Kings word preuailed against Ioab. And Ioab departed and went thorowe all Israel, and returned to Ierusalem. ⁵And Ioab gaue the number and summe of the people vnto Daud: and all Israel were eleuen hundreth thousande men that drewe sword: and Iudah was foure hundreth and seuentie thousande men that drewe sword. ⁶But the Leuites and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the Kings worde was abominable to Ioab. ⁷And God was displeased with this thing: therefore he smote Israel. ⁸Then Daud saide vnto God, I haue sinned greatly, because I haue done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, remooue the iniquitie of thy seruant: for I haue done very foolishly. ⁹And the Lord spake vnto Gad Dauids Seer, saying, ¹⁰Goe and tell Dauid, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I offer thee three thinges: choose thee one of them, that I may doe it vnto thee. ¹¹So Gad came to Dauid, and sayde vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Take to thee ¹²Either three yeeres famine, or three moneths to be destroyed before thine aduersaries, and the sworde of thine enemies to take thee, or els the sworde of the Lord and pestilence in the lande three dayes, that the Angel of the Lord may destroy throughout all the coastes of Israel: nowe therefore aduise thee, what word I shall bring againe to him that sent me. ¹³And Dauid said vnto Gad, I am in a wonderfull strait. let me nowe fall into the hande of the Lord: for his mercies are exceeding great, and let me not fall into the hande of man. ¹⁴So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel, and there fell of Israel seuentie thousande men. ¹⁵And God sent the Angel into Ierusalem to destroy it. And as he was destroying, the Lord behelde, and repented of the euill and sayde to the Angel that destroyed, It is nowe ynough, let thine hande cease. Then the Angel of the Lord stode by the threshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite. ¹⁶And Dauid lift vp his eyes, and sawe the Angel of the Lord stande betweene the earth and the heauen with his sworde drawn in his hand, and stretched out towarde Ierusalem. Then Dauid and the Elders of Israel, which were clothed in sacke, fell vpon their faces. ¹⁷And Dauid said vnto God, Is it not I that commanded to nomber the people? It is euen I that haue sinned and haue committed euil, but these sheepe what haue they done? O Lord my God, I beseech thee, let thine hande be on me and on my fathers house, and not on thy people for their destruction. ¹⁸Then the Angel of the Lord commanded Gad to say to Dauid, that Dauid should goe vp, and set vp an altar vnto the Lord in the threshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite. ¹⁹So Dauid went vp according to the saying of Gad, which he had spoken in the Name of the Lord. ²⁰And Ornan turned about, and sawe the Angel, and his foure sonnes, that were with him, hid them selues, and Ornan thressed wheat. ²¹And as Dauid came to Ornan, Ornan looked and sawe Dauid, and went out of the thressing floore, and bowed himselfe to Dauid with his face to the ground. ²²And Dauid saide to Ornan, Giue me the place of thy thressing floore, that I may builde an altar therein vnto the Lord: giue it me for sufficient money, that the plague may be stayed from the people. ²³Then Ornan saide vnto Dauid, Take it to thee, and let my lord the King do that which seemeth him good: loe, I giue thee bullockes for burnt offrings, and thressing instruments for wood, and wheat for meate offering, I giue it all. ²⁴And King Dauid saide to Ornan, Not so: but I will bye it for sufficient money: for I wil not take that which is thine for the Lord, nor offer burnt offrings without cost. ²⁵So Dauid gaue to Ornan for that place sixe hundreth shekels of golde by weight. ²⁶And Dauid built there an altar vnto the Lord, and offred burnt offrings, and peace offrings, and called vpon the Lord, and he answered him by fire from heauen vpon the altar of burnt offering. ²⁷And when the Lord had spoken to the Angel, he put vp his sworde againe into his sheath. ²⁸At that time when Dauid sawe that the Lord had heard him in the thressing floore of Ornan the Iebusite, then he sacrificed there. ²⁹(But the Tabernacle of the Lord which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that season in the hie place at Gibeon. ³⁰And Dauid could not go before it to aske counsel at God: for he was afraide of the sworde of the Angel of the Lord.)

¹And Dauid saide, This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar for the burnt offering of Israel. ²And Dauid commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the lande of Israel, and he set masons to hewe and polish stones to builde the house of God. ³Dauid also prepared much yron for the nayles of the doores and of the gates, and for the ioynings, and abundance of brasse passing weight, ⁴And cedar trees without nomber: for the Zidonians and they of Tyrus brought much cedar wood to Dauid. ⁵And Dauid saide, Salomon my sonne is yong and tender, and we must builde an house for the Lord, magnificall, excellent and of great fame and dignitie throughout all countreyes. I will therefore now prepare for him. So Dauid prepared very much before his death. ⁶Then he called Salomon his sonne, and charged him to builde an house for the Lord God of Israel. ⁷And Dauid said to Salomon, My sonne, I purposed with my selfe to builde an house to the Name of the Lord my God, ⁸But the worde of the Lord came to me, saying, Thou hast shed much blood, and hast made great battels: thou shalt not builde an house vnto my Name: for thou hast shed much blood vpon the earth in my sight. ⁹Beholde, a sonne is borne to thee, which

shalbe a man of rest, for I will giue him rest from all his enemies rounde about: therefore his name is Salomon: and I will sende peace and quietnes vpon Israel in his dayes. ¹⁰Hee shall builde an house for my Name, and he shalbe my sonne, and I will be his father, and I will establish the throne of his kingdome vpon Israel for euer. ¹¹Nowe therefore my sonne, the Lord shalbe with thee, and thou shalt prosper, and thou shalt builde an house to the Lord thy God, as he hath spoken of thee. ¹²Onely the Lord giue thee wisdom and vnderstanding, and giue thee charge ouer Israel, euen to keepe the Lawe of the Lord thy God. ¹³Then thou shalt prosper, if thou take heede to obserue the statutes and the iudgements which the Lord commanded Moses for Israel: be strong and of good courage: feare not, neither bee afraide. ¹⁴For beholde, according to my pouertie haue I prepared for the house of the Lord an hundreth thousand talents of golde, and a thousand thousand talents of siluer, and of brasse and of yron passing weight: for there was abundance: I haue also prepared timber and stone, and thou mayest prouide more thereto. ¹⁵Moreouer thou hast workmen with thee enough, hewers of stone, and workemen for timber, and all men expert in euery worke. ¹⁶Of golde, of siluer, and of brasse, and of yron there is no number: Vp therefore, and be doing, and the Lord wilbe with thee. ¹⁷Dauid also commanded all the princes of Israel to helpe Salomon his sonne, saying, ¹⁸Is not the Lord your God with you, and hath giuen you rest on euerie side? for hee hath giuen the inhabitants of the land into mine hand, and the land is subdued before the Lord and before his people. ¹⁹Nowe set your hearts and your soules to seeke the Lord your God, and arise, and builde the Sanctuarie of the Lord God to bring the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and the holy vessels of God into the house built for the Name of the Lord.

¹So when Dauid was olde and full of dayes, he made Salomon his

sonne King ouer Israel. ²And hee gathered together all the princes of Israel with the Priestes and the Leuites. ³And the Leuites were numbred from ye age of thirtie yeere and aboue, and their number according to their summe was eight and thirtie thousand men. ⁴Of these foure and twentie thousande were set to aduance the worke of the house of the Lord, and sixe thousand were ouerseers and iudges. ⁵And foure thousand were porters, and foure thousande praised the Lord with instruments which he made to praise the Lord. ⁶So Dauid deuided offices vnto them, to wit, to the sonnes of Leui, to Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ⁷Of the Gershonites were Laadan and Shimei. ⁸The sonnes of Laadan, the chiefe was Iehiel, and Zetham and Ioel, three. ⁹The Sonnes of Shimei, Shelomith, and Haziell, and Haram, three: these were the chiefe fathers of Laadan. ¹⁰Also the sonnes of Shimei were Iahath, Zina, Ieush, and Beriah: these foure were ye sonnes of Shimei. ¹¹And Iahath was the chiefe, and Zizah the seconde, but Ieush and Beriah had not many sonnes: therfore they were in the families of their father, counted but as one. ¹²The sonnes of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron aud Vzziel, foure. ¹³The sonnes of Amram, Aaron and Moses: and Aaron was separated to sanctifie the most holy place, hee and his sonnes for euer to burne incense before the Lord, to minister to him, and to blesse in his Name for euer. ¹⁴Moses also the man of God, and his children were named with the tribe of Leui. ¹⁵The sonnes of Moses were Gershom, and Eliezer, ¹⁶Of the sonnes of Gershom was Shebuel the chiefe. ¹⁷And the sonne of Eliezer was Rehabiah the chiefe: for Eliezer had none other sonnes: but the sonnes of Rehabiah were very many. ¹⁸The sone of Izhar was Shelomith ye chiefe. ¹⁹The sonnes of Hebron were Ieriah the first, Amariah the second, Iahaziel the third, and Iekamiam the fourth. ²⁰The sones of Vzziel were Michah the first, and Isshiah the second. ²¹The sonnes of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sonnes of Mahli, Eleazar and Kish. ²²And Eleazar dyed, and had no sonnes, but daughters, and their brethren the sonnes of Kish tooke them. ²³The sonnes of Mushi were Mahli, and Eder, and Ierimoth, three. ²⁴These were the sonnes of Leui according to the house of their fathers, euen the chiefe fathers according to their offices, according to the number of names and their summe that did the worke for the seruice of the house of the Lord from the age of twentie yeeres and aboue. ²⁵For Daud sayde, The Lord God of Israel hath giuen rest vnto his people, that they may dwell in Ierusalem for euer. ²⁶And also the Leuites shall no more beare the Tabernacle and al the vessels for the seruice thereof. ²⁷Therefore according to the last wordes of Daud, the Leuites were nombred from twentie yeere and aboue, ²⁸And their office was vnder the hand of the sonnes of Aaron, for the seruice of the house of the Lord in the courtes, and chambers, and in the purifyng of all holy thinges, and in the worke of the seruice of the house of God, ²⁹Both for the shewbread, and for the fine floure, for the meate offering, and for the vnleauened cakes, and for the fryed things, and for that which was rosted, and for all measures and cise, ³⁰And for to stand euery morning, to giue thanks and praise to the Lord, and likewise at euen, ³¹And to offer all burnt offrings vnto the Lord, in the Sabbaths, in the moneths, and at the appointed times, according to the nomber and according to their custome continually before the Lord, ³²And that they should keepe the charge of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the charge of ye holy place, and the charge of ye sonnes of Aaron their brethren in the seruice of ye house of the Lord.

¹These are also the diuisions of the sonnes of Aaron: The sonnes of Aaron were Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ²But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the Priestes office. ³And Dauid distributed them, euen Zadok of the sonnes of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sonnes of Ithamar according to their offices in their ministration. ⁴And there were found more of the sonnes of Eleazar by the number of men, then of the sonnes of Ithamar. and they deuided them, to wit, among the sonnes of Eleazar, sixteene heads, according to the houshold of their fathers, and among ye sonnes of Ithamar, according to the housholde of their fathers, eight. ⁵Thus they distributed them by lot the one from the other, and so the rulers of the Sanctuarie and the rulers of the house of God were of the sonnes of Eleazar and of the sonnes of Ithamar. ⁶And Shemaiah the sonne of Nethaneel the scribe of the Leuites, wrote them before ye King and the princes, and Zadok the Priest, and Ahimelech the sonne of Abiathar, and before ye chiefe fathers of the Priests and of the Leuites, one familie being reserued for Eleazar, and another reserued for Ithamar. ⁷And the first lot fell to

Iehoiarib, and the second to Iedaiah, ⁸The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, ⁹The fifth to Malchiiah, the sixth to Miiamin, ¹⁰The seuenth to Hakkoz, the eight to Abiiah, ¹¹The ninth to Ieshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, ¹²The eleuenth to Eliashib, the twelft to Iakim, ¹³The thirteenth to Huppa, the fouretenth to Ieshebeab, ¹⁴The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, ¹⁵The seuententh to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzer, ¹⁶The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Iehezekel, ¹⁷The one and twentie to Iachin, the two and twentie to Gamul, ¹⁸The three and twentie to Deliah, the foure and twentie to Maaziah. ¹⁹These were their orders according to their offices, when they entred into the house of the Lord according to their custome vnder the hande of Aaron their father, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded him. ²⁰And of the sonnes of Leui that remained of the sonnes of Amram, was Shubael, of the sonnes of Shubael, Iedeiah, ²¹Of Rehabiah, euen of the sonnes of Rehabiah, the first Isshiiah, ²²Of Izhari, Shelomoth, of the sonnes of Shelomoth, Iahath, ²³And his sonnes Ieriah the first, Amariah the second, Iahaziel the thirde, and Iekameam the fourth, ²⁴The sonne of Vzziel was Michah, ye sonne of Michah was Shamir, ²⁵The brother of Michah was Isshiiah, the sonne of Isshiiah, Zechariah, ²⁶The sonnes of Merari, were Mahli and Mushi, the sonne of Iaaziiah was Beno, ²⁷The sonnes of Merari of Iahaziah were Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur and Ibri. ²⁸Of Mahli came Eleazar, which had no sonnes. ²⁹Of Kish. the sonne of Kish was Ierahmeel, ³⁰And the sonnes of Mushi were Mahli, and Eder, and Ierimoth: these were sonnes of the Leuites after the houshold of their fathers. ³¹And these also cast lots with their brethren the sonnes of Aaron before King Dauid, and Zadok and Ahimelech and the chiefe fathers of the Priests, and of the Leuites, euen the chiefe of the families against their yonger brethren.

¹So Daudid and the captaines of the armie separated for the ministerie the sonnes of Asaph, and Heman, and Ieduthun, who should sing propheties with harpes, with viores, and with cymbales, and their number was euen of the men for the office of their ministerie, to wit, ²Of the sonnes of Asaph, Zaccur, and Ioseph, and Nethaniah, and Asharelah the sonnes of Asaph were vnder the hand of Asaph, which sang propheties by the commission of the King. ³Of Ieduthun, the sonnes of Ieduthun, Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Ieshaiah, Ashabiah and Mattithiah, six, vnder the hands of their father: Ieduthun sang propheties with an harpe, for to giue thanks and to praise the Lord. ⁴Of Heman, the sonnes of Heman, Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Vzziel, Shebuel, and Ierimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamtiezer, Ioshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. ⁵All these were the sonnes of Heman, the Kings Seer in the wordes of God to lift vp the horne: and God gaue to

Heman fourtene sonnes and three daughters. ⁶All these were vnder the hande of their father, singing in the house of the Lord with cymbales, viores and harpes, for the seruice of the house of God, and Asaph, and Ieduthun, and Heman were at the Kings commandement. ⁷So was their number with their brethre that were instruct in ye songs of the Lord, euen of al that were cunning, two hundreth foure score and eight. ⁸And they cast lottes, charge against charge, aswel small as great, the cunning man as the scholer. ⁹And the first lot fell to Ioseph which was of Asaph, the second, to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and his sonnes were twelue. ¹⁰The third, to Zaccur, he, his sonnes and his brethren were twelue. ¹¹The fourth, to Izri, he, his sonnes and his brethren twelue. ¹²The fift, to Nethaniah, he, his sonnes and his brethren twelue. ¹³The sixt, to Bukkiah, he, his sonnes and his brethren twelue. ¹⁴The seuenth, to Iesharelah, he, his sonnes and his brethren twelue. ¹⁵The eight, to Ieshaiah, he, his sonnes and his

heede now, for the Lord hath chosen thee to buyld the house of the Sanctuarie: be strong therefore, and doe it. ¹¹Then Dauid gaue to Salomon his sonne the paterne of the porch and of the houses thereof, and of the closets thereof, and of the galleries thereof, and of the chambers thereof that are within, and of the house of the merciesseate, ¹²And the paterne of all that he had in his minde for the courtes of the house of the Lord, and for all the chambers round about, for the treasures of the house of God, and for the treasures of the dedicate things, ¹³And for the courses of the Priestes, and of the Leuites, and for all the woorke for the seruice of the house of the Lord, and for all the vessels of the ministerie of the house of the Lord. ¹⁴He gaue of golde by weight, for the vessels of gold, for all the vessels of all maner of seruice, and all the vessels of siluer by weight, for all maner vessels of all maner of seruice. ¹⁵The weight also of golde for the candlestickes, and gold for their lampes, with the weight for euery candlesticke, and

¹Moreouer Daud the King sayde vnto all the Congregation, God hath chosen Salomon mine onely sonne yong and tender, and the worke is great: for this house is not for man, but for the Lord God. ²Now I haue prepared with all my power for the house of my God, golde for vessels of golde, and siluer for them of siluer, and brasse for things of brasse, yron for things of yron, and wood for things of wood, and onix stones, and stones to be set, and carbuncle stones and of diuers colours, and all precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. ³Moreouer, because I haue delite in the house of my God, I haue of mine owne golde and siluer, which I haue giuen to the house of my God, beside all that I haue prepared for the house of the Sanctuarie, ⁴Euen three thousand talents of gold of the golde of Ophir, and seuen thousand talents of fined siluer to ouerlay the walles of the houses. ⁵The golde for the things of golde, and the siluer for things of siluer, and for all the worke by the handes of artificers: and who is willing to fill his hand to day vnto the Lord? ⁶So the princes of the families, and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captaines of thousands and of hundreths, with the rulers of the Kings worke, offred willingly, ⁷And they gaue for the seruice of the house of God fife thousande talents of golde, and ten thousand pieces, and ten thousand talents of siluer, and eighteene thousand talents of brasse, and one hundreth thousand talents of yron. ⁸And they with whom precious stones were found, gaue them to the treasure of ye house of the Lord, by the hand of Iehiel the Gershunnite. ⁹And the people reioyced when they offred willingly: for they offred willingly vnto ye Lord, with a perfite heart.

And Daud the King also reioyced with great ioy. ¹⁰Therefore Daud blessed the Lord before all the Congregation, and Daud sayde, Blessed be thou, O Lord God, of Israel our father, for euer and euer. ¹¹Thine, O Lord, is greatnesse and power, and glory, and victorie and praise: for all that is in heauen and in earth is thine: thine is the kingdome, O Lord, and thou excellest as head ouer all. ¹²Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest ouer all, and in thine hand is power and strength, and in thine hande it is to make great, and to giue strength vnto all. ¹³Now therefore our God, we thanke thee, and prayse thy glorious Name. ¹⁴But who am I, and what is my people, that we shoulde be able to offer willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee: and of thine owne hand we haue giuen thee. ¹⁵For we are stragers before thee, and sojourners, like all our fathers: our dayes are like ye shadowe vpon the earth, and there is none abiding. ¹⁶O Lord our God, all this abundance that we haue prepared to buylde thee an house for thine holy Name, is of thine hand and all is thine. ¹⁷I knowe also, my God, that thou tryest the heart, and hast pleasure in righteousnesse: I haue offred willingly in the vprightnesse of mine heart all these things: now also haue I seene thy people which are found here, to offer vnto thee willingly with ioy. ¹⁸O Lord God of Abraham, Izhak and Israel our fathers, keepe this for euer in the purpose, and the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their hearts vnto thee. ¹⁹And giue vnto Salomon my sonne a perfit heart to keepe thy commandements, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to doe all things, and to builde the house which I haue prepared. ²⁰And Daud said to all the Congregation, Now blesse the Lord your God. And all the Congregation blessed the Lord God of their fathers, and bowed downe their heads, and worshipped the Lord and the King. ²¹And they offred sacrifices vnto the Lord, and on the morowe after that day, they offered burnt offrings vnto the

Lord, euen a thousande yong bullocks, a thousand rammes and a thousand sheepe, with their drinke offrings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. ²²And they did eate and drinke before the Lord the same day with great ioy, and they made Salomon the sonne of Dauid King the seconde time, and anoynted him prince before the Lord, and Zadok for the hie Priest. ²³So Salomon sate on the throne of the Lord, as King in steade of Dauid his father, and prospered: and all Israel obeyed him. ²⁴And all the princes and men of power, and all the sonnes of King Dauid submitted them selues vnder King Salomon. ²⁵And the Lord magnified Salomon in dignitie, in the sight of all Israel, and gaue him so glorious a kingdome, as no King had before him in Israel. ²⁶Thus Dauid the sonne of Ishai reigned ouer all Israel. ²⁷And the space that he reigned ouer Israel, was fourtie yeere: seuen yeere reigned he in Hebron, and three and thirtie yeere reigned he in Ierusalem: ²⁸And he dyed in a good age, full of dayes, riches and honour, and Salomon his sonne reigned in his steade. ²⁹Concerning the actes of Dauid the King first and last, behold, they are written in the booke of Samuel the Seer, and in the booke of Nathan the Prophet, and in the booke of Gad the Seer, ³⁰With all his reigne and his power, and times that went ouer him, and ouer Israel and ouer all the kingdomes of the earth.

2 CHRONICLES

¹Then Salomon the sonne of Dauid was confirmed in his kingdome: and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him highly. ²And Salomon spake vnto all Israel, to the captaines of thousandes, and of hundreths, and to the iudges, and to all the gouernours in all Israel, euen the chiefe fathers. ³So Salomon and all the Congregation with him went to the hie place that was at Gibeon: for there was the Tabernacle of the Congregation of God which Moses the seruant of the Lord had made in the wilderness. ⁴But the Arke of God had Dauid brought vp from Kiriath-iearim, when Dauid had made preparation for it: for he had pitched a tent for it in Ierusalem. ⁵Moreouer the brasen altar that Bezaleel the sonne of Vri, the sonne of Hur had made, did hee set before the Tabernacle of the Lord: and Salomon and the Congregation sought it. ⁶And Salomon offred there before the Lord vpon the brasen altar that was in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: euen a thousand burnt offrings offred he vpon it. ⁷The same night did God appeare vnto Salomon, and sayde vnto him, Aske what I shall giue thee. ⁸And Salomon sayde vnto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy vnto Dauid my father and hast made me to reigne in his stead. ⁹Nowe therefore, O Lord God, let thy promise vnto Dauid my father be true: for thou hast made mee King ouer a great people, like to the dust of the earth. ¹⁰Giue me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and go in before this people: for who can iudge this thy great people? ¹¹And God sayde to Salomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, treasures nor honour, nor the liues of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life, but hast asked for thee wisdom and knowledge that thou mightest iudge my people, ouer whome I haue made thee King, ¹²Wisdom and knowledge is granted vnto thee, and I will giue thee riches and treasures and honour, so that there hath not bene the like among the Kings which were before thee, neither after thee shall there be the like. ¹³Then Salomon came from the hie place, that was at Gibeon, to Ierusalem from before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and reigned ouer Israel. ¹⁴And Salomon gathered the charets and horesemen: and he had a thousand and foure hundreth charets, and twelue thousande horsemen, whome he placed in the charet cities, and with the King at Ierusalem. ¹⁵And the King gaue siluer and gold at Ierusalem as stones, and gaue cedar trees as the wilde figge trees, that are abundantly in the playne.

¹⁶Also Salomon had horses brought out of Egypt and fine linen: the Kings marchants receiued the fine linen for a price.

¹⁷They came vp also and brought out of Egypt some charet, worth sixe hundreth shekels of siluer, that is an horse for an hundreth and fiftie: and thus they brought horses to all the Kings of the Hittites, and to the Kings of Aram by their meanes.

¹Then Salomon determined to builde an house for the Name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdome. ²And Salomon tolde out seuentie thousand that bare burdens, and fourescore thousande men to hewe stones in the mountaine, and three thousand and sixe hundreth to ouersee them. ³And Salomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyrus, saying, As thou hast done to Dauid my father, and didst sende him cedar trees to buyld him an house to dwell in, so do to me. ⁴Behold, I buyld an house vnto the Name of the Lord my God, to

sanctifie it vnto him, and to burne sweete incense before him, and for the continuall shewbread, and for the burnt offrings of the morning and euening, on the Sabbath dayes, and in the new moneths, and in the solemne feastes of the Lord our God: this is a perpetuall thing for Israel. ⁵And the house which I buylde, is great: for great is our God aboue all gods. ⁶Who is he then that can be able to buyld him an house, when the heauen, and the heauen of heauens can not containe him? who am I then that I should buyld him an house? but I do it to burne incense before him. ⁷Sende me now therefore a cunning man that can worke in golde, in siluer, and in brasse, and in yron, and in purple, and crimosin and blue silke, and that can graue in grauen worke with the cunning men that are with me in Iudah and in Ierusalem, whom Dauid my father hath prepared. ⁸Sende mee also cedar trees, firre trees and Algummim trees from Lebanon: for I knowe that thy seruants can skill to hewe timber in Lebanon: and beholde, my seruantes shalbe with thine, ⁹That they may prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I doe buylde, is great and wonderfull. ¹⁰And behold, I will giue to thy seruants the cutters and the hewers of timber twentie thousand measures of beaten wheate, and twentie thousand measures of barley, and twentie thousand baths of wine, and twentie thousand baths of oyle. ¹¹Then Hiram King of Tyrus answered in writing which he sent to Salomon, Because the Lord hath loued his people, he hath made thee King ouer them. ¹²Hiram sayd moreouer, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which made the heauen and the earth, and that hath giuen vnto Dauid the King a wise sonne, that hath discretion, prudence and vnderstanding to buylde an house for the Lord, and a palace for his kingdome. ¹³Now therefore I haue sent a wise man, and of vnderstanding of my father Hurams, ¹⁴The sonne of a woman of the daughters of Dan: and his father was a man of Tyrus, and he can skill to worke in golde, in siluer, in brasse, in yron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue silke, and in fine linen, and in crimosin, and can graue in all grauen workes, and broyder in all broydered worke that shalbe giuen him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord Dauid thy father. ¹⁵Now therefore the wheate and the barley, the oyle and the wine, which my lorde hath spoken of, let him send vnto his seruants. ¹⁶And we wil cut wood in Lebanon as much as thou shalt neede, and will bring it to thee in raftes by the sea to Iapho, so thou mayest cary them to Ierusalem. ¹⁷And Salomon nombred al the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the nombring that his father Dauid had nombred them: and they were found an hundreth and three and fiftie thousand, and sixe hundreth. ¹⁸And he set seuentie thousande of them to the burden, and fourescore thousande to hewe stones in the mountaine, and three thousande and sixe hundreth ouerseers to cause the people to worke.

¹So Salomon began to buyld the house of the Lord in Ierusalem, in mount Moriah which had bene declared vnto Dauid his father, in the place that Dauid prepared in the thressing floore of Ornan the Iebusite. ²And he beganne to buylde in the seconde moneth and the second day, in the fourth yeere of his reigne. ³And these are the measures, whereon Salomon grounded to buylde the house of God: the length of cubites after the first measure was threescore cubites, and the breadth twenty cubites: ⁴And the porch, that was before the length in the front of the breadth was twentie cubits, and the height was an hundreth and twentie, and he ouerlayd it within with pure golde. ⁵And the greater house he sieled with firre tree which he ouerlayd with good golde, and graued thereon palme trees and chaines. ⁶And hee ouerlayde the house with precious stone for beautie: and the golde was gold of Paruaim. ⁷The house, I say, the beames, postes, and walles thereof and the doores thereof ouerlayde he with gold, and graued Cherubims vpon the

walles. ⁸He made also the house of the most holy place: the length thereof was in the front of the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twentie cubites: and he ouerlayde it with the best golde, of sixe hundreth talents. ⁹And the weight of the nayles was fiftie shekels of golde, and hee ouerlayde the chambers with golde. ¹⁰And in the house of the most holy place he made two Cherubims wrought like children, and ouerlayd them with golde. ¹¹And the winges of the Cherubims were twentie cubites long: the one wing was fife cubites, reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing fife cubites, reaching to the wing of the other Cherub. ¹²Likewise the wing of ye other Cherub was fife cubites, reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing fife cubites ioyning to the wing of the other Cherub. ¹³The wings of these Cherubims were spread abroad twentie cubites: they stode on their feete, and their faces were toward the house. ¹⁴He made also the vaile of blew silke and purple, and crimosin, and fine linen, and wrought Cherubims thereon. ¹⁵And he made before the house two pillars of fīue and thirtie cubites hie: and the chapiter that was vpon the top of eche of them, was fīue cubites. ¹⁶He made also chaines for the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars, and made an hundreth pomegranates, and put them among the chaines. ¹⁷And he set vp the pillars before the Temple, one on the right hande and the other on the left, and called that on the right hand Iachin, and that on the left hand Boaz.

¹And hee made an altar of brasse twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites broade, and ten cubites hie. ²And he made a molten Sea of ten cubites from brim to brim, rounde in compasse, and fīue cubites hie: and a line of thirtie cubites did compasse it about. ³And vnder it was ye facion of oxen, which did compasse it rounde about, tenne in a cubite compassing the Sea about: two rowes of oxen were cast when it was molten. ⁴It stooode vpon twelue oxen: three looked toward the North, and three looked towarde the West, and three looked towarde the South, and three looked towarde the East, and the Sea stooode about vpon them, and all their hinder parts were inwarde. ⁵And the thickenesse thereof was an hande breadth, and the brim thereof was like the worke of the brim of a cuppe with floures of lilies: it contained three thousand baths. ⁶He made also ten caldrons, and put fīue on the right hand, and fīue on the left, to wash in them, and to cense in them that which appertained to the burnt offerings: but the Sea was for the Priests to wash in. ⁷And he made ten candlestickes of golde (according to their forme) and put them in the Temple, fīue on the right hand, and fīue on the left. ⁸And he made ten tables, and put them in the Temple, fīue on the right hand, and fīue on the left: and he made an hundreth basens of golde. ⁹And he made the court of the Priests, and the great court and doores for the court, and

ouerlayd the doores thereof with brasse. ¹⁰And he set the Sea on the right side Eastward toward the South. ¹¹And Hiram made pottes and besoms and basens, and Hiram finished the worke that hee shoulde make for King Salomon for the house of God, ¹²To wit, two pillars, and the bowles and the chapiters on the top of ye two pillars, and two grates to couer the two bowles of the chapiters which were vpon the toppe of the pillars: ¹³And foure hundreth pomegranates for the two grates, two rowes of pomegranates for euery grate to couer the two bowles of the chapiters, that were vpon the pillars. ¹⁴He made also bases, and made caldrons vpon the bases: ¹⁵And a Sea, and twelue bulles vnder it: ¹⁶Pottes also and besomes, and fleshhookes, and all these vessels made Hiram his father, to King Salomon for the house of the Lord, of shining brasse. ¹⁷In the playne of Iorden did the King cast them in clay betweene Succoth and Zeredathah. ¹⁸And Salomon made al these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of brasse could not be rekoned. ¹⁹And Salomon made al the vessels that were for the house of God: the golden altar also and the tables, whereon the shewbread stode. ²⁰Moreouer the candlestickes, with their lampes to burne them after the maner, before the oracle, of pure golde. ²¹And the floures and the lampes, and the snuffers of gold, which was fine golde. ²²And the hookes, and the basens, and the spoones, and the ashpans of pure golde: the entrie also of the house and doores thereof within, euen of the most holy place: and the doores of the house, to wit, of the Temple were of golde.

¹So was all the worke finished that Salomon made for the house of the Lord, and Salomon brought in the things that Dauid his father had dedicated, with the siluer and the golde, and all the vessels, and put them among the treasures of the house of God. ²Then Salomon assembled the

Elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chiefe fathers of the children of Israel vnto Ierusalem to bring vp the Arke of the couenant of the Lord from the citie of Daud, which is Zion. ³And all ye men of Israel assembled vnto the King at the feast: it was in ye seuenth moneth. ⁴And all the Elders of Israel came, and the Leuites tooke vp the Arke. ⁵And they caried vp the Arke and the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle, those did the Priests and Leuites bring vp. ⁶And King Salomon and all the Congregation of Israel that were assembled vnto him, were before ye Arke, offering sheepe and bullocks, which could not be told nor nobred for multitude. ⁷So the Priests brought the Arke of the couenant of the Lord vnto his place, into the Oracle of the house, into the most Holy place, euen vnder the wings of the Cherubims. ⁸For ye Cherubims stretched out their wings ouer the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims couered the Arke and the barres thereof aboue. ⁹And they drewe out the barres, that the endes of the barres might bee seene out of the Arke before the Oracle, but they were not seene without: and there they are vnto this day. ¹⁰Nothing was in the Arke, saue the two Tables, which Moses gaue at Horeb, where the Lord made a couenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. ¹¹And when the Priestes were come out of the Sanctuarie (for all the Priests that were present, were sanctified and did not waite by course. ¹²And the Leuites the singers of all sortes, as of Asaph, of Heman, of Ieduthun, and of their sonnes and of their brethren, being clad in fine linen, stooode with cymbales, and with violes and harpes at the East ende of the altar, and with them an hundreth and twentie Priestes blowing with trumpets: ¹³And they were as one, blowing trumpets, and singing, and made one sounde to bee heard in praysing and thanking the Lord, and when they lift vp their voyce with trumpets and with cymbales, and with instruments of musicke, and when they prayed the Lord, singing, For he is good, because his mercie lasteth for euer) then the house, euen the house of the Lord was filled with a cloude, ¹⁴So that the Priests could not stand to minister, because of the cloude: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of God.

¹Then Salomon sayd, The Lord hath sayde that he would dwell in the darke cloude: ²And I haue built thee an house to dwell in, an habitation for thee to dwell in for euer. ³And the King turned his face, and blessed all the Congregation of Israel (for all the Congregation of Israel stode there) ⁴And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who spake with his mouth vnto Dauid my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, ⁵Since the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no citie of al the tribes of Israel to buylde an house, that my Name might be there, neyther chose I any man to be a ruler ouer my people Israel: ⁶But I haue chosen Ierusalem, that my Name might be there, and

haue chosen Dauid to be ouer my people Israel. ⁷And it was in the heart of Dauid my father to builde an house vnto the Name of the Lord God of Israel, ⁸But the Lord sayde to Dauid my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to buylde an house vnto my Name, thou diddest well, that thou wast so minded. ⁹Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house, but thy sonne which shall come out of thy loynes, he shall buylde an house vnto my Name. ¹⁰And the Lord hath performed his worde that he spake: and I am risen vp in the rouse of Dauid my father, and am set on the throne of Israel as the Lord promised, and haue built an house to the Name of the Lord God of Israel. ¹¹And I haue set the Arke there, wherein is the couenant of the Lord, that he made with the children of Israel. ¹²And the King stode before the altar of the Lord, in the presence of all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands, ¹³(For Salomon had made a brasen skaffold and set it in the middes of the court, of fīue cubites long, and five cubites broad, and three cubites of height, and vpon it he stode, and kneeled downe vpon his knees before all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands toward heauen) ¹⁴And sayd, O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in heauen nor in earth, which keepest couenant, and mercie vnto thy seruants, that walke before thee with all their heart. ¹⁵Thou that hast kept with thy seruant Dauid my father, that thou hast promised him: for thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as appeareth this day. ¹⁶Therefore now Lord God of Israel, keepe with thy seruant Dauid my father, that thou hast promised him, saying, Thou shalt not want a man in my sight, that shall sit vpon the throne of Israel: so that thy sonnes take heede to their wayes, to walke in my Lawe, as thou hast walked before me. ¹⁷And now, O Lord God of Israel, let thy worde be verified, which thou spakest vnto thy seruant Dauid. ¹⁸(Is it true in deede that God will dwell with man on earth? beholde, the heauens, and the heauens of heauens are not able to containe thee: how much more vnable is this house, which I haue buylt?) ¹⁹But haue thou respect to the prayer of thy seruant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to heare the crye and prayer which thy seruant prayeth before thee, ²⁰That thine eyes may be open toward this house day and night, euen toward the place, whereof thou hast sayde, that thou wouldest put thy Name there, that thou mayest hearken vnto the prayer, which thy seruant prayeth in this place. ²¹Heare thou therefore the supplication of thy seruant, and of thy people Israel, which they pray in this place: and heare thou in the place of thine habitation, euen in heauen, and when thou hearest, be mercifull. ²²When a man shall sinne against his neighbour, and he laye vpon him an othe to cause him to sweare, and the swearer shall come before thine altar in this house, ²³Then heare thou in heauen, and doe, and iudge thy seruants, in recompensing the wicked to bring his way vpon his head, and in iustifying the righteous, to giue him according to his righteousness. ²⁴And when thy people Israel shalbe ouerthrowen before the enemy, because they haue sinned against thee, and turne againe, and confesse thy Name, and pray, and make supplication before thee in this house, ²⁵Then heare thou in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the sinne of thy people Israel, and bring them againe vnto the land which thou gauest to them and to their fathers. ²⁶When heauen shall be shut vp, and there shalbe no rayne, because they haue sinned against thee, and shall pray in this place, and confesse thy Name, and turne from their sinne, when thou doest afflict them, ²⁷Then heare thou in heauen, and pardon the sinne of thy seruants, and of thy people Israel (when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they may walke) and giue rayne vpon thy lande, which thou hast giuen vnto thy people for an inheritance. ²⁸When there shalbe famine in the land, when there shalbe pestilence, blasting, or mildew, when there shall be grasshopper, or caterpillar, when their enemy shall besiege them in the cities of their land, or any plague or any sicknesse, ²⁹Then what prayer and supplication so euer shalbe made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, whe euery one shall knowe his owne plague, and his owne disease, and shall stretch forth his hands toward this house, ³⁰Heare thou then in heauen, thy dwelling place, and be merciful, and giue euery man according vnto all his wayes, as thou doest knowe his heart (for thou onely knowest the hearts of the children of men) ³¹That they may feare thee, and walke in thy wayes as long as they liue in the land which thou gauest vnto our fathers. ³²Moreouer, as touching ye stranger which is not of thy people Israel, who shall come out of a farre countrey for thy great Names sake, and thy mighty hande, and thy stretched out arme: when they shall come and pray in this house, ³³Heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and doe according to all that the stranger calleth for vnto thee, that all the people of the earth may knowe thy Name, and feare thee like thy people Israel, and that they may knowe, that thy Name is called vpon in this house which I haue built. ³⁴When thy people shall goe out to battell against their enemies, by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray to thee, in the way toward this citie, which thou hast chosen, euen toward the house which I haue built to thy Name, ³⁵Then heare thou in heauen their prayer and their supplication, and iudge their cause. ³⁶If they sinne against thee (for there is no man that sinneth not) and thou be angry with them and deliuer them vnto the enemies, and they take them and cary them away captiue vnto a land farre or neere, ³⁷If they turne againe to their heart in the lande whither they be caryed in captiues, and turne and pray vnto thee in the lande of their captiuitie, saying, We haue sinned, we haue transgressed and haue done wickedly, ³⁸If they turne againe to thee with all their heart, and with all their soule in the land of their captiuitie, whither they haue caryed them captiues, and pray toward their land, which thou gauest vnto their fathers, and toward the citie which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I haue built for thy Name, ³⁹Then heare thou in heauen, in the place of thine habitation their prayer and their supplication, and iudge their cause, and be mercifull vnto thy people, which haue sinned against thee. ⁴⁰Nowe my God, I beseech thee, let thine eyes be open, and thine eares attent vnto the prayer that is made in this place. ⁴¹Nowe therefore arise, O Lord God, to come into thy rest, thou, and the Arke of thy strength: O Lord God, let thy Priestes be clothed with saluation, and let thy Saints reioyce in goodnesse. ⁴²O Lord God, refuse not the face of thine anoynted: remember the mercies promised to Dauid thy seruant.

¹And when Salomon had made an ende of praying, fire came downe from heauen, and consumed the burnt offring and the sacrifices: and the glory of the Lord filled the house, ²So that the Priestes could not euter into the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lordes house. ³And when all the children of Israel saw the fire, and the glory of the Lord come downe vpon the house, they bowed themselues with their faces to the earth vpon the pauement, and worshipped and prayzed the Lord, saying, For he is good, because his mercy lasteth for euer. ⁴Then the King and all the people offred sacrifices before the Lord. ⁵And King Salomon offered a sacrifice of two and twentie thousand bullockes, and an hundreth and twentie thousand sheepe. so the King and all the people dedicated the house of God. ⁶And the Priests waited on their offices, and the Leuites with the instruments of musicke of the Lord, which King Dauid had made to praise the Lord, Because his mercy lasteth for euer: whe Dauid prayzed God by them, the Priestes also blewe trumpets ouer against them: and all they of Israel stode by. ⁷Moreouer Salomon halowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there hee had prepared burnt offerings, and the fatte of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Salomon had made, was not able to receiue the burnt offering, and the meate offring, and the fat. ⁸And Salomon made a feast at that time of seuen dayes, and all Israel with him, a very great Congregation, from the entring in of Hamath, vnto the riuer of Egypt. ⁹And in the eight day they made a solemne assemblie: for they had made the dedication of the altar seuen daies, and the feast seuen dayes. ¹⁰And the three and twentieth day of the seuenth moneth, he sent the people away into their tentes, ioyous and with glad heart, because of the goodnesse that the Lord had done for Dauid and for Salomon, and for Israel his people. ¹¹So Salomon finished the house of the Lord, and the Kings house, and all that came into Salomons heart to make in the house of the Lord: and he prospered in his house. ¹²And the Lord appeared to Salomon by night and said to him, I haue heard thy prayer, and haue chosen this place for my selfe to be an house of sacrifice. ¹³If I shut the heauen that there be no raine, or if I commaund the grashopper to deuoure the lande, or if I sende pestilence among my people, ¹⁴If my people, among whome my Name is called vpon, doe humble them selues, and praye, and seeke my presence, and turne from their wicked wayes, then will I heare in heauen, and be mercifull to their sinne, and wil heale their land: ¹⁵Then mine eies shalbe open and mine eares attent vnto the prayer made in this place. ¹⁶For I haue nowe chosen and sanctified this house, that my Name may be there for euer: and mine eyes and mine heart shalbe there perpetually. ¹⁷And if thou wilt walke before me, as Dauid thy father walked, to doe according vnto all that I haue commanded thee, and shalt obserue my statutes and my iudgements, ¹⁸Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdome, according as I made the couenant with Dauid thy father, saying, Thou shalt not want a man to be ruler in Israel. ¹⁹But if ye turne away, and forsake my statutes and my commandements which I haue set before you, and shall goe and serue other gods, and worshippe them, ²⁰Then will I plucke them vp out of my lande, which I haue giuen them, and this house which I haue sanctified for my Name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a prouerbe and a common talke among all people. ²¹And this house which is most hie, shall be an astonishment to euery one that passeth by it, so that he shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus to this lande, and to this house? ²²And they shall answere, Because they forsooke the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the lande of Egypt, and haue taken holde on other gods, and haue worshipped them, and serued them, therefore hath he brought all this euill vpon them.

¹And after twentie yeere when Salomon had built the house of the Lord, and his owne house, ²Then Salomon built the cities that Hiram gaue to Salomon, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there. ³And Salomon went to Hamath Zobah, and ouercame it. ⁴And he built Tadmor in the wildernesse, and repayred all the cities of store which hee built in Hamath. ⁵And he built Beth-horon the vpper, and Beth-horon the nether, cities defended with walles, gates and barres: ⁶Also Baalath, and al the cities of store that Salomon had, and all the charet cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and euery pleasant place that Salomon had a minde to builde in Ierusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the lande of his dominion. ⁷And all the people that were left to ye Hittites, and ye Amorites, and Perizzites, and the Hiuuites, and the Iebusites, which were not of Israel, ⁸But of their children which were left after them in the lande, whome the children of Israel had not consumed, euen them did Salomon make tributaries vntill this day. ⁹But of the children of Israel did Salomon make no seruantes for his worke: for they were men of warre, and his chiefe princes, and the captaines of his charets and of his horsemen. ¹⁰So these were the chiefe of the officers which Salomon had, euen two hundreth and fiftie that bare rule ouer the people. ¹¹Then Salomon brought vp the daughter of Pharaoh out of the citie of Dauid, into the house that he had built for her: for he saide, My wife shall not dwel in the house of Dauid King of Israel: for it is holy, because that the Arke of the Lord came vnto it. ¹²Then Salomon offered burnt offrings vnto the Lord, on the altar of the Lord, which he had built before the porche, ¹³To offer according to the commandement of Moses euery day, in the Sabbaths, and in the newe moones, and in the solemne feastes, three times in the yeere, that is, in the feast of the Vnleauened bread, and in the feast of the Weekes, and in the feast of the Tabernacles. ¹⁴And he set the courses of the Priestes to their offices, according to the order of Dauid his father, and the Leuites in their watches, for to praise and minister before the Priestes euery day, and the porters by their courses, at euery gate: for so was the commandement of Dauid the man of God. ¹⁵And they declined not from the commandement of the King, concerning the Priests and the Leuites, touching al things, and touching the treasures. ¹⁶Nowe Salomon had made prouision for all the worke, from the day of the foundation of the house of the Lord, vntill it was finished: so the house of the Lord was perfite. ¹⁷Then went Salomon to Eziongeber, and to Eloth by the sea side in the lande of Edom. ¹⁸And Hiram sent him by the handes of his seruants, shippes, and seruants that had knowledge of the sea: and they went with the seruants of Salomon to Ophir, and brought thence foure hundreth and fiftie talents of golde, and brought them to King Salomon.

¹And when the Queene of Sheba heard of the fame of Salomon, she came to proue Salomon with hard questions at Ierusalem, with a very great traine, and camels that bare sweete odours and much golde, and precious stones: and when she came to Salomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. ²And Salomon declared her all her questions, and there was nothing hid from Salomon, which he declared not vnto her. ³Then the Queene of Sheba sawe the wisdom of Salomon, and the house that he had buylt, ⁴And the meate of his table, and the sitting of his seruants, and the order of his wayters, and their apparel, and his butlers, and their apparel, and his burnt offrings which he offred in the house of the Lord, and she was greatly astonied. ⁵And she saide to the King, It was a true worde which I heard in mine owne lande of thy sayings, and of thy wisdom: ⁶Howbeit I beleued not their report, vntil I came, and mine eyes had seene it: and beholde, the one halfe of thy great wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard. ⁷Happie are thy men, and happie are these thy seruants, which stande before thee alway, and heare thy wisdom. ⁸Blessed be the Lord thy God, which loued thee, to set thee on his throne as King, in the steade of the Lord thy God: because thy God loueth Israel, to establish it for euer, therefore hath he made thee King ouer them, to execute iudgement and iustice. ⁹Then she gaue the King sixe score talents of golde, and of sweete odours exceeding much and precious stones: neither was there such sweete odours since, as the Queene of Sheba gaue vnto King Salomon. ¹⁰And the seruants also of Huram, and the seruants of Salomon which brought golde from Ophir, brought Algummim wood and precious stones. ¹¹And the King made of the Algummim wood staires in the house of the Lord, and in the Kings house, and harpes and viores for singers: and there was no such seene before in the lande of Iudah. ¹²And King Salomon gaue to the Queene of Sheba euery pleasant thing that she asked, besides for that which she had brought vnto the King: so she returned and went to her owne countrey, both she, and her seruants. ¹³Also the weight of golde that came to Salomon in one yeere, was sixe hundreth three score and sixe talents of golde, ¹⁴Besides that which chapmen and marchants brought: and all the Kings of Arabia, and the princes of the countrey brought golde and siluer to

Salomon. ¹⁵And King Salomon made two hundreth targets of beaten golde, and sixe hundreth shekels of beaten golde went to one target, ¹⁶And three hundreth shieldes of beaten golde: three hundreth shekels of golde went to one shielde, and the King put them in the house of the wood of Lebanon. ¹⁷And the King made a great throne of yuorie and ouerlaid it with pure golde. ¹⁸And the throne had sixe steppes, with a footestoole of gold fastened to the throne, and stayes on either side on the place of the seate, and two lyons standing by the stayes. ¹⁹And twelue lyons stooode there on the sixe steps on either side: there was not the like made in any kingdome. ²⁰And all King Salomons drinking vessels were of golde, and all the vessels of the house of the wood of Lebanon were of pure gold: for siluer was nothing esteemed in ye dayes of Salomon. ²¹For the Kings ships went to Tarshish with the seruants of Huram, euery three yeere once came the ships of Tarshish, and brought golde, and siluer, yuorie, and apes, and peacockes. ²²So King Salomon excelled all the Kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. ²³And all the Kings of the earth sought the presence of Salomon, to heare his wisdom that God had put in his heart. ²⁴And they brought euery man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of golde, and raiment, armour, and sweet odours, horses, and mules, from yeere to yeere. ²⁵And Salomon had foure thousand stalles of horses, and charets, and twelue thousand horsmen, whom he bestowed in the charet cities, and with the King at Ierusalem. ²⁶And he reigned ouer all the Kings from the Riuer euen vnto the land of the Philistims, and to the border of Egypt. ²⁷And the King gaue siluer in Ierusalem, as stones, and gaue cedar trees as the wilde fig trees, that are abundant in the plaine. ²⁸And they brought vnto Salomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all landes. ²⁹Concerning the rest of the actes of Salomon first and last, are they not written in the booke of Nathan the Prophet, and in the prophecie of Ahiah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Ieedo the Seer against Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat? ³⁰And Salomon reigned in Ierusalem ouer all Israel fourtie yeeres. ³¹And Salomon slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Dauid his father: and Rehoboam his sonne reigned in his steade.

¹Then Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Sheche came all Israel to make him king. ²And when Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat heard it, (which was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Salomon the King) he returned out of Egypt. ³And they sent and called him: so came Ieroboam and all Israel, and communed with Rehoboam, saying, ⁴Thy father made our yoke grieuous: nowe therefore make thou the grieuous seruitude of thy father, and his sore yoke, that he put vpon vs, lighter, and we will serue thee. ⁵And he sayde to them, Depart yet three dayes, then come againe vnto me. And the people departed. ⁶And King Rehoboam tooke counsel with the olde men that had stande before Salomon his father, while hee yet liued, saying, What counsell giue ye that I may answere this people? ⁷And they spake vnto him, saying, If thou be kinde to this people, and please them, and speake louing words to them, they will be thy seruants for euer. ⁸But hee left the counsel of the ancient men that they had giuen him, and tooke counsell of the yong men that were brought vp with him, and waited on him. ⁹And he sayd vnto them, What counsel giue ye, that we may answere this people, which haue spoken to mee, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put vpon vs, lighter? ¹⁰And the yong men that were brought vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answere the people that spake to thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter for vs: thus shalt thou say vnto them, My least part shalbe bigger then my fathers loines. ¹¹Now whereas my father did burden you with a grievous yoke, I will yet increase your yoke: my father hath chastised you with roddes, but I will correct you with scourges. ¹²Then Ieroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the King had appointed saying, Come againe to me the third day. ¹³And the King answered them sharply: and King Rehoboam left the counsel of the ancient men, ¹⁴And spake to them after ye counsell of the yong men, saying, My father made your yoke grievous, but I wil incese it: my father chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges. ¹⁵So the king hearkened not vnto the people: for it was the ordinance of God that the Lord might performe his saying, which hee had spoken by Ahiiiah the Shilonite to Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat. ¹⁶So when all Israel sawe that the King would not heare them, the people answered the King, saying, What portion haue we in Dauid? for we haue none inheritance in the sonue of Ishai. O Israel, euery man to your tents: now see to thine owne house, Dauid. So all Israel departed to their tents. ¹⁷Howbeit Rehoboam reigned ouer the children of Israel, that dwelt in the cities of Iudah. ¹⁸Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram that was ouer the tribute, and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died: then King Rehoboam made speede to get him vp to his charet, to flee to Ierusalem. ¹⁹And Israel rebelled against the house of Dauid vnto this day.

¹And when Rehoboam was come to Ierusalem, he gathered of the house of Iudah and Beniamin nine score thousande chosen men of warre to fight against Israel, and to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam. ²But the worde of the Lord came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, ³Speake vnto Rehoboam, the sonne of Salomon King of Iudah, and to all Israel that are in Iudah, and Beniamin, saying, ⁴Thus sayth the Lord, Ye shall not goe vp, nor fight against your brethren: returne euery man to his house: for this thing is done of me. They obeyed therfore the word of the Lord, and returned from going against Ieroboam. ⁵And

Rehoboam dwelt in Ierusalem, and buylt strong cities in Iudah. ⁶Hee buylt also Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, ⁷And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam, ⁸And Gath, and Maresha, and Ziph, ⁹And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah, ¹⁰And Zorah, and Aialon, and Hebron, which were in Iudah and Beniamin, strong cities. ¹¹And he repaired the strong holdes and put captaines in them, and store of vitaille, and oyle and wine. ¹²And in all cities he put shieldes and speares, and made them exceeding strong: so Iudah and Beniamin were his. ¹³And the Priests and the Leuites that were in all Israel, resorted vnto him out of all their coastes. ¹⁴For the Leuites left their suburbes and their possession, and came to Iudah and to Ierusalem: for Ieroboam and his sonnes had cast them out from ministring in the Priestes office vnto the Lord. ¹⁵And he ordeyned him Priests for the hie places, and for the deuils and for the calues which he had made. ¹⁶And after the Leuites there came to Ierusalem of all the tribes of

Israel, such as set their heartes to seeke the Lord God of Israel, to offer vnto the Lord God of their fathers. ¹⁷So they strengthened the kingdome of Iudah, and made Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon mightie, three yeere long: for three yeere they walked in in the way of Daud and Salomon. ¹⁸And Rehoboam tooke him Mahalath ye daughter of Ierimoth the sonne of Daud to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the sonne of Ishai, ¹⁹Which bare him sonnes Ieush, and Shemariah, and Zaham. ²⁰And after her he tooke Maakah ye daughter of Absalom which bare him Abiiah, and Atthai, and Ziza, and Shelomith. ²¹And Rehoboam loued Maakah ye daughter of Absalom aboue all his wiues and his concubines: for he tooke eightene wiues, and three score concubines, and begate eyght and twentie sonnes, and three score daughters. ²²And Rehoboam made Abiiah the sonne of Maakah the chiefe ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him King. ²³And he taught him: and dispersed all his sonnes throughout all the countreis of Iudah and Beniamin vnto euery strong citie: and hee gaue them aboundance of vitale, and desired many wiues.

¹And when Rehoboam had established the kingdome and made it strong, hee forsooke the Lawe of the Lord, and all Israel with him. ²Therefore in the fift yeere of King Rehoboam, Shishak the King of Egypt came vp against Ierusalem (because they had transgressed against the Lord) ³With twelue hundreth charets, and three score thousande horsemen, and the people were without number, that came with him from Egypt, euen the Lubims, Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians. ⁴And he tooke the strong cities which were of Iudah, and came vnto Ierusalem. ⁵Then came Shemaiah the Prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Iudah, that were gathered together in Hierusalem, because of Shishak, and sayde vnto them, Thus sayth the Lord, Ye haue forsaken me, therefore haue I also left you in the handes of Shishak.

⁶Then the princes of Israel, and the King humbled themselves, and sayde, The Lord is iust. ⁷And when the Lord sawe that they humbled themselves, the worde of the Lord came to Shemaiah, saying, They haue humbled theselues, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will sende them deliuerance shortly, and my wrath shall not bee powred out vpon Ierusalem by the hand of Shishak. ⁸Neuerthesse they shalbe his sernants: so shall they knowe my seruice, and the seruice of the kingdomes of the earth. ⁹Then Shishak King of Egypt came vp against Ierusalem, and tooke the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the Kings house he tooke euen all, and hee caried away the shields of golde, which Salomon had made. ¹⁰In stead whereof King Rehoboam made shieldes of brasse, and committed them to the handes of the chiefe of the garde, that wayted at the doore of the Kings house. ¹¹And when the King entred into the house of the Lord, the garde came and bare them and brought them againe vnto the garde chamber. ¹²And because hee humbled himselfe, the wrath of the Lord turned from him, that hee woulde not destroy all together. And also in Iudah the things prospered. ¹³So King Rehoboam was strong in Ierusalem and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and fourtie yere olde, when he began to reigne, and reigned seuentene yeres in Ierusalem, the citie which the Lord had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his Name there. And his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonitesse. ¹⁴And he did euill: for hee prepared not his heart to seeke the Lord. ¹⁵The actes also of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the booke of Shemaiah the Prophet, and Iddo the Seer, in rehearsing the genealogie? and there was warre alway betweene Rehoboam and Ieroboam. ¹⁶And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the citie of Dauid, and Abiiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

¹In the eyghteenth yeere of King Ieroboam began Abiiah to reigne ouer Iudah. ²He reigned three yere in Ierusalem: (his mothers name also was Michaiah the daughter of Vriel of Gibe) and there was warre betweene Abiiah and Ieroboam. ³And Abiiah set the battel in aray with the armie of valiant men of warre, euen foure hundreth thousand chosen men. Ieroboam also set the battell in aray against him with eight hundreth thousande chosen men which were strong and valiant. ⁴And Abiiah stood vp vpon mount Zemeraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and sayde, O Ieroboam, and all Israel, heare you me, ⁵Ought you not to know that the Lord God of Israel hath giuen the kingdome ouer Israel to Dauid for euer, euen to him and to his sonnes by a couenant of salt? ⁶And Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat the seruant of Salomon the sonne of Dauid is risen vp, and hath rebelled against his lord: ⁷And there are gathered to him wayne men and wicked, and made themselues strong against Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon: for Rehoboam was but a childe and tender hearted, and coulde not resist them. ⁸Now therefore ye thinke that yee be able to resist against the kingdome of the Lord, which is in the handes of the sonnes of Dauid, and ye bee a great multitude, and the golden calues are with you which Ieroboam made you for gods. ⁹Haue ye not driuen away the Priestes of the Lord the sonnes of Aaron and the Leuites, and haue made you Priests like the people of other countreis? whosoever commeth to consecrate with a yong bullocke and seuen rams, the same may be a Priest of them that are no gods. ¹⁰But wee belong vnto the Lord our God, and haue not forsaken him, and the Priestes the sonnes of Aaron minister vnto the Lord, and the Leuites in their office. ¹¹And they burne vnto the Lord euery morning and euery euening burnt offerings and sweete incense, and the breade is set in order vpon the pure table, and the candlesticke of golde with the lampes thereof, to burne euery euening: for we keepe the watch of the Lord our God: but ye haue forsaken him. ¹²And behold, this God is with vs, as a captaine, and his Priests with the sounding trumpets, to crie an alarme against you. O yee children of Israel, fight not against the Lord God of your fathers: for ye shall not prosper. ¹³But Ieroboam caused an ambushment to compasse, and come behind them, when they were before Iudah, and the ambushment behinde them. ¹⁴Then Iudah looked, and beholde, the battel was before and behinde them, and they cried vnto the Lord, and the Priests blewe with the trumpets, ¹⁵And the men of Iudah gaue a shoute: and euen as the men of Iudah shouted, God smote Ieroboam and also Israel before Abiiah and Iudah. ¹⁶And the children of Israel fledde before Iudah, and God deliuered them into their hande. ¹⁷And Abiiah and his people slewe a great slaughter of them, so that there fel downe wounded of Israel fiue hundreth thousand chosen men. ¹⁸So the children of Israel were brought vnder at that time: and the children of Iudah preuailed, because they stayed vpon the Lord God of their fathers. ¹⁹And Abiiah pursued after Ieroboam, and tooke cities from him, euen Beth-el, and the villages thereof, and Ieshanah with her villages, and Ephron with her villages. ²⁰And Ieroboam recouered no strength againe in the dayes of Abiiah, but the Lord plagued him, and he dyed. ²¹So Abiiah waxed mightie, and married foureteene wiues, and begate two and twentie sonnes, and sixteene daughters. ²²The rest of the actes of Abiiah and his maners and his sayings are written in the storie of the Prophet Iddo.

¹So Abiiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Dauid, and Asa his sonne reigned in his steade: in whose dayes the lande was quiet ten yeere. ²And Asa did that was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God. ³For he tooke away the altars of the strange gods and the hie places, and brake downe the images, and cut downe the groues, ⁴And commanded Iudah to seeke the Lord God of their fathers, and to doe according to the Lawe and the comandement. ⁵And he tooke away out of all the cities of Iudah the hie places, and the images: therefore the kingdome was quiet before him. ⁶He built also strong cities in Iudah, because the lande was in rest, and he had no warre in those yeeres: for the Lord had giuen him rest. ⁷Therefore he saide to Iudah, Let vs builde these cities and make walles about, and towers, gates, and barres, whiles the lande is before vs: because we haue sought the Lord our God, we haue sought him, and he hath giuen vs rest on euery side: so they built and prospered. ⁸And Asa had an armie of Iudah that bare shieldes and speares, three hundreth thousande, and of Benjamin that bare shieldes and drewe bowes, two hundreth and foure score thousande: all these were valiant men. ⁹And there came out against them Zerah of Ethiopia with an hoste of ten hundreth thousande, and three hundreth charets, and came vnto Mareshah. ¹⁰Then Asa went out before him, and they set the battell in aray in the valley of Zephathah beside Mareshah.

¹¹And Asa cryed vnto the Lord his God, and saide, Lord, it is nothing with thee to helpe with many, or with no power: helpe vs, O Lord our God: for we rest on thee, and in thy Name are we come against this multitude: O Lord, thou art our God, let not man preuaile against thee. ¹²So the Lord smote the Ethiopians before Asa and before Iudah, and the Ethiopians fled. ¹³And Asa and the people that was with him, pursued them vnto Gerar. And the Ethiopians hoste was ouerthrowen, so that there was no life in them: for they were destroyed before the Lord and before his hoste: and they caryed away a mightie great spoyle. ¹⁴And they smote all the cities rounde about Gerar: for the feare of the Lord came vpon them, and they spoyled all the cities, for there was exceeding much spoyle in them. ¹⁵Yea, and they smote the tents of cattel, and carried away plentie of sheepe and camels, and returned to Ierusalem.

¹Then the Spirite of God came vpon Azariah the sonne of Obed.

²And he went out to meete Asa, and said vnto him, O Asa, and all Iudah, and Benjamin, heare ye me. The Lord is with you, while ye be with him: and if ye seeke him, he wil be founde of you, but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. ³Nowe for a long season Israel hath bene without the true God, and without Priest to teach and without Lawe. ⁴But whosoeuer returned in his affliction to the Lord God of Israel, and sought him, he was founde of them. ⁵And in that time there was no peace to him, that did goe out and goe in: but great troubles were to all the inhabitants of the earth. ⁶For nation was destroyed of nation, and citie of citie: for God troubled them with all aduersitie. ⁷Be ye strong therefore, and let not your handes be weake: for your worke shall haue a rewarde. ⁸And when Asa heard these wordes, and the prophesie of Obed the Prophet, he was encouraged, and tooke away the abominations out of all the lande of Iudah, and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken of mount Ephraim, and he renued the altar of the Lord, that was before the porche of the Lord. ⁹And he gathered all Iudah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for there fell many to him out of Israel, when they sawe that the Lord his God was with him. ¹⁰So they assembled to Ierusalem in the third moneth, in the fifteenth yere of the reigne of Asa. ¹¹And they offred vnto the Lord the same time of the spoyle, which they had brought, euen seuen hundreth bullockes, and seuen thousande sheepe. ¹²And they made a couenant to seeke the Lord God of their fathers, with all their heart, and with all their soule. ¹³And whosoeuer will not seeke the Lord God of Israel, shalbe slaine, whether he were small or great, man or woman. ¹⁴And they sware vnto the Lord with a loude voyce, and with shouting and with trumpets, and with cornets. ¹⁵And all Iudah reioyced at the othe: for they had sworne vnto the Lord with all their heart, and sought him with a whole desire, and he was founde of them. And the Lord gaue them rest rounde about. ¹⁶And King Asa deposed Maachah his mother from her regencie, because she had made an idole in a groue: and Asa brake downe her idole, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brooke Kidron. ¹⁷But the hie places were not taken away out of Israel: yet the heart of Asa was perfit all his dayes. ¹⁸Also he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicate, and that he had dedicate, siluer, and golde, and vessels. ¹⁹And there was no warre vnto the fife and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of Asa.

Benhadad King of Aram that dwelt at Damascus, saying, ³There is a couenant betweene me and thee, and betweene my father and thy father: behold, I haue sent thee siluer and golde: come, breake thy league with Baasha King of Israel that hee may depart from me. ⁴And Benhadad hearkened vnto King Asa, and sent the captaines of the armies which hee had, against the cities of Israel. And they smote Iion, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali. ⁵And when Baasha heard it, he left building of Ramah, and let his worke cease. ⁶Then Asa the King tooke all Iudah, and caryed away the stones of Ramah and the tymber thereof, wherewith Baasha did builde, and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah. ⁷And at that same time Hanani the Seer came to Asa King of Iudah, and saide vnto him, Because thou hast rested vpon the king of Aram, and not rested in the Lord thy God, therefore is the hoste of the King of Aram escaped out of thine hande. ⁸The Ethiopians and the Lubims, were they not a great hoste with charets and horsemen, exceeding many? yet because thou diddest rest vpon the Lord, he deliuered them into thine had. ⁹For the eyes of the Lord beholde all the earth to shewe him selfe strong with them that are of perfite heart towarde him: thou hast then done foolishly in this: therefore from henceforth thou shalt haue warres. ¹⁰Then Asa was wroth with the Seer, and put him into a prison: for he was displeased with him, because of this thing. And Asa oppressed certaine of the people at the same time. ¹¹And behold, the actes of Asa first and last, loe, they are written in the booke of the Kings of Iudah and Israel. ¹²And Asa in the nine and thirtieth yeere of his reigne was diseased in his feete, and his disease was extreme: yet he sought not the Lord in his disease, but to the Phisicians. ¹³So Asa slept with his fathers, and dyed in the one and fourtieth yeere of his reigne. ¹⁴And they buried him in one of his sepulchres, which he had made for him selfe in the citie of Dauid, and layed him in the bed, which they had filled with sweete odours and diuers kindes of spices made by the arte of the apoticarie: and they burnt odours for him with an exceeding great fire.

¹And Iehospat his sonne reigned in his steade, and preuailed against Israel. ²And he put garisons in all the strong cities of Iudah, and set bandes in the lande of Iudah and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken. ³And the Lord was with Iehoshaphat, because he walked in the first wayes of his father Dauid, and sought not Baalim, ⁴But sought the Lord God of his father, and walked in his commandements, and not after the trade of Israel. ⁵Therefore the Lord stablished the kingdome in his hande, and all Iudah brought presents to Iehoshaphat, so that he had of riches and honour in abundance. ⁶And he lift vp his heart vnto the wayes of the Lord, and he tooke away moreouer the hie places and the groues out of Iudah. ⁷And in the thirde yere of his reigne he sent his princes, Ben-hail, and

Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethaneel, and Michaiah, that they should teach in the cities of Iudah, ⁸And with them Leuites, Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Iehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobiah, and Tob-adonijah, Leuites, and with the Elishama and Iehoram Priestes. ⁹And they taught in Iudah, and had the booke of the Lawe of the Lord with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Iudah, and taught the people. ¹⁰And the feare of the Lord fell vpon all the kingdomes of ye lands that were round about Iudah, and they fought not against Iehoshaphat. ¹¹Also some of the Philistims brought Iehoshaphat giftes and tribute siluer, and the Arabians brought him flockes, seuen thousande and seuen hundreth rammes, and seuen thousande and seuen hundreth hee goates. ¹²So Iehoshaphat prospered and grewe vp on hie: and he built in Iudah palaces and cities of store. ¹³And he had great workes in the cities of Iudah, and men of warre, and valiant men in Ierusalem. ¹⁴And these are the numbers of them after the house of their fathers, In Iudah were captaines of thousands, Adnah the captaine, and with him of valiant men three hundreth thousande. ¹⁵And at his hande Iehohanan a captaine, and with him two hundreth and fourescore thousande. ¹⁶And at his hande Amasiah the sonne of Zichri, which willingly offered him selfe vnto the Lord, and with him two hundreth thousand valiant men. ¹⁷And of Benjamin, Eliada a valiant man, and with him armed men with bowe and shielde two hundreth thousand. ¹⁸And at his hand Iehozabad, and with him an hundreth and fourescore thousand armed to the warre. ¹⁹These waited on the King, besides those which the King put in the strong cities thoroughout all Iudah.

¹And Iehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, but he was ioyned in affinitie with Ahab. ²And after certaine yeeres he went downe to Ahab to Samaria: and

Ahab slew sheepe and oxen for him in great number, and for the people that he had with him, and entised him to goe vp vnto Ramoth Gilead. ³And Ahab King of Israel saide vnto Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, Wilt thou goe with mee to Ramoth Gilead? And hee answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people, and wee will ioyne with thee in the warre. ⁴And Iehoshaphat sayde vnto the King of Israel, Aske counsel, I pray thee, at the worde of the Lord this day. ⁵Therefore the King of Israel gathered of Prophets foure hundreth men, and sayde vnto them, Shall we goe to Ramoth Gilead to battel, or shall I cease? And they sayd, Go vp: for God shall deliuer it into the Kings hand. ⁶But Iehoshaphat sayde, Is there heere neuer a Prophet more of the Lord that wee might inquire of him? ⁷And the King of Israel sayd vnto Iehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whome wee may aske counsell of the Lord, but I hate him: for he doeth not prophesie good vnto me, but alway euil: it is Michaiah the sonne of Imla. Then

Iehoshaphat said, Let not the King say so. ⁸And the King of Israel called an eunuche, and said, Call quickly Michaiah the sonne of Imla. ⁹And the King of Israel, and Iehoshaphat King of Iudah sate either of them on his throne clothed in their apparel: they sate euen in the threshing floore at the entring in of the gate of Samaria: and all the Prophets prophesied before them. ¹⁰And Zidkiah ye sonne of Chenaanah made him hornes of yron, and sayde, Thus sayth the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Aramites vntill thou hast consumed them. ¹¹And all the Prophets prophesied so, saying, Go vp to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliuer it into the hand of the King. ¹²And the messenger that went to call Michaiah, spake to him, saying, Beholde, the wordes of the Prophets declare good to the King with one accord: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speake thou good. ¹³And Michaiah saide, As the Lord liueth, whatsoever my God saith, that will I speake. ¹⁴So he came to the King, and the King said vnto him, Michaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battel, or shall I leaue off? And he said, Goe yee vp, and prosper, and they shalbe deliuered into your hand. ¹⁵And the King sayd to him, Howe oft shall I charge thee, that thou tell mee nothing but the trueth in the Name of the Lord? ¹⁶Then he said, I saw al Israel scattered in the mountaines, as sheepe that haue no shepheard: and the Lord sayd, These haue no Master: let them returne euery man to his house in peace. ¹⁷And the King of Israel sayde to Iehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee, that he would not prophesie good vnto me, but euill? ¹⁸Againe hee saide, Therefore heare ye the worde of the Lord: I sawe the Lord sit vpon his throne, and all the hoste of heauen standing at his right hand, and at his left. ¹⁹And the Lord sayd, Who shall perswade Ahab King of Israel, that he may go vp, and fall at Ramoth Gilead? And one spake and said thus, and another said that. ²⁰Then there came forth a spirit and stode before the Lord, and said, I will perswade him.

And the Lord said vnto him, Wherein? ²¹And he saide, I will goe out, and bee a false spirit in the mouth of all his Prophets. And hee said, Thou shalt perswade, and shalt also preuaile: goe forth and do so. ²²Now therefore behold, the Lord hath put a false spirit in the mouth of these thy Prophets, and the Lord hath determined euill against thee. ²³Then Zidkiah the sonne of Chenaanah came neere, and smote Michaiah vpon the cheeke, and sayde, By what way went the Spirit of the Lord from me, to speake with thee? ²⁴And Michaiah saide, Behold, thou shalt see that day when thou shalt goe from chamber to chamber to hide thee. ²⁵And the King of Israel sayde, Take ye Michaiah, and cary him to Amon the gouernour of the citie, and to Ioash the Kings sonne, ²⁶And say, Thus saith the King, Put this man in the prison house, and feede him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction vntil I returne in peace. ²⁷And Michaiah said, If thou returne in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by me. And he saide, Heare, all ye people. ²⁸So the King of Israel and Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah went vp to Ramoth Gilead. ²⁹And the King of Israel said vnto Iehoshaphat, I will change my selfe, and enter into the battel: but put thou on thine apparel. So the King of Israel changed himselfe, and they went into the battel. ³⁰And the King of Aram had commanded the captaines of the charets that were with him, saying, Fight you not with small, nor great, but against the King of Israel onely. ³¹And when the captaines of the charets saw Iehoshaphat, they sayde, It is the King of Israel: and they compassed about him to fight. But Iehoshaphat cryed, and the Lord helped him and moued them to depart from him. ³²For when the captaines of the charets saw that hee was not the King of Israel, they turned backe from him. ³³Then a certaine man drewe a bowe mightily, and smote the King of Israel betweene the ioyntes of his brigandine: Therefore he saide to his charetman, Turne thine hand, and carie mee out of the host: for I am hurt. ³⁴And the battel increased that day: and the King of Israel stood still in his charet against the Aramites vntil euen, and dyed at the time of the sunne going downe.

¹And Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah returned safe to his house in Ierusalem. ²And Iehu the sonne of Hanani the Seer went out to meete him, and said to King Iehoshaphat, Wouldest thou helpe the wicked, and loue them that hate the Lord? therefore for this thing the wrath of the Lord is vpon thee. ³Neuertheles good things are found in thee, because thou hast taken away ye groues out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seeke God. ⁴So Iehoshaphat dwelt at Ierusalem, and returned and went through the people from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them againe vnto the Lord God of their fathers. ⁵And hee set iudges in the lande throughout all the strong cities of Iudah, citie by citie, ⁶And said to the iudges, Take heede what ye doe: for yee execute not the iudgements of man, but of the Lord, and he will be with you in the cause and iudgement. ⁷Wherefore nowe let the feare of the Lord be vpon you: take heede, and do it: for there is no iniquitie with the Lord our God, neither respect of persons, nor receiuing of reward.

⁸Moreouer in Ierusalem did Iehoshaphat set of the Leuites, and of the Priests and of the chiefe of the families of Israel, for the iudgement and cause of the Lord: and they returned to Ierusalem. ⁹And he charged them, saying, Thus shall yee doe in the feare of the Lord faithfully and with a perfite heart. ¹⁰And in euery cause that shall come to you of your brethren that dwel in their cities, betweene blood and blood, betweene law and precept, statutes and iudgements, ye shall iudge them, and admonish them that they trespasse not against the Lord, that wrath come not vpon you and vpon your brethren. This shall ye do and trespasse not. ¹¹And behold, Amariah the Priest shalbe the chiefe ouer you in all matters of the Lord, and Zebadiah ye sonne of Ishmael, a ruler of the house of Iudah, shalbe for al the Kings affaires, and the Leuites shalbe officers before you. Bee of courage, and doe it, and the Lord shalbe with the good.

¹After this also came the children of Moab and the children of Ammon, and with them of the Ammonites against Iehoshaphat to battell. ²Then there came that tolde Iehoshaphat, saying, There commeth a great multitude against thee from beyonde the Sea, out of Aram: and beholde, they bee in Hazzon Tamar, which is En-gedi. ³And Iehoshaphat feared, and set him selfe to seeke the Lord, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Iudah. ⁴And Iudah gathered them selues together to aske counsel of the Lord: they came euen out of all the cities of Iudah to inquire of the Lord, ⁵And Iehoshaphat stode in the Congregation of Iudah and Ierusalem in the house of the Lord before the new court, ⁶And saide, O Lord God of our fathers, art not thou God in heauen? and reignest not thou on all the kingdomes of the heathen? and in thine hande is power and might, and none is able to withstand thee. ⁷Diddest not thou our God cast out ye inhabitants of this lande before thy people Israel, and gauest it to the seede of Abraham thy friende for euer? ⁸And they dwelt therein, and haue built thee a Sanctuarie therein for thy Name, saying, ⁹If euill come vpon vs, as the sworde of iudgement, or pestilence, or famine, we will stande before this house and in thy presence (for thy name is in this house) and will crie vnto thee in our tribulation, and thou wilt heare and helpe. ¹⁰And now beholde, the children of Ammon and Moab, and mount Seir, by whome thou wouldest not let Israel goe, when they came out of the land of Egypt: but they turned aside from them, and destroyed them not: ¹¹Behold, I say, they reward vs, in comming to cast vs out of thine inheritance, which thou hast caused vs to inherit. ¹²O our God, wilt thou not iudge them? for there is no strength in vs to stand before this great multitude that commeth against vs, neither doe wee knowe what to doe: but our eyes are toward thee. ¹³And all Iudah stooode before the Lord with their yong ones, their wiues, and their children. ¹⁴And Iahaziel the sonne of Zechariah the sonne of Benaiah, the sonne of Ieiel, the sonne of Mattaniah, a Leuite of the sonnes of Asaph was there, vpon whome came the Spirite of ye Lord, in the middes of the Congregation. ¹⁵And he said, Harken ye, all Iudah, and ye inhabitantes of Ierusalem, and thou, King Iehoshaphat: thus saith the Lord vnto you, Feare you not, neither be afraide for this great multitude: for the battel is not yours, but Gods. ¹⁶To morowe goe yee downe against them: beholde, they come vp by the cleft of Ziz, and ye shall finde them at the ende of the brooke before the wilderness of Ieruel. ¹⁷Ye shall not neede to fight in this battell: stand still, moue not, and behold the saluation of the Lord towards you: O Iudah, and Ierusalem, feare ye not, neither be afraid: to morow goe out against them, and the Lord wilbe with you. ¹⁸Then Iehoshaphat bowed downe with his face to the earth, and all Iudah and the inhabitants of Ierusalem fell downe before the Lord, worshipping the Lord. ¹⁹And the Levites of the children of the Kohathites and of the childre of the Corhites stood vp to prayse the Lord God of Israel with a loude voyce on hie. ²⁰And when they arose early in the morning, they went forth to the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they departed, Iehoshaphat stode and sayde, Heare ye me, O Iudah, and ye inhabitants of Ierusalem: put your trust in the Lord your God, and ye shalbe assured: beleue his Prophets, and ye shall prosper. ²¹And when he had consulted with the people, and appoynted singers vnto the Lord, and them that should prayse him that is in the beautifull Sanctuarie, in going forth before the men of armes, and saying, Prayse ye the Lord, for his mercy lasteth for euer, ²²And when they began to shoute, and to prayse, the Lord layed ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Iudah, and they slewe one another. ²³For the children of Ammon and Moab rose against the inhabitants of mount Seir, to slay and to destroy them and when they had made an end of the inhabitantes of Seir, euery one helped to destroy another. ²⁴And when Iudah came towarde Mizpah in the wildernes, they looked vnto the multitude: and behold, the carkeises were fallen to the earth, and none escaped. ²⁵And when Iehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoyle of them, they founde among them in abundance both of substance and also of bodies laden with precious iewels, which they tooke for themselues, till they could cary no more: they were three dayes in gathering of the spoyle: for it was much. ²⁶And in the fourth day they assembled themselues in the valley of Berachah: for there they blessed the Lord: therefore they called the name of that place, The valley of Berachah vnto this day. ²⁷Then euery man of Iudah and Ierusalem returned with

Iehoshaphat their head, to goe againe to Ierusalem with ioy: for the Lord had made them to reioyce ouer their enemies. ²⁸And they came to Ierusalem with viols and with harpes, and with trumpets, euen vnto the house of the Lord. ²⁹And the feare of God was vpon all the kingdomes of the earth, whe they had heard that the Lord had fought against ye enemies of Israel. ³⁰So the kingdom of Iehoshaphat was quiet, and his God gaue him rest on euery side. ³¹And Iehoshaphat reigned ouer Iudah, and was fiue and thirtie yeere olde, when he began to reigne: and reigned fiue and twentie yeere in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ³²And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not therefrom, doing that which was right in the sight of the Lord. ³³Howbeit the hie places were not taken away: for the people had not yet prepared their hearts vnto the God of their fathers. ³⁴Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoshaphat first and last, beholde, they are written in the booke of Iehu the sonne of Hanani, which is mentioned in the booke of the kings of Israel. ³⁵Yet after this did Iehoshaphat King of Iudah ioyne himselfe with Ahaziah King of Israel, who was giuen to do euill. ³⁶And he ioyned with him, to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the shippes in Ezion Gaber. ³⁷Then Eliezer ye sonne of Dodauah of Mareshah prophecied against Iehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast ioyned thy selfe with Ahaziah, the Lord hath broken thy workes. and the shippes were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

¹Iehoshaphat then slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid: and Iehoram his sonne reigned in his steade. ²And he had brethren the sonnes of Iehoshaphat, Azariah, and Iehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah. All these were the sonnes of Iehoshaphat King of Israel. ³And their father gaue them great giftes of siluer and of golde, and of precious things, with strong cities in Iudah, but the kingdome gaue he to Iehoram: for he was the eldest. ⁴And Iehoram rose vp vpon the kingdom of his father, and made himselfe strong, and slew all his brethren with the sworde, and also of the princes of Israel. ⁵Iehoram was two and thirtie yeere olde, when he began to reigne, and he reigned eyght yeere in Ierusalem. ⁶And he walked in the way of the Kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife, and he wrought euill in the eyes of the Lord. ⁷Howbeit the Lord would not destroy the house of Dauid, because of the couenant that he had made with Dauid, and because he had promised to giue a light to him, and to his sonnes for euer. ⁸In his dayes Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah, and made a King ouer them. ⁹And Iehoram went forth with his princes, and all his charets with him: and hee rose vp by night, and smote Edom, which had compassed him in, and the captaines of the charets. ¹⁰But Edom rebelled from vnder the hande of Iudah vnto this day. then did Libnah rebell at the same time from vnder his hand, because he had forsaken the Lord God of his fathers. ¹¹Moreouer hee made hie places in the mountaines of Iudah, and caused the inhabitants of Ierusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Iudah thereto. ¹²And there came a writing to him from Elijah the Prophet, saying, Thus sayth the Lord God of Dauid thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the wayes of Iehoshaphat thy father, nor in the wayes of Asa King of Iudah, ¹³But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Iudah and the inhabitantes of Ierusalem to go a whoring, as the house of Ahab went a whoring, and hast also slaine thy brethre of thy fathers house, which were better then thou, ¹⁴Beholde, with a great plague will the Lord smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wiues, and all thy substance, ¹⁵And thou shalt be in great diseases in the disease of thy bowels, vntill thy bowels fall out for the disease, day by day. ¹⁶So the Lord stirred vp against Iehoram the spirite of the Philistims, and the Arabians that were beside the Ethiopians. ¹⁷And they came vp into Iudah, and brake into it, and caryed away all the substance that was found in the Kings house, and his sonnes also, and his wiues, so that there was not a sonne left him, saue Iehoahaz, the yongest of his sonnes. ¹⁸And after all this, the Lord smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease. ¹⁹And in processe of time, euen after the end of two yeeres, his guttes fell out with his disease: so he dyed of sore diseases: and his people made no burning for him like the burning of his fathers. ²⁰When he began to reigne, he was two and thirtie yeere olde, and reigned in Ierusalem eight yeere, and liued without being desired: yet they buried him in the citie of Dauid, but not among the sepulchres of the Kings.

¹And the inhabitants of Ierusalem made Ahaziah his yongest sonne King in his steade: for the armie that came with the

Arabians to the campe, had slayne all the eldest: therefore Ahaziah the sonne of Iehoram King of Iudah reigned. ²Two and fourtie yeere olde was Ahaziah when he began to reigne, and he reigned one yeere in Ierusalem. and his mothers name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. ³He walked also in the wayes of the house of Ahab: for his mother counselled him to doe wickedly. ⁴Wherefore he did euill in the sight of the Lord, like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father, to his destruction. ⁵And he walked after their counsel, and went with Iehoram the sonne of Ahab King of Israel to fight against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead: and the Aramites smote Ioram. ⁶And he returned to be healed in Izreel, because of the woundes wherewith they had wounded him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael King of Aram. Nowe Azariah the sonne of Iehoram King of Iudah went downe to see Iehoram the sonne of Ahab at Izreel, because hee was diseased. ⁷And the destruction of Ahaziah came of God in that he went to Ioram: for when he was come, he went forth with Iehoram against Iehu the sonne of Nimshi, whom the Lord had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab. ⁸Therefore when Iehu executed iudgement vpon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Iudah and the sonnes of the brethren of Ahaziah that waited on Ahaziah, he slew them also. ⁹And he sought Ahaziah, and they caught him where he was hid in Samaria, and brought him to Iehu, and slewe him, and buried him, because, sayd they, he is the sonne of Iehoshaphat, which sought the Lord with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah was not able to reteine the kingdome. ¹⁰Therefore when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah sawe that her sonne was dead, shee arose and destroyed all the Kings seede of the house of Iudah. ¹¹But Iehoshabeath the daughter of ye King, tooke Ioash the sonne of Ahaziah, and stale him from among the Kings sonnes, that shoulde be slayne, and put him and his nource in the bed chamber: so Iehoshabeath the daughter of King Iehoram the wife of Iehoiada the Priest (for shee was the sister of Ahaziah) hid him from Athaliah: so she slew him not. ¹²And hee was with them hid in the house of God sixe yeeres, whiles Athaliah reigned ouer the land.

¹And in the seuenth yeere Iehoiada waxed bolde, and tooke the captaines of hundreths, to wit, Azariah the sonne of Ieroham, and Ishmael the sonne of Iehohanan, and Azariah the sonne of Obed, and Maasiah the sonne of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the sonne of Zichri in couenant with him. ²And they went about in Iudah, and gathered the Leuites out of all the cities of Iudah, and the chiefe fathers of Israel: and they came to Ierusale. ³And al the Congregation made a couenant with the King in the house of God: and he sayde vnto them, Behold, the Kings sonne must reigne, as the Lord hath sayd of the sonnes of Daud. ⁴This is it that ye shall do, The third part of you that come on the Sabbath of the Priests, and the Leuites, shalbe porters of the doores.

⁵And another third part towarde the Kings house, and another thirde part at the gate of the foundation, and al the people shalbe in the courts of the house of the Lord. ⁶But let none come into the house of the Lord, saue the Priests, and the Leuites that minister: they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keepe the watch of the Lord. ⁷And the Leuites shall compasse the King rounde about, and euery man with his weapon in his hand, and he that entreth into the house, shall be slaine, and be you with the King, when he commeth in, and when he goeth out. ⁸So the Leuites and all Iudah did according to all things that Iehoiada the Priest had commanded, and tooke euery man his men that came on the Sabbath, with them that went out on the Sabbath: for Iehoiada the Priest did not discharge the courses. ⁹And Iehoiada the Priest deliuered to the captaines of hundreths speares, and shieldes, and bucklers which had bene King Dauids, and were in the house of God. ¹⁰And he caused all the people to stand (euery man with his weapon in his hande) from the right side of the house, to ye left side of the house by the altar and by the house round about ye king. ¹¹Then they brought out the Kings sonne, and put vpon him the crowne and gaue him the testimonie, and made him King. And Iehoiada and his sonnes anoynted him, and sayd, God saue the King. ¹²But when Athaliah heard the noyse of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the Lord. ¹³And when she looked, beholde, the King stooode by his pillar at the entring in, and the princes and the trumpets by the King, and all the people of the land reioyced, and blew the trumpets, and the singers were with instruments of musike, and they that could sing prayse: then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Treason, treason. ¹⁴Then Iehoiada the Priest brought out the captaines of hundreths that were gouernours of the hoste, and said vnto them, Haue her foorth of the ranges, and he that followeth her, let him dye by the sword: for the Priest had said, Slay her not in the house of the Lord. ¹⁵So they layde hands on her: and when she was come to the entring of the horsegate by the Kings house, they slew her there. ¹⁶And Iehoiada made a couenant betweene him, and all the people, and the King, that they would be the Lords people. ¹⁷And all the people went to the house of Baal, and destroyed, and brake his altars and his images, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. ¹⁸And Iehoiada appointed officers for the house of the Lord, vnder the handes of the Priestes and Leuites, whome Dauid had distributed for the house of the Lord, to offer burnt offrings vnto the Lord, as it is written in the Law of Moses, with reioycing and singing by the appoyntment of Dauid. ¹⁹And he set porters by the gates of ye house of the Lord, that none that was vnclane in any thing, should enter in. ²⁰And he tooke the captaines of hundreths, and the noble men, and the gouernours of the people, and all the people of the land, and he caused the King to come downe out of the house of the Lord, and they went thorowe the hie gate of the Kings house, and set the King vpon the throne of the kingdome. ²¹Then all the people of the land reioyced, and the citie was quiet, after that they had slaine Athaliah with the sword.

¹Ioash was seuen yere olde, when he began to reigne, and he reigned fourty yeere in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. ²And Ioash did vprightly in the sight of the Lord, all the dayes of Iehoiada the Priest. ³And Iehoiada tooke him two wiues, and he begate sonnes and daughters. ⁴And afterward it came into Ioash mind, to renew the house of the Lord. ⁵And he assembled the Priests and the Leuites, and said to them, Goe out vnto the cities of Iudah, and gather of all Israel money to repaire the house of your God, from yeere to yeere, and haste the thing: but the Leuites hasted not. ⁶Therefore the King called Iehoiada, the chiefe, and said vnto him, Why hast thou not required of the Leuites to bring in out of

Iudah and Ierusalem the taxe of Moses the seruant of the Lord, and of the Congregation of Israel, for the Tabernacle of the testimonie? ⁷For wicked Athaliah, and her children brake vp the house of God: and all the things that were dedicate for the house of the Lord, did they bestowe vpon Baalim. ⁸Therefore the King commanded, and they made a chest, and set it at the gate of the house of the Lord without. ⁹And they made proclamation thorow Iudah and Ierusalem, to bring vnto the Lord the taxe of Moses the seruant of God, layde vpon Israel in the wilderness. ¹⁰And all the princes and all the people reioycd, and brought in, and cast into the chest, vntill they had finished. ¹¹And when it was time, they brought the chest vnto the Kings officer by the hand of the Leuites: and when they saw that there was much siluer, then the Kings Scribe (and one appoynted by the hie Priest) came and emptied the chest, and tooke it, and caried it to his place againe: thus they did day by day, and gathered siluer in abundance.

¹²And the King and Iehoiada gaue it to such as did the labour and worke in the house of the Lord, and hyred masons and carpenters to repayre the house of the Lord: they gaue it also to workers of yron and brasse, to repayre the house of the Lord. ¹³So the workemen wrought, and the worke amended through their hands: and they restored the house of God to his state, and strengthened it. ¹⁴And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the siluer before the King and Iehoiada, and he made thereof vessels for the house of the Lord, euen vessels to minister, both morters and incense cuppes, and vessels of golde, and of siluer: and they offred burnt offerings in the house of the Lord continually all the dayes of Iehoiada. ¹⁵But Iehoiada waxed olde, and was ful of dayes and dyed. An hundreth and thirtie yeere olde was he when he dyed. ¹⁶And they buried him in the citie of Dauid with the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house. ¹⁷And after the death of Iehoiada, came the princes of

Iudah, and did reuerence to the King, and the King hearkened vnto them. ¹⁸And they left the house of the Lord God of their fathers, and serued groues and idoles: and wrath came vpon Iudah and Ierusalem, because of this their trespasse. ¹⁹And God sent Prophets amog the, to bring them againe vnto the Lord: and they made protestation among them, but they would not heare. ²⁰And the Spirit of God came vpon Zechariah the sonne of Iehoiada the Priest, which stode aboute the people, and sayde vnto them, Thus sayth God, Why transgresse ye the commandements of the Lord? surely ye shall not prosper: because ye haue forsaken the Lord, he also hath forsaken you. ²¹Then they conspired against him and stoned him with stones at the commandement of the King, in the court of the house of the Lord. ²²Thus Ioash the King remembred not the kindnesse which Iehoiada his father had done to him, but slewe his sonne. And when he dyed, he sayd, The Lord looke vpon it, and require it. ²³And when the yeere was out, the host of Aram came vp against him, and they came against Iudah and Ierusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoyle of them vnto the King of Damascus. ²⁴Though the armie of Aram came with a small company of men, yet the Lord deliuered a very great armie into their hand, because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers: and they gaue sentence against Ioash. ²⁵And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases) his owne seruants conspired against him for the blood of the children of Iehoiada the Priest, and slewe him on his bed, and he dyed, and they buryed him in the citie of Dauid: but they buryed him not in the sepulchres of the Kings. ²⁶And these are they that conspired against him, Zabad the sonne of Shimrath an Ammonitesse, and Iehozabad the sonne of Shimrith a Moabitesse. ²⁷But his sonnes, and the summe of the tax gathered by him, and the foundation of the house of God, behold, they are written in the storie of the booke of the Kings. And Amaziah his sonne reigned in his steade.

¹Amaziah was fīue and twentie yere old when he began to reigne, and he reigned nine and twentie yeere in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Iehoaddan, of Ierusalem. ²And he did vprightly in the eyes of the Lord, but not with a perfite heart. ³And when the kingdome was established vnto him, he slewe his seruants, that had slaine the King his father. ⁴But he slewe not their children, but did as it is written in the Lawe, and in the booke of Moses, where the Lord commanded, saying, The fathers shall not dye for the children, neyther shall the children die for the fathers, but euery man shall dye for his owne sinne. ⁵And Amaziah assembled Iudah, and made them captaines ouer thousandes, and captaines ouer hundreths, according to the houses of their fathers, thorowout all Iudah and Benjamin: and he nombred them from twentie yeere olde and aboue, and founde among them three hundreth thousand chosen men, to goe foorth to the warre, and to handle speare and shield. ⁶He hyred also an hundreth thousand valiant men out of Israel for an hundreth talents of siluer. ⁷But a man of God came to him, saying, O King, let not the armie of Israel goe with thee: for the Lord is not with Israel, neither with all the house of Ephraim. ⁸If not, goe thou on, doe it, make thy selfe strong to the battel, but God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to helpe, and to cast downe. ⁹And Amaziah sayde to the man of God, What shall we doe then for the hundreth talents, which I haue giuen to the hoste of Israel? Then the man of God answered, The Lord is able to giue thee more then this. ¹⁰So Amaziah separated them, to wit, the armie that was come to him out of Ephraim, to returne to their place: wherefore their wrath was kindled greatly against Iudah, and they returned to their places with great anger. ¹¹Then Amaziah was encouraged, and led forth his people, and went to the salt valley, and smote of the children of Seir, ten thousand.

¹²And other ten thousand did the children of Iudah take alieue, and caryed them to the top of a rocke, and cast them downe from the top of the rocke, and they all burst to pieces. ¹³But the men of the armie, which Amaziah sent away, that they should not goe with his people to battell, fell vpon the cities of Iudah from Samaria vnto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and tooke much spoyle. ¹⁴Now after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them vp to be his gods, and worshipped them, and burned incense vnto them. ¹⁵Wherefore the Lord was wroth with Amaziah, and sent vnto him a Prophet, which sayd vnto him, Why hast thou sought the gods of the people, which were not able to deliuer their owne people out of thine hand? ¹⁶And as he talked with him, he said vnto him, Haue they made thee the Kings counselor? cease thou: why should they smite thee? And the Prophet ceased, but said, I knowe that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not obeyed my counsell. ¹⁷Then Amaziah King of Iudah tooke counsell, and sent to Ioash the sonne of Iehoahaz, the sonne of Iehu King of Israel, saying, Come, let vs see one another in the face. ¹⁸But Ioash King of Israel sent to Amaziah King of Iudah, saying, The thistle that is in Lebanon, sent to the cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, Giue thy daughter to my sonne to wife: and the wilde beast that was in Lebanon went and trode downe the thistle. ¹⁹Thou thinkest: lo, thou hast smitten Edom, and thine heart lifteth thee vp to bragge: abide now at home: why doest thou prouoke to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, and Iudah with thee? ²⁰But Amaziah would not heare: for it was of God, that he might deliuer them into his had, because they had sought the gods of Edom. ²¹So Ioash the King of Israel went vp: and he, and Amaziah King of Iudah saw one another in the face at Bethshemesh, which is in Iudah. ²²And Iudah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled euery man to his tents. ²³But

Ioash the King of Israel tooke Amaziah King of Iudah, the sonne of Ioash, the sonne of Iehoahaz in Bethshemesh, and brought him to Ierusalem, and brake downe the wall of Ierusalem, from the gate of Ephraim vnto the corner gate, foure hundreth cubites. ²⁴And he tooke all the gold and the siluer, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed Edom, and in the treasures of the Kings house, and the children that were in hostage, and returned to Samaria. ²⁵And Amaziah the sonne of Ioash King of Iudah liued after the death of Ioash sonne of Iehoahaz King of Israel, fifteene yeere. ²⁶Concerning the rest of the actes of Amaziah first and last, are they not written in the booke of the Kings of Iudah and Israel? ²⁷Nowe after the time that Amaziah did turne away from ye Lord, they wrought treason against him in Ierusalem: and when he was fled to Lachish, they sent to Lachish after him, and slewe him there. ²⁸And they brought him vpon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the citie of Iudah.

¹Then all the people of Iudah tooke Vzziah, which was sixteene yeere olde, and made him King in the steade of his father Amaziah. ²He buylt Eloth, and restored it to Iudah after that the King slept with his fathers. ³Sixteene yeere olde was Vzziah, when he began to reigne, and he reigned two and fiftie yere in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Iecoliah of Ierusalem. ⁴And hee did vprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to al that his father Amaziah did. ⁵And he sought God in the dayes of Zechariah (which vnderstoode the visions of God) and when as he sought the Lord, God made him to prosper. ⁶For he went forth and fought against the Philistims and brake downe the wall of Gath, and the wall of Iabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities in Ashdod, and among the Philistims. ⁷And God helped him against ye Philistims, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal and

Hammeunim. ⁸And the Ammonites gaue gifts to Vzziah, and his name spred to the entring in of Egypt: for he did most valiantly. ⁹Moreouer Uzziash buylt towres in Ierusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning, and made them strong. ¹⁰And he built towres in the wilderness, and digged many cisternes: for he had much cattell both in the valleyes and playnes, plowmen, and dressers of vines in the mountaines, and in Carmel: for he loued husbandrie. ¹¹Vzziah had also an hoste of fighting men that went out to warre by bandes, according to the count of their number vnder the hande of Ieiel the Scribe, and Maaseiah the ruler, and vnder the hand of Hananiah, one of the Kings captaines. ¹²The whole number of the chiefe of the families of the valiant men were two thousande and sixe hundreth. ¹³And vnder their hande was the armie for warre, three hundreth and seuen thousand, and fiue hundreth that fought valiantly to helpe the King against theemie. ¹⁴And Vzziah prepared them throughout all the

hoste, shieldes, and speares, and helmets, and brigandines, and bowes, and stones to sling. ¹⁵He made also very artificial engins in Ierusalem, to be vpon the towres and vpon the corners, to shoote arrowes and great stones: and his name spred farre abroad, because God did helpe him marueilously, till he was mightie. ¹⁶But when he was strong, his heart was lift vp to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the Temple of the Lord to burne incense vpon the altar of incense. ¹⁷And Azariah the Priest went in after him, and with him foure score Priests of the Lord, valiant men. ¹⁸And they withstood Vzziah the King, and said vnto him, It pertaineth not to thee, Vzziah, to burne incense vnto the Lord, but to the Priests the sonnes of Aaron, that are consecrated for to offer incense: goe forth of the Sanctuarie: for thou hast transgressed, and thou shalt haue none honour of the Lord God. ¹⁹Then Vzziah was wroth, and had incense in his hand to burne it: and while he was wroth with the Priestes, the leprosie rose vp in his forehead before the Priestes in the house of the Lord beside the incense altar. ²⁰And when Azariah the chiefe Priest with al the Priestes looked vpon him, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they caused him hastily to depart thence: and he was euen compelled to go out, because the Lord had smitten him. ²¹And Vzziah the king was a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt as a leper in an house apart, because he was cut off from the house of ye Lord: and Iotham his sonne ruled ouer the Kings house, and iudged the people of the land. ²²Concerning the rest of the acts of Vzziah, first and last, did Isaiah the Prophet the sonne of Amoz write. ²³So Vzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the fiele of the burial, which pertained to the kings: for they said, He is a leper. And Iotham his sonne reigned in his steade.

¹Iotham was fife and twentie yere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned sixteene yeere in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Ierushah the daughter of Zadok. ²And hee did vprightly in the sight of the Lord according to all that his father Vzziah did, saue that hee entred not into the Temple of the Lord, and the people did yet corrupt their wayes. ³He buylt the hie gate of the house of the Lord, and he buylt very much on the wall of the castle. ⁴Moreouer hee buylt cities in the mountaines of Iudah, and in the forests he buylt palaces and towres. ⁵And he fought with the King of the children of Ammon, and preuailed against them. And the children of Ammon gaue him the same yere an hundreth talents of siluer, and ten thousande measures of wheate, and ten thousand of barley: this did the children of Ammon giue him both in the second yeere and the third. ⁶So Iotham became mightie because hee directed his way before the Lord his God. ⁷Concerning the rest of the acts of Iotham, and all his warres and his wayes, loe, they are written in the booke of the Kings of Israel, and Iudah. ⁸He was fife and twentie yeere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned sixteene yeere in Ierusalem. ⁹And Iotham slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in the cite of Dauid: and Ahaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

¹Ahaz was twentie yeere old when he began to reigne, and reigned sixteene yeere in Ierusalem, and did not vprightly in the sight of the Lord, like Dauid his father. ²But he walked in the wayes of ye Kings of Israel, and made euen molten images for Baalim. ³Moreouer he burnt incense in the valley of Ben-hinnom, and burnt his sonnes with fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel. ⁴He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the hie places, and on hilles, and vnder euery greene tree. ⁵Wherefore the Lord his God deliuered him into the hand of the King of the Aramites, and they smote him, and tooke of his, many prisoners, and brought them to Damascus: and he was also deliuered into the hande of the King of Israel, which smote him with a great slaughter. ⁶For Pekah the sonne of Remaliah slewe in Iudah sixe score thousand in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers. ⁷And Zichri a mighty man of Ephraim slew Maaseiah the Kings sonne, and Azrikam the gouernour of the house, and Elkanah the second after the King. ⁸And the children of Israel tooke prisoners of their brethren, two hudreth thousand of women, sonnes and daughters, and caried away much spoyle of them, and brought the spoyle to Samaria. ⁹But there was a Prophet of the Lordes, (whose name was Oded) and he went out before the hoste that came to Samaria, and said vnto them, Behold, because the Lord God of your fathers is wroth with Iudah, he hath deliuered them into your hand, and ye haue slaine them in a rage, that reacheth vp to heauen. ¹⁰And now ye purpose to keepe vnder the children of Iudah and Ierusalem, as seruants and handmaides vnto you: but are not you such, that sinnes are with you before the Lord your God?

¹¹Nowe therefore heare me, and deliuer the captiues againe, which ye haue taken prisoners of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the Lord is toward you.

¹²Wherefore certaine of the chiefe of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the sonne of Iehohanan, Berechiah the sonne of Meshillemoth, and Iehizkiah the sonne of Shallum, and Amasa the sonne of Hadlai, stood vp against them that came from the warre, ¹³And said vnto them, Bring not in the captiues hither: for this shalbe a sinne vpon vs against the Lord: ye entende to adde more to our sinnes and to our trespasse, though our trespasse be great, and the fierce wrath of God is against Israel. ¹⁴So the armie left the captiues and the spoyle before the princes and all the Congregation.

¹⁵And the men that were named by name, rose vp and tooke the prisoners, and with the spoyle clothed all that were naked among them, and arayed them, and shod them, and gaue them meate, and gaue them drinke, and anoynted them, and caryed all that were feeble of them vpon asses, and brought them to Iericho the citie of Palme trees to their brethren:

so they returned to Samaria. ¹⁶At that time did King Ahaz sende vnto the Kings of Asshur, to helpe him. ¹⁷(For the Edomites came moreouer, and slew of Iudah, and caryed away captiues.

¹⁸The Philistims also inuaded the cities in the low countrey, and toward the South of Iudah, and tooke Bethshemesh, and Aialon, and Gederoth and Shocho, with the villages thereof, and Timnah, with her villages, and Gimzo, with her villages, and they dwelt there.

¹⁹For the Lord had humbled Iudah, because of Ahaz King of Israel: for he had brought vengeance vpon Iudah, and had grievously transgressed against the Lord) ²⁰And Tilgath Pilneaser king of Asshur came vnto him, who troubled him and did not strengthen him. ²¹For Ahaz tooke a portion out of the house of the Lord and out of the Kings house and of the Princes, and gaue vnto the king of Asshur: yet it helped him not. ²²And in ye time of his tribulation did he yet trespasse more against ye Lord, (this is King Ahaz) ²³For he sacrificed vnto the gods of Damascus, which plagued him, and he sayd, Because the gods of the Kings of Aram helped them, I wil sacrifice vnto them, and they will helpe me: yet they were his ruine, and of all Israel. ²⁴And Ahaz gathered the vessels of ye house of God, and brake the vessels of the house of God, and shut vp the doores of the house of the Lord, and made him altars in euery corner of Ierusalem. ²⁵And in euery citie of Iudah hee made hie places, to burne incense vnto other gods, and prouoked to anger the Lord God of his fathers. ²⁶Concerning the rest of his actes, and all his wayes first and last, beholde, they are written in the booke of the Kings of Iudah, and Israel. ²⁷And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Ierusalem, but brought him not vnto the sepulchres of the Kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

¹Hezekiah began to reigne, when he was fiue and twentie yeere olde, and reigned nine and twentie yeres in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Abiiah the daughter of Zechariah. ²And hee did vprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Dauid his father had done. ³He opened the doores of the house of the Lord in the first yeere, and in the first moneth of his reigne, and repaired them. ⁴And he brought in the Priests and the Leuites, and gathered them into the East streete, ⁵And said vnto them, Heare me, ye Leuites: sanctifie nowe your selues, and sanctifie the house of the Lord God of your fathers, and cary forth the filthinesse out of the Sanctuarie. ⁶For our fathers haue trespassed, and done euill in the eyes of the Lord our God, and haue forsaken him, and turned away their faces from the Tabernacle of the Lord, and turned their backs. ⁷They haue also shut the doores of ye porch, and quenched the lampes, and haue neither burnt incense, nor offred burnt offrings in the Sanctuarie vnto the God of Israel.

⁸Wherefore the wrath of the Lord hath bin on Iudah and Ierusalem: and he hath made them a scattering, a desolation, and an hissing, as ye see with your eyes. ⁹For lo, our fathers are fallen by the sword, and our sonnes, and our daughters, and our wiues are in captiuitie for the same cause. ¹⁰Now I purpose to make a couenant with the Lord God of Israel, that he may turne away his fierce wrath from vs. ¹¹Now my sonnes, be not deceiued: for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before him, to serue him, and to be his ministers, and to burne incense. ¹²Then the Leuites arose, Mahath ye sonne of Amashai, and Ioel the sonne of Azariah of the sonnes of the Kohathites: and of the sonnes of Merari, Kish the sonne of Abdi, and Azariah the sonne of Iehalelel: and of the Gershonites, Ioah the sonne of Zimmah, and Eden the sonne of Ioah: ¹³And of the sonnes of Elizaphan, Shimri, and Iehiel: and of the sonnes of Asaph, Zechariah, and Mattaniah: ¹⁴And of the sonnes of Heman, Iehiel, and Shimei: and of the sonnes of

Ieduthun, Shemaiah and Vzziel. ¹⁵And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselues and came according to the commandement of the King, and by the words of the Lord, for to cense the house of the Lord. ¹⁶And the Priests went into the inner partes of the house of the Lord, to cense it, and brought out all the vncleannesse that they founde in the Temple of the Lord, into the court of the house of the Lord: and the Leuites tooke it, to cary it out vnto the brooke Kidron. ¹⁷They began the first day of the first moneth to sanctifie it, and the eight day of the moneth came they to the porche of the Lord: so they sanctified the house of the Lord in eight dayes, and in the sixteenth day of the first moneth they made an ende. ¹⁸Then they went in to Hezekiah ye King, and sayde, We haue censed all the house of the Lord and the altar of burnt offring, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof: ¹⁹And all the vessels which King Ahaz had cast aside when he reigned, and transgressed, haue we prepared and sanctified: and beholde, they are before the altar of the Lord. ²⁰And Hezekiah the King rose early, and gathered the princes of the citie, and went vp to the house of the Lord. ²¹And they brought seuen bullockes, and seuen rammes, and seuen lambes, and seuen hee goates, for a sinne offering for the kingdome, and for the sanctuarie, and for Iudah. And he commanded the Priests the sonnes of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the Lord. ²²So they slewe the bullockes, and the Priests receiued the blood, and sprinkled it vpon the altar: they slew also the rammes and sprinkled the blood vpon the altar, and they slew the lambes, and they sprinkled the blood vpon the altar. ²³Then they brought the hee goates for the sinne offering before the King and the Congregation, and they layde their hands vpon them. ²⁴And the Priests slewe them, and with the blood of them they clensed the altar to reconcile all Israel: for the King had commanded for all Israel the burnt offering and the sinne offering. ²⁵He appointed also the Leuites in the house of the Lord with cymbales, with viales, and with harpes, according to the commandement of Dauid, and Gad the Kings Seer, and Nathan the Prophet: for the commandement was by the hande of the Lord, and by the hande of his Prophets. ²⁶And the Leuites stood with the instruments of Dauid, and the Priests with the trumpets. ²⁷And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering vpon the altar: and when the burnt offering began, the song of the Lord beganne with the trumpets, and the instruments of Dauid King of Israel. ²⁸And al the Congregation worshipped, singing a song, and they blew the trumpets: all this continued vntill the burnt offering was finished. ²⁹And when they had made an ende of offering, the King and all that were present with him, bowed themselues, and worshipped. ³⁰Then Hezekiah the King and the princes commanded the Leuites to prayse the Lord with the wordes of Dauid, and of Asaph the Seer. so they prayed with ioy, and they bowed themselves, and worshipped. ³¹And Hezekiah spake, and sayde, Now ye haue consecrate yourselves to the Lord: come neere and bring the sacrifices and offerings of prayse into the house of the Lord. And the Congregation brought sacrifices; and offrings of prayes, and euery man that was willing in heart, offred burnt offrings. ³²And the number of the burnt offrings, which the Congregation brought, was seuentie bullockes, an hundreth rammes, and two hundreth lambes: all these were for a burnt offering to the Lord: ³³And for sanctification sixe hundreth bullockes, and three thousand sheepe. ³⁴But the Priests were too few, and were not able to flay all the burnt offrings: therefore their brethren the Leuites did helpe them, til they had ended the worke, and vntill other Priests were sanctified: for the Leuites were more vpright in heart to sanctifie themselves, then the Priests. ³⁵And also the burnt offerings were many with the fat of the peace offrings and the drinke offrings for the burnt offering. so the seruice of the house of the Lord was set in order. ³⁶Then Hezekiah reioyced and all the people, that God had made the people so ready: for the thing was done suddenly.

¹And Hezekiah sent to all Israel, and Iudah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the Lord at Ierusalem, to keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord God of Israel. ²And the King and his princes and all the Congregation had taken counsel in Ierusalem to keepe the Passeouer in the second moneth. ³For they could not keepe it at this time, because there were not Priests enow sanctified, neither was the people gathered to Ierusalem. ⁴And the thing pleased the King, and all the Congregation. ⁵And they decreed to make proclamation throughout all Israel from Beersheba euen to Dan, that they should come to keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord God of Israel at Ierusalem: for they had not done it of a great time, as it was written. ⁶So the

postes went with letters by the commission of the King, and his princes, thorowout all Israel and Iudah, and with the commandement of the King, saying, Ye children of Israel, turne againe vnto the Lord God of Abraham, Izhak, and Israel, and he will returne to the remnant that are escaped of you, out of ye hands of the Kings of Asshur. ⁷And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the Lord God of their fathers: and therefore he made them desolate, as ye see. ⁸Be not ye now stiffnecked like your fathers, but giue the hand to the Lord, and come into his sanctuarie, which he hath sanctified for euer, and serue the Lord your God, and the fiercenesse of his wrath shall turne away from you. ⁹For if ye returne vnto the Lord, your brethren and your children shall finde mercy before them that led them captiues, and they shall returne vnto this lande: for the Lord your God is gracious and mercifull, and will not turne away his face from you, if ye conuert vnto him. ¹⁰So the postes went from citie to citie thorow the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, euen vnto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorne, and mocked them. ¹¹Neuerthesse diuers of Asher, and Manasseh, and of Zebulun submitted themselues, and came to Ierusalem. ¹²And the hand of God was in Iudah, so that he gaue them one heart to doe the commandement of the King, and of the rulers, according to the worde of the Lord. ¹³And there assembled to Ierusalem much people, to keepe the feast of ye vnleauened bread in the second moneth, a very great assemblie. ¹⁴And they arose, and tooke away the altars that were in Ierusalem: and all those for incense tooke they away, and cast them into the brooke Kidron. ¹⁵Afterwarde they slewe the Passeouer the fourteenth day of the seconde moneth: and the Priestes and Leuites were ashamed, and sanctified themselues, and brought the burnt offrings into the house of the Lord. ¹⁶And they stode in their place after their maner, according to the Lawe of

Moses the man of God: and the Priestes sprinkled the blood, receiued of the handes of the Leuites. ¹⁷Because there were many in the Congregation that were not sanctified, therefore the Leuites had the charge of the killing of ye Passeouer for all that were not cleane, to sanctifie it to the Lord. ¹⁸For a multitude of the people, euen a multitude of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun had not cleansed themselues, yet did eate the Passeouer, but not as it was written: wherefore Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good Lord be mercifull toward him, ¹⁹That prepareth his whole heart to seeke the Lord God, the God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed, according to the purification of the Sanctuarie. ²⁰And the Lord heard Hezekiah, and healed the people. ²¹And the children of Israel that were present at Ierusalem, kept the feast of the vnleauened bread seuen dayes with great ioye, and the Leuites, and the Priestes prayed the Lord, day by day, singing with loude instruments vnto the Lord. ²²And Hezekiah spake comfortably vnto all the Leuites that had good knowledge to sing vnto the Lord: and they did eate in that feast seuen dayes, and offred peace offrings, and prayed the Lord God of their fathers. ²³And the whole assembly tooke counsel to keepe it other seuen dayes. So they kept it seuen dayes with ioy. ²⁴For Hezekiah King of Iudah had giuen to the Congregation a thousande bullockes, and seuen thousand sheepe. And the princes had giuen to the Congregation a thousand bullocks, and ten thousand sheepe: and many Priestes were sanctified. ²⁵And all the Congregation of Iudah reioyced with the Priestes and the Leuites, and all the Congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Iudah. ²⁶So there was great ioye in Ierusalem: for since the time of Salomon the sonne of Dauid King of Israel there was not the like thing in Ierusalem. ²⁷Then the Priestes and the Leuites arose, and blessed the people, and their voyce was heard, and their prayer came vp vnto heauen, to his holy habitation.

¹And when all these things were finished, all Israel that were found in the cities of Iudah, went out and brake the images, and cut downe the groues, and brake downe the hie places, and the altars thorowout all Iudah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, vntil they had made an ende: afterwarde all the children of Israel returned euery man to his possession, into their owne cities. ²And Hezekiah appoynted the courses of the Priests and Leuites by their turnes, euery man according to his office, both Priestes and Leuites, for the burnt offering and peace offerings, to minister and to giue thanks, and to prayse in the gates of the tentes of the Lord. ³(And the Kings portion was of his owne substance for the burnt offerings, euen for ye burnt offerings of the morning and of the euening, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, and for the new moones, and for the solemne feastes, as it is written in the Law of the Lord) ⁴He commanded also the people that dwelt in Ierusalem, to giue a part to the Priestes, and Leuites, that they might be encouraged in the Law of the Lord. ⁵And when the commandement was spread, the children of Israel brought abundance of first frutes, of corne, wine, and oyle, and honie, and of all the increase of the fiede, and the tithes of all things brought they abundantly. ⁶And the children of Israel and Iudah that dwelt in ye cities of Iudah, they also brought the tithes of bullockes and sheepe, and the holy tithes which were consecrate vnto the Lord their God, and laide them on many heapes. ⁷In the thirde moneth they beganne to lay the foundation of the heapes, and finished them in the seuenth moneth. ⁸And when Hezekiah and the princes came, and saw the heapes, they blessed the Lord and his people Israel. ⁹And Hezekiah questioned with the Priests and the Leuites concerning the heapes. ¹⁰And Azariah the chiefe Priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and sayde, Since the people beganne to bring the offrings into the house of the Lord, we haue eaten and haue bene satisfied, and there is left in abundance: for the Lord hath blessed his people, and this abundance that is left. ¹¹And Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the Lord: and they prepared them, ¹²And caryed in the first frutes, and the tithes, and the dedicate things faithfully: and ouer them was Conaniah the Leuite, the chiefe, and Shimei his brother the seconde. ¹³And Iehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Ierimoth, and Iozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah were ouerseers by the appointment of Conaniah, and Shimei his brother, and by the commandement of Hezekiah the King, and of Azariah the chiefe of the house of God. ¹⁴And Kore the sonne of Imnah the Leuite porter toward the East, was ouer the things that were willingly offred vnto God, to distribute the oblations of the Lord, and the holy things that were consecrate. ¹⁵And at his hande were Eden, and Miniamin, and Ieshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shechaniah, in the cities of the Priestes, to distribute with fidelitie to their brethren by courses, both to the great and small, ¹⁶Their daily portion: beside their generation being males from three yeere olde and aboue, euen to all that entred into the house of the Lord to their office in their charge, according to their courses: ¹⁷Both to the generation of the Priestes after the house of their fathers, and to the Leuites from twentie yeere olde and aboue, according to their charge in their courses: ¹⁸And to the generation of all their children, their wiues, and their sonnes and their daughters throughout all ye Congregation: for by their fidelitie are they partakers of the holy things. ¹⁹Also to the sonnes of Aaron, the Priestes, which were in the fieldes and suburbs of their cities, in euery citie the men that were appointed by names, shoulde giue portions to all the males of the Priestes, and to all the generation of the Leuites. ²⁰And thus did Hezekiah throughout al Iudah, and did well, and vprightly, and truely before the Lord his God. ²¹And in all the workes that he began for the seruice of the house of God, both in the Law and in the commandements, to seeke his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

¹After these things faithfully described, Saneherib King of Asshur came and entred into Iudah, and besieged the strong cities, and thought to winne them for him selfe. ²When Hezekiah sawe that Saneherib was come, and that his purpose was to fight against Ierusalem, ³Then he tooke counsell with his princes and his nobles, to stoppe the water of the fountaines without the citie: and they did helpe him. ⁴So many of the people assembled themselues, and stopt all the fountaines, and the riuer that ranne through the middes of the countrey, saying, Why should the Kings of Asshur come, an^{6,83} cmd finde much water? ⁵And he tooke courage, and built all the broken wall, and made vp the towers, and another wall without, and repayred Millo in the citie of Daudid, and made many dartes and shields. ⁶And he set captaines of warre ouer the people, and assembled them to him in the broade place of the gate of the citie, and spake comfortably vnto them, saying, ⁷Be strong and couragious: feare not, neither be afraide for the King of Asshur, neither for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with vs, then is with him. ⁸With him is an arme of flesh, but with vs is the Lord our God for to helpe vs, and to fight our battels. Then the people were confirmed by the wordes of Hezekiah King of Iudah. ⁹After this, did Saneherib King of Asshur send his seruants to Ierusalem (while he was against Lachish, and all his dominion with him) vnto Hezekiah King of Iudah and vnto all Iudah that were at Ierusalem, saying, ¹⁰Thus saith Saneherib the King of Asshur, Wherein doe ye trust, that ye will remaine in Ierusalem, during the siege? ¹¹Doeth not Hezekiah entice you to giue ouer your selues vnto death by famine and by thirst, saying, The Lord our God shall deliuer vs out of the hande of the King of Asshur?

¹⁷He wrote also letters, blaspheming the Lord God of Israel and speaking against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other countreies could not deliuer their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliuer his people out of mine hande. ¹⁸Then they cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes speach vnto the people of Ierusalem that were on the wall, to feare them and to astonish them, that they might take the citie. ¹⁹Thus they spake against the God of Ierusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, euen the workes of mans hands, ²⁰But Hezekiah the King, and the Prophet Isaiah the sonne of Amoz prayed against this and cryed to heauen. ²¹And the Lord sent an Angel which destroyed all the valiant men, and the princes and captaines of the hoste of the King of Asshur: so he returned with shame to his owne lande. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his owne bowels, slewe him there with the sworde. ²²So the Lord saued Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Ierusalem from the hande of Saneherib King of Asshur, and from the hande of all other, and maintained them on euery side. ²³And many brought offrings vnto the Lord to Ierusalem, and presents to Hezekiah King of Iudah, so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thencefoorth. ²⁴In those dayes Hezekiah was sicke vnto the death, and prayed vnto the Lord, who spake vnto him, and gaue him a signe. ²⁵But Hezekiah did not render according to the rewarde bestowed vpon him: for his heart was lift vp, and wrath came vpon him, and vpon Iudah and Ierusalem. ²⁶Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled him selfe (after that his heart was lifted vp) he and the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and the wrath of the Lord came not vpon them in the dayes of Hezekiah. ²⁷Hezekiah also had exceeding much riches and honour, and he gate him treasures of siluer, and of golde, and of precious stones, and of sweete odours, and of shieldes, and of all pleasant vessels: ²⁸And of store houses for the increase of wheat and wine and oyle, and stalles for all beasts, and rowes for the stables. ²⁹And he made him cities, and had possession of sheepe and oxen in abundance: for God had giuen him substance exceeding much. ³⁰This same Hezekiah also stopped the vpper water springs of Gihon, and led them streight vnderneath towarde the citie of Dauid Westwarde. so Hezekiah prospered in all his workes. ³¹But because of the ambassadours of the princes of Babel, which sent vnto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the lande, God left him to trie him, and to knowe all that was in his heart. ³²Concerning the rest of the actes of Hezekiah, and his goodnesse, beholde, they are written in the vision of Ishiah the Prophet, the sonne of Amoz, in the booke of the Kings of Iudah and Israel. ³³So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the highest sepulchre of the sonnes of Dauid: and all Iudah and the inhabitants of Ierusalem did him honour at his death: and Manasseh his sonne reigned in his stead.

¹Manasseh was twelue yeere olde, when he beganne to reigne, and he reigned fiue and fiftie yeere in Ierusalem: ²And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, like the abominations of the heathen, who the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel. ³For he went backe and built the hie places, which Hezekiah his father had broken downe: and he set vp altars for Baalim, and made groues, and worshipped all the hoste of the heauen, and serued them. ⁴Also he built altars in the house of the Lord, whereof the Lord had saide, In Ierusalem shall my Name be for euer. ⁵And he built altars for all the hoste of the heauen in the two courtes of the house of the Lord. ⁶And he caused his sonnes to passe through the fire in the valley of Ben-hinnom: he gaue him selfe to witchcraft and to charming and to sorcerie, and he vsed them that had familiar spirits, and soothsayers: hee did very much euill in the sight of the Lord to anger him. ⁷He put also the

carued image, which he had made, in the house of God: whereof God had said to Dauid and to Salomon his sonne, In this house and in Ierusalem, which I haue chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my Name for euer, ⁸Neither will I make the foote of Israel to remooue any more out of the lande which I haue appointed for your fathers, so that they take heede, and do all that I haue commanded them, according to the Lawe and statutes and iudgements by the hande of Moses. ⁹So Manasseh made Iudah and the inhabitants of Ierusalem to erre, and to doe worse then the heathen, whome the Lord had destroyed before the children of Israel. ¹⁰And the Lord spake to Manasseh and to his people, but they would not regarde. ¹¹Wherefore the Lord brought vpon them the captaines of the hoste of the King of Asshur, which tooke Manasseh and put him in fetters, and bound him in chaines, and caryed him to Babel. ¹²And when he was in tribulation, he prayed to the Lord his God, and humbled him selfe greatly before the God of his fathers, ¹³And prayed vnto him: and God was entreated of him, and heard his prayer, and brought him againe to Ierusalem into his kingdome: then Manasseh knewe that the Lord was God. ¹⁴Nowe after this he built a wall without the citie of Dauid, on the Westside of Gihon in the valley, euen at the entrie of the fish gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it very hie, and put captaines of warre in all the strong cities of Iudah. ¹⁵And he tooke away the strange gods and the image out of the house of the Lord, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the Lord, and in Ierusalem, and cast them out of the citie. ¹⁶Also he prepared the altar of the Lord, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings, and of thanks, and commanded Iudah to serue the Lord God of Israel. ¹⁷Neuerthesse the people did sacrifice stil in the hie places, but vnto the Lord their God. ¹⁸Concerning the rest of the actes of Manasseh, and his prayer vnto his God, and the words of the Seers, that spake to him in ye

Name of the Lord God of Israel, beholde, they are written in the booke of the Kings of Israel. ¹⁹And his prayer and how God was intreated of him, and all his sinne, and his trespasse, and the places wherein he built hie places, and set groues and images (before he was humbled) behold, they are written in the booke of the Seers. ²⁰So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his owne house: and Amon his sonne reigned in his stead. ²¹Amon was two and twentie yeere olde, when he began to reigne, and reigned two yeere in Ierusalem. ²²But he did euill in the sight of the Lord, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed to all the images, which Manasseh his father had made, and serued them, ²³And he humbled not him selfe before the Lord, as Manasseh his father had humbled himselfe: but this Amon trespassed more and more. ²⁴And his seruants conspired against him, and slewe him in his owne house. ²⁵But the people of the land slewe all them that had conspired against King Amon: and the people of the land made Iosiah his sonne King in his steade.

¹Iosiah was eight yeere olde when hee began to reigne, and he reigned in Ierusalem one and thirtie yeere. ²And he did vprightly in the sight of ye Lord, and walked in the wayes of Daud his father, and bowed neither to the right hand nor to the left. ³And in the eight yeere of his reigne (when he was yet a childe) he began to seeke after the God of Daud his father: and in the twelft yeere he began to purge Iudah, and Ierusalem from the hie places, and the groues, and the carued images, and molten images: ⁴And they brake downe in his sight the altars of Baalim, and hee caused to cut downe the images that were on hie vpon them: he brake also the groues, and the carued images, and the molten images, and stamp them to pouder, and strowed it vpon the graues of them that had sacrificed vnto them. ⁵Also he burnt the bones of the Priests vpon their altars, and purged Iudah and Ierusalem. ⁶And in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, euen vnto Naphtali, with their maules they brake all round about. ⁷And when he had destroyed the altars and the groues, and had broken and stamped to pouder the images, and had cut downe all the idoles throughout all the land of Israel, hee returned to Ierusalem. ⁸Then in the eighteenth yere of his reigne, when hee had purged the lande and the Temple, he sent Shaphan the sonne of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the gouernour of the citie, and Ioah the sonne of Ioahaz the recorder, to reparaire the house of the Lord his God. ⁹And when they came to Hilkiiah the hie Priest, they deliuered ye money that was brought into the house of God, which the Leuites that kept the doore, had gathered at the hand of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and of all the residue of Israel, and of all Iudah and Benjamin, and of the inhabitantes of Ierusalem. ¹⁰And they put it in the hands of them that should doe the worke and had the ouersight in the house of the Lord: and they gaue it to the

workemen that wrought in the house of ye Lord, to repaire and amend the house. ¹¹Euen to the workemen and to the builders gaue they it, to bye hewed stone and timber for couples and for beames of the houses, which the Kings of Iudah had destroyed. ¹²And the men did the worke faithfully, and the ouerseers of them were Iahath and Obadiah the Leuites, of the children of Merari, and Zechariah, and Meshullam, of the children of the Kohathites to set it forward: and of the Leuites all that could skill of instruments of musike. ¹³And they were ouer the bearers of burdens, and them that set forward all the workemen in euery worke: and of the Leuites were scribes, and officers and porters. ¹⁴And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, Hilkiah the Priest found the booke of the Lawe of the Lord giuen by the hand of Moses. ¹⁵Therefore Hilkiah answered and sayde to Shaphan the chaceler, I haue found the booke of the Law in the house of the Lord: and Hilkiah gaue the booke to

Shaphan. ¹⁶And Shaphan caried the booke to the King, and brought the King worde againe, saying, All that is committed to the hand of thy seruants, that do they. ¹⁷For they haue gathered the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and haue deliuered it into the handes of the ouerseers, and to the handes of the workemen. ¹⁸Also Shaphan ye chanceler declared to the King, saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath giuen mee a booke, and Shaphan read it before the King. ¹⁹And when the King had heard the wordes of the Lawe, he tare his clothes. ²⁰And the King commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan, and Abdon the sonne of Micah, and Shaphan the chanceler, and Asaiah the Kings seruant, saying, ²¹Goe and enquire of the Lord for me, and for the rest in Israel and Iudah, concerning the wordes of this booke that is founde: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is fallen vpon vs, because our fathers haue not kept the worde of the Lord, to doe after all that is written in this booke. ²²Then

Hilkiah and they that the King had appoynted, went to Huldah the Prophetesse ye wife of Shallum, the sonne of Tokhath, the sonne of Hasrah keeper of the wardrobe (and she dwelt in Ierusalem within the colledge) and they communed hereof with her. ²³And shee answered them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, Tell yee the man that sent you to me, ²⁴Thus saith the Lord, Beholde, I will bring euill vpon this place, and vpon the inhabitantes thereof, euen all the curses, that are written in the booke which they haue read before the King of Iudah: ²⁵Because they haue forsaken me, and burnt incense vnto other gods, to anger mee with al the workes of their hands, therefore shall my wrath fall vpon this place, and shall not be quenched. ²⁶But to the King of Iudah, who sent you to enquire of the Lord, so shall ye say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The words which thou hast heard, shall come to passe. ²⁷But because thine heart did melt, and thou didest humble thy selfe before

God, when thou heardest his wordes against this place and against the inhabitantes thereof, and humbledst thy selfe before mee and tarest thy clothes, and weptest before mee, I haue also heard it, sayth the Lord. ²⁸Beholde, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt bee put in thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the euill, which I will bring vpon this place, and vpon the inhabitants of the same. Thus they brought ye King word againe. ²⁹Then the King sent and gathered all the Elders of Iudah and Ierusalem. ³⁰And the King went vp into the house of the Lord, and all the men of Iudah, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and the Priests and the Leuites, and all the people from the greatest to the smallest, and hee read in their eares all the wordes of the booke of the couenant that was found in the house of the Lord. ³¹And the King stood by his pillar, and made a couenant before the Lord, to walke after the Lord, and to keepe his commandements, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soule, and that he would accomplish the wordes of the couenant written in the same booke. ³²And he caused all that were found in Ierusalem, and Benjamin to stande to it: and the inhabitants of Ierusalem did according to the couenant of God, euen the God of their fathers. ³³So Iosiah tooke away al the abominations out of all the countreis that pertained to the children of Israel, and compelled all that were found in Israel, to serue the Lord their God: so all his dayes they turned not backe from the Lord God of their fathers.

¹Moreouer Iosiah kept a Passeouer vnto the Lord in Ierusalem, and they slewe the Passeouer in the fourteenth day of the first moneth. ²And he appointed the Priestes to their charges, and encouraged them to the seruice of the house of the Lord, ³And he sayd vnto the Leuites that taught all Israel and were sanctified vnto the Lord, Put the holy Arke in the house which Salomon the sonne of Dauid King of Israel did build: it shalbe no more a burden vpon your shoulders: serue now the Lord your God and his people Israel, ⁴And prepare your selues by the houses of your fathers according to your courses, as Dauid the King of Israel hath written, and according to the writing of Salomon his sonne, ⁵And stande in the Sanctuarie according to the deuision of the families of your brethren the children of the people, and after the deuision of the familie of the Leuites: ⁶So kill the Passeouer and sanctifie your selues, and prepare your brethren that they may doe according to the worde of the Lord by the hand of Moses. ⁷Iosiah also gaue to the people sheepe, lambs and kiddes, all for the Passeouer, euen to all that were present, to the number of thirtie thousand, and three thousande bullocks: these were of the Kings substance. ⁸And his princes offred willingly vnto the people, to the Priests and to the Leuites: Hilkiah, and Zechariah, and Iehiel, rulers of the house of God, gaue vnto the Priests for the Passeouer, euen two thousand and sixe hundreth sheepe, and three hundreth bullockes. ⁹Conaniah also and Shemaiah and Nethaneel his brethren, and Hashabiah and Ieiel, and Iozabad, chiefe of the Leuites gaue vnto the Leuites for the Passeouer, fīue thousand sheepe, and fīue hundreth bullockes. ¹⁰Thus the seruice was prepared, and the Priests stode in their places, also the Leuites in their orders, according to the Kings commandement: ¹¹And they slewe the Passeouer, and the Priests sprinkled the blood with their handes, and the Leuites flayed them. ¹²And they tooke away from the burnt offering to giue it according to the deuisions of the families of the children of the people, to offer vnto the Lord, as it is written in the booke of Moses, and so of the bullockes. ¹³And they rosted the Passeouer with fire, according to ye custome, but the sanctified things they sod in pots, pannes, and cauldrons, and distributed them quickly to all the people. ¹⁴Afterwarde also they prepared for them selues and for the Priestes: for the Priestes the sonnes of Aaron were occupied in offering of burnt offrings, and the fat vntill night: therefore the Leuites prepared for them selues, and for the Priests the sonnes of Aaron. ¹⁵And the singers the sonnes of Asaph stode in their standing according to the commandement of Dauid, and Asaph, and Heman, and Ieduthun the Kings Seer: and the porters at euery gate, who might not depart from their seruice: therefore their brethren the Leuites prepared for them. ¹⁶So all the seruice of the Lord was prepared the same day, to keepe the Passeouer, and to offer burnt offerings vpon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandement of King Iosiah. ¹⁷And the children of Israel that were present, kept the Passeouer the same time, and the feast of the vnleauened bread seuen dayes. ¹⁸And there was no Passeouer kept like that, in Israel, from the dayes of Samuel the Prophet: neyther did all the Kings of Israel keepe such a Passeouer as Iosiah kept, and the Priestes and the Leuites, and all Iudah, and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem. ¹⁹This

Passeouer was kept in the eighteenth yeere of the reigne of Iosiah. ²⁰After all this, when Iosiah had prepared the Temple, Necho King of Egypt came vp to fight against Carchemish by Perath, and Iosiah went out against him. ²¹But he sent messengers to him, saying, What haue I to doe with thee, thou King of Iudah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house of mine enemy, and God commanded me to make haste: leaue of to come against God, which is with me, least he destroy thee. ²²But Iosiah would not turne his face from him, but changed his apparel to fight with him, and hearkened not vnto the wordes of Necho, which were of the mouth of God, but came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. ²³And the shooters shot at king Iosiah: then the King saide to his seruants, Cary me away, for I am very sicke. ²⁴So his seruants tooke him out of that charet, and put him in the seconde charet which he had, and when they had brought him to Ierusalem, he dyed, and was buried in the sepulchres of his fathers: and all Iudah and Ierusalem mourned for Iosiah. ²⁵And Ieremiah lamented Iosiah, and al singing men and singing women mourned for Iosiah in their lamentations to this day, and made the same for an ordinance vnto Israel: and beholde, they be written in the lamentations. ²⁶Concerning the rest of the actes of Iosiah and his goodnesse, doing as it was written in the Lawe of the Lord, ²⁷And his deedes, first and last, behold, they are written in the booke of the Kings of Israel and Iudah.

¹Then the people of the lande tooke Iehoahaz the sonne of Iosiah, and made him king in his fathers steade in Ierusalem. ²Iehoahaz was three and twentie yeere old when he began to reigne, and he reigned three moneths in Ierusalem. ³And the King of Egypt tooke him away at Ierusalem, and condemned the lande in an hundreth talents of siluer, and a talent of gold. ⁴And the King of Egypt made Eliakim his brother King ouer Iudah and Ierusalem, and turned his name to

Iehoiakim: and Necho tooke Iehoahaz his brother, and caryed him to Egypt. ⁵Iehoiakim was fife and twentie yeere old, when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleuen yeere in Ierusalem, and did euill in the sight of the Lord his God. ⁶Against him came vp Nebuchadnezzar King of Babel, and bounde him with chaines to cary him to Babel. ⁷Nebuchadnezzar also caryed of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babel, and put them in his temple at Babel. ⁸Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was founde vpon him, behold, they are written in the booke of the Kings of Israel and Iudah, and Iehoiachin his sonne reigned in his stead. ⁹Iehoiachin was eight yeere olde when he beganne to reigne, and he reigned three moneths and ten dayes in Ierusalem, and did euill in the sight of the Lord. ¹⁰And when the yeere was out, King Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babel with the precious vessels of the house of the Lord, and he made Zedekiah his brother King ouer Iudah and Ierusalem. ¹¹Zedekiah was one and twentie yeere olde, when he beganne to reigne, and reigned eleuen yeere in Ierusalem. ¹²And he did euill in the sight of the Lord his God, and humbled not himselfe before Ieremiah the Prophet at the commandement of the Lord, ¹³But he rebelled moreouer against Nebuchadnezzar, which had caused him to sweare by God: and he hardened his necke and made his heart obstinate that he might not returne to the Lord God of Israel. ¹⁴All the chiefe of the Priestes also and of the people trespassed wonderfully, according to all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the Lord which he had sanctified in Ierusalem. ¹⁵Therefore the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising earely and sending: for he had compassion on his people, and on his habitation. ¹⁶But they mocked the messengers of God and despised his wordes, and misused his Prophets, vntill the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, and till there was no remedie. ¹⁷For he brought vpon them the King of the Caldeans, who slewe their yong men with the sworde in the house of their Sanctuarie, and spared neither yong man, nor virgin, ancient, nor aged. God gaue all into his hande, ¹⁸And all the vessels of the house of God great and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the King, and of his princes: all these caryed he to Babel. ¹⁹And they burnt the house of God, and brake downe the wall of Ierusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and all the precious vessels thereof, to destroy all. ²⁰And they that were left by the sworde, caryed he away to Babel, and they were seruants to him and to his sonnes, vntill the kingdome of the Persians had rule, ²¹To fulfill the worde of the Lord by the mouth of Ieremiah, vntill the lande had her fill of her Sabbaths: for all the dayes that she lay desolate, she kept Sabbath, to fulfill seuentie yeeres. ²²But in the first yeere of Cyrus King of Persia (when the worde of the Lord, spoken by the mouth of Ieremiah, was finished) the Lord stirred vp the spirit of Cyrus King of Persia, and he made a proclamation through all his kingdome, and also by writing, saying, ²³Thus saith Cyrus King of Persia, All the kingdomes of the earth hath the Lord God of heauen giuen me, and hath commanded me to build him an house in Ierusalem, that is in Iudah. Who is among you of all his people, with whom the Lord his God is? let him goe vp.

EZRA

¹Nowe in the first yere of Cyrus King of Persia (that the worde of the Lord, spoken by the mouth of Ieremiah, might be accomplished) the Lord stirred vp the spirite of Cyrus King of Persia, and hee made a Proclamation thorowe all his Kingdome, and also by writing, saying, ²Thus saith Cyrus King of Persia, The Lord God of heauen hath giuen me all the kingdomes of the earth, and he hath commanded me to builde him an house in Ierusalem, which is in Iudah. ³Who is he among you of all his people with whome his God is? let him goe vp to Ierusalem which is in Iudah, and buyld the house of the Lord God of Israel: he is the God, which is in Ierusalem. ⁴And euery one that remayneth in any place (where he soiourneth) let the men of his place relieue him with siluer and with golde, and with substance, and with cattel, and with a willing offring, for the house of God that is in Ierusalem. ⁵Then the chiefe fathers of Iudah and Benjamin, and the Priests and Leuites rose vp, with al them whose spirit God had rayseed to goe vp, to builde the house of the Lord which is in Ierusalem. ⁶And all they that were about them, strengthened their handes with vessels of siluer, with golde, with substance and with cattell, and with precious thinges, besides all that was willingly offred. ⁷Also the King Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of Ierusalem, and had put them in the house of his god. ⁸Euen them did Cyrus King of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and counted them vnto Sheshbazzar the Prince of Iudah. ⁹And this is the number of them, thirtie basins of golde, a thousand basins of siluer, nine and twentie kniues, ¹⁰Thirtie boules of gold, and of siluer boules of the second sort, foure hundreth and tenne, and of other vessels, a thousand. ¹¹All the vessels of golde and siluer were fife thousand and foure hundreth. Sheshbazzar brought vp all with them of the captiuitie that came vp from Babel to Ierusalem.

¹These also are the sonnes of the prouince, that went vp out of the captiuitie (whome Nebuchadnezzar King of Babel had caried away vnto Babel) and returned to Ierusalem, and to Iudah, euery one vnto his citie, ²Which came with Zerubbabel, to wit, Ieshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Biguai, Rehum, Baanah. the sonnes of Gahar, the sonnes of Reaiah, ⁴⁸The sonnes of Rezin, the sonnes of Nekoda, the sonnes of Gazzam, ⁴⁹The sonnes of Vzza, the sonnes of Paseah, the sonnes of Besai, ⁵⁰The sonnes of Asnah, the sonnes of Meunim, the sonnes of Nephusim, ⁵¹The sonnes of Bakbuk, the sonnes of Hakupa, the sonnes of Harhur, ⁵²The sonnes of Bazluth, the sonnes of Mehida, the sonnes of Harsha, ⁵³The sonnes of Barcos, the sonnes of Sisara, the sonnes of Thamah, ⁵⁴The sonnes of Neziah, the sonnes of Hatipha, ⁵⁵The sonnes of Salomons seruantes: the sonnes of Sotai, the sonnes of Sophereth, the sonnes of Peruda, ⁵⁶The sonnes of Iaalah, the sonnes of Darkon, the sonnes of Giddel, ⁵⁷The sonnes of Shephatiah, the sonnes of Hattil, the sonnes of Pochereth Hazzebaim, the sonnes of Ami. ⁵⁸All the Nethinims, and the sonnes of Salomons seruants were three hundreth ninetie and two. ⁵⁹And these went vp from Telmelah, and from Telharsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but they could not discern their fathers house and their seede, whether they were of Israel. ⁶⁰The sonnes of Delaiah, the sonnes of Tobiah, the sonnes of Nekoda, six hundreth and two and fiftie.

⁶¹And of the sonnes of the Priestes, the sonnes of Habaiah, the sonnes of Coz, the sonnes of Barzillai: which tooke of the daughters of Barzillai the Giliadite to wife, and was called after their name. ⁶²These sought their writing of the genealogies, but they were not founde: therefore were they put from the Priesthood. ⁶³And Tirshatha saide vnto them, that they should not eate of the most holy thing, tell there rose vp a Priest with Vrim and Thummim. ⁶⁴The whole Congregation together was two and fourtie thousande, three hundreth and threescore, ⁶⁵Beside their seruants and their maydes: of whome were seuen thousande, three hundreth and seuen and thirtie: and among them were two hundreth singing men and singing women. ⁶⁶Their horses were seuen hundreth, and sixe and thirtie: their mules, two hundreth and fiue and fourtie: ⁶⁷Their camels foure hundreth, and fiue and thirtie: their asses, sixe thousand, seuen hundreth and twentie. ⁶⁸And certeine of the chiefe fathers, when they came to the house of the Lord, which was in Ierusalem, they offred willingly for the house of God, to set it vp vpon his foundation. ⁶⁹They gaue after their abilitie vnto the treasure of the worke, euen one and threescore thousand drammes of golde, and fiue thousand pieces of siluer, and an hundreth Priests garments. ⁷⁰So the Priests and the Leuites, and a certeine of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

¹And when the seuenth moneth was come, and the children of Israel were in their cities, the people assembled themselves as one man vnto Ierusalem. ²Then stode vp Ieshua rhe sonne of Iozadak, and his brethren the Priests, and Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in ye Lawe of Moses the man of God, ³And they set the altar vpon his bases (for feare was among them, because of the people of those countreis) therefore they offered burnt offrings thereon vnto the Lord, euen burnt offrings in the morning, and at euen. ⁴They kept also the feast of the Tabernacles, as it is written, and the burnt offering dayly, by number according to the custome day by day, ⁵And afterwarde the continuall burnt offering, both in the newe moneths and in all the feast dayes that were consecrate vnto the Lord, and in all the oblations willingly offered vnto the Lord. ⁶From the first day of the seuenth moneth began they to offer burnt offrings vnto the Lord: but the foundation of the Temple of the Lord was not layed. ⁷They gaue money also vnto the masons, and to the workemen, and meat and drinke, and oyle vnto them of Zidon and of Tyrus, to bring them cedar wood from Lebanon to the sea vnto Iapho, according to the graunt that they had of Cyrus

King of Persia. ⁸And in the seconde yeere of their comming vnto the house of God in Ierusalem in the second moneth began Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, and Ieshua the sonne of Iozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the Priests and the Leuites, and all they that were come out of the captiuitie vnto Ierusalem, and appointed the Leuites from twentie yeere olde and aboue, to set forwarde the worke of the house of the Lord. ⁹And Ieshua stood with his sonnes, and his brethren, and Kadmiel with his sonnes, and the sonnes of Iudah together to set forward ye workemen in the house of God, and the sonnes of Henadad with their sonnes, and their brethren the Leuites. ¹⁰And when the builders layed the foundation of the Temple of the Lord, they appoynted the Priestes in their apparel with trumpets, and the Leuites the sonnes of Asaph with cymbales, to prayse the Lord, after the ordinance of Dauid King of Israel. ¹¹Thus they sang when they gaue prayse, and when they gaue thanks vnto the Lord, For he is good, for his mercie endureth for euer toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shoute, when they prayed the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was layed. ¹²Many also of the Priests and the Leuites and the chiefe of the fathers, ancient men which had seene the first house, (when the foundation of this house was layed before their eyes) wept with a loud voyce, and many shouted aloud for ioy, ¹³So that the people coule not discerne the sound of the shoute for ioy, from the noyse of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loude crie, and the noyse was heard farre off.

¹Bvt the aduersaries of Iudah and Benjamin heard, that the children of the captiuitie builded the Temple vnto the Lord God of Israel. ²And they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chiefe fathers, and sayd vnto them, We wil builde with you: for we seeke the Lord your God as ye do, and we haue sacrificed vnto him since the time of Esar Haddon king of Asshur, which brought vs vp hither. ³Then Zerubbabel, and Ieshua, and the rest of the chiefe fathers of Israel, sayde vnto them, It is not for you, but for vs to buyld the house vnto our God: for we our selues together wil buylde it vnto the Lord God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded vs. ⁴Wherefore the people of the land discouraged the people of Iudah, and troubled them in buylding, ⁵And they hired counsellors against them, to hinder their deuise, all the dayes of Cyrus King of Persia, euen vntill the reigne of Darius King of Persia. ⁶And in the reigne of Ahashuerosh (in the beginning of his reigne) wrote they an accusation against the inhabitants of Iudah and Ierusalem. ⁷And in the daies of Artahshashte, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions wrote when it was peace, vnto Artahshashte king of Persia, and the writing of the letter was the Aramites writing, and the thing declared was in the language of the Aramites. ⁸Rehum the chancelour, and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Ierusalem to Artahshashte the King, in this sort. ⁹Then wrote Rehum the chauncelour, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions Dinaie, and Apharsathcaie, Tarpelaie, Apharsaie, Archeuaie, Bablaie, Shushanchaie, Dehaue, Elmaie, ¹⁰And the rest of the people whom the great and noble Asnappar brought ouer, and set in the cities of Samaria, and other that are beyonde the Riuer and Cheeneth. ¹¹This is the copie of the letter that they sent vnto King Artahshashte, THY SERVANTS the men beyond the Riuer and Cheeneth, salute thee. ¹²Be it knowne vnto the King that ye Iewes, which came vp from thee to vs, are come vnto Ierusalem (a citie rebellious and wicked) and buylde, and lay the foundations of the walles, and haue ioyned the foundations. ¹³Be it knowne nowe vnto the King, that if this citie be built, and the foundations of the walles layed, they will not giue tolle, tribute, nor custome: so shalt thou hinder the Kings tribute. ¹⁴Nowe therefore because wee haue bene brought vp in the Kings palace, it was not meete for vs to see the Kings dishonour: for this cause haue we sent and certified the King, ¹⁵That one may searche in the booke of the Chronicles of thy fathers, and thou shalt finde in the booke of the Chronicles, and perceiue that this citie is rebellious and noysome vnto Kings and prouinces, and that they haue moued sedition of olde time, for the which cause this citie was destroyed. ¹⁶Wee certifie the King therefore, that if this citie be buylded, and the foundation of the walles layd, by this meanes the portion beyonde the Riuer shall not be thine. ¹⁷The King sent an answere vnto Rehum the Chauncelour, and Shimshai the Scribe, and so the rest of their companions that dwelt in Samaria, and vnto the other beyond the Riuer, Shelam and Cheeth. ¹⁸The letter which yee sent vnto vs, hath bene openly read before me, ¹⁹And I haue commanded and they haue searched, and founde, that this citie of olde time hath made insurrection against kings, and hath rebelled, and rebellion hath bene committed therein. ²⁰There haue bene mightie kings also ouer Ierusalem, which haue ruled ouer all beyonde the Riuer, and tolle, tribute, and custome was giuen vnto them. ²¹Make ye now a decree, that those men may cease, and that the citie be not buylt, till I haue giuen another commandement. ²²Take heede now that ye fayle not to doe this: why should damage grow to hurt the King? ²³When the copie of king Artahshashtes letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went vp in all the haste to Ierusalem vnto the Iewes, and caused them to cease by force and power. ²⁴Then ceased the worke of the house of God, which was in Ierusalem, and did stay vnto the second yeere of Darius King of Persia.

¹Then Haggai a Prophet and Zechariah the sonne of Iddo a Prophet prophecied vnto the Iewes that were in Iudah, and Ierusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, euen vnto them. ²Then Zerubbabel the sonne of

Shealtiel, and Ieshua the sonne of Iozadak arose, and began to builde the house of God at Ierusalem, and with them were the Prophetes of God, which helped them. ³At the same time came to them Tatnai, which was captaine beyonde the Riuer, and Shether-boznai and their companions, and sayd thus vnto them, Who hath giuen you commandement to buylde this house, and to lay the foundations of these walles? ⁴Then sayde we vnto them after this maner, What are the names of the men that buylde this buylding? ⁵But the eye of their God was vpon the Elders of the Iewes, that they coule not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they answered by letters thereunto. ⁶The copie of the letter, that Tatnai captaine beyond the Riuer, and Shether-boznai and his companions, Apharsechaie, (which were beyond the Riuer) sent vnto King Darius. ⁷They sent a letter vnto him, wherein it was written thus, VNTO DARIUS the king, all peace. ⁸Be it knowen vnto the King, that we went into the prouince of Iudea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and beames are layde in the walles, and this worke is wrought speedily, and prospereth in their hands. ⁹Then asked we those Elders, and sayd vnto them thus, Who hath giuen you commandement to buylde this house, and to lay the foundation of these walles? ¹⁰We asked their names also, that we might certifie thee, and that we might write the names of the men that were their rulers. ¹¹But they answered vs thus, and sayd, We are the seruants of the God of heauen and earth, and buylde the house that was buylt of olde and many yeeres ago, which a great King of Israel builded, and founded it. ¹²But after that our fathers had prouoked the God of heauen vnto wrath, he gaue them ouer into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar King of Babel the Caldean, and he destroyed this house, and caryed the people away captiue vnto Babel. ¹³But in the first yere of Cyrus King of Babel, King Cyrus made a decree to buylde this house of God. ¹⁴And the vessels of golde and siluer of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar tooke out of the Temple, that was in Ierusalem, and brought them into the Temple of Babel, those did Cyrus the king take out of the Temple of Babel, and they gaue them vnto one Sheshbazzar by his name, whome he had made captaine. ¹⁵And he sayde vnto him, Take these vessels and goe thy way, and put them in the Temple that is in Ierusalem, and let the house of God be buylt in his place. ¹⁶Then came the same Sheshbazzar and layde the foundation of the house of God, which is in Ierusalem, and since that time euen vntill now, hath it bene in buylding, yet is it not finished. ¹⁷Nowe therefore if it please the King, let there be searche made in the house of the Kings treasures, which is there in Babel, whether a decree hath bene made by King Cyrus, to build this house of God in Ierusalem, and let the King send his minde concerning this.

¹Then King Darius gaue commandement, and they made search in the librarie of the treasures, which were there layd vp in Babel. ²And there was founde in a coffer (in the palace that was in the prouince of the Medes) a volume, and therein was it thus written, as a memoriall, ³IN THE FIRST yeere of King Cyrus, King Cyrus made a decree for the house of God in Ierusalem, Let the house be buylt, euen the place where they offred sacrifices, and let the walles thereof be ioyned together: let the height thereof be three score cubites, and the breadth thereof three score cubites, ⁴Three orders of great stones, and one order of timber, and let the expenses be giuen of the Kings house. ⁵And also let them render the vessels of the house of God (of golde and siluer, which Nebuchadnezzar tooke out of the Temple, which was in Ierusalem, and brought vnto Babel) and let him goe vnto the Temple that is in Ierusalem to his place, and put them in the house of God. ⁶Therefore Tatnai captaine beyond the Riuer, and Shethar Boznai, (and their companions Apharsecaie, which are beyonde the Riuer) be ye farre from thence. ⁷Suffer ye the worke of this house of God, that the captaine of the Iewes and the Elders of the Iewes may buylde this house of God in his place. ⁸For I haue giuen a commandement what ye shall doe to the Elders of these Iewes, for the buylding of this house of God, that of the reuenues of the King, which is of the tribute beyonde the Riuer, there be incontinently expenses giuen vnto these men that they cease not. ⁹And that which they shall haue neede of, let it be giuen vnto them day by day, whether it be yong bullockes, or rammes, or lambes for the burnt offrings of the God of heauen, wheate, salt, wine, and oyle, according to the appoyntment of the Priestes that are in Ierusalem, that there bee no fault, ¹⁰That they may haue to offer sweete odours vnto the God of heauen, and praye for the Kings life, and for his sonnes. ¹¹And I haue made a decree, that whosoeuer shall alter this sentence, the wood shall be pulled downe from his house, and shall be set vp, and he shalbe hanged thereon, and his house shalbe made a dunghill for this. ¹²And the God that hath caused his Name to dwell there, destroy all Kings and people that put to their hand to alter, and to destroy this house of God, which is in Ierusalem. I Darius haue made a decree, let it be done with speede. ¹³Then Tatnai the captaine beyond the Riuer, and Shethar Boznai and their companions, according to that which Darius had sent, so they did speedily. ¹⁴So the Elders of the Iewes builded, and they prospered by the prophecying of Haggai the Prophet, and Zechariah the sonne of Iddo, and they buylded and finished it, by the appoyntment of the God of Israel, and by the commandement of Cyrus and Darius, and Artahshashte king of Persia. ¹⁵And this house was finished the thirde day of the moneth Adar, which was the sixt yeere of the reigne of King Darius. ¹⁶And the children of Israel, the Priestes, and the Leuites, and the residue of the children of the captiuitie kept the dedication of this house of God with ioy, ¹⁷And offred at the dedication of this house of God an hundreth bullockes, two hundreth rams, foure hundreth lambes, and twelue goates, for the sinne of all Israel, according to the nomber of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁸And they set the Priests in their order, and the Leuites in their courses ouer the seruice of God in Ierusalem, as it is written in the booke of Moses. ¹⁹And the childre of the captiuitie kept the Passeouer on ye fourtenth day of the first moneth. ²⁰(For the Priests and the Leuites were purified altogether) and they killed the Passeouer for all the children of the captiuitie, and for their brethren the Priests, and for themselues. ²¹So the children of Israel which were come againe out of captiuitie, and all such as had separated themselues vnto them, from the filthines of the Heathen of the land, to seeke the Lord God of Israel, did eate, ²²And they kept ye feast of vnleauened bread seuen dayes with ioy: for the Lord had made them glad, and turned the heart of the King of Asshur vnto them, to incourage them in the worke of the house of God, euen the God of Israel.

¹Now after these things, in the reigne of Artahshashte King of Persia, was Ezra the sonne of Seraiah, the sonne of Azariah, the sonne of Hilkiah, ²The sonne of Shallum, the sonne of Zadok, the sonne of Ahitub, ³The sonne of Amariah, the sonne of Azariah, the sonne of Meraioth, ⁴The sonne of Zeraiah, the sonne of Vzzi, the sonne of Bukki, ⁵The sonne of Abishua, the sonne of Phinehas, the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron, the chiefe Priest. ⁶This Ezra came vp from Babel, and was a Scribe prompt in the Lawe of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel had giuen, and the King gaue him all his request according to the hande of the Lord his God which was vpon him. ⁷And there went vp certaine of the children of Israel, and of the Priests, and the Leuites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims vnto Ierusalem, in the seuenth yere of King

Artahshashte. ⁸And hee came to Ierusalem in the fift moneth, which was in the seuenth yeere of the King. ⁹For vpon the first day of the first moneth began he to goe vp from Babel, and on the first day of the fift moneth came he to Ierusalem, according to the good hande of his God that was vpon him. ¹⁰For Ezra had prepared his heart to seeke the Lawe of the Lord, and to doe it, and to teach the precepts and iudgements in Israel. ¹¹And this is the copie of the letter that King Artahshashte gaue vnto Ezra the Priest and scribe, euen a writer of the words of the commadements of ye Lord, and of his statutes ouer Israel. ¹²ARTAHSHAShte King of Kings to Ezra the Priest and perfite scribe of the Lawe of the God of heauen, and to Cheeneth. ¹³I haue giuen commandement, that euery one, that is willing in my kingdome of the people of Israel, and of the Priestes, and Leuites to goe to Ierusalem with thee, shall goe. ¹⁴Therefore art thou sent of the King and his seuen counsellors, to enquire in Iudah and Ierusalem, according to the lawe of thy God, which is in thine hand, ¹⁵And to carry the siluer and the gold, which the King and his counsellors willingly offer vnto the God of Israel (whose habitation is in Ierusalem) ¹⁶And all the siluer and gold that thou canst finde in all the prouince of Babel, with the free offering of the people, and that which the Priestes offer willingly to the house of their God which is in Ierusalem, ¹⁷That thou mayest bye speedily with this siluer, bullocks, rammes, lambes, with their meate offrings and their drinke offrings: and thou shalt offer them vpon the altar of the house of your God, which is in Ierusalem. ¹⁸And whatsoever it pleaseth thee and thy brethren to do with the rest of the siluer, and gold, doe ye it according to the will of your God. ¹⁹And the vessels that are giuen thee for the seruice of the house of thy God, those deliuer thou before God in Ierusalem. ²⁰And the residue that shall be needefull for the house of thy God, which shall be meete for thee to bestowe, thou shalt bestowe it out of the Kings treasure house, ²¹And I King Artahshashte haue giuen commandemet to all the treasurers which are beyond the Riuer, that whatsoever Ezra the Priest and Scribe of the Law of the God of heauen shall require of you, that it be done incontinently, ²²Vnto an hundredth talents of siluer, vnto an hundredth measures of wheate, and vnto an hundredth baths of wine, and vnto an hundredth baths of oyle, and salt without writing. ²³Whatsoever is by the commandement of the God of heauen, let it be done speedily for the house of the God of heauen: for why should he be wroth against the realme of the King, and his children? ²⁴And we certifie you, that vpon any of the Priestes, Leuites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or Ministers in this house of God, there shall no gouernour laye vpon them tolle, tribute nor custome. ²⁵And thou Ezra (after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand) set iudges and arbiters, which may iudge all the people that is beyond the Riuer, euen all that knowe the Lawe of thy God, and teach ye them that know it not. ²⁶And whosoever will not doe the Lawe of thy God, and the Kings lawe, let him haue iudgement without delay, whether it be vnto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment. ²⁷Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, which so hath put in the Kings heart, to beautifie the house of the Lord that is in Ierusalem, ²⁸And hath enclined mercy toward me, before the King and his counsellors, and before all the Kings mightie Princes: and I was comforted by the hand of the Lord my God which was vpon me, and I gathered the chiefe of Israel to goe vp with me.

¹These are now the chiefe fathers of them, and the genealogie of them that came vp with mee from Babel, in the reigne of King Artahshashte. ²Of the sonnes of Phinehas, Gershom: of the sonnes of Ithamar, Daniel: of the sonnes of Daud, Hattush: ³Of the sonnes of Shechaniah, of the sonnes of Pharosh, Zechariah, and with him the count of the

males, an hundreth and fiftie. ⁴Of the sonnes of Pahath Moab, Elihoenai, the sonne of Zerahiah, and with him two hundreth males. ⁵Of the sonnes of Shechaniah, the sonne of Iahaziel, and with him three hundreth males. ⁶And of the sonnes of Adin, Ebed the sonne of Jonathan, and with him fiftie males. ⁷And of the sonnes of Elam, Ieshaiah the sonne of Athaliah, and with him seuentie males. ⁸And of the sonnes of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the sonne of Michael, and with him fourescore males. ⁹Of the sonnes of Ioab, Obadiah the sonne of Iehiel, and with him two hundreth and eighteene males. ¹⁰And of the sonnes of Shelomith the sonne of Iosiphiah, and with him an hundreth and threescore males. ¹¹And of the sonnes of Bebai, Zechariah the sonne of Bebai, and with him eight and twentie males. ¹²And of the sonnes of Azgad, Iohanan the sonne of Hakkatan, and with him an hundreth and ten males. ¹³And of the sonnes of Adonikam, that were the last, whose names are these: Eliphelet, Iehiel and Shemaiah, and with them three score males. ¹⁴And of the sonnes of Biguai, Vthai, and Zabbud, and with them seuentie males. ¹⁵And I gathered them to the Riuer that goeth toward Ahaua, and there abode we three dayes: then I viewed the people, and the Priests, and found there none of the sonnes of Leui. ¹⁶Therefore sent I to Eliezer, to Ariel, to Shemeiah, and to Elnathan, and to Iarib, and to Elnathan, and to Nathan, and to Zechariah, and to Meshullam the chiefe, and to Ioiarib and to Elnathan, men of vnderstanding, ¹⁷And I gaue them commandement, to Iddo the chieftest at the place of Casiphia, and I told them the words that they should speake to Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims at the place of Casiphia, that they should cause the ministers of the house of our God to come vnto vs. ¹⁸So by the good hande of our God which was vpon vs, they brought vs a man of vnderstanding of the sonnes of Mahali the sonne of Leui the sonne of Israel, and Sherebiah with his sonnes and his brethren, euen eighteene. ¹⁹Also Hashabiah, and with him Ieshaiah of the sonnes of Merari, with his brethren, and their sonnes twentie. ²⁰And of the Nethinims, whom Daud had set, and the Princes for the seruice of the Leuites, two hundreth and twentie of the Nethinims, which all were named by name. ²¹And there at the Riuer, by Ahaua, I proclaimed a fast, that we might humble our selues before our God, and seeke of him a right way for vs, and for our children, and for all our substance. ²²For I was ashamed to require of the King an armie and horsemen, to helpe vs against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the King, saying, The hande of our God is vpon all them that seeke him in goodnesse, but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him. ²³So we fasted, and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of vs. ²⁴Then I separated twelue of the chiefe of the Priests, Sherebiah, and Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them, ²⁵And weighed them the siluer and the gold, and the vessels, euen the offering of ye house of our God, which the King and his counselors, and his Princes, and all Israel that were present had offred. ²⁶And I weighed vnto their hand sixe hundreth and fiftie talents of siluer, and in siluer vessel, an hundreth talents, and in golde, an hundreth talents: ²⁷And twentie basins of golde, of a thousand drammes, and two vessels of shining brasse very good, and precious as golde. ²⁸And I said vnto them, Ye are consecrate vnto the Lord, and the vessels are consecrate, and the gold and the siluer are freely offred vnto the Lord God of your fathers. ²⁹Watch ye, and keepe them vntill ye weigh them before the chiefe Priestes and the Leuites, and the chiefe fathers of Israel in Ierusalem in the chambers of the house of the Lord. ³⁰So the Priests and the Leuites receiued the weight of the siluer and of the golde, and of the vessels to bring them to Ierusalem, vnto the house of our God. ³¹Then we departed from the Riuer of Ahauah on the twelfth day of the first moneth, to go vnto Ierusalem, and the hand of our God was vpon vs, and deliuered vs from the hand of the enemie, and of such as layde waite by the way. ³²And we came to Ierusalem, and abode there three dayes. ³³And on ye fourth day was the siluer weighed, and the golde and the vessell in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the sonne of Vriah the Priest, and with him was Eleazar the sonne of Phinehas, and with them was Iozabad the sonne of Ieshua, and Noadiah the sonne of Binnui the Leuites, ³⁴By number and by weight of euery one, and all the weight was written at the same time. ³⁵Also the children of the captiuitie, which were come out of captiuitie, offred burnt offrings vnto the God of Israel, twelue bullockes for all Israel, ninetie and sixe rammes, seuentie and seuen lambes, and twelue hee goates for sinne: all was a burnt offering of the Lord. ³⁶And they deliuered the Kings commission vnto the Kings officers, and to the capitaines beyond the Riuer: and they promoted the people, and the house of God.

¹When as these things were done, the rulers came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the Priestes, and the Leuites are not separated from the people of the lands (as touching their abominations) to wit, of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Iebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. ²For they haue taken their daughters to theselues, and to their sonnes, and they haue mixed the holy seede with the people of the landes, and the hande of the princes and rulers hath bene chiefe in this trespasse. ³But when I heard this saying, I rent my clothes and my garment, and pluckt off the heare of mine head, and of my beard, and sate downe astonied. ⁴And there assembled vnto me all that feared the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of them of the captiuitie. And I sate downe astonied vntil the euening sacrifice. ⁵And at the euening sacrifice I arose vp from mine heauinesse, and when I had rent my clothes and my garment, I fell vpon my knees, and spred out mine hands vnto the Lord my God, ⁶And said, O my God, I am confounded and ashamed, to lift vp mine eyes vnto thee my God: for our iniquities are increased ouer our head, and our trespasse is growen vp vnto the heauen. ⁷From the dayes of our fathers haue we bin in a great trespasse vnto this day, and for our iniquities haue we, our Kings, and our Priestes bene deliuered into the hand of the kings of the lands, vnto the sword, into captiuitie, into a spoyle, and into confusion of face, as appeareth this day. ⁸And now for a litle space grace hath bene shewed from the Lord our God, in causing a remnant to escape, and in giuing vs a nayle in his holy place, that our God may light our eyes, and giue vs a litle reuiuing in our seruitude. ⁹For though we were bondmen, yet our God hath not forsaken vs in our bondage, but hath enclined mercy vnto vs in the sight of the Kings of Persia, to giue vs life, and to erect the house of our

God, and to redresse the places thereof, and to giue vs a wall in Iudah and in Ierusalem. ¹⁰And now, our God, what shall we say after this? for we haue forsaken thy commandements, ¹¹Which thou hast commanded by thy seruants the Prophets, saying, The land whereunto ye go to possesse it, is an vncleane land, because of the filthines of the people of the lands, which by their abominations, and by their vncleannes haue filled it from corner to corner. ¹²Now therfore shall ye not giue your daughters vnto their sonnes, neither shall ye take their daughters vnto your sonnes, nor seeke their peace nor wealth for euer, that yee may be strong and eate the goodnes of the lande, and leaue it for an inheritance to your sonnes for euer. ¹³And after all that is come vpon vs for our euill deedes, and for our great trespasses, (seeing that thou our God hast stayed vs from being beneath for our iniquities, and hast giuen vs such deliuerance) ¹⁴Should we returne to breake thy commadements, and ioyne in affinitie with the people of such abominations?

wouldest not thou be angrie towarde vs till thou haddest consumed vs, so that there should be no remnant nor any escaping? ¹⁵O Lord God of Israel, thou art iust, for we haue bene reserued to escape, as appeareth this day: beholde, we are before thee in our trespasse: therefore we canot stand before thee because of it.

¹Whiles Ezra prayed thus, and confessed himselfe weeping, and falling downe before the house of God, there assembled vnto him of Israel a very great Congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept with a great lamentation. ²Then Shechaniah the sonne of Iehiel one of the sonnes of Elam answered, and sayd to Ezra, We haue trespassed against our God, and haue taken strange wiues of the people of the land, yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this. ³Now therfore let vs make a couenant with our God, to put away all the wiues (and such as are borne of them) according to the counsell of the Lord, and of those that feare the commandements of our God, and let it be done according to the Lawe. ⁴Arise: for the matter belongeth vnto thee: we also wil be with thee: be of comfort and do it. ⁵Then arose Ezra, and caused the chiefe Priestes, the Leuites, and all Israel, to sweare that they would doe according to this worde. So they sware. ⁶And Ezra rose vp from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Iohanan the sonne of Eliashib: he went euen thither, but he did eate neither bread, nor drunke water: for he mourned, because of the transgression of them of the captiuitie. ⁷And they caused a proclamation to goe throughout Iudah and Ierusalem, vnto all them of the captiuitie, that they should assemble themselues vnto Ierusalem. ⁸And whosoever woulde not come within three dayes according to the counsel of the Princes and Elders, all his substance should be forfait, and he should be separate from the Congregation of them of the captiuitie. ⁹Then all the men of Iudah and Benjamin assembled theselues vnto Ierusalem within three dayes, which was the twentieth day of the ninth moneth, and all the people sate in the streete of the house of God, trembling for this matter, and for the raine. ¹⁰And Ezra the Priest stoode vp, and said vnto them, Ye haue transgressed, and haue taken strange wiues, to increase the trespasse of Israel. ¹¹Now therefore giue praise vnto the Lord God of your fathers, and do his will, and separate your selues from the people of the land, and from the strange wiues. ¹²And all the Congregation answered, and sayd with a loude voyce, So will we do according to thy wordes vnto vs. ¹³But the people are many, and it is a raynie weather, and we are not able to stande without, neither is it the worke of one day or two: for we are many that haue offended in this thing. ¹⁴Let our rulers stand therefore before all the Congregation, and let all them which haue taken strange wiues in our cities, come at the time appoynted, and with them the Elders of euery citie and the Iudges thereof, til the fierce wrath of our God for this matter turne away from vs. ¹⁵Then were appoynted Ionathan the sonne of Asah-el, and Iahaziah the sonne of Tikuah ouer this matter, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Leuites helped them. ¹⁶And they of the captiuitie did so, and departed, euen Ezra the Priest, and the men that were chiefe fathers to the familie of their fathers by name, and sate downe in the first day of the tenth moneth to examine the matter. ¹⁷And vntill the first day of the first moneth they were finishing the businesse with al the men that had taken strange wiues. ¹⁸And of the sonnes of the Priests there were men founde, that had taken strange wiues, to wit, of the sonnes of Ieshua, the sonne of Iozadak, and of his brethren, Maaseiah, Aeliezer, and Iarib and Gedaliah. ¹⁹And they gaue their hads, that they would put away their wiues, and they that had trespassed, gaue a ramme for their trespass. ²⁰And of the sonnes of Immer, Honani, and Zebadiah. ²¹And of the sonnes of Harim, Maaseiah, and Eliah, and Shemaiah, and Iehiel, and Vziah. ²²And of ye sonnes of Pashur, Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Iozabad, and Elasah. ²³And of the Leuites, Iozabad and Shimei, and Kelaiah, (which is Kelitah) Pethahiah, Iudah and Eliezer. ²⁴And of the singers, Eliashib. And of the porters, Shallum, and Telem, and Vri. ²⁵And of Israel: of the sonnes of Parosh, Ramiah, and Iesiah, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchiah, and Benaiah. ²⁶And of the sonnes of Elam, Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Iehiel, and Abdi, and Ieremoth, and Eliah. ²⁷And of the sonnes of Zattu, Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Ierimoth, and Zabad, and Aziza. ²⁸And of the sonnes of Bebai, Iehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai. ²⁹And of the sonnes of Bani, Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Iashub, and Sheal, Ieremoth. ³⁰And of the sonnes of Pahath Moab, Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, and Binnui, and Manasseh. ³¹And of the sonnes of Harim, Eliezer, Ishiah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³²Beniamin, Malluch, Shamariah. ³³Of the sonnes of Hashum, Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei. ³⁴Of the sonnes of Bani, Maadai, Amram, and Vel, ³⁵Banaiah, Bediah, Chelluh, ³⁶Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, ³⁷Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Iaasau, ³⁸And Banni, and Bennui, Shimei, ³⁹And Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah, ⁴⁰Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, ⁴¹Azareel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah, ⁴²Shallum, Amariah, Ioseph. ⁴³Of the sonnes of Nebo, Ieiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Iadau, and Ioel, Benaiah. ⁴⁴All these had taken strange wiues: and among them were women that had children.

¹The words of Nehemiah the sonne of Hachaliah. In ye moneth Chisleu, in the twentieth yeere, as I was in the palace of Shushan, ²Came Hanam, one of my brethren, he and the men of Iudah, and I asked them concerning the Iewes that were deliuered, which were of the residue of the captiuitie, and concerning Ierusalem. ³And they sayde vnto me, The residue that are left of the captiuitie there in the prouince, are in great affliction and in reproche, and the wall of Ierusalem is broken downe, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire. ⁴And when I heard these wordes, I sate downe and wept, and mourned certeine dayes, and I fasted and prayed before the God of heauen, ⁵And sayde, O Lord God of heauen, the great and terrible God, that keepeth couenant and mercy for them that loue him, and obserue his commandements, ⁶I pray thee, let thine eares be attet, and thine eies open, to heare the praier of thy seruats, which I pray before thee dayly, day and night for ye childre of Israel thy seruats, and confesse the sinnes of the children of Israel, which we haue sinned against thee, both I and my fathers house haue sinned: ⁷We haue grieuously sinned against thee, and haue not kept the commandements, nor the statutes, nor the iudgements, which thou commandedst thy seruant Moses. ⁸I beseeche thee, remember the worde that thou commandedst thy seruant Moses, saying, Ye wil transgresse, and I will scatter you abroad among the people. ⁹But if ye turne vnto me, and keepe my commandements, and doe them, though your scattering were to the vttermost part of the heauen, yet will I gather you from thence, and will bring you vnto the place that I haue chosen to place my Name there. ¹⁰Now these are thy seruants and thy people, whome thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy mightie hand. ¹¹O Lord, I beseech thee, let thine eare now hearken to the prayer of thy seruant, and to the prayer of thy seruants, who desire to feare thy Name, and I pray thee, cause thy seruant to prosper this day, and giue him fauour in the presence of this man: for I was the Kings butler.

¹Nowe in the moneth Nisan in the twentieth yere of king Artahshashte, the wine stooode before him, and I tooke vp the wine, and gaue it vnto the King. nowe I was not before time sad in his presence. ²And the king said vnto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sicke? this is nothing, but sorow of heart. Then was I sore afrayd, ³And I said to the King, God saue the King for euer: why should not my countenance be sad, when the citie and house of the sepulchres of my fathers lieth waste, and the gates thereof are deuoured with fire? ⁴And the King said vnto me, For what thing doest thou require? Then I prayed to the God of heauen, ⁵And sayde vnto the King, If it please the King, and if thy seruant haue found fauour in thy sight, I desire that thou wouldest send me to Iudah vnto the city of the sepulchres of my fathers, that I may buyld it. ⁶And the King sayd vnto me, (the Queene also sitting by him) How long shall thy iourney be? and when wilt thou come againe? So it pleased the King, and he sent me, and I set him a time. ⁷After I saide vnto the King, If it please the King, let them giue mee letters to the captaines beyond the Riuer, that they may conuay me ouer, till I come into Iudah, ⁸And letters vnto Asaph the keeper of the Kings parke, that hee may giue me timber to buylde the gates of the palace (which appertained to the house) and for the walles of the citie, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the King gaue me according to the good hand of my God vpon me. ⁹Then came I to the captaines beyonde the Riuer, and gaue them the Kings letters. And the King had sent captaines of the armie and horsemen with me. ¹⁰But Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah a seruant an Ammonite heard it, and it griued them sore, that there was come a man which sought the wealth of the children of Israel. ¹¹So I came to Ierusalem, and was there three dayes. ¹²And I rose in the night, I, and a fewe men with me: for I told no man, what God had put in mine heart to do at Ierusalem, and there was not a beast with me, saue the beast whereon I rode. ¹³And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, and came before the dragon well, and to the dung porte, and vewed the walles of Ierusalem, howe they were broken downe, and the portes thereof deuoured with the fire. ¹⁴Then I went foorth vnto the gate of the fountaine, and to the Kings fishpoole, and there was no rowme for the beast that was vnder me to passe. ¹⁵Then went I vp in ye night by the brooke, and viewed the wall, and turned backe, and comming backe, I entred by the gate of the valley and returned. ¹⁶And the rulers knewe not whither I was gone, nor what I did, neither did I as yet tell it vnto the Iewes, nor to the Priestes, nor to the noble men, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that laboured in the worke. ¹⁷Afterward I said vnto them, Ye see the miserie that we are in, how Ierusalem lyeth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come and let vs buylde the wall of Ierusalem, that we be no more a reproche. ¹⁸Then I tolde them of the hande of my God, (which was good ouer me) and also of the Kings wordes that he had spoken vnto me. And they sayd, Let vs rise, and buyld. So they strengthened their hand to good. ¹⁹But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the seruant an Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian heard it, they mocked vs and despised vs, and said, What a thing is this that ye doe? Will ye rebell against the King? ²⁰Then answered I them, and sayd to them, The God of heauen, he will prosper vs, and we his seruants will rise vp and buyld: but as for you, ye haue no portion nor right, nor memoriall in Ierusalem.

¹Then arose Eliashib the hie Priest with his brethren the Priestes, and they buylt the sheepegate: they repayred it, and set vp the doores thereof: euen vnto the tower of Meah repayred they it, and vnto the tower of Hananeel. ²And next vnto him buylded the men of Iericho, and beside him Zaccur the sonne of Imri. ³But the fish port did the sonnes of Senaah buyld, which also layde the beames thereof, and set on the doores thereof, the lockes thereof, and the barres thereof. ⁴And next vnto them fortified Merimoth, the sonne of

Vrijah, the sonne of Hakkoz: and next vnto them fortified Meshullam, the sonne of Berechiah, the sonne of Meshezabeel: and next vnto them fortified Zadok, the sonne of Baana: ⁵And next vnto them fortified the Tekoites: but the great men of them put not their neckes to the worke of their lordes. ⁶And the gate of the olde fishpoole fortified Iehoiada the sonne of Paseah, and Meshullam the sonne of Besodaiah: they laid the beames thereof, and set on the doores thereof, and the lockes thereof, and the barres thereof. ⁷Next vnto them also fortified Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Iadon the Meronothite, men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, vnto the throne of the Duke, which was beyond the Riuer. ⁸Next vnto him fortified Vzziel the sonne of Harhohiah of the golde smithes: next vnto him also fortified Hananiah, the sonne of Harakkahim, and they repayred Ierusalem vnto the broad wall. ⁹Also next vnto them fortified Rephaiah, the sonne of Hur, the ruler of the halfe part of

Ierusalem. ¹⁰And next vnto him fortified Iedaiah the sonne of Harumaph, euen ouer against his house: and next vnto him fortified Hattush, the sonne of Hashabniah. ¹¹Malchiiah the sonne of Harim, and Hashub the sonne of Pahath Moab fortified the seconde porcion, and the tower of the furnaces. ¹²Next vnto him also fortified Shallum, the sonne of Halloesh, the ruler of the halfe part of Ierusalem, he, and his daughters. ¹³The valley gate fortified Hanum, and the inhabitants of Zanuah: they buylt it, and set on the doores thereof, the lockes thereof, and the barres thereof, euen a thousand cubites on the wall vnto the dung porte. ¹⁴But the dung port fortified Malchiah, the sonne of Rechab, the ruler of the fourth part of Beth-haccarem: he built it, and set on the doores thereof, the lockes thereof, and the barres thereof. ¹⁵But the gate of the fountaine fortified Shallun, the sonne of Col-hozeh, the ruler of the fourth part of Mizpah: he builded it, and couered it, and set on the doores thereof, the lockes thereof, and the barres thereof, and the wall

vnto the fishpoole of Shelah by the Kings garden, and vnto the steppes that goe downe from the citie of Daud. ¹⁶After him fortified Nehemiah the sonne of Azbuk, the ruler of ye halfe part of Beth-zur, vntill the otherside ouer against the sepulchres of Daud, and to the fishpoole that was repaired, and vnto the house of the mightie. ¹⁷After him fortified the Leuites, Rehum the sonne of Bani, and next vnto him fortified Hashabiah the ruler of the halfe part of Keilah in his quarter. ¹⁸After him fortified their brethren: Bauai, the sonne of Henadad the ruler of the halfe part of Keilah: ¹⁹And next vnto him fortified Ezer, the sonne of Ieshua the ruler of Mizpah, the other portion ouer against the going vp to the corner of the armour. ²⁰After him was earnest Baruch the sonne of Zacchai, and fortified another portion from the corner vnto the doore of the house of Eliashib the hie Priest. ²¹After him fortified Merimoth, the sonne of Vriiah, the sonne of Hakkoz, another portion from the doore of the house of Eliashib, euen as long as the house of Eliashib extended.

²²After him also fortified the Priests, the men of the playne.

²³After them fortified Benjamin, and Hasshub ouer against their house: after him fortified Azariah, the sonne of Maaseiah, the sonne of Ananiah, by his house. ²⁴After him fortified Binnui, the sonne of Henadad another portion, from the house of Azariah vnto the turning and vnto the corner.

²⁵Palal, the sonne of Vzai, from ouer against the corner, and the high tower, that lieth out from the Kings house, which is beside the court of the prison. After him, Pedaiah, the sonne of Parosh.

²⁶And the Nethinims they dwelt in ye fortresse vnto the place ouer against the water gate, Eastwarde, and to the tower that lyeth out.

²⁷After him fortified the Tekoites another portion ouer against the great tower, that lyeth out, euen vnto the wall of the fortresse.

²⁸From aboue the horsegate forth fortified the Priests, euery one ouer against his house. ²⁹After them fortified Zadok the sonne of Immer ouer against his house:

and after him fortified Shemaiah, the sonne of Shechadiah the keeper of the East gate. ³⁰After him fortified Hananiah, the sonne of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sonne of Zalaph, the sixt, another portion after him fortified Meshullam, the sonne of Berechiah, ouer against his chamber. ³¹After him fortified Malchiah the goldsmiths sonne, vntil the house of the Nethinims, and of ye marchants ouer against the gate Miphkad, and to the chamber in the corner. ³²And betweene the chamber of the corner vnto the sheepegate fortified the goldsmithes and the marchantes.

¹But when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, then was he wroth and sore grieved, and mocked the Iewes, ²And sayde before his brethren and the armie of Samaria, thus he sayde, What doe these weake Iewes? wil they fortifie them selues? wil they sacrifice? will they finish it in a day? will they make the stones whole againe out of the heapes of dust, seeing they are burnt? ³And

Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and said, Although they buylde, yet if a foxe goe vp, he shall euen breake downe their stonie wall. ⁴Heare, O our God (for we are despised) and turne their shame vpon their owne head, and giue them vnto a pray in the lande of their captiuitie, ⁵And couer not their iniquitie, neither let their sinne be put out in thy presence: for they haue prouoked vs before the builders. ⁶So we built the wall, and all the wall was ioyned vnto the halfe thereof, and the heart of the people was to worke. ⁷But when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodims heard that the walles of Ierusalem were repayred, (for the breaches began to be stopped) then they were very wroth, ⁸And conspired all together to come and to fight against Ierusalem, and to hinder them. ⁹The we prayed vnto our God, and set watchmen by them, day and night, because of them. ¹⁰And Iudah said, The strength of the bearers is weakened, and there is much earth, so that we are not able to build the wall. ¹¹Also our aduersaries had sayde, They shall not knowe, neither see, till we come into the middes of them and slay them, and cause the worke to cease. ¹²But when the Iewes (which dwelt beside them) came, they told vs ten times, From all places whence ye shall returne, they wil be vpon vs. ¹³Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall vpon the toppes of the stones, and placed the people by their families, with their swordes, their speares and their bowes. ¹⁴Then I behelde, and rose vp, and said vnto the Princes, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not afrayde of them: remember the great Lord, and fearefull, and fight for your brethren, your sonnes, and your daughters, your wiues, and your houses. ¹⁵And when our enemies heard that it was knowen vnto vs, then God brought their counsell to nought, and we turned all againe to the wall, euery one vnto his worke. ¹⁶And from that day, halfe of the yong men did the labour, and the other halfe part of them helde the speares, and shieldes, and bowes, and habergins: and the rulers stooode behinde all the house of Iudah. ¹⁷They that buylded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, and they that laded, did the worke with one hand, and with the other helde the sworde. ¹⁸For euery one of the buylders had his sworde girded on his loynes, and so buylded: and he that blewe the trumpet, was beside me. ¹⁹Then saide I vnto the Princes, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The worke is great and large, and we are separated vpon the wall, one farre from another. ²⁰In what place therefore ye heare the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither vnto vs: our God shall fight for vs. ²¹So we laboured in the worke, and halfe of them helde the speares, from the appearing of the morning, till the starres came foorth. ²²And at the same time said I vnto the people, Let euery one with his seruante lodge within Ierusalem, that they may be a watch for vs in the night, and labour in the day. ²³So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my seruants, nor the men of the warde, (which followed me) none of vs did put off our clothes, saue euery one put them off for washing.

¹Nowe there was a great crie of the people, and of their wiues against their brethren the Iewes. ²For there were that said, We, our sonnes and our daughters are many, therefore we take vp corne, that we may eate and liue. ³And there were that saide, We must gage our landes, and our vineyardes, and our houses, and take vp corne for the famine. ⁴There were also that said, We haue borrowed money for the Kings tribute vpon our landes and our vineyardes. ⁵And nowe our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, and our sonnes as their sonnes: and lo, we bring into subiection our sonnes and our daughters, as seruants, and there be of our daughters nowe in subiection, and there is no power in our handes: for other men haue our landes and our vineyardes. ⁶Then was I very angrie when I heard their crie and these wordes. ⁷And I thought in my minde, and

I rebuked the princes, and the rulers, and saide vnto them, You lay burthens euery one vpon his brethren: and I set a great assemblie against them, ⁸And I said vnto them, We (according to our abilitie) haue redeemed our brethren the Iewes, which were solde vnto the heathen: and will you sell your brethren againe, or shall they be solde vnto vs? Then helde they their peace, and could not answer. ⁹I said also, That which ye do, is not good. Ought ye not to walke in the feare of our God, for the reproche of the heathen our enemies? ¹⁰For euen I, my brethren, and my seruants doe lende them money and corne: I pray you, let vs leaue off this burden. ¹¹Restore, I pray you, vnto them this day their landes, their vineyardes, their oliues, and their houses, and remit the hundreth part of the siluer and of the corne, of the wine, and of the oyle that ye exact of them. ¹²Then said they, We will restore it, and will not require it of them: we will doe as thou hast said. Then I called the Priestes, and caused them to sweare, that they shoulde doe according to this promise.

¹³So I shooke my lappe, and said, So let God shake out euery man that wil not perfourme this promise from his house, and from his labour: euen thus let him be shaken out, and emptied. And all the Cogregation said, Amen, and praised the Lord: and the people did according to this promise. ¹⁴And from the time that the King gaue me charge to be gouernour in the lande of Iudah, from the twentieth yeere, euen vnto the two and thirtieth yeere of King Artahshashte, that is, twelue yeere, I, and my brethren haue not eaten the bread of the gouernour. ¹⁵For the former gouernours that were before me, had bene chargeable vnto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides fourtie shekels of siluer: yea, and their seruants bare rule ouer the people: but so did not I, because of the feare of God. ¹⁶But rather I fortified a portion in the worke of this wall, and we bought no lande, and all my seruants came thither together vnto the worke. ¹⁷Moreouer there were at my table an hundreth and fiftie of the Iewes, and rulers, which came vnto vs from among the heathen that are about vs. ¹⁸And there was prepared daily an oxe, and sixe chosen sheepe, and birdes were prepared for me, and within ten dayes wine for all in abundance. Yet for all this I required not the bread of the gouernour: for the bondage was grieuous vnto this people. ¹⁹Remember me, O my God, in goodnesse, according to all that I haue done for this people.

¹And when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had built the wall, and that there were no more breaches therein, (though at that time I had not set vp the doores vpon the gates) ²Then sent Sanballat and Geshem vnto me, saying, Come thou that we may meete together in the villages in the plaine of Ono: and they thought to doe me euill. ³Therefore I sent messengers vnto them, saying, I haue a great worke to doe, and I can not come downe: why should the worke cease, whiles I leaue it, and come downe to you? ⁴Yet they sent vnto me foure times after this sort. And I answered them after the same maner. ⁵Then sent Sanballat his seruant after this sorte vnto me the fift time, with an open letter in his hand, ⁶Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu hath sayd it, that thou and the Iewes thinke to rebel, for the which cause thou buildest the wall and thou wilt bee their King according to these wordes. ⁷Thou hast also ordeyned the Prophets to preach of thee at Ierusalem, saying, There is a King in Iudah: and nowe according to these wordes it shall come to the Kings eares: come now therefore, and let vs take counsell together. ⁸Then I sent vnto him, saying, It is not done according to these wordes that thou sayest: for thou feynest them of thine owne heart. ⁹For all they afrayed vs, saying, Their handes shalbe weakened from the worke, and it shall not be done: nowe therefore incourage thou me. ¹⁰And I came to the house of Shemaiah the sonne of Delaiah the sonne of Mehetabeel, and he was shut vp, and he said, Let vs come together into the house of God in the middes of the Temple, and shut the doores of the Temple: for they will come to slay thee: yea, in the night will they come to kill thee. ¹¹Then I said, Should such a man as I, flee? Who is he, being as I am, that would go into the Temple to liue? I will not goe in. ¹²And loe, I perceiued, that God had not sent him, but that he pronounced this prophecie against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³Therefore was he hyred, that I might be afrayde, and doe thus, and sinne, and that they might haue an euill report that they might reproche me. ¹⁴My God, remember thou Tobiah, and Sanballat according vnto these their workes, and Noadiah the Prophetesse also, and the rest of the Prophets that would haue put me in feare. ¹⁵Notwithstanding the wall was finished on the fife and twentieth day of Elul, in two and fiftie dayes. ¹⁶And when all our enemies heard thereof, euen all the heathen that were about vs, they were afraid, and their courage failed them: for they knew, that this worke was wrought by our God. ¹⁷And in these dayes were there many of the princes of Iudah, whose letters went vnto Tobiah, and those of Tobiah came vnto them. ¹⁸For there were many in Iudah, that were sworne vnto him: for he was the sonne in lawe of Shechaniah, the sonne of Arah: and his sonne Iehonathan had the daughter of Meshullam, the sonne of Berechiah. ¹⁹Yea, they spake in his praise before me, and tolde him my wordes, and Tobiah sent letters to put me in feare.

¹Nowe when the wall was builded, and I had set vp the doores, and the porters, and the singers and the Leuites were appointed, ²Then I commanded my brother Hanani and Hananiah the prince of the palace in Ierusalem (for he was doubtlesse a faithfull man, and feared God aboue many) ³And I saide vnto them, Let not the gates of Ierusalem be opened, vntill the heate of the sunne: and while they stande by, let them shut the doores, and make them fast: and I appointed wardes of the inhabitants of Ierusalem, euey one in his warde, and euey one ouer against his house. ⁴Nowe the citie was large and great, but the people were few therein, and the houses were not buylded. ⁵And my God put into mine heart, and I gathered the princes, and the rulers, and the people, to count their genealogies: and I found a booke of the genealogie of them, which came vp at the first, and found written therein, ⁶These are the sonnes of the prouince that came vp from the captiuitie that was caried away (whome Nebuchadnezzar King of Babel had caryed away) and they returned to Ierusalem and to Iudah, euey one vnto his citie. ⁷They which came with Zerubbabel, Ieshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Biguai, Nehum, Baanah. This is the nomber of the men of the people of Israel. ⁸The sonnes of Parosh, two thousande an hundreth seuentie and two. ⁹The sonnes of Shephatiah, three seuen hundreth, and three and fourtie. ³⁰The men of Ramah and Gaba, sixe hundreth and one and twentie.

³¹The men of Michmas, an hundreth and two and twentie.

⁶⁵And the Tirshatha sayd vnto them, that they should not eate of the most holy, till there rose vp a Priest with Vrim and Thummim.
⁶⁶All the Congregation together was two and fourtie thousand, three hundreth and threescore, ⁶⁷Besides their seruantes and their maydes, which were seuen thousand, three hundreth and seuen and thirtie: and they had two hundreth and fife and fourtie singing men and singing women.

⁷⁰And certaine of the chiefe fathers gaue vnto the worke. The Tirshatha gaue to the treasure, a thousand drammes of golde, fiftie basins, fife hundreth and thirtie Priests garments.

⁷¹And some of the chiefe fathers gaue vnto the treasure of the worke, twentie thousand drams of golde, and two thousande and two hundreth pieces of siluer.

⁷²And the rest of the people gaue twentie thousand drammes of golde, and two thousande pieces of siluer, and three score and seuen Priestes garments. ⁷³And the Priestes, and Leuites, and the porters and the singers and the rest of the people and the Nethinims, and all Israel dwelt in their cities: and when the seuenth moneth came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

¹And all the people assembled themselues together, in the streete that was before the watergate, and they spake vnto Ezra the Scribe, that hee would bring the booke of ye Law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded to Israel. ²And Ezra the Priest brought the Lawe before the Congregation both of men and women, and of all that coulde heare and vnderstand it, in the first day of the seuenth moneth, ³And he read therein in the streete that was before the watergate (from the morning vntill the midday) before men and women, and them that vnderstoode it, and the eares of all the people hearkened vnto the booke of the Lawe. ⁴And Ezra the Scribe stoode vpon a pulpit of wood which he had made for the preaching, and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Ananiah, and Vriiah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right hande, and on his left hand Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam. ⁵And Ezra opened the booke before all the people: for hee was aboue all the people: and when he opened it, all the people stoode vp. ⁶And Ezra prayzed the Lord the great God, and all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting vp their handes: and they bowed themselues, and worshipped the Lord with their faces toward the ground. ⁷Also Ieshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Iamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Iozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Leuites caused the people to vnderstand the

lawe, and the people stood in their place. ⁸And they read in the booke of the Lawe of God distinctly, and gaue the sense, and caused them to vnderstand the reading. ⁹Then Nehemiah (which is Tirshatha) and Ezra the Priest and scribe, and the Leuites that instructed the people, saide vnto all the people, This day is holie vnto ye Lord your God: mourne not, neither weepe: for all the people wept, whe they heard the words of the Lawe. ¹⁰He saide also vnto the, Go, and eate of the fat, and drinke the sweete, and send part vnto them, for whome none is prepared: for this day is holie vnto our Lord: be ye not sorie therefore: for the ioy of the Lord is your strength. ¹¹And the Leuites made silence throughout all the people, saying, Holde your peace: for the day is holy, be not sad therefore. ¹²Then all the people went to eate and to drinke, and to send away part, and to make great ioy, because they had vnderstand the wordes that they had taught them. ¹³And on the second day the chiefe fathers of all the people, the Priests and the Leuites were gathered vnto Ezra the scribe, that he also might instruct them in the wordes of the Lawe. ¹⁴And they found written in the Law, (that the Lord had commanded by Moses) that the children of Israel should dwel in boothes in the feast of the seuenth moneth, ¹⁵And that they shoulde cause it to bee declared and proclaimed in all their cities, and in Ierusalem, saying, Go forth vnto the mount, and bring oliue branches, and pine branches, and branches of myrtus, and palme branches, and branches of thicke trees, to make boothes, as it is written. ¹⁶So the people went forth and brought them, and made them boothes, euerie one vpon the roofe of his house, and in their courtes, and in the courtes of the house of God, and in the streete by the watergate, and in the streete of the gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷And all the Congregation of them that were come againe out of the captiuitie made boothes, and sate vnder the boothes: for since the time of Ieshua the sonne of Nun vnto this day, had not the children of Israel done so, and there was very great ioy. ¹⁸And he read in the booke of the Lawe of God euery day, from the first day vnto the last day. and they kept the feast seuen dayes, and on the eight day a solemne assemblie, according vnto the maner.

¹In the foure and twentieth day of this moneth the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackcloth, and earth vpon them. ²(And they that were of the seede of Israel were separated from all the strangers) and they stode and confessed their sinnes and the iniquities of their fathers. ³And they stood vp in their place and read in the booke of the Lawe of the Lord their GOD foure times on the day, and they confessed and worshipped the Lord their God foure times. ⁴Then stode vp vpon the staires of the Leuites Ieshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cryed with a loud voyce vnto the Lord their God. ⁵And the Leuites said, euen Ieshua and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodiiah, Shebaniah and Pethahiah, Stande vp, and praise the Lord your God for euer, and euer, and let them praise thy glorious Name, O God, which excelleth aboue all thankesgiuing and praise. ⁶Thou art Lord alone: thou hast made heauen, and the heauen of all heauens, with all their hoste, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and al that are in them, and thou preseruest them all, and the host of the heauen worshipping thee. ⁷Thou art, O Lord, the God, that hast chosen Abram, and broughtest him out of Vr in Caldea, and madest his name Abraham, ⁸And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a couenant with him, to giue vnto his seede the lande of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, and Perizzites, and Iebusites, and Girgashites, and hast performed thy wordes, because thou art iust. ⁹Thou hast also considered the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the red Sea, ¹⁰And shewed tokens and wonders vpon Pharaoh, and on all his seruants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudely against them: therefore thou madest thee a Name, as appeareth this day. ¹¹For thou didest breake vp the Sea before them, and they went through the middes of the Sea on dry lande: and those that pursued them, hast thou cast into the bottomes as a stone, in the mightie waters: ¹²And leddest them in the day with a pillar of a cloude, and in the night with a pillar of fire to giue them light in the way that they went. ¹³Thou camest downe also vpon mount Sinai, and spakest vnto them from heauen, and gauest them right iudgements, and true lawes, ordinances and good commandements, ¹⁴And declaredst vnto them thine holy Sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, and ordinances, and lawes, by the hande of Moses thy seruant: ¹⁵And gauest them bread from heauen for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rocke for their thirst: and promisedst them that they shoulde goe in, and take possession of the land: for the which thou haddest lift vp thine hand for to giue them. ¹⁶But they and our fathers behaued them selues proudely, and hardened their neck, so that they hearkened not vnto thy commandements, ¹⁷But refused to obey, and would not remember thy marueilous works that thou haddest done for them, but hardened their neckes, and had in their heads to returne to their bondage by their rebellion: but thou, O God of mercies, gracious and full of compassion, of long suffring and of great mercie, yet forsookest them not. ¹⁸Moreouer, when they made them a molten calfe (and said, This is thy God that brought thee vp out of the land of Egypt) and committed great blasphemies, ¹⁹Yet thou for thy great mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloude departed not from them by day to leade them the way, neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way whereby they should goe. ²⁰Thou gauest also thy good Spirite to instruct them, and witheldest not thy MAN from their mouth, and gauest them water for their thirst. ²¹Thou didest also feede them fourtie yeres in ye wildernes: they lacked nothing: their clothes waxed not old, and their feete swelled not.

²²And thou gauest them kingdomes and people, and scatteredst them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon and the land of ye King of Heshbon, and the land of Og King of Bashan. ²³And thou diddest multiplie their children, like the starres of the heauen, and broughtest them into the lande, whereof thou haddest spoken vnto their fathers, that they should goe, and possesse it. ²⁴So the children went in, and possessed the lande, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the lande, euen the Canaanites, and gauest them into their handes, with their Kings and the people of the lande, that they might do with them what they would. ²⁵And they tooke their strong cities and the fat lande, and possessed houses, full of all goods, cisternes digged out, vineyardes, and oliues, and trees for foode in abundance, and they did eate, and were filled, and became fat, and liued in pleasure through thy great goodnesse.

²⁶Yet they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy Lawe behinde their backes, and slewe thy Prophets (which protested among them to turne them vnto thee) and committed great blasphemies. ²⁷Therefore thou deliueredst them into the hande of their enemies that vexed them: yet in the time of their affliction, when they cryed vnto thee, thou heardest them from the heauen, and through thy great mercies thou gauest them sauours, who saued them out of the hande of their aduersaries. ²⁸But when they had rest, they returned to doe euill before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hande of their enemies, so that they had the dominion ouer them, yet when they conuerted and cryed vnto thee, thou heardest them from heauen, and deliueredst them according to thy great mercies many times, ²⁹And protestedst among them that thou mightest bring them againe vnto thy Lawe: but they behaued them selues proudly, and hearkened not vnto thy commandements, but sinned against thy iudgements (which a man should doe and liue in them) and pulled away the shoulder, and were stiffenecked, and woulde not heare. ³⁰Yet thou diddest forbear them many yeeres, and protestedst among them by thy Spirite, euen by the hande of thy Prophets, but they woulde not heare: therefore gauest thou them into the hande of the people of the lands. ³¹Yet for thy great mercies thou hast not consumed them, neither forsaken them: for thou art a gracious and mercifull God. ³²Nowe therefore our God, thou great God, mightie and terrible, that keepest couenant and mercie, let not all the affliction that hath come vnto vs, seeme a litle before thee, that is, to our Kings, to our princes, and to our Priests, and to our Prophets, and to our fathers, and to all thy people since the time of the Kings of Asshur vnto this day. ³³Surely thou art iust in all that is come vpon vs: for thou hast dealt truely, but we haue done wickedly. ³⁴And our kings and our princes, our Priests and our fathers haue not done thy Lawe, nor regarded thy commandements nor thy protestations, wherewith thou hast protested among them. ³⁵And they haue not serued thee in their kingdome, and in thy great goodnesse that thou shewedst vnto them, and in the large and fat lande which thou diddest set before them, and haue not conuerted from their euill workes. ³⁶Beholde, we are seruants this day, and the lande that thou gauest vnto our fathers, to eate the fruite thereof, and the goodnesse thereof, beholde, we are seruants therein. ³⁷And it yeeldeth much fruit vnto the kings whom thou hast set ouer vs, because of our sinnes: and they haue dominion ouer our bodyes and ouer our cattell at their pleasure, and we are in great affliction. ³⁸Now because of all this we make a sure couenant, and write it, and our princes, our Leuites and our Priestes seale vnto it.

the Leuites might haue the tithes in all the cities of our trauaile. ³⁸And the Priest, the sonne of Aaron shall be with the Leuites, when ye Leuites take tithes, and the Leuites shall bring vp the tenth parte of the tithes vnto the house of our God, vnto the chambers of the treasure house. ³⁹For the children of Israel, and the children of Leui shall bring vp the offerings of the corne, of the wine, and of the oyle, vnto the chabers: and there shalbe the vessels of the Sanctuarie, and the Priestes that minister, and the porters, and the fingers, and we will not forsake the house of our God.

¹And the rulers of the people dwelt in Ierusalem: the other people also cast lottes, to bring one out of ten to dwel in Ierusalem the holy citie, and nine partes to be in the cities. ²And the people thanked all the men that were willing to dwell in Ierusalem. ³These now are the chiefe of the prouince, that dwelt in Ierusalem, but in the cities of Iudah, euery one dwelt in his owne possession wall, and vpon the towre of the furnaces euen vnto the broad wall. ³⁹And vpon the gate of Ephraim, and vpon the olde gate, and vpon the fishgate, and the towre of Hananeel, and the towre of Meah, euen vnto the sheepegate: and they stood in the gate of the warde. ⁴⁰So stood the two companies (of them that gaue thanks) in the house of God, and I and the halfe of the rulers with me. ⁴¹The Priests also, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, Hananiah, with trumpets, ⁴²And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Vzzi, and Iehohanan, and Malchiiah, and Elam, and Ezer: and the singers sang loude, hauing Izrahiah which was the ouerseer. ⁴³And the same day they offered great sacrifices and reioyced: for God had giuen them great ioy, so that both the women, and the children were ioyfull: and the ioy of Ierusalem was heard farre off. ⁴⁴Also at the same time were men appointed ouer the chambers of the store for the offerings (for the first fruites, and for the tithes) to gather into them out of the fieldes of the cities, the portions of the Law for the Priests and the Leuites: for Iudah reioyced for the Priests and for the Leuites, that serued. ⁴⁵And both the singers and the Leuites kept the ward of their God, and the warde of the purification according to the commandement of Dauid, and Salomon his sonne. ⁴⁶For in the dayes of Dauid and Asaph, of olde were chiefe singers, and songs of praise and thankesgiuing vnto God. ⁴⁷And in the dayes of Zerubbabel, and in the dayes of Nehemiah did al Israel giue portions vnto the singers and porters, euerie day his portion, and they gaue the holy things vnto the Leuites, and the Leuites gaue the holy things vnto the sonnes of Aaron.

¹And on that day did they reade in the booke of Moses, in the audience of the people, and it was found written therein, that the Ammonite, and the Moabite should not enter into the Congregation of God, ²Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: and our

God turned the curse into a blessing. ³Now when they had heard the Lawe, they separated from Israel all those that were mixed. ⁴And before this had the Priest Eliashib the ouersight of the chamber of the house of our God, being kinsman to Tobiah: ⁵And he had made him a great chamber and there had they aforetime layde the offrings, the incense, and the vessels, and the tithes of corne, of wine, and of oyle (appointed for the Leuites, and the singers, and the porters) and the offrings of the Priests. ⁶But in all this time was not I in Ierusalem: for in the two and thirtieth yere of Artahshashte King of Babel, came I vnto the King, and after certaine dayes I obtained of the King. ⁷And when I was come to Ierusalem, I vnderstood the euil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in that hee had made him a chamber in the court of the house of God, ⁸And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the vessels of the house of Tobiah out of the chamber. ⁹And I commanded them to clense ye chambers: and thither brought I againe the vessels of the house of God with the meate offering and the incense. ¹⁰And I perceiued that the portions of the Leuites had not bene giuen, and that euery one was fled to his lande, euen the Leuites and singers that executed the worke. ¹¹Then reprobued I the rulers and sayd, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I assembled them, and set them in their place. ¹²Then brought all Iudah the tithes of corne and of wine, and of oyle vnto the treasures. ¹³And I made treasurers ouer the treasures, Shelemiah the Priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Leuites, Pedaiah, and vnder their hande Hanan the sonne of Zaccur the sonne of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithfull, and their office was to distribute vnto their brethren. ¹⁴Remember me, O my God, herein, and wipe not out my kindenes that I haue shewed on the house of my God, and on the offices thereof. ¹⁵In those dayes saw I in Iudah them, that trode wine presses on ye Sabbath, and that brought in sheaues, and which laded asses also with wine, grapes, and figges, and all burdens, and brought them into Ierusalem vpon the Sabbath day: and I protested to them in the day that they sold vitales. ¹⁶There dwelt men of Tyrus also therein, which brought fish and all wares, and solde on the Sabbath vnto the children of Iudah euen in Ierusalem. ¹⁷Then reprocued I the rulers of Iudah, and sayd vnto them, What euil thing is this that yee doe, and breake the Sabbath day? ¹⁸Did not your fathers thus, and our God brought all this plague vpon vs, and vpon this citie? yet yee increase the wrath vpon Israel, in breaking the Sabbath. ¹⁹And when the gates of Ierusalem beganne to be darke before the Sabbath, I commaded to shut the gates, and charged, that they should not be opened til after the Sabbath, and some of my seruants set I at the gates, that there shoulde no burden be brought in on the Sabbath day. ²⁰So the chapmen and marchants of al marchandise remained once or twise all night without Ierusalem. ²¹And I protested among them, and said vnto them, Why tary ye all night about the wall? If ye do it once againe, I will lay hands vpon you. from that time came they no more on the Sabbath. ²²And I sayde vnto the Leuites, that they should clense themselues, and that they shoulde come and keepe the gates, to sanctifie the Sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and pardon me according to thy great mercy. ²³In those dayes also I saw Iewes that married wiues of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab. ²⁴And their children spake halfe in ye speach of Ashdod, and could not speake in the Iewes language, and according to the language of the one people, and of the other people. ²⁵Then I reprocued them, and cursed them, and smote certaine of them, and pulled off their heare, and tooke an othe of them by God, Yee shall not giue your daughters vnto their sonnes, neither shall ye take of their daughters vnto your sonnes, nor for your selues. ²⁶Did not Salomon the king of Israel sinne by these thinges? yet among many nations was there no King like him: for he was beloued of his God, and God had made him

King ouer Israel: yet strange women caused him to sinne. ²⁷Shall wee then obey vnto you, to doe all this great euil, and to transgresse against our God, euen to marry strange wiues? ²⁸And one of the sonnes of Ioiada the sonne of Eliashib the hie Priest was the sonne in law of Sanballat the Horonite: but I chased him from me. ²⁹Remember them, O my God, that defile the Priesthoode, and the couenant of the Priesthoode, and of the Leuites. ³⁰Then cleansed I them from all strangers, and appoynted the wardes of the Priestes and of the Leuites, euery one in his office, ³¹And for the offering of the wood at times appoynted, and for the first frutes. Remember me, O my God, in goodnes.

ESTHER

Ahashuerosh sate on his throne, which was in the palace of Shushan, ³In the third yeere of his reigne, he made a feast vnto all his princes and his seruants, euen the power of Persia and Media, and to the captaines and gouernours of the prouinces which were before him, ⁴That he might shewe the riches and glorie of his kingdome, and the honour of his great maiestie many dayes, euen an hundreth and foure score dayes. ⁵And when these dayes were expired, the King made a feast to all the people that were founde in the palace of Shushan, both vnto great and small, seuen dayes, in the court of the garden of the Kings palace, ⁶Vnder an hanging of white, greene, and blue clothes, fastened with cordes of fine linen and purple, in siluer rings, and pillars of marble: the beds were of golde, and of siluer vpon a pauement of porphyre, and marble and alabaster, and blue colour. ⁷And they gaue them drinke in vessels of golde, and changed vessel after vessel, and royall wine in abundance according to the power of the King. ⁸And the drinking was by an order, none might compel: for so the King had appoynted vnto all the officers of his house, that they should do according to euery mans pleasure. ⁹The Queene Vashti made a feast also for the women in the royall house of King Ahashuerosh. ¹⁰Vpon the seuenth daye when the King was merie with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seuen eunuches, (that serued in the presence of King Ahashuerosh) ¹¹To bring Queene Vashti before the King with the crowne royall, that he might shewe the people and the princes her beautie: for shee was fayre to looke vpon. ¹²But the Queene Vashti refused to come at the Kings worde, which he had giuen in charge to the eunuches: therefore the King was very angry, and his wrath kindled in him. ¹³Then the King said to the wise men, that knew the times (for so was the Kings maner towards all that knew the law and the iudgement: ¹⁴And the next vnto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan the seuen princes of Persia and Media, which sawe the Kings face, and sate the first in the kingdome) ¹⁵What shall we do vnto the Queene Vashti according to the law, because she did not according to the worde of the King Ahashuerosh by the commission of the eunuches? ¹⁶Then Memucan answered before the King and the Princes, The Queene Vashti hath not only done euill against the King, but against all the princes, and against all the people that are in all the prouinces of King Ahashuerosh. ¹⁷For the acte of the Queene shall come abroade vnto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their owne eyes, and shall say, The King Ahashuerosh comanded Vashti the Queene to be brought in before him, but she came not. ¹⁸So shall the princesses of Persia and Media this day say vnto all the Kings Princes, when they heare of the acte of the Queene: thus shall there be much despitefulnesse and wrath. ¹⁹If it please the King, let a royal decree proceede from him, and let it be written among the statutes of Persia, and Media, (and let it not be transgressed) that Vashti come no more before King Ahashuerosh: and let the King giue her royal estate vnto her companion that is better then she.

²⁰And when the decree of the King which shalbe made, shalbe published throughout all his kingdome (though it be great) all the women shall giue their husbands honour, both great and small. ²¹And this saying pleased the King and the princes, and the King did according to the worde of Memucan. ²²For he sent letters into all the prouinces of the King, into euery prouince according to the writing thereof, and to euery people after their language, that euery man should beare rule in his owne house, and that he should publish it in the language of that same people.

¹After these things, when the wrath of King Ahashuerosh was appeased, he remembred Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. ²And the Kings seruants that ministred vnto him, sayd, Let them seeke for the King beautifull yong virgins, ³And let the King appoynt officers through all the prouinces of his kingdome, and let them gather all the beautiful yong virgins vnto the palace of Shushan, into the house of the women, vnder the hand of Hege the Kings eunuche, keeper of the women, to giue them their things for purification. ⁴And the mayde that shall please the King, let her reigne in the steade of Vashti. And this pleased the King, and he did so. ⁵In the citie of Shushan, there was a certaine Iewe, whose name was Mordecai the sonne of Iair, the sonne of Shimei, the sonne of Kish a man of Iemini, ⁶Which had bene caryed away from Ierusalem with the captiuitie that was caryed away with Ieconiah King of Iudah (whom Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel had caryed away) ⁷And he nourished Hadassah, that is Ester, his vncles daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the mayde was fayre, and beautifull to looke on: and after the death of her father, and her mother, Mordecai tooke her for his own daughter ⁸And when the Kings commandement, and his decree was published, and many maydes were brought together to the palace of Shushan, vnder the hand of Hege, Ester was brought also vnto the Kings house vnder the hande of Hege the keeper of the women. ⁹And the mayde pleased him, and she founde fauour in his sight: therefore he caused her things for purification to be giuen her speedily, and her state, and seuen comely maides to be giuer her out of the Kings house, and he gaue change to her and to her maydes of the best in the house of the women. ¹⁰But Ester shewed not her people and her kinred: for Mordecai had charged her, that shee should not tell it. ¹¹Aud Mordecai walked euery day before the court of the womens house, to knowe if Ester did well, and what should be done with her. ¹²And when the course of euery mayd came, to go in to King Ahashuerosh, after that she had bene twelue moneths according to the maner of the women (for so were the dayes of their purifications accomplished, sixe moneths with oyle of myrrhe, and sixe moneths with sweete odours and in the purifying of the women: ¹³And thus went the maides vnto the King) whatsoeuer she required, was giuen her, to go with her out of the womens house vnto ye kings house. ¹⁴In the euening she went, and on the morow she returned into the second house of the women vnder the hand of Shaashgaz the Kings eunuche, which kept the concubines: shee came in to the King no more, except shee pleased the King, and that she were called by name. ¹⁵Now when the course of Ester the daughter of Abihail the vncle of Mordecai (which had taken her as his owne daughter) came, that shee should go in to the King, she desired nothing, but what Hege the Kings eunuche the keeper of the women sayde: and Ester founde fauour in the sight of all them that looked vpon her. ¹⁶So Ester was taken vnto King Ahashuerosh into his house royall in the tenth moneth, which is the moneth Tebeth, in the seuenth yeere of his reigne. ¹⁷And the King loued Ester aboue all the women, and shee founde grace and fauour in his sight more then all the virgins: so that he set the crowne of the kingdome vpon her head, and made her Queene instead of Vashti. ¹⁸Then the King made a great feast vnto all his princes, and his seruants, which was the feast of Ester, and gaue rest vnto the prouinces, and gaue gifts, according to the power of a King. ¹⁹And whe the virgins were gathered ye second time, then Mordecai sate in the Kings gate. ²⁰Ester had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people, as Mordecai had charged her: for Ester did after the worde of Mordecai, as when she was nourished with him. ²¹In those dayes whe Mordecai sate in the Kings gate, two of the Kings eunuches, Bigthan and Teresh, which kept the doore, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the King Ahashuerosh. ²²And the thing was knowen to Mordecai, and he tolde it vnto Queene Ester, and Ester certified the King thereof in Mordecais name:

and when inquisition was made, it was found so: therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the booke of the Chronicles before the King.

¹After these things did King Ahashuerosh promote Haman the sonne of Hammedatha the Agagite, and exalted him, and set his seate aboue all the princes that were with him. ²And all the Kings seruants that were at the Kings gate, bowed their knees, and reuerenced Haman: for the King had so commanded concerning him: but Mordecai bowed not the knee, neither did reuerence. ³Then the Kings seruants which were at the Kings gate, said vnto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the Kings commandement? ⁴And albeit they spake dayly vnto him, yet he would not heare them: therefore they tolde Haman, that they might see how Mordecais matters would stande: for he had tolde them, that he was a Iewe. ⁵And when Haman sawe that Mordecai bowed not the knee vnto him, nor did reuerence vnto him, then Haman was full of wrath. ⁶Now he thought it too litle to lay hands onely on Mordecai: and because they had shewed him the people of Mordecai, Haman sought to destroy all the Iewes, that were throughout the whole kingdome of Ahashuerosh, euen the people of Mordecai. ⁷In the first moneth (that is the moneth Nisan) in the twelft yere of King Ahashuerosh, they cast Pur (that is a lot) before Haman, from day to day, and from moneth to moneth, vnto the twelft moneth, that is the moneth Adar. ⁸Then Haman said vnto King Ahashuerosh, There is a people scattered, and dispersed among the people in all the prouinces of thy kingdome, and their lawes are diuers from all people, and they doe not obserue the Kings lawes: therefore it is not the Kings profite to suffer them. ⁹If it please the King, let it be written that they may be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of siluer by the handes of them that haue the charge of this businesse to bring it into the Kings treasurie. ¹⁰Then the King tooke his ring from his hand and gaue it vnto Haman the sonne of Hammedatha the Agagite the Iewes aduersarie. ¹¹And the King sayde vnto Haman, Let the siluer be thine, and the people to doe with them as it pleaseth thee. ¹²Then were the Kings scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first moneth, and there was written (according to all that Haman commanded) vnto the Kings officers, and to the captaines that were ouer euery prouince, and to the rulers of euery people, and to euery prouince, according to the writing thereof, and to euery people according to their language: in the name of King Ahashuerosh was it written, and sealed with the Kings ring. ¹³And the letters were sent by postes into all the Kings prouinces, to roote out, to kill and to destroy all the Iewes, both yong and olde, children and women, in one day vpon the thirteenth day of the twelft moneth, (which is the moneth Adar) and to spoyle them as a pray. ¹⁴The contents of the writing was, that there shoulde be giuen a commandement in all prouinces, and published vnto all people, that they should be ready against the same day. ¹⁵And the postes compelled by the Kings commandement went forth, and the commandement was giuen in the palace at Shushan: and the King and Haman sate drinking, but the citie of Shushan was in perplexitie.

¹Now when Mordecai perceiued all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackecloth and ashes, and went out into the middes of the citie, and cryed with a great crye, and a bitter. ²And he came euen before the Kings gate, but he might not enter within the Kings gate, being clothed with sackecloth. ³And in euery prouince, and place, whither the Kings charge and his commission came, there was great sorowe among the Iewes, and fasting, and weeping and mourning, and many laye in sackecloth and in ashes. ⁴Then Esters maydes and her eunuches came and tolde it her: therefore the Queene was very heauie, and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackecloth from him, but he

receiued it not. ⁵Then called Ester Hatach one of the Kings eunuches, whom he had appointed to serue her, and gaue him a commandement vnto Mordecai, to knowe what it was, and why it was. ⁶So Hatach went forth to Mordecai vnto the streete of the citie, which was before the Kings gate. ⁷And Mordecai tolde him of all that which had come vnto him, and of the summe of the siluer that Haman had promised to pay vnto the Kings treasures, because of the Iewes, for to destroy them. ⁸Also he gaue him the copy of the writing and commission that was giuen at Shushan, to destroy them, that he might shewe it vnto Ester and declare it vnto her, and to charge her that she should goe in to the King, and make petition and supplication before him for her people. ⁹So when Hatach came, he told Ester the wordes of Mordecai. ¹⁰Then Ester sayde vnto Hatach, and commanded him to say vnto Mordecai, ¹¹All the Kings seruants and the people of the Kings prouinces doe knowe, that whosoeuer, man or woman, that commeth to the King into the inner court, which is not called, there is a law of his, that he shall dye, except him to whom the King holdeth out the golden rodde, that he may liue. Now I haue not bene called to come vnto the King these thirtie dayes. ¹²And they certified Mordecai of Esters wordes. ¹³And Mordecai saide, that they should answer Ester thus, Thinke not with thy selfe that thou shalt escape in the Kings house, more then all the Iewes. ¹⁴For if thou holdest thy peace at this time, comfort and deliuerance shall appeare to the Iewes out of another place, but thou and thy fathers house shall perish: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdome for such a time? ¹⁵Then Ester commanded to answer Mordecai, ¹⁶Goe, and assemble all the Iewes that are found in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and eate not, nor drinke in three dayes, day nor night. I also and my maydes will fast likewise, and so will I go in to the King, which is not according to the lawe: and if I perish, I perish. ¹⁷So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Ester had commanded him.

¹And on the third day Ester put on her royal apparel, and stood in the court of the Kings palace within, ouer against the Kings house: and the King sate vpon his royal throne in the Kings palace ouer against the gate of the house. ²And when the King saw Ester the Queene standing in the court, shee founde fauour in his sight: and the King held out the golden scepter that was in his hand: so Ester drewe neere, and touched the toppe of the scepter. ³Then saide the King vnto her, What wilt thou, Queene Ester? and what is thy request? it shall be euen giuen thee to the halfe of ye kingdome. ⁴Then saide Ester, If it please the King, let the King and Haman come this day vnto the banket, that I haue prepared for him. ⁵And the King sayd, Cause Haman to make haste that he may doe as Ester hath sayde. So the King and Haman came to the banket that Ester had prepared.

⁶And the King sayd vnto Ester at the banket of wine, What is thy petition, that it may be giuen thee? and what is thy request? it shall euen be performed vnto the halfe of the kingdome. ⁷Then answered Ester, and sayd, My petition and my request is, ⁸If I haue found fauour in the sight of the King, and if it please the King to giue me my petition, and to perfourme my request, let the King and Haman come to the banket that I shall prepare for them, and I will doe to morowe according to the Kings saying. ⁹Then went Haman forth the same day ioyfull and with a glad heart. But when Haman sawe Mordecai in the Kings gate, that he stooode not vp, nor moued for him, then was Haman full of indignation at Mordecai. ¹⁰Neuerthelesse Haman refrayned himselfe: and when he came home, he sent, and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife. ¹¹And Haman tolde them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the King had promoted him, and how that he had set him aboue the princes and seruants of the King. ¹²Haman sayde moreouer, Yea, Ester the Queene did let no man come in with the King to the banket that she had prepared, saue me: and to morowe am I bidden vnto her also with the King. ¹³But al this doth nothing auaille me, as long as I see Mordecai ye Iewe sitting at ye Kings gate. ¹⁴Then sayde Zeresh his wife and all his friends vnto him, Let them make a tree of fiftie cubites hie, and to morowe speake thou vnto the King, that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then shalt thou goe ioyfully with the King vnto the banket. And the thing pleased Haman, and he caused to make the tree.

¹The same night the King slept not, and he comanded to bring ye booke of the records, and the chronicles: and they were read before ye King. ²Then it was found written that Mordecai had tolde of Bigtana, and Teresh two of the Kings eunuches, keepers of the dore, who sought to lay hands on the King Ahashuerosh. ³Then the King sayde, What honour and dignitie hath bene giuen to Mordecai for this? And the Kings seruants that ministred vnto him, sayd, 'There is nothing done for him. ⁴And the King sayde, Who is in the court? (Now Haman was come into the inner court of the Kings house, that he might speake vnto the King to hang Mordecai on the tree that he had prepared for him.) ⁵And the Kings seruants said vnto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the King sayd, Let him come in. ⁶And when Haman came in, the King saide vnto him, What shalbe done vnto ye man, whom the King will honour? Then Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the King do honour more then to me? ⁷And Haman answered the King, The man whome the King would honour, ⁸Let them bring for him royall apparell, which the King vseth to weare, and the horse that the King rideth vpon, and that the crowne royall may be set vpon his head. ⁹And let the raiment and the horse be deliuered by the hand of one of the Kings most noble princes, and let them apparel the man (whome the King will honour) and cause him to ride vpon the horse thorow the streete of the citie, and proclayme before him, Thus shall it be done vnto the man, whome the King will honour. ¹⁰Then the King said to Haman, Make haste, take the rayment and the horse as thou hast said, and doe so vnto Mordecai the Iewe, that sitteth at the Kings gate: let nothing fayle of all that thou hast spoken. ¹¹So Haman tooke the rayment and the horse, and arayed Mordecai, and brought him on horse backe thorowe the streete of the citie, and proclaymed before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the King will honour. ¹²And Mordecai came againe to the Kings gate, but Haman hasted home mourning and his head couered. ¹³And Haman tolde Zeresh his wife, and all his friends all that had befallen him. Then sayd his wise men, and Zeresh his wife vnto him, If Mordecai be of the seede of the Iewes, before whom thou hast begunne to fall; thou shalt not preuaile against him, but shalt surely fall before him. ¹⁴And while they were yet talking with him, came the Kings eunuches and hasted to bring Haman vnto the banket that Ester had prepared.

¹So the King and Haman came to banket with the Queene Ester. ²And the King said againe vnto Ester on the second day at the banket of wine, What is thy petition, Queene Ester, that it may be giue thee? and what is thy request? It shalbe euen perfourmed vnto the halfe of the kingdome. ³And Ester the Queene answered, and said, If I haue found fauour in thy sight, O King, and if it please the King, let my life be giuen me at my petition, and my people at my request. ⁴For we are solde, I, and my people, to be destroyed, to be slayne and to perish: but if we were solde for seruants, and for handmaides, I woulde haue helde my tongue: although the aduersarie could not recompense the Kings losse. ⁵Then King Ahashuerosh answered, and said vnto the Queene Ester, Who is he? and where is he that presumeth to doe thus? ⁶And Ester said, The aduersarie and enimie is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afrayde before the King and the Queene. ⁷And the King arose from ye banket of wine in his wrath, and went into the palace garden: but Haman stood vp, to make request for his life to the Queene Ester: for he sawe that there was a mischief prepared for him of the King. ⁸And when the King came againe out of the palace garden, into the house where they dranke wine, Haman was fallen vpon the bed whereon Ester sate! therefore the King sayd, Will he force the Queene also before me in the house? As the worde went out of the Kings mouth, they couered Hamans face. ⁹And Harbonah one of the eunuches, sayde in the presence of the King, Beholde, there standeth yet the tree in Hamans house fiftie cubites hie, which Haman had prepared for Mordecai, that spake good for the King. Then the King sayd, Hang him thereon. ¹⁰So they hanged Haman on the tree, that he had prepared for Mordecai: then was the Kings wrath pacified.

¹The same day did King Ahashuerosh giue the house of Haman the aduersarie of the Iewes vnto the Queene Ester. and Mordecai came before the King: for Ester tolde what hee was vnto her. ²And the King tooke off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gaue it vnto Mordecai: and Ester set Mordecai ouer the house of Haman. ³And Ester spake yet more before the King, and fell downe at his feete weeping, and besought him that he would put away the wickednes of Haman the Agagite, and his deuice that he had imagined against the Iewes. ⁴And the King held out the golden scepter toward Ester. Then arose Ester, and stood before the King, ⁵And sayd, If it please the King, and if I haue found fauour in his sight, and the thing be acceptable before the King, and I please him, let it be written, that the letters of the deuice of Haman the sonne of Ammedatha the Agagite may be called againe, which he wrote to destroy the Iewes, that are in all the Kings prouinces. ⁶For how can I suffer and see the euil, that shall come vnto my people? Or howe can I suffer and see the destruction of my kinred? ⁷And the King Ahashuerosh sayde vnto the Queene Ester, and to Mordecai the Iewe, Behold, I haue giuen Ester the house of Haman, whome they haue hanged vpon the tree, because he layd hand vpon the Iewes. ⁸Write yee also for the Iewes, as it liketh you in the Kinges name, and seale it with the Kings ring (for the writings written in the Kings name, and sealed with the Kings ring, may no man reuoke) ⁹Then were the Kings Scribes called at the same time, euen in the thirde moneth, that is the moneth Suan, on the three and twentieth day thereof: and it was written, according to all as Mordecai commanded, vnto the Iewes and to the princes, and captaines, and rulers of the prouinces, which were from India euen vnto Ethiopia, an hundreth and seuen and twentie prouinces, vnto euery prouince, according to the writing thereof, and to euery people after their speache, and to the Iewes, according to their writing, and according to their language. ¹⁰And hee wrote in the King Ahashuerosh name, and sealed it with the Kings ring: and he sent letters by postes on horsebacke and that rode on beastes of price, as dromedaries and coltes of mares. ¹¹Wherein the King graunted the Iewes (in what cities so euer they were) to gather theselues together, and to stand for their life, and to roote out, to slay and to destroy al the power of the people and of the prouince that vexed them, both children and women, and to spoyle their goods: ¹²Vpon one day in all the prouinces of King Ahashuerosh, euen in the thirteenth day of the twelft moneth, which is the moneth Adar. ¹³The copie of the writing was, howe there should be a commandement giuen in all and euery prouince, published among all the people, and that the Iewes should be ready against that day to auenge themselves on their enemies. ¹⁴So the postes rode vpon beastes of price, and dromedaries, and went forth with speede, to execute the Kings commandement, and the decree was giuen at Shushan the palace.

¹⁵And Mordecai went out from the King in royall apparell of blewe, and white, and with a great crowne of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple, and the citie of Shushan reioyced and was glad. ¹⁶And vnto the Iewes was come light and ioy and gladnes, and honour. ¹⁷Also in all and euery prouince, and in al and euery citie and place, where the Kings commandement and his decree came, there was ioy and gladnes to the Iewes, a feast and good day, and many of the people of the land became Iewes: for the feare of the Iewes fell vpon them.

¹So in the twelft moneth, which is the moneth Adar, vpon the thirteenth daye of the same, when the Kings commandement and his decree drew neere to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Iewes hoped to haue power ouer them (but it turned contrary: for the Iewes had rule ouer them that hated them) ²The Iewes gathered themselves together into their cities throughout all the prouinces of the King Ahashuerosh, to lay

hande on such as sought their hurt, and no man coulede withstande them: for the feare of them fel vpon al people. ³And all the rulers of the prouinces, and the princes and the captaines, and the officers of the King exalted the Iewes: for the feare of Mordecai fell vpon them. ⁴For Mordecai was great in the kings house, and the report of him went through all the prouinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater. ⁵Thus the Iewes smote all their enemies with strokes of the sworde and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they woulde vnto those that hated them. ⁶And at Shushan the palace slewe the Iewes and destroyed fīue hundreth men, ⁷And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, ⁸And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, ⁹And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vaiezatha, ¹⁰The ten sonnes of Haman, ye sonne of Ammedatha, the aduersarie of the Iewes slewe they: but they layd not their hands on the spoyle. ¹¹On the same day came ye number of those that were slayne, vnto the palace of Shushan before the King. ¹²And the King sayd vnto the Queene Ester, The Iewes haue slayne in Shushan the palace and destroyed fīue hundreth men, and the ten sonnes of Haman: what haue they done in the rest of the Kings prouinces? and what is thy petition, that it may be giuen thee? or what is thy request moreouer, that it may be performed? ¹³Then sayd Ester, If it please the King, let it be granted also to morow to the Iewes that are in Shushan, to do according vnto this daies decree, that they may hang vpon ye tree Hamans ten sonnes. ¹⁴And the King charged to doe so, and the decree was giuen at Shushan, and they hanged Hamans ten sonnes. ¹⁵So the Iewes that were in Shushan, assembled themselues vpon the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar, and slew three hundreth men in Shushan, but on the spoyle they layd not their hand. ¹⁶And the rest of the Iewes that were in the Kings prouinces assembled themselues, and stood for their liues, and had rest from their enemies, and slewe of them that hated them, seuentie and five thousand: but they layd not their hand on the spoyle.

¹⁷This they did on the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, and rested the fourteenth day thereof, and kept it a day of feasting and ioy. ¹⁸But the Iewes that were in Shushan assembled themselues on the thirteenth day, and on the fourteenth therof, and they rested on the fifteenth of the same, and kept it a day of feasting and ioy.

¹⁹Therefore the Iewes of the villages that dwelt in the vnwalled townes, kept the foureteenth day of the moneth Adar with ioy and feasting, euen a ioyfull day, and euery one sent presents vnto his neighbour. ²⁰And Mordecai wrote these words, and sent letters vnto all the Iewes that were through all the prouinces of the King Ahashuerosh, both neere and farre, ²¹Inioyning them that they shoulde keepe the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, euery yeere. ²²According to the dayes wherein the Iewes rested from their enemies, and the moneth which was turned vnto them from sorowe to ioy, and from mourning into a ioyfull day, to keepe them the dayes of feasting, and ioy, and to sende presents euery man to his neyghbour, and giftes to the poore. ²³And the Iewes promised to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written vnto them, ²⁴Because Haman the sonne of Hammedatha the Agagite al the Iewes aduersarie, had imagined against the Iewes, to destroy them, and had cast Pur (that is a lot) to consume and destroy them. ²⁵And when she came before the King, he commanded by letters, Let this wicked deuise (which he imagined against the Iewes) turne vpon his owne head, and let them hang him and his sonnes on the tree. ²⁶Therefore they called these dayes Purim, by the name of Pur, and because of all the wordes of this letter, and of that which they had seene besides this, and of that which had come vnto them. ²⁷The Iewes also ordeined, and promised for them and for their seede, and for all that ioyned vnto them, that they would not faile to obserue those two dayes euery yeere, according to their writing, and according to their season, ²⁸And that these dayes shoulde be remembred, and kept throughout euery generation and euery familie, and euery prouince, and euery cite: euen these daies of Purim should not faile among the Iewes, and the memoriall of them should not perish from their seede. ²⁹And the Queene Ester ye daughter of Abihail and Mordecai the Iew wrote with al authoritie (to cofirme this letter of Purim ye second time) ³⁰And he sent letters vnto al the Iewes to the hundreth and seuen and twentie prouinces of the kingdome of Ahashuerosh, with words of peace and trueth, ³¹To confirme these dayes of Purim, according to their seasons, as Mordecai the Iewe and Ester the Queene had appointed them, and as they had promised for them selues and for their seede with fasting and prayer. ³²And the decree of Ester confirmed these words of Purim, and was written in the booke.

¹And the King Ahashuerosh layd a tribute vpon the land, and vpon the yles of the sea. ²And all the actes of his power, and of his might, and the declaration of the dignitie of Mordecai, wherwith the King magnified him, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia? ³For Mordecai the Iewe was the second vnto King Ahashuerosh, and great among the Iewes, and accepted among the multitude of his brethren, who procured the wealth of his people, and spake peaceably to all his seede.

JOB

¹There was a man in the lande of Vz called Iob, and this man was an vpright and iust man, one that feared God, and eschewed euill. ²And he had seue sonnes, and three daughters. ³His substance also was seuen thousande sheepe, and three thousand camels, and fife hundreth yoke of oxen, and fife hundreth shee asses, and his family was very great, so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the East. ⁴And his sonnes went and banketted in their houses, euery one his day, and sent, and called their three sisters to eate and to drinke with them. ⁵And when the dayes of their banketting were gone about, Iob sent, and sanctified them, and rose vp early in the morning, and offred burnt offrings according to the number of them all. For Iob thought, It may be that my sonnes haue sinned, and blasphemed God in their hearts: thus did Iob euery day. ⁶Nowe on a day when the children of God came and stode before the Lord, Satan came also among them. ⁷Then the Lord sayde vnto Satan, Whence comest thou? And Satan answered the Lord, saying, From compassing the earth to and from, and from walking in it. ⁸And the Lord saide vnto Satan, Hast thou not considered my seruant Iob, how none is like him in the earth? an vpright and iust man, one that feareth God, and escheweth euill? ⁹Then Satan answered the Lord, and sayde, Doeth Iob feare God for nought? ¹⁰Hast thou not made an hedge about him and about his house, and about all that he hath on euery side? thou hast blessed the worke of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. ¹¹But stretch out now thine hand and touch all that he hath, to see if he will not blaspheme thee to thy face. ¹²Then the Lord sayde vnto Satan, Lo, all that he hath is in thine hand: onely vpon himselfe shalt thou not stretch out thine hand. So Satan departed from the presence of the Lord. ¹³And on a day, when his sonnes and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house, ¹⁴There came a messenger vnto Iob, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding in their places, ¹⁵And the Shabeans came violently, and tooke them: yea, they haue slayne the seruants with the edge of the sworde: but I onely am escaped alone to tell thee. ¹⁶And whiles he was yet speaking, another came, and sayde, The fire of God is fallen from the heauen, and hath burnt vp the sheepe and the seruants, and deuoured them: but I onely am escaped alone to tell thee.

¹⁷And whiles he was yet speaking, another came, and sayd, The Caldeans set on three bands, and fell vpon the camels, and haue taken them, and haue slayne the seruantes with the edge of the sworde: but I onely am escaped alone to tell thee. ¹⁸And whiles he was yet speaking, came an other, and sayd, Thy sonnes, and thy daughters were eating, and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house, ¹⁹And behold, there came a great wind from beyonde the wilderness, and smote the foure corners of the house, which fel vpon the children, and they are dead, and I onely am escaped alone to tell thee. ²⁰Then Iob arose, and rent his garment, and shaued his head, and fel downe vpon the ground, and worshipped, ²¹And sayd, Naked came I out of my mothers wombe, and naked shall I returne thither: the Lord hath giuen, and the Lord hath taken it: blessed be the Name of the Lord. ²²In all this did not Iob sinne, nor charge God foolishly.

¹And on a day the children of God came and stood before the Lord, and Satan came also among them, and stode before the Lord. ²Then the Lord sayde vnto Satan, Whence comest thou? And Satan answered the Lord, and sayd, From compassing the earth to and from, and from walking in it. ³And the Lord sayd vnto Satan, Hast thou not considered my seruant Iob, how none is like him in the earth? an vpright and iust man, one that feareth God, and escheweth euill? for yet he continueth in his vprightnesse, although thou mouedst me against him, to destroy him without cause. ⁴And Satan answered the Lord, and sayde, Skin for skin, and all that euer a man hath, will he giue for his life. ⁵But stretch now out thine hand, and touch his bones and his flesh, to see if he will not blaspheme thee to thy face. ⁶Then the Lord said vnto Satan, Lo, he is in thine hand, but saue his life. ⁷So Satan departed from the presence of the Lord, and smote Iob with sore boyles, from the sole of his foote vnto his crowne.

⁸And he tooke a potsharde to scrape him, and he sate downe among the ashes. ⁹Then said his wife vnto him, Doest thou continue yet in thine vprightnes? Blaspheme God, and dye. ¹⁰But he said vnto her, Thou speakest like a foolish woman: what? shall we receiue good at the hande of God, and not receiue euill? In all this did not Iob sinne with his lippes. ¹¹Nowe when Iobs three friends heard of all this euill that was come vpon him, they came euery one from his owne place, to wit, Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they were agreed together to come to lament with him, and to comfort him. ¹²So when they lift vp their eyes a farre off, they knewe him not: therefore they lift vp their voyces and wept, and euery one of them rent his garment, and sprinkled dust vpon their heads toward the heauen. ¹³So they sate by him vpon the ground seuen dayes, and seuen nights, and none spake a worde vnto him: for they sawe, that the grieve was very great.

¹Afterward Iob opened his mouth, and cursed his day. ²And Iob cryed out, and sayd, ³Let the day perish, wherein I was borne, and the night when it was sayde, There is a man childe conceiued. ⁴Let that day bee darkenesse, let not God regarde it from aboue, neyther let the light shine vpon it, ⁵But let darkenesse, and the shadowe of death staine it: let the cloude remayne vpon it, and let them make it fearefull as a bitter day. ⁶Let darkenesse possesse that night, let it not be ioyned vnto the dayes of the yeere, nor let it come into the count of the moneths. ⁷Yea, desolate be that night, and let no ioy be in it. ⁸Let them that curse the day, (being readie to renewe their mourning) curse it. ⁹Let the starres of that twilight be dimme through darkenesse of it: let it looke for light, but haue none: neither let it see the dawning of the day, ¹⁰Because it shut not vp the dores of my mothers wombe: nor hid sorowe from mine eyes. ¹¹Why died I not in the birth? or why dyed I not, when I came out of the wombe?

¹²Why did the knees preuent me? and why did I sucke the breasts?

¹³For so shoulde I now haue lyen and bene quiet, I should haue slept then, and bene at rest, ¹⁴With the Kings and counselors of the earth, which haue buylded themselues desolate places: ¹⁵Or with the princes that had golde, and haue filled their houses with siluer. ¹⁶Or why was I not hid, as an vntimely birth, either as infants, which haue not seene the light? ¹⁷The wicked haue there ceased from their tyrannie, and there they that laboured valiantly, are at rest. ¹⁸The prisoners rest together, and heare not the voyce of the oppressour. ¹⁹There are small and great, and the seruant is free from his master. ²⁰Wherefore is the light giuen to him that is in miserie? and life vnto them that haue heauie hearts? ²¹Which long for death, and if it come not, they would euen search it more then treasures: ²²Which ioy for gladnes, and reioyce, when they can finde the graue. ²³Why is the light giuen to the man whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in? ²⁴For my sighing commeth before I eate, and my roarings are powred out like the water. ²⁵For the thing I feared, is come vpon me, and the thing that I was afraid of, is come vnto me.

²⁶I had no peace, neither had I quietnesse, neither had I rest, yet trouble is come.

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, and sayde, ²If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withholde himselfe from speaking? ³Behold, thou hast taught many, and hast strengthened the wearie hands. ⁴Thy wordes haue confirmed him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the weake knees. ⁵But now it is come vpon thee, and thou art grieved: it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled. ⁶Is not this thy feare, thy confidence, thy pacience, and the vprightnesse of thy wayes? ⁷Remember, I pray thee: who euer perished, being an innocent? or where were the vpright destroyed? ⁸As I haue seene, they that plow iniquitie, and sowe wickednesse, reape the same. ⁹With the blast of God they perish, and with the breath of his nostrils are they cosumed. ¹⁰The roaring of the Lion, and the voyce of the Lionesse, and the teeth of the Lions whelpes are broken. ¹¹The Lyon perisheth for lacke of pray, and the Lyons whelpes are scattered abroad. ¹²But a thing was brought to me secretly, and mine eare hath receiued a litle thereof. ¹³In the thoughtes of ye visions of the night, when sleepe falleth on men, ¹⁴Feare came vpon me, and dread which made all my bones to tremble. ¹⁵And the wind passed before me, and made the heares of my flesh to stande vp. ¹⁶Then stode one, and I knewe not his face: an image was before mine eyes, and in silence heard I a voyce, saying, ¹⁷Shall man be more iust then God? or shall a man be more pure then his maker? ¹⁸Beholde, he founde no stedfastnesse in his Seruants, and laid follie vpon his Angels. ¹⁹Howe much more in them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which shalbe destroyed before the moth? ²⁰They be destroyed from the morning vnto the euening: they perish for euer, without regarde. ²¹Doeth not their dignitie goe away with them? do they not die, and that without wisdom?

¹Call nowe, if any will answere thee, and to which of the Saintes wilt thou turne? ²Doubtlesse anger killeth the foolish, and enuie slayeth the idiote. ³I haue seene the foolish well rooted, and suddenly I cursed his habitation, saying, ⁴His children shalbe farre from saluation, and they shall be destroyed in the gate, and none shall deliuer them. ⁵The hungrie shall eate vp his haruest: yea, they shall take it from among the thornes, and the thirstie shall drinke vp their substance. ⁶For miserie commeth not foorth of the dust, neither doeth affliction spring out of the earth. ⁷But man is borne vnto trauaile, as the sparkes flie vpwarde. ⁸But I would inquire at God, and turne my talke vnto God: ⁹Which doeth great things and vnsearchable, and marueilous things without number. ¹⁰He giueth raine vpon the earth, and powreth water vpon the streetes, ¹¹And setteth vp on hie them that be lowe, that the sorowfull may be exalted to saluation. ¹²He scattereth the deuices of the craftie: so that their handes can not accomplish that which they doe enterprise. ¹³He taketh the wise in their craftinesse, and the counsel of the wicked is made foolish. ¹⁴They meete with darkenesse in the day time, and grope at noone day, as in the night. ¹⁵But he saueth the poore from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hande of the violent man, ¹⁶So that the poore hath his hope, but iniquitie shall stop her mouth. ¹⁷Beholde, blessed is the man whome God correcteth: therefore refuse not thou the chastising of the Almighty. ¹⁸For he maketh the wound, and bindeth it vp: he smiteth, and his handes make whole. ¹⁹He shall deliuer thee in sixe troubles, and in the seuenth the euill shall not touch thee. ²⁰In famine he shall deliuer thee from death: and in battel from the power of the sworde. ²¹Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue, and thou shalt not be afraid of destruction when it commeth. ²²But thou shalt laugh at destruction and dearth, and shalt not be afraide of the beast of the earth. ²³For the stones of the fielde shall be in league with thee, and the beastes of the field shall be at peace with thee. ²⁴And thou shalt knowe, that peace shall be in thy tabernacle, and thou shalt visite thine habitation, and shalt not sinne. ²⁵Thou shalt perceiue also, that thy seede shalbe great, and thy posteritie as the grasse of the earth. ²⁶Thou shalt goe to thy graue in a ful age, as a ricke of corne commeth in due season into the barne. ²⁷Lo, thus haue we inquired of it, and so it is: heare this and knowe it for thy selfe.

¹Bvt Iob answered, and said, ²Oh that my grieve were well weighed, and my miseries were layed together in the balance. ³For it woulde be nowe heauier then the sande of the sea: therefore my wordes are swallowed vp. ⁴For the arrowes of the Almighty are in me, the venime whereof doeth drinke vp my spirit, and the terroures of God fight against me.

5Doeth the wilde asse bray when he hath grasse? or loweth the ox when he hath fodder? 6That which is vnsauerie, shall it be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egge?
7Such things as my soule refused to touch, as were sorowes, are my meate. 8Oh that I might haue my desire, and that God would grant me the thing that I long for! 9That is, that God would destroy me: that he would let his hand go, and cut me off. 10Then should I yet haue comfort, (though I burne with sorowe, let him not spare) because I haue not denyed the wordes of the Holy one. 11What power haue I that I should endure? or what is mine end, if I should prolong my life? 12Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brasse? 13Is it not so, that there is in me no helpe? and that strength is taken from me? 14He that is in miserie, ought to be comforted of his neighbour: but men haue forsaken the feare of the Almightye. 15My brethre haue deceiued me as a brook, and as the rising of the riuers they passe away. 16Which are blackish with yee, and wherein the snowe is hid. 17But in time they are dried vp with heate and are consumed: and when it is hote they faile out of their places, 18Or they depart from their way and course, yea, they vanish and perish. 19They that go to Tema, considered them, and they that goe to Sheba, waited for them. 20But they were confounded: when they hoped, they came thither and were ashamed. 21Surely nowe are ye like vnto it: ye haue seene my fearefull plague, and are afraide. 22Was it because I said, Bring vnto me? or giue a rewarde to me of your substance? 23And deliuer me from the enemies hande, or ransome me out of the hand of tyrants?

24Teach me, and I wil hold my tongue: and cause me to vnderstande, wherein I haue erred. 25Howe stedfast are the wordes of righteousnes? and what can any of you iustly reprove?
26Doe ye imagine to reprove wordes, that the talke of the afflicted should be as the winde?

²⁷Ye make your wrath to fall vpon the fatherlesse, and dig a pit for your friende. ²⁸Nowe therefore be content to looke vpon me: for I will not lie before your face. ²⁹Turne, I pray you, let there be none iniquitie: returne, I say, and ye shall see yet my righteousnesse in that behalfe. Is there iniquitie in my tongue? doeth not my mouth feelee sorowes?

¹Is there not an appointed time to man vpon earth? and are not his dayes as the dayes of an hyreling? ²As a seruant longeth for the shadowe, and as an hyreling looketh for the ende of his worke, ³So haue I had as an inheritance the moneths of vanitie, and painefull nights haue bene appointed vnto me. ⁴If I layed me downe, I sayde, When shall I arise? and measuring the euening I am euen full with tossing to and from vnto the dawning of the day. ⁵My flesh is clothed with wormes and filthinesse of the dust: my skinne is rent, and become horrible. ⁶My dayes are swifter then a weauers shittle, and they are spent without hope. ⁷Remember that my life is but a wind, and that mine eye shall not returne to see pleasure. ⁸The eye that hath seene me, shall see me no more: thine eyes are vpon me, and I shall be no longer. ⁹As the cloude vanisheth and goeth away, so he that goeth downe to the graue, shall come vp no more. ¹⁰He shall returne no more to his house, neither shall his place knowe him any more. ¹¹Therefore I will not spare my mouth, but will speake in the trouble of my spirite, and muse in the bitterness of my minde. ¹²Am I a sea or a whalefish, that thou keepest me in warde? ¹³When I say, My couch shall relieue me, and my bed shall bring comfort in my meditation, ¹⁴Then fearest thou me with dreames, and astonishest me with visions. ¹⁵Therefore my soule chuseth rather to be strangled and to die, then to be in my bones. ¹⁶I abhorre it, I shall not liue alway: spare me then, for my dayes are but vanitie. ¹⁷What is man, that thou doest magnifie him, and that thou settest thine heart vpon him?

¹⁸And doest visite him euery morning, and tryest him euery moment? ¹⁹Howe long will it be yer thou depart from me? thou wilt not let me alone whiles I may swallowe my spettle. ²⁰I haue sinned, what shall I do vnto thee? O thou preseruer of me, why hast thou set me as a marke against thee, so that I am a burden vnto my selfe? ²¹And why doest thou not pardon my trespasse? and take away mine iniquitie? for nowe shall I sleepe in the dust, and if thou seekest me in the morning, I shall not be found.

¹Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and saide, ²Howe long wilt thou talke of these things? and howe long shall the wordes of thy mouth be as a mightie winde? ³Doeth God peruert iudgement? or doeth the Almightye subuert iustice? ⁴If thy sonnes haue sinned against him, and he hath sent them into the place of their iniquitie, ⁵Yet if thou wilt early seeke vnto God, and pray to the Almightye, ⁶If thou be pure and vpriight, then surely hee will awake vp vnto thee, and he wil make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous. ⁷And though thy beginning be small, yet thy latter ende shall greatly encrease. ⁸Inquire therefore, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thy selfe to search of their fathers. ⁹(For we are but of yesterday, and are ignorant: for our dayes vpon earth are but a shadowe) ¹⁰Shall not they teach thee and tell thee, and vtter the wordes of their heart? ¹¹Can a rush grow without myre? or can ye grasse growe without water? ¹²Though it were in greene and not cutte downe, yet shall it wither before any other herbe. ¹³So are the paths of al that forget God, and the hypocrites hope shall perish. ¹⁴His confidence also shalbe cut off, and his trust shalbe as the house of a spyder. ¹⁵He shall leane vpon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall holde him fast by it, yet shall it not endure. ¹⁶The tree is greene before the sunne, and the branches spread ouer the garden thereof. ¹⁷The rootes thereof are wrapped about the fountaine, and are folden about ye house of stones. ¹⁸If any plucke it from his place, and it denie, saying, I haue not seene thee, ¹⁹Beholde, it will reioyce by this meanes, that it may growe in another molde. ²⁰Behold, God will not cast away an vpright man, neither will he take the wicked by the hand, ²¹Till he haue filled thy mouth with laughter, and thy lippes with ioy. ²²They that hate thee, shall be clothed with shame, and the dwelling of the wicked shall not remaine.

¹Then Iob answered, and sayd, ²I knowe verily that it is so: for howe should man compared vnto God, be iustified? ³If I would dispute with him, hee could not answere him one thing of a thousand. ⁴He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath bene fierce against him and hath prospered? ⁵He remoueth the mountaines, and they feelee not when he ouerthroweth them in his wrath. ⁶Hee remooueth the earth out of her place, that the pillars thereof doe shake. ⁷He commandeth the sunne, and it riseth not: hee closeth vp the starres, as vnder a signet. ⁸Hee himselfe alone spreadeth out the heauens, and walketh vpon the height of the sea. ⁹He maketh the starres Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the climates of the South. ¹⁰He doeth great things, and vnsearcheable: yea, marueilous things without nomber. ¹¹Lo, when he goeth by me, I see him not: and when he passeth by, I perceiue him not. ¹²Behold, when he taketh a pray, who can make him to restore it? who shall say vnto him, What doest thou? ¹³God will not withdrawe his anger, and the most mightie helpes doe stoupe vnder him. ¹⁴Howe much lesse shall I answere him? or howe should I finde out my words with him? ¹⁵For though I were iust, yet could I not answere, but I would make supplication to my Iudge. ¹⁶If I cry, and he answere me, yet woulde I not beleeeue, that he heard my voyce. ¹⁷For he destroyeth mee with a tempest, and woundeth me without cause. ¹⁸He wil not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitternesse. ¹⁹If we speake of strength, behold, he is strog: if we speake of iudgement, who shall bring me in to pleade? ²⁰If I woulde iustifie my selfe, mine owne mouth shall condemne mee: if I would be perfite, he shall iudge me wicked. ²¹Though I were perfite, yet I knowe not my soule: therefore abhorre I my life. ²²This is one point: therefore I said, Hee destroyeth the perfite and the wicked. ²³If the scourge should suddenly slay, should God laugh at the punishment of the innocent? ²⁴The earth is giuen into the hand of ye wicked: he couereth the faces of the iudges therof: if not, where is he? or who is he? ²⁵My dayes haue bene more swift then a post: they haue fled, and haue seene no good thing. ²⁶They are passed as with the most swift ships, and as the eagle that flyeth to the pray. ²⁷If I say, I wil forget my complaynt, I will cease from my wrath, and comfort mee, ²⁸Then I am afrayd of all my sorowes, knowing that thou wilt not iudge me innocent. ²⁹If I be wicked, why labour I thus in vaine? ³⁰If I wash my selfe with snowe water, and purge mine hands most cleane, ³¹Yet shalt thou plunge mee in the pit, and mine owne clothes shall make me filthie. ³²For he is not a man as I am, that I shoulde answere him, if we come together to iudgement. ³³Neyther is there any vmpire that might lay his hand vpon vs both. ³⁴Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his feare astonish me: ³⁵Then will I speake, and feare him not: but because I am not so, I holde me still.

¹My soule is cut off though I liue: I wil leaue my complaint vpon my selfe, and wil speake in the bitternesse of my soule. ²I will say vnto God, Condemne mee not: shew me, wherefore thou contendest with mee. ³Thinkest thou it good to oppresse me, and to cast off the labour of thine handes, and to fauour the counsel of the wicked? ⁴Hast thou carnall eyes? or doest thou see as man seeth? ⁵Are thy dayes as mans dayes? or thy yeres, as the time of man, ⁶That thou inquirest of mine iniquitie, and searchest out my

sinne? ⁷Thou knowest that I can not do wickedly: for none can deliuer me out of thine hand. ⁸Thine handes haue made me, and fashioned mee wholly rounde about, and wilt thou destroy me? ⁹Remember, I pray thee, that thou hast made me as the clay, and wilt thou bring me into dust againe? ¹⁰Hast thou not powred me out as milke? and turned me to cruds like cheese? ¹¹Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and ioyned me together with bones and sinewes. ¹²Thou hast giuen me life, and grace: and thy visitation hath preserued my spirit. ¹³Though thou hast hid these things in thine heart, yet I knowe that it is so with thee. ¹⁴If I haue sinned, then thou wilt streightly looke vnto me, and wilt not holde mee guiltlesse of mine iniquitie. ¹⁵If I haue done wickedly, wo vnto me: if I haue done righteously, I will not lift vp mine head, being full of confusion, because I see mine affliction. ¹⁶But let it increase: hunt thou me as a lyon: returne and shew thy selfe marueilous vpon me. ¹⁷Thou renuest thy plagues against me, and thou increasest thy wrath against me: changes and armies of sorowes are against me. ¹⁸Wherefore then hast thou brought me out of the wombe? Oh that I had perished, and that none eye had seene me! ¹⁹And that I were as I had not bene, but brought from the wombe to the graue! ²⁰Are not my dayes fewe? let him cease, and leaue off from me, that I may take a litle comfort, ²¹Before I goe and shall not returne, euen to the land of darkenesse and shadow of death: ²²Into a land, I say, darke as darknes it selfe, and into the shadow of death, where is none order, but the light is there as darkenesse.

¹Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and sayde, ²Should not the multitude of wordes be answered? or should a great talker be iustified? ³Should men holde their peace at thy lyes? and when thou mockest others, shall none make thee ashamed? ⁴For thou hast sayde, My doctrine is pure, and I am cleane in thine eyes.

⁵But, oh that God would speake and open his lippes against thee! ⁶That he might shewe thee the secretes of wisdom, howe thou hast deserued double, according to right: know therefore that God hath forgotten thee for thine iniquitie. ⁷Canst thou by searching finde out God? canst thou finde out ye Almighty to his perfection? ⁸The heauens are hie, what canst thou doe? it is deeper then the hell, how canst thou know it? ⁹The measure thereof is longer then the earth, and it is broader then the sea. ¹⁰If hee cut off and shut vp, or gather together, who can turne him backe? ¹¹For hee knoweth vaine men, and seeth iniquitie, and him that vnderstandeth nothing. ¹²Yet vaine man would be wise, though man new borne is like a wilde asse colte. ¹³If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him: ¹⁴If iniquitie be in thine hand, put it farre away, and let no wickednesse dwell in thy Tabernacle. ¹⁵The truely shalt thou lift vp thy face without spot, and shalt be stable, and shalt not feare. ¹⁶But thou shalt forget thy miserie, and remember it as waters that are past. ¹⁷Thine age also shall appeare more cleare then the noone day: thou shalt shine and bee as the morning. ¹⁸And thou shalt bee bolde, because there is hope: and thou shalt digge pittes, and shalt lye downe safely. ¹⁹For when thou takest thy rest, none shall make thee afraide: yea, many shall make sute vnto thee. ²⁰But the eyes of the wicked shall faile, and their refuge shall perish, and their hope shalbe sorow of minde.

¹Then Iob answered, and sayde, ²In deede because that ye are the people onely, wisdom must dye with you. ³But I haue vnderstanding aswel as you, and am not inferior vnto you: yea, who knoweth not such things? ⁴I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth vpon God, and he heareth him: the iust and the vpright is laughed to scorne. ⁵Hee that is readie to fall, is as a lampe despised in the opinion of the riche. ⁶The tabernacles of robbers doe prosper, and they are in safetie, that prouoke God, whome God hath enriched with his hand. ⁷Aske now the beasts, and they shall teach thee, and the foules of the heauen, and they shall tell thee: ⁸Or speake to the earth, and it shall shewe thee: or the fishes of the sea, and they shall declare vnto thee. ⁹Who is ignorant of all these, but that the hande of the Lord hath made these? ¹⁰In whose hande is the soule of euery liuing thing, and the breath of all mankinde. ¹¹Doeth not the eares discerne the words? and the mouth taste meate for it selfe? ¹²Among the ancient is wisdom, and in the length of dayes is vnderstanding. ¹³With him is wisdom and strength: he hath counsell and vnderstanding. ¹⁴Beholde, he will breake downe, and it can not be built: he shutteth a man vp, and he can not be loosed. ¹⁵Beholde, he withholdeth the waters, and they drie vp: but when he sendeth them out, they destroy the earth. ¹⁶With him is strength and wisdom: hee that is deceiued, and that deceiueth, are his. ¹⁷He causeth the counsellors to goe as spoyled, and maketh the iudges fooles. ¹⁸He looseth the collar of Kings, and girdeth their loynes with a girdle. ¹⁹He leadeth away the princes as a pray, and ouerthroweth the mightie. ²⁰He taketh away the speach from the faithfull counsellors, and taketh away the iudgement of the ancient. ²¹He powreth contempt vpon princes, and maketh the strength of the mightie weake. ²²He discouereth the deepe places from their darkenesse, and bringeth foorth the shadowe of death to light. ²³He increaseth the people, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and bringeth them in againe. ²⁴He taketh away the heartes of the that are the chiefe ouer the people of the earth, and maketh them to wander in the wildernes out of the way. ²⁵They grope in the darke without light: and he maketh the to stagger like a drunken man.

much as you knowe: I am not inferiour vnto you. ³But I will speake to the Almightye, and I desire to dispute with God. ⁴For in deede ye forge lyes, and all you are physitions of no value. ⁵Oh, that you woulde holde your tongue, that it might be imputed to you for wisdomel ⁶Nowe heare my disputation, and giue eare to the arguments of my lips. ⁷Will ye speake wickedly for Gods defence, and talke deceitfully for his cause? ⁸Will ye accept his person? or will ye contende for God? ⁹Is it well that he shoulde seeke of you? will you make a lye for him, as one lyeth for a man? ¹⁰He will surely reprocue you, if ye doe secretly accept any person. ¹¹Shall not his excellencie make you afraid? and his feare fall vpon you? ¹²Your memories may be compared vnto ashes, and your bodyes to bodyes of clay. ¹³Holde your tongues in my presence, that I may speake, and let come vpon what will. ¹⁴Wherefore doe I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my soule in mine hande? ¹⁵Loe, though he slay me, yet will I trust in him, and I will reprocue my wayes in his sight. ¹⁶He shalbe my saluation also: for the hypocrite shall not come before him. ¹⁷Heare diligently my wordes, and marke my talke. ¹⁸Beholde nowel if I prepare me to iudgement, I knowe that I shalbe iustified. ¹⁹Who is he, that will pleade with me? for if I nowe holde my tongue, I dye. ²⁰But doe not these two things vnto me: then will I not hide my selfe from thee. ²¹Withdrawe thine hande from me, and let not thy feare make me afraide. ²²Then call thou, and I will answere: or let me speake, and answere thou me. ²³Howe many are mine iniquities and sinnes? shewe me my rebellion, and my sinne. ²⁴Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and takest me for thine enemye? ²⁵Wilt thou breake a leafe driuen to and from? and wilt thou pursue the drie stubble? ²⁶For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possesse the iniquities of my youth. ²⁷Thou putttest my feete also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly vnto all my pathes, and makest the print thereof in ye heeles of my feet. ²⁸Such one consumeth like a rotten thing, and as a garment that is motheaten.

¹Man that is borne of woman, is of short continuance, and full of trouble. ²He shooteth forth as a flowre, and is cut downe: he vanisheth also as a shadowe, and continueth not. ³And yet thou openest thine eyes vpon such one, and causest me to enter into iudgement with thee. ⁴Who can bring a cleane thing out of filthinesse? there is not one. ⁵Are not his dayes determind? the nober of his moneths are with thee: thou hast appointed his boundes, which he can not passe. ⁶Turne from him that he may cease vntill his desired day, as an hyreling. ⁷For there is hope of a tree, if it bee cut downe, that it will yet sproute, and the branches thereof will not cease. ⁸Though the roote of it waxe olde in the earth, and the stocke thereof be dead in ye ground, ⁹Yet by the sent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughes like a plant. ¹⁰But man is sicke, and dyeth, and man perisheth, and where is he? ¹¹As

the waters passe from the sea, and as the flood decayeth and dryeth vp, ¹²So man sleepeth and riseth not: for hee shall not wake againe, nor be raised from his sleepe till the heauen be no more. ¹³Oh that thou wouldest hide me in the graue, and keepe me secret, vntill thy wrath were past, and wouldest giue me terme, and remember me. ¹⁴If a man die, shall he liue againe? All the dayes of mine appointed time will I waite, till my changing shall come. ¹⁵Thou shalt call me, and I shall answeere thee: thou louest the worke of thine own hands. ¹⁶But nowe thou nombrest my steppes, and doest not delay my sinnes. ¹⁷Mine iniquitie is sealed vp, as in a bagge, and thou addest vnto my wickednesse. ¹⁸And surely as the mountaine that falleth, commeth to nought, and the rocke that is remooued from his place: ¹⁹As the water breaketh the stones, when thou ouerflowest the things which growe in the dust of ye earth: so thou destroyest ye hope of man. ²⁰Thou preuailest alway against him, so that he passeth away: he changeth his face when thou castest him away. ²¹And he knoweth not if his sonnes shall be honourable, neither shall he vnderstand concerning them, whether they shalbe of lowe degree, ²²But while his flesh is vpon him, he shall be sorowfull, and while his soule is in him, it shall mourne.

¹Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and saide, ²Shal a wise man speake words of ye winde, and fill his bellie with the East winde? ³Shall he dispute with wordes not comely? or with talke that is not profitable? ⁴Surely thou hast cast off feare, and restrainest prayer before God. ⁵For thy mouth declareth thine iniquitie, seeing thou hast chosen ye tongue of the crafty. ⁶Thine owne mouth condemneth thee, and not I, and thy lippes testifie against thee. ⁷Art thou the first man, that was borne? and wast thou made before the hils? ⁸Hast thou heard the secret counsell of God, and doest thou restraine wisdom to thee? ⁹What knowest thou that we knowe not? and vnderstandest that is not in vs? ¹⁰With vs are both auncient and very aged men, farre older then thy father. ¹¹Seeme the consolations of God small vnto thee? is this thing strange vnto thee? ¹²Why doeth thine heart take thee away, and what doe thine eyes meane, ¹³That thou answerest to God at thy pleasure, and bringest such wordes out of thy mouth? ¹⁴What is man, that he should be cleane? and he that is borne of woman, that he shoulde be iust? ¹⁵Beholde, he founde no stedfastnesse in his Saintes: yea, the heauens are not cleane in his sight. ¹⁶How much more is man abominable, and filthie, which drinketh iniquitie like water? ¹⁷I will tell thee: heare me, and I will declare that which I haue seene: ¹⁸Which wise men haue tolde, as they haue heard of their fathers, and haue not kept it secret: ¹⁹To whome alone the land was giuen and no stranger passed through them. ²⁰The wicked man is continually as one that traueileth of childe, and the number of yeeres is hid from the tyrant. ²¹A sounde of feare is in his eares, and in his prosperitie the destroyer shall come vpon him. ²²He beleeueth not to returne out of darknesse: for he seeth the sworde before him. ²³He wandreth to and from for bread where he may: he knoweth that the day of darkenesse is prepared at hande. ²⁴Affliction and anguish shall make him afraide: they shall preuaile against him as a King readie to the battell. ²⁵For he hath stretched out his hand against GOD, and made him selfe strong against the Almightye. ²⁶Therefore God shall runne vpon him, euen vpon his necke, and against the most thicke part of his shielde. ²⁷Because he hath couered his face with his fatnesse, and hath colloppes in his flancke. ²⁸Though he dwell in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, but are become heapes, ²⁹He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof in the earth. ³⁰He shall neuer depart out of darkenesse: the flame shall drie vp his branches, and he shall goe away with the breath of his mouth. ³¹He beleeueth not that he erreth in vanitie: therefore vanitie shalbe his change. ³²His branch shall not be greene, but shall be cut off before his day. ³³God shall destroy him as the vine her sower grape, and shall cast him off, as the oliue doeth her flowre. ³⁴For the congregation of the hypocrite shalbe desolate, and fire shall deuoure the houses of bribes. ³⁵For they conceiue mischief and bring foorth vanitie, and their bellie hath prepared deceite.

¹Bvt Iob answered, and said, ²I haue oft times heard such things: miserable comforters are ye all. ³Shall there be none ende of wordes of winde? or what maketh thee bold so to answeere? ⁴I could also speake as yee doe: (but woulde God your soule were in my soules stead) I could keepe you company in speaking, and could shake mine head at you, ⁵But I woulde strengthen you with my mouth, and the comfort of my lips should asswage your sorowe. ⁶Though I speake, my sorrow can not be asswaged:

though I cease, what release haue I? ⁷But now hee maketh mee wearie: O God, thou hast made all my congregation desolate, ⁸And hast made me full of wrinkles which is a witnesse thereof, and my leannes ryseth vp in me, testifying the same in my face. ⁹His wrath hath torne me, and hee hateth me, and gnasheth vpon mee with his teeth: mineemie hath sharpened his eyes against me. ¹⁰They haue opened their mouthes vpon me, and smitten me on the cheeke in reproch; they gather themselues together against me. ¹¹God hath deliuered me to the vniust, and hath made mee to turne out of the way by the hands of the wicked. ¹²I was in welth, but he hath brought me to nought: he hath taken me by the necke, and beaten me, and set me as a marke for himselfe. ¹³His archers compasse mee rounde about: hee cutteth my reines, and doth not spare, and powreth my gall vpon the ground. ¹⁴He hath broken me with one breaking vpon another, and runneth vpon me like a gyant. ¹⁵I haue sowed a sackcloth vpon my skinne, and haue abased mine horne vnto the dust. ¹⁶My face is withered with weeping, and the shadow of death is vpon mine eyes, ¹⁷Though there be no wickednesse in mine hands, and my prayer be pure. ¹⁸O earth, couer not thou my blood, and let my crying finde no place. ¹⁹For lo, now my witnesse is in the heauen, and my record is on hie. ²⁰My friends speake eloquently against me: but mine eye powreth out teares vnto God. ²¹Oh that a man might pleade with God, as man with his neighbour! ²²For the yeeres accounted come, and I shall go the way, whence I shall not returne.

¹My breath is corrupt: my dayes are cut off, and the graue is readie for me. ²There are none but mockers with mee, and mine eye continueth in their bitterness. ³Lay downe nowe and put me in suretie for thee: who is hee, that will touch mine hand? ⁴For thou hast hid their heart from vnderstanding: therefore shalt thou not set them vp on hie. ⁵For the eyes of his children shall faile, that speaketh flattery to his friends. ⁶Hee hath also made mee a byword of the people, and I am as a Tabret before them. ⁷Mine eye therefore is dimme for grieve, and all my strength is like a shadowe. ⁸The righteous shalbe astonied at this, and the innocent shalbe moued against ye hypocrite. ⁹But the righteous wil holde his way, and he whose hands are pure, shall increase his strength. ¹⁰All you therefore turne you, and come nowe, and I shall not finde one wise among you. ¹¹My dayes are past, mine enterprises are broken, and the thoughts of mine heart ¹²Haue changed the nyght for the day, and the light that approched, for darkenesse. ¹³Though I hope, yet the graue shall bee mine house, and I shall make my bed in the darke. ¹⁴I shall say to corruption, Thou art my father, and to the worme, Thou art my mother and my sister. ¹⁵Where is then now mine hope? or who shall consider the thing, that I hoped for? ¹⁶They shall goe downe into the bottome of the pit: surely it shall lye together in the dust.

¹Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said, ²When will yee make an ende of your words? cause vs to vnderstande, and then wee will speake. ³Wherefore are wee counted as beastes, and are vile in your sight? ⁴Thou art as one that teareth his soule in his anger. Shall the earth bee forsaken for thy sake? or the rocke remoued out of his place? ⁵Yea, the light of the wicked shalbe quenched, and the sparke of his fire shall not shine. ⁶The light shalbe darke in his dwelling, and his candle shalbe put out with him. ⁷The steps of his strength shalbe restrained, and his owne counsell shall cast him downe. ⁸For hee is taken in the net by his feete, and he walketh vpon the snares. ⁹The grenne shall take him by the heele, and the theefe shall come vpon him. ¹⁰A snare is layed for him in the ground, and a trappe for him in the way. ¹¹Fearefulnesse shall make him afrayde on euery side, and shall driue him to his feete. ¹²His strength shalbe famine: and destruction shalbe readie at his side. ¹³It shall deuoure the inner partes of his skinne, and the first borne of death shall deuoure his strength. ¹⁴His hope shalbe rooted out of his dwelling, and shall cause him to go to the King of feare. ¹⁵Feare shall dwell in his house (because it is not his) and brimstone shalbe scattered vpon his habitation. ¹⁶His rootes shalbe dried vp beneath, and aboue shall his branche be cut downe. ¹⁷His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall haue no name in the streete. ¹⁸They shall driue him out of the light vnto darkenesse, and chase him out of the world. ¹⁹Hee shall neither haue sonne nor nephewe among his people, nor any posteritie in his dwellings. ²⁰The posteritie shalbe astonied at his day, and feare shall come vpon the ancient. ²¹Surely such are the habitations of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

¹Bvt Iob answered, and said, ²Howe long will yee vex me with soule, and torment me with wordes? ³Ye haue now ten times reproched me, and are not ashamed: ye are impudent toward mee. ⁴And though I had in deede erred, mine errour remaineth with me. ⁵But in deede if ye will aduance your selues against me, and rebuke me for my reproche, ⁶Know nowe, that God hath ouerthrowen me, and hath compassed me with his net. ⁷Beholde, I crie out of violence, but I haue none answer: I crie, but there is no iudgement. ⁸Hee hath hedged vp my way that I cannot passe, and he hath set darkenesse in my paths. ⁹Hee hath spoyled mee of mine honour, and taken the crowne away from mine head. ¹⁰He hath destroyed mee on euery side and I am gone: and he hath remoued mine hope like a tree. ¹¹And he hath kindled his wrath against me, and counteth mee as one of his enemies. ¹²His armies came together, and made their way vpon me, and camped about my tabernacle. ¹³He hath remooued my brethre farre from me, and also mine acquaintance were strangers vnto me. ¹⁴My neighbours haue forsaken me, and my familiars haue forgotten me. ¹⁵They that dwel in mine house, and my maydes tooke me for a stranger: for I was a stranger in their sight. ¹⁶I called my seruant, but he would not answere, though I prayed him with my mouth. ¹⁷My breath was strange vnto my wife, though I prayed her for the childrens sake of mine owne body. ¹⁸The wicked also despised mee, and when I rose, they spake against me. ¹⁹All my secret friends abhorred me, and they whome I loued, are turned against me. ²⁰My bone cleaueth to my skinne and to my flesh, and I haue escaped with the skinne of my teeth. ²¹Haue pitie vpon me: haue pitie vpon me, (O yee my friendes) for the hande of God hath touched me. ²²Why do ye persecute me, as God? and are not satisfied with my flesh? ²³Oh that my wordes were nowe written! oh that they were written euen in a booke, ²⁴And grauen with an yron pen in lead, or in stone for euer! ²⁵For I am sure, that my Redeemer liueth, and he shall stand the last on the earth.

²⁶And though after my skin wormes destroy this bodie, yet shall I see God in my flesh. ²⁷Whome I my selfe shall see, and mine eyes shall beholde, and none other for me, though my reynes are consumed within me. ²⁸But yee sayde, Why is hee persecuted? And there was a deepe matter in me. ²⁹Be ye afraide of the sworde: for the sworde will be auenged of wickednesse, that yee may knowe that there is a iudgement.

¹Then answered Zophar the Naamathite and saide, ²Doubtlesse my thoughts cause me to answere, and therefore I make haste. ³I haue heard the correction of my reproch: therefore the spirite of mine vnderstanding causeth me to answere. ⁴Knowest thou not this of olde? and since God placed man vpon the earth, ⁵That the reioycing of the wicked is short, and that the ioy of hypocrites is but a moment? ⁶Though his excellencie mount vp to the heauen, and his head reache vnto the cloudes, ⁷Yet shall hee perish for euer, like his dung, and they which haue seene him, shall say, Where is hee? ⁸He shall flee away as a dreame, and they shall not finde him, and shall passe away as a vision of the night, ⁹So that the eye which had seene him, shall do so no more, and his place shall see him no more. ¹⁰His children shall flatter the poore, and his hands shall restore his substance. ¹¹His bones are full of the sinne of his youth, and it shall lie downe with him in the dust. ¹²When wickednesse was sweete in his mouth, and he hid it vnder his tongue, ¹³And fauoured it, and would not forsake it, but kept it close in his mouth, ¹⁴Then his meat in his bowels was turned: the gall of Aspes was in the middes of him. ¹⁵He hath deuoured substance, and hee shall vomit it: for God shall drawe it out of his bellie. ¹⁶He shall sucke the gall of Aspes, and the vipers tongue shall slay him. ¹⁷He shall not see the riuers, nor the floods and streames of honie and butter. ¹⁸He shall restore the labour, and shall deuoure no more: euen according to the substance shalbe his exchange, and he shall enioy it no more. ¹⁹For he hath vndone many: he hath forsaken the poore, and hath spoyled houses which he builded not. ²⁰Surely he shall feelee no quietnes in his bodie, neither shall he reserue of that which he desired. ²¹There shall none of his meate bee left: therefore none shall hope for his goods. ²²When he shalbe filled with his abundance, he shalbe in paine, and the hand of all the wicked shall assaile him. ²³He shall be about to fill his belly, but God shall sende vpon him his fierce wrath, and shall cause to rayne vpon him, euen vpon his meate. ²⁴He shall flee from the yron weapons, and the bow of steele shall strike him through. ²⁵The arrowe is drawen out, and commeth forth of the body, and shineth of his gall, so feare commeth vpon him. ²⁶All darkenes shalbe hid in his secret places: the fire that is not blowen, shall deuoure him, and that which remaineth in his tabernacle, shalbe destroyed. ²⁷The heauen shall declare his wickednes, and the earth shall rise vp against him.

²⁸The increase of his house shall go away: it shall flow away in the day of his wrath. ²⁹This is the portion of the wicked man from God, and the heritage that he shall haue of God for his wordes.

¹Bvt Iob answered, and sayd, ²Heare diligently my wordes, and this shalbe in stead of your consolations. ³Suffer mee, that I may speake, and when I haue spoken, mocke on. ⁴Doe I direct my talke to man? If it were so, how should not my spirit be troubled? ⁵Marke mee, and be abashed, and lay your hand vpon your mouth. ⁶Euen when I remember, I am afrayde, and feare taketh hold on my flesh. ⁷Wherefore do the wicked liue, and waxe olde, and grow in wealth? ⁸Their seede is established in their sight with them, and their generation before their eyes. ⁹Their houses are peaceable without feare, and the rod of God is not vpon them. ¹⁰Their bullocke gendreth, and fayleth not: their cow calueth, and casteth not her calfe. ¹¹They send forth their children like sheepe, and their sonnes dance. ¹²They take the tabret and harpe, and reioyce in the sound of the organs. ¹³They spend their dayes in wealth, and suddenly they go downe to the graue. ¹⁴They say also vnto God, Depart from vs: for we desire not the knowledge of thy wayes. ¹⁵Who is the Almighty, that we should serue him? and what profit should we haue, if we should pray vnto him? ¹⁶Lo, their wealth is not in their hand: therfore let the counsell of the wicked bee farre from me. ¹⁷How oft shall the candle of the wicked be put out? and their destruction come vpon them? he wil deuide their liues in his wrath. ¹⁸They shall be as stubble before the winde, and as chaffe that the storme carieth away. ¹⁹God wil lay vp the sorowe of the father for his children: when he rewardeth him, hee shall knowe it. ²⁰His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drinke of the wrath of the Almighty. ²¹For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his moneths is cut off? ²²Shall any teache God knowledge, who iudgeth the highest things? ²³One dyeth in his full strength, being in all ease and prosperitie. ²⁴His breasts are full of milke, and his bones runne full of marowe. ²⁵And another dieth in the bitternes of his soule, and neuer eateth with pleasure. ²⁶They shall sleepe both in the dust, and the wormes shall couer them. ²⁷Behold, I know your thoughts, and the enterprises, wherewith ye do me wrong. ²⁸For ye say, Where is the princes house? and where is the tabernacle of the wickeds dwelling? ²⁹May ye not aske the that go by the way? and ye can not deny their signes. ³⁰But the wicked is kept vnto the day of destruction, and they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath. ³¹Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall reward him for that he hath done? ³²Yet shall he be brought to the graue, and remaine in the heape. ³³The slimie valley shalbe sweete vnto him, and euery man shall draw after him, as before him there were innumerable. ³⁴How then comfort ye me in vaine, seeing in your answeres there remaine but lyes?

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, and sayde, ²May a man be profitable vnto God, as he that is wise, may be profitable to himselfe? ³Is it any thing vnto the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it profitable to him, that thou makest thy wayes vpright? ⁴Is it for feare of thee that he will accuse thee? or go with thee into iudgement? ⁵Is not thy wickednes great, and thine iniquities innumerable? ⁶For thou hast taken the pledge from thy brother for nought, and spoyled the clothes of the naked. ⁷To such as were wearie, thou hast not giuen water to drinke, and hast withdrawn bread from the hungrie. ⁸But the mightie man had the earth, and he that was in autoritie, dwelt in it. ⁹Thou hast cast out widowes emptie, and the armes of the fatherles were broken. ¹⁰Therefore snares are round about thee, and feare shall suddenly trouble thee: ¹¹Or darkenes that thou shouldest not see, and abundance of waters shall couer thee. ¹²Is not God on hie in the heauen? and behold the height of the starres how hie they are. ¹³But thou sayest, How should God know? can he iudge through the darke cloude? ¹⁴The cloudes hide him that he can not see, and he walketh in the circle of heauen. ¹⁵Hast thou marked the way of the worlde, wherein wicked men haue walked? ¹⁶Which were cut downe before the time, whose foundation was as a riuer that ouerflowed: ¹⁷Which sayd vnto God, Depart from vs, and asked what the Almighty could do for them. ¹⁸Yet hee filled their houses with good things: but let the counsell of the wicked be farre from me. ¹⁹The righteous shall see them, and shall reioyce, and the innocent shall laugh them to scorne. ²⁰Surely our substance is hid: but the fire hath deuoured the remnant of them. ²¹Therefore acquaint thy selfe, I pray thee, with him, and make peace: thereby thou shalt haue prosperitie. ²²Receiue, I pray thee, the law of his mouth, and lay vp his words in thine heart. ²³If thou returne to the Almighty, thou shalt be buylt vp, and thou shalt put iniquitie farre from thy tabernacle. ²⁴Thou shalt lay vp golde for dust, and the gold of Ophir, as the flintes of the riuers. ²⁵Yea, the Almighty shalbe thy defence, and thou shalt haue plentie of siluer. ²⁶And thou shalt then delite in the Almighty, and lift vp thy face vnto God. ²⁷Thou shalt make thy praier vnto him, and he shall heare thee, and thou shalt render thy vowes. ²⁸Thou shalt also decree a thing, and he shall establish it vnto thee, and the light shall shine vpon thy wayes. ²⁹When others are cast downe, then shalt thou say, I am lifted vp: and God shall saue the humble person. ³⁰The innocent shall deliuer the yland, and it shalbe preserued by the purenes of thine hands.

¹Bvt Iob answered and sayd, ²Though my talke be this day in bitternes, and my plague greater then my groning, ³Would God yet I knew how to finde him, I would enter vnto his place. ⁴I would pleade the cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments. ⁵I would knowe the wordes, that he would answere me, and would vnderstand what he would say vnto me. ⁶Would he plead against me with his great power? No, but he would put strength in me. ⁷There the righteous might reason with him, so I shoulde be deliuered for euer from my Iudge. ⁸Behold, if I go to the East, he is not there: if to the West, yet I can not perceiue him: ⁹If to the North where he worketh, yet I cannot see him: he wil hide himselfe in the South, and I cannot beholde him. ¹⁰But he knoweth my way, and trieth mee, and I shall come forth like the gold. ¹¹My foote hath followed his steps: his way haue I kept, and haue not declined. ¹²Neyther haue I departed from the commandement of his lippes, and I haue esteemed the words of his mouth more then mine appointed foode. ¹³Yet he is in one minde, and who can turne him? yea, he doeth what his minde desireth. ¹⁴For he will performe that, which is decreed of me, and many such things are with him. ¹⁵Therefore I am troubled at his presence, and in considering it, I am afraid of him. ¹⁶For God hath softened mine heart, and the Almighty hath troubled me. ¹⁷For I am not cut off in darknesse, but he hath hid the darknesse from my face.

¹Howe should not the times be hid from the Almighty, seeing that they which knowe him, see not his dayes? ²Some remoue the land marks, that rob the flockes and feede thereof. ³They leade away the asse of the fatherles: and take the widowes oxe to pledge. ⁴They make the poore to turne out of the way, so that the poore of the earth hide themselues together. ⁵Behold, others as wilde asses in the wilderness, goe forth to their businesse, and rise early for a praye: the wilderness giueth him and his children foode. ⁶They reape his prouision in the felde, but they gather the late vintage of the wicked. ⁷They cause the naked to lodge without garment, and without couering in the colde.

⁸They are wet with the showres of the moutaines, and they imbrace the rocke for want of a couering. ⁹They plucke the fatherles from the breast, and take the pledge of the poore. ¹⁰They cause him to go naked without clothing, and take the glening from the hungrie. ¹¹They that make oyle betweene their walles, and treade their wine presses, suffer thirst. ¹²Men cry out of the citie, and the soules of the slayne cry out: yet God doth not charge them with follie. ¹³These are they, that abhorre the light: they know not the wayes thereof, nor continue in the paths thereof. ¹⁴The murtherer riseth earely and killeth the poore and the needie: and in the night he is as a theefe. ¹⁵The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, and sayth, None eye shall see me, and disguiseth his face. ¹⁶They digge through houses in the darke, which they marked for themselues in the daye: they knowe not the light. ¹⁷But the morning is euen to them as the shadow of death: if one knowe them, they are in the terrours of the shadowe of death. ¹⁸He is swift vpon the waters: their portion shalbe cursed in the earth: he will not behold the way of the vineyardes. ¹⁹As the dry ground and heate consume the snowe waters, so shall the graue the sinners. ²⁰The pitifull man shall forget him: the worme shall feelee his sweetenes: he shalbe no more remembered, and the wicked shalbe broke like a tree. ²¹He doth euil intreat ye barren, that doeth not beare, neither doeth he good to the widowe. ²²He draweth also the mighty by his power, and when he riseth vp, none is sure of life. ²³Though men giue him assurance to be in safetie, yet his eyes are vpon their wayes. ²⁴They are exalted for a litle, but they are gone, and are brought lowe as all others: they are destroyed, and cut off as the toppe of an eare of corne. ²⁵But if it be not so, where is he? or who wil proue me a lyer, and make my words of no value?

¹Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and sayd, ²Power and feare is with him, that maketh peace in his hie places. ³Is there any number in his armies? and vpon whom shall not his light arise? ⁴And howe may a man be iustified with God? or how can he be cleane, that is borne of woman? ⁵Behold, he wil giue no light to the moone, and the starres are vncleane in his sight. ⁶How much more man, a worme, euen the sonne of man, which is but a worme?

¹Bvt Iob answered, and sayde, ²Whom helpeth thou? him that hath no power? sauest thou the arme that hath no strength?
³Whome counsellest thou? him that hath no wisdom? thou shewest right well as the thing is.
⁴To whom doest thou declare these words? or whose spirit commeth out of thee? ⁵The dead things are formed vnder the waters, and neere vnto them.
⁶The graue is naked before him, and there is no couering for destruction. ⁷He stretcheth out the North ouer the emptie place, and hangeth the earth vpon nothing. ⁸He bindeth the waters in his cloudes, and the cloude is not broken vnder them. ⁹He holdeth backe the face of his throne: and spreadeth his cloude vpon it. ¹⁰He hath set bounds about the waters, vntil the day and night come to an ende. ¹¹The pillars of heauen tremble and quake at his reproofe. ¹²The sea is calme by his power, and by his vnderstanding he smiteth the pride thereof. ¹³His Spirite hath garnished the heauens, and his hand hath formed the crooked serpent. ¹⁴Loe, these are part of his wayes: but how litle a portion heare we of him? and who can vnderstand his fearefull power?

¹Moreouer Iob proceeded and continued his parable, saying, ²The liuing God hath taken away my iudgement: for the Almighty hath put my soule in bitterness. ³Yet so long as my breath is in me, and the Spirit of God in my nostrels, ⁴My lips surely shall speake no wickednesse, and my tongue shall vtter no deceite. ⁵God forbid, that I should iustifie you: vntill I dye, I will neuer take away mine innocencie from my selfe. ⁶I will keepe my righteousnesse, and wil not forsake it: mine heart shall not reprove me of my dayes. ⁷Mineemie shall be as the wicked, and he that riseth against me, as the vnrighteous. ⁸For what hope hath the hypocrite when he hath heaped vp riches, if God take away his soule? ⁹Will God heare his cry, when trouble commeth vpon him? ¹⁰Will he set his delight on the Almighty? will he call vpon God at all times? ¹¹I will teache you what is in the hande of God, and I wil not conceale that which is with the Almighty. ¹²Beholde, all ye your selues haue seene it: why then doe you thus vanish in vanitie? ¹³This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of tyrants, which they shall receiue of the Almighty. ¹⁴If his children be in great number, the sworde shall destroy them, and his posteritie shall not be satisfied with bread. ¹⁵His remnant shall be buried in death, and his widowes shall not weepe. ¹⁶Though he shoulde

heape vp siluer as the dust, and prepare rayment as the clay, ¹⁷He may prepare it, but the iust shall put it on, and the innocent shall deuide the siluer. ¹⁸He buildeth his house as the moth, and as a lodge that the watchman maketh. ¹⁹When the rich man sleepeth, he shall not be gathered to his fathers: they opened their eyes, and he was gone. ²⁰Terrours shall take him as waters, and a tempest shall cary him away by night. ²¹The East winde shall take him away, and he shall depart: and it shall hurle him out of his place. ²²And God shall cast vpon him and not spare, though he would faine flee out of his hand. ²³Euery man shall clap their hands at him, and hisse at him out of their place.

¹The siluer surely hath his veyne, and ye gold his place, where they take it. ²Yron is taken out of the dust, and brasse is molten out of the stone. ³God putteth an end to darkenesse, and he tryeth the perfection of all things: he setteth a bond of darkenesse, and of the shadowe of death. ⁴The flood

breaketh out against the inhabitant, and the waters forgotten of the foote, being higher then man, are gone away. ⁵Out of the same earth commeth bread, and vnder it, as it were fire is turned vp. ⁶The stones thereof are a place of sapphirs, and the dust of it is golde. ⁷There is a path which no foule hath knowen, neyther hath the kites eye seene it. ⁸The lyons whelpes haue not walked it, nor the lyon passed thereby. ⁹He putteth his hand vpon the rockes, and ouerthroweth the mountaines by the rootes. ¹⁰He breaketh riuers in the rockes, and his eye seeth euery precious thing. ¹¹He bindeth the floods, that they doe not ouerflowe, and the thing that is hid, bringeth he to light. ¹²But where is wisdom found? and where is the place of vnderstanding? ¹³Man knoweth not the price thereof: for it is not found in the land of the liuing. ¹⁴The depth sayth, It is not in mee: the sea also sayth, It is not with me. ¹⁵Golde shall not be giuen for it, neyther shall siluer be weighed for the price thereof. ¹⁶It shall not be valued with the wedge of golde of Ophir, nor with the precious onix, nor the saphir. ¹⁷The golde nor the chrystall shall be equall vnto it, nor the exchange shalbe for plate of fine golde. ¹⁸No mention shall be made of coral, nor of the gabish: for wisdom is more precious then pearles. ¹⁹The Topaz of Ethiopia shall not be equall vnto it, neither shall it be valued with the wedge of pure gold. ²⁰Whence then commeth wisdom? and where is the place of vnderstanding, ²¹Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all the liuing, and is hid from the foules of the heauen? ²²Destruction and death say, We haue heard the fame thereof with our eares. ²³But God vnderstandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof. ²⁴For he beholdeth the endes of the world, and seeth all that is vnder heauen, ²⁵To make the weight of the windes, and to weigh the waters by measure. ²⁶When he made a decree for the rayne, and a way for the lightening of the thunders, ²⁷Then did he see it, and counted it: he prepared it and also considered it. ²⁸And vnto man he said, Behold, the feare of the Lord is wisdom, and to depart from euil is vnderstanding.

¹So Iob proceeded and continued his parable, saying, ²Oh that I were as in times past, when God preserued me! ³When his light shined vpon mine head: and when by his light I walked thorowe the darkenesse, ⁴As I was in the dayes of my youth: when Gods prouidence was vpon my tabernacle: ⁵When the almightie was yet with me, and my children round about me. ⁶When I washed my pathes with butter, and when the rocke powred me out riuers of oyle: ⁷When I went out to the gate, euen to the iudgement seat, and when I caused them to prepare my seate in the streete. ⁸The yong men saw me, and hid themselues, and the aged arose, and stood vp. ⁹The princes stayed talke, and layde their hand on their mouth. ¹⁰The voyce of princes was hidde, and their tongue cleaued to the rooffe of their mouth. ¹¹And when the eare heard me, it blessed me: and when the eye saw me, it gaue witnesse to me. ¹²For I deliuered the poore that cryed, and the fatherlesse, and him that had none to helpe him. ¹³The blessing of him that was ready to perish, came vpon me, and I caused the widowes heart to reioyce. ¹⁴I put on iustice, and it couered me: my iudgement was as a robe, and a crowne. ¹⁵I was the eyes to the blinde, and I was the feete to the lame. ¹⁶I was a father vnto the poore, and when I knewe not the cause, I sought it out diligently. ¹⁷I brake also the chawes of the vnrighteous man, and pluckt the praye out of his teeth. ¹⁸Then I sayde, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiplie my dayes as the sand. ¹⁹For my roote is spread out by the water, and the dewe shall lye vpon my branche. ²⁰My glory shall renue towarde me, and my bowe shall be restored in mine hand. ²¹Vnto me men gaue eare, and wayted, and helde their tongue at my counsell. ²²After my wordes they replied not, and my talke dropped vpon them. ²³And they wayted for me, as for the raine, and they opened their mouth as for the latter rayne.

²⁴If I laughed on them, they beleueed it not: neither did they cause the light of my countenance to fall. ²⁵I appoynted out their way, and did sit as chiefe, and dwelt as a King in the army, and like him that comforteth the mourners.

¹Bvt now they that are yonger then I, mocke me: yea, they whose fathers I haue refused to set with the dogges of my flockes.
²For whereto shoulde the strength of their handes haue serued mee, seeing age perished in them? ³For pouertie and famine they were solitary, fleeing into the wildernes, which is darke, desolate and waste. ⁴They cut vp nettels by the bushes, and the iuniper rootes was their meate.
⁵They were chased forth from among men: they shouted at them, as at a theefe. ⁶Therefore they dwelt in the clefts of riuers, in the holes of the earth and rockes. ⁷They roared among the bushes, and vnder the thistles they gathered themselues. ⁸They were the children of fooles and the children of villaines, which were more vile then the earth.

⁹And now am I their song, and I am their talke. ¹⁰They abhorre me, and flee farre from mee, and spare not to spit in my face. ¹¹Because that God hath loosed my corde and humbled mee, they haue loosed the bridle before me.
¹²The youth rise vp at my right hand: they haue pusht my feete, and haue trode on me as on the paths of their destruction. ¹³They haue destroyed my paths: they tooke pleasure at my calamitie, they had none helpe. ¹⁴They came as a great breach of waters, and vnder this calamitie they come on heapes. ¹⁵Feare is turned vpon mee: and they pursue my soule as the winde, and mine health passeth away as a cloude.
¹⁶Therefore my soule is now powred out vpon me, and the dayes of affliction haue taken holde on me. ¹⁷It pearceth my bones in the night, and my sinewes take no rest. ¹⁸For the great vehemencie is my garment changed, which compasseth me about as the colar of my coate.

¹⁹He hath cast me into the myre, and I am become like ashes and dust. ²⁰Whe I cry vnto thee, thou doest not heare me, neither regardest me, when I stand vp. ²¹Thou turnest thy selfe cruelly against me, and art enemie vnto mee with the strength of thine hand. ²²Thou takest me vp and causest mee to ride vpon the winde, and makest my strength to faile. ²³Surely I knowe that thou wilt bring mee to death, and to the house appoynted for all the liuing. ²⁴Doubtles none can stretch his hand vnto the graue, though they cry in his destruction. ²⁵Did not I weepe with him that was in trouble? was not my soule in heauinesse for the poore? ²⁶Yet when I looked for good, euill came vnto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkenesse. ²⁷My bowels did boyle without rest: for the dayes of affliction are come vpon me. ²⁸I went mourning without sunne: I stood vp in the congregation and cryed. ²⁹I am a brother to the dragons, and a companion to the ostriches. ³⁰My skinne is blacke vpon me, and my bones are burnt with heate. ³¹Therefore mine harpe is turned to mourning, and mine organs into the voyce of them that weepe.

¹I made a couenant with mine eyes: why then should I thinke on a mayde? ²For what portion should I haue of God from aboue? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on hie? ³Is not destruction to the wicked and strange punishment to the workers of iniquitie? ⁴Doeth not he beholde my wayes and tell all my steps? ⁵If I haue walked in vanitie, or if my foote hath made haste to deceite, ⁶Let God weigh me in the iust balance, and he shall know mine vprightnes. ⁷If my steppe hath turned out of the way, or mine heart hath walked after mine eye, or if any blot hath cleaued to mine handes, ⁸Let me sowe, and let another eate: yea, let my plantes be rooted out. ⁹If mine heart hath bene deceiued by a woman, or if I haue layde wayte at the doore of my neighbour, ¹⁰Let my wife grinde vnto another man, and let other men bow downe

vpon her: ¹¹For this is a wickednes, and iniquitie to bee condemned: ¹²Yea, this is a fire that shall deuoure to destruction, and which shall roote out al mine increase, ¹³If I did contemne the iudgement of my seruant, and of my mayde, when they did contend with me, ¹⁴What then shall I do when God standeth vp? and when he shall visit me, what shall I answere? ¹⁵He that hath made me in the wombe, hath he not made him? hath not he alone facioned vs in the wombe? ¹⁶If I restrained the poore of their desire, or haue caused the eyes of the widow to faile, ¹⁷Or haue eaten my morsels alone, and the fatherles hath not eaten thereof, ¹⁸(For from my youth hee hath growen vp with me as with a father, and from my mothers wombe I haue bene a guide vnto her) ¹⁹If I haue seene any perish for want of clothing, or any poore without couering, ²⁰If his loynes haue not blessed me, because he was warmed with the fleece of my sheepe, ²¹If I haue lift vp mine hande against the fatherlesse, when I saw that I might helpe him in the gate, ²²Let mine arme fal from my shoulder, and mine arme be broken from the bone. ²³For Gods punishment was fearefull vnto me, and I could not be deliuered from his highnes. ²⁴If I made gold mine hope, or haue sayd to the wedge of golde, Thou art my confidence, ²⁵If I reioyced because my substance was great, or because mine hand had gotten much, ²⁶If I did behold the sunne, when it shined, or the moone, walking in her brightnes, ²⁷If mine heart did flatter me in secrete, or if my mouth did kisse mine hand, ²⁸(This also had bene an iniquitie to be condemned: for I had denied the God aboue) ²⁹If I reioyced at his destruction that hated me, or was mooued to ioye when euill came vpon him, ³⁰Neither haue I suffred my mouth to sinne, by wishing a curse vnto his soule. ³¹Did not the men of my Tabernacle say, Who shall giue vs of his flesh? we can not bee satisfied. ³²The stranger did not lodge in the streete, but I opened my doores vnto him, that went by the way. ³³If I haue hid my sinne, as Adam, concealing mine iniquitie in my bosome, ³⁴Though I could haue made afraid a great multitude, yet the most contemptible of the families did feare me: so I kept silence, and went not out of the doore.

³⁵Oh that I had some to heare me! beholde my signe that the Almightye will witnesse for me: though mine aduersary should write a booke against me, ³⁶Woulde not I take it vpon my shoulder, and binde it as a crowne vnto me? ³⁷I will tell him the nomber of my goings, and goe vnto him as to a prince. ³⁸If my lande cry against me, or the furrowes thereof complayne together, ³⁹If I haue eaten the fruites thereof without siluer: or if I haue grieved the soules of the masters thereof, ⁴⁰Let thistles growe in steade of wheate, and cockle in the stead of Barley. The wordes of Iob are ended.

¹So these three men ceased to answer Iob, because he esteemed himselfe iust. ²Then the wrath of Elihu the sonne of Barachel the Buzite, of the familie of Ram, was kindled: his wrath, I say, was kindled against Iob, because he iustified himselfe more then God. ³Also his anger was kindled against his three friends, because they could not finde an answer, and yet condemned Iob. ⁴(Now Elihu had wayted til Iob had spoken: for they were more ancient in yeeres then he) ⁵So when Elihu saw, that there was none answer in the mouth of the three men, his wrath was kindled. ⁶Therefore Elihu the sonne of Barachel, the Buzite answered, and sayd, I am yong in yeres, and ye are ancient: therefore I doubted, and was afraide to shewe you mine opinion. ⁷For I said, The dayes shall speake, and the multitude of yeeres shall teach wisdom. ⁸Surely there is a spirite in man, but the inspiration of the Almightye giueth vnderstanding.

⁹Great men are not alway wise, neither doe the aged alway vnderstand iudgement.
¹⁰Therefore I say, Heare me, and I will shew also mine opinion.
¹¹Behold, I did waite vpon your wordes, and hearkened vnto your knowledge, whiles you sought out reasons. ¹²Yea, when I had considered you, lo, there was none of you that reprobued Iob, nor answered his wordes: ¹³Lest ye should say, We haue found wisdom: for God hath cast him downe, and no man. ¹⁴Yet hath he not directed his words to me, neyther will I answer him by your wordes. ¹⁵Then they fearing, answered no more, but left off their talke. ¹⁶When I had wayted (for they spake not, but stood still and answered no more) ¹⁷Then answered I in my turne, and I shewed mine opinion. ¹⁸For I am full of matter, and the spirite within me compelleth me. ¹⁹Beholde, my belly is as the wine, which hath no vent, and like the new bottels that brast. ²⁰Therefore will I speake, that I may take breath: I will open my lippes, and will answer. ²¹I will not now accept the person of man, neyther will I giue titles to man. ²²For I may not giue titles, lest my Maker should take me away suddenly.

¹Wherefore, Iob, I pray thee, heare my talke and hearken vnto all my wordes. ²Beholde now, I haue opened my mouth: my tongue hath spoken in my mouth. ³My words are in the vprightnesse of mine heart, and my lippes shall speake pure knowledge. ⁴The Spirite of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath giuen me life. ⁵If thou canst giue me answer, prepare thy selfe and stand before me. ⁶Beholde, I am according to thy wish in Gods stead: I am also formed of the clay. ⁷Beholde, my terrour shall not feare thee, neither shall mine hand be heauie vpon thee. ⁸Doubtles thou hast spoken in mine eares, and I haue heard the voyce of thy wordes. ⁹I am cleane, without sinne: I am innocent, and there is none iniquitie in me. ¹⁰Lo, he hath found occasions against me, and counted me for his enemy. ¹¹He hath put my feete in the stockes, and looketh narrowly vnto all my paths. ¹²Behold, in this hast thou not done right: I will answer thee, that God is greater then man. ¹³Why doest thou striue against him? for he

doeth not giue account of all his matters. ¹⁴For God speaketh once or twise, and one seeth it not. ¹⁵In dreames and visions of the night, when sleepe falleth vpon men, and they sleepe vpon their beds, ¹⁶Then he openeth the eares of men, euen by their corrections, which he had sealed, ¹⁷That he might cause man to turne away from his enterprise, and that he might hide the pride of man, ¹⁸And keepe backe his soule from the pit, and that his life should not passe by the sword. ¹⁹He is also stricken with sorow vpon his bed, and the grieve of his bones is sore, ²⁰So that his life causeth him to abhorre bread, and his soule daintie meate. ²¹His flesh faileth that it can not be seene, and his bones which were not seene, clatter. ²²So his soule draweth to the graue, and his life to the buriers. ²³If there be a messenger with him, or an interpreter, one of a thousand to declare vnto man his righteousness, ²⁴Then will he haue mercie vpon him, and will say, Deliuer him, that he go not downe into the pit: for I haue receiued a reconciliation. ²⁵Then shall his flesh be as fresh as a childe, and shall returne as in the dayes of his youth. ²⁶He shall pray vnto God, and he will be fauourable vnto him, and he shall see his face with ioy: for he will render vnto man his righteousness. ²⁷He looketh vpon men, and if one say, I haue sinned, and peruerted righteousness, and it did not profite me, ²⁸He will deliuer his soule from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light. ²⁹Lo, all these things will God worke twise or thrise with a man, ³⁰That he may turne backe his soule from the pit, to be illuminate in the light of the liuing. ³¹Marke well, O Iob, and heare me: keepe silence, and I will speake. ³²If there be matter, answere me, and speak: for I desire to iustifie thee. ³³If thou hast not, heare me: holde thy tongue, and I will teach thee wisdom.

¹Moreouer Elihu answered, and saide, ²Heare my wordes, ye wise men, and hearken vnto me, ye that haue knowledge. ³For the

eare tryeth the words, as the mouth tasteth meate. ⁴Let vs seeke iudgement among vs, and let vs knowe among our selues what is good. ⁵For Iob hath saide, I am righteous, and God hath taken away my iudgement. ⁶Should I lye in my right? my wound of the arrowe is grievous without my sinne. ⁷What man is like Iob, that drinketh scornfulnesse like water? ⁸Which goeth in the companie of them that worke iniquitie, and walketh with wicked men? ⁹For he hath saide, It profiteth a man nothing that he should walke with God. ¹⁰Therefore hearken vnto me, ye men of wisdom, God forbid that wickednesse should be in God, and iniquitie in the Almighty. ¹¹For he will render vnto man according to his worke, and cause euery one to finde according to his way. ¹²And certainly God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty peruert iudgement. ¹³Whome hath he appointed ouer the earth beside him selfe? or who hath placed the whole worlde? ¹⁴If he set his heart vpon man, and gather vnto him selfe his spirit and his breath, ¹⁵All flesh shall perish together, and man shall returne vnto dust. ¹⁶And if thou hast vnderstanding, heare this and hearken to the voyce of my wordes. ¹⁷Shal he that hateth iudgement, gouerne? and wilt thou iudge him wicked that is most iust? ¹⁸Wilt thou say vnto a King, Thou art wicked? or to princes, Ye are vngodly? ¹⁹How much lesse to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, and regardeth not the rich, more then the poore? for they be all the worke of his handes. ²⁰They shall die suddenly, and the people shalbe troubled at midnight, and they shall passe foorth and take away the mightie without hand. ²¹For his eyes are vpon the wayes of man, and he seeth all his goings. ²²There is no darkenesse nor shadowe of death, that the workers of iniquitie might be hid therein. ²³For he will not lay on man so much, that he should enter into iudgement with God. ²⁴He shall breake the mightie without seeking, and shall set vp other in their stead. ²⁵Therefore shall he declare their works: he shall turne the night, and they shalbe destroyed. ²⁶He striketh them as wicked men in the places of the seers, ²⁷Because they haue turned backe from him, and would not consider all his wayes: ²⁸So that they haue caused the voyce of the poore to come vnto him, and he hath heard the cry of the afflicted. ²⁹And when he giueth quietnesse, who can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who can beholde him, whether it be vpon nations, or vpon a man onely? ³⁰Because the hypocrite doeth reigne, and because the people are snared. ³¹Surely it appertaineth vnto God to say, I haue pardoned, I will not destroy. ³²But if I see not, teach thou me: if I haue done wickedly, I will doe no more. ³³Wil he performe the thing through thee? for thou hast reprobued it, because that thou hast chosen, and not I. now speake what thou knowest. ³⁴Let men of vnderstanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken vnto me. ³⁵Iob hath not spoken of knowledge, neyther were his wordes according to wisdom.

³⁶I desire that Iob may be tryed, vnto the ende touching the answeres for wicked men. ³⁷For he addeth rebellion vnto his sinne: he clappeth his handes among vs, and multiplieth his wordes against God.

¹Elihu spake moreouer, and said, ²Thinkest thou this right, that thou hast said, I am more righteous then God? ³For thou hast said, What profiteth it thee and what auaieth it me, to purge me from my sinne? ⁴Therefore will I answere thee, and thy companions with thee. ⁵Looke vnto the heauen, and see and behold the cloudes which are hyer then thou. ⁶If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him, yea, when thy sinnes be many, what doest thou vnto him? ⁷If thou be righteous, what giuest thou vnto him? or what receiueh he at thine hand? ⁸Thy wickednesse may hurt a man as thou art: and thy righteousness may profite ye sonne of man. ⁹They cause many that are oppressed, to crye, which crye out for ye violence of the mightie. ¹⁰But none saith, Where is God that made me, which giueth songs in the nyght? ¹¹Which teacheth vs more then the beastes of the earth, and giueth vs more wisdome then the foules of the heauen. ¹²Then they crye because of the violence of the wicked, but he answereth not. ¹³Surely God will not heare vanitie, neyther will the Almighty regard it. ¹⁴Although thou sayest to God, Thou wilt not regard it, yet iudgement is before him: trust thou in him. ¹⁵But now because his anger hath not visited, nor called to count the euill with great extremitie, ¹⁶Therefore Iob openeth his mouth in vaine, and multiplieth wordes without knowledge.

¹Elihu also proceeded and sayde, ²Suffer me a litle, and I will instruct thee: for I haue yet to speake on Gods behalfe. ³I will fetch my knowledge afarre off, and will attribute righteousness vnto my Maker. ⁴For truely my wordes shall not be false, and he that is perfect in knowledge,
